"How truly shameless." Cao Tian cursed in a low voice as a loathing look could be seen on his face. Before this, Yue Changkong was arrogantly insulting Qin Wentian and after he lost, he immediately addressed Qin Wentian as Brother Qin? Could it be that Qin Wentian had to reply politely back to such a person? Can these people not see through the act Yue Changkong was putting up?

If the person who had won was Yue Changkong, would he still refer to Qin Wentian as Brother Qin? Most probably, he would use some unknown methods to insult and humiliate Qin Wentian.

"The Qingcheng Realmlord has occupied one constellation sea. But there are still three more. Although I have lost this battle, I'm not willing to give up, I will still try to contend for one of the other three positions." Yue Changkong slowly spoke. This caused Cao Tian and the others to start...Truly someone who won't give up until he reached his objectives.

Yue Changkong was using all methods he could use. No matter how the others looked at him, he wanted to enter the Ziwei Divine Court. Even if he had lost to Qin Wentian, he didn't feel ashamed at all.

One could only say that this person was truly way too scheming.

"No sense of shame." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. After that, he glanced towards everyone, "Before this I didn't wish to battle because I have no intention to occupy any of the constellation seas. The geniuses of the Mystic Region are countless in number. I, Qin, don't dare to claim that I'm unrivalled. I still hope to leave this position to a truly dazzling geniuses. I'm willing to give it up."

When everyone heard this, they couldn't help but be stunned. The reason why Qin Wentian challenged Yue Changkong actually wasn't to seize the position of this constellation lord of this constellation sea. He didn't care about the glory having this position would bring and was willing to give it up. This really caused them to be speechless. Qin Wentian had such strength and talent and could really have a very high chance to enter the Ziwei Divine Court. Could it be that the Ziwei Divine Court held no attraction for him?

"Seems like he must have already decided to go somewhere else." A weird voice rang out from an expert of the Dragon Pool Manor. Many people instantly glanced at Luoshen Lei. Evidently, many felt that it was very possible. Qin Wentian was preparing to leave the Mystic Region to join the Luoshen Clan.

Qin Wentian coldly glanced over. The Dragon Pool Manor was harboring unfathomable motives. If the Ziwei Divine Court mistakenly believe in this, what would they think?

"Hehe." Donghuang Ying coldly laughed.

"Ridiculous." Qin Wentian coldly replied.

At this moment, in the direction of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, that old man calmly spoke, "Everyone here still can be considered reputable in the Mystic Region. It's better to pay attention to boundaries when speaking."

The expressions of many people flashed. A major character from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy actually spoke for Qin Wentian.

"Qin Wentian and the sacred academy are linked by karma, he was once a disciple in the lower world. After this convention concludes, he will head to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to cultivate. Does anyone have any objections?" That old man spoke again. Everyone instantly fell silent. The expert from the Dragon Pool Manor turned green, his face was publicly smacked.

Qin Wentian would head to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to cultivate. Would he dare to say that he wanted to object?

The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was a super power in the Mystic Region and they have branches all over the world. It wasn't a power their Dragon Pool Manor could afford to offend. If Qin Wentian wanted to head there to cultivate, it was very normal that he didn't join the Ziwei Divine Court. The environment in the sacred academy wasn't in anyway inferior to the Ziwei Divine Court.

No wonder Qin Wentian didn't participate earlier. So he had already been given heavy recognition by the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and would head there to cultivate in the future.

Many people were instantly enlightened as they understood everything.

The people from the Donghuang Clan also had nothing to say. Even Donghuang Ying said nothing. Nobody doubted Qin Wentian again.

"For this position of constellation lord, I will let the other geniuses of the Mystic Region take my seat." Qin Wentian slowly spoke before his figure vanished from the spot. This caused many people to sigh. The convention of the myriad realms, there were countless world overlords and to the vast majority of them, the position of a constellation lord was far out of their reach. Yet, Qin Wentian could give it up simply just like this.

The dispute between Qin Wentian and Yue Changkong also concluded temporarily. Very swiftly, there were people heading towards the constellation sea which Yue Changkong used to occupy and the challenges continued. Yue Changkong also acted like what he said, he defeated an expert that was occupying another constellation sea and took over it. Cao Tian and Ten Miles Springwind silently cursed at Yue Changkong's shamelessness. He didn't want face after his defeat and still had the gall to head up to challenge others. If they were Qin Wentian, they would definitely storm into whichever constellation sea he was in and oust him from there again and again.

However, Qin Wentian didn't have the interest to do this. He also wouldn't expose Yue Changkong. With this fake being present, the Ziwei Divine Court wouldn't pay any attention to him. If it wasn't for Yue Changkong injuring Luoshen Lei, he wouldn't have even stood out in the first place. Now, all he wanted was a quiet place to cultivate.

In the Time Realm, time flowed by and several years passed. However, maybe only a few days passed on the outside when calculated using the flow of time in here. To many cultivators, this added time was naturally something extremely precious. They found it a pity that they couldn't enter the Time Realm freely.

Today, there were no longer any challengers for the constellation seas and the devil battle platform. The commotion of the heavenly deity mountain also died down. Everything was near its end. Qin Wentian has long brought his friends and family back to their residential palace to cultivate. He was waiting for the convention to end!

Chapter 1796: Heavenly Deity's Disciple

In the time realm, in the residential palace Qin Wentian was in, a bright light suddenly shot through the air. Many people then gathered at the source and at this moment, from a nearby courtyard, a figure walked out. This figure was extremely young and handsome, exuding a sunshine-like aura. Right now, a satisfied smile could be seen in his eyes.

"Mengchen, not bad." Qin Wentian praised. Jun Mengchen smiled, "Thanks. Senior brother, you've already broken through for such a long time. I finally broke through now, these few years have not been a waste of my effort."

So it turned out that just earlier, Jun Mengchen just broke through. He had comprehended a world heart and became a world overlord.

One more world overlord appeared in Qin Wentian's group.

"Why are you always learning from your senior brother?" Nanfeng Yaoyue smiled. "You directly manifested a world heart before comprehending a heavenheart mandate. This world heart should be an extraordinary one, right?"

Although Nanfeng Yaoyue was happy, she also felt a little disappointment in her heart. Those from the junior generations gradually surpassed her. After all, when back in Azure Mystic, she was the Southern Phoenix Matriarch!

"Hehe." Jun Mengchen smiled in a silly manner. "I have yet to give a name to my world heart. Senior brother, why don't you give me a suggestion?"

"In that case, show me your world heart." Qin Wentian laughed.

"Right." Jun Mengchen nodded and released his world heart. In an instant, Qin Wentian and the others felt that they were within a world. This entire world belonged to Jun Mengchen, furious gales and crackling thunder could be seen, ice and fire also co-existed together. With just a single thought, Jun Mengchen could cause the atmosphere of the world to change.

"Senior brother take a look at my attacks." After Jun Mengchen spoke, boundless energy from within that world started to gather as a terrifying storm appeared. A moment later, all the gathered energy attacked in a direction, brimming with apocalyptic might, it was terrifying to the extreme.

However, in the next instant, everything disappeared, transforming into nothingness. Jun Mengchen stood there smiling with a look of satisfaction on his face. He finally broke through to the world overlord level and was naturally extremely happy about it.

"You can use world force. That scene earlier was so terrifying, like the end of the world. Since your world heart is extraordinary, why not name it as 'Apocalyptic World'?" Qin Wentian spoke. Jun Mengchen's eyes flashed before he smiled and nodded his head. "Good, I'll name my world heart as 'Apocalyptic World.' This name sounds tyrannical enough."

"Seems like we must head over and look for Ten Miles Springwind and have a drink to celebrate this." Qin Wentian smiled. Jun Mengchen spoke, "You want to drink more of his wine again? He will feel like you are wanting his life."

"That fellow hid away many vats of good wine. I wonder how much does he have exactly."

After that, Qin Wentian transmitted his voice and informed Ten Miles Springwind and very soon, their group of friends came over to partake in the lively atmosphere, and asked Jun Mengchen to display his world heart to them. All of them were full of praises for his world heart.

After the banquet was prepared, they stayed in a pavilion in the residential palace and began to drink wine and make merry, ignoring all external things.

In the central area of the Time Realm, even if things were extremely chaotic there, it has nothing to do with them. Such a state of heart was extremely rare. Not many people could achieve it.

"The convention seems to be near conclusion. The battle on the devil platform grew more and more intense as extraordinary major characters pitted themselves against each other." By the wine table, Cao Tian spoke.

"Indeed. Wentian, do you still remember that Absolute Beginning Overlord you met before in my inn? Remember when he invited you to drink and you rejected and he felt very unhappy about it?" Ten Miles Springwind laughed as he asked. Qin Wentian nodded. He did remember the scene where there were many ordinary world overlords wanting to pay their respects to the Absolute Beginning Overlord. If Ten Miles Springwind didn't mention this, Qin Wentian would have already forgotten it.

"That fellow really thinks he is very powerful. He went up the devil platform and challenged a major character from the Cao Clan. Can you guess the ending? The Cao Clan's expert merely released the power of his heavenheart mandate and Absolute Beginning was instantly forced off the platform and was even injured to the point where he coughed blood. His fame doesn't deserve its reputation but from this, one can see that between different world overlords, the degree of disparity in strength could truly be very large. Even if you are really very powerful, there might be even stronger experts who can easily dominate you." Ten Miles Springwind sighed.

"No matter how many experts there are, Qin Wentian and Yue Changkong's battle wouldn't be forgotten." Phoenix stared at Qin Wentian as she giggled. "This time, you became famous in the Mystic Region. After the convention ends, the name Qingcheng Realmlord would surely circulate around."

Qin Wentian smiled but he didn't say anything. At this time, there seemed to be light descending from the heavens, resembling a divine glow. The eyes of everyone narrowed and glanced there. Old Ghost mumbled in a low voice, "The experts from the three hegemonic powers have arrived. Seems like the convention is at its ending phase."

"Should we go and take a look?" Phoenix smiled and asked.

"There's nothing nice to see there. How can it beat drinking here?" Cao Tian spoke.

"Damn. My wine is really going to run out soon." Ten Miles Springwind sighed, feeling pain in his heart.

In the central area of the Time Realm, the experts there were as common as clouds as the attention of countless people were focused there. The vast majority of world overlords all headed there to witness this and the residential palaces were all empty. Only Qin Wentian's group still continued to drink and feast here.

Qin Wentian and his group didn't worry about what was happening there. Since Qin Wentian decided to give up the chance to compete for fame in the convention, his state of heart naturally was as still as water. This time around, he already had great benefits from coming to this convention and a few unexpected surprises. The other things were no longer important.

There were some characters in the central area that were extremely dazzling, exuding boundless magnificence. Even if Yue Changkong had lost to Qin Wentian before, it didn't matter. He finally got his wish and gained the Ziwei Divine Court's favor, entering it as a disciple. Although he was defeated in the convention, his future was still destined to be incomparably radiant.

As for the Qingcheng Realmlord, no one asked about him. Although he had defeated Yue Changkong that day and occupied the position of a constellation lord, he had voluntarily given the position up and would head to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy in the near future for cultivation. This matter naturally couldn't be hidden from the Ziwei Divine Court and because of this, the Ziwei Divine Court didn't mention anything about Qin Wentian.

In the crowd, Donghuang Ying's beautiful eyes shone brightly. She was thinking about the young man that was heavily recognized by the Ziwei Divine Court. So what if Yue Changkong had been defeated before? He was able to bear the humiliation of defeat and would rise up again in the future. Right now, he finally joined the Ziwei Divine Court as a formal disciple and would have opportunities to meet with heavenly deities. His future accomplishments would definitely be extremely glorious. He was a character that could become the equal of the Sword Monarch. There was no need to doubt that he would surpass Qin Wentian.

The Heavenly Deity Mountain also accepted many transcendent-level world overlords. These were all people who found good fortune on the Heavenly Deity Mountain that descended. They were suitable to cultivate there and had high talents.

Only the Great Devil Divine Palace didn't accept any disciples. The person who obtained first in the devil battle platform and acquired the devil god armor and devil god spear, was the leader of a huge devil-path realm. The realm he controlled was known as the Ten Thousand Devils Realm and his title was the Ten Thousand Devils Realmlord. His combat prowess was extremely strong and he defeated numerous major characters. Naturally, some of those truly powerful experts in the convention didn't bother to participate in the fighting.

At the end, the three hegemonic powers announced that this convention has concluded. Next, the three hegemonic powers would reveal some cultivation arts, allowing the people who came here to cultivate. For those who are willing to stay behind, they can cultivate for a complete one hundred year period in the Time Realm, starting from the day when the convention officially concludes.

Because of the flow of time in the Time Realm, a hundred years spent cultivating here was equal to only a year on the outside. To people who needed more time for their cultivation, this was a huge reward. Who wouldn't be willing to accept this? They would have an advantage of a hundred years compared to those who were not in the Time Realm.

Maybe, only the three hegemonic powers wouldn't mind it. A hundred years more, so what? To them, it wasn't of any significance.

"Wentian, do you plan to cultivate in the Time Realm or leave?" Ten Miles Springwind asked Qin Wentian.

"Right now, I've only cultivated for over five hundred years. Since they want to gift me with an extra one hundred years of time of cultivation in the time realm, it is equivalent to one-fifth of my total cultivation time. Do you think I would bear to leave?" Qin Wentian laughed. To him, this was even greater than the temptation of joining the Ziwei Divine Court. Since he has a free one hundred year period to cultivate in the Time Realm, why not take it?

"You just caused Old Ghost to suffer a setback again by mentioning your age." Ten Miles Springwind laughed.

"A free hundred year period. We have to stay for sure." Jun Mengchen spoke.

"Alright, in that case, we will remain here to accompany you guys." Ten Miles Springwind casually stated. In any case, it would only be about a year worth of time in the outside world. They might as well just cultivate here. No one had any objections.

"However, I still have things I need to settle outside. When the time comes, I might exit earlier. If you guys want to cultivate, I can wait for you all in Time City." Qin Wentian spoke. Right now, most probably only a few days have passed in the outside world. When his uncle reached Time City, he definitely had to go out.

"I'm fine with it." Ten Miles Springwind casually spoke.

It wasn't only them, the vast majority of experts here decided to stay. Only the major characters from some peak powers left. A hundred years to them held no attraction.

There were countless world overlords in the Time Realm and things were still very lively. Also, the three hegemonic powers did bring plenty of cultivation arts here and circulated them to all the world overlords in the Time Realm.

Unconsciously, time slowly flowed by. Qin Wentian was in closed-door seclusion, trying to gain insights into the laws of time. He wanted to attempt to integrate the time laws into his world heart. In that case, his world heart would only evolve further and be even more terrifying.

However, at the world overlord realm, things would get more difficult the further you walked on this path. Success wouldn't come simply after a short while.

After several tens of years, the majority of people who stayed in the Time Realm, still remained here. It was said that in the outside world, only a few months have passed. But this was only a minor matter.

Today, shocking news was circulated around the Time Realm. The source of this news was actually from the Donghuang Clan.

The Time King's inheritor, the heaven chosen Yue Changkong, headed to the Ziwei Divine Court after leaving the Time Realm. In a few months worth of time, he passed all the tests there and was now a disciple of a heavenly deity. For a period of time, he became the young man with the strongest background in the Mystic Region. He was incomparably glorious and many were filled with envy for him.

After Qin Wentian learned of this news, he smiled and shook his head. Most probably, the Ziwei Divine Court didn't wish to have another character like the Sword Monarch rising up whom they couldn't control. Naturally, it was also a fact that Yue Changkong's talent was extremely outstanding.

Not long after this news was circulated out, Yue Changkong actually was allowed entry back into the Time Realm again. For a heavenly deity's disciple, exceptions naturally could be made.

His purpose in coming back was to broach the subject of marriage to the Donghuang Clan. He wanted to marry Donghuang Ying and the Donghuang Clan immediately accepted it.

For a period of time, Yue Changkong became the focal point of many people. He was the inheritor of a godking and a heavenly deity's disciple. He also had the backing of the Sunmoon Sacred Mountain and was the son-in-law of the Donghuang Clan. Right now in the Mystic Region, how many young geniuses had impressive enough backgrounds that could be compared to him?!

Chapter 1797: Hint

When Yue Changkong's name once again resounded throughout the Time Realm, Qin Wentian was currently in closed-door seclusion. He was contemplating on how to fuse his insights into the laws of time into his world heart.

He had a dao bone in his body. The insights he gained through these years allowed him to have quite a high attainment in the time laws. In fact, he had managed to fuse his time laws with many of his heavenheart mandates, evolving them into more terrifying ones. However, the time laws were by nature, extremely ethereal. Right now, his attempt to transform his world heart has not been completed yet, it felt like he was lacking something.

His world heart was by nature an extremely powerful one originally. If he managed to add in the power of time laws into it, it would surely be many times more terrifying. It would be able to allow him to break through the 'transcendent-level' of world overlords and allow him to become a truly major character among world overlords. But naturally, this was merely a theory. He hasn't fought with a hegemonic-level world overlord before and had only witnessed them in combat. But it was true they were really immensely powerful.

Even for the weakest hegemonic-level world overlords, their world hearts were unfathomably strong.

Since Qin Wentian couldn't make any breakthrough in fusion even after a long time, he decided to temporarily end his seclusion and relax for a period of time.

When Qin Wentian exited his seclusion and went outside, he saw a figure moving towards him. She was clad in a phoenix robe and exuded grace and elegance, even a sense of holiness. It was none other than the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Nanfeng Yaoyue.

At this moment, a radiant smile could be seen on her beautiful face. She made no attempts to mask her joy and stared at Qin Wentian, "I've broken through."

Qin Wentian started and looked at her. As expected, her aura was indeed more outstanding. He couldn't help but smile, "Finally, you've gotten your wish."

"Mhm." Nanfeng Yaoyue nodded her head. After that she let out a joyful laughter that could stir the hearts of people. Her beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian as she smiled, "Wentian, thank you."

"Yaoyue, don't forget how we reached here. Back then, you were the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and have helped me out many times." Qin Wentian smiled.

"But you have no idea what breaking through means to us from the older generations of Azure Mystic." Nanfeng Yaoyue sighed. Once, she chased fervently after the ancient emperor realm. And now, she was already a world overlord. A world overlord in Azure Mystic was basically a God.

If there was no Qin Wentian, it was very possible she would never have such accomplishments today.

"It's only a matter of time. There will be a day where people from Azure Mystic all enters the world overlord realm." Qin Wentian laughed. Not only the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, during these years, a devil cultivator from the Myriad Devil Islands, an expert from the Battle Saint Tribe, have all respectively broken through to the world overlord realm. The amount of world overlords around him gradually grew in number.

Qing`er was also very close to breaking through. She was working very hard in her cultivation, trying to enter the world overlord realm.

"I'm so angry!" At this moment, a white shadow flew towards Qin Wentian. It was none other than Little Rascal. This little fellow was as lazy as ever. Qin Wentian caught hold of him, "Who made you angry?"

"Earlier, that fellow Ten Miles Springwind brought me and Purgatory out for a walk and we learned that Yue Changkong has returned to the Time Realm again. Right now, on the outside, many people were discussing about you two. They felt that Yue Changkong's defeat was only temporary. In the future, he would surpass you for sure and become a character equal to the Sword Monarch. That sore defeated loser, how is he qualified?" Little Rascal angrily spoke.

Qin Wentian laughed involuntarily as he shook his head, "You are you bothered about such things? You do nothing but laze around everyday, you might as well take some time to cultivate and hurry up in breaking through to the world overlord realm."

As for the matter regarding Yue Changkong, he really didn't care about it. Let Yue Changkong do what he wants, let the people outside say what they like. Could it be that he can control their mouths?

Yue Changkong was now a heavenly deity's disciple. Leaving aside people who were discussing about him, there would surely be many who wanted to fawn on him.

In truth, things were like what Qin Wentian has expected. Right now, the Donghuang Clan's residential palace was filled to the brim, countless experts came to congratulate them, including many from the various major powers. Other than giving the Donghuang Clan face, the other reason was naturally because Yue Changkong was residing there.

The Donghuang Clan prepared a sumptuous banquet to treat everyone. Yue Changkong was like the moon surrounded by stars, radiating boundless glory but he still maintained his humble attitude and treated everyone courteously.

"I heard that Yue Changkong has only cultivated for over eight hundred years, not even a thousand years yet. But even so, he already has such outstanding accomplishments and now even has a heavenly deity as his master. I can see the rise of another Sword Monarch."

"That's only natural. The Godking of Time is a legendary character and can tell the past and future. Back then when Jian Junlai attended that convention, the Time Monument Inscription had appeared and Jian Junlai managed to comprehend it. For this convention, the same monument appeared once more but the person who comprehended it was Yue Changkong. There's naturally no need to say anything more. Everything is already destined."

"Although I've always felt that the Donghuang Clan was a major power in the Mystic Region, I still have to say this time around that the Donghuang Clan has just gained a very fine son-in-law."

The atmosphere here was extremely lively. The experts from the Donghuang Clan all had smiles on their faces. As the ruler of an immortal realm, their status was indeed very high. What did they lack? The only thing they lacked was a heavenly deity expert. This was the ultimate goal of their Donghuang Clan.

Right now, Yue Changkong has appeared. Although he wasn't a junior of the Donghuang Clan, but if he married Donghuang Ying, he would become a son-in-law of their clan. Hence, when Yue Changkong brought up the topic of marriage, the Donghuang Clan didn't hesitate at all and instantly agreed.

"Everyone, stop praising him or his head would be floating in the clouds." Donghuang Ying smiled. During these few days, she felt extremely glorious. Her glory now exceeded the glory of her being the little princess of the Donghuang Clan. All these were brought to her by Yue Changkong. Her judgement wasn't wrong.

Even now, she was still moody about Qin Wentian's matter. Time will prove everything, including the fact that she was right. Her choice to choose Yue Changkong's friendship and abandoning Qin Wentian was the correct one. Also, she would soon become Yue Changkong's woman.

"Haha, little princess isn't married to him yet but you are already starting to speak for your future husband." Everyone laughed, causing Donghuang Ying to blush slightly.

The banquet continued and more and more visitors came by. The Donghuang Clan accepted and welcomed everyone. Naturally, ordinary world overlords knew their own bounds. This place wasn't a place where they could come.

What status did Yue Changkong have now? Other than important characters, those world overlords who didn't have enough status couldn't see him. He naturally wouldn't mingle around with everyone at the banquet.

He was now in a courtyard at the back of the residential palace meeting with a group of experts. These experts were from the Dragon Pool Manor of Time City.

Actually, the status of the Dragon Pool Manor wasn't high enough and by rights, they shouldn't be able to meet with him. But even so, he still agreed to the meeting.

"The most dazzling person of this convention is undoubtedly Young Master Yue." An expert from the Dragon Pool Manor laughed. Such fawning words when used on Yue Changkong, wouldn't cause him to lose any face.

"Senior is too polite. I still have many aspects where I'm inferior. Back then, wasn't I defeated? I wanted to express good will but was insulted instead." Yue Changkong smiled, as though the person he was talking about wasn't him.

The eyes of the experts from the Dragon Pool Manor flashed. Yue Changkong actually voluntarily spoke of his humiliation? What does this mean?

"It's just a single loss, how can it define you? As for that person who slandered Young Master Yue, why is there a need to take his words to heart? He is merely a robber, incomparably despicable yet he still dares to question the character of others." An expert from the Dragon Pool Manor icily spoke.

"Oh yes, by the way, does the Dragon Pool Manor plan to forget everything about the robbery of the Heavenly Immortal Tower?" Yue Changkong suddenly asked.

The experts from the Dragon Pool Manor stared at him in puzzlement. After that, one of them replied, "What can we do if we don't give up? Qin Wentian already has the support of the Luoshen Clan and would be heading to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to cultivate. My Dragon Pool Manor doesn't dare to do anything to him."

"Hmph, how can a power from the Desolate Region interfere in matters of our Mystic Region?" Yue Changkong coldly snorted. "As for going to the sacred academy to cultivate, it was a fact that the Qingcheng Realmlord did commit the robbery. This is a private grudge between your Dragon Pool Manor and him. I don't think the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has any right to interfere in that."

"This…" The eyes of the experts from the Dragon Pool Manor gleamed sharply as they stared at Yue Changkong. Yue Changkong's hint was growing increasingly obvious.

Seems like Yue Changkong was also very unhappy about Qin Wentian.

"The Dragon Pool Manor has developed for many years but cannot be considered a peak power yet. At most, they can only be a subordinate force. Irregardless, what you all lack is a backing. In the future if there's a chance to, I'll suggest this to my master and see if it is possible for the Dragon Pool Manor to directly become a vassal force under the Ziwei Divine Court." Yue Changkong casually spoke, making a promise that sounded extremely dispensable.

After speaking a while longer, the experts from the Dragon Pool Manor stood up and bid farewell. When they left, their hearts weren't calm at all and they silently cursed Yue Changkong for being a despicable character.

If the Dragon Pool Manor didn't do things according to Yue Changkong's hint, given his character, would he find the Dragon Pool Manor for revenge in the future?

This, was very possible.

Also, if they did things according to his hint, there might be great fortune for them. From now on, the Dragon Pool Manor might be able to become the Ziwei Divine Court's subordinates.

In this case, how should the Dragon Pool Manor choose?

Yue Changkong didn't seem to say anything. In truth, he has said whatever that needs to be said. After the people from the Dragon Pool Manor left, Donghuang Ying walked over and asked softly, "What were you discussing with them about?"

"Discussing? Nothing much, I just sent them away casually with a few words." Yue Changkong smiled. He walked towards Donghuang Ying and stretched out his hand, placing it on her face as he gently stroked it. Donghuang Ying instantly turned red and lowered her head.

Yue Changkong smiled at her and pulled her into his embrace. Her heartbeat quickened, she has never been so close to a man before.

"Being able to have you as my wife, I have no regrets in this life. In the future when I stand at the peak, you will be by my side and glance down imperiously at everything in this world, enjoying boundless glory." Yue Changkong spoke gently but his words were extremely tyrannical. Donghuang Ying only felt her heart beating faster. After that, Yue Changkong carried her gentle frame up and she didn't struggle. A look of resolution could be seen in her eyes. Since she has already made her choice, how would she regret it in the future?

She believed that her choice was definitely correct. Her man would surely ascend to the peak of the entire world!

Chapter 1798: Life Stealing Arrow

Qin Wentian wasn't interested at all to know about the matters between Yue Changkong and Donghuang Ying. He naturally wouldn't know of the conversation between Yue Changkong and the Dragon Pool Manor.

Qin Wentian was still quietly cultivating in his palace, and he would also maintain contact with Luoshen Lei. Before her father arrived, Luoshen Lei was also staying in the Time Realm, she wanted to accompany Qin Wentian to wait together.

And as for Jun Mengchen who has already broken through, he naturally wasn't able to bear loneliness and would often venture out with Little Rascal as they sought to gain some insights from the cultivation arts left behind by the three hegemonic powers.

At this moment, Jun Mengchen, Little Rascal, and Purgatory stood together before a stone monument and were contemplating a cultivation art inscribed there. Not only them, Nanfeng Yaoyue and Nanfeng Yunxi were there as well. Although the convention has ended, the atmosphere in the Time Realm was as lively as ever and there was still good fortune to be found. Hence, there was naturally a need to move around frequently.

"Mengchen, can you understand it?" Nanfeng Yaoyue asked Jun Mengchen.

"It's quite difficult, I can't see through the meaning of some parts. I'm afraid I'll need a very long period of time to really understand it fully." Jun Mengchen frowned. Nanfeng Yaoyue nodded.

At this moment, several figures appeared behind them. These experts released their auras, Jun Mengchen and the others turned back and saw these people staring at them with cold expressions.

"Everyone, is there a problem?" Jun Mengchen asked.

"Spatial Prison." An icy voice rang out from one of the experts. In the next moment, the expert's heavenheart mandate directly erupted forth. Jun Mengchen and the others were instantly confined in a spatial prison, unable to move.

Nanfeng Yaoyue's countenance instantly changed. These people acted instantly without speaking. Clearly, they came here prepared.

She released her world heart only to discover that her world heart was completely suppressed inside this spatial prison with no way to gather any energy. This spatial prison was able to confine the world hearts of the user's targets as well.

"RUMBLE!" A terrifying world diagram appeared. Jun Mengchen roared and released his world heart, breaking through the prison's confines. An entire world appeared and enveloped the enemy experts. Jun Mengchen's world heart was an extraordinary one that he manifested directly instead of using a heavenheart mandate to construct it. Its might was naturally overwhelming.

"Who are you guys?" Jun Mengchen stared at them as he asked.

From the back of the experts, a person walked out. His gaze was terrifying as he stared at Jun Mengchen. They didn't expect that there was another transcendent-level world overlord beside Qin Wentian. Luckily, they were fully prepared. Even if Jun Mengchen's world heart was an extraordinary one, so what of it?

"Wentian, someone wants to kill us." Little Rascal was extremely quick-witted. During the time when their enemies exchanged blows with Jun Mengchen, he immediately took out his messaging crystal and informed Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian who was currently cultivating, instantly opened his eyes as cold light gleaned within. A wave of cold intent then gushed forth from him.

What was going on? Why would there be people who still dared to make a move on his friends at this time.

A terrifying coldness spread through the residential palace. Numerous figures flew over only to see Qin Wentian soaring up into the air, directly speeding towards a direction.

"What's going on?" Beiming Youhuang and a few other world overlords also flew up, following behind Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian left without saying anything, something major must have happened.

Right now Qin Wentian's speed was at his extreme limits. He was like a white bolt of lightning that raced incessantly through the skies, traveling thousands of miles in an instant. The speed of world overlords was too terrifying. Not long after, he could sense the fluctuations of a fight before him and upon releasing his immortal sense, he saw Jun Mengchen was currently fighting with some powerful experts.

Right now, Jun Mengchen's world heart was completely released. The apocalyptic might it brimmed with was extremely strong. Boundless energy from his world was gathered together into one point before exploding forth with devastating might, and the surrounding space seemed on the verge of shattering. Terrifying flows of energy inundated the area, attracting many world overlords here as they watched the battle.

It was very rare that battles would occur in the Time Realm. After all, the experts who came here would be under the eyes of the hegemonic powers and they would usually act in a more low-profile manner. Even if they have a grudge, they would temporarily endure it, only settling it after they left the Time Realm. The only exception was great hatred. If both parties felt great animosity towards each other, they would settle it on the spot.

"Hold your hand!" A thunderous voice boomed, ringing out in the air. Qin Wentian directly stepped through space and descended, coldly regarding those experts that were against Jun Mengchen. The eyes of one of those experts flickered with a cold smile when he saw Qin Wentian here. The person they were waiting for was none other than Qin Wentian.

"People from the Dragon Pool Manor." Qin Wentian directly appeared before Jun Mengchen and his friends. The battle instantly ceased. The experts from the Dragon Pool Manor retreated and coldly stared at Qin Wentian.

"Despicable." Jun Mengchen cursed in a low voice. These people were so persistent. To think that they were from the Dragon Pool Manor.

"Qin Wentian, you robbed our Heavenly Immortal Tower. Could it be that you really think we wouldn't do anything about this? Come with us and give us an appropriate response for your actions." An expert from the Dragon Pool Manor spoke.

"Such a thing has already happened once. This is the second time." A fearsome killing intent could be seen in Qin Wentian's eyes. For the first time, Longyuan Haoyu sent someone to the residential palace he stayed in to abduct Mo Qingcheng. And this time, they acted against Jun Mengchen and his friends. Time and time again, they kept challenging his bottom line. He initially thought that after he killed Longyuan Haoyu, if the Dragon Pool Manor didn't antagonize him again, he wouldn't take the initiative to create trouble for them. But now, from the looks of things, neither would rest if one party didn't die.

In the surroundings, many world overlords arrived but they were all watching from afar. So it turned out that this battle happened because of the grudge between the Qingcheng Realmlord and the Dragon Pool Manor. Despite Qin Wentian defeating Yue Changkong and receiving the recognition of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, the Dragon Pool Manor actually still dared to act against him? How forceful was that?

However, did the Dragon Pool Manor really want to offend the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy just to deal with Qin Wentian?

Beiming Youhuang was also rushing over. She was still flying through the air but her immortal sense could already see Qin Wentian and the others. However at this moment, her immortal sense suddenly detected a terrifying energy. As she turned her eyes in that direction, there seemed to be someone hiding in the void, fading in and out of existence. In his hands, there was a bow made from dragon bones with its string made from dragon tendons. It was emitting an immensely powerful might.

At this moment, this person lifted a bow as an extremely fearsome destructive aura gushed forth. The bow was clearly aimed at Qin Wentian.

"Careful!" Beiming Youhuang shouted. When Qin Wentian heard her voice, he also felt a terrifying aura locking onto him at the same instant.

So it turned out that the real killing move had been waiting for him in the dark. Acting against Jun Mengchen and the others was merely an act to lure him to appear.

The Heavenly Fate World Heart instantly manifested, enveloping an area over tens of thousands of miles. In this vast space, everywhere was within his heart domain. The area of effect it possessed continued to spread further and further.

Beiming Youhuang rushed towards the expert wielding the bow. She could faintly sense that this truly has the power to cause a threat to Qin Wentian's life. Frost filled the air as the temperature around her plunged. She wanted to freeze everything.

"Youhuang, get away!" Qin Wentian roared. He naturally could sense how terrifying that bow was. It basically wasn't something Beiming Youhuang could block. His silhouette flashed as he sped over there directly.

"Ring!" The bow string twitched as the sound of a dragon roar rang out. A fearsome arrow broke through space and shot forth, resembling the most terrifying lightning in the world that was capable of breaking through all laws.

"Reverse!" Qin Wentian shouted. The power of his world heart and innate heavenheart mandate erupted forth as the power that controls everything bore down, wanting to suppress the arrow but he actually wasn't able to do so.

This bow was named as the 'World Breaking Bow.' it was capable of bypassing all laws and it was rumored that it only needed a single hit to kill world overlords. By being so powerful and in addition to using it in a sneak attack, even major characters would die to it.

The arrow shot through space with inconceivable speed. Qin Wentian's eyes narrowed as though he could already see it piercing through his body. But at this moment, a figure appeared within his vision, gradually growing clear. This caused Qin Wentian's expression to drastically change as fear appeared on his face.

"Get away!" Qin Wentian roared. The figure who appeared before him was actually Beiming Youhuang. However, Qin Wentian was very clear of her strength, it was basically impossible for her to block that arrow. She was sending herself to death.

Beiming Youhuang released the entirety of her heavenheart mandate's power, wanting to freeze that arrow but it was completely useless. That arrow possessed boundless speed and could pierce through everything. Her power didn't even have time to manifest completely.

It was too fast, simply too inconceivably fast.

"NO…!" Qin Wentian roared, his expression filled with shock. He saw the arrow flying towards Beiming Youhuang and subsequently piercing into her body. The resplendent glow the arrow gave off seemed to be the most cruel glow in the world.

Beiming Youhuang didn't seem to feel anything? She didn't even have the time to feel pain. Right now, she only hoped that she could buy some time for Qin Wentian and weakened the force of the arrow slightly.

At this moment, when Qin Wentian saw the arrow piercing into Beiming Youhuang's body, his world seemed to slow down. The entire world only consisted of that single scene. It felt like his heart was the thing getting pierced instead and he felt extreme agony.

He truly hoped that he had more time. But, everything seemed to have happened too fast. So fast that he couldn't react.

Unless...everything stopped.

"Stop? Can everything really be stopped?" A complicated thought appeared in his mind. Everything in his entire world seemed to be stopped. Everything was moving so slowly now.

"Time, stop."

A voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. At this moment, even the wind has stopped. The raging vortex of energy from the arrow also stopped, no longer churning.

Also, that arrow that had pierced into Beiming Youhuang's body also had its momentum stopped. The arrow that should have pierced through her in an instant, was now so slow that it grinded to a halt.

From afar, that expert who shot that arrow wanted to shoot another one. But at this moment, his hands movements suddenly stopped and weren't able to move. He wasn't even able to blink and was in a completely immobile state.

At this instant, the many world overlords who were speculating were also within the heart domain generated by Qin Wentian's world heart. The wind that blew on everyone's faces had ceased, their hair no longer fluttered. Even their heartbeats and breathing all completely stopped at this moment!

Chapter 1799: Killing in the Stillness

This space, everything within it was completely stilled at this moment. There were people who wanted to blink but they soon discovered that their eyelids weren't able to move at all. Only their thoughts were still spinning.

Other than their thoughts, everything seemed to enter a state of absolute stillness. Great waves of emotions rose in their hearts. What a terrifying world heart power this was? The time in this entire space had crawled to a stop.

Qin Wentian moved. In this situation where everyone's movements were stilled, every micro-movement in this space would be magnified boundlessly. In such a situation where Qin Wentian could still move, what did it mean?

This meant that the power of timestop was used by Qin Wentian. This was an extremely powerful fusion of time laws and space laws, resulting in a tyrannical heavenheart mandate. How deep has his comprehensions reached with regard to these two laws?

Those experts from the Dragon Pool Manor were the same as everyone, trapped inside Qin Wentian's heart domain. When everything was at the state of absolute stillness, and Qin Wentian was the only one moving, they already knew that Qin Wentian was the one who released this power.

This supreme genius who once defeated Yue Changkong. Once again, he had displayed his extraordinary and incomparable talent.

Within his world heart, time was stopped.

What was heavenly fate? Heavenly fate cannot be defied. His will was heaven's will.

Qin Wentian flew to Beiming Youhuang and embraced her slender frame. That arrow that could devastate everything had already pierced into her chest. Within it, waves of destructive might brimmed, wanting to destroy everything. If it wasn't for time being stopped at this moment, her body might have been directly shattered from the terrifying energy waves.

"Who told you to do this?" Qin Wentian looked at her. Beiming Youhuang's eyes were looking at him as well but she couldn't move and could only stare fixedly. She had no way to reply.

Qin Wentian embraced her tightly. He stretched out his hand and closed her eyes before he pulled the arrow out bit by bit. When he was pulling the arrow, his heart felt exceptionally painful as though the one the arrow had pierced, was him instead.

After that, a surge of vitality unceasingly poured into Beiming Youhuang's body from him. A moment later, his silhouette flashed again as he brought Beiming Youhuang to Nanfeng Yaoyue's side. "Wait for me a little while."

At the instant when he turned around again, his dark eyes gleamed with an extremely cold killing intent.

He naturally was clear that everything the people from the Dragon Pool Manor did to Jun Mengchen and the others, was simply to lure him out. After he appeared, they won't give me any chances and would directly launch a killing blow. This was a clear ambush. A major character hiding in the void with a powerful divine weapon that could ignore the power of heavenheart mandates.

If it wasn't for the fact that he made a breakthrough at that final moment, the arrow shot by his enemy wouldn't simply have killed Beiming Youhuang. He might have also died to the power of that arrow.

Evidently, this was a clear killing plot. And from that moment onwards, Qin Wentian understood that between he and the Dragon Pool Manor, their grudge had just escalated up a level where neither would stop unless one dies.

Stepping out, Qin Wentian crossed the space and directly appeared at that major character who used the bow. That person was also in Qin Wentian's world heart's domain. The stilled space had actually even caused the arrow fired by the World Breaking Bow to stop.

When he saw Qin Wentian before him, his eyes that couldn't blink, showed signs of terror within. However, he didn't even have the chance to beg for mercy because he couldn't speak.

Qin Wentian lifted the arrow he pulled out. After that, he did a slicing movement as the blood splashing out ceased in their movements. The head of this person was slashed off but because of the time effect here, it still remained attached. This scene was shocking to the extreme. This was Qin Wentian's anger.

He then took the bow away. Qin Wentian moved once more, appearing at the place where the other experts from the Dragon Pool Manor were at. If these experts could move, they would surely be so frightened that they trembled. Even for world overlords, they could also feel fear. Now with death staring them in the eyes, who wouldn't be frightened?

However, what was the use of being scared? The moment they decided to do this, their fates were already destined. If Qin Wentian didn't die, the ones who died would be them.

And now, there was no doubt that the ones who would die would be them. In Qin Wentian's heart domain, he was the heavens. He could even stop time here. Qin Wentian was a God in this space, controlling everything. He lifted his bow and shot out arrows aiming for the heads of the Dragon Pool Manor's experts. The whistling arrows created an extremely piercing sound in this stilled space. After that, numerous world overlords died one after another but they couldn't even scream in terror.

In this stilled space, Qin Wentian's attacks weren't stilled. Because, he controlled everything in this world.

When all of the Dragon Pool Manor's experts died, the wind seemed to came back. The sounds of the pounding of heartbeats could be heard once more as the eyelids of everyone fluttered. The surrounding spectating experts were all trembling. It was unknown whether they are trembling from fear or from shock.

The death situation set up by the Dragon Pool Manor was to kill this supremely outstanding world overlord, Qin Wentian. However, at the end, all the experts of the Dragon Pool Manor who came here had died. This magnificent character released a world heart and innate heavenheart mandate stronger than their own hegemonic-level world overlord. In Qin Wentian's heart domain, even time has stopped. Everyone inside was like lambs for him to slaughter, for him to vent his anger.

"Hu…" Someone drew in a deep breath but the shock in his heart was unable to calm down. This was simply too powerful. Such talent was unrivalled yet Qin Wentian was actually not willing to reveal his brilliance, not willing to become a disciple of the Ziwei Divine Court.

Right now, Yue Changkong had already entered the tutelage of a heavenly deity, this news was circulated everywhere as everyone viewed him with admiration. Countless major characters would attend the celebrations for him. But now when all these spectators personally witnessed Qin Wentian's fight, all of them faintly felt that this world overlord, who had defeated Yue Changkong before, was truly even more outstanding than Yue Changkong. Even for their attainments in time laws, he shouldn't be any weaker than Yue Changkong.

If Yue Changkong was destined to become a character like the Sword Monarch, could the Qingcheng Realmlord not be able to as well?

Maybe, there would be two supreme characters born from the convention this time around.

However, Qin Wentian didn't have the time nor interest to care about the thoughts of others now. Right now, he was beside Beiming Youhuang, he hugged her and asked, "Youhuang, why are you so foolish?"

"At that time I didn't have the time to think too much. I coincidentally saw the person aiming for you, hence I just wanted to stop him." Beiming Youhuang casually replied like she was speaking about an extremely casual thing.

Qin Wentian was speechless. He stared at Beiming Youhuang's haggard looking countenance, "Your injuries…"

"They are alright. Although that destructive might was very fierce, didn't you save me in time? I will be fine after recuperating a little." Beiming Youhuang's voice sounded as though she didn't mind it. It was as cold as usual, as though she wasn't really in danger of dying earlier.

Nanfeng Yaoyue, Jun Mengchen and the others crowded over. Their eyes flashed with the anger of hatred. The Dragon Pool Manor actually tried to kill Qin Wentian, what a vicious method. If it wasn't for Qin Wentian managing to comprehend the time stop ability, the consequences would be unimaginably dire.

From afar, a powerful pressure descended, causing the people here to glance over. After that, they saw even more experts from the Dragon Pool Manor rushing here. The person in the lead was actually the manor lord of the Dragon Pool Manor. He personally arrived and now had an ashen expression on his face.

The person in charge of this assasination was his younger brother. However, despite his younger brother using the World Breaking Bow that should originally have secured a victory, their plan has actually failed. Qin Wentian was still alive while his younger brother and the other experts the Dragon Pool Manor sent here have all died. Staring at the bodies on the ground, his eyes gleamed red, flashing with a cold killing intent.

This assasination clearly meant that they have shredded all pretense of cordiality with Qin Wentian. There was no need to act any longer.

The ferocious wind gusted as more experts appeared from the void. These people directly appeared around Qin Wentian. It was Ten Miles Springwind and the others.

"Dragon Pool Manor." Cao Tian's eyes were glacial to the extreme. His eyes were also burning with killing intent as he stared at them.

The Dragon Pool Manor actually acted to kill, wanting to take Qin Wentian's life. Qin Wentian's conflict with them started because of a serving girl, so Ten Miles Springwind and the others decided to rob the Heaven Immortal Tower and considered the grudge settled. They once said that Cao Tian's background was impressive enough to handle any setbacks and the Dragon Pool Manor wouldn't really dare to act. However now, the Dragon Pool Manor actually truly wanted to kill Qin Wentian.

"How impressive." Old Ghost narrowed his eyes and stared at the Dragon Pool Manor. The manor lord of the Dragon Pool Manor radiated a terrifying might as he stepped forward, causing the hearts of the spectators here to tremble. The Dragon Pool Manor Lord wanted to act personally to kill Qin Wentian?

Could their reason for killing Qin Wentian really be because of Longyuan Haoyu's death?

Although Longyuan Haoyu was a genius world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor, his death shouldn't be enough reason for the Dragon Pool Manor to risk offending so many major powers just to kill Qin Wentian, right? They sent out such a large group of experts and even used an extremely powerful weapon. It was like they had some heaven-shaking grudge between them. Could it be that the Dragon Pool Manor felt that Qin Wentian posed a threat to their survival? But in truth, nobody has ever heard of Qin Wentian saying anything like he would take the initiative to do anything to the Dragon Pool Manor.

The figures of Old Ghost and Cao Tian flashed, directly blocking before Qin Wentian. The Dragon Pool Manor Lord could be considered a major character, a hegemonic-level world overlord. There was no need to doubt how terrifying he was.

"RUMBLE~" A figure descended from the sky, resembling a god from the heavens. An immensely powerful pressure enveloped this space. This person who appeared was an old man, and behind him, Luoshen Lei could be seen. Her face was extremely frosty, she stared at the manor lord and spoke, "Seems like the Dragon Pool Manor completely has no regards for my words. Back then, I've already warned the Dragon Pool Manor about this. But today, you all have still acted."

"Our grudge is with Qin Wentian, why must your Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region interfere? Don't forget that this place is the Mystic Region, the convention of the myriad realms." The Dragon Pool Manor Lord had an ugly look on his face. This time, if they succeeded in killing Qin Wentian, everything would be fine because they could depend on Yue Changkong for their backing. Now that they failed, it meant that they didn't manage to accomplish Yue Changkong's hints. They had undoubtedly offended the Luoshen Clan and Cao Tian even more and they had lost several world overlords.

Right now, many experts had already gathered here. It was no longer possible for them to want to kill Qin Wentian.

"I'll remember your words. Don't forget them yourself." Luoshen Lei stared at the manor lord as she coldly spoke. This caused the Dragon Pool Manor Lord to feel some regret. But since things have come to this, he no longer had a choice!

Chapter 1800: Arrival

The Dragon Pool Manor decided to gamble on this due to a single sentence from Yue Changkong. They planned to kill Qin Wentian in a single strike and directly eliminate him. Although they would face great pressure after that, but Yue Changkong hinted that he would pull some strings and make them into a vassal force of the Ziwei Divine Court. In that case, regardless of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy or Luoshen Clan, both wouldn't dare to act against the Dragon Pool Manor recklessly for Qin Wentian's death.

But now, they have failed. The pressure on them had increased exponentially. This maiden from the Luoshen Clan clearly was going to take action against them some time in the future and Qin Wentian's hatred for them would naturally also intensify. Over at Yue Changkong's side, they had no idea whether Yue Changkong would appear to support them or not.

The end result of this battle was not what they expected. They couldn't even kill Qin Wentian like this?

The Dragon Pool Manor Lord glanced at the experts before his eyes and knew that it was impossible for them to do anything more here. He waved his hand, "Let's leave."

After speaking, the remaining experts of the Dragon Pool Manor retreated respectively. The assassination mission this time around was a failure.

Qin Wentian's icy gaze stared at them as they left. They wanted this matter to end here? It was clearly impossible. He would definitely seek revenge for this.

Luoshen Lei's silhouette flashed and came before Qin Wentian. She had to act like she wasn't that familiar with him and calmly asked, "Are you alright?"

"I'm fine. My friend was injured by that arrow and almost lost her life. This arrow that has pierced her, is equivalent to piercing me as well." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. At the instant that arrow was shot out, everything was already destined. He and the Dragon Pool Manor, only one party would remain in this world. There was no other possibilities.

"The Dragon Pool Manor is just in Time City. They won't be able to run away." Cao Tian icily spoke. The Dragon Pool Manor had many businesses under them and was considered a major power of Time City. Through the generations, they have solidified their foundations there. It was like what Cao Tian has said, it was impossible for them to run away.

"I'll return for now. But I will note down what happened today in my heart." Qin Wentian spoke. Now that Beiming Youhuang was still injured, he wanted to bring her to a place to rest and aid her in recovery.

"I'll go with you." Luoshen Lei spoke lightly. Qin Wentian nodded. He knew that Luoshen Lei was worried that the Dragon Pool Manor might attempt the same thing again.

"We will come along with you too." Ten Miles Springwind and the others expressed their stances. In the future, they decided to travel together with Qin Wentian to guard against the Dragon Pool Manor. The assassination earlier definitely couldn't be allowed to happen again. They also didn't expect that the Dragon Pool Manor would act with so much resolve, wanting to take Qin Wentian's life.

Was there something hidden behind this?

Qin Wentian and his group left. The nearby spectators excitedly discussed what happened in that earlier battle.

Many world overlords among them were inside Qin Wentian's heart domain earlier and had entered that state of stillness. If they were Qin Wentian's enemies, their end result would surely be extremely dire.

"I feel that the Dragon Pool Manor's actions today are somewhat unintelligent, they are too impulsive and might have offended a future supreme expert." Some world overlord stated.

"That's right. This Qingcheng Realmlord is so young and has cultivated for less than a thousand years. He can already be considered a transcendent-level world overlord and is almost on the verge of breaking through to become a hegemonic-level one. In the area of his world heart, he can even stop time. If transcendent-level world overlords fought him, they would also die, right?"

"So now, the Dragon Pool Manor would use even more methods to try and kill the Qingcheng Realmlord, right? They definitely cannot permit the Qingcheng Realmlord to grow stronger or it will be their doomsday."

"How can it be so easy? With the Luoshen Clan here, as well as his friend Cao Tian supporting him, it is going to be very difficult for the Dragon Pool Manor to try this again."

Many people were in discussion. For a period of time, the news of this battle circulated widely within the Time Realm. Many people soon learned of what happened and their topics of discussion included the Qingcheng Realmlord alongside with the news of Yue Changkong being accepted by a heavenly deity as a disciple and becoming the son-in-law of the Donghuang Clan.

And because these two supreme characters once fought before, more and more people started to compare them. Before this, although Qin Wentian had defeated Yue Changkong, but after the news of Yue Changkong entering the tutelage of a heavenly deity spread out, everyone felt that Yue Changkong's future would surely be more radiant than Qin Wentian. They didn't forget that Yue Changkong had received the Timeking's inheritance.

But now, many of these people started to waver. Stopping time… The Yue Changkong now wouldn't be able to accomplish this, right? Even if he had gained the inheritance of the Time King.

It was said that Qin Wentian condensed a time-attributed astral soul to be his eighth one inside the Time Realm. If he had condensed one before then, he might very well be the one to receive the Time King's inheritance instead of Yue Changkong. After all, his talent seemed to be even more outstanding in comparison.

Right now in the Time Realm, the hottest topics were regarding the two of them. Their supporters seemed equal in number, there were some who resolutely believed that Yue Changkong, the disciple of the Ziwei Divine Court was more outstanding and would become a future Sword Monarch. There were also some who felt that the Qingcheng Realmlord had a boundless future and wouldn't be inferior to Yue Changkong.

The news of this battle also spread to the residential palace the Donghuang Clan was in. After Yue Changkong learned of the Dragon Pool Manor's failure, he felt extremely unhappy and silently cursed at what a trash the Dragon Pool Manor is. They couldn't even do this well? The better Qin Wentian's performance was, the greater the formless threat he would represent to him. Right now, he could already be sure that the Time King was speaking to Qin Wentian back then. There was no one who suspected him because he passed the Ziwei Divine Court's test. No one would doubt the judgement of a heavenly deity.

But only he himself understood how he had almost failed that test. Also, if Qin Wentian didn't die, there would always be a risk that he would be exposed. Only by killing Qin Wentian would he be the only one who knew of this secret. From now on, he could rest assured in his identity as the inheritor of the Time King.

Also, the Dragon Pool Manor actually failed. Qin Wentian also demonstrated great talent in the laws of time and had comprehended time stop. What benefits did he obtain from the Time King exactly?

The more he thought about this, the more angry he felt. Naturally he would pretend to be carefree and easy during normal times. At this moment, he was hugging a beauty in his arms and quietly enjoying a tranquil time. He has already completely subdued Donghuang Ying and the Donghuang Clan. From now onwards, the Donghuang Clan would become his backer. With their support, his position in the Ziwei Divine Court would also be more stable.

"I heard that he killed a hegemonic-level world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor, and in the area of effect generated by his world heart, he could stop time, making it so that the experts of the Dragon Pool Manor were all unable to resist." At this moment, the Donghuang Ying in his embrace turned her head. Her beautiful eyes stared at Yue Changkong. There was a faint sense of worry in her heart.

"Since this man was able to defeat me, he naturally has his own outstanding aspects. Being able to win against a hegemonic-level world overlord is nothing strange." Yue Changkong smiled, appearing as carefree as ever. He then continued, "In any case, since we are together, why are we discussing about others? Right now, I don't wish to cultivate, I want to ignore everything in the outside world and spend time together with you. There's no need for worry. I will naturally not let myself fall back and be inferior to others in matters of cultivation."

Upon hearing his words, Donghuang Ying's worry also dissipated. Her beautiful eyes revealed a charming smile. Wasn't the reason why she liked Yue Changkong was because of how outstanding he is? He was forever like this, exuding boundless glory and filled with an intense self-confidence. And now, he was also very much in love with her.

"The words sounds nice, but I wonder if you would still treat me as nicely now as in the future." Donghuang Ying smiled.

"Naturally." Yue Changkong nodded. "In addition, when have I ever been someone who only talks the talk?"

"You mean you are not?" Donghuang Ying had a mischievous look on her face.

"Since this is the case, it seems like I have to show off my performance a little." Yue Changkong smile turned a little lewd. Donghuang Ying instantly blushed and after that, the two of them dove into the covers and enjoyed the pleasures of the flesh.

But who would know what Yue Changkong was thinking now when he was enjoying a beauty? Where were his thoughts at?

After that battle in the Time Realm, everything seemed to return to calmness. However, everyone knew that this incident would become the symbolic starting point. Right now, there was most probably a storm brewing silently. It was unknown when the storm would erupt.

During these days, Qin Wentian stayed in his residential palace and didn't head out. He was busy with helping Beiming Youhuang to recover and was comprehending his laws. His world heart grew even stronger and within it, his will was the heaven's will, capable of even stopping time. Other than this, his other heavenheart mandates also slowly changed. After infusing time laws into them, they grew stronger and stronger.

Another ten plus years passed in the Time Realm. During this time, Qin Wentian didn't find trouble with the Dragon Pool Manor. The Dragon Pool Manor wasn't an ordinary power and in this place, he wasn't alone. Mo Qingcheng, Qing`er and his other family and friends were here as well. Once a war started, he had no way to predict the consequences.

Hence, during these ten plus years, he had been silently cultivating. This lasted until one day when Luoshen Lei told him that her father has already arrived in Time City.

Qin Wentian instantly made a decision and left the Time Realm.

Everyone around him left together with him. Today, at the Time Realm's entrance, Qin Wentian's group walked out and they started to descend down the stairway.

As he turned his head and glanced at the stairway, Qin Wentian felt as though what happened within was a lifetime ago.

In there, he got acquainted with his younger sister. In there, he obtained the inheritance of the Time King who told him that he would be waiting for him in the future.

Now, he was finally going to leave here. The experiences he had gained during these years inside were extremely important. This convention would be an unforgettable memory to him as well.

"Elder brother, Father is staying in the Ten Miles Inn." Luoshen Lei transmitted her voice. Clearly, she knew that Qin Wentian was going to stay there and after informing her father, her father decided to stay there as well."

"Mhm." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice back in reply. Just so coincidentally, Ten Miles Springwind asked, "Where are we going?"

"I'm returning back to your inn to enjoy my free food and lodging. You wouldn't have any objections, right?" Qin Wentian laughed.

"You can eat as much and stay as long as you want. After I'm bankrupt, we will just have to organize another trip to rob the Dragon Pool Manor." Ten Miles Springwind laughed. When he brought up the Dragon Pool Manor, coldness gleamed in Qin Wentian's eyes.

"Let's go." Qin Wentian spoke. After that, their silhouettes flashed as they flew towards the direction of the Ten Miles Inn.

Because of the commencement of the convention, many of the inn's customers have all headed to the Time Realm. Now that the hundred year period hasn't ended yet, the atmosphere of the Ten Miles Inn was very quiet. But now, a group of mysterious guests have actually come here. Among them, there were some experts that were extremely powerful and gave off an unfathomable feeling, yet these experts kept a very low-profile and were content to simply wait in the inn.

But after operating for so many years, what type of customers have the Ten Miles Inn not seen before? Since they knew these were major characters, the serving personnel of the inn naturally didn't disturb them too much and also curbed their curiosity.

At this moment, a group of experts descended from the air. When many people in the inn saw Ten Miles Springwind, they all broke into smiles. Their boss is back from the Time Realm!

Chapter 1801: Chosen Son of Heaven

After Qin Wentian returned to the inn, he first chose to return to his courtyard and settle his people there.

After that, he left alone and came to the courtyard of another room. Luoshen Lei stood there waiting for him. After Qin Wentian entered, the entire space was sealed off.

Her father brought some men from the Luoshen Clan to the Mystic Region, they still needed to keep a low-profile when they did things. He didn't want others to find out that they were here. In addition, Qin Wentian's identity was very sensitive, he had no wish to let others know that they were meeting. If those who knew things of the past learned about this, the experts of that particular power would easily be able to guess Qin Wentian's identity.

"Elder brother." After this entire space was sealed, Luoshen Lei called out. Qin Wentian nodded his head, he felt a little nervous in his heart. Right now, he has cultivated for hundreds of years but this was the first time he was meeting with a close relative. The man he was meeting was his uncle, the elder brother of his mother.

He was filled with anticipation. What sort of character would his uncle be? He who came from the Luoshen Clan, should be exuding boundless magnificence, right? Was his uncle a hegemonic-level world overlord that stood at the peak? Or even stronger than that?

He didn't know but he would know very soon.

"Father is waiting for you in the courtyard. Let's go in." Luoshen Lei softly spoke. Qin Wentian nodded his head. He didn't release his immortal sense, he followed Luoshen Lei through the long corridor and came to the entrance of the courtyard. Before him, a group of people casually stood there but they gave Qin Wentian an extraordinary feeling of unfathomable might. There was no need to doubt that these were all extremely powerful characters.

"Elder brother." Luoshen Lei walked in front, she turned her head back and called out. Qin Wentian stepped forth and followed her, exiting the corridor and entering the courtyard. The environment here was extremely elegant with many pavilions and little bridges with flowing water beneath them. In one of the larger pavilions in front, there was a figure quietly sitting on a chair. His gaze turned over and stared at Qin Wentian who was walking towards him.

When Qin Wentian saw that figure, he suddenly started. He didn't dare to believe his eyes, as though he has seen wrongly.

A very weak-looking middle-aged man was before him. Countless wrinkles marred his face and he had a head full of white hair. Even his eyes had no spirit in them. He was clearly middle-aged yet he appeared to be like an old man with a foot in the grave, with no hint of vitality at all. This was different from Old Ghost. Old Ghost appeared very old but his eyes were glowing with spirit, exuding a strong sense of vitality and energy.

However, the figure before him seemed mediocre in every way. One could even say that he appeared to be like an ordinary mortal that has no cultivation.

In this pavilion, he was the only one there. His cloudy eyes gleamed with a hint of light when he stared at Qin Wentian. Clearly, this was his uncle. It could be no one else.

Qin Wentian has imagined many things, but he has never once thought his uncle would be in this shape. Luoshen Lei was so outstanding, her talent was incomparably extraordinary but why was her father like this?

"Why? Are you very disappointed?" The figure before him smiled, staring at the changes in Qin Wentian's expressions.

Qin Wentian started, disappointed?

That was not true. He wanted to see his uncle because they were blood-related and the other party was willing to acknowledge him. This has nothing to do with his uncle's strength.

It's just that he was too surprised. After all, this scene was completely different than what he had imagined.

"Elder brother, this is my father." Luoshen Lei softly spoke.

Qin Wentian stared at the figure before him, he adjusted his mental state and drew in a deep breath as he called out, "Uncle."

"Good." The middle-aged man nodded his head as his eyes turned slightly red. He stood up and walked towards Qin Wentian. His steps were very slow and somewhat unstable. When he came before Qin Wentian, he stretched out his hand as his finger gingerly came in contact with Qin Wentian's face, staring intently at him. Upon contact, his finger trembled slightly.

"So alike..." His uncle's eyes grew even redder as though he recalled many things. He thought of things in the past, his younger sister who grew up together with him, the younger sister whom he doted the most on.

Qin Wentian felt that this was somewhat strange and initially wanted to dodge. But when he thought of the fact that this man was his uncle and his reddened eyes from emotions, his heart grew soft and he allowed the middle-aged man to do what he wanted.

"You truly resemble your mother a lot." Luoshen Yu's finger trembled lightly. Although it has been many years since he last met his sister, he still remembered her face clearly. After all, that was his younger sister, her image had always been branded in his heart and wouldn't fade away despite the passage of time. Hence, when he saw Qin Wentian, he could see the shadow of his sister in him.

"Uncle, you also have no idea where my mother is?" Qin Wentian asked in a light voice. This was the thing he wanted to know the most.

"Your mother is truly ruthless enough, she abandoned everything decisively and vanished without a trace." Luoshen Yu's voice trembled a little. He stared at Qin Wentian and continued, "I heard Lei`er say that your parents gave you the name 'Wentian,' right?"

"Mhm, that's right." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Did they not leave behind any clues for you?" Luoshen Yu asked. After he learned of Qin Wentian's existence, he felt even more shock in his heart. This meant that Qin Yuanfeng didn't die. In that case, although his younger sister had disappeared for many years, it might be possible that she might still be alive and is with Qin Yuanfeng.

"Nope. Ever since I was very young, the person who took care of me was Uncle Black. He might know of some stuff but he has never told me before. Right now, he has also vanished." Qin Wentian spoke. "Uncle, exactly what has happened in the past? What's wrong with your cultivation?"

He naturally understood that it was impossible for a direct descendant of the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Lei's father, the elder brother of his mother, to be born a cripple. His uncle was clearly middle-aged yet his hair had turned completely white and his face was marred by wrinkles, appearing extremely aged. His aura was exceptionally weak too, as though he had suffered an injury so grievous that he wasn't able to recover from it, leading to his current appearance.

"The things back then were very simple. Your mother and father got together but they were faced with objections from both their clans. The Qin Clan and Luoshen Clan have always been at odds since the beginning of time, how could a female chosen of the Luoshen Clan be allowed to marry into the Qin Clan? Also at that time, your father was embroiled in other troubles and your maternal grandfather objected even more vehemently to their union. However, your mother and father didn't care at all, they directly abandoned everything and left, destroying all the immortal senses in their messaging crystals. But although they left leisurely, the Qin Clan would naturally not give up like this. In order to search for them, they even came to our Luoshen Clan and a great battle ensued, as many members of the Luoshen Clan died. They did all this simply to enquire about the location of your parents."

Luoshen Yu sighed. Although Qin Wentian knew some of the things, he didn't know the details. Today, he was very serious as he listened.

"Your maternal grandfather was even more angered. The conflict between us and the Qin Clan reached an unresolvable state. After that, your parents were actually found by those from the Qin Clan. The Qin Clan only wanted to deal with your father, and for the sake of your mother's safety, your maternal grandfather went there personally to take her back. Soon after, your father learned of the battle between the Qin and Luoshen Clan, and after knowing the Qin Clan used all sorts of unscrupulous methods to find him, he actually started a massacre in the Qin Clan in a fit of anger and eventually ended up dying there."

Qin Wentian clenched his fists tightly, he knew there were even more details in this story. He spoke, "My father left behind many memories for me. The Qin Clan has always been tracing his whereabouts. A clan brother of his eventually found him and they fought. That person's grudge with my father started since childhood. Who is he?"

"Haha, good question." Luoshen Yu suddenly laughed. "This man is now the controller of the Qin Clan. His name is Qin Zheng. During times of his youth, he was nurtured as a successor by the Qin Clan, and can be considered a supreme heaven chosen of the Qin Clan. Back then, your father always existed within his light. I even know that the girl your father fell for during his youth, eventually married Qin Zheng. She was the supreme heaven chosen of another faction in the Qin Clan and they had a son together. Their son is named Qin Dangtian, this name was true to its meaning, they had the intent of their son shaking the heavens. This young man is now known as heaven's son in the Heaven Region now.

"Heaven's son." Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. His countenance was like ice as he spoke, "Back then, Qin Zheng's strength was already inferior to my father. My father has once defeated him."

"There is only one Qin Yuanfeng in the world. There's no need to doubt Qin Zheng's strength and this heaven's son has also inherited the talent of his mother and father, even surpassing them. This is what it means to be the son of the heavens. Ever since he was young, he has displayed world-shocking talent. I'm thinking that he will do what his name means, his ambition is to shake the heavens, causing them to tremble before his might. As for you, your parents named you 'Wentian,' both of your names have the word 'tian.' I wonder if they intentionally named you so in response to Qin Dangtian." Luoshen Yu mumbled.

"My parents when they were naming me, once said this. Asking the sky, asking the heavens, who can be the ruler of this world? They wanted me to be the master of my fate, the lord of my destiny." Qin Wentian replied.

Luoshen Yu's eyes flashed before he broke out into laughter. "As expected of Qin Yuanfeng. How spirited and imposing was this? One desire to shake the heavens, making them tremble before his might. Another desire to ask the heavens, only seeking to become the lord of his own destiny. The two of you are in opposition once born and it's destined in life that you two would be enemies."

"Destined in life to be enemies since we were born?" Qin Wentian's gaze turned cold. That despicable character who acted against his father back then. How strong was his son now exactly?

"Elder brother, didn't you ask why my father became like this?" Luoshen Lei who was at the side, suddenly interjected. Qin Wentian stared at her only to see her eyes turning red. She felt a heavy sorrow in her heart.

How could Qin Wentian know that this mediocre and crippled person before him was once an extremely famous heavenly deity named the Skyorder Heavenly Deity whose fame shook the world? He was once the successor of the Luoshen Clan but after that battle, all that was supposed to be his, turned into nothingness. Her father endured the looks of contempt from his clansmen ever since then. When she thought of this, Luoshen Lei felt as though a knife was cutting her heart.

"Why?" Qin Wentian asked when he saw Luoshen Lei's reaction. Was there a secret behind this?

"Once, as the Skyorder Heavenly Deity of the Luoshen Clan, he went to the Qin Clan to seek justice for your parents. He challenged Qin Zheng and at that time, Qin Zheng's son Qin Dangtian had just recently broken through to the heavenly deity realm. Qin Dangtian took the place of his father and accepted my father's challenge. After he defeated my father, he crippled his cultivation base and from then on, his fame rocked the world and everyone started calling him heaven's son of the Heaven Region. Everyone praised his talent and said that he was a future godking in the making.

Luoshen Lei clenched her fists as tears flowed down her face. Qin Dangtian fought on behalf of his father, Qin Zheng, and crippled her father Luoshen Yu's cultivation upon defeating him. What about her? What could she do? Qin Dangtian could crush her to death with just his little finger.

The heaven's son, Qin Dangtian, trampled on her father and rose to fame in the eight regions!

Chapter 1802: Calling

"Kacha!" Qin Wentian's fist suddenly clenched, producing a crisp sound after he heard Luoshen Lei's words. A terrifying coldness radiated from him. His eyes that were as deep as the starry space, were icy to the extreme.

His uncle's cultivation base was crippled and became the way he was today. It was actually because his uncle went to seek justice for his parents. In addition, the person who crippled his uncle was actually the son of that despicable character.

Those years ago in the memories, his father treated this Qin Zheng as a brother and has never made any invidious comparisons to him. His father even chose to leave the Qin Clan. This Qin Zheng somehow found his father and his father politely welcomed him, yet Qin Zheng suddenly wanted to challenge his father and after Qin Zheng was defeated, he still didn't give up and plotted to kill Qin Yuanfeng. During his father's first lifetime, everything of value that belonged to his father was completely stripped away and plundered. And now, Qin Zheng has already become the king of the Qin Clan, controlling this heavenly deity race.

Qin Zheng's son, Qin Dangtian, was also a heavenly deity now and had crippled his uncle's cultivation base.

This hatred… was truly one where both sides couldn't co-exist under the same sky.

"Uncle, my parents have implicated you." Qin Wentian felt some guilt. A heavenly deity of a generation was actually crippled. What an agony this must be for him? This was simply unimaginable. This middle-aged man with a head full of white hair and a face filled with wrinkles...how glorious he used to be? He was the Skyorder Heavenly Deity, the successor of the Luoshen Clan. Qin Wentian simply couldn't imagine the contrast now. The contrast was too large that he was stunned.

No wonder Luoshen Lei would cry. Most probably, she was the person who understood her father's agony the most.

"Many years have already passed, I'm long used to being in this state." Luoshen Yu smiled. "Being able to see you today makes me very happy. Wentian, as an orphan, it must have been very difficult for you to grow on this path until today, right? Now, you still have to face this great grudge. I'm sorry you have to suffer."

He understood that this young man before him was the son of Qin Yuanfeng and his younger sister. Qin Yuanfeng was the most outstanding supreme character in the Qin Clan among the younger generations back then. He had once defeated the current clan leader of the Qin Clan. As for his wife, she was a supreme heaven chosen from the Luoshen Clan. How could their union produce an offspring that would lose out to Qin Zhang and that female heaven chosen from the Qin Clan? So what if Qin Dangtian was known as heaven's son? It didn't matter at all.

Precisely because of this, he understood that Qin Wentian had to bear all this hatred on his back. This was his responsibility, his calling.

This was why he said that Qin Wentian and Qing Dangtian were born as fated enemies.

"Compared to what my father has endured back then, what can this count for? In the future, I will definitely slaughter my way into the Qin Clan, making them pay blood for blood. I will ensure they pay back everything they owe my father." Qin Wentian's countenance was cold. He would collect the debt the Qin Clan owed his father.

"Right. It's just that you are still growing now and it's best to keep a low profile. They have no idea about your existence. If the Qin Clan was to learn that Qin Yuanfeng had a son, Qin Zheng would definitely spare no expense to kill you. Given how powerful the Qin Clan is now, there is hardly anyone who can protect you. Lei`er only told the news of your existence to me. I didn't even tell it to your maternal grandfather." Luoshen Yu spoke. He knew how serious this matter was.

Qin Wentian was the son of Qin Yuanfeng and his younger sister. Now that he was maturing so well and his fame has shaken the Time Realm, if the Qin Clan was to learn of his true identity, they would definitely traverse across the regions and kill him.

"Don't easily reveal your bloodline powers. It doesn't really matter if others know that you are surnamed Qin, There are many experts with the surname Qin in the world." Luoshen Yu reminded.

"Uncle, I once had a death calamity and my body crumbled apart. Because of a miraculous encounter, I manage to stay alive. Right now, I don't have any bloodline powers." Qin Wentian replied.

Luoshen Lei started, but he felt more at ease now despite being a little disappointed. After all, Qin Wentian's bloodline powers came from Qin Yuanfeng and the Luoshen Clan.

"Although it's somewhat of a pity, it's fine as well. No matter how powerful your talent is and even if you are noticed by the Qin Clan, as long as you don't have any of their bloodline powers, no one would suspect your true identity." Luoshen Yu nodded.

"Uncle, there's no need to worry. If I want to regain my bloodline powers, I can regain it at any time." Qin Wentian spoke once more, causing Luoshen Yu's gaze to freeze. He stared at the clear eyes of Qin Wentian before smiling, "Since this is the case, things naturally would be perfect."

As to the exact reason, he didn't inquire further. It was enough with this sentence of Qin Wentian.

"Uncle, if maternal grandfather knows of my existence, what would his attitude be?" Qin Wentian asked. His maternal grandfather was the father of his mother and they were also blood-related. He really wants to know how his grandfather would feel.

"Although in the past your grandfather has objected your parents being together, that was also because he loved your mother deeply. Another aspect was the pressure given by the clan. Now that all of that is already over, although your grandfather didn't say it out loud, he really misses your mother a lot in reality. I once saw him being in a daze as he stared at your mother's portrait. Who would not miss and dote on their daughter?"

Luoshen Yu slowly spoke. "If your grandfather knew that your mother has given birth to you. He would surely want to see you as much as I do. It's just that the Luoshen Clan has experienced too many changes during these years and the authority your grandfather holds in the clan has now waned by a lot. Right now, our Luoshen Clan isn't as united as before. Hence, I didn't mention this to your grandfather. I don't want the Luoshen Clan to learn of your existence. But when the time is right, I will bring you to the Luoshen Clan for you to meet with your grandfather."

"Okay." Qin Wentian nodded. Seems like the matter with his parents had influenced the Luoshen Clan greatly. His uncle was once the Luoshen Clan's successor, in that case, his grandfather must have a very high status back then in the Clan. There was no need to say anything about his mother's status. No wonder the Luoshen Clan would object.

"Father, there's someone who wants to kill elder brother in the Time Realm. Also, if it wasn't for elder brother having a break through at that last moments and managing to stop time, he might really have died." Luoshen Lei suddenly spoke. Luoshen Yu frowned after he heard this. In his cloudy eyes, a terrifying sharpness flashed. His crippled body also radiated a hint of might. Although his cultivation base was gone, he was once a heavenly deity and heavenly might was engraved in his bones.

"Who?" Luoshen Yu asked.

"The Dragon Pool Manor of the Time Realm. I once warned them but they still tried to carry out an assasination in the dark, wanting to kill elder brother in a single strike." Luoshen Lei's voice turned cold.

"I shall depart today. After I leave, I will get Lifeless to remain here and he will follow you. For the following matters, I will leave it to you and Wentian to handle." Luoshen Yu spoke. Although he came here secretly, he was after all the Skyorder Heavenly Deity of the Luoshen Clan. Even though his cultivation base was gone, if others saw him, they might start to speculate about his purpose in coming to the Mystic Region.

Hence, he wanted to leave as early as possible. This was especially so since he wanted to get Lifeless to remain here. He mustn't stay here.

"With Grandpa Lifeless here, there will naturally be no problems." Luoshen Lei nodded. She was Luoshen Yu's daughter, how could she not know what level of existence Lifeless was? Lifeless alone was more than sufficient to destroy the Dragon Pool Manor.

"Uncle, are you leaving so quickly?" Qin Wentian stared at the middle-aged man. His uncle crossed an unimaginably vast distance to come here from the Luoshen Clan in the Desolate Region just to meet and say a few words to him? Was he going to leave just like that?

"Child, I'm already very happy to see you. In the future, I only hope that you will live your life well. I'm a cripple and I won't be able to help you that much. But if you encounter any difficulties, you must remember to look for me. I will do all I can." Luoshen Yu took out his messaging crystal. Qin Wentian naturally knew his intentions and left behind a strand of his immortal sense. He also did the same as his uncle left a strand of immortal sense in his crystal too. The two of them would be able to communicate easier like this.

"Alright, I will be leaving now. I'm yearning for the day when you come to the Luoshen Clan. Naturally I'm filled with even more anticipation that you would be able to trample the Qin Clan in the Heaven Region and change the sky there." Luoshen Yu had very high expectations for Qin Wentian. There was no other reason. The only reason was because Qin Wentian was the son of Qin Yuanfeng and his younger sister.

"I definitely will." Qin Wentian clenched his fists. Luoshen Yu laughed. After that, he informed his entourage and they silently left the Ten Miles Inn. They only stayed here for a very short period of time and left in a hurry, it was like they had never been here before.

Qin Wentian was in a daze as he stood in the pavilion. His emotions now were exceptionally heavy. He knew the anticipation his uncle had for him. His cloudy eyes, when staring at Qin Wentian, were like staring at hope. His uncle wanted him to seek justice for his parents.

For this matter, Luoshen Yu who was the Skyorder Heavenly Deity didn't manage to accomplish it. It was also very difficult for his maternal grandfather to do it too. Everything could only depend on him. Because, he was the son of his parents.

It was his duty, his calling.

The chosen son of the heavens, was destined to be enemies with him since they were born.

Qin Zheng, the leader of the Qin Clan.

Everything was waiting for him.

"Little miss." At this moment, an old man unknowingly appeared beside Luoshen Lei.

"Grandpa Lifeless!" Luoshen Lei politely greeted this old man in a very respectful manner. From this, one could tell that this old man has an extraordinary status in the Luoshen Clan.

This old man was extraordinary indeed. Ever since the Skyorder Heavenly Deity was in his teens, he had been his protector. Right now, it has already been countless years. After the Skyorder Heavenly Deity was crippled, some of the older guards left but Lifeless didn't say anything and was still as loyal as before, protecting her father Luoshen Yu despite the fact that Luoshen Yu was already a useless person without a future.

Lifeless and her father might be known as master and servant on the surface but in truth, their relationship was like a father and son. He treated her father as one of his kin and was one of the most trusted individuals that her father could have faith in.

"Master said that little miss has a mission for me?" The old man spoke.

"Grandpa Lifeless, you can take a break first. If there is a need to, I will ask you for your help again." Luoshen Lei spoke.

"Alright." The old man nodded. After that, he directly vanished. After he left, Luoshen Lei spoke to Qin Wentian, "Elder brother, how do you want to handle the matter of the Dragon Pool Manor? Given Grandpa Lifeless's cultivation base, he can crush the Dragon Pool Manor alone."

This matter was something she took the initiative to bring up to her father. Even if Qin Wentian didn't say anything about this, she wouldn't spare the Dragon Pool Manor.

She once said to them that she would remember their words. She would also make sure that the Dragon Pool Manor wouldn't forget what they had said to her!

Chapter 1803: Qin Wentian's Revenge

The Dragon Pool Manor was situated in Time City. Their size was extremely vast with an inestimable population, comparable to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

Inside the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, several of the powerful clans that had been developing for countless years would naturally have millions and millions of population. They were akin to a clan empire.

Inside the Dragon Pool Manor, things were extremely flourishing. There were many branch clans inside, and many guards protecting it on the outside.

At this moment, the Dragon Pool Manor was as bustling as ever. In a certain training ground, several descendants sat there, listening to the dao lectures of world overlords. These world overlord experts were nurtured and recruited outside by the Dragon Pool Manor. There were also some among them who were experts from the Dragon Pool Manor itself but their statuses couldn't be considered high. Right now, all the coremost characters of the Dragon Pool Manor were still in the Time Realm and have yet to return.

In the clear sky, there was an unending blanket of clouds that stretched for thousands of miles. The sunlight cascaded down onto the inner portion of the manor and at this moment, an immensely powerful immortal sense bore down and swept through it, brushing through more and more experts. At this moment, the expressions of many within changed. The eyes of the guards gleamed with sharpness as they asked, "We wonder which senior has come?"

The world overlords who were giving dao lectures to the Dragon Pool Manor's descendants radiated cold intent. "Which dao friend's immortal sense has swept through the Dragon Pool Manor?"

In the air, a stifling pressure gushed forth, locking on the Dragon Pool Manor. After that, the people from the Dragon Pool Manor saw a white-robed figure appearing in the air. This figure stood arrogantly, exuding boundless magnificence and radiating world-shocking might.

The faces of many experts in the Dragon Pool Manor instantly changed. When they saw the bow in the white-robed figure's hands, their faces turned paler than paper.

"World Breaking Bow. How is this possible, why is that bow in the hands of an outsider?" A world overlord trembled from shock. The World Breaking Bow was one of the supreme treasures of their Dragon Pool Manor and was an extremely powerful divine treasure. It has always been used by the coremost members of the Dragon Pool Manor, but why would it appear now in the hands of the white-robed young man standing in the air? Also, the World Breaking Bow was aiming at their Dragon Pool Manor now.

"He is the Qingcheng Realmlord!" Someone exclaimed, recognizing Qin Wentian. Back then, there was a conflict between the Dragon Pool Manor and Qin Wentian. It wasn't strange that someone would be able to recognize him.

Panic instantly filled the hearts of many people.

That immensely powerful might enveloped the entirety of the Dragon Pool Manor. Nobody knew which direction the arrow would be shot but no matter where it was shot, it would undoubtedly be a calamity to the Dragon Pool Manor.

"Swish~" The white-robed figure in the air didn't say anything. He instantly shot the bow and a resplendent arrow pierced through space, shooting towards the area where the world overlords were giving dao lectures. The countenances of the world overlords there all turned ashen, all of them released their world hearts and heavenheart mandates, hoping to protect themselves.

However, the World Breaking Arrow penetrated through everything, ignoring the power of all heavenheart mandates and directly penetrated the body of a world overlord. The terrifying destructive energies erupted forth like a world-destroying storm. Not only for that world overlord, the people in his surroundings were completely devastated as well. In an instant, countless screams rent the air. The situation in the Dragon Pool Manor grew extremely chaotic.

Someone actually used the World Breaking Bow to deal with their Dragon Pool Manor.

"Sir, wait. We can always talk things over." A world overlord soared into the air and spoke to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's heavenheart mandate's power infused the arrow. A beam of light shot over, directly turning the speaking world overlord into white light. His voice still echoed in the surroundings but his person had already vanished completely.

"When the Dragon Pool Manor used this bow to kill me, did they talk things over with me?" An icy voice rang out. Despite the warmth of the bright sun, the people of the Dragon Pool Manor all felt extremely cold from a chill in their hearts.

The Dragon Pool Manor once used this bow wanting to assassinate him. However, he didn't die and he was now the owner of this bow instead. He came back today for revenge.

As the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, another arrow shot through the air. A world overlord wanted to escape but how could he escape? That arrow locked onto him and directly destroyed him. Below him, the aftershock from the arrow gushed forth, those people in the area there were all destroyed too.

"No…!" Someone let out a roar of shock and anger. Qin Wentian continued to fire arrows and every arrow would kill a world overlord. He wanted to completely exterminate all overlords in the Dragon Pool Manor while simultaneously burying the weaker experts too.

If it was just for the grudge of the Heaven Immortal Tower, Qin Wentian would definitely not do this. But since the Dragon Pool Manor ignored the rules and even sought to assassinate him in the Time Realm by acting against Nanfeng Yaoyue, Jun Mengchen and the others to lure him out, was there a need for him to show mercy?

The arrow that was fired almost caused Beiming Youhuang to lose her life. If it wasn't for him making a breakthrough at the last moment, Beiming Youhuang would no longer exist in this world. Even now when he thought about it, Qin Wentian could feel the fear in his heart.

That fired arrow might not have only killed Beiming Youhuang, it might have also killed him, Jun Mengchen, Nanfeng Yaoyue and the others.

At the moment when the Dragon Pool Manor decided to fire that arrow, everything was already destined. Between him and the Dragon Pool Manor, only one could exist.

The fired arrows transformed into devastating beams of light that wrecked the entire Dragon Pool Manor. Experts fell one after the other as the buildings here collapsed. The situation here was extremely chaotic and many people had looks of despair on their faces. Before these people died, they all felt a strong resentment for those people of the Dragon Pool Manor in the time realm. Why would they cause the Dragon Pool Manor to fall into such a dangerous situation like this?

Many people took out their messaging crystals and informed the experts inside the Time Realm. There were even some who directly informed the manor lord.

In the Time Realm, the Dragon Pool Manor already received the news that Qin Wentian's group had left the Time Realm. Although the Dragon Pool Manor Lord wanted to stay longer, he still made preparations to leave. He was faintly worried that Qin Wentian might act against the Dragon Pool Manor after he left the Time Realm. Right now, the strongest experts of the Dragon Pool Manor had all went with him to the Time Realm. There wasn't any truly powerful ones remaining in the Dragon Pool Manor of Time City.

However, because they were a major power, no one would dare to act against them. If someone really dared to act against them, this meant that the other party would surely be powerful enough. Even if they were present there, it might also be useless.

But this was in the past. Qin Wentian was an exception. Although he made no movements during the years he was in the Time Realm, who knows when he would explode forth with madness?

"Manor Lord, there's someone who just started a slaughter in our Dragon Pool Manor."

"Grandpa, the Qingcheng Realmlord is wielding our World Breaking Bow and is conducting a massacre."

"Great grandfather, save me!"

Numerous voices filled with panic rang out in the Dragon Pool Manor Lord's mind. At this moment, he felt like there were five bolts of lightning striking him. His body trembled involuntarily after hearing these.

Qin Wentian was wielding the World Breaking Bow and conducting a massacre in the Dragon Pool Manor.

Not only for him, many world overlords who followed him to the Time Realm also received the message transmissions from their descendants. At this moment, every expert from the Dragon Pool Manor's residential palace in the Time Realm all soared into the air.

"ARGHH!" Someone let out a terrifying cry. He ignored everything and sped towards the exit of the Time Realm, not giving a damn whether the manor lord gave the order or not.

"My son is still in the manor." A world overlord howled.

"Everyone listen to my orders. Return to Time City immediately and kill that vile brat." The manor lord felt chills in his heart. He roared out his command and sped towards the exit as well. He had just received the news that Qin Wentian left the Time Realm. Who would have thought that Qin Wentian actually already directly acted to slaughter his people for revenge. This meant that Qin Wentian immediately acted after he left.

"Vile creature." The manor lord radiated waves of might, his anger blazed brightly in his heart. When the other experts inside the Time Realm sensed this, all of them were stunned. Seems like a major incident had happened.

The Dragon Pool Manor Lord took out his messaging crystal and messaged someone, "Tell him to stop immediately or I will demolish his Qingcheng Realm the moment I return."

Qin Wentian was the realmlord of an entire realm. Since his title was the Qingcheng Realmlord, the realm he was governing was naturally the Qingcheng Realm.

On the outside world, in the Dragon Pool Manor, someone shouted out, "Qingcheng Realmlord. If you don't stop now, my manor lord will demolish your Qingcheng Realm!"

An extremely cold light flashed in Qin Wentian's eyes after he heard that. He fired another arrow and directly killed the person who spoke. As the sound of his voice faded away, that person died instantly and the area around him was devastated together, with many people dying along with him.

Upon seeing this scene, no one else dared to threaten Qin Wentian. That would simply be courting death. They could only pray and hope that their manor lord would return as quickly as possible.

The Dragon Pool Manor Lord received more messages. He roared in anger, "Qin Wentian, if I don't slay your entire clan, I'm not a human!"

When many people heard this voice, they felt their hearts trembling violently. Seems like that supreme young man who had comprehended time stop had started his revenge against the Dragon Pool Manor after he left the Time Realm. Right now, there was most probably no one in the manor who could stop him.

Many people hesitated. After a moment, they also decided to leave and flew towards Time City for a look.

However, there was no one who pitied the Dragon Pool Manor Lord. This was merely him reaping what he has sown. He tried to deal with the family and friends of others first and heavily injured Beiming Youhuang. How could he forbid others from taking revenge? If they were Qin Wentian, they would also aim to take revenge and wouldn't stop until one party dies.

Right now, all that remained was to see who was stronger.

The manor lord didn't keep his messaging crystal. At the same time, he was also seeking reinforcements from other major powers in Time City, asking them to send their experts to stop Qin Wentian.

Other than this, he also contacted Yue Changkong, "Young Master Yue. Qin Wentian is currently taking revenge against my Dragon Pool Manor, conducting a massacre in there."

At the moment when the manor lord said this, his heart was filled with hatred. The trigger point to all of this was Yue Changkong. If it wasn't for Yue Changkong hinting to them, although they might still act against Qin Wentian, they wouldn't use such a method to completely enrage him.

Even if he really managed to tear Qin Wentian into pieces in the end, what about the losses his Dragon Pool Manor has suffered? Who would compensate him?

Hence, no matter what, he wanted to tell Yue Changkong this, letting him know what price the Dragon Pool Manor had to pay just because of a sentence from him.

After Yue Changkong heard the manor lord's words, he coldly smiled. All cordiality has been shredded between Qin Wentian and the Dragon Pool Manor? Since this was the case, let them engage in a battle of frenzy then.

In the residential palace the Donghuang Clan was in, the experts are mobilized. They received orders and were currently heading out of the Time Realm.

A majority of the experts in the Time Realm decided to leave as well, all of them sped towards the entrance, preparing to witness the incoming storm!

Chapter 1804: Domineering Lei`er

The Dragon Pool Manor was in a state of complete chaos and panic. The massacre hasn't stopped.

Qin Wentian only hunted the experts. Before his bow, all the enemy world overlords died one after another. Even for transcendent-level world overlords, they couldn't put up a fight at all. For cultivators in there that were the empyrean realm and above, everyone was annihilated.

Evidently, the assassination attempt by the Dragon Pool Manor those years ago in the Time Realm, has truly touched Qin Wentian's bottom line. Beiming Youhuang almost died. Jun Mengchen, Little Rascal, Purgatory, Nanfeng Yaoyue and the others were also almost killed. This grudge was unresolvable. One side must die.

Although many people from the Dragon Pool Manor didn't participate in this assassination attempt, the Dragon Pool Manor Lord himself could naturally represent the manor's attitude. With a single command given by him, would anyone in the Dragon Pool Manor take pity on Qin Wentian?

He didn't forget Longyuan Haoyu and the coldness on that expert's face who used the World Breaking Bow to fire that arrow. If he was weaker than he was now, everyone in the Dragon Pool Manor wouldn't have shown mercy to him. But even so, he still had a bottom line. He only slaughtered the experts in there who were at the empyrean realm and above. The existence of these people could threaten the Qingcheng Realm. Hence, all of them must die.

"Stay your hand!" At this moment, a thunderous roar rang out in the sky. The massacre here has long already attracted the attention of Time City. Right now, the news about this matter was circulating around rapidly, creating a commotion in Time City. Experts from all locations respectively rushed here. To think that there was actually someone who dared to make a move against the Dragon Pool Manor. The major power that is the Dragon Pool Manor was now facing a calamity.

As for the person who spoke, it was an expert from a power that had friendly relations with the Dragon Pool Manor. Both sides were allied by marriage and this power was also a major power in Time City. Just so coincidentally, there was a powerful expert guarding their sect while the others went to the Time Realm. Hence, this powerful expert rushed here immediately upon receiving the news.

Qin Wentian's actions halted. He coldly stared at the expert who spoke as he replied, "This is a private grudge between me and the Dragon Pool Manor."

"You are simply sick in the mind by killing so many." That expert berated, faintly releasing a cold intent.

Qin Wentian stared at him and coldly spoke, "Ridiculous to the max. When the Dragon Pool Manor gave the order to capture me and my family because of a treasure, where were you then? When Longyuan Haoyu commanded someone to abduct my wife, where were you then? And when the Dragon Pool Manor used my friends and family as a lure to force me out, and firing the World Breaking Bow, causing the arrow to pierce through the body of my friend, where were you then?"

Qin Wentian questioned him. He icily continued, "In your eyes, is it true that the Dragon Pool Manor could disregard our lives because they are a major power? Everyone felt that this is only logical. Who told me to be brave enough to antagonize them? However, I'm now labelled as someone sick in the mind because I took revenge? So, do you mean that I should just wash my neck clean and wait for the Dragon Pool Manor to execute me?"

Everyone felt their hearts being moved slightly when they heard Qin Wentian's words. How could there be such a logic in the world? Qin Wentian was right. When the Dragon Pool Manor wanted to kill him, who spoke out for him? Now, it was actually forbidden for him to take revenge?"

Both parties had already formed a death grudge, only one can survive as they are now mortal enemies. Since the Dragon Pool Manor wanted his life, why is there a need to show them any mercy?

"Scram. Whoever dares to interfere in this grudge would be equivalent to declaring themselves as my enemy. I will kill all without mercy." Qin Wentian lifted his World Breaking Bow as his killing intent flared. There was still an extremely large population in the Dragon Pool Manor. Their hearts were filled with pain. Why did the manor lord offend such a character? Why didn't he clear out all the roots of trouble and allowed this man to take revenge against them? Right now, their casualties were already immeasurable.

"You are an expert from the Wood Manor, right? You guys best not interfere in this matter. None of you will be able to bear the consequences." A cold voice rang out. That expert from the Wood Manor stiffened and glanced in the direction of the person who spoke. It was actually Ten Miles Springwind, Cao Tian and the others. This expert knew of them and his expression couldn't help but to freeze.

"Either you step out and battle or just scram from here. My brother can already be considered as having shown mercy or right now, the floor of the Dragon Pool Manor would be riddled by countless corpses, even those of low cultivation bases," Cao Tian glacially spoke. From his view, Qin Wentian using the bow to attack those with cultivation bases at the empyrean realm and above was already a gracious show of mercy. If it was him who witnessed the woman he loved being pierced by that arrow, Cao Tian knew that he would definitely annihilate every single person in the Dragon Pool Manor until everyone there was cleanly wiped out.

That expert from the Wood Manor had nothing to say. What had the Dragon Pool Manor Lord done exactly to force this Qingcheng Realmlord to act so crazily? Usually, people would always leave some leeway when they did things. But now, so many experts from the Dragon Pool Manor had already died. How should he interfere?

If he involved himself in this, Ten Miles Springwind, Cao Tian and the others were present. If he failed to kill them, what would happen if the same storm erupted in his Wood Manor?

But if he doesn't stop the Qingcheng Realmlord, the Dragon Pool Manor would surely be demolished today.

Qin Wentian continued his massacre, aiming for those at the empyrean level and above. Screams of pain and agony continuously rang out and the entire scene was extremely chaotic. The buildings crumbled one after another, and the usually grand and impressive Dragon Pool Manor was now completely devastated.

Also, the calamity arose from the Dragon Pool Manor Lord's decision. Or to better put it, the start of everything was because of Longyuan Haoyu's arrogance. He didn't settle the matter between Qin Wentian and the Heaven Immortal Tower well. If not, how could everything that have happened in the future, happened at all?

As to why he didn't handle it well, it was naturally because of his status. Longyuan Haoyu simply looked down on Qin Wentian.

When the Dragon Pool Manor Lord brought his men and rushed over, the entire Dragon Pool Manor had collapsed. All experts that were at the empyrean realm and above no longer existed. All the world overlords that remained behind had all fallen.

The internal power structure of the Dragon Pool Manor collapsed completely. Only some juniors, as well as experts from the higher echelons who went to the Time Realm, still survived.

And all of this, was naturally done by that young man in white who was now standing in the airspace above the Dragon Pool Manor. He actually still dared to stay here.

"ARGH!" The manor lord let out a terrifying scream of rage. His eyes were cold to the extreme as he stared at Qin Wentian. A palpable killing intent could be felt churning in the space around him. No matter where the spectators stood, they could clearly sense his will to kill Qin Wentian.

The Dragon Pool Manor Lord was enraged, completely enraged.

"Qin Wentian, I shall kill your entire family and annihilate your entire clan. I will completely destroy your Qingcheng Realm!" The manor lord spoke in rage. The flames of rage seemed to make him forget everything else. He could not maintain a calm state of heart.

"When you gave the command to act against my friends and family, and when an expert from your manor used the World Breaking Bow to assassinate me, did you not imagine the consequences if you failed?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

"DIE!" The Dragon Pool Manor Lord howled. He released his world heart but at the moment when his power gushed forth, another type of energy manifested in the void. This energy instantly enveloped the entire space, shrouding everyone within, including the Dragon Pool Manor Lord.

When the pressure from this energy bore down on him, the expression of the Dragon Pool Manor Lord's face turned incredibly unsightly. "Who is the person backing you? How dare you take such crazy actions."

From the void, a group of figures appeared. Luoshen Lei was present as well. Behind her, two old men could be seen, acting as her protectors.

"The Luoshen Clan?" The expression of the manor lord paled. Was the Luoshen Clan planning to interfere in this?

"Back then when you commanded that expert to fire the arrow, I once told you to remember your actions and don't forget them for eternity. Now, do you still remember it?" Luoshen Lei spoke. Initially, those people from the Dragon Pool Manor all felt hope when they saw their manor lord arriving. But right now, they could sense that their manor lord was actually quailing under the pressure, he wasn't like earlier when his rage towered up into the sky. He was not as confident as before.

Because, this young woman has appeared. In that case, for this beautiful young woman who stood in the air, what was her identity exactly?

"Why is the Luoshen Clan interfering in a matter of our Mystic Region? My Dragon Pool Manor can be considered a major power in Time City. Your Luoshen Clan is acting so overbearingly, are you bullying us because you feel that there's no one in the Mystic Region that can stand up to you?" The Dragon Pool Manor Lord icily spoke, wanting to escalate the matter to one that's between the Mystic Region and Luoshen Clan. He wanted to pressure them.

"I once warned you that this young man has a friendship with me and I told the Dragon Pool Manor not to touch him. However, you completely disregarded my words. Can the prestige of my Luoshen Clan be trampled by the likes of the Dragon Pool Manor? There's no need for you to use the Mystic Region to pressure me. This matter between us has nothing to do with the Mystic Region and the Desolate Region. The Dragon Pool Manor is just an ant-like existence, you even want to represent the Mystic Region?" Luoshen Lei coldly spoke. Such arrogant words were actually spoken by a young and extremely beautiful woman like her. Yet, it didn't give off any feeling of being inappropriate.

This was simply because, everyone soon learned of the fact that she was from the Luoshen Clan. To think that the Luoshen Clan was a part of this storm as well.

The Dragon Pool Manor Lord had disregarded the words of the Luoshen Clan and attempted to kill Qin Wentian. The Luoshen Clan felt that their prestige and might was undermined and wanted revenge, hence they instructed the Qingcheng Realmlord to start a massacre.

That expert from the Wood Manor felt his heart trembling violently. Luckily he wasn't involved yet. He was almost harmed by the Dragon Pool Manor Lord, no one told him that this matter involved the Luoshen Clan. If the Wood Manor really involved themselves, the consequences for them would be unimaginably dire.

"Who are you in the Luoshen Clan?" The expression of the Dragon Pool Manor Lord was extremely unsightly to behold as he stared at Luoshen Lei. This young woman definitely has an extraordinary status in the Luoshen Clan. Both the old men behind her were exceedingly powerful. It was especially so for that old man with his eyes closed, who had manifested that energy that created this pressure. He is surely an extremely fearsome character.

"I, Luoshen Lei of the Luoshen Clan came to the Mystic Region to search for a treasure I lost. I found it through the help of the Qingcheng Realmlord." Luoshen Lei calmly spoke. Everyone remembered her name, but they had no idea of her status. After all, her name wasn't famous enough yet and still has not spread through the eight regions.

Luoshen Lei's words made it sound like she was the mastermind of this incident.

Because, no one could doubt the prestige and the might of the Luoshen Clan.

"What do you want to do?" The Dragon Pool Manor Lord asked. The people from the Dragon Pool manor felt despair after they heard this. Their manor lord has arrived, however, let alone taking revenge, he might not even be able to save himself. He didn't dare to make any reckless moves now and actually asked Luoshen Lei what she wanted to do. He completely had no confidence at all.

Why did their manor lord offend such powerful characters and cause a calamity?

"Since you guys disregarded my words in the Time Realm, just commit suicide now and I will permit the Dragon Pool Manor to continue existing. This matter shall be concluded then." Luoshen Lei quietly spoke, yet her words were extremely tyrannical, telling these experts from the upper echelons of the Dragon Pool manor to commit suicide.

"What audacious words. A power from the Desolate Region actually dares to act in this manner in our Mystic Region?" At this moment, a cold laughter suddenly rang out. The other major powers in the Time Realm have arrived here. Donghuang Ying and Yue Changkong were here as well and the person who spoke was none other than Yue Changkong!

Chapter 1805: Ziwei Divine Court's Attitude

Qin Wentian and Luoshen Lei stared at Yue Changkong together. With regards to Yue Changkong, Qin Wentian felt more and more loathing and disgust. This man was completely shameless and extremely persistent. Right now, Yue Changkong even wanted to interfere in this matter between him and the Dragon Pool Manor.

Naturally, Qin Wentian had no idea that Yue Changkong was the mastermind behind the assassination attempt on him conducted by the Dragon Pool Manor.

"I've never said that I represent the Desolate Region. It's just that the Dragon Pool Manor disregarded my Luoshen Clan's prestige, they naturally have to pay a price for that. As for you, although you are now a heavenly deity's disciple, you are merely an entry-level one. What qualifications do you have to speak as though you represent the Mystic Region? You are not worthy enough yet." Luoshen Lei coldly mocked.

"How imposing." Donghuang Ying sneered. "Right now, Changkong is a disciple of the Ziwei Divine Court, how is he not qualified. Although you are someone from the Luoshen Clan, don't forget that you have lost to him. You are just a loser." Donghuang Ying continued.

"You haven't even married him but you are already starting to speak for him?" Cao Tian glanced at Donghuang Ying, "The Donghuang Clan is getting worse and worse with each successive generation."

"Cao Tian, you are someone who didn't even dare to return to your own clan. Just shut up." An expert from the Donghuang Clan spoke. The Eastern Royal Immortal Realms and Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms were equal in strength and they both belonged to different camps. The Donghuang Clan was a vassal force of the Ziwei Divine Court while the Cao Clan was a vassal force to the Great Devil Divine Palace. Although both sides were familiar with each other, their relationship had always been one of competition.

"Hehe." Cao Tian coldly laughed. "Your Donghuang Clan should properly educate your juniors. Yue Changkong defeated a young maiden who has recently broken through to the world overlord realm but is actually feeling so self-satisfied? In that case, Yue Changkong's cultivation time was longer than Qin Wentian's, why was he defeated so easily then? What can you say about this? Best to stop smacking your own faces. Back then, the Dragon Pool Manor tried to kill Qin Wentian and he is now merely taking revenge. Your Donghuang Clan isn't qualified to interfere. This place is Time City of the Mystic Region and not the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms."

"The Qingcheng Realmlord naturally can take revenge. If he can destroy the Dragon Pool Manor alone, I won't say anything as this is their private grudge. However, the Luoshen Clan is a major power in the Desolate Region. They cannot interfere. After all, this place is the Mystic Region. If we allow a power from the Desolate Region to destroy a major power of our Mystic Region, what would the three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region think? Me, as a disciple of the Ziwei Divine Court, I naturally cannot sit aside. Cao Tian, no matter what you can be considered someone from the Cao Clan that is a vassal force to the Great Devil Divine Palace. To think that you are actually speaking for someone from the Desolate Region. Could it be that you are not only prepared to leave your clan and you are preparing to leave the Mystic Region instead?" Yue Changkong spoke righteously, as though justice was on his side. He wanted to interfere in this using the identity of a disciple from the Ziwei Divine Court.

He was more than happy to watch the fight between Qin Wentian and the Dragon Pool Manor. It would naturally be for the best if the Dragon Pool Manor could kill Qin Wentian. But if the Luoshen Clan interferes, the result would be obvious, the Dragon Pool Manor would be completely destroyed. This was something he didn't want to see. And in addition, if the Dragon Pool Manor was destroyed like this, who knows if the Dragon Pool Manor Lord would reveal his name as the mastermind or not.

Hence, he had to express his attitude.

"Stop bringing up the Ziwei Divine Court everytime you speak. You are just a disciple that just entered. You cannot represent the Ziwei Divine Court." Cao Tian mockingly spoke. This Yue Changkong was truly shameless enough and had very thick skin.

"Since he is a disciple of our Ziwei Divine Court, he naturally has the right to represent the Ziwei Divine Court and speak." At this moment, a voice rang out. A major character from the Ziwei Divine Court has spoken. His aura was transcendent and extremely powerful. When Yue Changkong saw him, he immediately greeted, "Martial uncle!"

As the sound of his voice faded, many world overlords in the surroundings were shocked. Right now, Yue Changkong had entered the tutelage of a heavenly deity in the Ziwei Divine Court. This major character was his martial uncle? This meant that this major character was the younger apprentice brother of his master. Most probably, this man had an extraordinary status in the Ziwei Divine Court.

Qin Wentian frowned, he didn't expect there would be people from the Ziwei Divine Court interfering today. They seemed to want to stop him from dealing with the Dragon Pool Manor.

To Qin Wentian, he must destroy the Dragon Pool Manor for sure. If he didn't do so, that would be equivalent to leaving a future source of trouble behind. Back then, he only killed a Longyuan Haoyu in a fair battle, and the Dragon Pool Manor already wanted to deal with his friends and family to lure him out to kill him. Now that he massacred so many here, the Dragon Pool Manor would surely take crazy revenge if he didn't exterminate them now.

"I didn't expect Dao Friend Lifeless to come all the way here to my Mystic Region. Seems like this young maiden must be the daughter of the Skyorder Heavenly Deity." That major character from the Ziwei Divine Court spoke, recognizing Lifeless. They were both heavenly deity-ranked powers, although they were in different regions, they would naturally pay attention to each other. Lifeless was the person the Skyorder Heavenly Deity trusted the most. Now that he appeared beside this young woman, there was only a possibility. Luoshen Lei must be the daughter of the Skyorder Heavenly Deity.

"The daughter of a heavenly deity." The hearts of many people trembled as they glanced at Luoshen Lei. Her status was even more esteemed compared to the disciple of a heavenly deity. This beautiful young woman was actually a heavenly deity's daughter.

Donghuang Ying felt slightly uncomfortable in her heart. Yue Changkong was just the disciple of a heavenly deity and she was only Yue Changkong's fiancee. Her beauty was inferior to Luoshen Lei. It seems that both in status and beauty, she was a level lower.

"No wonder her talent would be so extraordinary, so it turned out that she is Senior Skyorder's daughter. I heard of the incident that happened to the Skyorder Heavenly Deity back then. How glorious and magnificent was he in the past? Yet, he was defeated by a junior and had his cultivation crippled. A heavenly deity instantly became a cripple. Such agony should be worse than death, right?"

Yue Changkong calmly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, Luoshen Lei turned to stare at him, her eyes were like swords, extremely cold and sharp, as she radiated an intense killing intent.

Qin Wentian also stared at Yue Changkong. His words seemed to be praising the Skyorder Heavenly Deity, but it was also a type of insult in a disguised form.

Lifeless's silhouette flashed, soaring through the air. At the same time, Yue Changkong's martial uncle also moved, blocking before Yue Changkong. The major characters of the Donghuang Clan did so as well. Lifeless simply stared at them, his eyes gleaming with an icy killing intent.

"This place is the Mystic Region. If the Luoshen Clan dares to act against a disciple of my Ziwei Divine Court, there's no need for anyone of the Luoshen Clan to leave here alive today." The martial uncle of Yue Changkong coldly spoke. Lifeless didn't move. He understood that this place was indeed the Mystic Region. The heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court could rush here in the blink of an eye if they wanted.

Two deity-ranked powers were now in opposition. This caused many of the spectating world overlords to feel their hearts trembling. This incident seemed as though it was going to create a great deal of trouble. Or would both sides compromise?

Most probably not.

"Senior, I'm also a realmlord of the Mystic Region and answered the summons, coming all the way here to attend the Convention of the Myriad Realms. During the convention, the Dragon Pool Manor ignored the rules and acted against my wife who stayed in my residential palace. After that, they acted against my friends and family and nearly assassinated me. Now, I came here for revenge. Is senior going to stop me?" Qin Wentain walked out and stared at Yue Changkong's martial uncle.

"I won't stop you from having your revenge. However, the Luoshen Clan cannot interfere." Yue Changkong's martial uncle glanced at Qin Wentian. This young man had an extremely outstanding talent. If he continued to occupy one of the constellation lord positions and didn't give it up, the Ziwei Divine Court would also have recruited him. Sadly, Qin Wentian chosen to give up and decided to join the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. By doing so, it felt like Qin Wentian wasn't giving any face to their Ziwei Divine Court.

"The Luoshen Clan doesn't represent the Desolate Region. It is because of our friendship that they helped me out. Why is this not allowed?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Not allowed means not allowed. There's no other reasons." Yue Changkong's martial uncle calmly spoke. "I've already said it, if you want revenge, do it yourself. No one will stop you."

"What logic is this? In that case, I also have a private grudge with Yue Changkong. If I want to kill him, the Ziwei Divine Court cannot interfere too?" Qin Wentian didn't want to offend the Ziwei Divine Court but now, their attitude caused him to feel very disappointed. Today, whoever stops him from acting against the Dragon Pool Manor, would be his enemy.

"Your tone is too insolent." Donghuang Ying coldly spoke.

"What nonsense. If I want to kill him, it would be as effortless as turning my palm over. Why don't you ask him if he dares to battle with me?" Qin Wentian coldly mocked. Donghuang Ying's expression froze. Yue Changkong's expression also turned unsightly. Right now, he was a heavenly deity's disciple but he was still publicly insulted by Qin Wentian. Yet, he could do nothing to refute it. Could it really be he had to fight with Qin Wentian again?

But even now, Yue Changkong knew that he would lose to Qin Wentian for sure. That was the true reason why he wanted Qin Wentian dead so badly.

"Impudent." That expert from the Ziwei Divine Court berated. He icily continued, "Right now, Changkong is already a disciple of my senior brother. How are you qualified to challenge him just because you want to?"

"Can senior's attitude represent the Ziwei Divine Court's attitude?" Qin Wentian's gaze turned glacial.

"Naturally." That person replied.

"Good." Qin Wentian felt a cold intent in his heart. At this moment, another voice drifted over, "The Qingcheng Realmlord would head to my Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to cultivate in the near future. Why is he not qualified?"

As the sound of this voice faded, another group of people appeared. The person in the lead was none other than that old man who was a major character in the sacred academy. He stared at Qin Wentian and smiled, "Qin Wentian, I've already consulted with the heavenly deities of our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. They are willing to become your teachers and transmit the dao to you. Are you willing to be their student? Naturally, it's fine if you reject too. You can still head to the sacred academy for cultivation."

Qin Wentian started. A moment later, he felt joy in his heart. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was willing to back him up.

He always had good will towards the sacred academy and in addition, he naturally trusted them a lot.

Right now, the Ziwei Divine Court's attitude made him very disappointed.

"This is a matter of honor for junior. I'm naturally willing." Qin Wentian nodded.

The people in the surroundings felt their hearts trembling. Qin Wentian just became another person that entered the tutelage of a heavenly deity. Although the capacity was that of a teacher and student, it wasn't really any different from a master. He can be considered a heavenly deity's disciple too, equivalent to Yue Changkong.

The Ziwei Divine Court chose to support Yue Changkong while the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was willing to back the Qingcheng Realmlord even at the price of offending the Ziwei Divine Court. How interesting?

One was the inheritor of a godking, another was someone who has defeated this inheritor. Who would be more outstanding in the future?

Donghuang Ying's expression changed. Qin Wentian had also gained the favor of a heavenly deity? But so what? Yue Changkong was the Time King's inheritor, he would definitely be more outstanding.

"Okay." The old man from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy smiled and nodded. He stared at Yue Changkong's martial uncle. "Before this, the deeds done by the Dragon Pool Manor went overboard yet the Ziwei Divine Court didn't interfere. In that case, the Ziwei Divine Court wouldn't interfere in this matter today too, right? If not, wouldn't this be a case of biasness?"

"The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has never interfered in worldly disputes. It's best that you all don't interfere in this too. Since the Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region is involved, how can my Ziwei Divine Court step aside?" The major character spoke unhappily. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy seemed to be smacking the face of the Ziwei Divine Court. This made him very unhappy.

The Ziwei Divine Court's attitude was very clear. Yue Changkong's attitude was their attitude.

Qin Wentian coldly laughed in his heart. He stared at Yue Changkong's martial uncle, "Senior, earlier you said that if I handle this matter on my own, the Ziwei Divine Court wouldn't interfere in my revenge against the Dragon Pool Manor?"

"As long as the Luoshen Clan doesn't interfere, my Ziwei Divine Court absolutely wouldn't do so either." The other party nodded.

"Good." Qin Wentian nodded. "Since this is the case, I challenge the Dragon Pool Manor Lord."

As the sound of his voice faded, the experts in the surroundings were all stunned!

Chapter 1806: Similarities in the Past and Present

Everyone stared incredulously at Qin Wentian. He wanted to challenge the Dragon Pool Manor Lord?

Of course there was no need to doubt Qin Wentian's talent. In the Time Realm, he was one of the most dazzling world overlords. He once defeated Yue Changkong and had comprehended the ability to stop time. However, what sort of character was the Dragon Pool Manor Lord? He was a true hegemonic-level world overlord and he has controlled the Dragon Pool Manor for many years. He can be considered one of the peak experts in Time City.

Had Qin Wentian gone mad? He actually challenged the Dragon Pool Manor Lord.

"Elder brother." Luoshen Lei transmitted her voice, feeling some worry.

"Think carefully about this." Ten Miles Springwind also transmitted his voice over, staring at Qin Wentian. Old Ghost's eyes narrowed out of habit, Cao Tian started, but he soon broke into an uproarious laugh. What an imposing spirit. As expected of one of his brothers.

Yue Changkong was also stunned. But after that, a cold smile flashed past his eyes. Was Qin Wentian courting death? This was what he wanted to see in any case.

Donghuang Ying stared at Qin Wentian, feeling that he has grossly overestimated his own capabilities. To think that he was arrogant to this extent. Most probably, Qin Wentian had no idea how powerful hegemonic-level world overlords are, right?

The eyes of the major character from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy flashed. He stared at Qin Wentian with astonishment before he asked, "Are you sure?"

"Senior, the Ziwei Divine Court is one of the hegemons of the Mystic Region. Since this is their attitude, I can only act myself and abide by their rules." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Good." That major character nodded, he didn't stop Qin Wentian. Upon reaching Qin Wentian's current cultivation realm, one's state of heart would surely be extraordinary. They naturally would be clear of what they wanted to do.

Since Qin Wentian has decided, he naturally wouldn't stop him.

An intense killing intent flared in the eyes of the Dragon Pool Manor Lord. This was Qin Wentian courting his own death.

Luckily for the situation today, the Ziwei Divine Court showed itself. He naturally understood this was because of Yue Changkong. If Yue Changkong didn't express his attitude in these circumstances and caused his Dragon Pool Manor to be completely annihilated, he would definitely reveal the fact that they did this because of Yue Changkong's hint. But now, although he still hated Yue Changkong, he couldn't afford to offend him.

Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he soared up into the airspace above the Dragon Pool Manor.

"Just fight to your utmost, there's no need to care about anything on the ground." The major character from the Ziwei Divine Court spoke, telling the Dragon Pool Manor Lord to be at ease and fight, there was no need to worry about the Dragon Pool Manor suffering from any collateral damage from the aftershocks. He would take care of that.

The Dragon Pool Manor Lord nodded, his killing intent filled the air as he stepped out. The gaze he looked at Qin Wentian with, was like looking at a dead man.

A young genius world overlord wanted to challenge him?

Seems like this Qin Wentian truly doesn't know the immensity of the heavens and earth. So what even if he had the ability to stop time? The prerequisite was that Qin Wentian had to have enough power to suppress his world heart. As a hegemonic-level world overlord, there would be no suspense in this battle. Qin Wentian would die for sure.

At this instant, Qin Wentian saw the eyes of the Dragon Pool Manor Lord suddenly turning grey. From within, streams of death intent shot out. This entire world turned into darkness, radiating an extremely terrifying aura.

A hegemonic-level world overlord would have fused many source origins to create unfathomably powerful heavenheart mandates. Their world hearts would surely be immensely strong. Qin Wentian chose to challenge the Dragon Pool Manor Lord because he had no other choice left. If the Dragon Pool Manor wasn't exterminated today, there would surely be a calamity in his Qingcheng Realm in the near future. Since he had a death grudge with a hegemonic-level world overlord, the Dragon Pool Manor Lord, only by killing him would all future troubles be resolved.

Hence, Qin Wentian would go all out to kill the Dragon Pool Manor Lord in this battle.

"Qin Wentian, even after you die, you will regret what you did today. It's you who have implicated the people around you." The Dragon Pool Manor Lord coldly transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian. Today, Qin Wentian started a massacre in the Dragon Pool Manor. This debt naturally has to be accounted for. Qin Wentian's life alone was insufficient for the payment.

As the sound of his voice faded, he didn't intend to give Qin Wentian any chance at all. He directly released his world heart as the darkness in the surroundings grew heavier, like that of a true judgement day. Qin Wentian was in the center of this dark and grey world that was brimming with death intent. It felt as though he had descended into hell.

Around Qin Wentian, the other spectators no longer existed. There was only this abyss of death. It could devour everything and the Dragon Pool Manor Lord was naturally the controller of this abyss.

"Today, you will understand what it means to fight a hegemonic-level world overlord." The Dragon Pool Manor Lord spoke. Qin Wentian's expression was like ice yet his gaze was incomparably determined. He had to win this battle no matter what.

Outside the area of effect generated by the world heart, many people were looking at the scene in the air. It was a hellish abyss of death that trapped Qin Wentian within. Qin Wentian's body was completely enveloped by the power of the Dragon Pool Manor Lord's world heart and he had no way to exit it. There was only a single possibility, Qin Wentian would die within.

"Elder brother!" Luoshen Lei's beautiful eyes flashed with a trace of worry. She transmitted her voice to Lifeless, "Grandpa Lifeless, if he encounters danger, disregard everything else and save him."

She couldn't care too much and she didn't give a damn about the Ziwei Divine Court. Her elder brother challenging a hegemonic-level world overlord...this challenge by itself was already an unfair battle. If something really did happen, she naturally would ignore everything else to save him.

She knew that her father's hope still rested on Qin Wentian.

"The world heart of the Dragon Pool Manor Lord is named the Abyss of Death. Upon being trapped by the power of his world heart, no one would be able to survive. This Qingcheng Realmlord doesn't know the immensity of the heavens and earth." A major character from the Donghuang Clan spoke. Donghuang Ying coldly observed everything as she added, "He is truly courting his death. Simply too arrogant."

An icy smile also appeared on Yue Changkong's face, it was like he could already see Qin Wentian's death. This was the effect he wanted. After the Dragon Pool Manor Lord killed Qin Wentian, from now on, he would be the Time King's successor.

Within the Dragon Pool Manor, countless experts from there inclined their heads, staring at the air. These people all had hatred in their hearts, all of them wanted Qin Wentian to die.

The Dragon Pool Manor Lord stood in the center of the abyss, he was like a god that could control this hell. His eyes flashed with death intent, he stared at Qin Wentian and said, "Accept your death."

As the sound of his voice faded, the energy in the abyss of death flowed towards Qin Wentian, wanting to devour him. Each strand of energy here contained an extremely powerful death intent, just coming in contact with one strand was sufficient to kill many experts. If the abyss of death enveloped an entire city, everyone in the entire city would turn into skeletons instantly.

Qin Wentian's world heart was released, its power gushed out rapidly, integrating into the abyss of death, actually flowing together with his enemy's world heart.

"Time stop." Qin Wentian called out. The churning abyssal energies slowed at this instant but at the very next moment, the abyss erupt forth with an even more terrifying might, breaking through the restriction of time stop. The black abyssal energy continued to invade and corrode the power of time stop. Clearly, Qin Wentian's world heart wasn't at a higher level compared to the Dragon Pool Manor Lord's world heart. Qin Wentian couldn't suppress him.

The Dragon Pool Manor Lord walked over, moving closer to Qin Wentian. He wanted to see the despair on Qin Wentian's face, he wanted to see how Qin Wentian would die.

But at this moment, Qin Wentian's eyes erupted with an intense cold light. His state of heart was as calm as still water, he was never so calm before.

Near his chest area, an incomparably resplendent light radiated forth. His entire body was filled with an energy that could transcend everything. At this moment, a sense of control filled Qin Wentian. This was a control towards time. He could clearly sense the formless flowing rate of time in that eternal, boundlessly vast river of time.

This formless energy permeated the abyss of death and flowed towards the Dragon Pool Manor Lord's body, wrapping around him. The Dragon Pool Manor Lord didn't sense anything. He didn't cultivate the time laws, how would he be able to feel the flow of time energy?

However, he could sense that Qin Wentian seemed to have undergone a transformation. That resplendent radiance felt like the might of heavenly dao, causing Qin Wentian's body to glow with divine light. He faintly felt a sense of unease. His instincts were extremely sharp, he felt as though some mysterious energy had invaded his body.

"Time stop." Qin Wentian called out once more. At this moment, the long robes of the Dragon Pool Manor Lord stopped fluttering in the wind. His fingers froze there and his body could no longer move forward.

The Dragon Pool Manor Lord could sense what was happening to him. His heart beat had also ceased. Only his thoughts were unaffected.

"How is this possible?" Fear filled the Dragon Pool Manor Lord's heart, slowly turning into despair. He was actually affected by Qin Wentian's time stop and his body was in the frozen time.

How could Qin Wentian miss this opportunity? At the instant he called out, the power of his heavenheart mandate frenziedly erupted forth as destructive beams of light pierced through the Dragon Pool Manor Lord's body. He took a step forward and instantly arrived before the Dragon Pool Manor Lord. The boundless energy in his world heart was concentrated into his fist. At this moment, Qin Wentian's fist was incomparably radiant, glowing with power. All of a sudden, all this power erupted forth, ferociously blasting towards the Dragon Pool Manor Lord via a punch.

A beam of light capable of destroying the heavens and earth pierced into the Dragon Pool Manor Lord's body. The manor lord trembled and the frozen time and space seemed to be shattered by the power of that punch.

Terror could now be seen in the eyes of the Dragon Pool Manor Lord. With a deafening bang, his incomparably powerful body directly exploded into smithereens. At this instant, the abyss of death vanished completely as the Dragon Pool Manor Lord's body turned into dust. When all the dust had settled, and calmness returned to this space, only the white-robed figure of Qin Wentian could be seen standing arrogantly in the air, exuding unexcelled magnificence.

A single punch to destroy a hegemonic-level world overlord.

"No…" The people from the Dragon Pool Manor had looks of despair on their faces. Their manor lord was dead, this caused them to feel boundless despair. For those experts who followed the Dragon Pool Manor Lord into the Time Realm, right now only terror remained in their hearts.

There was once a person in the Mystic Region who had a grudge with a major power in the Time Realm. After that person exited the Time Realm, he instantly annihilated that major power, razing it to the ground.

And today, after the convention, Qin Wentian who departed from the Time Realm wanted to exterminate the Dragon Pool Manor. He used a single punch to destroy the hegemonic-level Dragon Pool Manor Lord.

There was once a man in the past. His name was Jian Junlai and was now a legendary character of the Mystic Region, the Sword Monarch.

There is also a man today that seemed to be as dazzling as Jian Junlai. He was the Qingcheng Realmlord, Qin Wentian.

History was so shockingly similar. However, Jian Junlai once received the inheritance of the Time King but this time around, for the convention, the person who received the Time King's inheritance was Yue Changkong instead. That Yue Changkong who got defeated by Qin Wentian?!

Chapter 1807: Exposed

The major character from the Ziwei Divine Court stared at Qin Wentian's figure. He didn't expect that Qin Wentian would actually be able to kill the Dragon Pool Manor Lord. When they fought earlier, there seemed to be some treasure in his body, releasing that terrible light. From there, his strength was greatly boosted, he channelled his time stop ability and killed the Dragon Pool Manor Lord in a single strike.

A young supreme genius world overlord that has cultivated for less than a thousand years actually managing to kill a hegemonic-level world overlord? What did this mean?

This meant that Qin Wentian has extremely great potential, he might be able to become a heavenly deity. His talent wasn't inferior to Jian Junlai of the past at all.

However, he didn't choose the Ziwei Divine Court, he chose the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy instead.

If one had to say that Qin Wentian made a mistake, this should be his only mistake. If he was willing to occupy the position of a constellation lord, the Ziwei Divine Court would surely be willing to nurture him at the same level as they did for Yue Changkong.

Yue Changkong's eyes abruptly narrowed, flashing with coldness. How could this be? This result has spoiled his plan. He initially thought that today would be Qin Wentian's death date, yet Qin Wentian managed to give everyone a surprise. He killed the Dragon Pool Manor Lord in a fair battle. In this case, he no longer had any excuse to make Qin Wentian stay behind.

The people of the Donghuang Clan and Donghuang Ying froze there. Donghuang Ying clenched her fists tightly, feeling somewhat uncomfortable because Qin Wentian was the victor.

In the direction of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, that major character revealed a smile on his face. Qin Wentian was as expected of a successor of a godking.

Luoshen Lei's beautiful eyes revealed a radiant smile. Her elder brother was truly an incomparable character. His opponent would no longer be someone of Yue Changkong's standard. It was the son of the heavens of the Heaven Region. That was then his destined opponent.

She grew more and more confident that Qin Wentian would surely be able to reach that step, just like what her father believed.

"I submit completely." Ten Miles Springwind speechlessly spoke. Qin Wentian was even able to do this?

"Haha, Old Ghost, are you able to win against Brother Qin?" Cao Tian laughed as he stared at Old Ghost beside him. Old Ghost narrowed his eyes and didn't reply. Phoenix also felt many emotions in her heart. Qin Wentian was too outstanding. Back then when they made friends with Qin Wentian, they didn't expect him to be so outstanding to this extent.

Seems like this friend of theirs was born extraordinary. In the future, Qin Wentian would surely be a legendary character.

This was also the thoughts of many world overlords in the surroundings. For this convention, before this, many felt that Yue Changkong was the most dazzling character. But now, Qin Wentian's achievements should already be enough to surpass Yue Changkong. If it wasn't enough that he had defeated Yue Changkong, what about him defeating a hegemonic-level world overlord, the Dragon Pool Manor Lord?

Qin Wentian's countenance was as calm as ever. He glanced at the other world overlords of the Dragon Pool Manor. There were still many powerful characters in the Dragon Pool Manor, he wouldn't spare any of them. Killing intent flickered in his eyes, those world overlords all felt their hearts trembling when they saw this, as their countenances paled.

Although they were superior in terms of numbers, the determinant of the victory of a battle would never be the number of participants. This was especially so for experts at the world overlord level. Qin Wentian could already kill the Dragon Pool Manor Lord using the power of his world heart and innate heavenheart mandate. In that case, who among the experts from the Dragon Pool Manor would be able to contend against him?

"Do you all want to suicide, or do you all want me to act personally?" Qin Wentian coldly asked. Those experts turned their gazes to the major character of the Ziwei Divine Court. Right now, only the Ziwei Divine Court could save their Dragon Pool Manor. But at this moment, that major character of the Ziwei Divine Court had fallen silent. Before this, he already said that as long as the Luoshen Clan doesn't interfere, the Ziwei Divine Court wouldn't interfere in this private grudge between Qin Wentian and the Dragon Pool Manor. Now, if he spoke for them again, wouldn't that be equivalent to smacking his own face?

In addition, it was true that he no longer had any reason to interfere in this matter.

"Young Master Yue." A world overlord glanced at Yue Changkong, causing him to furrow his brows. Yue Changkong continued, "Qingcheng Realmlord, you started a massacre in the Mystic Region today and you have already gone too far. It's time for you to stop."

Qin Wentian coldly glanced at him, "If you want to fight, you can step out now. If not, just shut your mouth."

There was nothing more humiliating than such a direct insult. You, Yue Changkong, didn't even have the qualifications to interrupt.

Yue Changkong's expression was somewhat unsightly but he ultimately didn't say anything.

Upon seeing his silence as well as sensing the killing intent in Qin Wentian's eyes, that world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor spoke, "Qin Wentian, I have something I want to say."

"If you wish to beg for mercy, you might as well save your words." Qin Wentian icily replied.

"The reason why our Dragon Pool Manor would have today, is all because of Yue Changkong." That world overlord suddenly spoke, his words causing a terrifying coldness to flash through Qin Wentian's eyes. Back then, the Dragon Pool Manor used such a radical method to deal with him, causing him to feel somewhat strange. Could it be that there was some hidden reason behind this?

Yue Changkong's countenance instantly turned extremely sharp. He spoke hurriedly, "What nonsense are you talking about?"

"Yue Changkong, although you are a disciple of the Ziwei Divine Court, however since you still want to remain neutral at such a moment after harming my Dragon Pool Manor, I have no choice but to reveal this to everyone." That world overlord spoke, "Back then because Yue Changkong was accepted by a heavenly deity as a disciple, our Dragon Pool Manor went to the Donghuang Clan's residential palace to offer our congratulations. Not only our Dragon Pool Manor, many other major powers headed there as well. Yue Changkong then intentionally looked for our manor lord for a conversation and hinted to us about our grudge with Qin Wentian. The manor lord initially had some trepidations because of the Luoshen Clan and the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy but Yue Changkong said that the Luoshen Clan was from the Desolate Region and had no right to interfere in this. And with the Ziwei Divine Court present, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy wouldn't do anything either. He even hinted that in the future, the Dragon Pool Manor might become a vassal force of the Ziwei Divine court."

"Yue Changkong." Qin Wentian's gaze turned extremely cold. In that case, back then Yue Changkong hadn't merely showed his killing intent when he challenged Qin Wentian. Even after he became a heavenly deity's disciple and joined the Ziwei Divine Court, Yue Changkong was as sinister as ever, unwilling to show Qin Wentian, the true successor of the Time King, any mercy at all. He hinted to the Dragon Pool Manor to kill him. In that case, Beiming Youhuang who was almost killed by that arrow before, was all because of Yue Changkong. He was the mastermind behind everything.

Yue Changkong's despicableness had already exceeded the limit to which Qin Wentian could endure.

"As expected of a vile character." Cao Tian coldly spoke. "I suggest for the Ziwei Divine Court to properly gauge this man's character."

Luoshen Lei also stared at Yue Changkong in a very cold manner.

They all believed the words of this world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor because it was true that today, the Ziwei Divine Court acted to stop the Luoshen Clan. Also, for that assassination of Qin Wentian back then, although the Dragon Pool Manor knew that they would offend both the Luoshen Clan and the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy by doing so, the manor lord still chose to do it. How queer. But if Yue Changkong had hinted and promised that the Dragon Pool Manor could become a vassal force of the Ziwei Divine Court, everything fits then.

"Do you know what are the consequences of sullying the reputation of a disciple from the Ziwei Divine Court?" Yue Changkong coldly stared at the world overlord. He naturally wouldn't admit to this.

However, Donghuang Ying's beautiful eyes were staring at him, she recalled the secretive scenes between Yue Changkong and the Dragon Pool Manor. Back then when she inquired, Yue Changkong told her it was nothing. After that, the Dragon Pool Manor actually moved to assassinate Qin Wentian. She had a faint feeling that this was because of Yue Changkong.

Why did her fiancee want to kill Qin Wentian so much? Was it because of his defeat to Qin Wentian which led to Yue Changkong's jealousy?

She felt somewhat unwilling to believe this. She only supported Yue Changkong because she felt that he was more outstanding. This was why she was biased to him and had given up on Qin Wentian's friendship, agreeing to Yue Changkong's marriage proposal. Even if Yue Changkong had been defeated then, she still believed that Yue Changkong who was the Time King's successor, would surely be even more outstanding in the future and would cleanse this humiliation of defeat. She didn't wish to accept the fact that Yue Changkong might be jealous of Qin Wentian.

"Now things have come to this state, our Dragon Pool Manor suffered a calamity because of your words yet you still pretend to act neutral? Only speaking a single sentence? Since this is the case, I shall publicly announce this matter. There's no need for you to threaten me, the Dragon Pool Manor is already in this state, we don't care what the Ziwei Divine Court wants to do to us." That world overlord's state of heart felt like dead ashes. They weren't willing to keep this a secret anymore since they were going to die.

"I believe your words." Qin Wentian spoke. "I conducted a massacre because your Dragon Pool Manor went too overboard in your actions. Not only did you want to kill me, you even wanted to target my friends and family. But since the mastermind behind this was Yue Changkong, I can give you all an opportunity. I'm willing to spare the rest of you but the prerequisite is that you all have to make a blood vow that none of you can move against anyone around me. You can hate me, you can kill me, I will welcome you with open arms. But if you cross my bottom line, I shall cause the Dragon Pool Manor to be cleansed by all your blood."

Qin Wentian's words caused the Dragon Pool Manor's experts to see a strand of hope. It was true that this grudge was impossible to forget. But Qin Wentian had said that they can still look for him to take revenge as long as they have the ability to. It was just that they are not allowed to touch anyone around him.

"Are all of you willing to accept this?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Since you have such spirit, we are naturally willing to make the vow and agree to your terms. If we act out in revenge against anyone around you, Qin Wentian, our Dragon Pool Manor shall be exterminated completely." A world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor instantly vowed. After that, the other world overlords from the Dragon Pool Manor all respectively expressed their attitude too. Qin Wentian could be considered as showing mercy. After he knew the mastermind was Yue Changkong, he actually was willing to spare them. How could these world overlords not be satisfied?

Naturally, they wouldn't be thankful for Qin Wentian. The grudge between them would still remain. If they had the ability to do so, they would surely kill him.

"Senior, can the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy act as a witness for me?" Qin Wentian glanced at that old man from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

"Sure. If in the future the Dragon Pool Manor breaks their promise, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy will take action." That major character nodded.

At the doorstep of death, the people from the Dragon Pool Manor found hope. After the others in the manor knew the truth, they didn't simply hate Qin Wentian, they also hated Yue Changkong. It was logical for Qin Wentian to want revenge because their manor lord targeted people other than him. But everything happened because of Yue Changkong's instigation and at the very end, he actually chose to step aside and remain neutral.

Qin Wentian's eyes slowly turned towards Yue Changkong, flickering with killing intent.

He then turned to the major character from the Ziwei Divine Court. "Senior, you should have heard what the Dragon Pool Manor said. In that case, right now, this is a private grudge between me and Yue Changkong. I want a life-and-death battle with you. Senior wouldn't stop me, right?"

The expression of that major character stiffened. He stared at Qin Wentian and coldly spoke, "What nonsense. The people of the Dragon Pool Manor spun a load of lies because they wanted a chance at survival. How can I take such lies as the truth?"

Right now, Yue Changkong was his senior brother's disciple, how can his reputation be blackened? This would cause his senior brother's reputation to be damaged too.

"In that case, senior is planning to shield him from me despite our death grudge?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Qingcheng Realmlord, pay attention to your status." The major character from the Ziwei Divine Court coldly spoke.

"HAHAHA!" Qin Wentian suddenly began to laugh loudly. "What a good 'pay attention to your status.' Clearly, senior is planning to stop me. I naturally wouldn't dare to act then. It's just that I have to warn senior about something. Can the Ziwei Divine Court really be so sure that the words uttered by the Godking of Time in the Time Realm, that he was waiting for someone in the future, was directed to Yue Changkong?!"

Chapter 1808: Fooling the World

As Qin Wentian's words rang out, the entire space turned silent.

He said, can the Ziwei Divine Court be so sure that the words spoken by the Time King were referring to Yue Changkong?

What did he mean?

Everyone remembered that back then in the Time Realm when Qin Wentian fought with Yue Changkong, he said something similar. Qin Wentian once said, 'Yue Changkong said that he received the inheritance of the Time King and all of you believe him? What if I said I was the one who obtained the Time King's inheritance?'

At that time, everyone thought that Qin Wentian was a joke. Feeling that Qin Wentian was intentionally slandering Yue Changkong before fighting with him. But in reality, when Qin Wentian said these words back then, he said them extremely casually.

And today, Qin Wentian actually said such a thing and he was speaking to a major character of the Ziwei Divine Court.

But right now, who could disregard Qin Wentian's words?

Just earlier, Qin Wentian killed the Dragon Pool Manor Lord, a hegemonic-level world overlord character. Also, the ability he used was none other than time stop from the time laws. It was so powerful that the Dragon Pool Manor Lord couldn't break free from it, how strong was it exactly?

The major character of the Ziwei Divine Court that was Yue Changkong's martial uncle, his heart actually trembled when he heard Qin Wentian's words. His eyes gleamed with a terrifying light as he stared at Qin Wentian.

As for those from the Donghuang Clan, their hearts trembled even more violently. This was especially so for Donghuang Ying. Her expressions drastically changed.

"Impossible, this is impossible." Donghuang Ying shouted in her heart. She didn't believe in Qin Wentian's words. Or more accurately, she was hinting herself not to believe in Qin Wentian's words.

That old man from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy smiled. Ten Miles Springwind and the others all froze there, staring with shock at Qin Wentian. After that, Ten Miles Springwind, Cao Tian and the rest all exchanged glances only to see shock in the eyes of everyone. After that, their expressions all became extremely fascinating to behold.

If the truth was really what they thought it was, wouldn't this be extremely interesting?

The faces of the Ziwei Divine Court and Donghuang Clan, wouldn't they be smacked completely swollen?

Yue Changkong narrowed his eyes, his expression instantly changed but it soon reverted back to calmness, like nothing had happened. He stared at Qin Wentian as though the matter Qin Wentian was speaking about had nothing to do with him. However, killing intent was rising in his heart. Why did he want to borrow the hand of the Dragon Pool Manor to kill Qin Wentian? It was precisely because he was afraid the matters today would be exposed. However, the Dragon Pool Manor was too useless and actually failed and they also betrayed him, further enraging Qin Wentian.

"What do you mean by that?" The major character from the Ziwei Divine Court coldly asked, staring at Qin Wentian.

"Senior, you can draw your own understanding from my words. I'm merely reminding senior. Back then, who knows who the Time King was speaking to? Yue Changkong said that the voice came from the future, I say that the voice came from the past, but so what? Who can be certain?" Qin Wentian smiled, his eyes gleaming with coldness. He initially wanted this fake to help divert some attention. If Yue Changkong didn't antagonize him repeatedly, he initially wouldn't even care about this.

But Yue Changkong kept challenging the limits of his endurance. Since that was the case, if the matter of him lying to the Ziwei Divine Court, Donghuang Clan and the entire world was exposed, what would his ending be?

Since the Ziwei Divine Court wanted to protect Yue Changkong, that was fine, he wouldn't make any moves against Yue Changkong then. He wanted to see what are the next steps the Ziwei Divine Court and Donghuang Clan would take.

"Back then I already felt it was strange why Yue Changkong kept deliberately targeting Qin Wentian. Now that the matter of him instigating the Dragon Pool Manor to assassinate Qin Wentian has been revealed, this is truly thought-provoking." Ten Miles Springwind laughed. His casual words instantly linked many clues together. If one were to think in that direction, it was very easy to understand many things.

"Clap, clap…" Crisp sounds of clapping rang out. The gazes of the crowd froze and stared towards the sound. It was actually Yue Changkong clapping his hands. That handsome face of his had a faint smile on it, like he was extremely carefree. He calmly spoke, "Brother Qin, what a good method. I once fought against Brother Qin and I know that I'm not Brother Qin's match currently. To think that with regards to schemes, Brother Qin is actually so much more superior than me? This method of yours truly can kill someone without needing to see blood."

"I said it before, don't you refer to me as 'Brother Qin.' Don't you feel that you are disgusting?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. For someone who wanted his death so badly, this Yue Changkong still kept addressing him as Brother Qin. This made him feel extremely uncomfortable.

"Still being able to call out the words 'Brother Qin' at this moment? Clearly this Yue Changkong is an extremely scheming individual. Or to better put it, he is an extremely shameless individual." Cao Tian calmly spoke. "Wentian, the words you had spoken in the past were true indeed. This man is too much of a hypocrite. For someone of his character, I wonder what methods he used to mask the truth from the Ziwei Divine Court and managed to sneak in as a disciple."

At this moment, more and more people believed in Qin Wentian's words. If Yue Changkong was innocent, shouldn't he be in a towering rage seeing that Qin Wentian was slandering him? Yet, he was still able to smile and address Qin Wentian as 'Brother Qin'? It wasn't wrong to say that Yue Changkong was extremely scheming.

Could it be that the publicly acclaimed supreme dazzling genius of the convention, Yue Changkong, was actually a shameless scumbag liar that sought to achieve his aims by underhanded means?

If this was the case, wouldn't things be very comical?

Not only did he fool all the world overlords in the convention, he even fooled the Donghuang Clan, the Ziwei Divine Court, and his new master that was a lofty heavenly deity.

However, it can't be said that everyone in the Time Realm were fools. After the Time King left the message, no one stood out to admit it save for Yue Changkong. In addition, he was someone that was already proficient in time-attribute energy. When he spoke about the Time Monument Inscriptions, his words sounded extremely logical. With him standing out to say that he was the successor, who would doubt him?

No one would feel that he was a fake.

At this moment, Yue Changkong was forcibly enduring his anger. He hated Qin Wentian so much that he wanted nothing more than to tear him into pieces. But even so, he still maintained the smile on his face. "From Brother Qin's meaning, you are hinting that the Time King's true successor is you? Since this is the case, why doesn't Brother Qin display what inheritance you obtained from the Time King to everyone here?"

"I've nothing more to add. I just want to casually remind all the seniors in the Ziwei Divine Court. Senior, if you don't care about this, just feel free to ignore my earlier words." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The more he acted like this, the more people felt that his words were true.

Unless Yue Changkong could use time-attributed energy to defeat Qin Wentian. If not, regardless of the Ziwei Divine Court or Donghuang Clan, their suspicions of him would never diminish.

But was it even possible for him to use time-attributed energy to defeat Qin Wentian? Qin Wentian has killed the Dragon Pool Manor Lord, a hegemonic-level world overlord by using time-attributed energy after all.

Yue Changkong didn't even dare to accept the challenge.

Donghuang Ying's beautiful gaze kept flickering. She clenched her fists and bit lightly on her lips. Finally, she couldn't bear it anymore and transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian, "Qin Wentian, are you really the one that obtained the Time King's inheritance?"

Qin Wentian's gaze turned over, looking at Donghuang Ying. If it was said that he had really treated Donghuang Ying as a friend back then, now, after so many things had happened, he no longer felt any goodwill towards Donghuang Ying. In fact, he even felt a hint of loathing towards her. This woman was too in love with power. When she became friends with him, she wasn't even acquainted with Yue Changkong yet.

But after Yue Changkong publicly proclaimed that he was Time King's successor and revealed interest towards her, her attitude towards Yue Changkong and him had instantly changed. If he had no conflicts with Yue Changkong, everything would be fine. But once there was a conflict, she would not hesitate to trust Yue Changkong completely and would even go to the extent of forsaking their friendship, mocking and ridiculing him.

In fact, Donghuang Ying and the Ziwei Divine Court had both spoken out to stop the Luoshen Clan from helping him. She was the same as those from the Donghuang Clan, watching with glee as he challenged the Dragon Pool Manor Lord alone earlier. Most probably, she was like Yue Changkong and couldn't wait to see him getting defeated and killed by the Dragon Pool manor Lord.

To such a woman, Qin Wentian truly found it very difficult to feel any goodwill. He only felt disgust.

"Little princess, if you have something to say, you can just say it directly. Why is there a need to send me a voice transmission? I heard that Yue Changkong is now the ideal son-in-law for the Donghuang Clan and has a marriage agreement with little princess. Others can doubt him, but as his fiancee, why do you need to doubt him now when you already trusted him so much before you even had a marriage agreement with him? Shouldn't you trust him as much as you did before?"

Qin Wentian calmly spoke, his tone was filled with a slight mockery. Donghuang Ying recalled Qin Wentian's warning to her, that Yue Changkong's character had problems. At that time, Qin Wentian was already hinting to her that Yue Changkong might not be the perfect gentleman everyone thought he was. However, she felt that it was because Qin Wentian was jealous of Yue Changkong, which was why he said that. But, what about now?

He has already defeated Yue Changkong before and now, Qin Wentian could even kill a hegemonic-level world overlord. Is there a need for him to be jealous of Yue Changkong? Why did he say that Yue Changkong's character had a problem back then?

Yue Changkong's expressions involuntarily changed when he heard Qin Wentian's words. His gaze turned cold. Donghuang Ying actually transmitted her voice in secret to Qin Wentian and was doubting him? Even his fiancee was doubting him, in that case, what would other people feel when they hear this?

As expected, there were countless gazes staring at him at Donghuang Ying at this moment. Even Yue Changkong's woman didn't trust him?

Seems like this Yue Changkong truly had lied to many people. In addition, he even lied about obtaining the recognition of the Godking of Time and it resulted in him being accepted as a disciple by a heavenly deity because of that. Yue Changkong was truly audacious enough.

"Have you spoken enough?" The major character from the Ziwei Divine Court spoke coldly, staring at Qin Wentian. "Slandering a disciple of the Ziwei Divine Court, aren't you a little too brazen? Today, I will give the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy some face and not make things difficult for you. But if you speak such nonsense again in the future, don't blame me for not being polite."

"The matters today concludes now. Since Yue Changkong has already gained the recognition of my senior brother, there's no need to doubt that he has really received the godking's inheritance. Rather than spending time here being mired in a private grudge, why not use the time to cultivate instead?" That major character from the Ziwei Divine Court coldly spoke. After that, he glanced at Yue Changkong, "Changkong, follow me back to the Divine Court."

Yue Changkong's body trembled. He then nodded and shot a venomous gaze at Qin Wentian. After that, the two of them directly left.

At this moment, everyone understood what this meant.

The denial of the major character from the Ziwei Divine Court at the end was simply to protect the face and prestige of the Ziwei Divine Court. After that, everything was clear seeing how quickly he brought Yue Changkong away. This time when Yue Changkong returned to the Ziwei Divine Court, what sort of interrogation would he be put under?

His ending would surely be extremely miserable.

Today, the Ziwei Divine Court tried every possible way to obstruct Qin Wentian's revenge. However, a single sentence from Qin Wentian was already sufficient to cause the Ziwei Divine Court to be embarrassed.

Donghuang Ying stared at Yue Changkong who was being brought away by his martial uncle. Her body suddenly trembled violently as her expression turned ashen.

Her chastity already belonged to Yue Changkong!

Her prince charming was actually a supreme liar that fooled the entire world? In that case, what did everything before count for?

Chapter 1809: Leaving

Many people took note of Donghuang Ying's expression. Their gazes towards her was filled with sympathy and pity.

The little princess of the Donghuang Clan...even if Yue Changkong didn't exist, her status would also be extremely dazzling and her status extraordinary. In the future, her husband would surely be an elite character of the younger generations.

Back then when the Donghuang Clan agreed to Yue Changkong's marriage proposal, how lively was the residential palace of the Donghuang Clan? How much magnificence did Donghuang Ying feel then? Everyone felt that it was the perfect pairing of a dragon and phoenix and world overlords went over in droves to offer their congratulations.

However, what about now?

Her fiance was actually a scumbag supreme liar. What should she do about this marriage agreement?

If Yue Changkong hadn't lied to everyone and didn't say that he was the Time King's successor, just based on his talent alone, his status was truly insufficient to match up with Donghuang Ying. But the problem was Yue Changkong did lie to obtain the Donghuang Clan's approval. In that case, now, can the Donghuang Clan still accept Yue Changkong?

Can Donghuang Ying endure such a great contrast? Her fiance who was once a supreme genius, a heavenly deity's disciple, instantly fell from the heavens into hell, becoming a supreme liar. This marriage agreement has become nothing but a joke.

In addition, Yue Changkong had been staying in the residential palace of the Donghuang Clan ever since then. From the looks of things, something intimate has most probably already happened between Yue Changkong and Donghuang Ying. Since this was the case, would this little princess of the Donghuang Clan still be able to match up to those supreme geniuses? Would those characters be willing to accept her?

From now onwards, this little princess of the Donghuang Clan would most probably suffer many supercilious looks from people and even silently mocked. A step into heaven, a step into hell, what a pitiful situation she was in.

Those world overlords who were fooled only went to offer congratulations. No one would remember them. However, the Donghuang Clan was clearly the biggest victim, Donghuang Ying had suffered the most while the Ziwei Divine Court suffered the second most. As a hegemonic power of the Mystic Region, even a heavenly deity from there was fooled and this was exposed when they tried to protect Yue Changkong from Qin Wentian. How face smacking was this? Hence, even when they were leaving, that major character from the Ziwei Divine Court still said Qin Wentian was speaking nonsense. In truth, he only wanted to protect the face of his senior brother and the Ziwei Divine Court.

As for the truth of this matter, that major character most probably already knew. Also, after they brought Yue Changkong back to the Ziwei Divine Court, they would surely have many methods to force the whole truth out from him. No one knew what Yue Changkong's ending would be like.

"Once, I treated you as my friend. Since you knew the truth, why didn't you tell me?" Donghuang Ying's countenance was pale and extremely unsightly. Her beautiful eyes were filled with resentment as she stared at Qin Wentian. Clearly, right now she already believed that the inheritance of the Time King wasn't obtained by Yue Changkong. Qin Wentian was the true successor.

But she felt a heavy resentment towards Qin Wentian. If Qin Wentian had told her he was the true successor then, all of this wouldn't have happened.

Qin Wentian felt somewhat speechless as he stared at Donghuang Ying. She actually was still able to question him in such a righteous and forceful manner? How ridiculous.

Even Ten Miles Springwind started to laugh. "Donghuang Ying, have you ever truly treated Brother Qin as a friend?"

"Or to more accurately put it, your friendship with him wasn't worth a single sentence. When Yue Changkong displayed interest in you, you had completely forgotten about your friendship. I still remember when Brother Qin and Yue Changkong had a conflict, your attitude was extremely stinky. Have you forgotten how you acted then?"

"Brother Qin didn't even tell us about this. Why would he tell you?" Phoenix calmly spoke, mocking her. This matter was originally Qin Wentian's secret, does he really have an obligation to share with you, Donghuang Ying?

"You want him to tell you? You have to see whether you are worthy enough or not." Cao Tian coldly mocked. This woman actually felt resentment to Qin Wentian? Truly laughable.

"I don't understand what is the truth little princess is speaking about. I only know that back then when little princess got acquainted with Yue Changkong, I have already reminded little princess that Yue Changkong's character was problematic. If little princess treated me as a friend, you ought to have believed my words and wouldn't feel that I said that because I was jealous of him." Qin Wentian calmly replied. As for the matter about him getting the Time King's inheritance, from the start until now, he didn't say directly that he was the successor.

You guys can speculate all you want. I won't directly admit it.

Ten Miles Springwind and the others stared speechlessly at Qin Wentian. This fellow truly has no wish for fame? Was he not afraid to be struck by lightning?

Donghuang Ying's countenance turned even paler. Qin Wentian has indeed reminded her before and he did so quite a few times.

At that time, there was only Yue Changkong in her heart. He was her prince charming. How would she care about what Qin Wentian was saying.

"Why bother about such a woman?" At this moment, Luoshen Lei walked over. She stared at Qin Wentian, "Qin Wentian, since this matter has already concluded, I'm preparing to return to the Desolate Region."

She specially came here to say goodbye. This time, when the Luoshen Clan acted together with Qin Wentian to deal with the Dragon Pool Manor, it had already shown that they had some connection but she could pass this off by saying they acted only because the Dragon Pool Manor disregarded the Luoshen CLan's prestige. However, in the future, she can no longer appear to close to Qin Wentian on the surface or others might start to suspect something.

"I will prepare to return to the Qingcheng Realm first before I make a trip to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Now that Miss Luoshen is leaving, I wonder when we would meet again. Take care on the journey back." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Mhm, farewell." Luoshen Lei nodded. After that, she turned and left with Lifeless and her other subordinates. At the same time, she transmitted her voice over, "Elder bro, I'm leaving now. I hope you will be able to visit me at the Luoshen Clan as soon as you can do so."

"Lei`er, take good care of uncle." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice back in reply. Luoshen Lei assented. After that, her figure gradually vanished. Many people felt a sense of melancholy. This beauty from the Luoshen Clan was a heavenly deity's daughter. Her status was much more outstanding than Donghuang Ying's and although she has only appeared for a short while in the Mystic Region, everyone would still remember her.

"Brother Qin, this Miss Luoshen seems to be interested in you. Her origins are much higher than some people, why don't you consider wooing her? Hahaha." Ten Miles Springwind had a shameless smile on his face. Qin Wentian glared at him but he was already used to Ten Miles Springwind being shameless.

Donghuang Ying's expression stiffened. The 'some people' Ten Miles Springwind was referring to, was it referring to her?

Luoshen Lei's status was indeed higher than hers. It was destined that Luoshen Lei wouldn't need to depend on any man to raise her status.

"Let's leave." The people from the Donghuang Clan felt that they have completely lost all their face today. If they stayed here, they would only be mocked by others. Right now, the gazes which many people used to stare at them with, made them extremely uncomfortable.

Donghuang Ying felt extremely dispirited. She cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian before leaving together with the Donghuang Clan. An intense regret was in her heart.

Qin Wentian was then the destined extraordinary character that was bound to rise up in the Mystic Region. It was very possible that he might be a future Sword Monarch. And as for her, she who had originally already gained his friendship, this relationship between them was destroyed by none other than her as well. She even caused him to feel loathing for her.

How ridiculous everything was?

Life, sometimes truly feels like a dream. How surreal.

After Donghuang Ying and the others left, Ten Miles Springwind asked Qin Wentian, "Wentian, are you really preparing to leave now? Why don't you stay a few days more?"

"I've already been out for a long period of time. It's really time for me to return to the Qingcheng Realm." Qin Wentian replied.

"Right. There's no banquet that wouldn't come to an end, let's meet again if we are fated to in the future." Ten Miles Springwind smiled. He would always be in the Time City and running his inn business. He naturally wouldn't leave.

"Maybe when we meet Brother Qin again in the future, Brother Qin would already be a Sword Monarch character." Phoenix's beautiful eyes had a smile in them. Qin Wentian hasn't even cultivated over a thousand years and the convention of the myriad realms is only held once every ten thousand years. It's very normal for them to meet each other once every ten thousand years. At that time, one can only wonder at how high Qin Wentian would have climbed.

"Haha, if that's the case, I would become someone who participated in a robbery alongside with a legendary character. In the future this can become a conversational topic in my inn and attract more people there." Ten Miles Springwind laughed loudly. Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines.

"Qin Wentian, when you arrive at the sacred academy, you can directly speak to me." The major character from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy spoke.

"Okay, junior will definitely head there." Qin Wentian replied.

"I'll make a move first." That major character nodded to Qin Wentian. After that, the group of experts from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy departed.

After sending them away with his gaze, Qin Wentian turned to those from the Dragon Pool Manor and spoke, "Don't forget what you guys have vowed. I'll always welcome you to take revenge on me."

The expressions of the experts from the Dragon Pool Manor were extremely complicated when they stared at Qin Wentian. This man has killed their manor lord and caused the Dragon Pool Manor to suffer a great calamity. However, he eventually decided to spare them and didn't eradicate them to eliminate future source of troubles, willing to wait for them to seek revenge on him. If they tossed aside their hatred, they couldn't help but to admit that they were impressed with his spirit. However, it was destined that they would be enemies.

But even so, could they really be strong enough to take revenge?

Qin Wentian was then the true successor of the Time King, he was a future Sword Monarch character. The Dragon Pool Manor still wanted to continue and assassinate him? What if he decided to change his mind one day and completely annihilate their Dragon Pool Manor?

Most probably, they would never be able to take revenge.

"Let's leave, return to my inn. Today, we won't leave until all of us are drunk." Ten Miles Springwind spoke. Qin Wentian nodded his head. After that, the group of them respectively returned to the Ten Miles Inn. Today, Ten Miles Springwind actually took out many vats of good wine. The group of them drank the entire night away, and became extremely wasted. During the second day, Ten Miles Springwind and the others simply laid in the pavilion and slept.

A gentle breeze that was slightly cool gusted by. Ten Miles Springwind who was lying on the ground, opened his eyes. Old Ghost, Cao Tian and Phoenix have all also awakened.

"Where is he?" Ten Miles Springwind asked.

"He has already left, he brought his family and friends away with him." Cao Tian replied.

"It isn't easy to meet each other. Who would have thought that we actually managed to become friends with a future Sword Monarch character by chance.," Ten Miles Springwind smiled, feeling somewhat surreal.

"Old Ghost, what do you think?" Phoenix asked.

"His talent isn't inferior to Jian Junlai. Becoming a heavenly deity is only a matter of time for him." Old Ghost narrowed his eyes.

"Life is like a dream." Ten Miles Springwind laughed.

"Life is like a dream, why don't we get drunk? You still have plenty of those wonderful wines, right? Since we are leaving, why don't you take some out to share with everyone? Stop being so selfish." Cao Tian spoke.

"Scram." Ten Miles Springwind's expression instantly turned dark!

Chapter 1810: Commotion Upon Returning

Everything was the same as before in the Qingcheng Realm. Given Qin Wentian's strength, there naturally wouldn't be any more internal disturbance in the Qingcheng Realm.

The current Qingcheng Realm was governed by Ye Qianyu. But naturally, for most of the time she only needed to give commands in the Qingcheng Saint Hall and the subordinates would carry her instructions out. As for the territories of the nine world palaces, the respective palace lord of each palace would naturally manage that.

In the Qingcheng Sainthall, things were naturally no longer as lively as back then compared to the Lifelong Sainthall. For the Lifelong Realmlord, there were many beauties in his harem, but after Qin Wentian brought Qing`er and Qingcheng here, all of the Lifelong Realmlord's concubines were naturally expelled.

At this moment, at an elevated area in the Qingcheng Sainthall, a beautiful figure exuding charm quietly stood there. Her beautiful eyes stared into the horizon, she exuded a sense of magnificence and her alluring body and beautiful features caused her to radiate a sense of mesmerization. This woman was none other than Ye Qianyu. Right now, a hint of anticipation could be seen in her gaze. She has already received Qin Wentian message and knew that he would arrive soon.

At this moment, the clouds in the sky moved rapidly. A powerful spatial fluctuation drifted over as a group of figures directly appeared from a spatial gate in the air. The man in the lead was clad in white and unstained by dust. Compared to the time before he left, his aura seemed seemed to have changed slightly, becoming more extraordinary.

A beautiful smile appeared on her face. Right now, she was so beautiful that it seemed as though the world has lost its color. Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed and appeared beside her. He smiled, "Why are you waiting outside?"

Ye Qianyu's beautiful eyes glanced at him with some resentment. This caused Qin Wentian to feel a little guilty.

When everyone saw this scene, they all laughed. Many people silently left, leaving the time for Qin Wentian and his three wives.

"Wentian, me and elder sis Qing'er have something to do, we will leave first." Mo Qingcheng smiled. She pulled on Qing'er's hand and left this place. They had accompanied Qin Wentian to attend the convention, Ye Qianyu was the only one who remained in the Qingcheng Realm. Given how understanding Qingcheng was, she would naturally understand what to do in such a situation.

"Qingcheng is much more understanding than you." Ye Qianyu smiled at Qin Wentian.

"Who says so?" Qin Wentian stretched out his hand and gently stroked Ye Qianyu's silky hair. He then gently spoke, "How are you during these days?"

"Very well, except for the fact that my heart was aching because I missed someone so much." Ye Qianyu pouted.

"I will do my best to compensate you during the next few days." Qin Wentian gently spoke. Before Ye Qianyu could continue to complain, Qin Wentian directly hugged her. After being stunned for a moment, she leaned against him in his embrace and allowed him to carry her in the direction of their bedroom.

The news of the Qingcheng Realmlord's return soon circulated around. The world palace lords, other than Nanfeng Yaoyue and those who went with him to Time City, the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, Xuanyuan Palace Lord, Jialan Palace Lord and the others all came by to pay their respects. Right now, Qin Wentian's authority and might was even higher than the Lifelong Realmlord back then.

When they arrived at the Qingcheng Sainthall, they soon learned the news. Quite a few people who went with Qin Wentian to participate in the Convention of Myriad Realms, have actually broken through, surpassing the Empyrean Realm and entered that legendary realm of world overlords.

For this cultivation realm, the vast majority of people could only stare at it from afar. Such characters were equal to the Lifelong Realmlord and right now in the Qingcheng Realm, there were actually quite a few of them. Was this because they found some good fortune when they traveled with Qin Wentian to the convention?

After everyone learned of this, one could very well imagine how shocked they were. They could only hate the fact that they weren't Qin Wentian's closest aides and subordinates. The Qingcheng Realmlord today was far more outstanding compared to the Lifelong Realmlord. They basically couldn't be compared.

After meeting with them, Qin Wentian didn't bother with them any more. After all, given Qin Wentian's status, he was the Realmlord of this realm, he naturally had to have an imposing aura to him. When he was still a palace lord, could it be that he could meet with the Lifelong Realmlord anytime he wanted? It was clearly impossible. He was very busy, how could he be so free to meet with his subordinates frequently?

Next, other than accompanying his wives, he focused on stabilizing his cultivation realm and made preparations to head towards the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

The palace lords naturally wouldn't feel resentment towards him. Jialan Jiangshan directly stayed in the area and didn't return to the Jialan World Palace. He would frequently bring Jialan Qiuyue to pay a visit to the Qingcheng Sainthall. Even if he couldn't meet with Qin Wentian, he still had to show his face to build up relations. After all, the relationship of their Jialan Clan and Qin Wentian was somewhat different. He needed to connect more.

During these days, there were suddenly many experts who came from the outside to Qingcheng City. There were many powerful groups with many empyreans within. In fact, many people even saw these empyreans being very respectful to the leaders of their group. Clearly, they were only subordinates.

For the next period of time, more and more experts arrived. Those who were the leaders of these groups were all extremely imposing, their cultivation base unfathomably powerful. Empyreans were as common as clouds.

For the peak-level inns and restaurants of the Qingcheng Realm, they were packed to the brim, with a majority of the customers belonging to these newly arrived outsiders.

Right now, the entire city was stunned. Everyone started to guess at the identities and purposes of these outsiders.

Very soon, an even more shocking piece of news circulated out. The leaders of these groups of experts, were all actually world overlords. There was news saying that some people heard the empyreans addressing their leaders as 'realmlords.' This information instantly caused a huge commotion. The Xuanyuan Palace was shaken, the Jialan Clan was also shaken. The peak powers of Qingcheng City were all shaken as they felt extremely uneasy.

Could it be that their Qingcheng Realmlord had gotten into trouble outside? Why were there so many world overlords here now? It was rumored that their Realmlord went to attend the Convention of the Myriad Realms. Could it be that he has offended people there?

Right now within the Jialan Clan, a group of core characters were gathered together.

"What airs is he putting on? We can't even meet with him. After becoming the Realmlord, he is completely different now." Jialan Qiuyue had a look of resentment in her eyes as she grumbled. Jialan Yuntian wanted to find out what was going on, but he couldn't even get to meet with Qin Wentian.

"Don't talk nonsense. Qiuyue, you should understand his status today. Why don't you interact more with Di Tian instead?" Jialan Jiangshan spoke.

"I'm not going." Jialan Qiuyue shook her head, feeling very complicated in her heart.

"Father." At this moment, Jialan Yunhai walked over and called out. "I just received news that something major is about to happen. These outsider groups actually gathered together and are now heading in the direction of the Lifelong Sainthall."

"Who are these people exactly? What is going on?" Jialan Jiangshan's eyes flashed.

"They are all from different locations and now, we have already verified the rumors, there are several world overlords here too, and the majority of them are realmlords who brought their subordinates here to the Qingcheng Realm." Jialan Yunhai then continued, "Their purpose for this trip seems to be the Qingcheng Sainthall."

A gleam of sharpness flashed in Jialan Jiangshan's eyes. Could it be that something had really happened?

The various world overlords arrived together outside the Qingcheng Sainthall. This caused him to feel uneasy. If Qin Wentian truly had offended some major characters during the convention, the peace in the Qingcheng Realm would surely be disrupted.

"What are they there for? Did our men find out their intentions?" Jialan Yuntian's eyelids twitched as he asked.

"We have no idea yet. Our men are still monitoring the situation, they will provide constant updates to us." Jialan Yunhai replied.

"This is an opportunity. Although Realmlord might have stirred up some trouble outside, there's no need to doubt he is a supreme genius. Quite a few of those who followed him there, have already entered the world overlord realm. If we wish to become his truly trusted subordinates, we naturally have to experience troubles together with him. Let's head over to the Qingcheng Sainthall." Jialan Jiangshan spoke.

The eyes of Jialan Yunhai flashed. For matters of world overlords, how could they interfere? By going there now, it was merely to express their attitude. But wasn't his father afraid that they might be implicated and die there?

Not only for the Jialan Clan, everyone in Qingcheng City was paying attention to this matter. This news was too shocking and created a huge commotion.

World overlords from various locations in the Mystic Region actually came here together. They gathered and headed towards the direction of the Qingcheng Sainthall. Was a storm going to erupt?

Countless people started to head there as well. They wanted to see what would happen exactly.

Today, the day was bright and sunny, there were also gentle gusts of wind breezing through, causing people to feel very comfortable. However, people in the city were all extremely tense. Some governors of Qingcheng City had already arrived outside the Qingcheng Sainthall, and were prepared to deal with the incoming storm.

Below the stairway leading up to the Qingcheng Sainthall, countless experts gathered there. Their gazes were all focused on a certain location. There were many different groups of experts here today, and those in the lead of their respective groups, all had extraordinary auras, exuding majesticness. It was like they were all rulers of their own respective territories.

"It's about to happen." The hearts of everyone trembled.

"Kacha…" Many people clench their fists, feeling extremely nervous. This time, what magnitude would this incoming storm be at?

At this moment, the guards of the Lifelong Sainthall were all extremely worried. Even Ye Qianyu felt uneasy as well. Her beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian, "There are so many world overlords that came here. What are they here for?"

"How would I know?" Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and shook his head. How would he know what these outsider world overlords were here for.

"Did you stir up trouble outside?" Ye Qianyu felt a little speechless when she saw how relaxed Qin Wentian was.

"Elder sis Qianyu, don't worry. Nothing will happen." Mo Qingcheng smiled. She had experienced many storms during the convention. Now that there was a group of world overlords here, although she didn't know their purpose, she understood that these world overlords are definitely not here to create trouble. They wouldn't be so audacious. Most probably, only a very few world overlords in the Mystic Region would dare to create trouble for Qin Wentian now.

"Really?" Ye Qianyu stared doubtfully at Mo Qingcheng. "Qingcheng, you tell me then. What are they here for?"

"I have no idea as well." Mo Qingcheng blinked. When she saw the judging look in Ye Qianyu's eyes, she revealed an expression of innocence. She truly had no idea.

At this moment below the stairs, the various experts all halted their steps. They glanced in the direction of the Qingcheng Sainthall and at this moment, the hearts of countless people tensed.

The people of the Jialan Clan flashed and came over. Jialan Jiangshan spoke, "We made it in time. Seems like something big is about to happen."

Everyone stared at these experts who came from afar, waiting for the incoming storm

"The Qiyao Realmlord of the Mystic Region is here to pay a visit to the Qingcheng Realm and pay my respects to Senior Qingcheng Realmlord." At this moment, a world overlord called out, facing the direction of the Qingcheng Realm.

"Wuwang Realmlord pays my respects to Senior Qingcheng Realmlord." A second voice rang out.

"Blazingsky Realmlord pays my respects."

Numerous voices rang out one after the other, at the area around the stairway leading up to the Qingcheng Sainthall. At this moment, silence descended upon the area. The hearts of everyone from the Qingcheng Realm in the surroundings. was pounding rapidly!

Chapter 1811: Who in the world doesn’t know of him?

The various world overlords led their subordinates here. Their purpose wasn't what many people had imagined, they were not here for revenge. On the contrary, they were here to pay their respects.

So many world overlord characters actually greeted the Qingcheng Realm as senior.

What did this mean?

Qin Wentian just returned from the convention and right now, there were so many world overlords here to pay him a visit. This meant that in the convention, their Qingcheng Realmlord definitely had been extremely impressive there. If not, how would world overlords be willing to travel all the way here to pay their respects? In addition, they gathered together and came here.

Jialan Jiangshan's gaze instantly froze. His entire person was dumbstruck and completely speechless. After that, his heart was filled with emotions. Indeed, he truly felt very old now. He initially thought that Qin Wentian might have gotten into trouble, but he basically didn't expect that Qin Wentian had become so famous and would attract world overlord experts to come from various locations to pay him respects here. Because, he didn't dare to imagine this, how could a world overlord that has recently ascended be so impressive?

Comparing the Lifelong Realmlord to Qin Wentian is simply an insult to Qin Wentian. They were basically not characters on the same level.

Jialan Qiuyue also froze, her heart trembling violently. After that, faint disappointment flashed through her heart. This was Qin Wentian, the Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian. He once defeated the Lifire Palace Lord in a single battle and replaced him. After that, he slayed the Lifelong Realmlord in the Lifelong Grand Banquet and replaced him. Now, after attending the convention, so many world overlords came here upon his return just to pay their respects. Given how talented he is, who could block his future path of ascension?

As to what the words 'supreme in the world' means, it most probably meant this.

Outside the Qingcheng Sainthall, the experts were as common as clouds. The spectators in the surroundings were countless. Their hearts pounded rapidly and only returned to calmness after a long time. Their eyes stared at the Qingcheng Sainthall that was above the stairway. The figure in white, their Realmlord, was slowly becoming a legendary character. Maybe they had to cherish every opportunity they have to see him because maybe, after a thousand years later, he would only exist in the legends.

When Ye Qianyu who was in the Qingcheng Sainthall heard this voice, her beautiful eyes also turned stiff. After a moment, she glanced at Qin Wentian and laughed charmingly. This was the man she loved, he was destined to be extraordinary. And just like what she had predicted, Qin Wentian was slowly climbing up the peak. The world overlord realm shouldn't be his limit.

Very long ago, when they were still in the Thousand Feathers Palace of Heavenly City, she already knew he would be extraordinary in the future. If not, she wouldn't have gradually fallen in love with him. Reality has proven that her judgement was right.

"How to handle them? Do you need me to show myself?" Ye Qianyu softly laughed. After all, these visitors are world overlords. No matter what, someone of a high status would need to receive them.

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and shook his head. Although he knew that it was impossible for world overlords to come here for revenge, he still felt somewhat unexpected. Who could have thought that these people would come to the Qingcheng Realm so quickly to pay a visit to him? Truly, humans are afraid to be famous while pigs are afraid to be fat. Given how he rose to fame in the Time Realm during the convention, as well as the battle he had with the Dragon Pool Manor Lord in Time City, it was very hard even if he didn't want to be famous.

Since everyone in Time City knew that his title was the Qingcheng Realmlord, it was only to be expected that these world overlords would be able to trace him. Most probably, they were world overlords governing territories near the Qingcheng Realm.

However to Qin Wentian, all these are unnecessary troubles.

Outside the main entrance to the Qingcheng Sainthall, countless people were waiting as well for their Qingcheng Realmlord to appear. They all wanted to know what did their Realmlord do in order to cause all these major characters to come here. Compared to the time when he killed the Lifelong Realmlord, how much more powerful was he now?

"All of you came from afar, you can tour the capital city and return after that." A voice rang out from within the Qingcheng Saint Hall, filled with tranquility.

This voice wasn't loud but it rang out clearly in the ears of everyone. Upon hearing these words, many of the Qingcheng Realm's subordinates felt their hearts shuddering.

Didn't this mean that their Realmlord wasn't going to meet with all these world overlords?

This… Many people were speechless. Was this egotistical and arrogance?

Naturally, this was not. Back then in the Ten Miles Inn, many world overlords went to the courtyard the Absolute Beginnings World Overlord was staying and begged him for an audience but he ignored them all. How would major characters have the time to meet these people who are not important at all? If every world overlord in the Mystic Region came to visit him, wouldn't that be extremely troublesome? After receiving them, what should he say? Was there even any meaning to it?

Before he became famous and if he went to meet with those famous world overlord, would they deign to meet with him? No they would not.

Outside the Qingcheng Sainthall, although the world overlords felt disappointed, they didn't feel it was inappropriate. Qin Wentian could be said to be the most dazzling figure in the convention, he was the godking of time's successor and killed the Dragon Pool Manor Lord. Even the heavenly deities of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy were willing to be his teachers and transmit the dao to him. Such status wasn't something ordinary hegemonic-level world overlords could be compared to. If they could meet with Qin Wentian, it would be an honor. But if Qin Wentian didn't want to meet with them, it was fine as well, there was nothing inappropriate about this.

They all understand that this was very normal. It was like if there were unknown empyreans paying a visit to them, would they meet with them? They also wouldn't be bothered to meet with them.

They clearly understood their statuses weren't high enough, hence they decided to group up and came here, hoping to be able to meet with this glorious character that was the Time King's successor. If they could build up a relationship with him, in the future when Qin Wentian becomes a character like the Sword Monarch, they could then say that they were acquainted with a heavenly deity. How glorious would that be?

But sadly, even though they came here in a group, Qin Wentian still didn't bother to meet with them.

"Senior Qingcheng Realmlord displayed his might for all to see in the convention, killing a hegemonic-level world overlord in a battle. In the Mystic Region, who wouldn't know of him? Not being able to meet with Senior is truly a pity but we are all already very honored to be able to take a look at senior's capital city."

Egotistical? Arrogant?

Nonsense, this was only logical. Those world overlords all felt that it was normal. The Qingcheng Realmlord could kill hegemonic-level world overlords, who in the Mystic Region didn't know of him? What sort of evaluation was this? The subordinates of the Qingcheng Realm didn't dare to imagine it.

They really wanted to know what impressive feats the Realmlord had done during the convention.

"In the future when Senior becomes a deity, you would surely become the divinity that is above everyone else. This Qingcheng City would also become a sacred ground. Now that we are here, it's true that we really need to have a good tour of this place." Another world overlord spoke, his words filled with the intention of fawning. However, his words weren't an exaggeration. Qin Wentian has indeed displayed his potential, it was very likely he would be able to step into the heavenly deity realm.

Just as they were speaking, more experts came from afar. Another group of people appeared and when they saw the situation here, the man in the lead sighed silently. Was this Qin Wentian's current status? There were so many world overlords that personally came over to pay respects to him.

The leader of this newly arrived group stood where he was and clasped his hands in the direction of the Qingcheng Sainthall, "Heavenly Talisman Realmlord is here to beg for forgiveness. In the past, if any of my actions were deemed disrespectful, please pardon me."

There was a young man beside him, it was none other than that person who insulted Qin Wentian at the Qingcheng Banquet back then. He lowered his head and stated, "In the past, junior was blind and had offended senior. I came here especially to beg for forgiveness, would senior please deal with me leniently?"

"This…" For some of those who attended the past Qingcheng Grand Banquet, they knew of this matter. Right now, the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord himself even came by to apologize. As for that empyrean who wanted to stir up trouble back then, he was now speaking so meekly, not even daring to raise his head. What did this indicate? This meant that the current Qingcheng Realmlord could easily squash them to death. Hence, they didn't dare not to come here and apologize.

In truth, the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord felt some fear. Although he and Qin Wentian once had the name of master and disciple, how would he still dare to bring this up? Right now, there was only regret in his heart, he didn't expect the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms to be able to produce such a character who was once even a part of his sect. However, he actually offended Qin Wentian after that and they were on opposite sides. During the convention, he even insulted Qin Wentian. How could he not be afraid that Qin Wentian wanted revenge?

After the incident of the Dragon Pool Manor, he instantly left the Time Realm and rushed back. The first thing he did was to come to the Qingcheng Realm to beg for Qin Wentian's forgiveness. If not, if Qin Wentian wanted revenge and personally headed there to his Heavenly Talisman Realm, the ending for him would surely be extremely dire.

"You still have the face to come?" A voice rang out. Jun Mengchen flew through the air, radiating the powerful aura of a world overlord. The Heavenly Talisman Realmlord sighed in his heart, this young man back then was also a disciple from his Heavenly Talisman Realm and can be considered his student.

However, Jun Mengchen and his senior brother who inducted him in, were imprisoned by the Heavenly Talisman Realm once before.

"I know I was in the wrong, hence I came here to apologize." The Heavenly Talisman Realmlord felt an indescribable feeling in his heart. But there was no choice, he had to lower his head.

"Senior brother, how to handle him?" Jun Mengchen glanced at Qin Wentian and asked.

"Do what you want to." Qin Wentian replied. Jun Mengchen was one of the victims back then. If it wasn't Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya being imprisoned, Qin Wentian wouldn't have felt any hatred for the Heavenly Talisman Realm. At most, they would just break off all contacts.

Jun Mengchen clenched his fists. He stared at the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord and spoke, "Although I want nothing more than to kill you with a single fist, it's true that our fates were connected once in the past. I only got acquainted with senior brother because of you and I truly felt a sense of belonging once before. What a pity that you destroyed this relationship with your own hands. Just scram, I don't want to see you again."

Ultimately, he still was soft hearted. Other than Qin Wentian, he also got acquainted with the senior brother who inducted him into the Heavenly Talisman Realm as well as Bai Wuya. This experience had influenced him greatly. In fact, because of him joining the Heavenly Talisman Realm, his entire life might have changed.

Hence, he decided to spare the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord.

"Many thanks." The Heavenly Talisman Realmlord clasped his hands and hurriedly left. Leaving without a punishment, was already considered the best ending for him. However, Jun Mengchen's words did indeed cause him to feel some pain in his heart. It was true that he had personally destroyed the karma connecting them. If not, before Qin Wentian had a heavenly deity as a teacher, he still had him, the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord, as a teacher. If the connection still remained, the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord now would be able to form karma and have a connection with the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

"Everyone please leave. I've encountered too many things in the convention and now, I only wish to spend some time quietly." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

"Yes, senior."

The world overlords outside bowed and retreated before departing the area. The people in the surroundings stared in the direction of the Qingcheng Sainthall, feeling some reluctance to leave.

The people from the Jialan Clan and Xuanyuan Clan, all felt waves of emotions rocking their heart. Was this their Realmlord's current status?

Everyone in the Mystic Region knew of him!

Chapter 1812: Daoask Lodge

Everyone was shocked as Qin Wentian's deeds in the convention gradually circulated around

Their Realmlord actually climbed to such a height, directly facing a hegemonic power of the Mystic Region. Under pressure from the Ziwei Divine Court, he killed the Dragon Pool Manor Lord and even insulted a disciple from the Ziwei Divine Court. All of these were extremely far from them. But the character in these legendary stories was right in front of their eyes.

Before this, those who thought that Qin Wentian was arrogant because he didn't want to meet with the world overlords, all finally understood their Realmlord's current status after they learned the truth. Let alone ordinary world overlords, even if transcendent-level world overlords came by, Qin Wentian might not even meet with them. After all, Qin Wentian was someone who could kill a hegemonic-level world overlord and would soon have a heavenly deity as his teacher.

The people of the Jialan Clan discovered that there was no need to wait for the future. Right now, Qin Wentian was already a legend, the legend of the Qingcheng Realm. Who would have thought that this place where they grew up in would produce such a character? Also, this legendary character was none other than their Qingcheng Realmlord.

This commotion in the Qingcheng Realm lasted quite a long time. The importance of the martial dao was emphasized even more. Many young experts were determined to work harder, taking their Realmlord as their idol and hoped that in the future, they would also be able to participate in the Convention of the Myriad Realms and see for themselves those characters at the peak.

With regards to all this, Qin Wentian completely had no idea. Although his fame now in the Qingcheng Realm was like the sun in the sky, and his name has even shaken the Mystic Region, he was now enjoying quiet time with his wives while also cultivating. The people around him were like they had received stimulation from him. More and more people entered the world overlord realm. This was especially true for those who had the guidance from the souls of ancient heavenly deities. Almost all of them had already broken through to the world overlord realm.

After all, seeing that their talent originally wasn't bad, after they tempered themselves in the secret realms of the ancient battlefield in addition to receiving guidance from heavenly deities while also exploring the bouts of good fortune in the convention of the myiard realms, it wasn't too difficult for them to break through.

Qin Wentian naturally felt very happy when he saw Qing`er, Little Rascal and Bai Qing all breaking through to the world overlord realm.

Finally, he decided to leave today, heading for the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Now, the Qingcheng Realm was already incomparably secure. Who else would still dare to create trouble here? His only pursuit now was to grow stronger than ever. He didn't forget his meeting with his uncle, and his destined opponent, the heaven's son, Qin Dangtian, as well as his father's enemy Qin Zheng. This man was somebody Qin Wentian couldn't live under the same skies with.

Daoask City. This was the second time Qin Wentian came to this majestic city. This city was built with the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy at its center, it would forever be resplendent and prosperous. This place had the sacred ground, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Countless people in the Mystic Region yearned to come here to this holy land.

Before this, Qin Wentian came here to enquire about the coordinates of Azure Mystic. This time, his purpose was different from the past. After his group of people arrived at Daoask City, they toured the city and enjoyed the sights the city had to offer.

The experts in this city were as common as clouds, the number of people in Qingcheng City naturally couldn't be compared to it. After all, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was a huge attraction and would ensure this city remained prosperous for all eternity. There were many world overlords who came to the sacred academy for the purpose of seeking their daos. Naturally, if they are not fated with the academy, the academy wouldn't casually impart their daos.

This time, Qin Wentian didn't come along. For many world overlords in his group that have just broken through, they had chosen to come with him. They didn't know if they were suitable to cultivate in the sacred academy, but if they were not, they would simply stay in Daoask City. After all, Qin Wentian also had no idea how long he would need to cultivate here. It was impossible to ask all these new world overlords to all stay in the Qingcheng Realm.

Naturally, other than those who had broken through, Mo Qingcheng and Purgatory had followed him. This time around, Ye Qianyu also came with him. Earlier, he brought Qing`er and Qingcheng out with him to the convention. If he still didn't bring Ye Qianyu this time, there would surely be chaos in his harem.

Although the experts here were as common as the clouds, Qin Wentian's group when walking on the streets, still attracted the attention of people. After all, his group was simply too dazzling. He who was in the lead was young, handsome and extraordinary, glowing with a divine luster. It was clear he had a very high cultivation base. As for the people around him, many of them exuded the overwhelming might of a world overlord and there were also many beauties too. When the people in the city saw them, many people felt that it must be some young master or young mistress of a particularly powerful clan or sect who came here to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to seek the dao.

Such a circumstances couldn't be considered rare in Daoask City. There were too many major clans and powers who came here and there would often be geniuses of younger generations coming here to seek their dao. Naturally, there were also those from the older generations. Age was irrespective.

The largest inn of the Daoask City was named the Daoask Lodge. Once, this place was an ancient mountain but somebody had transformed this entire mountain to the Daoask Lodge. This majestic lodge had many levels and exuded an extremely majestic aura. Many palaces inside the lodge were made from pure white jade and had powerful astral energy within them. In fact, by staying inside these palaces, it would allow the residents to better sense the astral energy from the nine heavenly layers.

The higher the level, the more imposing and expensive it would be. It was rumored that the top level of Daoask Lodge wasn't available to rent out to the public. Only those with truly supreme statuses had the qualifications to stay there, or unless, they were the friends of the Daoask Lodge's boss.

If you stayed in the courtyard of the lodge's top level, you could directly see the incomparably majestic floating Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy before you. The altitude was the exact same as the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Hence, the top level of the lodge was also known as the Equal Heaven Lodge.

The location of the Daoask Lodge wasn't far from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. The streets in the surroundings here were the most prosperous of all. It was the absolute center of the city. There was naturally more experts here.

At this moment, Qin Wentian's group came to the Daoask Lodge. Firstly, things were more convenient as it was very near the academy. Secondly, it was safer. The Daoask Lodge has an extraordinary background, there was definitely no one who would dare to create trouble here. Staying here could naturally guarantee one's safety.

Naturally, the cost was also extremely expensive. Being able to stay in the Daoask Lodge was a symbol of one's status. Ordinary world overlords might only occasionally choose to stay here a day or two to enjoy for a moment. For stays of long periods of time, ordinary world overlords wouldn't be able to afford the price.

The main lobby of the Daoask Lodge was extremely vast. Many employees could be seen within, prepared to receive guests. When Qin Wentian entered, a beautiful serving girl instantly came over. She glanced at Qin Wentian who was in the lead and asked, "Might I ask how may I address Sir?"

"My surname is Qin." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Sir Qin, everyone please be seated." The serving girl brought Qin Wentian and his group to a location before taking out an item to pass him, "This is a catalog of the remaining free palaces as well as their prices. Sir Qin, please take a look."

Qin Wentian glanced at it. The Daoask Lodge has a total of eighteen levels. The top level wasn't available for rental. The second level from the top has two courtyards, the third level from the top has three courtyards. Each courtyard has its respective palace and many people could stay within. Naturally, Qin Wentian was silently shocked when he saw the price. For those courtyards at the higher levels, their prices were simply astronomical.

"There seems to be a vacant courtyard at the third level from the top. I will stay there then." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Sure. Sir Qin, how long do you plan to stay for?" The serving girl asked.

"Temporarily, about a month." Qin Wentian replied. He would make arrangements for his people first before he set off independently to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. It was impossible for him to bring everyone there the moment he came. Back then, although a senior of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy did issue an invitation to him, his friends and family didn't receive any invitations. If he brought them there without asking, the sacred academy might accept them but it would be somewhat disrespectful to the academy. It would be better for him to probe things and see the situation in the sacred academy first.

"Alright, I will go and make the arrangements." The serving girl had a very good attitude and when she smiled, she would cause people to feel a sense of closeness. After she left, Jun Mengchen who was at the side couldn't help but to sigh in admiration, "What good service. However, the price is simply too terrifying. Senior brother, you are truly wealthy indeed."

Qin Wentian laughed. Actually, based on the mines in the Qingcheng Realm, his income was truly nothing much. After all, even if you excavate the mines for ten years of a hundred years, you might not earn as much as a place like the Heaven Immortal Tower from selling treasures. The majority of his wealth actually came from his robbery of the Heaven Immortal Tower back then. Since now, he had friends and family with him, the environment of the place they would be staying in naturally couldn't be too bad.

After a few moments, the serving girl has yet to return. She was conversing with another group of people in another direction. This group had over ten people and all had extraordinary auras. This was especially so for the man and woman in the lead, they seemed to be descendents of an aristocrat clan and they were now also staring in Qin Wentian's direction.

Their conversation wasn't loud, but how could Qin Wentian not be able to hear it? He frowned, so it turned out that this group of people also wanted that vacant courtyard at the third level from the top. Also, their statuses seemed to be truly extraordinary.

After a moment later, the serving girl walked over and spoke apologetically to Qin Wentian, "Sir Qin, I'm sorry. I…"

"I know. It's fine, give me the fourth level from the top then." Qin Wentian casually spoke. Earlier, he had heard the serving girl trying to help him get it but her status wasn't high enough and didn't have much authority to speak. Hence, Qin Wentian wouldn't make things difficult for her too. At his current cultivation realm, this was truly only a small matter. There was no need to be bothered too much.

"Many thanks Sir Qin." That serving girl sincerely spoke with gratitude. For someone being able to afford a stay at the third level from the top for a month, Qin Wentian was still so easy to talk to. How could she not be grateful?

After some instructions, the serving girl left again and made the arrangements for Qin Wentian. She then led Qin Wentian's group to the vacant courtyard on the fourth level from the top.

The environment here was exceedingly beautiful with greenery and many pavilions. There were also many separate smaller courtyards in here and if one was to proceed all the way to the end, they could even gaze at the majestic sacred academy floating in the air as well as the bustling streets down below.

"The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy." At this moment, Qin Wentian stood at his courtyard, staring at the magnificent and majestic sacred academy. For this journey, he didn't know what sort of events he would encounter. He could only hope that his strength would be able to take another step forward.

"Senior, I've already arrived at Daoask City, I will enter the sacred academy tomorrow." Qin Wentian took out his messaging crystal and spoke to that major character.

"Alright. Where are you now?" A voice rang out in his mind.

"I'm at the Daoask Lodge. My family members came with me as well and I will arrange for them to stay here." Qin Wentian replied.

"Mhm, I will send someone there to fetch you over tomorrow." That major character replied.

"Senior, there's no need for that. I'll head there myself." Qin Wentian replied. How could he have the nerve to get the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to personally welcome him? Wouldn't that be somewhat inappropriate? After all, he was someone who came here to seek the dao!

Chapter 1813: Heavenly Dao Rankings

Under the moonlight, the Daoask Lodge was extremely beautiful. In this central area of Daoask City, bright lights lit up the area and there was a gigantic lake not far away in front of it. This lake was also considered a business of the Daoask Lodge. At the center of the lake, there was an island named the Lakeheart Island, and there were many pavilions here. Each pavilion was filled with guests as they enjoyed their banquet. For guests staying in the Daoask Lodge, they can enjoy the immortal banquet here free of charge.

On the Lakeheart Island, there was mist everywhere. A group of white-robed maidens were performing their dances now and their wondrous poses and postures while dancing caused everyone to sigh at how alluring they are. Their beauty was naturally exceptional as well.

"Qianyu, these maidens don't seem inferior when compared to the Red Dust Immortal Palace, in fact, they seem to be even more outstanding." In a pavilion near the center area, Qin Wentian smiled as he spoke to Ye Qianyu.

"That's true. We spent so much to stay here, they naturally wanted to make the guests feel that the price paid was worth it. Didn't you notice that other than the lodge's guests, all outsiders would have to pay a heavenly price before they can come here to admire the dances?" Ye Qianyu laughed.

"Indeed." Qin Wentian nodded. But even so, there were still many people on the lake or seated in the pavilions to enjoy the immortal banquet. Maybe, these people might be from Daoask City. For some descendants of aristocrat clans, it didn't matter that they couldn't afford to stay at the Daoask Lodge. They were still wealthy enough to come here occasionally to admire the beautiful scenery.

"So, is their dance nicer or my dance nicer?" Ye Qianyu transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian as charm gleamed in her eyes, causing Qin Wentian to feel an itch in his heart. He shook his head and smiled, "How can they be compared to you."

Ye Qianyu then gave a twinkling laugh, filled with satisfaction.

After the dance ended, many people started applauding. In fact, there was even a guest from another pavilion who expressed his admiration verbally, "Being able to witness Violetjade Fairy's dance, I feel like I'm in a paradise. I have even forgotten about the passing of time."

"Sir praises me too much." On the island, the most beautiful maiden bowed and smiled. Her name was Violetjade and people referred to her as the Violetjade Fairy. Not only was her beauty outstanding, her talent was even more so. Now, she was already at the empyrean realm and even when she is in a group of beauties, she could still stand out like a crane in a flock of chickens.

"Words alone can no longer express the wondrous dance of Fairy. Today, the pavilions here on Lakeheart Island are all completely filled. Does Fairy has any interesting matters of the Mystic Region to share with us?" That young man smiled. This Violetjade Fairy wasn't merely proficient in dance, she also had connections to many sources and knew all the major things that happened in the Mystic Region. Clearly, the Daoask Lodge was probably the one backing her. Usually when the Violetjade Fairy appeared to dance, she would share some major and interesting news of the Mystic Region to everyone.

"Today, I wish to speak to everyone about the Heavenly Dao Rankings. Now, it was just updated and someone had just been replaced. I wonder if everyone knows of this?" The Violetjade Fairy smiled as she asked.

"It's very rare for the Heavenly Dao Rankings to be updated. Since there is an update, who was the one that was replaced?" Someone asked with interest.

"In the original Heavenly Dao Rankings, there are two disciples from the Ziwei Divine Court, two disciples from the Great Devil Divine Palace, a disciple from the Heavenly Deity Mountain, three members of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, and as for the last two, they are not from any major powers. I'm sure everyone knows of this point and knows of their identities. The one that is being replaced, is one of the last two rankers." The Violetjade Fairy smiled. "Also, this time around, the new ranker was the youngest among all of the other rankers. If everyone put in some effort to think about it, you all should be able to guess his identity."

The eyes of many gleamed with sharpness, the Heavenly Dao Ranking was a ranking established by the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. As the saying went, the heavenly dao is so lofty that it is unreachable.

There's only a total of ten positions in this ranking. Age was not an issue but every one was from the Mystic Region. These ten people were the ten people most likely to comprehend the heavenly dao and become a heavenly deity of the Mystic Region. From this, one could very well imagine the weightage of this ranking.

From another perspective, this ranking was a measure of one's potential in reaching the heavenly deity realm.

For those who managed to be ranked, they were publicly believed to have the greatest chance to become a deity, entering a higher realm.

Age was irrelevant, and current strength also wasn't a criteria. For example, the rankers on the Heavenly Dao Ranking might not be the most powerful figures in the world overlord realm and there might be many who could defeat them. But even so, their names were still on the ranking. The only reason for this was because their potential to become a heavenly deity was greater than the others, despite the fact that they are currently weaker.

Naturally, it was said that strength wasn't a criteria but in truth, every ranker on the rankings was at the world overlord realm. After all, if one couldn't even become a world overlord, what qualifications do they have to say that they can become deities?

But even so, for some geniuses of the junior generations who displayed startling talent despite the fact that they are not at the world overlord realm yet, they would still have a chance to become one of the ten rankers. Hence, the rankings would occasionally be updated as people inside might be replaced.

"I think I should know who Violetjade Fairy is speaking about. I didn't expect that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy actually put his name inside the Heavenly Dao Rankings so quickly." Someone spoke, feeling shocked in his heart.

"Is the person Violetjade Fairy is speaking of, the successor of the Godking of Time who participated in the recent convention?" Another person asked. After that, the eyes of many people flashed as they thought of a character. Recently, the name of this person was like the sun in the sky in the Mystic Region. There would frequently be people mentioning him.

The successor of the Time King, killing a hegemonic-level world overlord in a single battle, cultivated for less than a thousand years… This dazzling star instantly rose up into the sky, everyone in the Mystic Region knew about him.

Naturally, the reason why his name spread so quickly was naturally because of Yue Changkong from the Ziwei Divine Court. This story was too much of a drama. Yue Changkong, a disciple of the Sunmoon Sacred Mountain, actually falsified himself as the Time King's successor to enter the Ziwei Divine Court and even managed to get a heavenly deity to take him in as a disciple. From this, one could imagine how much attention he garnered. In addition, this also had something to do with the Time King and the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

In one of the pavilions, Qin Wentian who was laughing and chatting with the people in his group suddenly froze. The people around him also started, but smiles soon appeared on their faces as they looked at Qin Wentian. The Qin Wentian now was actually so famous? Not only did many world overlords pay a visit to him, even in this city where the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was located, people were talking about him too. Also, he actually became one of the rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings.

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled, he knew nothing about this at all. Who would have thought that his name would suddenly be included and he became the topic of conversation of everyone here because of this.

"Sirs, all of you are extremely intelligent and instantly knew who I was speaking of with just a single hint. I received the news that the Qingcheng Realmlord would soon come to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to cultivate. At the instant he enters the sacred academy, the academy would announce this updated Heavenly Dao Rankings to the public." The Violetjade Fairy laughed.

"If it is him, it's only logical. After all, he was able to gain the recognition of a godking and this should be sufficient to prove his talent. Also, he has cultivated for less than a thousand years yet he could already killed the Dragon Pool Manor Lord. It's normal for him to enter the Heavenly Dao Rankings with such an achievement." Somebody nodded.

There were many extraordinary characters here. They knew that the Qingcheng Realmlord was somebody who deserved his reputation or the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy wouldn't have arranged a heavenly deity to become a teacher for him.

"This is interesting. Once the Qingcheng Realmlord enters the sacred academy, wouldn't the sacred academy take four spots out of the ten spots in the ranking? Ten years ago, that supreme existence who came from the Swordsaint Mountain and entered the sacred academy for cultivation, I wonder who is more outstanding when he is compared to the Qingcheng Realmlord." Another person laughed.

In one of the pavilions, when the people there heard someone speaking about that supreme existence who came from the Swordsaint Mountain, their eyes suddenly flashed with sharpness. The young man in the lead had a sharp look on his face, and exuded a sword-like aura. His eyes gleamed in the dark, brighter even than the moonlight.

"How long has this Qingcheng Realmlord been famous for? How can he be comparable to the descendants of the Sword God? Don't forget that the supreme existence consolidated his achievements step by step. The Qingcheng Realmlord has only fought a single battle. Are they even comparable at all?" The young man spoke, his tone filled with unhappiness. As the sound of his voice faded, many people turned over. Qin Wentian's group also stared in his direction as strange looks appeared on their faces. So it turned out that this man who spoke was the person who snatched their courtyard on the third level from the top of the Daoask Lodge back then.

"That's true, that character's battle achievements are just too glorious. He challenged many world overlords before but has never been defeated. In fact, even some famous hegemonic-level world overlords were also defeated by him. Geniuses at the peak were all destined to be lonely, that was the reason why that person chose to join the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to seek the heavenly dao." Another person sighed. For every character that can become a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings, all represented a legend. The Qingcheng Realmlord was one, the others were as well.

That supreme character came from the Swordsaint Mountain, he was a descendant of the Sword God.

The people around Qin Wentian all felt unhappy when they heard this. Jun Mengchen glanced at that young man and spoke unhappily, "The strength of one's talent and the degree of one's fame. How can they be evaluated by the number of battles one fought? I'm very curious about that descendant of the Sword God. During the thousand-year period of his cultivation, was his achievements as glorious as the Qingcheng Realmlord? Could he kill a hegemonic-level world overlord then?"

The eyes of the young man shone as he turned to face Jun Mengchen. "Although the convention of the myriad realms is said to be a peak-level grand event of the Mystic Region, the vast majority of people attending it were merely from the three hegemonic powers or their subordinate forces. Those truly powerful world overlords, for example, the previous ten rankers of the Heavenly Dao Rankings, not one of them had shown up to attend it. Because they have enough confidence, they don't need the recognition of the three hegemonic powers because they knew they are already the elites. If the descendant of the Sword God had attended the recent convention, maybe the Qingcheng Realmlord wouldn't have rose to fame at all."

The young man was right. Although the convention was a peak-level grand event of the Mystic Region, it was impossible for every world overlord in the Mystic Region to be there. There were simply too many people who didn't attend. Or maybe, some had already participated before ten thousand years ago and didn't wish to attend the current one.

Jun Mengchen initially wanted to rebut but the Violetjade Fairy smiled and interjected, "Sirs, there's no need to quarrel among yourselves. In truth, Violetjade still has something I want to tell you all about. On the Swordsaint Mountain, other than that descendant of the Sword God who is on the Heavenly Dao Rankings, right now, another descendant of the Sword God has also arrived here and would enter the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy for cultivation. In addition, he is now staying in the Daoask Lodge as well."

As the voice of the Violetjade Fairy faded, the eyes of many gleamed sharply. After that, many people turned to the young man who spoke earlier, as though they thought of something. As expected, sword light now glimmered in the eyes of the young man. His entire person was like a sword. His gaze, that was as sharp as swords, was filled with a tinge of arrogance!

Chapter 1814: Welcome

The Swordsaint Mountain was an ancient peak power in the Mystic Region. During its beginning, it had a heavenly deity who had the title of Sword God.

After Jian Junlai rose up, his title was Sword Monarch instead of Sword God because, in the past, there already was a heavenly deity with the title Sword God.

The disciples from the Swordsaint Mountain naturally had extraordinary sword arts. Their world hearts and heavenheart mandates were all based on the source origins of sword laws as their foundation. There was no need to doubt how strong their combat prowess is.

On the Heavenly Dao Ranking, there was a ranker named Jian Chen. His sword arts have defeated many world overlords before and even killed hegemonic-level world overlords. The Swordsaint Mountain has waited for so many years and finally, a supreme genius with potential high enough to become a heavenly deity finally appeared. He was the Swordsaint Mountain's hope of being restored to their former glory.

As to why this Jian Chen came to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to cultivate instead of joining the hegemonic powers like the Ziwei Divine Court, etc, it was because once he joined them, even if he became a heavenly deity, all glory would belong to the hegemonic power he joined and not the Swordsaint Mountain. Everyone would only think of the sect he is in now and not where he originated from.

The sacred academy was different. Even if one became a heavenly deity in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, they are still considered independent of the academy. He would still be a heavenly deity of the Swordsaint Mountain and everyone would only be filled with admiration at the ability of the sacred academy to transmit the dao. This was the difference between the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and the Ziwei Divine Court.

Hence, although the three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region was very attractive, even more supreme experts with outstanding talent would choose to head to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to seek their dao and cultivate.

At this moment, the young man sitting in the pavilion was none other than Jian Wuxin, he was the supreme genius that similarly hailed from the Swordsaint Mountain, a descendant of the Sword God.

As the descendant of the Sword God, he was naturally prideful and arrogant.

"So you are someone from the Swordsaint Mountain. I've been lacking in my etiquette." Somebody clasped his hands towards the young man. Another person then spoke, "I wonder what is sir's relationship with Jian Chen?"

"He is my uncle." Jian Wuxin calmly spoke, his sharp eyes flashing with arrogance. It was as though the name Jian Chen should inspire awe from everyone and he should be part of the glory because Jian Chen was his uncle.

"Jian Chen's talent is dazzling. There's somebody who claimed that if the ten rankers were to be ranked based on their potential, Jian Chen would be able to rank within the top five. Since sir is Jian Chen's nephew, your talent is most likely extraordinary as well. Who would have thought that a pair of supreme geniuses from the Swordsaint Mountain would both choose to come to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to seek the dao."

"Brother Jian, since you are already here, you must have obtained the recognition of the sacred academy already, right?" Someone asked.

"Naturally. My uncle has already said that tomorrow, he will get the people from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to welcome my elder brother personally, leading him into the academy for cultivation." A beautiful young lady at the side spoke. She was Jian Wuxin's younger sister.

"Having people from the sacred academy to personally come and welcome you. Such preferential treatment is truly extraordinary. Sir's talent must definitely be very outstanding." Someone sighed in admiration. If not, despite Jian Chen's extraordinary status in the academy, it wouldn't be too good for him to order people from the sacred academy to personally welcome Jian Wuxin. The only exception was that Jian Wuxin's talent is extraordinary high. If not, if the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy personally went out to welcome someone of mediocre talent, wouldn't they be slapping themselves?

"Blowing your own trumpet." A mocking voice rang out. The expressions of everyone froze. The person who spoke was none other than Jun Mengchen. After he learned of the identities of Jian Wuxin's group, he actually still dared to say such a thing. Seems like this group of people also had extraordinary statuses, they might be from a peak power.

"Before you guys are famous, all of your tones are already so arrogant, brazenly disregarding the talent of others, sullying them in order to elevate your own statuses. The group of you have inferior temperaments, before this, when you all forcibly snatched the courtyard we initially booked, I can already tell your true characters." Jun Mengchen spoke in a mocking voice. "As to your boasting of your own talent level, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would naturally verify it. I've attended the convention this time around and know what sort of person the Qingcheng Realmlord is. In the future, he will be cultivating in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, the same as Jian Chen. You guys will learn who is the superior one between them sooner or later."

"What a joke, you thought that because you attended the convention, you already know all geniuses under the heavens? Sadly, you are just a frog in the well, unable to see the greater world around you." Jian Wuxin coldly replied as he calmly sipped his wine. It was like he felt his status was superior and had no need to be angered because of Jun Mengchen who was a lowly bug. As a descendant of the Sword God, he naturally needed to have a fitting demeanor.

"Mengchen." Qin Wentian smiled and shook his head at Jun Mengchen, lifting his cup to him. Jun Mengchen initially wanted to speak but seeing how unbothered Qin Wentian was, the anger in his heart dissipated as well. That's right, why should he lower himself to Jian Wuxin's level? What's the meaning in sparring verbally? In the future, everyone would know that his senior brother was superior. Qin Wentian was magnamious enough to give that courtyard up. Now, he also couldn't be bothered to argue with this group of people.

Qin Wentian truly couldn't be bothered. He had received his fair share of doubts as he walked on his path. Now that his name has shaken the Mystic Region, this was an unexpected surprise for him and it wasn't something he really wanted. A competition between whose talent was higher? There was no meaning to this. Or more accurately, it was too boring. Only one's strength is the foundation of everything.

The Violetjade Fairy smiled and glanced at Qin Wentian with an expression of interest on her face. However, the glory today still belonged to Jian Wuxin. Many people continued on with their fawning behavior, wanting to get acquainted with Jian Wuxin. Qin Wentian's group chatted a while more here before they departed, returning to their own courtyard.

During the second morning, the news about Jian Wuxin, a descendent of Sword God that was currently staying in the Daoask Lodge, would go to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to cultivate soon began to circulate. Many people paid a visit to him, wanting to get acquainted with him, and there were even some characters from the major powers here in Daoask City among them. From what Jian Wuxin's younger sister has said, "Today, Jian Chen would send someone to welcome Jian Wuxin to the sacred academy for cultivation. Such treatment was truly extraordinary, Jian Wuxin's talent was undoubtedly very high but it was just that he has not displayed his brilliance in the Mystic Region before.

Hence, there were many people gathered in the Daoask Lodge today. Regardless of the guests or experts from the major powers, all of them were here. There were some waiting in the lobby of the Daoask Lodge and some waiting outside, all wanted to see the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy personally welcoming Jian Wuxin.

And as expected, the people from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy truly did arrive. A group of people with extraordinary auras appeared, all of them clearly were world overlords. The moment they arrived in the Daoask Lodge, someone among the crowd immediately walked up to pay his respects as he asked, "Seniors, are you guys from the sacred academy?"

"Mhm." One of the people in the group smiled. After that, many serving girls of the lodge instantly served up some food in welcome but that expert from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy waved his hand in dismissal, "There's no need to be polite, we will leave soon after."

The Violetjade Fairy appeared at this moment in the lobby. She smiled, "Are you all here to welcome someone?"

"That's right." The experts from the sacred academy nodded, they were indeed here to welcome someone. The eyes of everyone in the surroundings gleamed sharply. As expected, the sacred academy actually sent out so many world overlords to welcome Jian Wuxin? Was this because of Jian Chen's authority?

Although Jian Chen had outstanding talent and was a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings, he was ultimately someone who came here to seek the dao. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy actually sent out such a powerful group of experts to welcome his nephew? From this, one could really tell that Jian Wuxin's talent was undoubtedly extraordinary.

Did another supreme genius just appear in the Swordsaint Mountain? In that case, would they really be restored to their former glory?

At this moment at the staircase, many people walked over. The person in the center was surrounded by many and exuded an imposing aura. This young man was naturally none other than Jian Wuxin. Many of those who came to visit him were guests who drank in the pavilions last night, wanting to become acquaintances with Jian Wuxin. Now, when these people saw the group from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, someone laughed, "Seems like Jian Wuxin is truly supreme. I've never seen someone getting such preferential treatment before."

"Indeed, the world overlords of the sacred academy coming as a group to welcome a person? It's truly extremely rare."

"After Sir Jian enters the academy, you can rest assured about your family. I will arrange for them to stay in a courtyard at the second level from the top level." A manager of the Daoask Lodge laughed. Yesterday, he was the one who made the decision to let Jian Wuxin's group take the upper third-level courtyard over Qin Wentian's group.

Other than managing the daily activities of the lodge, managers were supposed to form network connections with people that have powerful statuses. This has always been the method of their Daoask Lodge.

"Many thanks." Jian Wuxin smiled. A look of arrogance could be seen on his face, he walked towards the experts from the sacred academy only to see his younger sister moving before him. His younger sister came to the front of those experts and said, "Thank you to all seniors for coming here to welcome my brother!"

The world overlords from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy glanced at her before turning to Jian Wuxin. One of them then asked in a puzzled manner, "Is your brother him?"

"Yes. Jian Chen is my uncle, this young man is my older brother, Jian Wuxin. Are you guys not the entourage my uncle sent here?" The young woman asked.

The world overlords glanced at each other before laughing, "Oh, so you are someone from the Swordsaint Mountain. You have to cultivate well now that you are going to join the sacred academy. However, we are not sent here by Jian Chen, we are also not here to welcome your older brother."

"Oh?" The young woman's gaze froze. Jian Wuxin's steps also halted, and that manager from the Daoask Lodge had a strange look on his face.

Even the eyes of the Violetjade Fairy had some puzzlement. There shouldn't be anything wrong with her information, right? But it's true that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy sent out a group of experts to welcome someone.

"Are you sure?" Jian Wuxin's younger sister asked.

"Little miss, how can we not be sure of our purpose here?" That world overlord laughed. At this moment, another two people walked into the lodge. These two were at the empyrean realm and when they saw the group of people from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, they instantly bowed, "We pay our respects to seniors."

"Oh, so it's you guys." The world overlords of the academy understood after seeing the two of them. The world overlord who spoke earlier than spoke to Jian Wuxin, "These two are the people cultivating in the same courtyard for Jian Chen. They should be the people that are welcoming you."

"Senior Jian Chen did ask us here to welcome Young Master Wuxin." The two of them nodded. Right now, Jian Wuxin's younger sister felt extremely embarrassed. If she didn't speak up earlier, things would still fine but they actually were mistaken about the group of world overlords. How awkward.

Jian Wuxin also had an embarrassed look on his face. His younger sister glanced at the world overlord and asked, "In that case, seniors, who are you all welcoming?"

That world overlord wanted to reply but at this moment, a group of people walked over. Their gazes turned in that direction as smiles appeared in their eyes. One of them then called out, "Brother Qin!"

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled when he saw the group of world overlords. He has met these people before, they were none other than the world overlords from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy who had also attended the convention. However, there wasn't much communication between them at the time. He didn't expect that the group the old man was sending, were actually these people. This made him feel somewhat overwhelmed by favor.

"How would I dare to trouble brothers to make a trip here for me." Qin Wentian clasped his hands.

"Haha, it's what we ought to do given Brother Qin's talent. Old senior has repeatedly told us we have to do so." A world overlord laughed. When the people around here heard his words, they naturally understood that Qin Wentian was the one they were waiting for. The group of people from the Swordsaint Mountain all had awkward and embarrassed expressions on their faces. Qin Wentian's group was none other than the group of people they mocked yesterday, even calling them frogs in a well!

Chapter 1815: Divine Sound World Overlord

The eyes of everyone in the Daoask Lodge shone strangely. Earlier, those who were trying to ingratiate themselves with Jian Wuxin also felt extremely weird now. Earlier yesterday at the pavilions around the lake, many of them were fawning over Jian Wuxin.

After the Violetjade Fairy revealed Jian Wuxin's identity, many people went forward to make his acquaintance. As for Qin Wentian, although they could tell that he was an extraordinary individual, no one was interested in him.

However, the experts from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy actually personally came by today. The person they were welcoming wasn't Jian Wuxin, but was Qin Wentian's group instead. This unexpected mishap...all of them could sense how embarrassed the people from the Swordsaint Mountain were at this moment. Even those trying to ingratiate themselves with Jian Wuxin before this all felt extremely foolish.

"How can this be?" A weird look flashed through Jian Wuxin's younger sister's eyes. She stared at the world overlord from the sacred academy and asked, "Who is he then? Why is the sacred academy personally sending people to welcome him?"

Upon seeing this younger woman continue to ask them questions, as well as the reactions from the people in the lobby, the experts from the sacred academy could faintly guess at some things. So it turned out that these people from the Swordsaint Mountain thought that they were here to welcome them but they soon discovered that this was not the case and were very unhappy now. If this really was the situation, things would truly be interesting.

"Does our sacred academy need to report to you when we do things?" That world overlord calmly spoke. Although Jian Wuxin's group was from the Swordsaint Mountain and has a connection with Jian Chen, one mustn't forget that Jian Chen was here to seek the dao. Before this, he has already answered the young woman's casual questions yet this young woman actually still continued asking him questions while displaying an unfriendly attitude.

"Sir, please don't take offense. My younger sister doesn't really know etiquette, she is merely curious." As a world overlord, Jian Wuxin reacted quickly and instantly apologized. After all, he would be going to the sacred academy for cultivation too. There was no reason for him to offend the experts from the academy even before entering there.

"Brother Qin?" The Violetjade Fairy at the side recalled how the world overlord addressed Qin Wentian as a look of contemplation appeared on her face. After that, a bright light flashed in her eyes as she suddenly recalled the quarrel between Qin Wentian and Jian Wuxin's groups during the night at the lake. The quarrel was about two supreme geniuses on the Heavenly Dao Rankings - the Qingcheng Realmlord and Jian Chen.

Wasn't the Qingcheng Realmlord also surnamed Qin?

"This…" The Violetjade Fairy's beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian, feeling somewhat speechless. She didn't expect that the true supreme expert was before her eyes, in the Daoask Lodge, yet no one had recognized him.

"Who is it that received Sir Qin when he came?" At this moment, the Violetjade Fairy walked out and asked the serving girls in the lodge.

The serving girl who attended to Qin Wentian before this walked out and spoke in a low voice, "Replying to Violetjade Fairy, I was the one."

"Which level is Sir Qin arranged to stay in? How long is he staying for?" Fairy Violetjade asked.

"The fourth-level, a month of time." The serving girl replied.

"After this, go and check and see if there are any guests currently living on the top level. If there isn't any, see if you can make the arrangements for Sir Qin and his friends to stay there." The Violetjade Fairy coldly spoke. It was like she had an extraordinary status here in the Daoask Lodge.

"Ah…" The serving girl was shocked. The top level was only for the truly supreme major characters in the Mystic Region to stay in. Only those characters with extremely great statuses were qualified to stay in the top level.

And now, Fairy Violetjade actually said to arrange for Qin Wentian to stay at the top level?

"Do it according to my instructions." The Violetjade Fairy spoke.

"Yes." The serving girl nodded. Her beautiful eyes cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian. Seems like this young man whose booking of the third-level courtyard was snatched, was actually an extraordinary character. Also, he might be from one of those major powers that's at the very peak of the Mystic Region.

The people in the surroundings started. Could it be Fairy Violetjade already knew of this young man's identity?

That manager of the Daoask Lodge now had an unsightly look on his face, it was like he was pondering over his earlier decision of allowing Jian Wuxin to book the third-level courtyard despite Qin Wentian booking it first. Would there be any consequences? Although this seemed to be a minor matter, but if Qin Wentian was really qualified to stay at the top level, this matter would then be a significant one.

"There's no need to. The fourth level is pretty good. No need for more trouble." Qin Wentian spoke to Fairy Violetjade. He wouldn't want a reward if it's not deserved. In any case, he would feel better that he was paying for the accommodations he was staying in. The Daoask Lodge was too pragmatic, it was best that he wasn't too deeply involved with them. He naturally didn't want extra benefits from them.

"Now that the Qingcheng Realmlord's name has shaken the Mystic Region, how can we allow you to suffer while staying at our place? Staying at the top level is naturally something you deserve." Fairy Violetjade laughed, exuding extreme charm.

"Qingcheng Realmlord?" The eyes of the people in the surrounding flashed. So, it turned out that this young man was none other than the Qingcheng Realmlord whose name has currently spread throughout the Mystic Region. He was a supreme genius that killed the Dragon Pool Manor Lord and also became a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings, becoming one of the ten people who had the highest potential to become heavenly deities.

Everyone from the Swordsaint Mountain stared at Qin Wentian. To think that he was actually the Qingcheng Realmlord.

They had snatched Qin Wentian's courtyard on the third level and even mocked that the Qingcheng Realmlord cannot be compared to Jian Chen. However, Qin Wentian didn't even say anything at all. This was the disparity between them, the disparity in their spirits. Although they still believed that the Qingcheng Realmlord was inferior to Jian Chen, but it was very clear he was vastly superior to the rest of them. With such a status, the Daoask Lodge actually permitted his courtyard to be snatched?

"I appreciate Fairy's kind intentions. However, the fourth level is excellent for our needs. My friends and family are both very happy." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded. "I will head to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy for cultivation and won't bother the Daoask Lodge any longer. Qianyu, help me settle the things here."

"Okay." Ye Qianyu smiled. Her experience was very vast and had many extraordinary methods to do things. It was true she was much more suitable to handle all these trifling matters when compared to Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng.

"Farewell." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded to Violetjade. After that, he then spoke to the group of experts from the sacred academy, "Let's move out."

"Brother Qin, please." The experts laughed as the group of them left. Ye Qianyu and the others followed them. They decided to send Qin Wentian into the sacred academy before touring Daoask City. Right now, there were already many world overlords in the midst. As long as they don't take the initiative to create trouble, they wouldn't encounter any unresolvable matters.

The beautiful eyes of the Fairy Violetjade froze, her expression seemed a little unhappy. Last night, she had heard Jun Mengchen saying that Qin Wentian's booking of the third-level courtyard had been seized and now, Qin Wentian also refused to accept the kind intentions of their Daoask Lodge. He was clearly unhappy about this. Someone has to bear the responsibility of this matter.

"Sir Jian, let's head out too." The two empyreans sent here to welcome Jian Wuxin spoke. Jian Wuxin could feel that the situation here was turning cold from awkwardness. He nodded in agreement. Right now, all the earlier commotion around him has already faded to silence. The atmosphere felt very strange.

"Let's go." The people from the Swordsaint Mountain left together. That manager could see the Violetjade Fairy coldly looking at him and he couldn't help but to shiver. He has also heard Qin Wentian's rejection. This caused that minor matter to become something huge.

However, Qin Wentian basically didn't care about his existence or even knew about this matter. Right now, he already arrived outside the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. A hint of anticipation could be seen in his eyes. Back then in Azure Mystic, he once cultivated in the sacred academy and listened to the dao lectures. After each dao lecture, his improvements would be exceedingly vast. After he exited the sacred academy, his strength had underwent a transformation.

And now, things were different from the past. His cultivation base currently was much stronger when compared to before. Once, maybe an immortal emperor was sufficient to give dao lectures to him. But now at his current level, only heavenly deities had the qualifications to be his teacher, transmitting the dao to him.

They ascended the heavenly stairway and entered the sacred academy. The world overlord beside him smiled, "Brother Qin, I can tell that your friends and family have very good talents too. Quite a few of them are already at the world overlord realm. Their cultivation time should also be very short, right?"

"Many are the same as me, the difference isn't great. All of you should know about my junior apprentice brother Jun Mengchen. He is even younger than me and has also manifested an extraordinary world heart. My demon beast companion is royal heaven devouring beast. If it wasn't for his lazy nature, his cultivation speed would surely not be any slower than mine. But even so, he is also a world overlord now. Also, one of my wives and younger sister also have extraordinary talent. Their ages are equal to mine and are now also world overlords." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Mhm, if there's a chance to, I'll speak to the seniors about this and see if there's any chance to let them enter the sacred academy for cultivation as well."

"Many thanks." Qin Wentian laughed. They continued into the depths of the sacred academy. This academy was extremely vast, with many secret realms leading to different dimensions within. The sacred academy everyone saw on the outside, was just the tip of the iceberg although it was already extremely large.

Qin Wentian and the others came to a beautiful landscape with a waterfall cascading downwards. There were beautiful jade buildings on the mountain peak above the waterfall as well.

"Brother Qin, senior is waiting for you above. He says he wants you to be his neighbour and ask you to live on the top of that peak too. What do you think?"

"Senior treats me so well, yet I don't even know his name." Qin Wentian bitterly smiled. The senior they were referring to, was none other than that old man who was a hegemonic-level world overlord in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy that participated in the convention this time around. That old man truly did admire Qin Wentian.

"Senior's title is known as the Divine Sound World Overlord. His cultivation base is extremely high, only a hair away from attaining a heavenly dao. This time, our academy will update the Heavenly Dao Rankings and you will be ranked within. Also, Senior Divine Sound is the same as you as well. If we disregard the potential levels of everyone on the rankings and only compare combat prowess, Senior Divine Sound would most assuredly be ranked within the top three." Another world overlord laughed.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. So it turned out that the major character from the sacred academy was also a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings with the potential to enter the heavenly deity realm. Also, from the words he heard, it seems like Divine Sound was truly infinitesimally close to that legendary realm.

"Haha, you guys should stop bragging about me to Wentian. That legendary realm is extremely tough to reach, I can only glance at it from afar. I have no idea if I would be able to attain it or not." In the airspace above the waterfall, a voice drifted over alongside with laughter. "Come on up."

Qin Wentian's group flew into the air and arrived at the peak above the waterfall. They stared at the jade buildings and abodes here and the environment here felt like an immortal paradise. To think that in the depths of the sacred academy, there would actually be all sorts of different-structured buildings that were elegant and beautiful.

"Wentian pays my respects to senior." Qin Wentian politely spoke.

"There's no need to be so polite. Us being acquainted at the convention can also be considered fate. You have such achievements despite your age, I actually feel somewhat ashamed at being ranked in the same Heavenly Dao Rankings as you. In the future, your achievements would surely be above mine." The Divine Sound World Overlord laughed. "Also, there's no need for you to refer to me as senior. Since we are both cultivating in the sacred academy and there would also be a heavenly deity teaching you, you can just directly address me as Senior Brother Divine Sound."

Chapter 1816: Heavenly Dao Library

Qin Wentian could sense the feeling of amicability from Divine Sound. He didn't reject it and smiled, "Wentian pays my respects to Senior Divine Sound."

"Good. Junior brother Qin. On the other side of this peak, there's an empty courtyard. Why don't you stay there and become my neighbour? I heard that you have brought plenty of friends and family with you on this trip. Do you want them to enter the sacred academy for cultivation?" The Divine Sound World Overlord asked.

"I did think of this. Among them, there are some with very high talents." Qin Wentian didn't conceal anything. "Naturally, I will listen to the sacred academy's will. Temporarily, I've arranged for them to stay in the Daoask Lodge. If the sacred academy isn't willing to accept them, they would temporarily remain in Daoask City. It's also more convenient for me to meet with them if I want to."

"Mhm, I will send some people to the Daoask Lodge to test their talent. If they pass the test, they can enter the sacred academy to cultivate too. It's just that it's impossible for them to also have a heavenly deity as their teacher." Divine Sound spoke.

"That's natural." Qin Wentian nodded. How would he be so unaware of the good intentions of others? Naturally, those who he felt were more outstanding in his group, also had the guidance of heavenly deities although they were merely ancient wisps of wills that had survived. As for him, he would be able to meet with a real heavenly deity as the heavenly deity transmitted dao to him.

"It's impossible for heavenly deities to guide you at every moment. They would only transmit their daos occasionally. You should be able to understand this, right?" Divine Sound spoke again. Qin Wentian naturally understood. Heavenly deities also needed to cultivate, they also aspired to grow stronger, wanting to reach that unparalleled level as a godking. How would they be so free to use all their time to teach juniors?

"Hence, only once every three months would the heavenly deities give a dao lecture."

"So frequent?" Qin Wentian felt a little taken aback.

"Haha." Divine Sound laughed, he knew that Qin Wentian must have misunderstood. He smiled, "Although it is impossible for heavenly deities to transmit their knowledge of the Great Dao at every moment, but Wentian, do you think that it's their true bodies transmitting the dao here?"

Qin Wentian started, but he soon laughed. That's right, how could heavenly deities be so free? Why would their real self need to be in the sacred academy to transmit the dao? The true bodies of heavenly deities would surely roam the world to seek the true meaning of the heavenly daos, pursuing the supreme point of cultivation. Just leaving behind a strand of their immortal sense here would already be extraordinary enough, the projection formed from their immortal sense could naturally transmit their understanding of the daos.

"Naturally, other than heavenly deities transmitting the daos, there are still plenty of secret realms in the sacred academy where you can cultivate in. You can enter them freely, just try not to disturb the cultivation of others. In the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, there's nothing forbidden. In fact, sparring against each other is allowed as conflicts would often happen within the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Those supreme geniuses here are all filled with pride and arrogance. Spars are permitted but one has to stop before seriously injuring the other one. Friendly competitions would only serve to stimulate the battle spirit of the students here."

Divine Sound smiled and glanced at Qin Wentian, as though his words were filled with a deep meaning. Qin Wentian's fame has shaken the Mystic Region and now that he has also become a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Ranking and was also in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, many people might be unconvinced and seek him out for a fight. Qin Wentian need not dream about having peaceful times in the academy.

The other world overlords at the side also laughed. In truth, when Qin Wentian entered the sacred academy earlier, news was already swiftly circulated out. Many extraordinary world overlords in the academy already knew about this. Not only was the Qingcheng Realmlord going to cultivate in the sacred academy, he was also going to be assigned a heavenly deity as a teacher. Also, his name was already on the Heavenly Dao Rankings.

"Divine Sound, I heard that a new dao seeker just came to our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy? This person is now extremely famous and is also a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings. Is this him?" At this moment, a voice rang out in the air. However, the person who spoke seemed to be in a palace situated extremely far away.

"That's right. Junior brother Qin's talent is supreme and I admire him very much. Hence, I gave him the recommendation to join the sacred academy." Divine Sound laughed.

"Haha, he would soon be in for a lot of trouble. Those battle fanatics would surely hound his door everyday." That person laughed. "Especially so for those other rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings."

The eyes of the Divine Sound World Overlord flashed with light as he thought of a person. This person wasn't from the Mystic Region but was from the other regions instead. He intentionally claimed that he was here to seek the dao but other than doing so, he had another purpose. He wanted to spar with the other famous world overlords in the Mystic Region. Many famous world overlords in the sacred academy have been challenged before. Out of the ten rankers on the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, he has also fought with three before.

Now that Qin Wentian has entered the rankings and was also in the sacred academy, that person would surely seek him out for a battle.

"Also, this young man was inducted by you into the sacred academy. Things would be even more troublesome for him." That person laughed. Clearly, his status was also extraordinary. If not, it was impossible for him to speak so casually to the Divine Sound World Overlord.

Qin Wentian had a strange look on his face as he stared at the Divine Sound World Overlord, his expression was filled with curiosity.

"It is a battle fanatic that absolutely thirsts for battles. He is from the Desolate Region. Our sacred academy would always accept everyone with talent irrespective of backgrounds. This man is extremely famous in the Desolate Region, both his talent and combat prowess are extremely outstanding, so he was allowed to enter the sacred academy. However, he is simply too arrogant and only has disregard for everyone. Back then when he fought against me, I taught him a lesson." Divine Sound replied. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. It was actually someone who came from the Desolate Region?

The Luoshen Clan was also a power from the Desolate Region.

"A world overlord that is actually extremely famous in the Desolate Region? He should be very strong, right?" Qin Wentian spoke.

"He is different from you. He is famous because of the clan he is from, which was a hegemonic power. He is treated as one of the future successors of his clan and is heavily nurtured while also receiving the supreme inheritance from his clan. His combat prowess is truly exceptional and he was born with a dao bone." Divine Sound replied.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed again. Born naturally with a dao bone? The dao bone in his body was considered an inheritance too, something the godking of time left behind. But this person, actually was born with one naturally.

"Senior brother Divine Sound, I still have a question. Given the majestic reputation of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, why would it choose to appear in Azure Mystic? The strongest characters there, ancient emperors, were merely at the empyrean realm. To the sacred academy, empyreans should be extremely insignificant, unworthy of a mention, right?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Not only will the sacred academy appear in Azure Mystic, it would also appear in many other immortal realms of the lower worlds. The mission of the sacred academy is to transmit the dao, and as for Azure Mystic, it suffered a calamity and was sealed, isolated from the outside world. People there being able to enter the empyrean realm, was already considered extremely excellent."

The Divine Sound World Overlord laughed, "Naturally, there is one more reason. In the sacred academy, there's an extremely powerful world overlord who originated from Azure Mystic. He has given his all to the sacred academy. If there's a chance to do so, I will introduce the both of you to each other."

Qin Wentian nodded, so there was such a reason. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy did take special care of Azure Mystic.

Although Ancient Azure Mystic was destroyed, the current Azure Mystic has not yet completely disappeared yet. Through countless years, there would definitely be some people who managed to leave there and come to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. An example was Yi. In that case, how many people were there before Yi?

But it is truly not easy for someone from Azure Mystic's poor cultivation environment to become a supremely powerful character that has an exceptionally high status in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Above the world overlord realm was the heavenly deity realm. Out of all the thirty-three immortal realms, how many heavenly deities are there?

"A senior from Azure Mystic. If I have a chance to do so, I must definitely pay him a visit." Qin Wentian nodded. He had very deep sentiments about Azure Mystic. After all, that was the place he grew up in.

"Oh, there should be a place in the sacred academy which you will be extremely interested in." The Divine Sound World Overlord laughed.

"Where is that?" Qin Wentian asked.

"The Heavenly Dao Library." Divine Sound replied. "The Heavenly Dao Library is the largest library in the Mystic Region and has countless treasured dao tomes and ancient recordings of history stored in there. If you wish to read them all, I'm afraid you would need a hundred years of time at the very least."

There were simply too many major incidents that happened in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and the other thirty-two immortal realms. Through the accumulation of countless years, this led to the current Heavenly Dao Library. And even now, many people would still compile the major events in the universe and add on to the records.

"This time around in the convention of the myriad realms, the appearance of the Time King and him leaving a sentence behind to his successor, would also be recorded. In the recording, it has information about you and your past deeds." Divine Sound laughed. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with light. However, it wasn't because the Heavenly Dao Library would record his achievements. In that case, the major incidents that happened to his parents back then, the incidents of the Luoshen Clan, the Qin Clan, and the world-ending battle in Ancient Azure Mystic...would all these have records too?

Also, this would allow him to gain a more thorough understanding of the thirty-three immortal realms and the supreme experts there. At the very least, he had to be familiar with the various peak powers in the different immortal realms.

"Looking at your reaction, you do seem to be extremely interested in it." Divine Sound laughed.

"Indeed, I'm already feeling impatient and want to rush there now." Qin Wentian laughed.

"Mhm, there is nothing here for you to do anyway. If you want to go there, allow them to lead you over." Divine Sound gestured to the world overlords who escorted Qin Wentian here.

"Right." The world overlords nodded. One of them then spoke, "Brother Qin, let's head to the Heavenly Dao Library then."

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. After he bid farewell to Divine Sound, they left immediately. All the world overlords felt somewhat envious of Qin Wentian, "Brother Qin, you have a heavenly deity as a teacher and Senior Divine Sound as your senior apprentice brother. We are so far below when compared to you."

"I'm merely lucky. I still have to thank Senior Divine Sound of his recognition of me." Qin Wentian humbly spoke.

"How can that be called luck? Clearly, you have displayed and proved your talent in the convention. Even if you had chosen the Ziwei Divine Court or other hegemonic powers, you would also be heavily nurtured. In fact, your benefits there might be even better than the benefits the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy can give you." These world overlords weren't jealous, they were just casually stating facts. Given Qin Wentian's talent, they were indeed left behind in his dust.

The Heavenly Dao Library was built in between mountain peaks. It was imposing and majestic and has a total of thirty-three levels. The peak of the library touched the clouds and it also exuded a stately aura.

"Thirty-three levels." Qin Wentian's eyes flashed.

"The thirty-three levels here should correspond with the thirty-three immortal realms. Every level should have recordings of the various immortal realms. As for the top-most level, it corresponds to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and each level is further divided into different areas." A world overlord by the side introduced. Qin Wentian nodded. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was really impressive indeed. The largest library in the Mystic Region, it definitely lived up to its reputation!

Chapter 1817: Grim Reaper

Qin Wentian entered the Heavenly Dao Library, there were many people entering and exiting here. Those who went to the sacred academy to seek the dao would definitely come to the Heavenly Dao Library. There were no exceptions. Before the thirty-three immortal realms, no matter how strong an expert might be, he would still be tiny and inconsequential in comparison. All of them wanted to take a look at this vast sea of knowledge stored here.

There were guardians here at the Heavenly Dao Library. Usually, other than cultivating, the only thing they had to do was protect this place and also compiling newly recorded incidents.

One must not look down on these library guardians. If you wanted to know who was the most familiar with events in the thirty-three immortal realms, these ancient guardians would definitely rank near the top.

In fact, there were even some guardians who held onto their posts for over ten million years and they were still willing to remain here. Their understanding of the history of the thirty-three immortal realms were second to none.

After Qin Wentian entered, he glanced at the instruction monument and discovered that the top level of the library was really the storage place for recording of events in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. This was very normal. However, what made him surprised was that the second level from the top was actually used for the events of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Such an arrangement by the sacred academy, he couldn't help but wonder if there was any deeper meaning behind this.

Or maybe, Azure Mystic was the only immortal realms remaining that wasn't controlled by a hegemonic power from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms yet.

Qin Wentian continued climbing the stairway, heading for the two levels at the top. Although he was also very interested in the other immortal realms, the amount of information here was simply staggeringly immense. It was impossible for him to look through them one by one. In any case, the two realms he wanted to enrich his understanding about the most, were the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

After coming to the second level from the top, he discovered that this level was much smaller when compared to the levels below it. It was as though the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has the least number of recordings with regards to Azure Mystic.

This was also understandable. After Ancient Azure Mystic was destroyed by that world-ending battle, it was completely sealed away. After that, there was nothing in Azure Mystic worthy of being intentionally paid attention to and recorded by the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. In fact, maybe the sacred academy couldn't even be bothered to pay attention to them.

Qin Wentian entered the level, the classifications were clearly listed on the shelves. For example, the Various powers in Azure Mystic Immortal Realms; the major characters in Azure Mystic Immortal Realms; strange events in Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, etc. Finally, he found a bookshelf that was labelled, "World-ending battle of Azure Mystic".

The ancient world-ending battle was in a separate bookshelf by itself and had many ancient scrolls on it.

Qin Wentian stretched his hand out and opened one of the scrolls. His immortal sense gushed forth into it and soon after, the words of the record appeared in his mind, incomparably clear and distinct.

"This is an introduction to the background of the world-ending battle." After finishing reading it, he returned it to its original position. Just like what the ancient heavenly deities have told him, all of the other thirty-one immortal realms have already been dominated and were now controlled by the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The only exception was Azure Mystic.

Many hegemonic powers would set up branches in the other immortal realms. For some of those more ambitious ones, how could they be willing to see a fat piece of meat like Azure Mystic remain untouched? They naturally desired to control it too. Hence, the world-ending battle occurred. But of course, the introductory background recorded in this ancient scroll was much more detailed than the one he read before in the Askheart Temple.

Many heavenly deity-ranked powers who participated in the world-ending battle now no longer existed. From this, one could tell how ancient this event was.

Qin Wentian quietly continued reading through the scrolls and he gradually learned the names of the heavenly deities in Ancient Azure Mystic. Among these heavenly deities, there were quite a few whose introduction was extremely lengthy. An example was the Imperishable Heaven Lord. She was the symbol of faith for Ancient Azure Mystic, a true goddess that was unexcelled in the world.

Other than her, the ancient records also mentioned a character that the wills of the ancient heavenly deities have never mentioned to him before.

This legendary character was given the name 'Grim Reaper,' in the ancient records kept by the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

During the world-ending battle, the two most dazzling characters were the Imperishable Heaven Lord, as well as Grim Reaper.

The various enemy heavenly deities started the world-ending battle, wanting to destroy Azure Mystic. The Imperishable Heaven Lord chose to fuse herself with the heavens and earth and just when everyone thought that this cruel world-ending battle was about to conclude, the Grim Reaper suddenly appeared and slaughtered his way into the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He led an army of death spirits and was like the embodiment of the word 'apocalypse,' slaughtering several of the various heavenly deity races and clans that participated in the world-ending battle of Azure Mystic. For heavenly deity-ranked powers, the number of their population have reached millions upon millions long ago. The Grim Reaper went there and wiped them all out, completely obliterating his targets. After that, he vanished from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and has never appeared again since.

It was precisely because of the Grim Reaper's existence that the various heavenly deity-ranked powers decided not to occupy and control Azure Mystic. That world-ending battle was a true calamity. It was a calamity not only for Ancient Azure Mystic, it was also a calamity for several of those heavenly deity races and clans. How brutal was that? And after that incident, Azure Mystic was sealed away.

From then on, not one power dared to invade Azure Mystic again. No one was willing to offend the Grim Reaper. They had no idea who the Grim Reaper was and none of them were confident enough to face off against his army of death spirits.

After Qin Wentian familiarized himself with this history, his heart trembled with emotions. So it turned out that, that world-destroying battle didn't simply lead to Ancient Azure Mystic being destroyed. A few heavenly deity-ranked powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were wiped out as well. Naming it as the 'world-ending' battle was truly apt.

As to who was right and wrong, Qin Wentian also didn't know how to judge. In truth, it was because of greed that the heavenly deities of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wanted to dominate and control Ancient Azure Mystic or there wouldn't have been the 'world-ending battle.' If they didn't attack Azure Mystic, the Grim Reaper wouldn't have slaughtered his way into the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms as well, causing so many people to die.

"Grim Reaper." Qin Wentian mumbled in a low voice. He couldn't help but to think of a certain person. Could he be the 'Grim Reaper' mentioned in the ancient records?

After he finished reading the scrolls detailing the world ending battle, Qin Wentian turned his attention to the other shelves. He didn't understand much of the history recorded hence he chose to give up. He then left the second level and headed to the top level of the library instead.

When Qin Wentian entered the top level, he instantly sensed the difference. This level was too vast, it was the largest level out of the thirty-three levels in the Heavenly Dao Library. After all, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was known as the upper world, the leader of all the immortal realms. They had the largest amount of territories, the largest amount of experts and the longest history. There naturally would be countless records.

The top level was divided into eight great sections, equivalent to the eight regions in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Heaven, Earth, Mystic, Yellow, Universe, Eternal, Chaos and Desolate.

Each of the sections in the top level of the library, contained countless books, tomes and ancient recordings.

Qin Wentian went to the Heaven section first. There were many segregations, but Qin Wentian was only keen on the various powers in the Heaven Region. Finally, he found it and he saw the information about the Qin Clan.

This was one of the two powers he wanted to understand the most. The Qin Clan was the clan his father was from. From a certain perspective, it was his clan too. Sadly, right now he had an unresolvable grudge with the Qin Clan.

Just the introduction of the Qin Clan took up an entire bookshelf. This peak power that had survived for countless years, had many legends worthy of being recorded. The supreme geniuses of each generation naturally had their information recorded as well. How can the records about them be little?

Qin Wentian started browsing from the left-most area. He took this very seriously. He flipped through the records and continued reading. Although his reading speed was very fast, he didn't miss out on anything. Time slowly passed by and finally, Qin Wentian saw the content he wanted to see.

There were many branches in the Qin Clan, and they can all be classified by their strength. For the core factions, there was only a few branches. These branches were the foundation of the Qin Clan and they had always produced numerous supreme characters.

For example, characters that were known as battle gods for their combat prowess - Qin Tiangang and Qin Ding.

These two were cousins, and were also twin heroes of their generation. The battle god Qin Tiangang was invincible and has never been defeated before. He aided the Qin Clan in conquering vast amounts of territories and his name shook the sky. As for Qin Ding, he was as extraordinary as Qin Tiangang too. Sadly, the heavens are unfair. One of these two legendary characters had an extremely bad ending.

Qin Tiangang and his wife had lost their lives while exploring a secret realm. They left behind an orphan who would go on to become a legendary character of the next generation - Qin Yuanfeng.

Because he was an orphan, although Qin Yuanfeng had displayed extraordinary talent since he was very young, he was always suppressed by another. This other person was none other than the heaven chosen of the Qin Clan, the son of Qin Ding, Qin Zheng.

Qin Zheng was fated to be extraordinary when he was born. For the branch clan he was in, that faction was extremely powerful. That, in addition to his extraordinary talent, he was immediately nurtured as one of the future successors to the Qin Clan. However, there would often be many unpredicted changes. There were rumors in the Qin Clan saying that before Qin Tiangang and his wife died in the secret realm, they found a supreme treasure and had passed that to their son, Qin Yuanfeng.

As for this point, the records kept in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy weren't that detailed but many of the other things that happened later did correspond to what Qin Wentian knew before this. In fact, the information in the ancient records were not as detailed as what he knew. After all, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy could only record these events after they happened, it was natural that they didn't know many of the finer details within.

Now, Qin Wentian already knew what his grandfather's name was. It was Qin Tiangang.

And back then, his father Qin Yuanfeng was the same as him. They grew up as orphans. From this, he could very well imagine how much his father had to suffer. Qin Wentian could only sigh at how unfair fate was. If his grandfather Qin Tiangang was still alive, maybe the successor to the Qin Clan wouldn't be Qin Zheng, it would be Qin Yuanfeng instead.

Qin Wentian flipped through many of the wondrous incidents that had a connection with his grandfather. He felt hot blood burning in his veins when he read them, but the more this was so, the greater his hatred was. His grandfather was someone that could be considered a pillar of the Qin Clan, he aided them to conquer many territories but after he died, how has the Qin Clan treat his son? Qin Yuanfeng?

The reality would always be so cruel. The things the Qin Clan owned him and his family, Qin Wentian would definitely make them repay it.

Qin Wentian continued reading, there was naturally no information about him in the records but he saw information about the legendary Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian.

After he finished reading, he placed the ancient scrolls down and his emotions calmed down. He walked towards the Desolate Section and began to browse information about the Luoshen Clan. This place had ancient records about his maternal grandfather's past deeds as well as his uncle, the Skyorder Heavenly Deity who was once a legendary character in the Desolate Region.

However, regardless of the records about the Heaven's Son or Skyorder Heavenly Deity, both mentioned that Qin Dangtian, the Heaven's Son, represented his father Qin Zheng in battle and crippled the Skyorder Heavenly Deity.

Qin Wentian was also very serious when he browsed through the information of the Luoshen Clan. After he finished reading, he sighed for a long while as indescribable emotions filled his heart. After that, his immortal sense gushed out as he began to search for other interesting records. A period of time later, his immortal sense scanned a certain location.

The ancient records about the Battle Saint Tribe was there!

Chapter 1818: Devilox

Qin Wentian walked over, he didn't expect that there would even be ancient recordings of the Battle Saint Tribe's history here as well. The Heavenly Dao Library truly contained many things.

He took out the relevant scrolls and started to browse through as information regarding the Battle Saint Tribe appeared in his mind.

The Battle Saint Tribe was also known as the Ancient Battle Clan, had shocking combat prowess, capable of dominating the Desolate Region. They were once the hegemonic power of a generation and had a divine ape as their totem. They were able to summon divine battle apes and possessed incredible divine strength.

The ancient scrolls recorded the glorious history of the Battle Saint Tribe, as well as how it declined and was eventually destroyed.

Another peak power in the Desolate Region was named the Ox Divine Clan. Their ancestor was a Kui Ox and can be considered an immensely powerful variation beast. The ancient records of the Battle Saint Tribe clearly recorded the grudge between these two clans. The hatred lasted for many years, and the Ox Divine Clan eventually used some underhanded methods and seized the inheritance battle saint bone from the Battle Saint Tribe and implanted it into his own body. After that, the successive generations of the Battle Saint Tribe's members grew more and more mediocre until their entire tribe was vanquished by the Ox Divine Clan.

With regards to this battle, the impartial view of the recorder felt that the Battle Saint Tribe was destroyed due to their own arrogance. They looked down on the Divine Ox Clan and they were indeed once stronger than them. However, the Divine Ox Clan knew that their talent was inferior to the Battle Saint Tribe and chose to lie low. When they found a method to turn the situation, they did it with no hesitation. They forced the remnants of the Battle Saint Tribe to flee to different particle worlds to hide and gained an absolute victory.

"Divine Ox Clan." Qin Wentian mumbled. He placed it down and took up the Divine Ox Clan's record lying next to it. Clearly, the recorder wanted those who came here to have a clearer idea of what was going on. Hence, he placed the two records next to each other. After that, Qin Wentian browsed through the Divine Ox Clan's records as his heart was filled with emotions.

The Battle Saint Tribe was destroyed due to their arrogance, the Divine Ox Clan knew their weakness very well. They were not considered peak-level demon beasts like divine dragons, phoenixes or great rocs. Their talent was inferior. However, they could still stand at the peak of the Desolate Region and even dominated demons who were of a higher rank than them in terms of bloodline. From this, one could see how powerful the methods of the Divine Ox Clan's ancestor was.

Not only did they seize the inheritance battle saint bone from the Battle Saint Tribe, during the process of them dominating those demons with higher-graded bloodlines, they constantly absorbed and interbred with these demons, allowing their later generations to grow stronger and stronger, becoming super-variation beasts. This was why they could still stand at the peak of the Desolate Region, no one could knock them down from their position.

Right now, as the Saint Lord of this generation of the Battle Saint Tribe, Qin Wentian naturally had responsibilities. He hoped that he would be able to help the Battle Saint Tribe grow to a point where they could contend against the Divine Ox Clan and seize back the glory that belongs to them.

Qin Wentian continued to stay in the library and browsed the books, gaining an understanding of the various peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms as information about many incidents in Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, appeared in his mind.

Once, in Azure Mystic, at the Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range, the demon god mountain had descended and all the demons in the surroundings underwent a transformation. On the peak of the demon god mountain, there were many inheritances of the various greater demons. The mastermind behind the scenes were none other than the Demon God Mountain from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Right now, the Demon God Mountain was one of the three hegemonic powers in the Desolate Region. The Demon God Mountain was a power formed from the alliances of many powerful saint beasts, and was formed to contend against the Divine Ox Clan. Once, for those supreme demons with high-grade bloodlines, were taken as slaves by the Divine Ox Clan. They eventually managed to break free in the end and formed a powerful alliance which resulted in the Demon God Mountain today. They would occasionally cause the manifestation of the Demon God Mountain to descend on the various immortal realms in the lower worlds, allowing many greater demons there to achieve a transformation. In the future after these greater demons came to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, many of them would usually choose to join the Demon God Mountain.

Qin Wentian slowly started to gain an understanding about the various peak powers. He wanted very much to finish reading all the ancient records about the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms at one go, but there were simply too many and it was too time consuming. He didn't have a hundred years to browse freely through the library. Hence, after gaining an initial understanding of the history of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, he exited the Heavenly Dao Library. Divine Sound had informed him to leave the library. Most probably, the date where the heavenly deity was going to give a dao lecture was approaching.

In any case, there would always be time in the future. When there's a chance to in the future, he would come back to the library again.

Qin Wentian returned to his residence and during the second day, he headed towards the location the Divine Sound World Overlord was staying at and made preparations to meet with the heavenly deity who would be his teacher.

"During these days, you have been at the Heavenly Dao Library?" Divine Sound smiled and asked Qin Wentian.

"Mhm, I took the time to gain a casual understanding of the various powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms so I would be prepared when I encounter them in the future." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Great idea. You would encounter them sooner or later. Given your talent, you would surely become a heavenly deity in the future and might have to contend against the various peak powers." Divine Sound replied. "In addition, I've sent someone to the Daoask Lodge to check the talents of your friends and family. There were indeed several with pretty good talents. When you have the time, you can go fetch all of them over and arrange them to stay at your place."

Qin Wentian felt joy in his heart. Seems like his senior brother Divine Sound was intentionally taking care of him. Although many people had high enough talent to meet the criteria, it was usually impossible to bring everyone with him over.

"Many thanks, senior brother." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded.

"Let's leave." Divine Sound spoke. After that he led the way and moved towards the depths of the sacred academy. After some time, they entered a screen of light and their surroundings completely changed. It was as though they had just entered a different dimension.

This place, the sun and moon didn't exist. Only the starry light cascaded down from the sky. It was as though the laws of the heavens and earth here were different from those outside. What made Qin Wentian's heart tremble was that he realized he couldn't sense the outside world at all.

"This…" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. He asked the Divine Sound World Overlord, "Senior brother, what place is this?"

"A god realm." Divine Sound laughed. "Heavenly deities are able to open up a world of their own. These worlds are known as god realms and inside here, all heavenly dao laws would circulate based on the owner's will. Hence, you wouldn't be able to sense the usual heavenly laws you are familiar with."

Qin Wentian nodded, he didn't feel that it was strange. Even for world overlords who were proficient in certain unique powers, they would be able to open up a world of their own, let alone a heavenly deity that was in command of a heavenly dao.

Naturally, the worlds opened up by heavenly deities are of different levels compared to those opened up by world overlords.

Qin Wentian continued forward. He also saw other experts here. They were seated on a platform made from astral stones and were quietly waiting.

"These people are all disciples of the Dugu Heavenly Deity." Divine Sound spoke. The Dugu Heavenly Deity clearly wasn't going to be teaching Qin Wentian alone. Heavenly deities are extremely limited in number. If they specially only taught one person, what sort preferential treatment would that be?

Many of the experts here were all elite world overlords. This was the only reason why they were qualified to attend the dao lectures given by a heavenly deity.

When Divine Sound and Qin Wentian came over, quite a few people turned their heads and stared at them. The eyes of one of the experts here gleamed with sharpness as he looked at Qin Wentian. A sharp battle intent gushed forth, that was energy from his body and seemed to be one with the heavens. In an instant, Qin Wentian felt a vast and ponderous battle might boring down on him.

"What a powerful battle intent." Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as he stared at this person. It was a young man with an extremely sturdy build. His face was filled with arrogance and his gaze was extremely invasive. He stared at Qin Wentian and asked, "So, you are the Qingcheng Realmlord?"

Qin Wentian frowned. The other party's attitude seems to be somewhat provocative.

"You have a problem with me?" Qin Wentian calmly asked.

"Nope. I only heard that you are quite famous in the Mystic Region when you attended the convention. Now, you have even entered the Heavenly Dao Rankings of the sacred academy. If there's a chance to do so, I would like to spar with you." The young man spoke. Qin Wentian recalled the words spoken to him by one of the world overlords when he first came here to the sacred academy. Could the person that world overlord talked about, be this young man?

That supreme genius from the Desolate Region. In the Desolate Region, the three hegemonic powers are the Luoshen Clan, Divine Ox Clan and the Demon God Mountain. Which of these three powers did this supreme genius belong to?"

"Who are you?" Qin Wentian asked.

"My name is Devilox." That person calmly replied. Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. Devilox, devil ox? As expected, this person was from the Divine Ox Clan.

There were records about Devilox in the Heavenly Dao Library because he had inherited a saint bone and was born with a dao bone in his body. His fate was destined to be extraordinary.

His senior Divine Sound also mentioned that this person was born with a dao bone. This caused Qin Wentian to suddenly think of the incident whereby the inheritance battle saint bone of the Battle Saint Tribe was plundered away.

In that case, when members of the Battle Saint Tribe also joins the sacred academy, he temporarily mustn't allow them to come in contact with this person.

"Oh, I also heard that the Luoshen Clan attended the convention this time around as well and they have a connection with you? Let me warn you, you best not be too close to Luoshen Lei. I have my sights set on her, she will become one of my women in the future." Devilox spoke with cold arrogance. Their Divine Ox Clan coveted the bloodline of the Luoshen Clan. Although the Skyorder Heavenly Deity was crippled, he was after all once a heavenly deity. How could the bloodline talent of his daughter be weak? It should also be extraordinary.

Despite the passage of countless years, the Divine Ox Clan always had designs on the Luoshen Clan's bloodline but they have never succeeded before. In that case, he will be the first to succeed then.

A cold light gleamed in Qin Wentian's eyes when he heard that. This Devilox wanted Luoshen Lei to become one of his women?

"As expected, you are also interested in Luoshen Lei?" Devilox stared at Qin Wentian's eyes and stated after he saw Qin Wentian's reaction. "Let me tell you that you can give up now. She will be mine."

Divine Sound listened calmly at the side and didn't interfere. This was something Qin Wentian had to face in the future, contending against the other supreme geniuses of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

"A demon ox actually is so talkative? You seem somewhat comical." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Devilox stared at him and laughed loudly. A moment later, the space around them trembled violently as Devilox's battle intent grew stronger.

"Devilox, shut up." A cold voice berated. When Devilox heard this, he actually instantly shut up. His gaze shifted ahead, and there was a look of devoutness in his eyes. From the void, an extremely beautiful and dazzling figure appeared.

This was simply a goddess. She was clad in white and exuded a pure and holy aura, so holy that no one would dare to have any profane thoughts. She was exceedingly beautiful and seemed to be completely perfect. The moment she appeared, even the sky would lose its color. Everyone bowed slightly and was incomparably respectful. Even the arrogant and tyrannical Devilox was the same as well.

This was because, this goddess was a true divinity, a heavenly deity.

Qin Wentian felt some shock in his heart. This heavenly deity from the sacred academy whom his senior brother Divine Sound recommended him to learn from, was actually a woman!

Chapter 1819: Dao of Heavenly Deities

Goddess Dugu exuded boundless magnificence. Her beautiful eyes stared at everyone before shifting onto Qin Wentian, "Are you the Qingcheng Realmlord, Qin Wentian?"

Her voice was warm and gentle, causing everyone to feel as though the spring wind has gusted by them. Qin Wentian nodded and bowed, "Junior Qin Wentian, pays my respects to teacher."

She was going to give dao lectures and transmit the dao to them, it was only natural to refer to her as 'teacher.'

"Mhm." Goddess Dugu inclined her head slightly as a formless energy enveloped Qin Wentian's body. She then spoke, "Having such high cultivation at such a young age, to think that you even received a godking's recognition, how rare. I heard from Divine Sound that you are currently focusing your cultivation on the time and space laws? Your world heart is able to cause space-time to halt. Is this right?"

"It can be considered so." Qin Wentian replied. "Causing space-time to halt is just one aspect of my world heart. My world heart is named the Heavenly Fate World Heart and the name was bestowed by senior brother Divine Sound. Within the heart domain generated by my world heart, my will is heaven's will. After that, I cultivated time energy and infused my world heart with it. This was why I have the ability to stop time."

"Release your world heart's power and allow me to sense it myself." Goddess Dugu spoke. Qin Wentian nodded. He released his world heart and its power descended on Goddess Dugu but he didn't unleash any attacks. Goddess Dugu basked herself in the sensation for a moment before nodding, "How did you manage to comprehend this, did some seniors teach you before this?"

"Student once managed to encounter a good opportunity. I was able to experience many different types of heavenheart mandates in a secret realm. In order to comprehend and forge a world heart suited for combat, I spent a hundred years in there to cultivate before I managed to manifest my current world heart." Qin Wentian replied.

"Mhm, seems like you are a person of great fortune. Your path is the correct one, if you continue on, you will come in contact with a heavenly dao sooner or later and there's is no worry that you would have to take many detours before arriving at that destination." The Goddess nodded. She then continued, "Although I'm a heavenly deity, I can tell you all honestly that given all of your current cultivation bases, although the distance between you all and the heavenly deity realm can be considered very far, it also cannot be considered very far as well. The effect of dao lectures on you all will be very limited. The pathway of cultivation ultimately still has to depend on one's comprehension. Qin Wentian, do you know what is the greatest difference between a heavenly deity and a world overlord?"

Qin Wentian shook his head. Before this, he had been trying to enter the world overlord realm. As for the heavenly deity realm, the Skybreak Heavenly Deity has yet to mention anything about that to him. Most probably, the Skybreak Heavenly Deity didn't want him to aim too far and wanted him to take this step by step to stabilize his foundation.

"World Overlords, their world hearts can project a heart domain. Inside that heart domain, they have immense control over everything. For heavenly deities, the laws they are proficient in, would undergo a transformation allowing them to gain control of a heavenly dao. By just standing there, a heavenly deity himself would be the embodiment of the heavens and earth. Everything will revolve around his will and desires. He represents the heavenly dao."

Goddess Dugu slowly spoke. As the sound of her voice faded, the stars in the sky shifted positions. After that, resplendent shooting stars rained down in a meteor shower. Qin Wentian abruptly felt that everything has changed. Right now, he was in a boundless starry space. Also, this didn't feel like an illusion at all, he could sense that this was reality. This was a change to the world caused by Goddess Dugu's will.

"This is only a minor technique. If you enter the Heavenly Deity Realm, there could even be lives living in the world you created. These life forms would assume that your world is the real world. Reality is as such, an example are the countless particle worlds in our universe. Those people living in there, how would they know how vast the true outside world is? So, sometimes I would wonder if the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms we are living in, could it be a world created by a supreme existence with unfathomable cultivation? Maybe, everything we experienced is merely something guided through the will of that creator?" Goddess Dugu calmly spoke. Qin Wentian felt his heart trembling, wasn't this conjecture somewhat too bold?

But he couldn't help but admit that there was no problem with what Goddess Dugu said. The things you felt was impossible, is only because your mind is constrained by the limits of your knowledge. Like the ordinary people of particle worlds, how could they imagine that the world they live in was nothing but a particle when compared to an immortal realm?

"However, most of you wish to know how you can become a heavenly deity. I'm sure all of you know that the heavenheart mandates are all formed from fusing different source origins of your respective laws. When the fusion reaches a certain level, a transformation would occur. However, in truth, despite some people fusing many types of source origins, it was impossible for them to enter the heavenly deity realm although they might spend an eternity seeking it. This was because, the path they are on, was wrong from the start. They cannot find their daos. While as for some others, they can smoothly transit into becoming a heavenly deity after verifying their daos. It would only take them the span of time needed for a single thought."

Goddess Dugu continued, "Verifying one's heavenly dao ultimately is just the process of reverting back to the natural state, going to simplicity from complexity. For some people, they might just focus purely on a single law attribute but they can still verify their daos. For example, when one day that person could verify their dao, in his own world, he would be the reincarnation cycle of his world. With a single thought, he can cause people living there to enter samsara or even he himself despite only comprehending a single dao! If he could do so, he would be a god. Let's say for example the laws of time. If someone could completely control time and even make it reverse, that person would be a god."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, he couldn't help but to think about the Time Realm. In that case, was the Time Realm the world created by the Godking of Time? At that time, the Godking was able to reverse time indeed and brought him into the past.

"Might student be so bold as to ask teacher this question? What is teacher's dao?" Qin Wentian asked. Now that a true heavenly deity was before him and was transmitting her knowledge of the dao to him, he wanted to know very much what incredible powers do heavenly deities possess.

"My dao?" Goddess Dugu mumbled. After that, a figure that resembled Qin Wentian completely appeared before his eyes. It was another Qin Wentian.

"Who are you?" The fake Qin Wentian asked, his voice was the same as him.

Qin Wentian's expression changed, only to see the fake Qin Wentian continuing, "You actually dare to impersonate me?"

As the sound of his voice faded, the Qin Wentian radiated an immensely powerful aura. He had actually released the same world heart as Qin Wentian as he coldly spoke, "Time stop."

At this moment, Qin Wentian felt that he had no way to move at all. A look of shock appeared on his face, he found it hard to believe what was happening. In the next moment, numerous beautiful figures appeared. They were actually all Goddess Dugu, each of them exuded boundless magnificence. Qin Wentian couldn't tell which was real and which was false.

"This is my dao." Goddess Dugu spoke. The fake Qin Wentian disappeared, but he truly felt so real. Qin Wentian felt chills in his heart. Heavenly deities truly had unfathomable powers. By standing there, she represented the heavenly dao. Her will was the will of the heavenly dao.

Qin Wentian had a look of contemplation on his face. The dao of a heavenly deity, what is it exactly? It felt unfathomable. How far was he away from this step?

"Other than Wentian, everyone here has heard my lectures before. I won't repeat them. Next, I will share with all of you my experiences in cultivation as well as some of the insights I gained." The Goddess slowly spoke. After that, she closed her eyes, incomparably holy as the heavens and earth transformed. She used the mysteries of the unfathomable heavenly dao to bring everyone to another scene.

Qin Wentian seriously listened as he tried to gain some understanding. He was the same as everyone, all of them were extremely quiet.

This lecture lasted a total of three days. Gradually, Qin Wentian finally understood more about Goddess Dugu's dao. It was a terrifying ability of one of the heavenly daos that could allow one to possess countless clones. She can even clone herself, resulting in countless incarnations and all of the clones were able to use 100% of her original strength.

If heavenly deities were to truly fight, what sort of scene would that be? Would Goddess Dugu use the power of her heavenly dao to create countless clones and attack together? That power level was simply unimaginable.

Finally, the dao lecture ended. Everyone was still immersed in the knowledge they gained. Goddess Dugu's silhouette gradually disappeared into thin air. After a long time, Qin Wentian and the others finally opened their eyes as sharpness gleamed within.

"How do you feel?" Divine Sound laughed as he asked Qin Wentian.

"Extremely beneficial." Qin Wentian seriously nodded. Although his understanding of the heavenly deity realm was still blurry, at the very least, a gateway of knowledge has already been opened up for him.

"Why spend so much time thinking when we can do battle to confirm our insights?" Devilox at the side stared at Qin Wentian as a cold smile appeared on his face. Before this, Qin Wentian actually dared to insult him.

"Not interested." Qin Wentian calmly replied, not even bothering to glance at Devilox. He then turned to Divine Sound, "Senior brother, let us return."

"Mhm, okay." Divine Sound nodded. Devilox had a cold look on his face and he actually followed behind the Divine Sound World Overlord and Qin Wentian. Divine Sound frowned but he ignored this. The group of them then exited this God Realm and flew through the air.

"Qin Wentian, right now you have already entered the Heavenly Dao Rankings yet you don't even dare to fight?" After exiting the God Realm, Devilox seemed to be even more brazen. His voice boomed out thunderously, spreading in all directions. Many people in the sacred academy could hear his voice. He was issuing a challenge to Qin Wentian.

"Your behavior is as expected of a demon." Qin Wentian calmly spoke, ignoring him. Devilox still seemed to want to continue bothering him. Divine Sound turned and shot a glance at him and in an instant, a formless sound wave permeated the entire space, rending apart the void. At this moment, Devilox only felt a piercing pain in his ears as an extremely tough to resist pressure bore down on him. The him at this moment seemed to have gone deaf.

However, this feeling disappeared in an instant. Divine Sound and Qin Wentian have already left. Devilox halted his steps, staring at their back views as a malevolent smile appeared on his face.

Qin Wentian seemed to have a dao bone in his body. If he could take it and integrate with it, wouldn't he have dual dao bones?

But before that, he wanted to test and see how Qin Wentian's strength was like.

After Qin Wentian returned, he bid farewell to Divine Sound and left the sacred academy. Divine Sound has already told him that his friends and family would be permitted to cultivate here. He naturally wished to fetch Qing`er, Qingcheng and the others over. Although the Daoask Lodge was very safe, how can that be compared to living within the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy? Even the hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region wouldn't dare to create trouble inside the sacred academy.

In the Daoask Lodge, when one of the serving girls noticed Qin Wentian's appearance, she immediately sent a message through her messaging crystal, informing someone. Very soon, the Fairy Violetjade came over. When she saw Qin Wentian and his friends and family here, she smiled, "Young Master Qin, in the past I said that I will prepare the top level for you and your friends. Now, the preparations are already completed and they can move in anytime. As for that manager before this who allowed your booking to be taken by others, we have already handled the matter."

Qin Wentian smiled at the Violetjade Fairy. "I appreciate Fairy's kind intentions. It's just that this time around, I will bring all my friends and family into the sacred academy for cultivation."

The beautiful eyes of Fairy Violetjade flashed as she stared at the people around Qin Wentian. Clearly, they gathered here to wait for him after they received his news. Everyone of them was able to enter the sacred academy?

What sort of preferential treatment was the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy giving to this Qingcheng Realmlord?!

Chapter 1820: Commotion Caused by Heaven's Son

Qin Wentian brought Qingcheng, Qing`er and the others into the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Jun Mengchen and a few others were filled with yearning and curiosity. Very soon, Jun Mengchen also got familiar with the surroundings in the academy and even got acquainted with several world overlords. He himself had extraordinary talent and had also manifested an extraordinary world heart. Many world overlords were willing to be friends with him, cultivating together.

Occasionally, he would enter secret realms with Little Rascal, Nanfeng Yaoyue and some other world overlords to temper themselves, or he would listen to dao lectures by hegemonic-level world overlords about their own experiences while validating his dao. They would exchange their insights and everyone benefited from that.

Qin Wentian told the story about the Divine Ox Clan to Emperor Yu and the other people from the Battle Saint Tribe. After they knew the truth, all of them felt indignant at the injustice and didn't dare to easily display their strength. However, they put in even more effort in their cultivation as all of them felt an incomparably great pressure now. Their enemy was actually a peak hegemonic power of the Desolate Region, the Divine Ox Clan.

At the same time, all of them also sighed in admiration. The saint lord of this generation truly had supreme talent, he actually already reached this step where he could come in contact with the secret of their Battle Saint Tribe and even discovered the identity of their enemy.

As for Qin Wentian, he naturally was busy with his cultivation. There were many secret realms inside the sacred academy where one could cultivate different techniques and secret arts that possess immense might. Each secret realm represented an inheritance, allowing the students a chance to comprehend their mysteries.

Right now inside a secret realm, Qin Wentian stood atop a mountain peak. He stared at the sky, he could see a blurry silhouette. There seemed to be a faint formless energy in the air that was extremely terrifying and akin to the might of the heavenly dao. This was the energy of a heavenheart mandate.

For experts at the world overlord realm, they would focus their cultivation on the power of heavenheart mandates and their world heart. After all, those were the foundation of stellar martial cultivators. If one's world heart was strong enough, there was basically no need for any other methods, they can directly dominate their opponents. However at the same time, they would also cultivate supportive-type innate techniques and secret arts. Innate techniques and secret arts could complement heavenheart mandates and unleash even greater amounts of power.

And as for the innate techniques and secret arts of world overlords, they cannot simply depend on what their predecessors have left behind. They still have to infuse their own insights and comprehensions into them, causing the innate techniques and secret arts to truly be a part of their strength. After all, the heavenheart mandates of everyone was different. Only by doing so would they be able to really control the immense might unleashed.

The innate techniques and secret arts inside Qin Wentian's tiny-astral being all contained immense power. For some, he could directly incorporate them within his heavenheart mandates. After his own refining and upon adding the insights he gained, he would be able to unleash the attacks as his own heavenheart mandates to unleash boundless power. When he defeated Yue Changkong, he erupted forth with an extremely powerful strike, fusing the energy of his world heart and his attack as one, heavily injuring Yue Changkong. The power of that final strike was something he gained through infusing his innate techniques into his heavenheart mandates.

Qin Wentian stared in the air. That blurry figure slowly moved. He stretched out five fingers and pressed his palm down. In an instant, the formless energy grew more intense and enveloped everything here. Qin Wentian lifted his palm and blasted out, causing a blast of light to shoot out, wanting to block it. However, that formless energy directly penetrated through Qin Wentian's attack and directly bore down on his body.

In an instant, Qin Wentian only sensed the might of the five fingers, it felt like a tribulation force. His body trembled uncontrollably. When the tribulation force descended, the energy in his body seemed to be imprisoned and he couldn't move at all. If his enemy launched one more finger attack towards him, he would die without a doubt.

"Seven Kills Tribulation Finger." Qin Wentian mumbled. The power of a single finger contained the seven kills tribulation force. It was capable of passing through all attacks and was invincible and tyrannical.

He spent many days cultivating in this secret realm before he left. He then headed to another secret realm to comprehend the mysteries within. This time around, he came to a secret realm with buddhist-path energy. There was a secret dao imprint art here and every single law imprint of that secret art was fused with the power of various heavenheart mandates. This secret art could cause countless law imprints to blast out simultaneously. Qin Wentian felt palm shadows covering the skies, his body was rendered immobile by the constricting pressure even before the palm attacks arrived. This was somewhat similar to his time stop ability. Although the fundamentals were different, they achieve the same effect. The amount of power was extremely terrifying.

Qin Wentian even saw another more fearsome dao art in another secret realm. The ethereal enemy figure simply cast a glance at him and his life was completely under the control of that figure. Such power was simply heaven-shaking. With a single glance, you could control the lives of others. How heaven-defying was this?

As he entered the various secret realms in the sacred academy, Qin Wentian didn't dare to feel any arrogance in his heart. Although his time stop was powerful, if he truly met with a supreme hegemonic-level world overlord, they would also have many other powerful methods to kill him. Those who fused innate techniques and secret arts with their heavenheart mandates, they could even kill their enemies formlessly, disregarding distance. After all, the number of world overlords Qin Wentian met was still too little. He was instantly a transcendent-level world overlord when he broke through and after killing the Lifelong Realmlord, he went to participate in the convention straight and hasn't really experienced many battles on the world overlord level. He might have seen the battles of others but that was different from those battles he fought himself.

Time flowed by, Qin Wentian immersed himself completely in cultivation. His family and friends were cultivating as well and they had great improvements. Occasionally, he would also contact Luoshen Lei to chat with her and asked her about the situation of the Luoshen Clan. Right now, through the Heavenly Dao Library, he already had quite a good understanding of the Luoshen Clan.

Unknowingly, several tens of years passed. Qin Wentian had great gains during this period and comprehended many innate techniques and secret arts of great power. He would also listen to the dao lectures of Goddess Dugu frequently and would gain new insights every time.

Today, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy's quiet atmosphere seemed a little disrupted. In fact, even in the outside world, a huge commotion was caused. The hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region were also paying attention to this matter.

"Senior bro, are you still cultivating? Recently, it is no longer as peaceful in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy." At this moment, Qin Wentian who was cultivating in a secret realm, suddenly heard Jun Mengchen's voice transmission.

Qin Wentian felt somewhat puzzled. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was a holy ground that didn't participate in worldly affairs. It didn't expand, or fight for territories. It only existed to transmit the dao. How can it not be peaceful?

"What is happening?" Qin Wentian asked.

"There's someone who is coming to the sacred academy. This news created a great commotion even in the external world. Many people are discussing about his purpose for doing so and the entire Mystic Region was shaken. All the major powers are paying attention to this." Jun Mengchen spoke. He then continued, "I truly didn't expect the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to have such a famous person. Just him paying a visit here would result in such great commotion. There seems to be an invisible pressure as many currents flow in the dark inside the sacred academy."

"Who is it?" Qin Wentian asked.

"He is the same as you and is surnamed Qin. He is from the Heaven Region and is a descendant of an immensely powerful peak-level clan. His talent is said to be beyond comparison." Jun Mengchen spoke. He then continued, "In fact, people even gave him a title - Heaven's Son. How imposing was this? They actually addressed him as the son of the heavens, the supreme chosen."

Qin Wentian's heart suddenly trembled abruptly as his eyes gleamed with a terrifying coldness.

Heaven Region, Qin Clan, Heaven's Son.

Qin Dangtian. He was coming to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Qin Dangtian was already a heavenly deity, why would he come to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy? Did this have something to do with him? This should be impossible. If the Qin Clan knows about him, they would have investigated in secret instead of sending Qin Dangtian directly here.

"It's rumored that he has only cultivated for a few thousand years to reach the heavenly deity realm. He is the youngest out of all the heavenly deities in the Heaven Region. His talent is simply supreme. Now that he has already reached the heavenly deity realm, many people suspect that his purpose in coming to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy isn't that simple. He might have come here to spar against the heavenly deities of the sacred academy under the pretext of exchanging pointers." Jun Mengchen spoke.

Qin Wentian naturally understood that exchanging pointers? It was nothing but a nicer way of addressing a fight. Qin Dangtian's ambitions would surely be extremely great. Back then, the first battle he fought upon becoming a heavenly deity was against Qin Wentian's uncle, the Skyorder Heavenly Deity. After he defeated Qin Wentian's uncle, Qin Dangtian instantly rose to fame. Now that he came to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, how could his purpose be so simple?

"Noted, I will leave here." Qin Wentian spoke. After that, he left the secret realm. Because of this news, his state of heart was fluctuating. Heaven's Son, his destined enemy determined by fate ever since their birth.

Right now, he might have a chance to see the Heaven's Son in the sacred academy?

After Qin Wentian left the secret realm, he headed towards his senior brother Divine Sound's location first. Just so coincidentally, Divine Sound was here with a few friends. When he saw Qin Wentian appearing, he smiled, "Wentian, you came here?"

"Senior brothers, what are all of you discussing about?" Qin Wentian smiled.

"What else can there be? Recently, there's a commotion in our sacred academy because of the news that a person is going to come here soon. Many people are wondering about his purpose. Seems like the quiet and tranquility of this place is going to be disrupted soon." Divine Sound replied. "This person is the same as you, he is surnamed Qin and comes from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region. You have browsed through the records in the Heavenly Dao Library and should know of this clan, right?"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. He felt some shock in his heart, he didn't expect that the senior brothers here were here for the purpose of discussing this matter. From this, one could see how great the commotion caused was. Also, he could use this chance to see how powerful his supposed 'cousin' Qin Dangtian was.

Even before arriving, Qin Dangtian already caused such a great commotion in the sacred academy. This was truly something Qin Wentian couldn't be comparable to at this moment.

"I've read about him in the ancient records of the Qin Clan before. The first battle he fought after becoming a heavenly deity was against the Skyorder Heavenly Deity. He defeated him and became known as Heaven's Son. Do you know what his purpose in coming to our sacred academy is?" Qin Wentian asked.

"I'm not sure. He only released the news saying that he would be coming. Many people feel that it should be because he wants to exchange pointers about the Great Dao. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has always stood aloof from worldly affairs, and is a publicly acknowledge holy land for cultivation. He chose the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to become his stepping stone? This is clearly a provocation." The Divine Sound World Overlord spoke. Qin Wentian nodded, "Do you know roughly when he would arrive?"

"Ten days later. He will enter the sacred academy. However, you don't need to worry about this. There will naturally be heavenly deities handling this." The Divine Sound World Overlord spoke. Qin Wentian nodded his head. After that, he bid his farewell and left!

Chapter 1821: Heaven’s Son and Goddess

During these few days, Qin Wentian felt fluctuations in his state of heart. Because Qin Dangtian was about to arrive, this 'cousin' of his, the Heaven's Son, he couldn't help wondering what sort of character did he have.

Today, Qin Wentian received Luoshen Lei's voice transmission. "Elder bro, I heard that Qin Dangtian is about to make a trip to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy."

"Mhm, he will be here in a few days time." Qin Wentian took out his messaging crystal and replied.

After he spoke, Luoshen Lei fell silent. Towards the enemy that crippled her father, Luoshen Lei must surely feel great hatred for him, right? However, what could she do? Most probably in this lifetime, she would never be able to catch up to Qin Dangtian. Only Qin Wentian had hope to do so. Her father claimed that Qin Wentian and Qin Dangtian were fated to be enemies since their birth but right now, Qin Wentian still wasn't Qin Dangtian's opponent. After all, Qin Dangtian has already cultivated for several thousand years and was already a heavenly deity.

Below heavenly deities, everyone else were akin to mortals. This was the perspective of heavenly deities. They comprehended the power of heavenly daos and stood at a supreme peak.

"Elder brother, you have to be careful." A moment later, Luoshen Lei reminded. Qin Wentian knew she was worried for him, that he might be impulsive and expose his identity. If that was the case, the consequences could be well imagined.

"Don't worry." Qin Wentian replied. After that, he kept away his messaging crystal.

"Are you okay?" Mo Qingcheng walked over and asked softly, she could sense that Qin Wentian seemed to have some worries in his heart during these few days.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze over and stretched out with his hand to stroke her hair. He gently smiled, "I can settle it."

"Okay." Mo Qingcheng smiled sweetly and didn't inquire further. If Qin Wentian didn't tell her, he must have his own reasons for not telling her.

Qin Wentian gently pulled Mo Qingcheng into his embrace. He naturally knew he has to be careful. Because, there wasn't only him. He had too many responsibilities now. Qing`er and Qingcheng both needed him. His life didn't belong to him alone, it also belonged to the people around him.

Mo Qingcheng could somewhat sense the unease in Qin Wentian's heart. She softly lied in his embrace and didn't say anything. Qing'er also quietly walked to his side, leaning against his arm. Qin Wentian turned his head and stared at her. Qing'er's hair was still white but it did nothing to mask her beauty. Her personality was as cold das ever, quietly standing by him in silence, giving him a formless warmth. These two women who were deeply in love with him were both extremely sensitive. They naturally could sense the change to his emotions. Maybe, the pressure on him was too great.

Qin Wentian naturally felt pressure. He has never felt such great pressure before. Because, he knew what sort of opponent he would be facing. His destined enemy was a heavenly god and was known as Heaven's Son. This wasn't an ordinary genius but was a true supreme genius that stood at the peak whose fame shook the eight regions. His enemy was from a hegemonic power in the Heaven Region, the Qin Clan.

His father's revenge, his uncle's revenge, all these responsibilities were on his shoulders. And the enemy he would face, would be stronger than any he has ever faced before.

When he sensed the warmth transmitted to him by his wives, at this moment, Qin Wentian's eyes that were akin to the stars, shone with an incomparable resolve.

...

Finally, the date where Heaven's Son would arrive at the sacred academy was here.

Today, the Daoask Lodge had countless experts, many people gathered outside the sacred academy and Daoask City was packed to the brim. All of them were staring at the stairway leading up to the floating Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Today, a supreme character would come here to the sacred academy.

This wasn't an ordinary genius from a random region. He also wasn't somebody the rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings could be compared to. His title was Heaven's Son and had become a heavenly deity just after several years of cultivation, crippling the Skyorder Heavenly Deity during his first battle.

The news about him coming to the sacred academy has spread long ago, creating a huge commotion. The attention of the entire Mystic Realm, including the various major powers, were focused on the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Qin Dangtian, Heaven's Son, would surely be a future godking. He who stands at the peak of the thirty-three immortal realms, what sort of character would he be? Countless people were filled with anticipation.

Today, many people were waiting at the top of the stairway. These people were naturally students of the sacred academy. They also wished to see what sort of person this legendary character from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region was like.

Qin Wentian, Jun Mengchen and the others were among the crowd as well. Jun Mengchen stared at the bustling scene outside as he sighed with emotion, "When will I be as glorious as this too? Being the focus of attention everywhere I go. Senior brother, how strong do you think this Heaven's Son is?"

"You want to hear the truth?" Qin Wentian smiled.

"Naturally." Jun Mengchen nodded. His senior brother Qin Wentian was also a supreme character. In the future, Qin Wentian would surely stun all the geniuses of past and present. He wanted to know what evaluation Qin Wentian had of Qin Dangtian.

"He is someone I have to defeat in the future." Qin Wentian's eyes stared into the distance as he calmly spoke. Jun Mengchen's body trembled slightly but he soon also smiled. "This is my senior indeed. So what even if he is the Heaven's Son?"

"Arrogant." A calm voice drifted over. The person who spoke was a young man that was exuding an aura of sharpness. His entire person was like a supreme sword and was none other than the supreme genius of the Swordsaint Mountain that was also a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings - Jian Chen. He was none other than Jian Wuxin's uncle. Qin Wentian naturally has seen him around in the sacred academy before but no conflict occurred between them.

It was impossible for Jian Chen to make trouble for him just because his nephew lost face. That would be completely out of line with a world overlord's prestige.

But when he heard Qin Wentian saying he was going to defeat Heaven's Son, he truly felt that Qin Wentian was too brazen. Even for rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings, they weren't qualified to be compared to the Heaven's Son at all. Saying that he was going to defeat the Heaven's Son would undoubtedly sound extremely arrogant to many people.

Qin Wentian glanced at Jian Chen and didn't continue to speak. So what if others thought that he was arrogant? This was his destiny. He had to defeat Qin Dangtian. There was no second path for him.

"He is here." At this moment from afar, a fluctuation could be felt as two figures suddenly appeared. They traveled vast amounts of distances with a few steps and a moment later, they directly appeared at the top of the Heavenly Dao Stairway.

When the two of them descended from the air, silence was everywhere. It was like there were only the two of them left in this world.

They were very young, and were a man and a woman. The young man exuded an imposing aura, his black hair fluttered in the wind while his dark eyes were immeasurably deep, resembling the starry space. The contours of his face were extremely clear and it was a face you wouldn't forget after glancing a single time at it. He had an extraordinary demeanor as expected of a heavenly deity. Just by standing there, he gave off the feeling that he was standing at a peak and peering down imperiously at the rest of the world.

This heavenly deity was extremely young, incredibly good-looking and extraordinary.

He was the future successor of the Qin Clan, Heaven's Son, whose fame shook the entire world and was the youngest heavenly deity in the Heaven Region.

For the other person, it was a young woman. Given Qin Dangtian's status, strength, talent and background, which woman would be worthy enough to match with him?

If there really was such a person in the Heaven Region, it would be none other than that young woman that was standing beside Qin Dangtian. Although she stood beside him, the brilliance of Qin Dangtian did nothing to mask her own radiance.

She was breathtakingly beautiful, so beautiful that it could stir the hearts and souls of people. It was like you just needed to take a single glance at her to be completely spellbound. There was no way to describe her beauty because there were simply no words in any language capable of describing it.

Qin Dangtian stood beside her, yet he was unable to cast a shadow on her light. In truth, there were even more gazes directed at her than at Qin Dangtian.

This was none other than the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang.

In the Heaven Region, only Goddess Nichang was worthy enough to be matched with Qin Dangtian. It was like they were naturally meant to be together, a couple designed by the heavens.

"The rumors are real. Nichang's beauty can cause everything to lose their color. For her, I'm willing to give up everything in the world." A world overlord of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy silently mused. The hearts of world overlords were extremely strong-willed, yet the beauty of this woman was able to cause a world overlord's state of heart to waver so strongly. From this, one could very well imagine how beautiful Nichang was.

"There truly are no words sufficient enough to describe her beauty." Someone sighed.

"How beautiful." Jun Mengchen involuntarily praised.

Qin Wentian's gaze was fixed on Qin Dangtian since the start and he only noticed Goddess Nichang now. At the instant he saw her, he also involuntarily fell into a daze. Although he had many beauties around him, regardless of Qingcheng, Qing`er or Ye Qianyu, who were all supreme beauties, Qin Wentian couldn't help but to admit that they were a hair inferior to Nichang. Nichang was the most beautiful maiden he has ever seen, something that transcended the mortal world. She was like a true celestial maiden.

If one day, Qing`er and Qingcheng managed to reach her cultivation realm, only then might they be able to compare to her.

"Goddess Nichang." Qin Wentian silently mused, instantly knowing who she was. He had seen her information before in the Heavenly Dao Library, how could he not be able to tell. Goddess Nichang was a true goddess. Her father was a heavenly deity, her grandfather was also a heavenly deity. There was no need to doubt how high her talent is. If the Heaven Region has a ranking equal to the Heavenly Dao Ranking, Goddess Nichang would definitely be on it.

Heaven's Son and Goddess Nichang, irregardless of who appears, just one of them was sufficient to cause a gigantic amount of commotion. Countless people will pay attention to them. And now, the two of them actually showed up in the sacred academy together. It was like they were destined to be an immortal couple where others could only stare at in admiration.

"Qin Dangtian is here to pay a visit to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy." At this moment, Qin Dangtian spoke. His aura was extremely outstanding as his voice resounded out like thunder in this silence.

"I heard that Goddess Nichang's grandfather Deity Qu, had a very good relationship with heavenly deity Qin Ding? Seems like the rumors were true." A voice rang out in the sacred academy. The Heaven's Son and Goddess Nichang, there always had been rumors about them being a couple. In the past, they might not be together. But, what about now?

Goddess Nichang's grandfather and Qin Dangtian's grandfather have an extremely close relationship and the two of them, who are juniors, are also supreme characters standing far above their peers. Could they really be as what everyone in the world was anticipating? Were they already together?

Chapter 1822: Seeking Guidance

Goddess Nichang was like a celestial maiden from the nine heavens as she stood there. Her robes fluttered in the wind but she didn't say anything. It was like she was here today as a spectator.

Qin Dangtian's black hair was like ink. His gaze was extremely deep as he stared in the direction of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, "The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has been transmitting the dao for countless years and people of the world are all in admiration of it. The sacred academy undoubtedly has an extraordinary view of the heavenly dao. Hence, the purpose of my visit today is to ask about the dao."

"Please enter then." A voice rang out from within the sacred academy. Qin Dangtian stepped forth, moving into the entrance. The experts in a row on the left and right of the sacred academy all stepped back, watching as these two extraordinary figures moved past them.

Qin Wentian was just standing at the side. This was the first time he was looking at Qin Dangtian at such a close distance. This destined enemy of his...At this moment, Qin Dangtian was truly exceptionally extraordinary and the radiance he exuded could rival that of the sun and moon.

Qin Dangtian simply walked past Qin Wentian directly. Qin Wentian felt some fluctuations to his state of heart as he drew in a deep breath to steady himself.

Goddess Nichang also passed by Qin Wentian. That breathtaking figure was truly stunning. Her holy and saint-like countenance had no expression on it yet they could do nothing to mask her supreme beauty. This was the number one beauty of the Heaven Region. Truly, her beauty was unrivalled.

At this moment, Qin Dangtian's steps suddenly halted. He actually turned back and cast a glance at Qin Wentian. Those deep eyes of his flashed with a soul-stirring light.

Qin Wentian narrowed his eyes as he stared at Qin Dangtian. Could it be that Qin Dangtian had sensed something unusual about him?

This was impossible. He currently no longer had any bloodline powers. It was impossible for the other party to sense it.

"Who are you?" Qin Dangtian asked. The instincts of heavenly deities are naturally incredibly sharp. He could feel that Qin Wentian's gaze towards him was different from the others. This feeling felt extremely strange, but he could clearly feel the difference.

"He is a student of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, the Qingcheng Realmlord, Qin Wentian." The Divine Sound World Overlord stood by Qin Wentian's side. He was worried that Qin Wentian would feel great pressure from Qin Dangtian's aura and helped him to reply. After all, this Qin Dangtian was a true supreme genius, a heavenly deity character.

Qin Dangtian was expressionless. He has never heard of the Qingcheng Realmlord before. Although Qin Wentian's fame was great and many major powers took notice of him, this was only in the Mystic Region. Also, so what if he was famous? Who was the Heaven's Son? The Heaven's Son was a supreme heavenly deity, he would never pay attention to those weaker than him. Right now in his eyes, there were only those few others who similarly also stood at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Surnamed Qin?" Compared to the title of the Qingcheng Realmlord, he actually paid more attention to the fact that Qin Wentian was surnamed Qin. Because, they shared the same surname.

"Under the sky, how many people are worthy enough of the surname Qin?" Qin Dangtian calmly laughed and shifted his eyes away, continuing on his way. To him, Qin Wentian was merely an insignificant and minor character. They were simply on different levels, Qin Wentian wasn't able to cause his state of heart to fluctuate.

There were many people in the world surnamed Qin. Just speaking of the number of experts outside the sacred academy now, maybe there would be many people with the surnamed Qin. However, Qin Dagntian actually said that how many people would be worthy enough of the surname Qin under the sky? How arrogant was this. However, as the Heaven's Son, as the youngest heavenly deity in these immortal realms, he truly did have the qualifications to be arrogant.

Only the Qin Clan in the Heaven's Region was the highest peak of every human who had the surname of Qin.

In this world, as long as someone mentioned the surname Qin, the first thing everyone would think of, was the Qin Clan in the Heaven Region.

Goddess Nichang didn't turn her head back. It was like in this world, there was no one worthy of her casting a single glance at them. No matter where she went to, it was like the rest of the world was only worthy enough to serve as the background, further enhancing her radiance.

Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang walked into the sacred academy together. At the entrance area, the students of the sacred academy respectively followed behind them. They wanted to see what was Qin Dangtian's purpose exactly for paying a visit to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Outside the academy, countless people felt a sense of frustration and disappointment at the instant where the silhouettes of Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang vanished from their visions. But even so, they didn't leave and chose to wait outside. They wanted nothing more than to become a student of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy so they could go in to spectate.

After Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang entered the academy, they continued into the depths of the academy. There was a formless aura guiding them, they could sense the invitation of the other heavenly deities inside the sacred academy. Qin Dangtian naturally understood this.

The various students of the academy followed behind them. However, when they entered the depths of the sacred academy, this place was a place forbidden for ordinary students to enter. This region was known as the Divine Dao Platform Region. Heavenly deities would occasionally give dao lectures here, only the students of heavenly deities were qualified to enter.

"Senior brother, seems like I won't be able to see it." Jun Mengchen spoke in a low voice at the boundary of the Divine Dao Platform. Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang had already entered.

"I'll tell you about it after I return." Qin Wentian replied. As a student of Goddess Dugu, he naturally has the qualifications to enter. Divine Sound could enter as well. The vast majority of students had to stay outside. Their hearts were filled with anticipation, wanting to know what would happen in there exactly.

On the Divine Dao Platform, three figures sat there side by side. Goddess Dugu was there as well, she sat in the left-most position.

What this indicated was extremely clear. Qin Wentian understood that these three were the heavenly deities of the sacred academy. They were here together at the Divine Dao Platform to welcome Qin Dangtian and this was already far above the usual standards. From this, it could be seen how highly they regarded Qin Dangtian.

The youngest heavenly deity in the world, a character that defeated the Skyorder Heavenly Deity the moment he broke through. His title was Heaven's Son, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy naturally had to regard him highly.

"The two of you came from afar, please be seated." On the Divine Dao Platform, there were two seats opposite the three heavenly deities. Before heavenly deities, world overlord wouldn't have any qualifications to sit. However, in view that Goddess Nichang had a unique identity as well as she was here together with Qin Dangtian as guests, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy also prepared a seat for her.

Qin Dangtian stepped onto the Divine Dao Platform and sat down before the three heavenly deities. Goddess Nichang didn't step up the platform, she stood outside it and was extremely quiet, choosing to silently observe everything.

Today, Qin Dangtian was here to ask about the dao.

Qin Wentian and the others also stood outside the platform, staring at the scene on it. Qin Dangtian was facing the three heavenly deities of the sacred academy alone but his aura was the same, it didn't weaken at all and was as extraordinary as ever.

"We've long heard of the fame of Heaven's Son. Now that we've met, you are even more outstanding than what the rumors described." The heavenly deity seated in the center spoke. This was an old man dressed in robes of starry designs. He exuded a transcendent aura.

"I'm just a junior here to seek guidance from various seniors. I've long admired the name of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and wish to come here today to ask about the dao. Can seniors guide me on this? What is the heavenly dao?" Qin Dangtian appeared humble but his tone contained a lone arrogance, directly asking the heavenly deities of the sacred academy what the heavenly dao was.

"The heavenly dao is the divine dao. One can become a heavenly deity once you comprehend it. The heavenly dao is unfathomably profound, one can only sense it in their hearts, how can there be a way to describe it clearly?" The heavenly deity sitting in the center seat spoke.

"The myriad of creatures in the world have to follow the principle of the formless laws. The heavenly dao is merely a form of energy that they can also gain access to. If not, how can seniors have your accomplishments today? How can I be qualified enough to sit here and discuss dao with you? Since once can come in contact with and gain access to the power of the heavenly dao, what is so unfathomable about it? I'm not convinced by senior's words." Qin Dangtian directly spoke, doubting the words of the old man.

"The comprehension of the heavenly dao depends on one's heart. Even for heavenly deities of our sacred academy, each of us have a different understanding of it. It isn't strange that Heaven's Son doesn't agree with my words." The old man calmly spoke.

"No, no. It isn't that we have a differing view on this. It's that senior's words are simply ridiculous because they are wrong." Qin Dangtian calmly spoke, his tone containing extreme arrogance. This caused the eyes of the sacred academy's students to gleam sharply. This Heaven's Son wasn't polite at all. All of them were at the same level, what qualifications did he have to speak so arrogantly?

"Since this is the case, what is your understanding of the heavenly dao?" Goddess Dugu asked. She was as magnificent as ever, although her beauty was inferior to Goddess Nichang, her demeanor didn't lose out in the slightest at all. She was a true goddess.

"The heavenly dao is just the dao of humans. The will of humans can triumph over the heavens. I am God, my dao, is the heavenly dao. Why would I need to comprehend 'heavenly dao'?" Qin Dangtian slowly spoke. "All my life when I was pursuing the dao, I was pursuing the limits of myself. Now that I am a heavenly deity, can't my dao represent the so-called heavenly dao? Isn't it true that my person itself is above the heavenly dao?"

The three heavenly deities mumbled silently to themselves, they weren't angered because of Qin Dangtian's arrogance, they were pondering over his words instead. They are all heavenly deities and couldn't help but to admit that from a certain perspective, Qin Dangtian's words weren't wrong. For heavenly deities, their daos could really represent the heavenly dao.

"That might be true, all of us have different insights. If you feel that I'm wrong, I'm wrong then. But for me myself, I still feel that my insights are correct." The old man spoke. The comprehension of everyone naturally would be different. This was especially true when they reached such a high level in cultivation. There was no absolute right or absolute wrong.

"The heavenly dao academy is known as a holy ground where they transmit the dao. However, the conversation between us today make me not dare to agree blindly. I feel that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy doesn't deserve its reputation." Qin Dangtian directly spoke. The three heavenly deities couldn't help but frown when they heard that. Qin Dangtian's words clearly wanted to humiliate and insult the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

"You proclaim yourself as a junior but aren't your words too arrogant? You seem to have no regards for anyone." The middle-aged heavenly deity sitting on the right spoke. His tone was filled with unhappiness. Although heavenly deities generally have good self-restraint, it didn't mean that they wouldn't be angered.

"Although I respectfully address you three as seniors, when exchanging ideas about the dao, my comprehension and insights might not be inferior to the three of you. Since our understanding of the dao is different, I think we can only prove who is right through an exchange of pointers. Please provide me with some guidance." Qin Dangtian spoke, staring at the three heavenly deities.

As expected, the Heaven's Son issued a challenge to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Today, it seems like he truly came here with unkind intentions. His purpose wasn't as simple as to ask about the dao.

Everyone knows about Qin Dangtian's visit to the sacred academy and they were all paying attention to this. Outside the sacred academy, countless people were speculating. Right now, Qin Dangtian wanted to use the pretext of exchanging pointers about their daos to challenge the sacred academy. Would the sacred academy agree to the challenge?

The three heavenly deities of the sacred academy stared at Qin Dangtian. A moment later, Goddess Dugu spoke, "Since Heaven's Son is keen to discuss about daos, in that case, I'm willing to experience the daos mastered by Heaven's Son."

Goddess Dugu actually agreed to the challenge.

Outside the Divine Dao Platform, the eyes of Qin Wentian and the others gleamed with sharpness. Today, they would personally witness a battle between heavenly deities who wanted an exchange about their daos.

Qin Wentian really wanted to see how powerful this destined enemy of his was exactly!

Chapter 1823: Sacred Academy Insulted

Seeing that Goddess Dugu agreed to his challenge, Qin Dangtian was as calm as ever. He came here today to ask about the dao, naturally, he also needed to defeat the heavenly deities of the sacred academy. There was no suspense to this at all.

"Please." Qin Dangtian spoke. Goddess Dugu stood up. At this moment, the Divine Dao Platform radiated a bright radiance, illuminating the heavens and earth. Goddess Dugu's silhouette flashed, soaring up into the air. In an instant, she appeared in the sky, in that boundlessly vast starry space.

At this moment, the Divine Dao Palace was sealed off. The people outside could see what was happening, but they could not enter the region. They wouldn't be affected by the aftershocks as well.

The three heavenly deities of the sacred academy didn't obstruct these students of the academy from witnessing the battle even if there was a possibility that they might lose.

Being able to witness a battle at the heavenly deity level would naturally be extremely beneficial to the students. This was also a method of transmitting the dao. This was an event that would rarely happen even in ten thousand years. It would be best to allow these outstanding students to spectate, allowing them to gain more ideas what the heavenly deity realm is about.

Qin Dangtian stood up. With a flash of his silhouette, he also flew up into the air and stood there in arrogance. At this moment, his black hair fluttered in the wind, exuding a sense of unexcelled imperiousness.

At this very moment, millions of Goddess Dugu appeared in the boundless starry space. Each of the clones created were the same as her, extremely beautiful. Because millions of Goddess Dugu appeared, their beauty actually caused the stars to lose their color.

Each clone of Goddess Dugu transformed into dao diagrams which shot towards Qin Dangtian with the speed of shooting stars. Each diagram contained the full power of Goddess Dugu's cultivation base as they erupted at the same instant, wanting to devastate the entire starry space and break the dome of the heavens.

Qin Dangtian stood as stable as a mountain. At this moment, boundless treasure light appeared in his surroundings. Countless ancient characters floated around him, each of them containing endless might. The light they radiated could penetrate through space and in addition, each of these ancient characters was different. Qin Dangtian was now like a heavenly god, extremely imposing and holy as the light generated protected his body.

The ancient characters around him all lit up as a bright golden light erupted forth, engulfing everything. At this moment, space seemed to have stilled. The countless diagrams were fixed at their original locations, completely unable to move.

And at the same instant, the power which was unleashed through the other ancient characters directly enveloped Goddess Dugu and launched their attacks. In a short few moments, the countless dao diagrams manifested by Goddess Dugu have all disappeared. Only her real self still remained standing in the starry space.

"What power is that?" Goddess Dugu asked.

"I've said it before. My dao is the heavenly dao. The power of the heavenly dao is merely something that is there for humans to control. Since I can do so, am I not god? I represent the heavenly dao in this entire area and each of the ancient characters around me possessed the might of a different kind of heavenly dao. To defeat you, there's no need for me to unleash too much of my strength." Qin Dangtian calmly spoke. "I've also heard of Goddess Dugu's ability before. You are proficient in cloning abilities but sadly, you have no way to counter me."

The three heavenly deities of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy sighed silently with emotions. Each ancient character represented the power of a different type of heavenly dao? If that was the case, who at the heavenly deity level would be able to defeat this Heaven's Son? Although back then the Skyorder Heavenly Deity was crippled upon his defeat to Qin Dangtian, not many people knew about the finer details of that battle.

Only now did they truly find out how powerful the Heaven's Son is.

Goddess Dugu sighed in her heart, she stared at the ancient characters around Qin Dangtian as she spoke, "I'm inferior to you."

She was a heavenly deity yet she admitted that she was inferior to Qin Dangtian.

Qin Wentian and the other students of the sacred academy felt shock in their hearts. Goddess Dugu has actually lost? The disparity between their strengths was pretty clear. Maybe, this wasn't Qin Dangtian's full might. What was Heaven's Son? This was precisely Heaven's Son. He was born extraordinary. Even for heavenly deities, he was superior to the vast majority of them.

"Your temperament is extraordinary seeing that you can calmly admit defeat. It's just that why have you not admitted that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has the wrong concept about the heavenly daos?" Qin Dangtian calmly asked.

"Even if she was defeated, she would naturally still believe in the dao she has comprehended. What you think might be right, might not be right for others." The old man replied. Qin Dangtian's words were simply too arrogant. He wanted all of them to admit that their conception of heavenly dao was wrong.

"Haha, how stubborn. Since senior feels this way, why don't the two remaining heavenly deities provide some guidance to me?" Qin Dangtian issued a challenge to the two other heavenly deities, asking them to provide guidance to him together. Did this mean that he wanted to fight against the two of them simultaneously?

"The two of us naturally won't fight you together. However, if we fight against you alone, I'm afraid our endings would be the same as Dugu and would be defeated by you. Since that's the case, there's no need for any battle any longer." The old man seated in the center calmly spoke. The students of the sacred academy felt their hearts trembling even more. They didn't understand how powerful Qin Dangtian was. However, was he really so powerful that three heavenly deities of the sacred academy were willing to admit defeat?

Although they didn't want to admit this, they had no choice. This was reality.

Some people were born different from others. They could easily suppress opponents on the same level.

"You even have the courage to admit defeat, but why are you all so afraid to admit that you have the wrong conceptions of heavenly dao? Are you afraid because the ability of the sacred academy to transmit the dao would be doubted from now on?" Qin Dangtian turned things up a notch, his tone was extremely domineering. He and Goddess Dugu have already descended from the air and returned to their seats. The sealing of the Divine Dao Platform has also already been removed.

The three heavenly deities were actually forced to such an extent where they had no reply. Their strengths were inferior to Qin Dangtian. Naturally, their words also lacked the persuasive factor.

"The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has been transmitting the dao for countless years. How can their prestige be doubted because of a battle with you? How ridiculous is that." At this moment, a voice rang out. Qin Dangtian turned his gaze over, staring at the area outside the Divine Dao Platform as his eyes landed on Qin Wentian.

"Is there anything else more persuasive than the results of my battle?" Qin Dangtian emotionlessly asked. He didn't place Qin Wentian's words in his heart at all.

"Just because you won a victory, you want others to say that their insights were wrong and agree with you. If you stand at a height above everyone, you want all of us to have the same thinking as you, our thoughts and opinions cannot be the slightest bit different? This isn't understanding the heavenly dao. This is being muddle-headed and tyrannical."

Qin Dangtian upon seeing Qin Wentian continuing to speak, he directly asked, "Do you even know anything about the heavenly dao?"

Without waiting for Qin Wentian's reply, he continued, "Do I know the heavenly dao or do you know the heavenly dao? You are just an ant who has yet to even come in contact with the heavenly dao. What qualifications do you have to speak before me? Shut your mouth."

These words absolutely could cause people to shut up. However, Qin Wentian's eyes were as resolute as ever. He stared at the deep eyes of Qin Dangtian as he calmly continued, "Just like what you said earlier, one's comprehension and insights about the dao might not be inferior to those who are more senior. When the various heavenly deities of the sacred academy started to transmit dao teachings, I'm afraid you weren't even born yet.

However, you are actually this arrogant before them now. A thousand years later, I will make sure to tell you the same thing. At that time, we shall see if it is me who understands the heavenly dao, or if it is you."

"A thousand years?" A mocking light flashed through Qin Dangtian's eyes. During his path of cultivation, he has seen too many arrogant experts before. However, all of them were trampled by him eventually. This Qin Wentian would not be an exception either. He couldn't be bothered to bother with him. He turned his head, no longer casting another glance at Qin Wentian. He didn't know who this Qingcheng Realmlord was, he has never heard of him before. As long as he is not a heavenly deity, Qin Dangtian couldn't be bothered to remember him.

"Is the headmaster not in the sacred academy?" Qin Dangtian suddenly asked.

The three heavenly deities glanced at each other. "Why are you asking this for?"

Could it be Qin Dangtian even wanted to challenge the headmaster?

Although his talent was strong, this was simply impossible. The current Qin Dangtian doesn't have this qualifications yet, leaving aside the future.

"Since seniors admit that you three are inferior to me. In that case, can I enter that place?" Qin Dangtian asked. A bright light gleamed in the eyes of all three heavenly deities as they stared at Qin Dangtian. Was this the true purpose of why he came here?

Qin Dangtian actually was extremely ambitions, wanting to enter that legendary location.

"You are the Heaven's Son and have already reached the heavenly deity realm. You are also not a student of the sacred academy, there's naturally no way for you to enter." The old man spoke.

"I've been pursuing the limits of dao my entire life. Now that I'm a heavenly deity, my insights are even deeper now, wouldn't it be more beneficial to me if I was to enter at my current level? Also, I came to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to ask about the dao, in a sense, I'm also seeking the dao. There shouldn't be a problem for me to become a student of the sacred academy as long as the academy permits, right?" Qin Dangtian calmly stared at them. "Since the three seniors all admit that you are inferior to me. May I ask is there anyone else that's more qualified than me to enter that legendary place?"

"You are twisting words." The old man spoke.

"Seems like the sacred academy is truly unworthy of their reputation. I will stay for three months at the Daoask Lodge and wait for all of you to seek the sacred academy's headmaster's opinion. If he permits it, I shall come here again. If he doesn't, everyone under the heavens would know that the slogan of the sacred academy is simply bullshit. Guiding everyone under the heavens irrespective of their backgrounds? Why would people wish to learn the wrong concepts?"

After speaking, Qin Dangtian stood up again. "Farewell."

After he spoke, he directly turned and left the Divine Dao Platform.

Goddess Nichang quietly watched everything and didn't mention a single word from the start until the end. Upon seeing Qin Dangtian leaving, she naturally left with him as well. The three heavenly deities stared at Qin Dangtian's back, and all of them didn't know what to say.

Today, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was humiliated because of one person.

As the saying goes, there would be supreme geniuses in every successive generation. The juniors are to be feared indeed.

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, who could obstruct the rise of Heaven's Son? The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would truly be in trouble soon.

Qin Wentian stared at the departing back of Qin Dangtian. When Qin Dangtian left, he didn't even cast a glance at Qin Wentian. It was like in Qin Dangtian's eyes, Qin Wentian was merely an extremely insignificant character.

He was the Heaven's Son, the future lord of the Qin Clan. How could a world overlord be in his eyes? Qin Dangtian right now basically couldn't imagine that this particular world overlord would determine his fate in the future, becoming his greatest enemy destined by fate.

Chapter 1824: Inform

After Qin Dangtian exited the sacred academy, there were still countless people paying attention to him. The time taken for the dao discussion was too short. In truth, even if Qin Dangtian would stay for a long time at the sacred academy, they would all still be willing to wait. Only Qin Dangtian alone was worthy enough for them to wait for him like this. Also, many people were filled with the anticipation of seeing the beautiful Goddess Nichang again.

"Qin Dangtian actually came out so quickly? What happened inside the sacred academy?" Countless people mused silently. However, Qin Dangtian simply left without stopping at all. Goddess Nichang also followed after him.

Qin Dangtian didn't really move far away. He stopped when he arrived at the Daoask Lodge that was not too far away from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Clearly, he was preparing to stay there. The lodge owner personally appeared to welcome him and brought him to the top level, preparing it for his lodgings.

Just when countless people were wondering what happened exactly in the sacred academy, the news finally spread out from the academy itself. The Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian, came to the academy to ask about the dao. He challenged the heavenly deities of the sacred academy and the three heavenly deities there all admitted that they were inferior to him.

When this news circulated out, Daoask City was shaken by an earthquake-level commotion. This news soon spread to the various locations of the Mystic Region, and soon after, to the other regions in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Heaven's Son's name, Qin Dangtian, once again spread through the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

In fact, there were even voices saying that when Heaven's Son appeared, all heavenly deities would tremble. If godkings don't show up, who could contend for supremacy against the Heaven's Son?"

Qin Dangtian's name was like the sun in the sky. No one could stand against him.

The news of Qin Dangtian's victory in the sacred academy created a huge commotion through the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

After that, more insider news appeared. Qin Dangtian was going to stay in the Daoask Lodge because he was waiting for news from the sacred academy. His true purpose in going to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was because he wanted to enter that legendary place inside there.

Only that place contained attraction for a character like him, Heaven's Son. Given that the three heavenly deities of the sacred academy were inferior to him, would Qin Dangtian even need to enter there and ask them about the dao? Who would be able to teach him? Only he could teach the others.

However, for that legendary place, since ancient times to now, who had the qualifications to enter? Will the headmaster of the sacred academy allow Qin Dangtian to enter there?

If speaking of talent, Qin Dangtian had faintly reached that level. If he wasn't qualified, how many people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would have the qualifications to enter the legendary place?

There were also countless people who were bewildered. Is the rumor of that legendary place true? The sacred academy has the entrance to it? What sort of things would there be in the legendary place? How was it worthy enough for the Heaven's Son himself to come here and defeat the heavenly deities of the sacred academy, displaying his talent before he asked for the qualifications to enter?

The amount of people who really knew about the finer details of the legendary place was extremely minor in number.

After Qin Dangtian left, the three heavenly deities sank into deep thoughts. Goddess Dugu then turned and spoke to the people outside the Divine Dao Platform, "You guys can leave first."

"Yes." Qin Wentian and the others nodded. They bowed and departed from the area, yet their hearts weren't calm at all. Not only for Qin Wentian, each of them who had witnessed that battle felt great waves of emotions rocking their hearts.

They came to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to seek the dao because this was a holy ground for cultivation. This was a place everyone placed in high regards, a symbol of faith for many. However, Qin Dangtian instantly collapsed that faith through a battle. The three heavenly deities before the Heaven's Son, admitted that they were inferior. What was the heavenly dao? Qin Dangtian said that his dao, was the heavenly dao. His will, was also the heavenly dao. How tyrannical was this answer?

Could the heavenly deities of the sacred academy really be wrong?

Qin Wentian wasn't troubled about this matter. If Qin Dangtian wasn't strong, how would he have the title of Heaven's Son? If Qin Dangtian wasn't powerful, how could he have crippled his uncle? How could he be worthy enough to be the son of Qin Zheng, his father's greatest enemy? It was only logical that Qin Dangtian, the grandson of Qin Ding, was able to defeat heavenly deities.

He wasn't troubled but he could still feel the pressure from Qin Dangtian. Qin Dangtian was surrounded by so many ancient characters of power, each representing a different kind of heavenly dao. What overwhelming might was this?

After the students left, the old man in the center sighed, "I didn't expect the already powerful Qin Clan would have such a supreme expert at the third generation. Their glory is probably going to continue."

The power of the Qin Clan has already continued through three generations. From the first generation, Qin Tiangang and Qin Ding. The two of them displayed supreme talent, Qin Tiangang was undefeated despite fighting against so many heavenly deities but sadly, he died in a secret realm in the end. However, Qin Ding was still alive. For the second generation, Qin Zheng and Qin Yuanfeng became the successors of their father's glory. Sadly, the Qin Clan destroyed Qin Yuanfeng, taking everything away from him. These two generations, the father-and-son duo Qin Tiangang and Qin Yuanfeng, both had unfortunate fates, causing many to sigh with pity.

And now, at the third generation, the Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, has appeared. His talent when compared to his father Qin Zheng, was in no way inferior and seemed even stronger.

"I'm sorry." Goddess Dugu softly spoke. She was defeated by Qin Dangtian.

"How can we blame you? I've already said that even for the two of us, neither of us are a match for Qin Dangtian if we fought him alone. The ending would be the same. Our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is now in a crisis because of his arrival." The old man sighed. The two other fell silent. Although it was just a single battle, they all understood the underlying meaning behind the defeat. This meant that the faith of many in their sacred academy would crumble. Three heavenly deities of the sacred academy admitted that they are inferior to Qin Dangtian, what would the people of the world think? For the countless people who wished to go to the sacred academy to seek the dao, what would they think?

Also, the influence of this battle wasn't just limited to these. The Heaven's Son was extremely domineering, even saying that he wants to enter that legendary place. Given how tyrannical he was, if the headmaster refused entry to him, another storm would surely erupt. However, given how arrogant Qin Dangtian's character was, how would the headmaster be willing to allow him entry? Qin Dangtian's character was too extreme, just like what Qin Wentian had said, everyone can only be allowed to have the same opinions as him. No one could go against his thoughts.

"Our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has existed prosperously for countless years and the headmaster has once said that we would face a calamity in the future. I wonder if this incident is the trigger point for the calamity the headmaster was speaking about." The middle-aged heavenly deity spoke. "Should we inform the headmaster about this matter?"

"Now that the commotion caused is so great, how can this be hidden from the headmaster?" Upon speaking of the headmaster, the old man in the center revealed a smile on his face. The other two heavenly deities also smiled and nodded. That's right, how could this matter be hidden from the eyes of the headmaster? He would have already known about it even without needing them to tell him.

Qin Wentian returned to his courtyard and summarized the battle for Jun Mengchen and the others. Everyone was shocked after they heard that, Jun Mengchen spoke, "I didn't expect the Heaven's Son to be so powerful. Even the heavenly deities of the sacred academy are inferior to him."

"It's fine. When Wentian becomes a heavenly deity in the future, wouldn't there then be a heavenly deity of the sacred academy capable of winning against him?" Little Rascal spoke in his adolescent voice. Qin Wentian rolled his eyes. Jun Mengchen laughed, "That's right. Senior brother said it before that you would surely defeat that person. It's just that I didn't expect Qin Dangtian to be so arrogant. His behavior is truly causing me to feel extremely unsatisfied. Is the beautiful maiden following behind him blind?"

"Why? Do you like her?" Qin Wentian laughed.

"Nope, it's just that she is truly too beautiful." Jun Mengchen replied. Qin Wentian nodded, he couldn't help but agree.

"That is the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang." Qin Wentian stated.

"Number one beauty of the Heaven Region? No wonder." Jun Mengchen mumbled.

"I have to properly cultivate as well. Maybe in the future, I would also be able to surpass the Heaven's Son." Jun Mengcheng laughed. "Senior brother, I'll go off first."

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. Little Rascal also followed Purgatory as they left this place.

When everyone left, only Qingcheng, Qing`er, Ye Qianyu and Qin Wentian remained behind in the courtyard.

Seeing that Qin Wentian had a look of contemplation on his face, Qing`er quietly walked to the side of him. Her beautiful eyes stared at him as she softly spoke, "Were you acquainted with him before this?"

Qin Wentian started. He glanced at Qing'er with bewilderment only to see Qing'er looking straight at him. She stretched out her hand and gently interlocked fingers with him as she softly continued, "I'm your wife. No matter what you have to experience, I shall bear the pressure together with you."

Qin Wentian stared at Qing`er as he sighed in his heart.

Right now with the appearance of Heaven's Son, it should be time to inform them about some matters. As his women, they do have the qualifications to know the entire truth.

In the past, he didn't tell them but it wasn't because he was worried that they might expose it. If he couldn't even trust them in this, how is it possible that they are together? His trust in them even surpassed the trust he had in himself. He knew that these women who were deeply in love with him, could give up everything for him, including their lives.

It was just that he didn't want to subject them to the pressure too. However, the appearance of the Heaven's Son has truly cause him to feel unrest in his heart. How could the meticulous Qing`er, Qingcheng and Ye Qianyu not be able to sense it?

Qin Wentian sealed this entire space off. He gently stroked Qing`er's white hair and spoke softly, "You are very intelligent."

"Qing'er, Qingcheng, Qianyu. I've never told you girls about the whole truth behind my origins. In reality, I already knew about it since a long time ago. It's really about time now to tell this to you all." Qin Wentian slowly spoke. "Before this during the convention of the myriad realms, Lei'er discovered Qingcheng due to her trying to search for a treasure. At that time, I believe Qing`er and Qingcheng should have already guessed that my mother has a connection to the Luoshen Clan. The truth is indeed as such. Luoshen Lei is my younger cousin, the daughter of my blood uncle. My mother is from the Luoshen Clan, and as for that Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian earlier, he came from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region. He can be considered my older paternal cousin. My father originated from the Qin Clan in the Heaven Region however, the Qin Clan as well as the father of Qin Dangtian, used despicable methods to plunder everything which belonged to my father."

The three maidens stared at him, feeling shock in their hearts. Although they guessed a little, they still felt extremely shocked when Qin Wentian revealed the truth. His background was actually so extraordinary.

Qin Wentian's father came from the Qin Clan in the Heaven Region. As for his mother, she came from the Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region. Both these clans were hegemonic powers that existed at the absolute peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Qin Dangtian, the first battle he fought after breaking through to the Heavenly Deity Realm was against my uncle, the Skyorder Heavenly Deity which is also Luoshen Lei's father. My uncle went there to seek justice for my parents but ended up being crippled instead. My uncle said that me and Qin Dangtian were born to be fated enemies." Qin Wentian smiled and spoke. His wives finally knew the reason why Qin Wentian wasn't able to calm his emotions.

"He is someone I need to defeat." Qin Wentian continued.

"I believe in you." Mo Qingcheng gently smiled. "During these years, all these supposed enemies, didn't you surpass all of them ultimately? Qin Dangtian is merely one of those."

Qin Wentian started before he laughed, "Qingcheng, your words sound logical!"

Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian was going to be merely one of those he would surpass!

Chapter 1825: Storm in the Sacred Academy

Qin Dangtian would be staying at Daoask Lodge for three months to wait for the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy's decision. The moment this news was spread, everyone knew that Qin Dangtian wanted to enter the legendary place. But, would the sacred academy agree? The vast majority of peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were paying attention to this.

Today, a group of experts walked out from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Divine Sound World Overlord was the leader of this group as they went to the Daoask Lodge to pay a visit to Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian.

Qin Dangtian didn't appear to welcome them. He stood at the top level and asked, "Has the sacred academy come to a decision?"

"Mhm." Divine Sound nodded. "Teacher asked me here to pass the message to you. Although Heaven's Son has outstanding talent, you are not suitable to enter the legendary place of the sacred academy."

The atmosphere turned silent for a moment. Right now, the surroundings of the Daoask Lodge were filled to the brim with experts. It was like they had already expected this ending. Qin Dangtian was so domineering and had insulted the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Although he has proven his immense strength and talent, it was clearly impossible for the sacred academy to lower their heads and invite him into that legendary place.

"Is this a rejection?" Qin Dangtian's voice rang out once more. "Has the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy thought clearly about the consequences?"

"This is just a message my teacher asked me to transmit." Divine Sound's expression didn't changed as he calmly stated. Facing against the Heaven's Son who had defeated three heavenly deities from the sacred academy, as well as bringing a message of rejection, one naturally required some amount of courage at the very least. Qin Wentian was in this group as well. Right now, he stood at the side of Divine Sound as Divine Sound passed the message on.

"The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is truly undeserving of their reputation." Qin Dangtian calmly continued. "The three heavenly deities were defeated when they discussed the dao with me yet they don't even dare to admit that they have no idea what the heavenly dao is. Not only so, they still want to speak about teaching the world about the dao? They are simply fooling the world and usurping a good name. Right now, experts of the sacred academy are as many as the clouds and their students proliferate the world. Although they say they wouldn't participate in worldly battles, in truth, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was accumulating their strength and building up their foundation. What is the difference between them and the other major powers?"

Divine Sound and the other world overlords all had unhappy looks on their faces. Qin Dangtian was publicly vilifying and humiliating the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and he was doing so at a location not far away from the sacred academy. This Daoask Lodge could be considered the sacred academy's territory yet he still spoke such a thing, daring to insult the academy by saying that the academy was fooling the world.

"Heaven's Son why must you use your thoughts to appraise others? Before teacher sent us here, she said that the Heaven's Son was too overly arrogant and had no regards for anything in his eyes except himself. He didn't permit others to disagree with his opinion, even for those who had comprehensions different from his regarding the heavenly dao. However, Heaven's Son's talent is truly supreme, but if the sacred academy was to permit you to enter the legendary place, that would be nothing but a calamity." Divine Sound also was no longer polite. If Qin Dangtian hadn't said anything, he naturally also wouldn't mention about these words.

A gaze seemingly penetrated through space, staring at the Divine Sound World Overlord as a fearsome pressure bore down on him. However, at the same time, a beam of light shot out from afar. In the direction of the sacred academy, a voice drifted over, "These words are what I told him to pass on. Given your status, you wouldn't make things difficult for them, right?"

"Haha!" Qin Dangtian laughed loudly. His voice booming like thunder, causing the earth to tremble, filled with a supreme arrogance.

He then continued, "The sacred academy that fooled the world actually still wants to propagate their teachings through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? This is simply preposterous, a true insult to the world. The academy shouldn't be allowed to exist any longer. Why doesn't it just disband?"

As the sound of this voice rang out, silence fell. What an arrogant Heaven's Son, he actually said that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy shouldn't exist and should disband.

Could it be the Heaven's Son was declaring war against the sacred academy?

He seemed to have such qualifications. Other than his own supreme strength and talent, the powerful Qin Clan of the Heaven Region was behind him.

Qin Dangtian's voice was like thunder from a clear sky, roaring throughout Daoask City. He was a heavenly deity. Heavenly deities don't make idle threats.

"Farewell. I shall pay a visit to the sacred academy in the future." Qin Dangtian calmly spoke. After that at the heavenly lodge, a terrifying storm suddenly manifested, causing black clouds to fill the area as a heavy pressure bore down on everyone.

Divine Sound World overlord stood there and was speechless for a long time. After that he spoke, "Let us return."

His expression was very heavy, it should be because of the words Qin Dangtian spoke earlier.

As their group left the Daoask Lodge, Divine Sound still kept his silence. Qin Wentian asked, "Senior brother, you seem to be very worried."

"This matter will surely create an immense storm that has huge negative influence on our sacred academy. Also, although Qin Dangtian is extremely arrogant, he is still a heavenly deity. Heavenly deities wouldn't say something randomly. Each of his words had a hidden meaning behind them."

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed sharply. Qin Dangtian said that the sacred academy shouldn't continue to exist and should disband. Could it be that the Qin Clan wanted to move against the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy?

Could it be that just for the sake of entering the legendary place in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, Qin Dangtian was willing to spare no expense and start a deity-level battle?

If that was the case, a shocking storm would definitely manifest.

"I seem to have heard the heavenly deities of our sacred academy mention before that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would face a calamity sooner or later. I wonder if this incident refers to that? During these days, teacher has been staying in the sacred academy and she seemed to be very worried." Divine Sound sighed. Even heavenly deities were worried. From this, one could see that this matter was surely an extremely serious one of great import.

Qin Dangtian's words swiftly spread throughout Daoask City, causing a commotion there. In the sacred academy, the hearts of everyone were also wavering, as they pondered over the implications of this matter. What would the future developments be?

Many peak powers are paying attention to this matter.

For the next period of time, news of this incident was circulated throughout the Mystic Region. The various peak powers including the hegemonic ones, long knew about it.

At this moment, one of the heavenly deities in the Ziwei Divine Court issued a statement. He said that he agreed with Qin Dangtian's words. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy didn't deserve its reputation and was fooling the world.

The moment this statement was issued, more commotions arose. The entire Mystic Region was shaking.

Was this the attitude of the Ziwei Divine Court? They are agreeing with the Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian?

As one of the three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region, what did their attitude mean?

Seems like the Ziwei Divine Court doesn't wish to have a power like the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy existing in the Mystic Region. Could it be that those peak existences no longer wish to see the existence of the sacred academy?

For countless years, the influence of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy in the Mystic Region was extremely great. Although they couldn't be considered a usual hegemonic power, but if war really broke out, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would be able to erupt with terrifying strength. After all, they had students all over the world. In fact, their strength might even exceed some hegemonic powers.

The existence of such a power would undoubtedly be like a silent pressure pressing down on the hearts of existences like the Ziwei Divine Court. Back then during the convention of the myriad realms, if the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy didn't exist, Qin Wentian's ending would definitely have been different. He would surely have joined the Ziwei Divine Court, how could he have chosen to keep a low profile and didn't act in any of the competitions until he was provoked? This led to him killing the Dragon Pool Manor Lord and this incident caused the Ziwei Divine Court to lose plenty of face.

This was the silent influence of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. The Ziwei Divine Court already had to share the pie with two others. They naturally didn't want the sacred academy around. Their influence was so great that even hegemonic powers feared them.

And during this tumultuous period, another heavenly deity from the Heavenly Deity Mountain also spoke, "The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is too rigid. Didn't they say that they accept everyone regardless of their backgrounds? Since the Heaven's Son has already proven his talent, why did they forbid him from entering the legendary place to cultivate? Ultimately, the heavenly deities only wanted to preserve the legendary place for themselves to strengthen their power. How many students cultivating in the sacred academy knew of the legendary place? And how many have entered before, if there are any?"

Such words were very fatal to the morale of people. Not only did the words heavily influence the ordinary crowd outside, even students inside the sacred academy were affected.

Many people who came here to seek the dao were geniuses from the various locations. Many of them had supreme talent, the successor of the Swordsaint Mountain, the successor of the Divine Ox Clan. Who among them are weak? Their talents were all supremely high as well yet why was it that none of them has entered the legendary place before?

In the past, they didn't think about this. But now because of a single sentence from the Heavenly Deity Mountain, many people were pondering. They were thinking if it was only those who are willing to stay behind in the sacred academy and truly become a part of it before they are granted entry?

Right now, this matter already wasn't so simple as Qin Dangtian insulting the sacred academy. Two out of the three hegemonic powers in the Mystic Region has also stepped out to issue their views. The attitudes of the Ziwei Divine Court and Heavenly Deity Mountain instantly caused the situation to become even more chaotic.

The majestic floating sacred academy constructed in Daoask City, that was a place to transmit the dao to people, was in a huge crisis. The incoming storm that was brewing now, occurred because of this holy location.

At this moment, inside the sacred academy, the hearts of many people were wavering. Qin Wentian learned some news from Divine Sound. During these days, he didn't cultivate and could clearly sense the change in the sacred academy's atmosphere. Many people were extremely restless, completely different from the past. Evidently, the attitudes of the Ziwei Divine Court and Heavenly Deity Mountain has influenced them.

"Senior Divine Sound, have you consulted teacher? What is happening exactly. This storm suddenly engulfed the sacred academy, there should be some other reason for it, right? How can it really be because of a single Qin Dangtian?" Qin Wentian felt some doubts. Was Qin Dangtian truly the source of this storm?

"This might have something to do with those rumors." Divine Sound replied. "Ancient Azure Mystic has reappeared. Right now, there are rumors saying that the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would undergo a huge transformation in the near future. I'm not sure if this matter implicates the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy."

"Ancient Azure Mystic." Qin Wentian spoke lightly. "The world-ending battle back then has already completely devastated Ancient Azure Mystic. Why would the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms undergo a huge transformation because of the reappearance of Ancient Azure Mystic. Is it because the hegemonic powers feared that existence?"

That existence he was referring to naturally was the one recorded in the ancient records of the Heavenly Dao Library - Grim Reaper.

"Who knows? The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is somehow engulfed in the storm, and the Heaven's Son domineering actions towards us might really be because he wishes to use this chance to ascend even higher and become a godking. His ambitions are truly very great." Divine Sound spoke. Qin Wentian nodded his head. As the Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian's attitude was truly immensely arrogant. His ambition would naturally be high as well. After all, his name was Qin Dangtian, he wanted to cause the entire world to tremble at his might!

Chapter 1826: Geniuses of the World Gather

Qin Dangtian's ambitions were extremely great, but was it not so also with regards to Qin Wentian? If Qin Dangtian wanted to verify his dao at the highest level at the legendary place and become a godking, Qin Wentian's aim was to defeat Qin Dangtian. Did this mean that his ambition exceeded Qin Dangtian's in scope?

"Senior Divine Sound, what sort of place is the legendary place of the sacred academy exactly? Why does Qin Dangtian want to enter there so badly?" Qin Wentian curiously asked.

"Since that is supposed to be a legendary place, how would I know? Although I've spent countless years cultivating in the sacred academy, in truth, I have never entered there before. That place is the greatest secret of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Most probably, only teacher and the other heavenly deities would know of the truth." Divine Sound replied. Qin Wentian silently mused at how mysterious this legendary place was, even his senior brother Divine Sound was completely ignorant about it. Most probably, the vast majority of the people in the sacred academy were the same as well.

After chatting for a few moments more, Qin Wentian bid farewell and left. For the next period of time, the students of the sacred academy could all sense the change in the atmosphere. The air seemed tense and many people were waiting for further developments of this matter. Clearly, this matter wasn't concluded yet.

Qin Dangtian said that the sacred academy should disband, the Ziwei Divine Court and Heavenly Deity Mountain also agreed with him. With so many powerful forces arrayed on one side, how could things be at an end?

As expected, not long after, the other hegemonic powers from other regions also issued statements saying that if the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy wanted to prove themselves, the heavenly deities of the academy cannot hoard the legendary place for themselves. They should open the place up and allow characters from the various peak powers to enter there in cultivation.

Many hegemonic powers all agreed with this and their voices formed a formless storm that caused immense pressure to bore down on the sacred academy.

It was like if the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy still refused to compromise, the various hegemonic powers would force them to disband, not allowing them to continue existing.

From the time of its establishment up until now, the sacred academy has never encountered such a huge storm before. Everyone knew that this holy ground in Daoask City would soon face an unprecedented crisis.

Right now, it seems that the sacred academy had to make a compromise no matter what.

Everyone in the eight great regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was paying attention to this. How would this storm develop? What would be the ending of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy?

And just when this storm was brewing, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy issued a statement of invitation, inviting the peak supreme geniuses of the various peak powers of the eight regions to gather at the sacred academy.

When news of this circulated, it caused a huge commotion. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has chosen to compromise?

Were they going to allow the supreme geniuses of the peak powers to enter the legendary place? If not, once the geniuses of the peak powers gathered here, how could they give up so easily? They would definitely force the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to open up the legendary place. If the sacred academy still refused then, wouldn't that be equivalent to them inviting wolves to their residences? They would be courting death.

In the internal situation of the sacred academy, there was a huge storm as well. Clearly, the students didn't expect that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would issue such a statement. They invited the supreme geniuses of the world to gather in the sacred academy? What was this force?

If that was the case, would the students themselves also have a chance to enter the legendary place?

When this news circulated out, Qin Wentian received a transmission from Luoshen Lei. She was asking Qin Wentian if he knew what the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was planning. Qin Wentian naturally had no idea.

Luoshen Lei told Qin Wentian that she would soon be making a trip with some experts from the Luoshen Clan to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Qin Wentian felt some joy after he heard that. He would soon be able to meet with Luoshen Lei again.

However, he was also extremely worried. The various supreme experts from the peak powers would gather in the sacred academy. What sort of storm was this? Even the Luoshen Clan was coming, the other hegemonic powers would also be sure to send their top geniuses to the sacred academy in the Mystic Region.

Undoubtedly, this was going to be an immensely gigantic storm.

Other than Luoshen Lei, who else in the Luoshen Clan would be coming? He would probably be able to meet with many of his mother's kin, right?

Naturally, there was also the Qin Clan. This matter started because of Qin Dangtian, he would naturally show up. Also, there should be many other peak characters from the Qin Clan coming here. Who would he be able to see? And for those people, what relationship would they have with his father?

This time around, it was true that the entire world was shook by this commotion. The hegemonic powers from the various regions were sending people to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

The Daoask Lodge was in a frenzy, countless people were filled with anticipation. Although the sacred academy was a holy ground for cultivation, there has never been something as grand as this incident before. The various experts from the eight great regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were going to gather at the sacred academy! How great the scope of commotion caused would be?

This time, how many peak supreme characters would they be able to see?

Countless people felt intense anticipation in their hearts.

Since the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was a power in the Mystic Region, the first peak powers to arrive at Daoask City was naturally none other than the three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region. The Ziwei Divine Court arrived here the fastest and directly chose to stay in the Daoask Lodge. The Daoask Lodge was the best inn in the city, they would undoubtedly choose to stay there. The heavenly lodge at the top level was naturally given to the Ziwei Divine Court for their lodgings.

However, the Daoask Lodge also felt somewhat awkward. Because, later on, there would be various peak powers arriving, including some other hegemonic powers. However, they only had limited slots for the top levels. If they let the other hegemonic powers stay in the lower levels, what would they think?

This matter caused the management of the Daoask Lodge to have a splitting headache.

Among the experts who came here from the Ziwei Divine Court, the person in the lead was none other than a junior apprentice brother of a heavenly deity. This man was none other than that major character of the Ziwei Divine Court whom Qin Wentian met before in the convention. He was the martial uncle of Yue Changkong.

In the heavenly lodge, there were two figures staring in the direction of the academy. Other than Yue Changkong's martial uncle, the other figure, was none other than Yue Changkong.

At this moment, there was an extremely cold expression on Yue Changkong's face as he stared in the direction of the sacred academy. It's said that 'he,' right now, was cultivating in the sacred academy. That person who has stolen his glory and his everything. That person was the greatest mark of his shame, and although he could still stand here today, he had endured hellish pain and undergone many tests with only 10% chance of survival. If it wasn't for the fact that he passed all those tests, he would have already died.

After that day, the Ziwei Divine Court naturally knew that he was a fake. The heavenly deity was in a towering rage but because Yue Changkong's talent was truly excellent, the heavenly deity decided to give him a chance. The hellish pain and agony he had to suffer to pass all those tests was something he would never forget. All of this was brought to him by Qin Wentian. Right now, his strength was even stronger compared to the past. In fact, when he fought against that expert from the Ziwei Divine Court who was also a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings, he wasn't in anyway inferior.

And now that he came to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, he would soon meet Qin Wentian again.

"Changkong, it isn't easy for you to have survived." His martial uncle spoke. Yue Changkong fell silent and didn't reply. Right now, his entire personality has changed. He no longer had that hypocritical smile and became more silent and sinister. He was much more terrifying now.

"You should understand what you did, was essentially a death sentence. However, my senior brother still gave you a chance. Now that we came to the sacred academy, you might soon meet with the person you hate the most. I hope that for this journey to the sacred academy, you won't cause my senior brother disappointment." His martial uncle calmly spoke. Yue Changkong fooled everyone, including the Ziwei Divine Court as well as a heavenly deity. This was naturally a death sentence. Clearly, it was definitely not easy for him to be still alive.

"I understand." Yue Changkong calmly replied. There was no fluctuations to his expression.

He naturally understood that he had to prove to everyone to see. So what even if he wasn't the successor of the godking? Those who looked down on him would definitely regret it. Also, the Donghuang Clan actually dared to break the marriage agreement? He would definitely seek them out for this debt sooner or later.

After them, the people from the Great Devil Divine Palace arrived. However, they didn't stay in the Daoask Lodge. They knew that the top level of the Daoask Lodge was already occupied by the Ziwei Divine Court, how would they be willing to stay underneath the Ziwei Divine Court? Even if they fought for this, there would be no meaning. Hence, they'd rather choose not to stay in the Daoask Lodge.

After that, the Heavenly Deity Mountain arrived. The three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region came here first and other than them, many of the other major powers of the Mystic Region came as well. But these people understood that although they were from major powers, they most probably could only be spectators. Only the supreme geniuses from the hegemonic powers would have a chance.

And after that, the hegemonic powers of the Yellow Region arrived. Winged Deity Race, Wang Clan, and the other deity-ranked powers arrived.

Next, the major powers of the Heaven Region and Earth Region came. Countless supreme characters all gathered at Daoask City. For a period of time, the seemingly calm Daoask City was now the point of a brewing storm.

When has Daoask City ever been so lively before? The various peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms gathered here.

The hegemonic powers from the Desolate Region also arrived. The Luoshen Clan, Divine Ox Clan and Demon God Mountain...Since the Luoshen Clan has arrived, it meant that Luoshen Lei came as well. Qin Wentian was the first to receive the news because after the Luoshen Clan arrived in Daoask City, she immediately sent a voice transmission over to Qin Wentian.

From the transmission sent by Luoshen Lei, Qin Wentian knew that not only was Luoshen Lei here, there were several world overlords with excellent talent from the Luoshen Clan who also came here. Their purpose was one and the same - the legendary place in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Naturally, Qin Wentian didn't go to meet with Luoshen Lei. The Qin Clan would arrive any time now and how could he show on the surface that he was very close with Luoshen Lei? That would definitely arouse some suspicions if the people of the Qin Clan were to see this.

And after sometime, the Qin Clan from the Heaven Region finally also arrived. Qin Dangtian wasn't among them. Those who came were all supremely talented world overlords. Although the Heaven's Son was the symbol of the Qin Clan, other than him, the various factions of the Qin Clan also gave birth to many characters of shocking talent. It was just that their radiance was overshadowed by Qin Dangtian.

In the western direction of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, from the Universe Region, a group of monks came by. Each of them had a transcendent aura and was from the land of western paradise. All of them were buddhist cultivators.

There was only a single hegemonic power in the Universe Region and even they have sent their people here.

The winds and clouds churned wildly in Daoask City. However, the vast majority of those who came here were all world overlords, not even a single heavenly deity has appeared. Naturally, everyone understood that since this commotion occurred because of heavenly deities, they were definitely in the shadows watching everything!

Within the academy, Qin Wentian received news everyday about the various powers who arrived. The entire sacred academy was under incomparable pressure. The sacred academy actually invited the true supreme geniuses from all over the world to gather here? Why did they do so exactly? This was definitely not something good for the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy!

Chapter 1827: Entering the Sacred Academy

Today, the three heavenly deities of the sacred academy gathered their students together. Qin Wentian was a student of Goddess Dugu. He was naturally present as well.

Before the Divine Dao Platform, the most elite world overlord students of the academy were all gathered here today.

Right now, experts of the entire world have gathered. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was going to be facing a storm of unprecedented magnitude. Most probably, the sacred academy's heavenly deities gathered them because they have some instructions.

"Many of you have cultivated for a very long time in the sacred academy. There are even some who have cultivated for so long that you yourself can't even remember how long it was. For those who have cultivated the least, they have spent at least several tens of years spent here. Right now, the sacred academy will be facing a crisis, we summoned you all here because we have some instructions." At this moment, the oldest of the three heavenly deities spoke. His title was the Lifegovern Heavenly Deity.

The students listened quietly. Lifegovern Heavenly Deity continued, "You all should know that Qin Dangtian came to the sacred academy not long ago and challenged the three of us. He is very powerful and his purpose in coming here was for the legendary place in our academy. However, this legendary place isn't what everyone in the world believes it to be, its entrance was barred to all, no one can enter casually. Also, when the entrance to that legendary place is opened to people of the world, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms will welcome immense transformations."

The hearts of many people shuddered. The opening of the legendary place would actually cause huge changes in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? What sort of place was that exactly?

"Qin Dangtian, Heaven's Son. Ziwei Divine Court, Heavenly Deity Mountain. All of them are pressuring our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. In fact, the other hegemonic powers from the other regions are also supporting them. Their intentions are obvious. Although our academy has many students, including some who originated from the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, our sacred academy has never really cared about their hidden identities at all. But I understand it is almost impossible to conceal this from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms."

The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity stared at everyone, "Hence, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would rather gather the supreme geniuses from all great regions. What will come, will come. We might as well take the initiative to face it. Since they wish to compete, our sacred academy might as well expand the scope and allow all the supreme geniuses to compete. In this case, those with unfathomable motives would probably find it harder to achieve their objectives. But of course, we really hoped that the ones who would have some accomplishments in the legendary place, would be none other than you all, our students."

The hearts of everyone trembled. The Lifegovern Heaven Deity has broken their conceptions about the legendary place and was going to allow everyone to enter. The students were to compete with the various supreme geniuses of the different regions, the sacred academy was placing its hope on them.

"Earlier, I've already said that this event that has happened to the sacred academy, wouldn't be able to be concealed from people of the world. Even if you guys entered, the experts from the various regions would still come by. Qin Dangtian and the others would never give up. This is one of the reasons." Lifegovern Heavenly Deity continued, "As for a more important reason, is that this was an instruction from the headmaster. Since this is the case, this decision is definitely the correct one. After you guys enter, you all should understand. I'm not very sure as the three of us have never entered the legendary place of the sacred academy before."

"Even the three heavenly deities didn't enter?" The hearts of everyone shook.

"The rumors spreading outside are just to create doubt that our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is selfish and holding on to the legendary place just for the heavenly deities, even elite students of the sacred academy are forbidden entry. This is simply ridiculous. The truth is that even us, as heavenly deities, have no idea what the legendary place is like." Goddess Dugu calmly spoke. Some among the students felt shame in their hearts. It was true that when the malicious rumors circulated around the world, some of the students had thoughts about forsaking the academy.

"Dugu, forget it." Lifegovern Heavenly Deity spoke. "The others can think what they want to, why bother with them? In any case, we gathered you students here today because we have an important thing to inform you all. This is something the headmaster himself has instructed me. He said that after you guys enter the legendary place, no matter what you encounter, remember to guard your heart. Do not forget yourself. If not, you would be embarking on a path of condemnation with no hope of reprieve."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Seems like the legendary place of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy wasn't something like what many have imagined. It wasn't some holy grounds for cultivation where one could attain the dao the moment they entered. The legendary place might be a location filled with immense danger. If not, the headmaster wouldn't have intentionally asked the Lifegovern Heavenly Deity to remind them.

Everyone nodded their heads, taking note of this. The headmaster's words would naturally have a deeper meaning behind them. They had to be careful and remember this.

"Okay, you guys can leave for now." The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity waved his hand in dismissal.

Not long after, news circulated out saying that the reason why the sacred academy gathered the supreme geniuses of the world, was to allow everyone to enter the legendary place. This news caused another earthquake-level commotion. Qin Dangtian said that the sacred academy was selfish, keeping the legendary place for themselves while still under the pretext of transmitting the dao. Since that was the case, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy seemed to want to use their actions to reply to him. What was transmitting the dao? Since you guys wish to enter, let every supreme genius here in the world enter then.

As expected, after this news was sent out, the various powers gathered at Daoask City all prepared to enter the sacred academy.

Today, in the surroundings of the Heavenly Dao Stairway, there were even more people gathered here compared to the time when Qin Dangtian came. But even so, the path leading directly to the stairway was still clear. No one dared to stand near there as only characters from the hegemonic powers would have the qualifications to ascend the stairway today.

Today, the sacred academy's students were all gathered at the top of the stairway, watching as the experts from the various regions gathered here.

"They are here." Someone spoke. From afar, droves of experts could be seen moving in this direction, each from different factions. All of them were extremely powerful and each group was led by a heavenly deity. Other than the heavenly deities, everyone else were world overlords. Those heavenly deities who usually didn't show up also appeared here today. How could they miss out on this grand event given their identities as heavenly deities?

"The Ziwei Divine Court has arrived." Countless people glanced at the experts from the Ziwei Divine Court. The person in the lead was a heavenly deity. Those behind him were clad in starry robes, exuding a majestic presence. They were a hegemon in the Mystic Region. With just a stomp of their foot, the entire Mystic Region would tremble.

Qin Wentian stared at the people from the Ziwei Divine Court. He actually saw Yue Changkong as well as Yue Changkong's martial uncle. He felt somewhat curious, when he exposed Yue Changkong's identity that time, he thought that the Ziwei Divine Court and the Donghuang Clan most probably wouldn't spare Yue Changkong. Yue Changkong even dared to fool a heavenly deity, this was truly a great crime.

However, Yue Changkong was actually still in the Ziwei Divine Court and hasn't died. Also, he stood behind that heavenly deity, clearly showing that his status in the Ziwei Divine Court was still extraordinary.

Yue Changkong also saw Qin Wentian with a single glance. Compared to Qin Wentian's surprise, he had a look of intense vengeance in his eyes, and his gaze flickered with killing intent. Although he was still alive, the hellish agony and pain he had to experience was something Qin Wentian wouldn't understand. He wanted Qin Wentian to die.

Staring at the unmasked killing intent in Yue Changkong's eyes, Qin Wentian felt that this Yue Changkong was more direct compared to the past. However, Yue Changkong who was exposed by him actually hated him so much? How ridiculous was this? Back then he fooled everyone saying that he was the godking of time's successor and even wanted to kill Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian couldn't expose him?

"The experts from the Great Devil Divine Palace is here." A voice suddenly rang out. A group of experts exuding tyrannical devilish aura appeared here. The person in the lead was naturally also a heavenly deity.

After that, the experts from the various locations appeared one after another. These people were all peak characters of the eight great regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and were gathered here today for the sake of entering the legendary place in the sacred academy. From this, one could see how attractive the legendary place was. Qin Wentian silently mused that although the heavenly deities from the sacred academy have never entered the legendary place before, the various hegemonic powers would surely know of some secrets in the legendary place. If not, why would they all gather here today just because of an invitation by the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy?

It was unknown how many experts were here today. Everyone stared at these supreme experts from the peak powers. Qin Wentian glanced at the Luoshen Clan. Luoshen Lei also cast a glance in his direction and revealed a mischievous smile to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian surveyed the people beside the Luoshen Clan. The Luoshen Clan was led by an old man who was a heavenly deity. Qin Wentian didn't know if this old man has any relationship with him.

Other than the Luoshen Clan, Qin Wentian also paid attention to the Qin Clan. The heavenly deity leading the Qin Clan was naturally none other than Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian. Although he was young, his status was transcendent.

The three heavenly deities from the sacred academy walked forward, they came to the stairway and stared at everyone below. "Since everyone could gather here at the sacred academy, this is truly an honor for us."

"The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is renowned throughout the world. It's a place where the dao is transmitted. This monk and my fellow colleagues have always been impressed. Since the sacred academy has issued an invitation, how can we not show up?" A monk in a kasaya pressed his palms together and spoke humbly. He was a heavenly deity and whether his humble attitude was real or fake, nobody knew.

"The purpose of the sacred academy gathering the supreme geniuses of the world here...is it because of the legendary place? Seems like the sacred academy has thought things through and is planning to allow the geniuses to enter." A heavenly deity from the Ziwei Divine Court spoke directly, lazy to beat around the bushes.

"Dao friend Ziwei, why so impatient?" Lifegovern Heavenly Deity laughed. "Since everyone cannot wait any more, please enter the sacred academy then."

These words undoubtedly confirmed the hopes of everyone. The various experts then walked up the Heavenly Dao Stairway and moved towards the sacred academy.

The experts from the sacred academy led them in. These peak characters all respectively entered, walking into the depths of the academy. Outside, countless other experts inclined their heads and stared up. Today, the supreme geniuses of the world gathered here and were preparing to enter the legendary place of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. What sort of great waves would be created this time around?!

Chapter 1828: The Legendary Place

In the sacred academy, in a location covered with dust, this was clearly a place where no people come to normally. Right now, this dust-covered pathway opened up, the three heavenly deities of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy led the various experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms into it.

Before them, there was a wave of supreme might from the great dao permeating the atmosphere. It felt like a tribulation of the heavenly dao. The wind and clouds churned as lightning and thunder flared, this was like a scene from the apocalypse. However, within this apocalyptic scene, at the very end of the path, one could faintly see a holy ground there. However, it was so far away like it would never be reached.

"Is that the legendary place?" The heavenly deities leading the various groups stared at it. Although they were heavenly deities, they have only heard rumors about the legendary place and didn't have a chance to enter there before. Although before this, they intentionally spread the rumor that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was selfish and keeping the legendary place for the heavenly deities of the sacred academy for their sole use, they knew that the heavenly deities of the sacred academy have also never entered there before. But now, the headmaster of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was actually willing to let so many people enter that legendary place?

It's said that it was very difficult to reach the other end of this legendary place. It is also rumored that within the legendary place, there are many supremely terrifying existences sealed within.

The history of the legendary place even exceeds the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

"That is the entrance to the legendary place. If you guys wish to enter, please feel free to go ahead. Since the world claims that our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is selfish and unfit to transmit the dao, today, we shall open the sacred gates to the legendary place to all." The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity spoke. "It's just that I have to remind everyone that even for the three of us, we have never entered there before. The headmaster once warned us that although the three of us are heavenly deities, if we entered the legendary place, our dao hearts might grow unstable and our foundation might crumble, leading to grievous harm. If you guys want to enter, feel free to do so. But you will bear your own consequences."

"Since the sacred gate is opened, the three of you are heavenly deities, how can you three not enter?" The heavenly deity from the Ziwei Divine Court spoke with a sharp expression.

"Dao friend Ziwei must be joking. The three of us never had any intention of entering the legendary place. Today, it's the Ziwei Divine Court and the various hegemonic powers domineeringly forcing our academy to open the sacred gate. And now, our academy has done so. Could it be you still want us to accompany you in?" The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity coldly laughed.

The eyes of the heavenly deity from the Ziwei Divine Court glinted with coldness. A wary expression could be seen in his eyes. "Since this is the case, we shall let the students of the sacred academy enter first."

"You guys forced us because you all want to enter the legendary place. But now, you are acting as cowardly as a mouse? What an insult to the prestige of heavenly deities." The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity coldly laughed. His eyes turned to the students of the sacred academy, "You guys can enter now. No matter what happens in there, don't be too shocked. Remember what I said to you all before."

"Yes." Everyone nodded respectively as the students of the academy advanced forward. Qin Wentian, Divine Sound, Jian Chen, Devilox and the other supreme geniuses of the sacred academy were among this group. They walked towards the legendary location. The terrifying dao's might permeating the region bore down on them as an unblockable energy directly penetrated through them. That was the mysterious power of the dao's might, there was no way to block this.

Qin Wentian could feel a supreme energy pressing down on him, destroying his everything. It was like he was experiencing a baptism. He wanted to struggle but he was helpless to do so. A voice from the ancient era entered his mind. After that, his body was swallowed up by the void and vanished completely.

"There's no way our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would harm our own students, right? You guys can feel free to enter now. But let me warn you all. No matter what happens, those who enter have to bear their own consequences. In the future, don't blame any casualties on our sacred academy. Although the heavenly deities here have already attained a heavenly dao, I still have to remind you all to be more cautious. It is best not to enter." Lifegovern Heavenly Deity spoke.

"I want to see what is in there exactly." Qin Dangtian stepped out. His long robes fluttered as halo of lights appeared around him. These sources of light were ancient characters that contained unexcelled might from the great dao.

The people from the Qin Clan followed behind him as they entered the region where the dao's might permeated. In an instant as they entered, a wave of might from the great dao bore down on Qin Dangtian. Qin Dangtian flew up into the sky as the ancient characters around him flickered, brimming with power.

However, the dao's might permeating the region could engulf everything. The ancient characters around Qin Dangtian were destroyed one by one, ignoring the attacks from them. The power of the dao's might in this region then penetrated through Qin Dangtian. At this moment, Qin Dangtian's expression drastically changed as he roared, "You want to cripple my dao?!"

He did his utmost to struggle, unleashing the power of his bloodline and dao bone. In an instant, his dao grew stronger as the numerous ancient characters fused into one, wanting to protect him. At the same time, an immensely gigantic ancient character that stood for the word 'slaughter,' manifested and blasted towards the heavens. It was like Qin Dangtian wanted to kill the heavenly dao here.

As for the other members of the Qin Clan, they had long lost all power to resist. Their bodies have completely vanished. Only Qin Dangtian was still standing alone arrogantly in the air, fighting against the heavenly dao. The scene was extremely shocking, the hearts of many world overlords trembled at Qin Dangtian's might. Even the other heavenly deities were silently in awe.

But even so, it was useless. An incomparably profound surge of dao's might churned wildly as though the heavens and earth were angered. A powerful beam of light directly blasted the gigantic ancient character 'slaughter,' into pieces and continued shooting towards Qin Dangtian. A terrifying light radiated forth, it was as though everything in the region was going to be destroyed. In the next moment, the crowd only saw Qin Dangtian retreating as his aura fluctuated wildly. However, there was a look of disdain in his eyes as he stared ahead.

"The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy designed this scheme to harm everyone in the immortal realms. We have to raze this place to the ground today." Qin Dangtian coldly spoke, staring at the Lifegovern Heavenly Deity.

"Ridiculous, it was you who originally wanted to enter. Now, our sacred academy opened the gate to welcome you yet you didn't dare to do so and even turned around to threaten us? Although the Qin Clan is powerful, but if you want to destroy the sacred academy, I'm afraid the members of the Qin Clan wouldn't know peace from today onwards." The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity coldly spoke. Qin Dangtian snorted coldly. In the past, he really wanted to enter the legendary place. But now when the sacred academy allowed everyone to go in, he suddenly felt wariness in his heart. The power in that region leading to the legendary place earlier actually wanted to destroy his dao.

In that case, he will choose to observe for now to see if anything happens to those who entered before making a decision.

For heavenly deities, they have already succeeded in their daos. They naturally wouldn't want to take risks unnecessarily. All the other heavenly deities upon seeing Qin Dangtian hesitating, also decided not to enter. The forces under them respectively moved forward one by one, all of their hearts were filled with trepidation. As they entered the region, their bodies all vanished a few moments after.

"Lei`er, are you really going to enter?" An elder spoke to Luoshen Lei.

"Mhm." Luoshen Lei nodded her head, her eyes gleamed with resolution. Although her cultivation was slightly shallow when compared to the other world overlords, this was an opportunity she couldn't miss. The person who crippled her father was already so powerful. Luoshen Lei didn't want to always depend on others. Hence, she needed to try her luck and enter the legendary place of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

The supreme experts of the eight great regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms all gathered here. Other than heavenly deities, everyone else were genius world overlords. They didn't know what sort of place the legendary place of the sacred academy was exactly and what would be waiting for them in there.

After Qin Wentian entered the region where the dao's might permeated, he felt an uncontrollable energy surrounding him. At this moment, everything of his seemed to be stripped clean. His cultivation, his innate techniques, his power all completely vanished. And in the next instant, he felt himself entering into another world. Over here, many memories suddenly filled his mind. The memories told him that he was born here and grew up here in this world.

This place, was a world of reincarnation.

Within the world of reincarnation, on the top of a majestic palace, Qin Wentian stood there with his arms crossed before his chest. He was the same as before, in fact, all his memories from the real world were in his mind too. It's just that he had no cultivations now, and also no astral souls. In the world of reincarnation, he could sense the existence of many attribute powers. There seemed to be no need to depend on astral souls here.

From the time he was 'born' until now, the time taken seemed to be only an instant. However, the memories in his mind were clearly there. It was like he had over tens of years of memories the moment he arrived in this world.

Qin Wentian's name was still Qin Wentian in this world. He was born into the Qin Clan. This Qin Clan was split into two factions and they functioned as rivals.

"What is going on? What sort of place is this legendary place exactly?" Qin Wentian silently mused. Although the heavenly deities of the sacred academy did warn them not to be shocked no matter what happened, but how could he not be shocked? He clearly entered the legendary place but all of a sudden, he was brought here and memories of many years living in this world appeared in his mind.

Could this world of reincarnation be the legendary place?

"You should have many questions on your mind now, right?" At this moment, a voice suddenly rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. His eyes gleamed with sharpness as he stared into the void, "Who are you?"

"This place is the world of reincarnation. I'm a divinity that was sealed here. Right now, since the world of reincarnation has opened, many of you people have entered from the outside. Next, all of you have to seize all opportunities to mature as fast as possible, eliminating your opponents in the world of reincarnations. You are born in the dual-faction Qin Clan and would enjoy exceptional advantages. Do you need me to help you?" This voice had a bewitching tone to it.

Qin Wentian frowned, a divinity that was sealed in this world of reincarnation?

The legendary place was this world of reincarnation? There was actually a divinity sealed here?

"How can you help me?" Qin Wentian asked.

"I can transmit you a dao to cultivate." The ethereal voice rang out once more in Qin Wentian's mind.

"What dao?" Qin Wentian asked again. After that, a formless energy directly entered his mind. Qin Wentian frowned. This dao was actually a dao that requires the union of male and female. The person practicing this has to use the bodies of females to raise their own cultivation level. Qin Wentian shook his head, "I will not cultivate this dao."

"Haha, you don't need to decide so early. I know that there are several supreme beauties that have entered the world of reincarnation as well. Could it be that your heart isn't moved by their beauty?" That voice grew somewhat sinister as the bewitching tone grew stronger. "In any case, the method is already in your mind. When you cultivate it in the future, I shall appear again."

Qin Wentian furrowed his brows. This evil existence in the world of reincarnation actually knew the identities of all those who entered here? If that was the case, wouldn't it be able to seek out others as well?

If he didn't cultivate this, there would definitely be others who did so. Also, there might still be other existences sealed in this world.

"Young master, young master…" At this moment, an agitated voice rang out. A serving girl rushed over with a look of anxiousness on her face.

"Autumn Rain, what's going on?" Qin Wentian asked. In his memories, this serving girl was named Autumn Rain and has been serving him for some years.

"Young master, Nichang, Miss Nichang is here." Autumn Rain agitatedly called out. Qin Wentian's expression froze. Nichang? Goddess Nichang?

In the world of reincarnation, he would actually be able to meet with people he knew? If it was truly the Goddess Nichang, what sort of role would she play in the world of reincarnation?

Chapter 1829: In the World of Reincarnation

Qin Wentian followed the serving girl Autumn Rain to a great hall outside. There were people chatting idly in there. The person seated in the host seat was a middle-aged man named Qin Ruhai, he was Qin Wentian's father in this world of reincarnation.

In fact, in Qin Wentian's heart, he was surprised to feel a sense of kinship to Qin Ruhai. He knew that this was the result of the memories he had in his mind. Having those memories meant that he had already lived in the reincarnation world for tens of years and grew up here.

Below the host seat, there were two guests. One of them exuded boundless magnificence, so beautiful that it caused people to feel stifled. When Qin Wentian saw her, his gaze couldn't help but to freeze.

Goddess Nichang. It was actually Goddess Nichang.

Goddess Nichang also saw Qin Wentian, however her eyes were calm. At this moment, Qin Ruhai spoke, "Wentian, quickly come and meet with your Uncle Qu."

Qin Wentian felt some hesitation, but when he thought that he was already in the world of reincarnation, he should accept this. He would simply treat this was a tempering exercise in this world. He walked forth and greeted the middle-aged man, "Uncle Qu."

"Not bad." The middle-aged man nodded and smiled. "This is Nichang. Her age is comparable to Wentian. What do you think of her appearance?"

Qin Wentian glanced at Goddess Nichang, he felt somewhat bizarre but he still replied, "Her beauty can awe the world."

"This sentence isn't an exaggeration. But sadly, Nichang is the same as you. Even up until now, she cannot cultivate." The middle-aged man sighed in pity. "Nichang, why don't you go for a walk with Wentian. It has been many years since I last met with your Uncle Qin. We have plenty of things to chat about."

Goddess Nichang stood up, she calmly glanced at Qin Wentian and walked outside. Qin Wentian followed after her. The serving girl, who was standing outside, had a smile on her face upon seeing Qin Wentian and Nichang walking out together. She didn't disturb them.

The two of them came to an empty area where a gentle wind was blowing. They didn't say anything. Regardless of Qin Wentian or Goddess Nichang, both were still adapting to their current identities.

"My original name is Qu Nichang." Goddess Nichang suddenly spoke. Her beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian, flashing with curiosity, "Why would you be born inside the dual-faction Qin Clan of this world?"

"How do I know?" Qin Wentian replied. This sentence confirmed his thoughts. Goddess Nichang was the same as him, she was the real Nichang who came from the outside into this world of reincarnation.

"The dual-faction Qin Clan shares the same amount of fame. Their ancestors are a pair of brothers. If this world of reincarnation is connected by fate with the real world, in that case, one of the Qin Clan's factions would represent the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region. And just so coincidentally, my grandfather is acquainted with people of the Qin Clan. If the two worlds are linked, that means…" The beautiful eyes of Nichang flashed with a bright light. Qin Wentian was born in the dual-faction Qin Clan of this world…?

"Maybe everything is just an illusion. I might have been born here because I also have the surname of 'Qin.'" Qin Wentian replied. However, in truth, great waves of emotions rose in his heart after he heard Goddess Nichang's words. The world of reincarnation was connected with the real world?

Goddess Nichang glanced at Qin Wentian when she heard his words. After that, she turned and left. Maybe it was a coincidence. Towards Qin Wentian, she didn't have too deep of an impression. She only knew that he was from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Qin Wentian glanced at Goddess Nichang's back as a look of contemplation appeared on his face. If things were truly connected by fate, wouldn't that person who created this world of reincarnation be too terrifying? He could even calculate fate and knew that his origins was from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region?

He started to think about the cultivation system of this world. He could clearly sense the different types of energy in this world. The energy from the different laws felt extremely rich, this was especially so for the attributes he had cultivated in the outside world. They were like dots of light floating around him. This meant that he should be able to swiftly form a connection with them and start his cultivation.

According to his memories, the martial path of the world of reincarnation is different when compared to the outside world. There are only three realms here - Houtian Realm, Xiantian Realm and God Realm.

As for the dual-faction Qin Clan, they are a god-ranked power.

"If the world of reincarnation is a test, this means that I have to upgrade my strength here in this world." Qin Wentian silently mused. After that, he headed to the library in the Qin Clan. Although he had tens of years of memories, only a small part of those memories had something to do with cultivation. He had to find ways to cultivate as soon as possible to upgrade himself.

Qin Wentian arrived at the library and started to browse through the books while starting to cultivate.

Three months later, in the Qin Clan, Qin Wentian was in the training grounds. His entire body glowed with light as faint strands of law energies descended on him. The energy of heaven and earth formed a resonance with his body, and a law body actually manifested. This law body seemed to be made from indestructible gold as the light radiating from it towered up into the sky. This strange phenomenon startled the people in the clan. Many figures instantly rushed here and when they saw Qin Wentian's body forming a resonance with the power of the world, all of them had shocked looks on their faces.

"My son has unrivalled talent!" Qin Ruhai's voice trembled.

"Young master comprehended the dao in a single day, directly bypassing the Houtian Realm and has entered the Xiantian Realm." The serving girl Autumn Rain was in a daze. Before this, such a feat only existed in the legends. She never imagined that this scene would occur before her eyes, she felt a sense of surrealism.

Qin Wentian opened his eyes. He sensed the energy in his body as well as his connection with the power of heaven and earth. His expression was as calm as ever. The Xiantian Realm was equivalent to the immortal-foundation and immortal-king ream. He believed that many people would be able to accomplish this. The energy in the world of reincarnation was very wondrous and it was completely different from the outside world. It could directly transform his body, there was no need for him to cultivate it step by step.

It felt like an energy transformation process. All his comprehensions in the outside world were transformed into energy here in the world of reincarnation.

The news about Qin Wentian becoming a Xiantian in a single step soon circulated to the other faction in the dual-faction Qin Clan. In thee other Qin Clans, there were three who came to the world of reincarnation from the external world, all of them naturally originated from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region. They have already been in this world for months and naturally heard of Qin Wentian's name. They couldn't help but to feel some dissatisfaction in their hearts. Although Qin Wentian was somewhat famous from the convention in the Mystic Region, why was he qualified to be born in the dual-faction Qin Clan like them?

In addition, they have also seen Goddess Nichang. Goddess Nichang's father had brought her to the Qin Clan for a visit before.

In the outside world, for the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang, they could only stare up at her in admiration. Maybe only the Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian of their clan, was qualified enough to match up with her. The rest of them didn't dare to have any profane thoughts. But in this world, the Heaven's Son didn't exist. The three of them were considered the core members of the dual-faction Qin Clan. Hence, they felt desire towards her in their hearts.

The three of them also knew the importance of cultivation. They soon comprehended the method to cultivate here and similar to Qin Wentian, they entered the Xiantian Realm in one shot, causing great shock to the dual-faction Qin Aristocrat Clan.

Today, the three of them met together. They kept suggesting to their elders, wanting to destroy the other faction of the Qin Clan.

In the dual-faction Qin Clan, the other faction was extremely powerful as well. The two factions long had conflicts with each other. After hearing the suggestions by the juniors, the other faction naturally agreed. Hence, Qin Wentian who was still quietly cultivating, suddenly felt a sense of doomsday approaching one day.

"Elder brother, what do you mean by this?" Qin Wentian's father in this world, Qin Ruhai, soared up into the air and coldly spoke. At this moment, his entire faction was surrounded by the faction his elder brother controlled.

"Qin Ruhai, the name 'dual-faction Qin Clan' isn't too nice to listen to. You guys can chose to join my faction and in the future, there would only be a single faction in the Qin Clan." An expert peered downwards and coldly spoke. Qin Wentian felt his heart trembling. The history was actually so shockingly similar to that of the real world. Would what happen then happen here now?

"Elder brother, are you not going too far by doing this?" Qin Ruhai loudly questioned. The experts in the air had emotionless looks on their faces. Coldness flashed in their eyes, Qin Ruhai's elder brother waved his hand as an army of experts descended downwards. The internal warfare between the two factions of the Qin Clan hence occurred.

Qin Wentian had an indescribable feeling in his heart. He didn't expect history would repeat itself in this world of reincarnation. In the air, the three experts from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region coldly stared at Qin Wentian. After that, their silhouettes flashed as they rushed him.

Although Qin Wentian wanted to protect his faction, he understood that his current cultivation base was simply insufficient. His body flashed and departed the area with the speed of a great roc.

Behind him, screams of agony and pain rang out. Although Qin Wentian didn't feel too deep a feeling towards the family of this world, he still felt coldness in his heart as killing intent flickered in his eyes. The world overlords from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region were actually directly planning to kill him.

"Bzz~" A gigantic figure resembling a mountain appeared before Qin Wentian, blocking his pursuers. This figure was actually Qin Ruhai. He nodded to his son, "Wentian, leave quickly!"

Qin Wentian stared at that imposing backview as emotions stirred in his heart. He clenched his fists tightly, producing crackling sounds.

"Leave! Remember to avenge me!" Qin Ruhao roared in anger. Qin Wentian decisively turned and sped away. Behind him, countless screams continued to ring out. The place where he grew up in, in this world, was completely destroyed, razed to levelled ground.

Everything felt like a dream. He could truly sense the cruelty of the world of reincarnation. The descendants of the Qin Clan of the Heaven's Region actually wanted his death. These people shared the same blood as him!

The internal warfare in the world of reincarnation inside the dual-faction Qin Clan led to one faction being obliterated. This incident shocked the entire world. Although Qin Wentian was fleeing, he could feel torment in his heart. He actually fled just like that? Was it because he didn't truly treat the people here as his kin? However, their feelings for him were real. Qin Wentian felt extremely agonized in his heart. In Qin Wentian's mind, the image of the three figures from the Qin Clan appeared as killing intent gleamed in his eyes.

Qin Wentian had extraordinary experiences in the world of reincarnation. But there were people who experienced even worse things than him.

Yue Changkong, after he entered the world of reincarnation, his identity was a disciple of the Moon God Hall. However, because he couldn't cultivate, he was driven out and suffered all sorts of humiliations on the street. In fact, even beggars despised him and would frequently beat him up.

When Yue Changkong was in the Ziwei Divine Court, he had experienced all of these before. He endured everything and silently contemplated the energy of heaven and earth.

Until one day, when night had fallen, a group of beggars returned. When they saw Yue Changkong sitting there, they spat saliva at him and some even kicked out at him while cursing out loud, "Trash."

Yue Changkong opened his eyes. At this moment, his eyes were like dead ashes, and were cold to the extreme. His gaze instantly caused the beggars to feel their hearts trembling. After that, Yue Changkong opened his mouth and drew in a deep breath. A terrifying devouring might was generated, causing all the beggars to feel extreme fear. Their vitality was all actually absorbed by Yue Changkong. Their figures became extremely emaciated and finally, they dried up and became a pile of bones!

Chapter 1830: Each With Their Lives

Yue Changkong returned to the Moon God Hall. This was the place he grew up in, in the world of reincarnation and he naturally has the memories about this place as well.

Upon his father learning that he comprehended the dao in a single day, stepping into the Xiantian Realm, he accepted Yue Changkong into the family again and sighed and spoke to him, "Changkong, those years ago I was forced to send you away. You should understand very clearly what sort of place the Moon God Hall is. You, who had no cultivation then, would only be the butt of endless humiliation here."

"Your child understands." Yue Changkong respectfully replied as a warm smile appeared on his face. A reunion of father and son, things were naturally extremely joyful.

There were four people from the Ziwei Divine Court who entered the world of reincarnation. Other than Yue Changkong, one was his martial uncle and the other two were rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings of the Mystic Region. In the world of reincarnation, they originated from the same power - Moon God Hall. Everything seemed destined. This world of reincarnation was seemingly able to sense their fate.

At this moment, the four experts from the Ziwei Divine Court gathered together. Yue Changkong's martial uncle spoke, "The Moon God Hall in here, seems to represent the Ziwei Divine Court in the outside world. The cultivation system here is completely different from the external world, yet there are points of similarity. Are we supposed to comprehend a different dao here in the world of reincarnation?

"But, where is that holy place? Could the world of reincarnation be that holy and legendary place? Our lifetime here is supposed to be the test?"

"Since the world of reincarnation and the outside world are connected, we have to grow stronger as soon as possible so we can trample the experts from other powers down beneath our feet." A ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings spoke.

"Martial uncle and two senior brothers have supreme talent. We will naturally be able to do this." Yue Changkong bowed.

"You can't put it this way. There are no weaklings among those who entered the world of reincarnation, all of them are extremely powerful. Changkong, since you are reaccepted into the Moon God Hall, your strength now must definitely be extraordinary. Come and spar with me." Yue Changkong's martial uncle spoke.

"How can Changkong be a match for martial uncle?" Yue Changkong bowed.

"If we don't try, how would we know?" His martial uncle took a step forward as a powerful law body appeared behind him. The energy in the surroundings was absorbed by the law body as a desolate and cold streak of saber light flashed past. Yue Changkong gave a shout, summoning his strength to resist. However, with a thunderous explosion, Yue Changkong was directly sent flying by the force of that saber light. Wounds appeared as blood flowed from his body. He was slammed into the ground and he could only climb up with difficulty. "The insights martial uncle gained in this world of reincarnation is as extraordinary as the outside world."

"Being able to block one of my strikes, you are considered not too bad." His martial uncle laughed. "You can leave."

"Yes, Changkong will take my leave." Yue Changkong bowed and departed. The other two who were rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings stared at Yue Changkong's back. Their eyes were filled with contempt, "I heard that he was abandoned by his family in this world and had become a beggar, forced to endure all sorts of humiliation."

"He is such a despicable person, he even fooled the world and gained the approval of the Ziwei Divine Court. If I was the decision maker, I would have killed him. Why would our master spare him?"

"Despicable characters have their own uses. To become stronger, he is willing to use all methods no matter how vile. You guys have to guard against him." The martial uncle laughed.

After Yue Changkong left, he spent his time in quiet cultivation. One day, he told his father of this world where he encountered a miraculous bout of good fortune in a secret realm when he was cultivating outside and hence, he wanted to lead everyone to explore the secret realm. They came to a desolate ancient mountain and his father looked at him, "Changkong, where is the secret realm you were talking about?"

"Father, you once said that you were forced to expel me from the family because you were helpless, right? In that case, today, I'm also forced to do this as I'm helpless." As Yue Changkong spoke, his hands turned into claws and directly penetrated his father's back. A terrifying devouring might frenziedly began to absorb all the energy in his father's body.

"VILE BEAST!" The experts in the surroundings roared. However, a cold malevolent smile appeared on Yue Changkong's face. Father? Ridiculous, wanting him to call this man as his father? There was naturally a price to be paid for this.

The fearsome devouring might intensified as a heretic devil law body appeared behind Yue Changkong, absorbing everything. Very swiftly, only piles of bones were left here. Yue Changkong took out the messaging crystal in this world and spoke through it, "Martial uncle, I discover a divine depository but there's an evil creature guarding it. My father and the rest of my family have all died."

"Where is it? How strong is that evil creature?" His martial uncle asked.

"I can lead the way for senior brothers. The evil creature might have strength on par with martial uncle. In order to play it safe, it's best that martial uncle brings a group of experts over. This divine depository might contain extraordinary treasures." An intense emotional fluctuation could be heard in Yue Changkong's voice, filled with sorrow and agitation like he has completely lost his calm.

"Okay, wait for me." His martial uncle replied. Yue Changkong kept his messaging crystal and sat cross-legged while a demonic glint flashed in his eyes.

After a long time, his martial uncle and two senior brothers who were rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings finally arrived. They didn't bring anyone else with them. In fact, this was something Yue Changkong had anticipated.

Upon seeing Yue Changkong and piles of bones around him, his martial uncle frowned, "Where is the divine depository and the evil creature?"

"Martial uncle, have you heard that this world of reincarnation is connected to our real world. If you die in here, it would be a true death." Yue Changkong calmly spoke.

"I know of this." His martial uncle nodded, staring at Yue Changkong.

"It's good that martial uncle understands this. Since the various geniuses came to this world of reincarnation, this is like a test of life and death. In that case, no matter how cruel or brutal I must be, I will make sure to walk this path all the way until the end. Those who compete with me all have to die. The legendary place, the legendary character, shall be me and me alone. Martial uncle, thanks for granting me my wish."

As the sound of Yue Changkong's voice faded, his law body manifested. That terrifying heretic devil was extremely malevolent, exuding a vile and disgustingly evil aura.

The expressions of the three people changed. His martial uncle coldly spoke, "Have you fallen so low and accepted the deal with the evil spirits? Choosing to cultivate an evil art?"

"What is an evil art?" Yue Changkong calmly spoke. "There are rumors saying that if the sacred academy opened the sacred gate to the legendary place, the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would undergo immense changes. Since everyone unscrupulously forced the sacred academy and managed to enter here, I naturally have to become the strongest here. So what even if the two of you are rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings? After this, all your power shall become mine. All your insights will belong to me!"

As the sound of his voice faded, grey hands manifested from the devil law body behind his back, covering this entire space. The expressions of the three of them drastically changed. They used the entirety of their strength gained from their insights of this world to resist but it was useless. Their bodies were penetrated through by the grey hands as the energy within their bodies flowed out rapidly, infusing Yue Changkong. The Yue Changkong now has completely become a devil.

"I'm your martial uncle. If you kill me, will my senior brother spare you when you exit?" His martial uncle spoke in fear.

"If this evil power is also considered a dao, I can naturally bring back what I comprehend here to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. In that case, if there is an opportunity, I will definitely repay him double everything he caused me to endure." Yue Changkong sinisterly spoke. After that, he devoured all the energy in his martial uncle's body, as well as the two rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings from the Ziwei Divine Court. All three of them died in the world of reincarnation.

Yue Changkong drew in a deep breath, feeling satisfied in his heart. His gaze contained a serenity that was extremely terrifying.

"You say that you are sealed in the world of reincarnation? In that case, who was the one who sealed you? Who is the master of this world? Is he the creator of the legendary place?" Yue Changkong mumbled to himself, there was no one in his surroundings.

"There's no need for you to know this. In any case, his power isn't something you can imagine at your current level. What you need to do now is to continue to grow stronger and stronger. If you can obtain everything in the world of reincarnation, the future you might have a chance to learn of his identity." A voice rang out in Yue Changkong's mind.

"Oh." Yue Changkong coldly smiled, not asking any more. Right now, a person flashed through his mind.

Qin Wentian, where was he in this world of reincarnation? He truly hoped Qin Wentian would be stronger, so it would be more nutritious to consume him.

...

For the monks from Western Paradise Buddha Sect of the Universe Region, they were also in this world of reincarnation. Now, they were inside a buddha sect as well and the temple they were in was known as the Vajra Temple. There were many eminent monks here and all of them believed in the legends of a Western Paradise.

Reverend Seven Abstinences, his title came from the Seven Abstinences in Buddhism. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, he was widely respected and was an eminent monk. But now in the world of reincarnation, he was just an ordinary novice monk who could not cultivate. But even so, the temple treated him very well.

"Seven Abstinences, during these days you have already finished reading all the buddha arts in our Vajra Temple. Now that you are bidding farewell to me, do you have some thoughts in your mind?" The abbot spoke to the young novice monk, Seven Abstinences.

"Disciple wishes to head towards the western paradise to seek the truth of buddhism." Seven Abstinences pressed his palms together and bowed.

"You must have read the ancient records and desire to reach the borders of Western Paradise. There will be countless tribulations before you can reach there. You have to have an original body and after you arrive at the holy place, you have to kowtow with every step you take. No one in my Vajra Temple has succeeded before, but you still wish to go there?" The abbot asked, the original body in his speech referred to a body that has not cultivated before.

"No matter how dangerous the journey is, I'm willing to undertake this journey." Seven Abstinences nodded. Right now, he could already comprehend the buddhist dao in this world but he didn't choose to do so. Since there was also a Western Paradise in this world, he wanted to go there to see for himself and seek his dao there.

"Good, having the aspirations to seek buddha at the Western Paradise. You have to first perform the seven abstinences and ten acts of kindness. I only have a high cultivation base but I don't have your aspiration. Since this is the case, let all my cultivation transform into a sarira to protect you on your journey there." The abbot smiled.

Seven Abstinences pressed his palms and bowed in silence. The abbot of the Vajra Temple transferred all his cultivation into a buddha bead. His appearance instantly aged, resembling a dried up oil lamp as he took a string and threaded through the bead before hanging the bead around Seven Abstinences's neck.

"Go on." The abbot spoke.

Seven Abstinences stood up and started on his journey towards the Western Paradise of this world. He had no distractions in his heart, and experienced everything fate wanted to throw at him. He maintained his principles of seven abstinences and ten kindness, the experiences he underwent was extremely arduous and he was covered in dust. But even so, he didn't forget his original heart.

This world of reincarnation was an opportunity for him. Since opportunity has arrived, he must naturally grab it. As a true eminent monk in the outside world, his state of heart was naturally as resolute as iron.

On his journey, some monks from the Vajra Temple sought him out and told him that the abbot won't be able to make it and was about to die soon. They hoped that Seven Abstinences could make a trip back to the temple to see the abbot for the final time. Seven Abstinences didn't turn back, he simply continued forward. Some monks in the temple claimed that Seven Abstinences had an evil and ungrateful personality but there were also some who believed that Seven Abstinences had already gained insight into the true essence of Buddhism.

In the world of reincarnation, every expert from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have a different identities here. Through their lives in this world, they started to comprehend the dao here using different angles and gradually gained more insights. This would undoubtedly prove to aid their cultivation immensely when they exited this world. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there were those truly supreme existences who gave up on everything to enter reincarnation, only hoping to have a second life and revised the choices they made before so they could pursue the ultimate dao. Now, these experts also had such an opportunity in this world of reincarnation. They naturally would cherish it!

Chapter 1831: Heavenly Fate Eye

After the clan Qin Wentian was in was destroyed, he roamed the world of reincarnation. He wanted to probe and see whether this world was real and to his shock, he discovered that everything here was simply too real. Everyone in here has a story of their own and this world had the precipitation of history. As for them, these outsiders, they were the only ones who appeared here without any foundation, influencing the sequence of this world's natural order.

Why was everything so wondrous? He had no way to be sure. The creator of the world of reincarnation, what sort of existence was he exactly?

When Qin Wentian thought about his family in this world being destroyed, he felt some pain in his heart. Qin Ruhai, although he had no way to truly recognise this father of his, but to the other party, Qin Wentian was undoubtedly his son. Qin Ruhai was willing to die for him. From a certain perspective, the Qin Ruhai in this world was none other than the incarnation of Qin Yuanfeng.

But now, his entire faction in the clan was destroyed. When he thought about the three experts from the Qin Clan experts in the other faction, the flames of hatred would rise in his heart.

However, the time wasn't right for revenge. His current cultivation base was too weak. He had to return to the peak. He was able to sense all kinds of law attributes in this world and because of his experience in cultivation, he was extremely sensitive to the law attributes he cultivated in the outside world. He was able to cultivate them easily.

Qin Wentian started to roam the world of reincarnation and he gradually discovered that this world wasn't as vast as he had imagined. All the peak powers reflected the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms but in this world, they were all concentrated in a region. The world of reincarnation by itself was like a region compared to one of the eight great regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

In the blink of an eye, many years and months passed in the world of reincarnation. Before a mountain, Qin Wentian sat there facing the wall in meditation. The stone walls in front of him had many dao scars that emanated the power of the great dao. Right now, Qin Wentian's aura was more transcendent than before and his eyes were immeasurably deep. Currently, his power level in this world of reincarnation has already been restored to his power level in the outside world.

Beside Qin Wentian, many people were also comprehending the dao in this area. There was a person who exudes a terrifying sharp aura. He stood on a rock and his eyes calmly stared at Qin Wentian, gleaming with sharpness.

"I heard you are proficient in the laws of time? Why are you here to contemplate over the laws of slaughter? What is the use of it. Could it be that you have cultivated other laws here?" From the side, a voice rang out. Qin Wentian didn't look at the person. He naturally knew who it was who spoke, it was someone who was the same as him and came here from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. In fact, this person was also a student of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, he was a descendent of the Sword God, Jian Chen.

The dao scars before him radiated a slaughter intent. Just a hint of that aura was seemingly capable of killing the heavens. It was a supremely terrifying one and the dao scars seemed to be looking right back at you when you look at them. For those who were not strong enough, they might even die here if they came here to cultivate.

"You have hatred in your heart. This dao scar has the laws of slaughter within it and can help you forge your slaughter path. If you want to cultivate it, I can allow you to go all the way on this path and become the king of slaughter." A voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind, spoken with a bewitching tone. It has already been many times since he heard a voice like this. Naturally, there were also many other different voices that rang out in his mind before, all of them trying to tempt him into cultivating some evil methods.

Qin Wentian ignored it. He didn't know what sort of existences these fellows that are sealed in the world of reincarnation are. However, he knew that his dao has to depend on him alone to walk it, and not allowing these existences to control him.

"Where were you born in this world?" Qin Wentian suddenly asked.

"Southsky Sword Pavilion" Jian Chen replied. Qin Wentian nodded silently, as expected, it was from a sword dao aristocrat clan, similar to Jian Chen's origins in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. It seems that there is truly a connection between the two worlds.

"I'm thinking that if this place is the legendary place, how can we exit here? Could it be that we have to defeat everyone who entered it before we can obtain the truth of why we were sent here?" Jian Chen slowly spoke. "Upon coming here, all our starting points are equal, we have to climb up from zero. The competition seems fair. In the outside world, both of us are on the Heavenly Dao Rankings but because I'm older than you, I've never contended against you. But now, since our starting points are the same, we can see who is the stronger one between us."

"There's bound to be stronger and weaker daos. How can the starting points be the same?" Qin Wentian calmly shook his head. They came to the world of reincarnation, although they had no cultivation when they started and had to climb up again, their experiences and insights stayed with them. The starting points of everyone were naturally different.

"In that case, you are dodging the battle?" Jian Chen spoke.

Qin Wentian stood up and departed. He calmly added, "Don't forget our teacher's reminder."

The heavenly deities of the sacred academy once reminded them to guard their original hearts before letting them enter the legendary place. This is why Qin Wentian's heart didn't waver despite those bewitching voices. Also there was another point, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy also hoped that the students can stop experts from the other powers from obtaining daos here. There was no point in internal conflict.

"This has nothing to do with that warning." Jian Chen spoke calmly, like he didn't notice Qin Wentian was departing. At the instant the sound of his voice faded, the wind and clouds in the area changed. The surroundings turned into a world of swords. At this moment, Qin Wentian felt sword intent gushing over and enveloping him. This sword intent was controlled by Jian Chen, this is where his heart and his dao was. This was the power of a world overlord. Although they were now in the world of reincarnation, Jian Chen could still unleash this power and control it perfectly.

"Slash!" Jian Chen roared, he remained at the position he was, merely slicing his palm out. The churning sword might transformed into a word rune and slashed out towards Qin Wentian. The power within was terrifying to the extreme, easily able to slice a person into two.

Qin Wentian frowned. In an instant, everything in his surroundings went still. All flows of power stopped. In the world of reincarnation, he still chose to cultivate the laws he was proficient in. Firstly, he would be able to return to his past cultivation realm quicker and secondly, he wanted to use the advantage of this world where he could sense the law attributes extremely clearly and see if he was able to gain more insights and break through.

Jian Chen's movements crawled to a halt. But in the next moment, a supremely powerful sword might manifested in this space, slashing the stilled time and space apart. When one's insights reached a high enough level, they could also break through the ability time stop. There was no invincible power, it was dependant on how strong the people using them are.

Jian Chen was an expert on the Heavenly Dao Rankings. He was naturally extremely powerful.

He slowly stood up and stared at Qin Wentian as a startling aura gushed forth from him. After that, with a wave of his hand, numerous lightning bolts intersected, forming countless word runes in the form of a cross as their power crackled palpably in the entire area.

Although Jian Chen's main strength was still displayed through his sword, this has already exceeded the boundaries of source origins. This was a power only achievable when heavenheart mandates were fused into innate techniques.

Qin Wentian inclined his head, casting a glance at this heaven and earth. In an instant, everything here was submerged into his eyes. In the eye-technique world, Jian Chen's might penetrated his body, exploding it. However, all of this was merely illusory. In the real world, he still stood there completely uninjured.

Upon seeing this scene, Jian Chen frowned. What sort of ability was this?

Qin Wentian has cultivated for tens of years in the sacred academy and entered the various secret realms. How could he not have gained any insights? His strength was naturally higher compared to the time when he participated in the convention.

When he was cultivating in the sacred academy, he learned an extremely tyrannical secret art from within his tiny astral-being and fused his insights of cultivation with it. At the end, he integrated everything into his world heart and managed to create a brand new technique. He named this technique as the Heavenly Fate Eye.

The Heaven Fate World heart was his root. In the area generated by his world heart, he controls everything. So, he sealed the power of his world heart into his eyes, and by doing so, he could instantly use this power to negate the attacks of his enemy, absorbing them into his eye-technique world. How terrifying was this?

"You are not up to the mark." Qin Wentian calmly spoke and cast a single glance at Jian Chen. In an instant, Jian Chen only felt himself being submerged into Qin Wentian's eye-technique world. Countless law imprints manifested there and everything was in a state of stillness. At the end, even his movements were stilled, he couldn't move at all.

"Seeing that we are students of the same sacred academy, I shall spare you this time around. I won't show mercy if there is a next time." Qin Wentian spoke. After that, his silhouette flashed as he left the area. To him, Jian Chen wasn't important. Although they were both experts on the Heavenly Dao Rankings, Qin Wentian wasn't interested in that at all and he felt no desire to defeat the other experts on it.

His target was Heaven's Son. Qin Dangtian was already a heavenly deity and was a supreme existence even among deities. Was there any meaning for Qin Wentian to be fixated on the Heavenly Dao Rankings?

And now, his goal in the world of reincarnation was to comprehend as many insights regarding the different laws as he could. After he returned to the outside world, he believed that all these insights he gained while in here, would still belong to him unless he lost his memories. But from the situation here in the world of reincarnation, that didn't seem too possible.

After Qin Wentian left, he continued to roam the world of reincarnation as though he wanted to travel to all the places in this entire world completely. If he managed to comprehend the dao of heavenly deities, would he directly be able to break through after he left here?

After returning to the main city of the world of reincarnation, Reincarnation City, Qin Wentian was drinking wine in an inn. Beside him, many people were discussing about the major things in this world. Right now, many demon-level geniuses had sprung up in the world of reincarnation, all of them cultivating with unbelievable speed. There were so many geniuses that appeared in this era, could this be the herald of a new grand era?

Many people were speaking about the various extraordinary characters. There was someone who mentioned about Yue Changkong.

"Yue Changkong, a Moon God Hall's disciple. He is simply like a reincarnated divine being and has comprehended a myriad of laws, cultivating all of them. Someone claimed that he would be able to reach the God Realm within a thousand years."

"Indeed, he is too monstrous. I wonder how he cultivates." Someone sighed. When Qin Wentian heard Yue Changkong's name, he furrowed his brows slightly. Naturally it wasn't because of jealousy. It was just that he felt this matter was strange. Given Yue Changkong's talent, how could Yue Changkong manage to comprehend a myriad of laws?

Could it be that Yue Changkong was taking a short-cut?

"If you simply depend on yourself for comprehension, you will ultimately lag behind others." A bewitching voice rang out in his mind at this moment. However, Qin Wentian ignored it as usual. No matter what was the path others chose to walk, he would still walk on his own path!

Chapter 1832: Evil Cultivator Yue Changkong

Qin Wentian was thinking that if Yue Changkong really took a short cut and cultivated the evil arts by those so-called divinities that were suppressed in this world, would he have a chance to enter the God Realm of this world? If that's the case, wouldn't that be unfair to others? If that's the case, many people would definitely choose to cultivate the evil arts. For those who could maintain their original hearts no matter the conditions, they would become the rare minority.

"This time, this Yue Changkong is organizing a gathering for the supreme experts of the various peak powers in the world. This will definitely be a grand event, I wonder how many people would show up." Someone in the inn spoke. Qin Wentian frowned and stared at the person who spoke. "When is this gathering?"

"Not long ago, the Moon God Hall released news that they are planning to hold a gathering. Given Yue Changkong's current status in the Moon God Hall, even god-level experts would respect his opinion." That person replied. Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed sharply, he naturally understood that the true people Yue Changkong wanted to gather were those from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms who entered this world of reincarnation.

This was the first time someone among them, the outsiders, issued an invitation for a gathering. Clearly, Yue Changkong was very confident. He believed that the current him was strong enough to become the main character of this world.

That year during the convention, Yue Changkong fooled everyone, using all unscrupulous methods just to enter the Ziwei Divine Court and proposed a marriage with the Donghuang Clan's Donghuang Ying. This person is extremely ambitious and has a despicable character. Although back then he was a disciple of the Sunmoon Sacred Mountain, he still felt that his status wasn't high enough and wanted to join the Ziwei Divine Court. In that case, in this world of reincarnation, he should truly be extremely confident and would even act more brazenly compared to the outside world. He actually wanted to organize a gathering.

Qin Wentian made more discreet inquiries and gradually understood that this gathering was set up by Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan. Now, for the dual-faction Qin Clan in the world of reincarnation, only a single faction of the Qin Clan remained.

"Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan, what do they want to do?" Qin Wentian silently speculated. The three experts from the Qin Clan from the other faction were actually also participating and standing together with Yue Changkong.

Given Yue Changkong and the statuses of the three Qin Clan's experts, they didn't have such rallying prowess. Among those who entered the world of reincarnation, Yue Changkong's status can only be considered mediocre. And as for the three from the Qin Clan, although they were outstanding, their radiance was overshadowed by Qin Dangtian.

After Qin Wentian left the inn, he continued to make more inquiries and he soon learned that Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan was organizing this grand event because they wanted to deal with some people.

But who were these people they wanted to deal with?

This caused Qin Wentian to feel a chill in his heart. He guessed that this matter probably had something to do with him.

The genius of the Moon God Hall Yue Changkong, the three supreme geniuses of the Qin Clan, issued invitations for a gathering of all experts. The location was in the other faction of the Qin Clan that was destroyed during the internal warfare. Today, many experts have arrived and each was standing in different locations. All of these people were from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms because for those who heard news about the gathering, they all knew that they were the true people Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan wanted to gather.

Qin Wentian was within the crowd, with a disguised appearances. The Qin Clan's experts wanted to kill him and Yue Changkong's hatred for him seeped deep in his bones. Naturally, Qin Wentian would act more low-profile.

He saw many familiar figures and there were even more people who he didn't recognize, yet he knew them from their reputations. Naturally, he also saw people like Goddess Nichang, Devilox, Luoshen Lei, etc. At this place, other than those who were from an impressive background, the other students of the sacred academy who didn't have the backing of a peak power all didn't appear.

Yue Changkong sat on the ground. His current demeanor was more extraordinary than ever and there was a mysterious layer covering his person, giving off an unfathomable feeling. Right now, he had his eyes closed in meditation.

"Today, we organized this gathering because firstly, it has been a long time since we last met. Secondly, there's another reason. Everyone should be very clear of our objectives here. In that case, there are some people who enjoy an unfair advantage and might know of things we don't. Hence, should we work together to eliminate those people first?"

The eyes of everyone flashed, how direct. Yue Changkong was undoubtedly referring to people who are students of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. The legendary place belonged to the sacred academy after all. They suspected that the students of the academy might know of some things the others don't and this was very disadvantages for them.

Everyone fell silent. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Qin Dangtian from the Qin Clan humiliated the sacred academy and there was hatred between both parties. It wasn't too good for them to participate. After all, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy can be considered a peak power of the Mystic Region. Naturally, they do also feel that it was possible for the students of the sacred academy to know some secrets which the others don't.

"Don't forget how it was possible for you guys to come in here." Luoshen Lei calmly spoke. In the world of reincarnation, she was also born in the Luoshen Aristocrat Clan and was the young miss. However in this world of reincarnation, the Luoshen Clan didn't have any relationship with the Qin Clan. After all, it was impossible for everything to be exactly the same as the real world.

"If it wasn't for all the major powers gathering together and applying pressure, do you think the sacred academy would be so kind as to let all of us enter?" Yue Changkong opened his eyes as an icy light flashed within, staring at Luoshen Lei.

"Shut up, you don't have the qualifications to talk to me." Luoshen Lei cast a look of loathing at Yue Changkong. This person was extremely despicable and malicious. Now, in the world of reincarnation, he wanted to stir up another storm of blood? Wanting everyone to deal with the students of the sacred academy?

Yue Changkong narrowed his eyes as an evil smile appeared on his face, "No qualifications?"

Today was different from the past. This world wasn't the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Since Miss Luoshen put it like that, I really wish to seek your guidance." Yue Changkong calmly spoke, his tone was cold.

"If you want to fight, I can accompany you." An extremely glacial voice drifted over from the side. The person who spoke was none other than the World Overlord Lifeless. He also entered here together with the experts of the Luoshen Clan. His responsibility naturally was to protect Luoshen Lei.

"Sure." Yue Changkong laughed sinisterly. After that, his body slowly floated forward. Despite facing the powerful hegemonic-level World Overlord Lifeless, he actually dared to accept the challenge.

"Grandpa Lifeless, you have to be careful of this man. He is extremely despicable, capable of using all underhanded methods." Luoshen Lei transmitted her voice over. Lifeless nodded his head and with a flash of his silhouette, he soared up into the air. Yue Changkong smiled and followed after him. With a glance, the light from the Ziwei Constellation flooded the area, enveloping the space between them, isolating the spectators from the combatants, blocking their vision. Everyone only felt a startling emperor's will that was unblockable.

Everyone frowned, their senses actually couldn't penetrate the region of Ziwei light, they were not able to see the battle within. Very swiftly, fearsome roars of rage rang out. The heavens and earth shuddered as deafening explosion noises thundered like the sky was going to explode. Fearsome energy waves rocked the area.

"What is going on?" The eyes of everyone gleamed sharply, wanting to see the details of the battle but they were not able to do so. A hint of worry involuntarily flashed through Luoshen Lei's eyes. After that, a pitiful scream rang out. Instantly, Luoshen Lei felt chills in her heart, "Grandpa Lifeless!"

The constellation light faded away, it was like light from the starry skies, extremely beautiful. In the air, Yue Changkong stood there exuding a sense of magnificence. He then slowly floated down. As for Lifeless, he has already disappeared completely.

This scene caused many to narrow their eyes as they stared at Yue Changkong.

This world overlord named Lifeless under the Skyorder Heavenly Deity was someone extremely famous and was an immensely powerful hegemonic-level world overlord. He was actually killed so easily by Yue Changkong? Not only that, these people also discovered a detail. Back then, there were four from the Ziwei Divine Court who entered the world of reincarnation. But now, why was only Yue Changkong here?

Yue Changkong's martial uncle and the two rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings seemed to have all vanished. Where were they?

"Now, am I qualified?" Yue Changkong laughed as he looked at Luoshen Lei. Luoshen Lei's eyes instantly reddened, she glared at Yue Changkong. How could this be. This despicable man Yue Changkong, was dominated by her elder brother earlier and was brought away by the Ziwei Divine Court. She initially thought that Yue Changkong would die for sure. However, he didn't die and actually became so powerful after entering this world of reincarnation?

Earlier during combat, Yue Changkong sealed the entire space from the senses and sight of everyone. Was he hiding something?

Could it be that Yue Changkong has cultivated an evil art?

Among the crowd, the expression of the disguised Qin Wentian turned cold. He clenched his fists tightly, Yue Changkong was actually already so powerful?

Could it be that those bewitching voices that kept speaking to him were really able to make someone so powerful through the cultivation arts they offered to teach?

"What cultivation art did you cultivate in?" At this moment, someone directly asked, not bothering about the fact that this was taboo. The person who spoke was an expert from the Great Devil Divine Palace. The devil might around him crackled fiercely and he exuded an imposing aura. He was also a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Ranking, this Gu Ting of the Great Devil Divine Palace. Undoubtedly, his strength was one of the strongest among the other rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings.

He knew that Yue Changkong was someone who fooled the world in the convention. Today, this Yue Changkong actually could kill Lifeless, a trusted aide to the Skyorder Heavenly Deity. This matter was definitely bizzarre.

"How can I casually reveal my cultivation secrets to you?" Yue Changkong calmly stared at Gu Ting, with no fear at all. The him now in the world of reincarnation, truly had the qualifications and strength to speak equally with these people. There was no need for him to lower himself and act humbly. Gu Ting, a powerful expert from the Great Devil Divine Palace used to be someone he had to look up to. But now, there was no need for him to do so.

Gu Ting's expression turn to ice, staring at Yue Changkong. He only saw Yue Changkong staring directly at him. "If you want to spar with me, I don't mind."

"Alright, don't forget our purpose here today." At this moment, a world overlord from the Qin Clan interrupted them. They were from the Qin Clan and actually looked down on Yue Changkong before this. But now, their gazes towards Yue Changkong were different.

This man even dared to challenge Gu Ting. Seems like Yue Changkong was truly extremely confident in himself.

Chapter 1833: True Natures

Gu Ting stared at the experts of the Qin Clan before turning to glance at Yue Changkong. He didn't intend to give up like this and he continued to ask, "We will discuss that matter in the future. I still have a question. Yue Changkong, where are your sect members?"

Yue Changkong narrowed his eyes, staring at Gu Ting. It felt like Gu Ting wasn't willing to leave the matter at that.

"My senior brothers and martial uncle lost their lives in a secret realm. Do I have to report this to you?" Yue Changkong coldly replied.

"Lost their lives in a secret realm?" The devil might around Gu Ting churned wildly. "I'm afraid things are not so simple, right? Everyone is very clear in your hearts why we came here. If someone abandoned his original heart and took shortcuts, influencing others, we naturally have to be clear of this. After all, I have no wish to lose my life while 'adventuring' inside a secret realm."

The Great Devil Divine Palace was also a hegemonic power in the Mystic Region, their status was equal to the Ziwei Divine Court. They can be considered as knowing some details about Yue Changkong's matter. Although this person's talent wasn't bad, and maybe if the Qingcheng Realmlord didn't appear, he might be extremely dazzling to the point where he might even become a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings, Gu Ting still didn't believe that Yue Changkong could kill Lifeless so easily after they entered the world of reincarnation.

In that case, there was only one possibility.

The eyes of many experts here gleamed with sharpness. Gu Ting's eyes had a penetrating look in them as devil intent coalesced around him. He swept his gaze towards everyone and when he saw many people remaining silent, he couldn't help but coldly continue, "For those present here today, how many of you have already betrayed your original hearts and accepted the deals with those evil existences?"

The space was silent, but those who came from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms naturally understood what Gu Ting was talking about. As for those people who originated from the world of reincarnation, they didn't understand at all. They only felt that the words of these people seemed to be covered in a layer of mystery.

Could it be the death of Yue Changkong's sect members had something to do with him?

"Betray one's original heart?" At this moment, a voice rang out. Gu Ting and the others turned their gazes over only to see that the speaker was a buddhist cultivator from the Western Paradise of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He was the junior apprentice brother of Seven Abstinences. Right now, his palms were pressed together as he spoke, "My senior brother Seven Abstinences is currently heading to the Western Paradise in this world to seek the dao. He went there with his original body, untransformed by cultivation. That, is his original heart. And now, even if all of you wish to cultivate the evil arts, what's wrong with it? That would simply be your original heart. So, why is there talk about betrayal? One's original heart would show themselves under unique circumstances."

"Reverend's opinion is wise." Gu Ting nodded. The monk's words were right. If someone really chose to cultivate those evil arts, one could only say that they made the choice willingly and that was their original heart. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, their natures might not have been revealed. But in here, their true natures have been shown.

The legendary place, this tempering exercise in the world of reincarnation, was the purpose to allow them to see themselves clearly and find their true selves?

"If one's heart is inclined to buddha, he will naturally become a buddha. If one's heart is inclined towards the devil, he will naturally become a devil. To be a buddha or a devil, it just takes a single thought." The monk slowly spoke.

"Since this is the case, what does Reverend suggest we do to deal with this?" Gu Ting asked. In the crowd, clearly it wasn't simply only Yue Changkong who has fallen so low. There should be several others hidden among the crowd, not revealing themselves. No one would be willing to expose themselves. Only Yue Changkong did so, wanting to display his newfound powers after gaining in strength.

"This is basically an unsolvable quandary. Everyone, whether would you be able to guard your original hearts or would your original hearts be invaded by evil, that would have to depend on yourselves." The reverend shook his head and sigh. The eyes of some people flashed. This was truly a difficult problem.

All of them had cultivated to the world overlord realm, whose will and state of heart wouldn't be tough? They all have their paths they wished to walk and wouldn't change that easily. Making a deal with the evil spirits that could allow them to grow stronger at the cost of losing their true self? This wasn't a dao they wanted to pursue. What if they went astray and cannot return? What should they do then?

However, if they don't cultivate and if Yue Changkong has already cultivated, wouldn't that mean that in the future when they contend against Yue Changkong, their fates would probably be like World Overlord Lifeless, dying without a whole body. Also, for Yue Changkong's sect members, there were two of them who were rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings yet they vanished like this. Everyone could faintly guess that they most probably must have already died to Yue Changkong.

This disciple of the Ziwei Divine Court who once fooled the world by faking that he was the godking of time's successor, was truly despicable to the extreme. To achieve his goals, he could do anything.

Hence, to everyone, to cultivate the evil arts or not was truly a very difficult question.

"Yue Changkong, you've cultivated the evil arts. Are you not afraid your dao heart would become unstable and you will be counter-devoured by the evil spirits instead?" Luoshen Lei's eyes were red, as she stared at Yue Changkong. During the convention, this person was already extremely despicable. She has always looked down on him. But now, this despicable character actually killed her Grandpa Lifeless. This was something she couldn't accept.

Yue Changkong continued sitting there, quietly listening to everyone. After that, an extremely icy smile appeared on his face.

How would he not have considered this? However, he knew that if he just depended on his own to cultivate, he could only endure the suppression by his martial uncle and two senior brothers. In the Ziwei Divine Court, he was living a life of shame and humiliation. When he first came here, he was forced to become a beggar. At that time when the bewitching voices rang out in his mind, he didn't hesitate to accept and cultivate an evil art. For the sake of strength, for the sake of changing everything, even if he embarked on a path of no redemption, he didn't give a damn. He was no longer the past Yue Changkong. He wanted to be lofty and high up just like before. Luoshen Lei looked down on him and viewed him with disdain? What about now? Most probably, she regretted that, right?

"For matters of cultivation, that would depend on the individual's choice. Let's not mention it again. Today, our topic would still be how should we deal with that group of people." From the Chaos Region, an expert from a peak power spoke. His aura was transcendent and his voice was calm, causing many to cast a deep glance at him.

Gu Ting's eyes turned cold. He also knew that it was impossible to continue and pursue this matter. Among the people here, Yue Changkong definitely wasn't the only one who chose to cultivate the evil arts.

"I've captured a person there and despite my questions, he didn't reply. Hence, I killed him." Yue Changkong calmly spoke as though he was speaking of an insignificant matter. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with killing intent. Yue Changkong actually brazenly kidnapped and killed students of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy?

"To make things clear first, this matter has nothing to do with me." Devilox directly spoke. He didn't want to be targeted.

"You basically cannot be considered part of this. With your status, it's possible that you know nothing. This is very normal." Someone faintly remarked. Devilox was a supreme character from the Divine Ox Clan of the Desolate Region. Hence, even if the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy knew the secret of the world of reincarnation, they wouldn't reveal it to him.

Naturally, since Devilox has expressed his stance, if they could choose not to offend him, they naturally wouldn't do so.

"Today, the purpose of the gathering is to mainly discuss about this. Next, we should use all methods we can to find the rest of the students from the sacred academy. What do you all think?" An expert from the Qin Clan spoke. As he spoke, his gaze unconsciously drifted towards Goddess Nichang. She was so beautiful, stunningly beautiful, causing him to be unable to be calm. He wanted nothing more than to press her down beneath him at this instant.

Also for that young miss of the Luoshen Clan, she was also extremely beautiful. Although her beauty was inferior to Goddess Nichang, Luoshen Lei can also be considered a rare peak-level beauty whose appearance would cause the moon to shy away and the flowers to feel shame. If he could obtain them both, how beautiful would things be? In addition, in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the Luoshen Clan and Qin Clan had a grudge between them.

When he thought of this, lust built in his heart and a mysterious energy began to circulate in his body.

"I naturally agree." Yue Changkong took the lead to express his stance. In the world of reincarnation, the person he wanted to meet with most was naturally none other than the Qingcheng Realmlord, a disciple of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. All the sufferings he had endured was brought to him by Qin Wentian. He wanted to repay Qin Wentian back with added interest.

"If anyone receives any inside news about this, don't forget to share it with the rest of us." A genius from a supremely strong power from the Heaven Region spoke. The people here all had different schemes. If those core students of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy really knew about the secret of this world, after they forced out the truth, it would undoubtedly be extremely beneficial to their cultivation.

"That's only natural." Yue Changkong calmly spoke. However, this was clearly feigning civility. If someone learned of the secret of this world, who would be willing to reveal it to the others?

"At our gathering today, I initially wanted to invite everyone to have a spar to test our strengths. But now, I think everyone is no longer keen on that. Let's talk again in the future then." Yue Changkong continued. Right now, the hearts of everyone were filled with wariness. Even Yue Changkong's martial uncle and senior brothers were killed. Anyone here could be an evil cultivator.

"Since this is the case, does everyone want to go and enjoy a banquet in the Qin Clan?" An expert from the Qin Clan spoke.

"No need." Gu Ting calmly spoke. After that, he turned and left directly, "Farewell."

After that, the group of experts from the Great Devil Divine Palace directly left.

They have been in this world for many years and everyone was clear of the situation here. Now that everyone has met with each other, it was already enough. There was no need to put on pretense and share a banquet together.

The various experts left one after the other. One of the Qin Clan's experts walked towards Goddess Nichang and spoke, "Fairy Nichang, why don't you come back with me to the Qin Clan for a meal?"

"No need." Goddess Nichang calmly spoke.

"Uncle Qu would often stay in the Qin Clan's manor as a guest. I treat Fairy Nichang as my kin, why is there a need to act so restrained?" That Qin Clan's expert smiled. Qu Nichang coldly glanced at the person. If this was in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the world overlords of the Qin Clan definitely wouldn't dare to speak with her in this manner because of Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian's existence. But in this place, these people of the Qin Clan seemed to be much bolder.

In addition, there was an invasive expression in the eyes of this person, burning with a fiery heat as though he had succumbed to evil.

Goddess Nichang faintly guessed at something. She merely cast another glance coldly at him and directly turned to leave.

Upon seeing this, the world overlords of the Qin Clan coldly smiled as lust flashed in their eyes. It was like their natures have been completely revealed in this world. This was then their true natures.

Chapter 1834: The Gods make mad those whom they want to destroy

Qin Wentian was in the crowd, observing everything that happened. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy allowed everyone to enter the legendary place but these people didn't know gratitude, they even wanted to abduct the students of the sacred academy and force out the secrets of this world of reincarnation from them.

But in truth, Qin Wentian knew that the heavenly deities of the sacred academy only warned them to guard their original hearts. Even the deities have no idea about the secrets of this world of reincarnation.

Staring at Yue Changkong, Qin Wentian felt an intense desire to kill in his heart. Sadly, in the world of reincarnation, it seemed that he wouldn't be able to kill Yue Changkong. Yue Changkong cultivated an evil art, allowing his strength to rapidly transform. Even an immensely powerful world overlord like Lifeless was easily killed by him.

Also there were those three from the Qin Clan. If Qin Wentian wanted revenge, it seemed that he still had to wait, wait until he became stronger.

His gaze slowly turned around, staring in the direction of Luoshen Lei. Seeing the redness in her eyes, he felt somewhat unbearable in his heart. The death of Lifeless was connected to her, most probably, Lei`er's heart would surely be in extreme agony, right?

However, he didn't went over to disturb her. After hearing the words spoken by Gu Ting and the Reverend, his thinking towards the world of reincarnation has changed. Maybe in this world, everyone would have to face their own situation and from there, understand the truth about themselves. He can only hope that Lei`er would be able to get through this and allow her will to grow stronger.

Of the Luoshen Clan, other than Lifeless, there were still four other experts. These were all supreme world overlords from the Luoshen Clan. In addition, every one of them were of the direct line of descent and were core characters. They were all surnamed Luoshen.

"Lei, let's return. In the future, we will still have a chance to seek revenge." Luoshen Feng has a very good relationship with Luoshen Lei. He was an elder cousin of hers and just sent a voice transmission to console her.

Luoshen Lei clenched her fists tightly, she bit her lips when she thought of how her Grandpa Lifeless died. After that, she turned and walked away.

"In the future if there's a chance to, I will pay a visit to the Luoshen Clan." Yue Changkong calmly spoke when he saw Luoshen Lei's group departing. His tone was filled with a provocative hint. Since Qin Wentian was hiding and refused to come out, Yue Changkong decided he would first deal with the Luoshen Clan. After all back then in the convention, Luoshen Lei did participate in this as well. All of them have to pay a price.

The four experts from the Luoshen Clan left. Luoshen Lei and Luoshen Feng walked together while the other two walked together. One of them coldly stared at Luoshen Lei. "Now, you've caused World Overlord Lifeless to die. Are you happy now?"

"When mocking others to be unqualified, can you first estimate your own strength? Now, we have a very powerful enemy because of your actions." The other person spoke, his tone was extremely unfriendly.

Clearly, their relationship with Luoshen Lei wasn't that great.

Luoshen Lei's gaze turned icy, staring at the two who spoke. It was true that their relationship wasn't that good. Just like what she once said to Qin Wentian, the Luoshen Clan now was not very united. Her grandfather didn't have complete authority any longer. This was especially so after her father was crippled. Many things were changing. Luoshen Feng's elder was very close with her faction but as for the other two, their elders were those who wanted to seize the authority to lead the Luoshen Clan.

"What sort of character is Yue Changkong? I believe you all should also know about it. It's true that he originally had no qualifications to speak to us of the Luoshen Clan. It's just that in this world, he gave in and cultivated an evil art, rapidly gaining in strength and killing Lifeless. Right now, the two of you actually want to blame Lei? What logic is this?" Luoshen Feng coldly spoke.

"The fruits of one's own karma. Did we say anything wrong?" A person coldly replied. "It is because of Luoshen Lei that Lifeless died. This is a fact. Now that you have created this trouble, settle it yourself in the future."

"Ridiculous. We are from the Luoshen Clan, yet you guys are actually so fearful and felt threatened by Yue Changkong." Luoshen Feng coldly spoke.

"This is not fear. But to us, this is just unnecessary trouble. Since you guys love to stir up trouble, handle it yourself." The two of them hastened their speed and walked away, leaving behind Luoshen Feng who had an expression of anger, as well as Luoshen Lei who had an icy look on her face.

"Lei, ignore them. Yue Changkong's character is evil by nature. Even if you didn't speak, he would still have found an excuse to act against you. Grandpa Lifeless would also give his life to protect you, the ending would be the same. What you have to do now is to grow stronger and take good care of yourself. Only then would we be able to face up to the fact that Grandpa Lifeless sacrificed his life." Luoshen Feng was much older than Luoshen Lei, and has always treated her as a younger sister.

"There's no need to persuade me. Grandpa Lifeless did die because of me." Luoshen Lei's voice was cold, filled with agony. She would remember this and engrave it deep in her heart.

After this gathering, Yue Changkong and the three experts of the Qin Clan seemed to be very close to each other and were in cahoots. Under their influence, the Moon God Hall and Qin Clan of this world decided to ally together.

After a period of calmness, another wave of commotion finally manifested. This time, this incident happened within the Qin Clan.

Qu Shen and his daughter Goddess Nichang, when they were staying at the Qin Clan as guests, Goddess Nichang heavily injured a genius world overlord of the Qin Clan. This matter caused the Qin Clan to be completely enraged, wanting to capture Goddess Nichang. However, how could Qu Shen agree? He instantly fell out with the Qin Clan as a terrifying god-level battle ensued. Qu Shen died in the battle but before his death, he managed to send Nichang out. From then on, Goddess Nichang became somebody on the Qin Clan's wanted list.

Naturally, the upper echelons of the Qin Clan stated that Nichang had to be captured alive, not dead.

This matter caused a major commotion in the world of reincarnation and those experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms all felt that this was extremely strange. In the real world, the Qin Clan and Qu Clan had a very good relationship. Goddess Nichang had even went with Heaven's Son to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to pay a visit. Clearly, their connection was extraordinary. Why would Goddess Nichang heavily injure someone from the Qin Clan?

There were many questionable points about this worth pondering.

The experts from the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region, did something happen between them and Goddess Nichang?

In the Qin Clan of the world of reincarnation, many people didn't know about this. The three world overlords from the Qin Clan was extremely lascivious in this world. There would frequently be beauties being sent to them and the beauties would all need to possess high talent and good looks. After these beauties were sent to the Qin Clan, all their fates became unknown. Naturally, there was also no one who could interfere in the matters of the Qin Clan.

The people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were thinking that the number one beauty of the Heaven Region Goddess Nichang had actually become a fugitive here in the world of reincarnation? If Heaven's Son in the outside world knew about this, what would happen?

After the Reverend from before heard about this, he could only sigh. The Gods make mad those whom they want to destroy.

The commotion of this incident has yet to be concluded and another major event happened in the world of reincarnation. The Qin Clan sent a marriage proposal to the Luoshen Clan in this world, wanting Luoshen Lei to be married into the Qin Clan. The Luoshen Clan naturally refused. The Qin Clan felt a loss of face and banded together with the Moon God Hall to apply pressure to the Luoshen Clan, causing a storm to brew

In the world of reincarnation, regardless of Yue Changkong or the three world overlords from the Qin Clan, they all had extremely high authorities in their respective powers now and could influence the upper echelons. Such authority came from their intense desire and ambitions.

The Luoshen Clan endured the heavy pressure. At this moment, the other two supreme world overlords from the Luoshen Clan felt that they should hand Luoshen Lei over. There was no problem for her to marry into the Qin Clan as both their statuses were compatible.

Under the pressure from outside and suggestions from the inside, the upper echelons wavered. Luoshen Lei was pushed up a path not of her own choosing.

But at this moment, Luoshen Lei vanished, she left the Luoshen Clan. After the death of Grandpa Lifeless, she encountered the betrayal of her own clan members who were forcing her to be married. The Luoshen Clan searched everywhere for her and finally, after quite a few years later, the two supreme world overlords from the Luoshen Clan found Luoshen Lei on a desolate mountain range.

"You have been hiding for so long, so it turned out that you have been hiding here in the Demon Beast Mountain Range." The two of them stared at Luoshen Lei. Right now, Luoshen Lei sat in a cross-legged posture and was dressed in black. Her expression was ice-cold, but did nothing to mar her breathtaking beauty. Despite her transcendent beauty, there was a coldness that could be felt from her aura that would cause chills in the hearts of people.

"Back then, didn't your aunt also want to marry someone from the Qin Clan? That led to misfortune for our Luoshen Clan and your father's cultivation was also crippled because of that. Now, you will be following in your aunt's footsteps in the world of reincarnation. Isn't that good?" One of the world overlords mocked, bringing up past matters.

"Luoshen Lei, you are not a match for us. Since we are from the same clan, we don't wish to act. Just follow us back obediently." Another person spoke.

"Our Luoshen Clan is now in a very precarious state, amidst the heavy rain and wind yet you guys actually wish to seize power and authority, exacerbating internal warfare. Since that's the case, Luoshen Lei can only be unfilial and cause our Luoshen Clan to sustain losses. Even if this is a path with no reprieve, leading to condemnation, I will bear this on my own." Luoshen Lei coldly spoke. Her eyes opened, and in an instant, a terrifying aura enveloped the entire space here. An ocean of blood manifested around her and the her now was so demonically beautiful that it struck fear in the hearts of the two world overlords.

This entire world became a world of blood.

The expressions of the two changed. They stared at Luoshen Lei as fear filled their faces.

"You actually cultivated in an evil art!"

"Luoshen Lei, have you gone mad? This method will definitely lead to a counter-devour. You actually followed Yue Changkong's example? Even if you manage to escape the fate of marrying into the Qin Clan, so what? After becoming a heretic devil, even if we exit this place, do you even have the face to return to the Luoshen Clan?"

"I said it earlier. Even if this path leads to one of eternal damnation, I will endure it on my own." Luoshen Lei's expression was icy to the extreme. In the bloody world, countless blood devils appeared, formed from the power of a curse, as they rushed towards the two world overlords, wanting to devour them.

These blood devils were transformed from demonic beasts. During these years Luoshen Lei spent in the Demon Beast Mountain Range, what had she experienced?

The two of them could feel the terrifying energies contained within the bloody devils. They felt boundless terror and regret for forcing Luoshen Lei up this path!

Chapter 1835: Sinking Deeper and Deeper

The two genius world overlords of the Luoshen Clan vanished. It was rumored that they disappeared when they tried to capture Luoshen Lei. Now, Luoshen Lei's location was still a mystery. The matter about the marriage proposal could only come to an end. However, this news still created quite a huge commotion. How could two supreme world overlords disappear for no reason? Clearly, they must have lost their lives.

Although Luoshen Lei has also entered the world of reincarnation, in truth, her cultivation base was one of the weakest. Back in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there was no way she could kill the two other supreme world overlords from the Luoshen Clan. It should be the same here as well unless some transformations happened to her.

For those who were from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, they all paid close attention to the experts from the other powers. Right now, they were already completely familiarized with this world of reincarnation. No commotion could escape their eyes and ears.

Luoshen Lei vanished, Goddess Nichang also vanished. Also, the students of the sacred academy didn't dare to show themselves, as though they were aware that the others from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are hunting them.

Everyone was leading their lives respectively in the world of reincarnation. Their backgrounds might be similar to that of the real world but the trajectory of their lives might be completely different.

Time unconsciously flowed, in the blink of an eye, tens of years passed by again in the world of reincarnation. Everything felt like a dream, for those experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, they seemed to have completely replaced various characters in the world of reincarnation. The experiences of several tens of years was sufficient to cause the character of a person to change due to the environment. Now, many people felt that this world of reincarnation seemed to be the real world instead.

However, the amount of time that passed wasn't a lot for the outside world. In the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, the experts from the various powers were still there. Those heavenly deities have not left yet and were waiting for news from the people they sent into the legendary place. However, everyone seemed to have lost contact, even messaging crystals were useless. When they sent their messages through the crystals, no one replied to them at all. If it wasn't for the fact that they knew those people have entered the legendary place, everyone would surely believe that those people have died.

The world of reincarnation was actually so powerful that it could even isolate messages from the outside world.

"What sort of location is the legendary place exactly?" At this moment, Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian had a sharp look in his eyes as he stared at the Lifegovern Heavenly Deity of the sacred academy.

"I've already said it before. We have never entered the legendary place, why must you keep asking? If you want to enter, I won't stop you." The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity maintained his previous attitude and spoke coldly. Qin Dangtian's countenance turned sharp, staring at him. That day, he initially wanted to enter. However, the entrance of the legendary place was permeated with a dao-destroying might, wanting to wipe his dao away. This was something the prideful him could not accept. Who dared to steal his cultivation away? Even if he knew it was illusory, he would not permit this to happen.

The various heavenly deities could only wait here, they also had no idea what their disciples and members were experiencing. However, even they who were deities, had no way to imagine what the others who went into the world of reincarnation were experiencing.

For example, Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, he definitely wouldn't want to see someone from the Qin Clan having designs on Goddess Nichang let alone acting against her.

The heavenly deity of the Luoshen Clan also had no way to imagine what the geniuses of the Luoshen Clan were experiencing inside there.

...

In the world of reincarnation, today in the Moon God Hall, Yue Changkong invited the three geniuses of the Qin Clan over. Between them, they had already formed an alliance and they even knew what evil arts each of them had cultivated. Hence, they decided to ally together.

"During these years, the world of reincarnation seems to be pretty calm, does anyone have any opinions? Have you all found Goddess Nichang?" Yue Changkong smiled, staring at the three people from the Qin Clan. These three even dared to covet the Heaven's Son's woman, how audacious. Most probably in the Qin Clan, although they were very respectful to Qin Dangtian on the surface, they long wanted to rebel in their hearts. Nobody would want to live under the radiance of another forever.

With Qin Dangtian there, the people of the world would only think of Heaven's Son when they spoke about the Qin Clan. It would never be their turn.

With Qin Dangtian around, nobody could doubt his authority in the Qin Clan and everyone would obey. They were the same as well. Qin Dangtian could casually berate them or do anything he wanted to them and no one would bat an eye. In truth, Qin Dangtian was already a heavenly deity and by right, there is nothing wrong in them listening to the commands of a heavenly deity, it was something very normal. However, Qin Dangtian wasn't born a deity. In fact, when the three of them were famous, Qin Dangtian wasn't even born yet.

When Qin Dangtian was very young, he was already extremely domineering in the Qin Clan and no one dared to antagonize him. He had nothing in his eyes, only feeling disregard for them. He even once pointed to their faces and told everyone in the Qin Clan that they would all be defeated by him in the future. Years later, Qin Dangtian's words did come true. He simply surpassed them by too much.

"No." An expert from the Qin Clan had a cold look on his face as he replied, his tone filled with unhappiness. When they thought about Goddess Nichang's beauty, their hearts would be filled with a flaming desire. That was a woman even Qin Dangtian has not touched before. If they could have her… everytime they thought about this, a spark of joy would appear in their hearts.

As for the consequences, they no longer thought about it. Or more accurately, they weren't even aware because their hearts have already sank into mara, corrupted by the evil spirits. Just like what the reverend from before has spoken, the gods would make mad those who they wanted to destroy.

"Haha, in this world of reincarnation, there are plenty of outstanding beauties, all of you can enjoy yourselves to the fullest. Sadly, that year ago, Luoshen Lei managed to escape. If not…" Yue Changkong laughed when he spoke of this. A fiery heat appeared in the eyes of the Qin Clan's experts.

"We came here today because we wish to discuss about a matter with Brother Changkong." One of them spoke. Yue Changkong's eyes flashed, staring at the other party. "Brother Qin, please feel free to speak."

"For those who entered the world of reincarnation this time around, the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace is among them." The eyes of the Qin Clan's expert gleamed sharply. This caused a bright light to flash in Yue Changkong's eyes before he laughed uproariously.

Nine Heavens Mystic Palace, a peak power in the Heaven Region, the palace lordess of each generation had the title of 'Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden' and was known as the number one beauty in all of the nine heavens. Right now, these people from the Qin Clan actually had designs on the palace lordess? Truly audacious indeed.

However, it's true that it didn't matter if they have one more enemy. They even dared to act against Goddess Nichang. Why would they not dare to act against the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden?

"Brother Qin, have you thought it over? If we join hands and act against these people from the peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the others would surely notice this. They have been keeping close tabs on us." Yue Changkong wasn't stupid. The people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were all very wary of each other. This was extremely so because no one knew who had cultivated the evil arts in the world of reincarnation. Hence, no one dared to belittle their opponents.

During these years, Yue Changkong did many things. Many experts became nutrients for him, but he still didn't dare to feel that he would definitely be the number one expert among those who came from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Unless he was the first to break through to the God Realm, or he wouldn't feel enough confidence. After all, some of these people had far deeper foundations and had hidden in the shadows even more deeply than him.

"Brother Changkong should also understand that everyone else from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are all our opponents. If we don't act against them, there would be others acting against us sooner or later." An expert from the Qin Clan spoke. This world of reincarnation was the legendary place of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Even now, they still couldn't solve the riddle that was this world of reincarnation. In that case, maybe they had to defeat everyone else before they could find the truth.

"We can find more people to join our alliance." Another expert from the Qin Clan spoke. This caused Yue Changkong's eyes to flash, this was a good idea. They should gather more people and pool their strengths to deal with others.

"Brother Qin, who do you want to look for to become our alliance's partner?" Yue Changkong asked. "The Qiankun Sect? Che Clan? Five Elements Sect? Or Thunder Clan?"

These powers mentioned by him were all peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The Qiankun Sect was like the Qin Clan, located in the Heaven Region and their sect leader was known as the Universe King.

Che Clan, Five Elements Sect and Thunder Clan. All these were peak powers within the eight great regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

The Che Clan was known as the number one artificer clan in the whole of Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

The Five Elements Sect control the five elements of heavens and earth and evolved each to the extreme, possessing boundless power.

The Thunder Clan can control the thunder punishment laws of the heavens and have unfathomably tyrannical attacking methods.

"We have to consider this carefully." An expert from the Qin Clan spoke. Yue Changkong nodded. "Right, we can't be impulsive. We have to plan for all possibilities."

The few of them continued to discuss while their hearts continued to sink into mara. In truth, Yue Changkong also already discovered that he was deep in the clutches of the evil spirits now. However, he didn't give a damn. He wanted to be powerful, he was willing to pay the price no matter how heavy it is.

...……

As for Qin Wentian, he just arrived at a desolate mountain range.

During these years, he had been busy cultivating. Other than cultivating, he was also searching for Luoshen Lei's location. After knowing about the marriage proposal from the Qin Clan as well as the news that Luoshen Lei went missing, Qin Wentian has been extremely worried. This was especially so after it was rumored that Luoshen Lei might have killed the two powerful world overlords from the Luoshen Clan. The worry in his heart grew even stronger after he heard that. Hence, other than cultivating, he used all his spare time to search for her.

Right now, he already found some faint clues. The mountain range he was on now, had traces of Luoshen Lei's existence.

The him right now stood on a mountain peak. Peering below, he could see an ocean of blood dying the place below him red. What a shocking sight. Qin Wentian's heart started to tremble.

"Lei`er." Qin Wentian mumbled. "Where are you now exactly? What have you experienced? Why did you choose this path?"

He understood that Luoshen Lei has most probably embarked on a path similar to Yue Changkong's.

"Do you still not understand?" In his mind, a bewitching sound rang out. "In the world of reincarnation, everyone of you would ultimately turn to this path because there's no choice at all. If not, just based on your own insights and comprehension, your cultivation speed is fated to be slower than those people forever. Now, there's still time if you cultivate my art. If it's any later, you would truly be on a path of no redemption."

"Scram!" Qin Wentian roared in anger, his expression was like ice. Every time his state of heart fluctuated, an evil spirit would appear and try to bewitch him. Right now, he loathed them more and more. Most probably, it was these evil spirits that bewitched Lei`er, causing her to set foot on this forbidden path!

Chapter 1836: Lin Xiao and the Mystical Maiden

In the world of reincarnation, all the experts focused on their cultivation. Many years passed by, in fact, everyone had no idea what level the others reached. But those from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms all had very good talent in cultivation, this was the reason why they were sent to the world of reincarnation. Undoubtedly, their growth would surely be extremely frightening.

Finally, a battle broke the stillness of the situation.

In an ancient city of the world of reincarnation, Yue Changkong and the world overlords of the Qin Clan, made a move against the Mystical Maiden from the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace. It was rumored that Goddess Nichang also appeared there. Other than that, the Qin Clan and Yue Changkong, also joined forces with a supreme character. This supreme character was from the Prison God Clan, it was a peak power from the Eternity Region.

Both the Mystical Maiden and Goddess Nichang were captured. But luckily, experts from the Qiankun Sect were there, including their supreme character Lin Xiao. Lin Xiao was interested in the Mystical Maiden of this generation and naturally would act to help her. A shocking battle erupted between both sides and Yue Changkong's group actually failed to achieve their aim. This news instantly attracted the attention of everyone in the world of reincarnation who came from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

At this moment, experts from all locations were all rushing towards that ancient city.

After that, the various experts from all locations started to rush towards that ancient city.

Yue Changkong and the experts from the Qin Clan were so brazen now? Even daring to act against the Mystical Maiden from the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace? What did they want to do exactly?

For someone to be the Mystical Maiden of this generation, it naturally meant that she would be the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace's future successor. Has Yue Changkong gone crazy or was it the Qin Clan's experts who had gone crazy?

This battle caused a chain reaction. The powers they were from started to pay attention but seemed to be in silent agreement not to interfere, allowing these elites of their respective clans and sects to fight between themselves.

Very soon, news circulated that someone saw Luoshen Lei. Her entire person had changed and she was currently heading towards that ancient city. Many people said that she was going there for revenge, her target was none other than Yue Changkong.

When Qin Wentian heard of Luoshen Lei's plans, he didn't hesitate and also made his way towards the ancient city. He definitely didn't want anything to happen to Luoshen Lei. Although right now Luoshen Lei might have transformed, her original cultivation base was already not a match for Yue Changkong back then. Also, the period of time where Yue Changkong has cultivated the evil art for was also longer than her, he was underhanded and a despicable character. Qin Wentian feared that Lei`er would still be defeated if she fought against Yue Changkong.

For a period of time, countless experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were heading to that ancient city in the world of reincarnation.

Previously, the invitation was sent out by Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan's members and the purpose was for them to discuss how to deal with the students of the sacred academy. However this time around, everyone took the initiative to head there because of the dispute that rose from the actions of Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan's members. Also, this time would surely not be as calm as last time. For these peak characters from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms who have cultivated for many years here, they probably wouldn't be as patient now. They have already been in the world of reincarnation for many years yet have not discovered the secret of this world yet. What should they do before they could be considered as having attained the dao?

In a courtyard of the ancient city, several beauties were sitting together. One of them was extremely magnificent with skin as fair as snow and a breathtaking appearance that could be comparable to Goddess Nichang.

Goddess Nichang was proclaimed to be the number one beauty of the Heaven Region but in reality, many people felt that there was another person who also qualified for this title. This person was none other than the Mystical Maiden from the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace, she was known as the most beautiful woman under the nine heavens, there was no need to doubt how transcendent her beauty is. Also, as the future successor of the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace, could her beauty be inferior?

At this moment, not far away from the Mystical Maiden of the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace, a young man sat there. He was incomparably handsome and exuded a heroic aura, along with a transcendent demeanor.

His name was Lin Xiao, a supreme character from the Qiankun Sect and was groomed as the Qiankun Sect's future successor. With regards to the ultimate technique of the sect - the Universal Art, Lin Xiao was extremely proficient and his comprehensions have reached a stage where he could form a universe diagram to borrow the strength of the universe to forge a supreme law body, dominating the laws of the heavens and earth.

Lin Xiao and the Mystical Maiden stood together. They were like Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang back then, appearing extremely suitable to be together like a celestial couple born from the heavens. However, if Lin Xiao wanted to marry her, it was a highly impossible task. How could the number one beauty of the nine heavens be married off?

But if there was no challenge involved, there was no meaning in it to Lin Xiao. For common beauties, he could get as many as he wanted. The only reason for this was because he is Lin Xiao.

"Right now, many have arrived." Lin Xiao spoke. The Mystical Maiden nodded. Her expression was calm and on her beautiful face, it seemed that it was impossible for there ever to be any fluctuations to her expression. This was true even when she encountered the ambush of the Qin Clan and Yue Changkong.

"Yue Changkong and the three Qin Clan's overlords are merely little clowns. I will take their lives." Lin Xiao spoke.

"Have you thought this through clearly? You would dare to kill the Qin Clan's members?" The Mystical Maiden glanced at Lin Xiao. Although her expression still remained calm, a light flashed in her eyes.

The Qin Clan, Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystic Palace could control the wind and clouds in the Heaven Region and stood at the peak. Right now, the Qin Clan was in a flourishing period. With Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, he would be the future leader of the Qin Clan. All other geniuses from the Heaven Region would lose their luster when compared to him.

"The few world overlords from the Qin Clan wouldn't be able to amount to anything great. With Qin Dangtian present, they would never have a chance to rise up. Hence, this must be the reason why they chose the evil path. Since they dared to act against you, so what even if I killed them?" Lin Xiao calmly replied.

"If Qin Dangtian knows that you killed members of his Qin Clan, he would surely not be willing to take things lying down."

"In the future if I can verify my dao and ascend to become a heavenly deity, I would have a fight with Qin Dangtian sooner or later." Lin Xiao was as calm as ever, as though he was speaking of an extremely ordinary thing. For the three world overlords of the Qin Clan in the world of reincarnation, he didn't give a damn about them. His target was that legendary supreme character of the Qin Clan, Heaven's Son.

"The people of the world spoke of a rumor saying that once the legendary place is opened, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would undergo a great transformation. Who do you feel the future Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would belong to?" The Mystical Maiden asked.

"Me." Lin Xiao laughed. He then continued, "Other than me, the other possibilities are the Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, Seven Abstinences from the Pureland of Bliss. Those reverends from the buddhist sects are all unfathomably powerful. Naturally, those supreme characters from the Che Clan, God Destroying Palace, Prison God Clan are not bad as well. Naturally, you are also in the list as well."

"The rankers on the Heavenly Dao Rankings from the Ziwei Divine Court were killed by someone like Yue Changkong. What else can be said about this? Although those rankers have potential to become heavenly deities, your question is to whom would the future Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms belonged to. Even if they can become ordinary heavenly deities, they are definitely not powerful enough. However, Gu Ting from the Great Devil Divine Palace can be considered a supreme character at the peak as well."

"During the Convention of the Myriad Realms, the Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian rose to fame in a single battle and was accepted as a student by the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. It's even rumored that he gained the recognition of a godking, leading to him directly becoming a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings. What about him?" The Mystical Maiden was evaluating all the powerful characters in the world.

"I don't have a good understanding of him." Lin Xiao laughed. Qin Wentian was just recently famous and the only major fight he was a part of, was that fight during the Convention. Hence, Lin Xiao didn't really understand Qin Wentian's strength and since he didn't understand, he wouldn't give an evaluation.

"Seems like you are filled with disdain towards Yue Changkong." The Mystical Maiden spoke.

"Someone who fooled the world in order to climb up, he doesn't mind being unscrupulous and underhanded. Tell me, should I regard such a person highly?" Lin Xiao spoke.

"But isn't it dangerous precisely because he's despicable enough to do anything? Don't forget that in the battle earlier, even when facing against you, he wasn't any weaker at all." The Mystical Maiden stared at Lin Xiao, disagreeing with his opinion. "For villains and those existences capable of great evil, their temperaments are extremely resolute. They can toss aside everything, abandoning their conscience, betraying their souls, and doing everything that is needed for them to advance without regards for others. These people are the most terrifying existences in the world, you have to be wary of them."

"Your words are logical." Lin Xiao nodded calmly but even so, he still despised Yue Changkong in his heart.

"Speaking of that supreme character from the God Destroying Palace, I have to remind you to be careful about him. He should also have arrived. The danger of this man definitely isn't below that of Yue Changkong." The Mystical Maiden continued, seemingly filled with trepidation about a person. That fellow from the God Destroying Palace is absolutely a character that would cause others to have a headache. No matter who was against that fellow, they had to be extremely wary about him.

"Understood." Lin Xiao nodded. This time around, the people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms decided to gather and meet with each other once more. Most probably, the ending wouldn't be as peaceful as the past, right?

For that time tens of years ago, everyone was merely testing the waters and there were even some who didn't arrive. There were also people who didn't express their stances from the beginning until the end. They merely watched everything quietly and simply left after that.

...

Just like the Mystical Maiden and Lin Xiao's discussion, the experts from the various regions have all arrived.

At this moment, that supreme existence from the God Destroying Hall was currently standing on top of an ancient hall in the ancient city. Under the moonlight, he stared at this entire city below him. His gaze was very cold, a coldness that came from his soul.

Other than him, experts from the Che Clan also arrived. That existence from the Che Clan which was listed by Lin Xiao into the list of peak characters, was currently roaming around the ancient city, as though he was busy with something, engraving hidden symbols. However, no one knew about this.

Outside the city. Many monks from the Pureland of Bliss also arrived. Their palms pressed together as they bowed. This ancient city would soon encounter a calamity. Their senior apprentice brother Seven Abstinences went to the Western Paradise of this world to seek the buddha dao and there was no updates from him. Even before he returned, a storm had already manifested.

In a small courtyard inside the city, a figure robed in black sat cross-legged. Her skin was extremely fair, like she was an absolute ghost beauty. Her entire person seemed to meld together with the darkness. This time around, she came for revenge. Yue Changkong will definitely pay a price for his deeds.

In the courtyard of another inn, a young man stood with his hands behind his back, staring up at the night sky while sighing in his heart. Lei`er should have also arrived, but where was she?

Chapter 1837: Battle Intent

Today in the ancient city, white clouds drifted across the sky. There was also a gentle breeze, causing everyone to feel a refreshing sensation.

In the central area of the ancient city, there was an empty and spacious platform. The surface was very clean, completely dust-free. A group of figures was currently having a banquet there, many were seated, enjoying their wine and chatting leisurely. These people at the banquet all had extraordinary auras. The men were handsome and there were many beautiful women here as well. Not only for them, there were also many people in the distance, glancing in their direction as they discussed something.

These people who were attending the banquet were naturally none other than the geniuses from the peak powers in the world of reincarnation. Among them are Yue Changkong from the Moon God Palace, as well as the three experts from the Qin Clan. It was said that their cultivation level was already nearing the God Realm and was extremely unfathomable.

Other than Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan's experts, an expert from a third peak power of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could also be seen. This was a supreme character from the Prison God Clan of the Eternity Region.

This supreme character from the Prison God Clan decided to ally with Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan, wanting to act together to deal with the Mystical Maiden.

Right now, they were enjoying their wine and they acted like they were waiting for something. This was because they knew that the various experts have already arrived in the ancient city and were probably not far from here.

"Since everyone is here, why don't we make a toast?" Yue Changkong spoke. It was unknown who he was speaking to. Among the crowd, a few rows of figures suddenly stepped out. They were all from different factions. There were experts from the Great Devil Divine Palace as well as the Thunder Clan.

"Everyone, what a beautiful day this is." A world overlord from the Thunder Clan spoke, his voice booming out like thunder. Just a casual sentence from him caused this entire space and the eardrums of people to tremble.

"I heard that the Thunder Clan of the Earth Region are in control of the power of divine punishment. You are able to guide the power of lightning and thunder, causing them to descend on others. Previously, we weren't able to converse much at the last meet up. Today, we naturally have to drink more toasts with each other." Yue Changkong smiled. The experts from the Thunder Clan sat down, not polite at all. Their leader glanced at Yue Changkong, "Is that so? But what happens after we drank our fill? I heard that you guys joined forces to act against the Mystical Maiden. What do you all mean by your actions?"

Since these people could ally together to deal with the Mystical Maiden, it also meant that they could ally together to deal with him, as well as everyone from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Haha, I understand that everyone is puzzled. Hence, you guys came here. I might as well take this chance to properly exchange pointers with everyone. What a happy thing that would be?" Yue Changkong laughed uproariously, clearly ignoring the other party's words. Now, since everyone already knew about that, there was naturally no need for him to conceal anything any longer. He might as well act more directly, and get everyone to step out to see who is stronger.

"If it was before, you wouldn't be qualified to sit together with us to drink wine." Gu Ting icily spoke. Evidently, he also despised Yue Changkong. Gu Ting could naturally sense how shameless and despicable Yue Changkong was. Yue Changkong narrowed his eyes and stared at Gu Ting but the smile on his face didn't fade. But it was precisely how he was acting that made everyone feel that Yue Changkong seemed to be extremely confident. Yue Changkong was like a scheming venomous snake staring at him.

"I simply came by to watch the drama." A voice rang out. Devilox from the Divine Ox Clan appeared. Next, more and more experts revealed themselves, all of them were from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Only they knew clearly what was going on, hence, they rushed to this ancient city.

At this moment, the eyes of the crowd glanced in a direction. Over there, a group of figures appeared. Among them was a woman whose beauty caused everyone to silently praise her in their hearts, sinking deeply within. This woman was none other than the Mystical Maiden from the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace. Truly, her beauty was on par with Goddess Nichang.

The other people from the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace arrived as well. Lin Xiao also appeared. His gaze was cold when he stared at Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan's experts.

Regardless of Lin Xiao from the Qiankun Sect or the Mystical Maiden from the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace, even though they had a clash with Yue Changkong and the others, they still didn't hide but chose to directly walked out instead. This was a show of their immense confidence.

"Brother Che, since you have arrived, why don't you show yourself?" Lin Xiao calmly spoke. In the crowd, an extremely youthful figure dressed in simple clothes stepped out. The contours of his face were extremely clear and his deep eyes held traces of age within, revealing that his true age was far older than his appearance.

"Che Ying from the Che Clan." Many people involuntarily glanced there. Che Clan from the Earth Region was known as the number one artificer clan in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Their talent for forging weapons was unparalleled. Even other peak powers wanted to forge a good relationship with them. In fact, for many deity-ranked powers, the ultimate treasures of their sects were all forged by the Che Clan.

"I heard that there was a fascinating battle not too long ago. Sadly, I must have missed that. I wonder if I can make up for the regret today and allow my horizons to be broadened." Che Ying calmly spoke. Clearly, he was referring to the battle where Yue Changkong's group acted against the Mystical Maiden and Lin Xiao.

"I don't think that will be a problem." Yue Changkong calmly smiled. "I'm sure not only these people have arrived, right?"

Right now, since their deeds were already exposed, this meant that everyone lifted their masks and revealed their true selves. There was no longer a need for concealment. Today, this gathering of experts would surely lead to a clash. This was something inevitable.

"I've also heard that Che Ying, you yourself are extremely powerful and has talent high enough to forge anything in the world. Today, I also wish to broaden my horizons." An expert from the Thunder Clan stared at Che Ying as he spoke. Lightning shot out from his eyes as his tone was filled with provocation.

After that, more experts from the peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms appeared. More than half have already arrived here.

And at this moment, an intense smell of blood permeated the area. Everyone turned their gazes over only to see an extremely cold and beautiful figure walking over. Her figure was extremely alluring and her appearance outstanding. However, she gave off a cold feel to everyone who saw her. Nobody dared to get too close to her, they could sense dangerous vibes from this woman.

Upon seeing her, the eyes of the three Qin Clan's experts brightened like how they saw the Mystical Maiden. In their gazes, greed and lust could be seen.

Yue Changkong's eyes flashed but he soon laughed. Truly, the gates of heaven were opened but she didn't want to head there. The gates of hell were closed but she purposely wanted to enter. This is fine then, since she took the initiative to show up, there was no need to look for her in the future.

As long as he captured her, with the ambiguos relationship between Luoshen Lei and Qin Wentian, Yue Changkong wasn't afraid that Qin Wentian would not show up. Although he was already very powerful in the world of reincarnation, he still had a knot in his heart that wasn't unravelled yet. That knot was none other than Qin Wentian.

"Seems like Luoshen Lei has truly fallen." Upon sensing the change to Luoshen Lei's aura which was much stronger than in the past, it was clear that she had cultivated an evil art. In addition, she made no attempt to mask her aura at all. She must have done so to grow stronger quickly and now, she was here for Yue Changkong.

"Lei`er." Faraway within the crowd, Qin Wentian was present too. When he saw Luoshen Lei's appearance and felt her aura, he had an indescribable feeling in his heart. The lines on his face changed, recovering his original appearance as he walked towards them.

"Huh?" When Qin Wentian appeared, Yue Changkong started. After that, the smile on his face grew wider. Qin Wentian actually appeared? Back then in the convention, there seemed to be an unusual connection between Qin Wentian and Luoshen Lei. Now, the moment Luoshen Lei appeared, Qin Wentian actually appeared too. Seems like their connection truly isn't ordinary.

Those from the Qin Clan also saw Qin Wentian. They had faint smiles on their faces when they noticed him.

When Luoshen Lei saw Qin Wentian walking over, her cold heart involuntarily trembled as she called out silently in her heart, "Elder brother!"

Qin Wentian appeared after she walked over. Clearly, he revealed himself because of her.

"Seems like today is a good day. A student that has a heavenly deity as a teacher of the sacred academy actually appeared. Everyone, we have a chance to find out the secret now." An expert from the Qin Clan spoke. The gazes of everyone landed on Qin Wentian, when they saw the young and handsome figure, many people didn't have an impression of him at all. At most, they were like Lin Xiao and have only heard of the name Qingcheng Realmlord. No one really had any understanding of Qin Wentian.

"Elder bro, why did you come here?" Luoshen Lei transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian, her voice was filled with some bitterness. This was her matter, she had to bear the hatred because Grandpa Lifeless died for her. Either Yue Changkong dies or she dies but now, her appearance actually implicated Qin Wentian. She truly didn't want this.

Many people who came here were all influenced by Yue Changkong. They felt no good intentions towards the people from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

By appearing here, Qin Wentian was in even more danger than her. Yue Changkong and the people of the Qin Clan long wanted to deal with Qin Wentian. As for the others, many of them most probably wanted Qin Wentian to remain behind as well.

"Silly lass, because you are my little sister." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice back, his tone filled with doting love. He only had one little sister, a real sister that was linked to him by blood relations. How could he not step out when she was in danger?

Luoshen Lei's eyes turned red. Upon seeing this, Yue Changkong coldly laughed, "There's no need to communicate through voice transmissions anymore. Seems like this is a case of lovers. You guys truly concealed your relationship well."

"Yue Changkong, your despicableness has already surpassed my imagination. Back then after I exposed you, you actually managed to survive up until now? No matter what underhanded methods you used, you would have no way to cleanse all your shame. You would always be a shameless and despicable person." Qin Wentian coldly spoke as he stared at Yue Changkong, as though he was rubbing salt into his wounds. Yue Changkong narrowed his eyes, he placed the wine cup in his hand down and slowly stood up as a terrifying and vast aura gushed forth from him.

He initially didn't wish to start their battle so soon and wanted to sit down with everyone, chatting to create the appropriate atmosphere. But what a pity, Qin Wentian seemed to be in a hurry to die.

Everyone else had looks of excitement on their faces. They didn't expect that a battle would start so soon.

"Your words are logical, he is truly a shameless and despicable man. But today, his life is mine." A voice rang out at this moment. When Yue Changkong stood up, Lin Xiao inclined his head as a bright light gleamed in his eyes.

Chapter 1838: Chaotic Battle Erupts

Yue Changkong swept his gaze at Lin Xiao. Earlier, he had exchanged blows with Lin Xiao in the past. This man was truly very strong. Before they came to the world of reincarnation, Lin Xiao was already an immensely terrifying world overlord.

If this was before in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Lin Xiao would surely be able to kill him easily. However, things were different now. This place was the world of reincarnation. He, Yue Changkong, wasn't the Yue Changkong of the past.

Yue Changkong slowly floated up into the air. He stared at everyone and smiled, "I accept all challenges no matter who wishes to fight me. We didn't manage to have a good fight at the last gathering. This time, let's make sure that everyone here has no regrets when they leave."

His words had another layer of meaning within. Today, experts from the various peak powers all arrived. Was it possible for there to be a conclusion in the world of reincarnation?

The auras of everyone here radiated forth. The experts from the Qin Clan, the supreme character from the Prison God Clan, they all placed the wine cups in their hand down as coldness flickered in their eyes. The secret of the world of reincarnation wasn't revealed yet. In that case, they naturally would feel that the only way to verify one's dao in here, was to become the only one remaining, defeating everyone else. This wasn't simply what they thought, it was what everyone here thought.

A true legendary character can only be one person. The person who is the most dazzling in here.

Only to see that at this moment, an extremely terrifying evil aura descended from the air, permeating the area. For a period of time, the world of reincarnation changed. The layers of clouds turned black as the world turned dark. This entire world lost its luster. Yue Changkong stood in the air and resembled a god of evil. Behind him, many devil heads manifested, causing people to feel fear in their souls.

"Finally he cannot be bothered to conceal it any more?" Everyone could see Yue Changkong at this moment. This was then the real Yue Changkong in the world of reincarnation. Right now, people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms already knew that Yue Changkong has cultivated the evil arts. Yue Changkong also didn't need to hide this anymore. What he wanted to do now was to kill all of these people. Only then could he be the only one from the Supreme Ancient Immortal realms remaining in the world of reincarnation.

The people in the ancient city inclined their heads, all of them could feel that fearsome aura which caused their hearts to tremble. Some even involuntarily retreated, wanting to distance themselves from Yue Changkong. However, under the pressure, they discovered that they had no way to leave the area. Yue Changkong was too powerful. When his aura gushed forth, it enveloped an extremely vast area.

Lin Xiao stared up in the air. His silhouette flashed as he soared up as well. Qiankun light radiated from him, forming a brilliant Universe Diagram behind his back. The energy from heaven and earth gathered madly, converging in the diagram, waiting for him to use it.

"Qiankun Sect of the Heaven Region." Qin Wentian glanced at Lin Xiao's figure. In the Heavenly Dao Library, he understood that the Qiankun Sect was definitely an extremely strong power. The Qiankun Sect Leader was a supreme character that was terrifying to the extreme.

The Qiankun Sect's cultivation arts can allow them to convert the surrounding energies into qiankun energy to power their own techniques. The Universe Diagram behind Lin Xiao shone resplendently. However, if it was a different expert from the Qiankun Sect, the power unleashed by that expert's diagram would be different from Lin Xiao due to the different law attributes they cultivated.

A terrifying aura descend from the sky. The devil heads behind Yue Changkong suddenly emanated a shocking might. A moment later, they shot ferociously towards Lin Xiao, brimming with might from the great dao. Yue Changkong has cultivated an evil devouring art. He would gain the insights of all the experts he devoured. Their daos became these devil heads that were floating behind them and contained the law energy of their original bodies. Not only that, they could even work together and exert an immense devouring might.

Hence, the current Yue Changkong's strength was a result of the insights and abilities of the other experts he devoured. During these years, he simply acted directly and would frequently devour the experts in this world.

"Sword of Qiankun." Lin Xiao performed hand gestures. All of a sudden, the Qiankun Formation Diagram suddenly shot out a resplendent beam of sword light that manifested into a sword which pierced through the air. When it came in contact with that devil's head, it directly exploded along with its target from the impact as a fearsome might lingered in the air.

Black clouds churned wildly, the scene was like an apocalypse. Numerous devil heads containing terrifying might lunged towards Lin Xiao from all directions. The Universe Diagram behind Lin Xiao radiated boundless light. After that, the qiankun energy that transformed into a sword unleashed its power, brightening up the darkened sky. With a wave of the Qiankun Sword, millions of other swords manifested, shooting up into the sky. This shocking strike contained heaven-shaking might, and seemed capable of breaking the universe.

The eyes of the experts in the surroundings shone with sharpness as they stared at the battle in the air. The two combatants were very powerful, so powerful that it caused the spectators to tremble. They naturally had to pay attention to this battle. Although everyone had to restart their cultivation in this world, all of them improved shockingly fast and many people have surpassed their achievements in the other world.

As he faced the power of the sword attacks, Yue Changkong's black eyes gleamed with a fearsome coldness. There was no fear in them at all. He opened his mouth, the mouths of the devil heads behind him all opened as well as they drew in a huge breath in unison. He actually managed to swallow the Qiankun Sword. But after doing that, thunderous sounds rang out as many devil heads behind him exploded. But ultimately, the power of the sword attacks were completely devoured.

After seeing this, Qin Wentian understood that the current Yue Changkong was no longer the Yue Changkong of the past. Yue Changkong has even forsaken all his previous innate techniques and secret arts. Now, only the evil art was his everything because it could grant him more strength compared to the rest.

"Not bad." Yue Changkong coldly spoke. His evil countenance had a malevolent smile painted on it. Behind him, a gigantic evil law body appeared. The head of this law body alone could blot out the sun. A terrifying black hand shot out towards Lin Xiao. This hand contained a power that could destroy all opposition and at the same time, the surrounding energy frenziedly began to gather on the blackened palm.

Upon sensing the power of this strike, the formation diagram behind Lin Xiao grew even more resplendent. Qiankun light covered him as a law body also formed behind him.

"Immeasurable Qiankun Law Body!"

Lin Xiao stood unmoving, allowing the terrifying palm strikes to land on his law body. That law body appeared to be on the verge of shattering but it instantly recovered from the damage after just an instant. Life after death, death after life. Immeasurable Qiankun, inextinguishable.

"Powerful." The hearts of everyone silently mused. Even Qin Wentian was taken aback. The current Yue Changkong was much stronger now when compared to the past. This Lin Xiao from the Qiankun Sect was also extremely terrifying, as expected of a hegemonic-level world overlord that was nurtured as the next successor of the Qiankun Sect. In the Heaven Region, Lin Xiao was also an extremely famous character like the Mystical Maiden. It was just that he is slightly inferior to Heaven's Son because Qin Dangtian has already broken through to become a heavenly deity.

And at this moment, the figures of the Qin Clan's experts flashed as they rushed Luoshen Lei. Upon staring at her beautiful face, lust surfaced in their hearts. Although the current Luoshen Lei exuded an aura of evil, this actually increased the attraction they felt for her, making it so that they wanted her at all cost.

Terrifying blood qi flowed around Luoshen Lei, her aura grew more bloodthirsty as an incarnation of a blood queen appeared behind her. This entire world seemed to be a blood ocean purgatory where numerous blood demons manifested. These blood demons were all saint beasts at their core and each of them radiated an aura that caused a chill in the hearts of those who saw them.

The Qin Clan originally already had a deep grudge with Luoshen Lei in the other world. Her father, the Skyorder Heavenly Deity, was crippled by none other than Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian. And now in the world of reincarnation, the people of the Qin Clan kept forcing her time and time again. This debt naturally had to be accounted for.

"Quickly capture her." The three experts of the Qin Clan transmitted their voices to each other. Right now, the experts gathered here were as common as clouds and many were still watching the drama. They could not afford to waste too much time on Luoshen Lei.

"The people of the Qin Clan are actually so despicable." Qin Wentian spoke. He stepped out and instantly appeared beside Luoshen Lei, facing against the three powerful world overlords from the Qin Clan. This was the first time he was facing against experts from the Qin Clan in combat. Although before this he had seen Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, the current him still wasn't powerful enough to contend against Qin Dangtian.

"I'll deal with him, the two of you capture Luoshen Lei." An expert from the Qin Clan spoke. His aura was extremely terrifying as he moved towards Qin Wentian.

"A student of the sacred academy? I'm interested as well." In another direction, that supreme character from the Prison God Clan also flew over. A towering force erupted from him, as he grabbed out with his palm, a spatial prison manifested, brimming with radiance, sealing the area around Qin Wentian. This prison seemed to be formed from rays of divine light, it could even lock gods within and was incomparably sturdy.

Qin Wentian inclined his head and looked at the prison locking him. In his mind, the introduction about the Prison God Clan he read about in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy appeared in his mind. They were able to form the strongest spatial prisons in this world, and those imprisoned within wouldn't be able to break out from it forever. Now, such a prison actually wanted to imprison him.

"Imprisoning me?" Qin Wentian glanced at the expert from the Prison God Clan in the air. His expression was cold. Today, just Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan's experts were already very tough for him to deal with. Now, the Qin Clan already made their move against Luoshen Lei and this person from the Prison God Clan also intentionally acted now to deal with him. Since this is the case, the Prison God Clan was his enemy.

"Seals manifest." A terrifying sealing might brewed, erupting forth as countless sealing gates appeared in the air, slamming into the prison's wall. Since the Prison God Clan's expert wanted to imprison this space to lock him within, in that case, he shall seal the area off as they fight to the death inside.

In the world of reincarnation, everyone could comprehend any type of law energy they wanted to. As long as you can sense it, you can cultivate it. Hence, to Qin Wentian, with Di Tian's insights in the laws of sealing, cultivating the laws of sealing here was undoubtedly something extremely natural to him!

Chapter 1839: Facing Off Against Each Other Again

The supreme character from the Prison God Clan is named Gui Chen. He is a hegemonic world-overlord and among all the experts from the Prison God Clan who entered the world of reincarnation, his strength was the most powerful and his status was the highest.

He had already comprehended the laws of banishment, allowing him to lock up targets in his prison forever, depositing them into the void, letting his targets perish in there. Naturally when he used his space prison to imprison Qin Wentian, he didn't expect Qin Wentian to actually be so proficient in the sealing laws to seal him inside the space prison which he initially could enter and leave freely.

Inclining his head and staring at the sealed space, Gui Chen's expression was cold when he saw how powerful the sealing light was. His palm grabbed towards Qin Wentian and instantly, a formless energy directly gushed forth, grabbing onto Qin Wentian's body. This energy was completely immaterial, like it was a type of power that originated from the void. The form of a giant palm abruptly manifested around Qin Wentian.

With an intention of his will, a power that could control everything in this world manifested around Qin Wentian. Although this place was the world of reincarnation and the law energies weren't completely the same as the past, the Great Dao was connected in all ways. He manifested the power of his world heart in a different form here. In this sealed space, a formless storm raged on, blasting out terrifying streams of power that destroyed the giant palm.

"BOOM!" In an instant, another prison appeared from the void, directly trapping Qin Wentian within. This prison wasn't as large as the earlier one, but it was much more powerful. Gui Chen's techniques were simply formless. As a supreme world overlord from the God Prison Clan, there was no need to doubt his strength.

"Stop." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The light flowing around the prison all entered a state of stillness. After that, Qin Wentian pointed out with a finger as the prison around him started to crumble. He turned his gaze towards Gui Chen and upon sensing the terrible fluctuations of energy in the air, Qin Wentian's body started to radiate an incomparably mighty sealing light. After that, his dao bone began to thrum with power and shot out a beam of light containing the power of time laws. Even in the world of reincarnation, his dao bone still existed because it was within his body.

Inside the sealed space, the power of time permeated everything, causing everything to be stilled. Right now, the abilities he comprehended could already be integrated into the laws of sealing. This power that could still everything shot towards Gui Chen, and Gui Chen frowned the moment he sensed it. Treasure light covered his entire body, allowing him to exist in an isolated space. In this isolated space, this belonged to him alone. He wasn't frozen solid by the stillness, and his gaze was as tyrannical as ever when he stared at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian stepped out. He sealed this space not because he wanted to waste time and slowly fight with Gui Chen. Out there, Lei`er was still fighting against powerful enemies. He sealed this space because he wanted to end the fight quickly. Hence, he didn't even conceal the power of his dao bone, choosing to use it directly.

With a flash of his silhouette, he directly appeared before the isolated space of Gui Chen. To characters of their level, close combat was extremely dangerous. If one was the slightest bit careless, they would surely be consigned to eternal damnation. In the vast majority of battles, just based on their heart domains and power of their world hearts, world overlords would usually fight at a distance.

However, Qin Wentian chose close combat. He wanted to finish his opponent off as quick as possible. In that case, he had to make sure that he had to strike like thunder.

When Qin Wentian arrived before the isolated space, the boundless energy from heaven and earth suddenly flooded into his body. The power of all his insights and understanding of the various laws converged on his fingertip, forming a ball of light that pulsed with absolute power. And in the next moment, all the power erupted forth!

His finger pressed down on the isolated space barrier, easily piercing through it. Gui Chen seemed to have sensed something but everything was too late. He didn't expect Qin Wentian's methods would be so intense. An extremely terrifying might passed through the isolated space and landed on his body.

At this moment, a terror born from the depths of Gui Chen's soul caused him to tremble violently. He felt he was about to die. His life was stopped, there wasn't any destructive might in this attack and it seemed very ordinary. But he could clearly feel that his life was about to end. It was like his life itself has entered a state of stillness. This power could seal life, causing him to die just like this. Even his soul felt like it wasn't under his control.

He was Gui Chen, Gui Chen from the Prison God Clan, an extremely powerful existence that would advance to the heavenly deity realm in the future! Could it be that he will die like that? How could he be willing to accept this?

At this moment, a terrifying energy gushed out from his body, produced by his heart. Gui Chen now was like a divinity, as though he was a law body formed from absolute void, something that could isolate the invasion of other energy. A bright beam of light flashed as Gui Chen's body directly flew out, breaking through the power of the seals, as well as breaking through the spatial prison he created, fleeing to the outside space.

With a deafening boom, the God Imprisonment Prison was broken through.

Qin Wentian walked out after him and coldly stared at Gui Chen. Everyone felt shock in their hearts when they saw this scene.

The Qingcheng Realmlord who has just gotten famous in the recent convention could actually contend against Gui Chen from the Prison God Clan?

If one was to talk about the duration of fame, Qin Wentian can at most be considered a rising genius from the junior generation. He was recruited by the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and entered the Heavenly Dao Rankings. This was a testament to his talent. But with regards to his combat prowess, everyone didn't really believe in him. This was especially so when his opponent was Gui Chen, a supreme world overlord from the Prison God Clan.

Everyone initially thought that this battle would be a one-sided one where Qin Wentian was crushed. However, the reality was that this Qingcheng Realmlord actually managed to force Gui Chen back.

For Gu Ting from the Great Devil Divine Palace as well as experts from the Heavenly Deity Mountain, all of them were shocked at this scene. Seems like many people had underestimated this Qingcheng Realmlord. It isn't going to be an easy task if some people wanted to capture him to force information about this world's secret out from him.

"What technique is that?" Gui Chen stared at Qin Wentian. Earlier, his impression of Qin Wentian's last attack was extremely deep. Although that attack was already over, he still felt fear in his heart. He absolutely didn't wish to experience that one more time. Things were just too dangerous, he might even die unknowingly, without any feelings at all.

Qin Wentian ignored him. His figure sped with lightning speed towards Luoshen Lei's battlefield. After all, the three experts from Qin Clan had cultivated evil arts. Although Luoshen Lei was now very powerful, she still wouldn't be a match for these three. Her strength when in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was already inferior to these three Qin Clan's world overlords. Now that she was fighting equally with the three of them, this feat was already extremely difficult and incredible.

Yue Changkong has been paying attention to Qin Wentian from the start. He didn't feel too much hatred to anyone here. Devouring them was only because of the requirement of the evil art he cultivates in. However, Qin Wentian was different. He truly hated Qin Wentian.

Upon seeing Qin Wentian forcing Gui Chen to retreat, an extremely cold smile appeared on Yue Changkong's face. He silently mused, "As expected, you didn't disappoint me."

He had always felt his talent was extremely strong. In reality, this was true, or he wouldn't have dared to fake being the Godking of Time's successor and even received the recognition of the Ziwei Divine Court. However, the heavens had to give birth to a Qingcheng Realmlord that attended the same convention as him. All the radiance and glory belonged to the Qingcheng Realmlord. The Qingcheng Realmlord took everything that belonged to him, Yue Changkong.

Hence, Qin Wentian must die.

"Our grudge shall be settled in the future instead." Yue Changkong's silhouette flashed, he actually directly abandoned the battle between him and Lin Xiao and directly shot towards Qin Wentian's direction.

Lin Xiao frowned, casting his gaze at Yue Changkong. Yue Changkong who had cultivated an evil art was truly very powerful. He had the insights and comprehensions of many people after absorbing them as nutrients. His purpose today was also clear, his ultimate objective was to devour all the peak characters from Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. By doing so, his path to the God Realm would be clear.

"Qin Wentian!" Yue Changkong shouted, his thunderous voice booming out. Numerous devil heads flew towards Qin Wentian, each containing fearsome dao might.

Incomparably resplendent light radiated from Qin Wentian. Thunderous sounds rang out as Qin Wentian punched out in Yue Changkong's direction. Fist shadows filled the sky as the terrifying power within the punches swept out, shattering the devil heads.

Yue Changkong's figure directly arrived before him. His cold and evil eyes gleamed with a gloomy light, filled with malevolence.

Finally, he stood before Qin Wentian. Ever since he cultivated the evil art, he has been fantasizing about this day. He wanted to cleanse all humiliation he suffered and devour Qin Wentian, making Qin Wentian into his nutrients.

"Have you thought that there would be a day like this?" Yue Changkong asked. As he spoke, the evil law body behind him also echoed his words, causing the space around it to tremble.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with a cold killing intent. Back then, because of that major character of the Ziwei Divine Court, although he exposed Yue Changkong, the Ziwei Divine Court still brought him away and Qin Wentian couldn't kill him. He didn't expect Yue Changkong to have actually survived that and was now filled with intense resentment for him. Right now, Yue Changkong might have already devoured everyone from the Ziwei Divine Court who came into this world with him. An evil glint of light could be seen flickering in his eyes.

The power of the evil arts would gradually change the cultivator's temperament. Qin Wentian wondered if Yue Changkong sensed this?

Now, regardless of Yue Changkong or the Qin Clan's experts, all of them have already embarked on a path of madness. In fact, they even wished to target the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace's maidens as well as the Mystical Maiden herself. Now, Yue Changkong even wanted to devour everyone.

"BOOM!" An absolute controlling might blasted out. Qin Wentian soared into the air. He didn't say anything, there was no need to. His heart right now, was filled with an icy killing intent!

Chapter 1840: Elder Bro

When Yue Changkong saw Qin Wentian rushing towards him, a demonic gleam could be seen in his eyes. Thunderous sounds rang out as his devil heads shot forwards, emitting black mist. The might generated was even more terrifying compared to his earlier fight against Lin Xiao.

In this vast space, the entire scene was like an apocalypse. The devil heads let out howls of resentment and contained the might of the dao. From afar, those spectators whose will wasn't strong enough actually bleed from their seven apertures when they looked at this. There were even some who went mad and started howling as well.

This scene was too fearsome. The place Qin Wentian was in seemed to be almost completely buried. Yue Changkong didn't intend to play slowly with Qin Wentian. He wanted to use the most violent method at his disposal to crush Qin Wentian before torturing him, making Qin Wentian live a life worse than death.

However at this moment, Qin Wentian's speed didn't reduce but sped up instead. It felt like the flow of time here changed. The surroundings of Yue Changkong seemed to be slowed down while the time in Qin Wentian's surroundings sped up. In the eyes of everyone, one was fast while the other was slow. Qin Wentian was like a lightning bolt shooting towards Yue Changkong. Qin Wentian felt no fear at all.

The two of them didn't have any patience to slowly fight it out. They wanted to decide everything with a single strike.

"COURTING DEATH!" Yue Changkong roared. The devil heads congregated into a gigantic one as a beam of dao light shot out, seeking to devour Qin Wentian.

"Time stop." A beam of light radiated from Qin Wentian as the power of his dao bone reinforced it. The power of time in the surroundings seemed to change from something ethereal and formless into something corporeal, permeating the area. Qin Wentian could sense the different flows of time here and his control over them was perfect. But even so, he had no way to achieve a perfect time stop. Yue Changkong's attack was simply too terrifying, the gigantic devil head was the only thing that existed in the world. Even the time stop ability had no way to stop it completely although it did reduce the speed and devouring light.

Qin Wentian already arrived before Yue Changkong. The two of them matched gazes. Yue Changkong's eyes were cold to the extreme, glinting with evil. In Qin Wentian's eyes, an icy and intense killing intent could be seen.

"DIE!" Yue Changkong roared, the gigantic devil head unleashed the entirety of its power, producing a shocking devouring might. Qin Wentian felt that he wasn't able to resist this. His body was actually stuck to Yue Changkong. Yue Changkong's hands grabbed onto him, frenziedly absorbing his energy. But at this moment, Qin Wentian's law body took the chance to slam its palms that were brimming with resplendent light into Yue Changkong, destroying the evil law body and piercing through Yue Changkong's body.

This attack was one that staked his life. Yue Changkong has cultivated an evil art and his original personality was warping gradually. Yet Qin Wentian seemed as crazy as him, he ignored his safety to unleash this strike.

At this moment, Qin Wentian felt the energy in his body was all devoured cleanly. Even his blood and flesh was about to be sucked dry. However, Yue Changkong's situation wasn't any better than him. The Yue Changkong at this moment felt that he was no longer alive. This feeling was extremely special, it caused him to feel a terror which he had not felt for a long time. After becoming extremely powerful from cultivating an evil art and devouring the strength of so many experts, he should be invincible under the God Realm by right.

He felt that when he faced Qin Wentian again, he who has already betrayed his soul, would surely be able to dominate Qin Wentian with ease. However, the truth wasn't as such. He couldn't tell what type of energy had invaded his body, it clearly existed and it even caused him to feel that his life was entering a state of stillness for some reason. What did this mean? This meant that he was going to die. If life no longer flows, wouldn't that feeling be even more terrifying than death?

"Has he also sensed that feeling?" The supreme character from the Prison God Clan, Gui Chen, silently mused in his heart. Clearly, this attack that has blasted into Yue Changkong, was even more fearsome compared to the attack he had to face earlier. This power was definitely something no one wanted to endure. It felt too bizarre and terrifying.

This power, was it the power to seal life into a state of stillness?

This Qingcheng Realmlord, wasn't he a little too crazy? He instantly attacked at full strength, it seemed that he didn't mind staking his life as well.

At this moment, the thoughts of many people towards Qin Wentian changed. Those who didn't understand in the past, now had a clearer and much deeper impression of this Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian.

In the crowd, Devilox has been paying attention to the battle. When he saw this scene, a resplendent light gleamed in his eyes.

An opportunity was finally here.

His body soared into the air, the earth cracked from the impact of his pushing off with his feet. His speed was incredibly fast, arriving in the battlefield of Qin Wentian and Yue Changkong in the blink of an eye.

"What is he doing?" Everyone started when they saw this sudden scene. After that, Devilox howled, his palm transformed into a sharp blade that aimed to pierce through Qin Wentian's back.

"Elder brother!" A voice filled with fear and panic rang out in the air. Luoshen Lei has been paying attention to this battlefield and when she saw Devilox's attack piercing Qin Wentian's back, a look of incomparable terror appeared on her face as her heart pounded violently. But how can she afford to have any lapse in concentration when fighting against the Qin Clan's experts? A terrifying palm strike directly blasted into her body, sending her flying through the air. Her blood and qi churned wildly as she coughed out fresh blood. But even so, her beautiful eyes were staring fixedly in Qin Wentian's direction.

Back then, she caused Grandpa Lifeless to die. Today, would she implicate her elder brother as well?

"The dao bone is mine." A crazed look flashed in Devilox's eyes, he desired to seize Qin Wentian's dao bone. This opportunity was once in a lifetime.

"Life, stop." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Boundless energy from his body radited forth, augmented by a resplendent beam of light from his dao bone. This immensely vast energy gushed into Devilox's body and at this instant, Devilox fell into the same situation as Yue Changkong. He could feel that his life was going to be forcibly stopped. This feeling felt like death.

This attack, this sure-kill attack by him, was actually counter-devoured by the terrifying blast of energy generated from Qin Wentian. This was something Devilox didn't expect. The three figures in the air all stopped moving as a bizarre silence fell over the atmosphere.

But at this moment, the three experts from the Qin Clan were actually staring in shock at Luoshen Lei. When Devilox's attack pierced into Qin Wentian's body, Luoshen Lei actually called out the words 'elder brother'?

Her relationship with Qin Wentian clearly wasn't what Yue Changkong has speculated.

Luoshen Lei called Qin Wentian elder brother?

Her elder brother, yet Qin Wentian wasn't surnamed Luoshen but was surnamed Qin.

Also, between the Luoshen Clan and the Qin Clan, there always has been a deep hatred. Once, a traitor of their Qin Clan, a supreme character that could cause the entire world to shake, had married a wife who was a maiden from the Luoshen Clan.

This maiden was none other than the younger sister of the Skyorder Heavenly Deity, Luoshen Lei's aunt.

At this moment, Luoshen Lei actually called someone with the surname Qin, elder brother? Her elder brother was the Qingcheng Realmlord, possessing extraordinary talent and had even gained the recognition of the Time King. He was then accepted as a student by the sacred academy and became a ranker on the Heavenly Dao Rankings.

Everything upon everything seemed to be pointing towards a destination.

Given how fast their reactions were, they naturally connected the dots in an extremely short time. Before this, they didn't think about this because there were simply too many people with the surname of 'Qin.' Although Qin Wentian was surnamed Qin, how could they make the connection that his origins was from their very own Qin Clan of the Heaven Region? But for those in the world surnamed 'Qin,' there was only one possibility why Luoshen Lei would refer to him as elder brother.

That traitor of the Qin Clan, that immensely powerful existence.

Qin Yuanfeng actually had a son.

His son was standing before them and was currently cultivating in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, and has also entered the world of reincarnation.

When they thought about this, they actually felt a sense of disbelief, things were actually so dramatic? This was something they would never have imagined even in their wildest dreams.

"Luoshen Clan, the daughter of the Skyorder Heavenly Deity, Luoshen Lei, actually calls him elder brother?"

"Who would have thought of this?"

The three experts from the Qin Clan all stared at Qin Wentian. One of them then spoke, "I didn't expect that the traitor of my Qin Clan, that supreme existence, actually had a son and his son is already so powerful. Qin Wentian, are you planning to take revenge?"

The eyes of the people in the surrounding flashed as they stared at the people from the Qin Clan. Earlier, they had also heard Luoshen Lei calling Qin Wentian elder brother.

Right now after they heard the words of the Qin Clan's experts, they instantly thought of one person. In the ancient records of the various peak powers, there were records of an extremely famous person in the Qin Clan's history. This person was Qin Yuanfeng.

"Qin Wentian, to think that you are actually Qin Yuanfeng's son. Haha, you are actually his son!" An expert from the Qin Clan laughed. The hearts of everyone trembled. There was already a Heaven's Son in the Qin Clan. And now, that immensely powerful traitor of the Qin Clan, his son has returned.

Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian. This crazy fellow, he was the son of Qin Yuanfeng and that goddess from the Luoshen Clan?

How surreal!

However, right now, Qin Yuanfeng's son hasn't even started on his revenge towards the Qin Clan yet. Before he could grow strong enough, was he destined to die here in this place?

Chapter 1841: The mantis stalks the cicada, unaware of the oriole behind

The Qin Clan's experts directly rushed towards Qin Wentian, temporarily ignoring the injured Luoshen Lei.

They were undoubtedly the ones who understood this history the most. If Qin Yuanfeng still had a descendent in this world, they had to go all out to kill that descendent. When they returned to the Qin Clan, it would be considered a major merit if they succeeded.

Luoshen Lei's qi and blood churned wildly, she roared in rage and rushed out once more. Figures formed from her blood manifested, blocking the three of them. The three world overlords snorted coldly and simply struck out. The entire space shook as the blood figures were destroyed. Now, Luoshen Lei was simply a spent force, she would find it difficult even to protect herself. How could she still save Qin Wentian?

The blood figures dissipated. One of the experts stabbed his finger forward, generating a beam of destruction that shot into Qin Wentian, wanting to destroy his body. At this moment, Yue Changkong and Devilox both took this opportunity to struggle free. The energy of 'Life Stop' no longer controlled them.

Yue Changkong's face was filled with a cold malevolence. Qin Wentian was actually so strong that he felt threatened. Earlier, he felt that his life wasn't in his control at all. Such a feeling was too terrifying, no one would want to experience that a second time if they experienced it before. When in that state of stillness, he felt that he would never awaken. If it wasn't for the fact that he was strong enough, his life earlier would have already been forcefully stilled, there would be no difference from death.

Devilox's strength was inferior to Yue Changkong. Although he is a supreme genius of the Divine Ox Clan, his cultivation base was one of the weaker ones when in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. In the world of reincarnation, he was the same as well. If it wasn't for him having an opportunity to perform a sneak attack earlier, he wouldn't have attacked. Earlier, he could sense how powerful the time dao bone was, this caused him to feel greed. If he could obtain that, he would have two dao bones in his body.

When he thought of this, and as he saw Qin Wentian who was knocked away, he decisively decided to act again and sped over towards Qin Wentian with lightning speed. His gaze was incomparably resolute. He had to get the dao bone at all cost.

But at this moment, formless sound waves suddenly appeared. After that, an incomparably powerful slaughter intent radiated from the waves and bore down on him. "Vile beast, it's a humiliation to the name of our sacred academy that we allowed a scum like you to cultivate in it."

An old man walked over, he was none other than the Divine Sound World Overlord. When he saw Devilox planning to attack Qin Wentian again, he instantly interfered. The formless sound waves generated by him contained an extremely powerful might that obstructed Devilox. Devilox howled in rage as his battle intent surged. Behind him, an incomparably gigantic law body of a divine ox appeared as he tried to struggle free.

Terrifying lacerating sounds rang out. A moment later, fresh blood splashed through the air. A wound appeared on Devilox's arm, the formless sound waves continued to slice into him. He howled in madness and decided to ignore Qin Wentian. With an intention of his will, he reverted to his true demonic form of an ancient oxen whose horns gleamed with a terrifying light. A powerful treasure light covered his entire body as he fought against Divine Sound.

Divine Sound naturally obliged. However, although he managed to obstruct Devilox, Yue Changkong and the others from the Qin Clan naturally wouldn't spare the injured Qin Wentian. Earlier, Qin Wentian's life-risking attack almost claimed Yue Changkong's life but he was also heavily injured in return, in addition to Devilox's sneak attack combined with the finger attack from the Qin Clan's expert. At this moment, his vitality constantly weakened due to the continued attacks by Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan's experts. Most probably, he would find it hard to escape this calamity.

Just when Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan's experts continued to pursue Qin Wentian, an alluring silhouette suddenly sped through the air, grabbing hold of Qin Wentian before speeding far away. This caused the gazes of everyone to freeze as they stared at the beautiful figure who intervened.

When they saw clearly who that figure was, many people had a look of interest on their faces.

This figure was extremely outstanding and was incomparably beautiful. With just a single glance at her, people would be mesmerized and not be willing to act against her. She was the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang.

Goddess Nichang and the Mystical Maiden both appeared at this moment, constituting a scene of extreme beauty. The sight of these two maidens naturally caused the hearts of the crowd to be delighted. But at this moment, no one among the crowd had any mood to admire their beauty. What made everyone puzzled was that Goddess Nichang actually rescued Qin Wentian? What situation is this?

From what they knew, Goddess Nichang should be a couple with Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian. And if Qin Wentian was Qin Yuanfeng's son, didn't that mean that he and Qin Dangtian were born fated to be enemies?

That year in the past, Qin Dangtian's father Qin Zheng, his struggle against Qin Yuanfeng was circulated all over the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Not only was the crowd startled, even Qin Wentian himself was taken aback. Goddess Nichang actually acted to help him? This made him feel somewhat bizarre. However, that beautiful figure merely calmly gazed ahead and seemed to have no intentions to explain anything. In fact, her gaze towards the Qin Clan's experts was exceptionally cold.

In this world of reincarnation, the three of them actually dared to lust after her and wanted to capture her?

The battle here was too intense, incidents that made everyone shocked happened one after the other. Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian is actually also a supreme expert from the Qin Clan. He was the son of the legendary Qin Yuanfeng back then. After that, when Goddess Nichang appeared, she actually saved Qin Wentian from the hands of the Qin Clan's experts?

This story truly had many twists and turns.

But at this moment, the reverend from the buddhist sect in the Pureland of Bliss pressed his palms together. He glanced in the distance and spoke, "Some people feel that they are the cleverest of all, scheming against others but they have no idea they themselves are victims of a sinister plot by someone in the shadows."

As the sound of his voice faded, all the experts seemed to sense something. They glanced in a direction and after that, their eyes involuntarily narrowed as sharpness flashed within. When they were fighting, the aftershocks would affect a large area. Many experts in the ancient city retreated extremely faraway. There were even some who died. But even so, there were still many silently watching this battle from afar.

But now, to their shock, all these spectators have disappeared. From afar, a blood mist drifted over, exuding a sinister aura as it permeated the area. This blood mist enveloped the central region and then seeped into the bodies of unsuspecting people.

"A tribulation in the world of reincarnation." The reverend sighed. In an instant, death took this place. Many people didn't even know how they died. That terrifying blood mist gradually took on corporeal form, forming an extremely large net of destruction that covered this place, while emitting a deadly gas that entered the bodies of people.

Someone frowned and coldly spoke, "Poisonous qi."

The eyes of Lin Xiao from the Qiankun Sect flashed with coldness. He stared in the distance, "I was wondering why the supreme character from the God Destroying Sect has yet to appear. So it turns out that you've been hiding in the shadows from the start and actually planned to use the lives of this city to refine poison qi. Do you intend to eliminate all of us with a single move?

A sense of wariness filled the hearts of many when they thought about that character from the God Destroying Palace. They all executed their innate techniques causing protective light to cover their bodies, not allowing the blood mist to seep into them.

Since that person in the shadows had made preparations for this, it was naturally not so easy to block this blood mist. Blood clouds filled the air, radiating a filthy aura that covered everything, shining a bloody radiance on everyone. This radiance contained the might of the dao within, and tyrannically drilled through the protective layers covering the experts.

Even the Mystical Maiden's holy light barrier was being corroded. The disgusting corrosion energy seeped into her skin, wanting to rot it. A look of disgust appeared on her face. This energy was too evil and tyrannical and caused her to be extremely uncomfortable.

"He should have also cultivated an evil art." Lin Xiao spoke up after he felt that immense might. That supreme character from the God Destroying Palace was originally already an extremely dangerous character. Given his personality, it wasn't strange that he has cultivated an evil art. Because, his innate nature was already evil.

Just like what the Reverend from the Pureland of Bliss has said, one's innate heart would be revealed by the circumstances. There was no surprise that that person chose this path.

Lin Xiao looked down on Yue Changkong but he didn't dare to underestimate that supreme character from the God Destroying Palace. That person was originally already very dangerous and powerful. Now that he has cultivated an evil art, he would only be even more terrifying.

Yue Changkong also sensed that power. In fact, he didn't even glanced at Qin Wentian and he was staring at the direction of that terrifying might instead. He then mumbled in a low voice, "The mantis stalks the cicada, unaware that the oriole was behind?"

He didn't expect that the him today would be playing the role of the mantis. That supreme character who has yet to walk out, had extremely great ambitions, wanting to use all lives in a city to cultivate blood poison, wiping them out in one fell swoop, so he could be the sole person remaining.

Yue Changkong himself also understood that there are bound to be other existences who cultivated the evil arts hiding in the shadows. Now, they were all gradually appearing?

The situation suddenly turned calm. Using this chance, the Divine Sound World Overlord and Luoshen Lei came to Qin Wentian's side. Divine Sound stared at Qin Wentian who was silently recovering as he sighed in his heart. This young man whom he inducted into the sacred academy...if he doesn't die here, he would definitely become a legend of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms in the future.

Luoshen Lei's eyes turned red. She stared at Qin Wentian as immense amounts of guilt filled her heart. She sobbed, "Elder brother, am I very foolish?"

She felt that it should be impossible for them to leave the world of reincarnation alive. She had harmed Grandpa Lifeless and now, she even implicated her elder brother.

"Silly lass. Are you still not clear of how despicable Yue Changkong is? Back then, even if you didn't say that sentence, he would still have acted against you. When he does that, how could Grandpa Lifeless step aside and watch on?" Qin Wentian consoled. As long as Lifeless was present, he would definitely have fought for Luoshen Lei. The ending would be the same, like it was already destined.

"As for me, my fight with him is something that would happen sooner or later. This has nothing to do with you. There's no need for you to feel guilt." Qin Wentian felt pain in his heart when he saw Luoshen Lei's appearance. An extremely beautiful maiden, a genius of the Luoshen Clan, was actually forced to cultivate an evil art in this world. This world of reincarnation, wasn't it a little too cruel? It was extremely cruel to everyone!

Chapter 1842: Blood Sacrifice

Although Qin Wentian consoled her, Luoshen Lei's eyes were still red. Tears flowed down her body as the blood poison from the mist continuously corroded her defenses. She who was originally heavily injured, gradually felt a sense of helplessness.

At this moment, an immensely gigantic divine cauldron appeared in the air. Rainbow light radiated from it, enveloping the heaven and earth, the rainbow light bore down on everyone, madly devouring the energy in their bodies. In fact, everyone could even feel their bodies being absorbed into the cauldron.

"What is this?" The gazes of many experts froze. Lin Xiao's countenance was cold to the extreme. Even before the ripples from before calmed, another wave was about to start.

The mantis stalks the cicada, unaware of the oriole behind. Also, it was clear there wasn't only a single oriole.

"Che Ying." Lin Xiao's gaze turned to Che Ying, the supreme character from the Che Clan. He only saw a calm smile on Che Ying's face. Che Ying stepped out, his hands brimmed with rainbow light that formed a resonance with the divine cauldron.

"Since everyone wants to engage in a huge battle, I naturally have to participate." Che Ying spoke. The blood-colored mist was also continuously absorbed into the divine cauldron and was being refined.

"What are you trying to refine?" Lin Xiao coldly asked.

"When I forge divine weapons, I've always refined everything that can be refined. Since there are so many people here, I wonder what sort of divine weapon I would manage to create if I refine the daos all of you have comprehended." Che Ying laughed.

"If you really manage to do so, the effect would undoubtedly be extremely good." Lin Xiao spoke. Che Ying merely laughed and didn't reply, like he was in silent agreement.

The Che Clan was the number one artificer clan in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Their methods of forging divine weapons and treasures were unparalleled, they could use blood to refine their weapons, using humans as the base material. Also, these people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms here were all top-tier geniuses. If he could refine their daos, what sort of divine weapon would be created at the end?

However, there were no weaklings here. How could it be so easy to refine the experts here for their daos?

For the situation here, Qin Wentian and Luoshen Lei didn't seem to have seen it. They were originally already injured and the poisonous qi constantly corroded their defenses. Luoshen Lei already found it extremely hard to endure this. Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan's experts were still looking at them at how a tiger would eye its prey. But luckily, Divine Sound World Overlord and Goddess Nichang were here with them. This, in addition to the poison permeating the atmosphere made it so that Yue Changkong's group didn't dare to casually act, choosing to wait things out instead.

The situation now was a little subtle, a slight change could trigger an entire transformation to the situation. No one here dared to guarantee that they could protect their own safety and escape.

The first gathering before this was calm and without any waves. Only World Overlord Lifeless died. This time, during the second gathering when all the experts gathered in the ancient city, a storm of blood actually rose, creating huge terrifying waves that engulfed everyone. They have all been in the world of reincarnation for several years, finally, some of them lost patience which caused the situation today to erupt forth. The various experts no longer wished to wait, all of them walked out, wanting to have a conclusion to things today.

"Elder brother, I won't be able to endure for much longer. I will die here." Luoshen Lei suddenly smiled at Qin Wentian. Her face has already turned black as the blood poison entered her blood stream, devouring her vitality.

Staring at the black qi covering Luoshen Lei's beautiful face, Qin Wentian could sense death qi from her. He only felt extreme pain in his heart. He stretched out his hand and held hers as he spoke, "Lei`er, do your best. We can rush out!"

Luoshen Lei shook her head and mumbled, "We won't be able to make it."

Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan's experts were still here. The experts from the Divine Ox Clan were also eyeing them. How could they flee?

Not only was she heavily injured, Qin Wentian himself was also injured.

"I'll go meet up with Grandpa Lifeless first." Luoshen Lei spoke. "Elder brother...I've really implicated you."

As she spoke, tears flowed down her face once more. It was fine that she died. But in the situation today, Qin Wentian was also in extreme danger, there was only a 10% chance of survival and all of these were her fault.

"Silly girl, don't talk about this any more." Qin Wentian felt immense pain in his heart. Hatred bubbled up, as well as killing intent for Yue Changkong's group.

"Why would there be the existence of evil spirits here in the world of reincarnation? How can a despicable character like Yue Changkong ever have the chance to accomplish his ambitions?" Luoshen Lei felt vengeance in her heart. She stared at Qin Wentian, "Elder brother, if there is a chance, would you agree to cultivate an evil art?"

Staring at the rapidly weakening Luoshen Lei, Qin Wentian felt as though his heart was being sliced into pieces. His gaze stared at Yue Changkong and the poisonous qi in the air as he coldly replied, "If I knew today would happen, even if I had to turn into a devil and be condemned to a path of eternal damnation, I wouldn't have hesitated."

If he could restart his experiences in the world of reincarnation, he would not hesitate to cultivate in an evil art, rapidly growing stronger.

"Elder brother, Lei`er has let you down. You have to leave here alive. Help me take care of my father in the other world." Luoshen Lei's tears flowed down but a radiant smile could be seen on her face. The blood in her veins started burning, producing clouds of blood mist that enveloped her completely, as though wanting to devour her.

"Lei`er, what are you doing! Quickly stop!" Qin Wentian shouted in anger, wanting to stop her. But how could he stop her? Within the blood mist, her beautiful countenance gradually turned blurry. Only her radiant smile remained.

"If reincarnation is really true. In my next life, I still hope that I can be your younger sister. I don't want our next lifetime to be so short." Luoshen Lei's voice drifted into Qin Wentian's ears. After that, the clouds of blood mist towered up into the air, concentrating to the extreme.

"Using my blood as a trigger, my body as a sacrifice, I'm willing to burn my blood essence and incinerate my mortal frame. Forbidden Art: Blood Sacrifice!" Luoshen Lei's voice was extremely solemn, ringing loudly throughout the world. Her blurry figure transformed into something completely ethereal, causing a gigantic evil blood demon to appear. Using her body as a sacrifice, she converted everything she had into her blood essence. Now, her blood essence in the form of the blood demon, began to flow frenziedly into Qin Wentian's body.

The evil arts in the world of reincarnation are all extremely terrifying. The evil art Luoshen Lei cultivated allowed her to unleash this forbidden art, transferring all the energy generated from her cultivation into blood essence to pass on to another person. However, how could anyone cultivating evil arts be so selfless? Would anyone else be willing to sacrifice themselves for the benefit of others? If worse came to worse, those who cultivated evil arts would rather simply die instead.

However, Luoshen Lei was different from others. Back then, she only cultivated this evil art because she was forced to do so. Now, before her death, she asked Qin Wentian if he was willing to cultivate an evil art. Qin Wentian replied that if he knew the situation today would have happened, he would have cultivated an evil art long ago. He'd rather be consigned to eternal damnation than to watch Luoshen Lei die.

Although her fate was already determined, but even so, she hoped that the power she gained from the evil art was able to allow Qin Wentian to live on. As long as Qin Wentian could survive, so what even if he had cultivated an evil art? Surviving was the number one priority.

"LEI`ER!" Qin Wentian roared, his voice shaking the heavens and earth. Luoshen Lei actually invoked a blood sacrifice.

How can this be? If he really knew this would happen, he would definitely sacrifice everything he had to ensure that the ending wouldn't be like this.

"Elder brother, although I've cultivated this evil art of blood, I've never used human lives to practice them before." Luoshen Lei's voice entered Qin Wentian's mind for the final time. Qin Wentian finally understood why there was such a terrifying scene at the Demon Beast Mountain Range. Luoshen Lei controlled the evil desires the evil art generated and would rather use demons to practice this instead of killing innocent humans.

An expression of intense agony appeared on Qin Wentian's face. The boundless blood energy gushed into his body, causing his qi and blood to churn wildly, strengthening his body. His injuries rapidly recovered as his blood grew increasingly vibrant.

"Reincarnation… Are you happy now?" Qin Wentian stared up at the sky. So this was the tempering exercise in the legendary place, the world of reincarnation?"

How cruel was this? Everyone was subjected to the same cruelty. The true natures of everyone were completely exposed. Evil cultivators would cultivate evil arts, becoming more and more evil. Those who were greedy had their greed intensified. Everyone unhesitatingly embraced their true natures. All of them found their real selves in the world of reincarnation. Without any external pressure to restrict them, in this world where they had the freedom to truly choose the paths they wanted, all their true natures were revealed.

Divine Sound and Goddess Nichang at the side, had a look of being emotionally moved on their faces. Divine Sound sighed. He didn't expect that Qin Wentian would actually be Luoshen Lei's elder brother. The daughter of the Skyorder Heavenly Deity sacrificed her body and passed on all her power to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with a bloody light, a look of madness was apparent in his gaze. He frenziedly absorbed the blood qi in the atmosphere. The blood essence here was formed from Luoshen Lei's sacrifice, he naturally didn't want them to go to waste. It was like he had completely gone crazy now. He suppressed the agony in his heart and went all out to absorb this energy. Right now, he only wanted to become stronger.

After obtaining more strength, he would kill all of those people and seek revenge for Lei`er.

Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan's experts all had looks of ice on their faces when they stared at Qin Wentian. Yue Changkong then stepped out, wanting to act. Qin Wentian opened his mouth and devoured the blood essence continuously and in the next instant when he felt the power generated from the evil art, he finally knew why Yue Changkong could be so strong. The evil arts in the world of reincarnation were all heaven-defying secret arts.

Cultivation requires a step-by-step comprehension process. But many evil arts in the world of reincarnation allowed one to ignore the laws set by heaven, leaping all the way to the top with a single jump. It could even influence one's temperament. He also finally understood how difficult it was for Lei`er to resist practicing this skill on humans. The lives of humans would be the most effective for the evil art to gain in power.

Yue Changkong used all sorts of unscrupulous methods. The experts from the Qin Clan even dared to act against Goddess Nichang and the Mystical Maiden. Other than their innate natures being that of lust and greed, they were definitely influenced by the evil arts which boosted their greed to the greatest degree. They couldn't endure and couldn't control it, hence, they did what they did.

"RUMBLE!" A towering blood light blasted out. Qin Wentian directly rushed forward, moving towards one of the Qin Clan's experts that was preparing to act against him.

The two other Qin Clan's experts had cold looks in their eyes. The feeling Qin Wentian gave off now was much much more terrifying compared to Luoshen Lei. Qin Wentian was originally already extremely powerful. Now that he gained the power born from Luoshen Lei's evil art, he would naturally be even more terrifying. In addition, they still had to be wary of the blood poison from that supreme character from the God Destroying Palace.

One of the Qin Clan's experts punched out, producing a burst of fist light that penetrated through heaven and earth. An overwhelming destructive aura filled the air. Qin Wentian didn't evade it and actually rushed up to meet it instead. A rumbling sound echoed from the collision. The punch actually pierced into Qin Wentian's body. At this moment, Qin Wentian's body turned into that of a blood man. He allowed the opponent's punch to penetrate his chest, while his eyes gleamed with a bloodthirsty light.

"BOOM!" A fearsome blood mist directly erupted, devouring the Qin Clan's expert completely. Timestop and Life Stop was executed simultaneously. Qin Wentian ignored all his opponent's attacks. Even at the cost of being injured, he wanted to kill his opponent. He became a truly crazed demon!

Chapter 1843: Crazed

"He has gone mad."

Everyone silently mused when they saw how crazy Qin Wentian was now. The him now was covered with boundless blood light. He was staking his life in every strike, going all out, ignoring his opponent's attack.

The Qin Clan's expert had a look of despair on his face. Under the suppression of Timestop and Life Stop, the blood within his body seemed about to explode. Violent rumbling sounds rang out akin to the explosion of a volcano. A moment later, that Qin Clan's expert turned into nothing but blood, all skin, flesh, bones and muscles had disappeared completely. He didn't even have time to unleash the power of his cultivation base and had already died from a fatal attack.

"No…" He screamed in his heart. He was unwilling to accept this but it was useless. In just a short instant, his body was devoured completely by the bloody light.

The two other Qin Clan's experts rushed over but the flow of time in their surroundings changed, causing their speed to be much slower. They could only watch helplessly as their comrade turned into blood.

"This should be the true power of the evil art Luoshen Lei cultivated in, right? It's just that she didn't use humans to train it, choosing to use demonic beasts instead, allowing her to summon blood demons. However, Qin Wentian went mad due to her death and directly used the life of that Qin Clan's expert to train his blood body."

The crowd saw that after the Qin Clan's expert turned into blood, he seemed to be transformed into a sort of blood puppet. How could they fail to understand the power of this evil art?

Yue Changkong's expression was extremely unsightly when he saw this scene. He only became so powerful in the world of reincarnation because he cultivated an evil art. But now, Qin Wentian who was originally already stronger than him, has also cultivated an evil art. Since this is the case, he would no longer have an advantage.

Also, Qin Wentian now was already in a state of madness, he ignored his life and death when he fought, only seeking to kill all of them. The Qin Wentian now was terrifying to the extreme, even Yue Changkong was hesitating whether he should act or not. If he acted now to deal with Qin Wentian, there was still that supreme character from the God Destroying Palace and Che Ying from the Che Clan waiting to profit from his actions. If that was the case, wouldn't all his hard work end up benefiting others?

When he thought of this, Yue Changkong planned to retreat for now. Since he has decided, he no longer hesitated. With a flash of his silhouette, he prepared to leave this place. However, how could Lin Xiao allow Yue Changkong to leave so easily just like that? His silhouette flashed as he rushed forward. A terrifying qiankun energy enveloped the surroundings, transforming into a fearsome vortex that caused Yue Changkong's movement to slow.

"Do you think you can still leave here alive?" Lin Xiao shot forwards like a bolt of lightning, blocking Yue Changkong. The Qiankun Formation Diagram revolved wildly and under the terrifying energy, the poisonous qi and devouring might from the divine cauldron in the air seemed to be held at bay. The Qiankun Formation Diagram grew more resplendent as the qiankun light covered everything. He then roared in rage, "Qiankun Reversal!"

As the sound of his voice faded, the energy permeating this entire area started to turn in reverse. The boundless poisonous qi flowed back towards its origin, while the devouring might from the divine cauldron was completely retracted as it lost its effectiveness.

The entire space trembled as the laws of the universe reversed. When the experts in the crowd saw the power Lin Xiao unleashed, all of them felt their hearts trembling. Was this the real might of Lin Xiao's dao arts? He was already so powerful and had comprehended Qiankun Reversal of the Qiankun laws. It's said that if one cultivates the Qiankun laws to its absolute limits, they could wreak havoc to the world causing Yin and Yang to reverse their natural order, bringing the dead to life and death to those alive with a wave of their hands.

Clearly, Lin Xiao hasn't cultivate to that extent yet. Even heavenly deities wouldn't dare to say that they have reached that level.

But even so, now when he used Qiankun Reversal, it still caused many to be shocked at how powerful Lin Xiao was. He was a future successor of the Qiankun Clan, and was as extraordinary as expected.

Qin Wentian didn't pay any attention to the battle between Lin Xiao and Yue Changkong. He directly lunged towards the other two experts from the Qin Clan. Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan were the culprits which caused Lei`er's death, all of them deserved death.

The Qin Clan's expert who was refined into a blood puppet earlier by Qin Wentian also rushed forwards, killing his way towards his clansmen. The expressions of the two Qin Clan's experts drastically changed. They didn't expect this evil art to be so tyrannical. One of the experts radiated an incomparably resplendent white light which transformed into a gigantic punch that blasted into the blood puppet. The blood puppet cracked and seemed on the verge of crumbling, almost destroyed by that white light.

The evil arts cultivated by the Qin Clan's experts were different from Yue Changkong and Qin Wentian. They had to use the bodies of females to constantly increase their power, strengthening themselves. The them right now radiated an intense vitality and the reservoirs of their energy were extremely vast. Each of their attacks contained boundless might. The people of the Qin Clan were known to be capable of mastering all laws, and understanding all innate techniques and dao arts. Their combat prowesses were already originally extremely strong. Now, they were even more terrifying than before.

That blood puppet directly exploded, transformed into blood light that filled the sky. The motes of blood light then seeped into the body of the Qin Clan's expert who was attacking. At this moment, that expert felt the blood flow in his body slowing down. After that, not only his blood, even his life was on the verge of being stopped. His hands, his legs and everything seemed to halt.

The blood puppet contained Qin Wentian's law attributes within. Since Qin Wentian had refined the blood puppet, it naturally was able to tap on Qin Wentian's other abilities. Qin Wentian's strength was much much stronger compared to Luoshen Lei. Luoshen Lei purely depended on the evil art to strengthen herself, but Qin Wentian was someone who was originally already extremely powerful.

"Help me!" The Qin Clan's expert who was under control, sought help from his comrade. The remaining expert also understood that the situation was against them. He rushed towards Qin Wentian but because the flow of time in his surroundings was changed, his speed was extremely slow. Qin Wentian took a step forward and slammed out with his palms, aiming for the trapped expert. Waves of terrifying blood light engulfed his target and that expert let out miserable screams. The entirety of blood in his body was boiling, it was currently being refined.

The tyranny and cruelty of this evil art truly showed vividly and thoroughly when it was used by Qin Wentian.

The expression of the other expert who was rushing over drastically changed. He howled in anger and unleashed an innate technique. Millions upon millions of strands of white light transformed into sword beams that pierced towards Qin Wentian. The power of this attack was capable of eradicating all gods and devils, purifying everything in the world.

Qin Wentian waved his hand and used the expert he was currently refining as a shield. Those supreme sword beams easily pierced through his body. That poor expert's body transformed into white light, slowly dispersing as fear and despair could be seen on his face. The terrifying white beams continued on their way and shot towards Qin Wentian, penetrating his defenses and piercing into his body, also wanting to eradicate him. However, there was an undying force circulating within his body as well as the power from the laws of life. Qin Wentian wouldn't die so easily.

He coldly looked at that remaining expert from the Qin Clan as killing intent flashed in his eyes. All of them have to die, he shall offer their lives as sacrifices to Lei`er.

A hint of wariness could be seen in the eyes of the last Qin Clan's expert. Qin Wentian has completely gone crazy, he didn't seem to feel pain at all. Right now, the eyes filled with hatred only contained killing intent and madness, as well as the desire for revenge. Qin Wentian was like a true evil demon.

"Your turn." A voice that was icy to the extreme rang out from Qin Wentian's mouth. A violent wave of blood qi flowed towards his target while Qin Wentian also shot forward. It was the same as previous times, he would stake his life in his attacks. In his current state, Qin Wentian had already forgotten about pain and death, he had no fear at all. Who could contend against him and gain victory?

The bloodline power in the body of the Qin Clan's expert erupted with full force. He howled in rage as a burst of dazzling white light shot out, unleashing all his innate techniques that tapped on the myriad of laws. This final attack could destroy everything, even gods and devils. When Qin Wentian's body neared him, he immediately activated his dao bone as his abilities of time stop and life stop were unleashed. Blood qi engulfed everything, he ignored the attack landing on his body, as he was fully focused on killing his target. When his opponent's body exploded, this battle has already concluded. No matter how heavily injured he was, his opponent had already died. There wouldn't be a second ending for his opponent.

Thousands of wounds instantly opened up on Qin Wentian's body after he took on that attack. So much blood flowed out from him that he became a true blood man. However, he had no fear and he didn't feel pain. When Divine Sound saw this scene, he could only sigh silently. At this moment, no one could stop the fires of hatred burning in Qin Wentian's heart. Even if gods and buddhas were to obstruct him, he would strike them down with no hesitation.

Everyone present knew that Qin Wentian now was already heavily injured. He was giving his all for revenge, burning his life as the price. However, no one was willing to step out to act against him. There were still many who chose to spectate. It was best that those in combat now all die to each other and be buried together.

It was true that Qin Wentian was heavily injured. However, he didn't care about that. He inclined his head and stared at the battle between Lin Xiao and Yue Changkong. Killing intent could be seen in his eyes, he ignored Lin Xiao and rushed towards Yue Changkong, wanting to kill him.

Yue Changkong who was currently fighting against Lin Xiao immediately dodged when he saw Qin Wentian flying over, he wanted to flee the battlefield. Lin Xiao alone was already fearsome enough and Qin Wentian, after gaining the power of an evil art, was also much more terrifying than the past. He killed the three experts from the Qin Clan in succession. Under such circumstances, Yue Changkong naturally didn't want to battle. If he fought against the two of them now, it would only be courting death.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed coldly as sealing light appeared in the sky, isolating this space. Lin Xiao also grabbed out towards the air as a Qiankun giant palm imprint grabbed towards Yue Changkong. Today, he was here to kill Yue Changkong, how could he let Yue Changkong escape?

An extremely cold and evil glint flashed through Yue Changkong's eyes. He suddenly reversed his direction as a gigantic terrifying devil head appeared, desiring to devour the sky. It directly shot towards Qin Wentian, wanting to swallow him whole.

"Qiankun Reversal!" Lin Xiao icily shouted. The Qiankun Dao Art reversed the devouring energy, changing the target from Qin Wentian to Yue Changkong himself. Yue Changkong's expression drastically changed. At this moment, Qin Wentian has already rushed over and he still chose close-combat, staking his life in his attacks. Qin Wentian who was covered in blood, his palm force felt even sharper than swords, directly penetrating Yue Changkong's body.

"GO TO HELL!" Yue Changkong seemed to be waiting for this moment. All his entire devouring energy erupted forth at this instant as his palms slammed into Qin Wentian's body. In Yue Changkong's eyes, the flames of hatred also flickered!

Chapter 1844: Because I Believe

Qin Wentian and Yue Changkong both staked their lives in the attacks, this caused those spectators to feel their hearts trembling as they watched. Now, not only had Qin Wentian gone crazy, this Yue Changkong was also staking it all on one throw. He knew that he wasn't able to fight against both Qin Wentian and Lin Xiao. He could only stake his life. Terrifying devouring might absorbed the energy in Qin Wentian's body, but at the very same moment, a power that could seal everything, including life itself, seeped into his body along with the energy of that terrifying evil blood art Luoshen Lei passed on to Qin Wentian.

At this moment, evil permeated the air. The terrifying devil head, the towering black mist in the sky, the bloody light illuminating the area. It was like no matter who got near, everyone would die.

Qin Wentian's body withered, his energy was being devoured at a rapid pace. Yue Changkong turned into a blood man, so much blood flowed around him that he was about to be completely engulfed by that bloody light. When Lin Xiao saw this, he didn't move ahead. He simply frowned. These two people, how strong was their hatred for each other? Qin Wentian's obsession with killing Yue Changkong was even stronger than his.

"BOOM!" An even more powerful blood light enveloped everything. Yue Changkong screamed in pain and exploded into a cloud of bloodmist. That gigantic devil head blotting out the sun also exploded at this moment. Qin Wentian was heavily injured by the destructive might as even more wounds opened up on his body.

At this moment, the poisonous qi drifted over, frenziedly seeping into Qin Wentian's body. Clearly, that supreme existence from the God Destroying Palace decided to act. Since he could eliminate his opponents here with a single strike and refine more blood poison, why should he not do so?

Devilox also wanted to act. This was a once in a lifetime opportunity. However, Divine Sound was constantly staring at him and immediately moved to block every time he showed an intention to act against Qin Wentian. Upon seeing the poisonous qi attacking Qin Wentian, Divine Sound folded incantation gestures as formless energy from sound waves cloaked Qin Wentian within, isolating the poisonous qi.

"Why do you have to do this?" Divine Sound sighed when he saw how pitiful Qin Wentian looked now. Luoshen Lei sacrificed her life to pass on the power of the evil art to Qin Wentian. This supreme genius Qin Wentian then fell and became an evil devil, exterminating the three experts from the Qin Clan and killed Yue Changkong. However, he himself was about to die.

"Can you bring him away?" Divine Sound glanced at Goddess Nichang as he asked. Before this, Goddess Nichang also acted to help Qin Wentian. Although he didn't know what was the reason behind why she helped Qin Wentian, but of all the people here now, she was the only one who could save him now.

Goddess Nichang nodded lightly. With a flash of her silhouette, she flew towards Qin Wentian. A formless energy carried Qin Wentian up and after that, she brought Qin Wentian along as she sped into the distance, preparing to leave this dangerous battlefield.

Upon seeing this scene, everyone felt puzzled. Goddess Nichang was helping Qin Wentian, was it because she felt pity for him? The three experts of the Qin Clan wanted to act against her, and Qin Wentian was their enemy as well. Was this the actual reason?

No one knew what was the real answer.

Somebody acted to obstruct her, but Divine Sound coldly spoke, "Before entering the sacred academy, the students of the academy weren't told of any secrets. However, the heavenly deities did warn us to guard our original hearts. However, some among you already have your original hearts corroded away by the temptation of the evil spirits. Now, are you still not going to stop?"

Lin Xiao glanced at the experts in the surroundings and calmly spoke, "In the legendary place, the world of reincarnation, it is a place that allows one to see themselves clearly. Is it true that only by becoming the only one remaining here would one receive the recognition of this world? That is merely wild speculation. I came to the legendary place merely to broaden my horizons. Even if I found no good fortune here, it wouldn't affect my martial dao. Just let things be concluded like this here today."

The Qin Clan's experts and Yue Changkong all died. They can be considered as having paid for their actions towards the Mystical Maiden. Next, he still had to deal with one more person. Gui Chen from the Prison God Clan also participated in this earlier.

Goddess Nichang brought Qin Wentian away. Poisonous qi continued flowing towards them. Divine Sound frowned and with a flash of his silhouette, he directly rushed towards a certain direction to look for the source of the poisonous qi. Han Sha, of the God Destroying Palace.

The Divine Sound World Overlord had an extraordinary position in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and was also a ranker of the Heavenly Dao Rankings. He can even be considered the strongest one on there. In the academy, he could easily deal with Devilox. Maybe, his talent wasn't higher compared to the others but his current strength was undoubtedly powerful enough. After he found Han Sha, the two of them started a battle. But at the end, Divine Sound's body was invaded by the poisonous qi and he had no choice but to retreat. However, Goddess Nichang and Qin Wentian had already safely fled faraway during this time.

Everything here seemed as though they no longer had a connection with Qin Wentian.

Several months later, in a quiet and remote place in the world of reincarnation, there were a few small huts here with green mountains and ancient peaks in the background. Before the huts, a huge forest could be seen. There was even a feeling of peace and tranquility in the air.

However, despite that, a jarring sense of evil tainted the atmosphere. Blood qi would occasionally drift across the sky, it was extremely terrifying. And under such strange surroundings, outside one of the little huts, an extremely beautiful maiden could be seen. Just by existing, she was like the most beautiful scenery in the world. Even if there are even more beautiful environments, they wouldn't be able to compare to her magnificence.

At this moment, a flash of red light erupted. The eyes of the beautiful maiden flashed as she stared at one of the little huts. After that, a figure walked out from there. He was extremely handsome but he radiated a bloodthirsty aura that fluctuated wildly.

This man was none other than Qin Wentian. As for the maiden, she was none other than the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang.

Qin Wentian stared at the beautiful maiden before him as an evil light flickered in his eyes, containing a terrifying invasive presence which caused Goddess Nichang to frown as she exuded a cold intent that bore down on him.

"The evil art was directly passed on by Lei`er to me, my foundation is unstable and from that battle previously, I'm heavily injured. Now, I find it even tougher to control the evil art. Even towards you, I would feel vile intentions and wished to kill you. You better go." Qin Wentian spoke honestly to Goddess Nichang. The evil arts would instinctively corrupt one's personality. The influence was even greater on him because his foundation was unstable.

Goddess Nichang glanced at him. After that, she turned her head and stared at the scenery in the distance. Qin Wentian also started in the distance. The scenery here was extremely beautiful and there was an exceptional beauty just beside him. Even if he didn't cultivate an evil art, any normal man would have some thoughts of lust in their minds.

"You brought me to many places before coming here. I can faintly sense that I've killed several people already." Qin Wentian lightly spoke. After that battle that day, his consciousness grew blurry but he could still faintly sense that Goddess Nichang brought him to a small town to recuperate. After that, during his recuperation, the people of that small town all died completely. That place became a bloody hell. That scene was like a nightmare, tormenting his heart.

"Why did you help me?" Qin Wentian suddenly asked. He didn't understand her motives. Could it simply be because he dealt with those three from the Qin Clan as they had designs on her?

But if this was the case, she could simply bring him away and left him here. There was no need for her to stay here to protect him.

Goddess Nichang didn't reply Qin Wentian's question. Her beautiful eyes stared at him as she softly spoke, "Since you know the cause, you should simply cultivate quietly here, stabilizing your state of heart and eliminate the heart demon. You can control yourself today, in the future, you can slowly adjust and regain full control of yourself."

"I will do my best. However, there's no need for you to stay here." Qin Wentian didn't continue probing when he saw that Goddess Nichang didn't want to answer his question. He only hoped that she would leave. Because her presence here would stir up evil thoughts in his heart. He was afraid that he wouldn't be able to control the urge to turn her into a blood puppet.

"The environment here is very tranquil, there are no other humans around. If you head a little towards the eastern direction, there is a demon beast mountain range there. If you truly cannot control yourself, you can head there." Goddess Nichang softly spoke. After that, she stood up and with a flash, her figure disappeared, departing the area.

After she left, Qin Wentian heaved a sigh of relief. The bloodthirst in his eyes flashed as blood qi bubbled up as though he could no longer suppress himself. He let out a low roar of agony, the evil demon that would manifest from cultivating the evil art was attacking his heart, wanting to influence him. His condition was far more serious than Luoshen Lei. Earlier, he did his best to endure it and persuade Goddess Nichang to leave. It was because he was worried that he would harm her.

From afar, Goddess Nichang sat on an ancient peak. Staring at the blood light permeating the sky, her state of heart had some fluctuations. So it turned out that Qin Wentian already found it tough to control himself. Seems like the influence of the evil art on him was extremely great.

However, she didn't leave. She chose to stay on this mountain peak.

In the blink of an eye, several months passed. The wind and clouds outside changed, Qin Wentian seemed to be completely isolated from the world. Today, in the eastern direction of the huts, at the demon beast mountain range, clouds of blood qi covered the entire area as countless demon beasts died. Their blood dyed the entire area red and constituted a shocking sight.

When the Qin Clan's experts cultivated their evil arts, they started from the beginning and grew step by step. The influence of the evil arts slowly changed them, making it so that they couldn't control their lust. They even dared to make a move against Goddess Nichang and the Mystical Maiden. From this, one can imagine how tyrannical the evil arts are. As for Qin Wentian, he attained this level of power in a single leap, directly passed on to him by Lei`er. After obtaining the evil art, he directly experienced a bloody battle, fully unleashing the tyranny of the evil art. The counter-devouring effect on him was extremely great which led him to his current state.

Today, dark clouds covered the skies of the world of reincarnation. Lightning flashed and thunder crackled, a wild thunderstorm raged as torrential rain fell. Bolts of lightning constantly blasted down, and this scene was like that of an apocalypse.

At the quiet forest beneath the ancient peak, outside a little hut, the sounds of the thunderstorm could be clearly heard. Streaks of blood light flashed across the sky as a fearsome howled erupted forth. Qin Wentian rushed out from the hut, he was like a red bolt of lightning and wanted to leave the area.

But at this moment, within the storm, a beautiful figure stood there with thunder and lightning crackling in her background. Her clothes were now completely wet from the rain, further accentuating her wondrous figure. Her long hair was dripping wet and she exuded a transcendent beauty. She stared at Qin Wentian, "Where are you going?"

"Scram." Qin Wentian growled.

"Have you forgotten Luoshen Lei?" Goddess Nichang spoke.

RUMBLE~ A terrifying blood light radiated from Qin Wentian, wanting to engulf everything as a terrifying evil gleam flashed through his eyes. He moved with lightning speed and arrived before Goddess Nichang. His hands directly grabbed her arms. His eyes flared crimson as a powerful blood might threatened to swallow her whole.

"I told you to leave, why did you come back?!" Qin Wentian roared loudly.

"Because I believe that Qin Yuanfeng's son wouldn't be so useless!" Goddess Nichang's beautiful eyes icily regarded Qin Wentian. Her voice was like thunder from a clear sky, ringing out loud in Qin Wentian's mind.

Chapter 1845: Rainbow After the Storm

Qin Wentian's heart violently trembled. A hint of clarity appeared in his crimson eyes. His body trembled violently as the rain from the thunderstorm fell unceasingly, landing on the two of them. Under the illumination of the lightning, Goddess Nichang's beautiful face was so beautiful that it caused one's heart to tremble. Her wet clothes stuck to her body, further accentuating her perfect figure.

However, the Qin Wentian now didn't have any tender or protective feelings towards her. His fingers dug into her arms as blood flowed from her wounds. Upon sensing the aura of fresh blood, Qin Wentian's crimson eyes turned even redder. But when he looked at her clear eyes, he hesitated again, his heart was filled with incomparable agony.

"NOOOO!" He roared. Qin Wentian pulled his hands away, leaving deep scratches on Nichang's arms, tearing her sleeves away. Her fair jade-like skin was revealed, extremely tempting. If any ordinary men were to see the Nichang now, they would surely be mesmerized so deeply that they had no way to extricate themselves. However, Qin Wentian howled in rage and shot up to the sky, he was actually flying towards the region covered with lightning and thunder.

"LEAVE NOW!" Qin Wentian roared. Goddess Nichang inclined her head and stared at him. She didn't expect the influence of evil arts would actually be of such a high degree towards the hearts of those who cultivated it. If Qin Wentian failed to resist it and his heart inclined towards the demonic side, he would become the same as Yue Changkong and keep scheming to devour others. Because, only by giving in to the temptations would he no longer feel misery and pain. Only through the lives of others could all these be suppressed.

Nichang didn't leave, she also didn't bother about the skin she was showing. She simply stared at the figure in the air. Qin Wentian flew higher as higher, it was as though he wanted to find the source of the lightning and thunder.

"What do you want to do then?" Goddess Nichang's beautiful eyes flashed as she stared at Qin Wentian's actions. After that, she also soared up into the air. Qin Wentian continued flying higher and arrived at the center of the storm. The lightning and thunder here contained so much destructive power that they could destroy a world. There was also a vortex of energy there that could devour everything. Qin Wentian was clearly extremely tiny and inconsequential before the vortex.

His eyes still flared red but there was a hint of clarity within. That trace of clarity suppressed the power of the evil spirit. He stared at the heavenly might radiating from the lightning and thunder. After that, using his fingers as an outlet to channel his astral energy, he drew the lightning into him. At this moment, countless bolts of lightning and thunder congregated around Qin Wentian. His body was penetrated through as the blue light from the lightning and thunder energy covered him completely.

"If I'm destined to suffer in misery in the world of reincarnation forever, I would rather forsake all my cultivation." Qin Wentian lifted his head, a resolve could be seen in his gaze. Even more powerful lightning bolts shot through him. He did nothing to resist, allowing the destructive might to ravage his body, destroying his cultivation base. His body grew weaker and weaker, the blood light radiating from him also weakened. His life force weakened naturally as well.

Goddess Nichang's beautiful gaze froze there as she stared dumbfoundedly at everything. Was Qin Wentian planning to destroy his cultivation?

As the blood light grew weaker, although Qin Wentian also weakened, the clarity in his eyes grew stronger. His determination also grew more intense.

"Lei`er, elder brother ultimately has no way to continue down on this path. If this world of reincarnation truly has reincarnation, I'm willing to enter it and suffer a thousand tribulations and ten thousand calamities. I only wish that you are still alive!" Qin Wentian spoke to the sky crackling with lightning and thunder. He pointed to the vortex of energy and raged, "The reincarnation cycle is merciless. Sadly, my strength is too weak or I will DEFINITELY BREAK THE REINCARNATION CYCLE!!"

His voice seemed to have completely enraged the thunder and lightning in the air. In the next moment, all the lightning and thunder fused together, becoming even more violent. A pressure that could cause one to be breathless manifested. Goddess Nichang's expression drastically changed. The power of the heavenly lightning and thunder was actually so terrifying?

Was the world of reincarnation really so merciless?

"BOOM!" Another bolt of lightning penetrated Qin Wentian from his head. Qin Wentian's finger which was lifted in the air, slowly dropped down helplessly. The blood light radiating from him completely vanished, but his body also fell from the sky. The lightning and thunder crackled around him wildly and the torrential rains continued to fall on him.

Goddess Nichang's silhouette flashed. She stretched out her hand and caught hold of his falling body. At this moment, Qin Wentian's eyes were closed. His body was extremely fragile. Staring at the figure in her arms, Goddess Nichang sighed silently. Maybe giving up was then an act of the greatest courage.

Evil arts would bewitch one's heart. He'd rather give up on his immense cultivation base than to harm another innocent person.

This world of reincarnation was truly cruel indeed.

Her alluring figure floated gently down. Nichang carried Qin Wentian back into his little hut and placed him gently on the bed. She quietly sat at the side. She could only hope that all of this can end quickly.

There are too many people who have fallen, too many people who suffered in this world of reincarnation.

The atmosphere of the little hut was extremely quiet, there was no sound at all. Outside, the rain still continued falling and streaks of lightning could be seen flashing through the sky. It was like the world of reincarnation was raging. This storm lasted for a few days before it finally stopped.

During the evening after the storm stopped, Qin Wentian woke up from his coma. His body now was exceptionally fragile. As expected, all his cultivation base was gone. He was now nothing but a mortal. Naturally, the evil art was gone as well. It could no longer influence him.

Sitting up, Qin Wentian discovered that there were some spirit herbs and immortal fruits beside him. Qin Wentian took them and consumed them slowly. A clear stream of energy flowed within his body and this felt extremely comfortable. His physical strength slowly recovered and he felt a little more energetic. After he finished eating, he stood up and walked out of the hut.

The light from the sun set cast a beautiful shade on everything. Qin Wentian stared at the jade-green ancient trees in front of him and after that, he lifted his head and stared up in the air. He could see a rainbow that stretched for ten thousand miles in the sky. After that violent storm, the scene was actually so beautiful.

Qin Wentian continued forward, yet he didn't see Goddess Nichang. He then turned his head and gazed towards an ancient mountain behind the little huts. His gaze followed the mountain path to the peak and finally saw a beautiful figure standing there. She was robed in white and her black hair fluttered in the wind. The rainbow light shone upon her, she exuded a sense of holiness, beauty and boundless excellence like a portrait. Because of her presence, this place seemed to become a paradise on Earth. Even for Qin Wentian, he was also drawn in and stared quietly in a dumbfounded manner at Goddess Nichang.

That beautiful figure on the mountain peak seemed to sense something. Her beautiful eyes turned over and when she saw that Qin Wentian was awake, she took a step forward and floated gently down before flying over.

Her figure appeared beside Qin Wentian. She didn't say anything and merely stretched out her hand and pulled on Qin Wentian's arm. After that, she brought him along as she flew back to the ancient peak she was on earlier. Both of them didn't speak. No one was willing to disrupt the current atmosphere.

After arriving at the peak, Goddess Nichang still remained silent. She merely lifted her head and stared at the rainbow in the sky. It was like she brought Qin Wentian here to the ancient peak solely for the sake of admiring this beautiful scenery.

Qin Wentian also inclined his head. He stood beside her and stared at the sky. That beautiful scenery caused him to feel a sense of surrealism, as though he was in a dream.

He would occasionally glance at the maiden beside him. There was only pure admiration and no other emotions in his eyes. Maybe Nichang herself didn't realize that just by standing there, she would integrate with the scenery, causing it to be flawlessly perfect and beautiful.

A multi-colored bird suddenly flew through the air, it was actually a phoenix that was flying towards the rainbow. Goddess Nichang and Qin Wentian's gazes both froze as fluctuations appeared in their calm hearts. After that, the rainbow light illuminating the area grew brighter and brighter, eventually enveloping this entire world of reincarnation.

The boundless rainbow light cascaded down and illuminated everything. In the air, a blurry building appeared. It was like a mirage, shimmering in and out of existence, gradually growing clearer.

Within there, a saint palace could be seen. This saint hall was majestic, holy and imposing. The rainbow light seemed to be the most concentrated there. The phoenix circled around the saint palace. This saint palace radiated an extremely holy glow, causing this originally already beautiful world to become even more breathtaking.

At this moment, the gate to the saint palace opened. Qin Wentian saw a beam of holy light shooting towards him and an instant later, that beam of light already blasted into his body. Goddess Nichang also sensed it and turned her head to look at Qin Wentian who was beside her. The contours of his face were extremely clear, he was truly a handsome individual. Although he has no cultivation, it did nothing to mask his magnificence.

A rare smile appeared in her beautiful eyes. At this moment, she was so beautiful that it was like the world has lost all its color.

After the storm, a rainbow had truly appeared!

Chapter 1846: The True Legendary Place

At this moment, the entire world of reincarnation could see the strange and resplendent phenomenon in the sky.

Those experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms stared at the air, feeling like they were in a dream.

This Reincarnation Saint Palace just manifested, rainbows were in the background, casting their radiance on it. There were even auspicious saint beasts flying in the air around it, truly a wondrous sight.

At this moment, the words 'legendary place' involuntarily appeared in their minds.

For the legendary place of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, could it be that the world of reincarnation wasn't it? It was this sacred palace that just appeared instead?

There were some who immediately flew into the air, wanting to head towards the sacred palace. However, they discovered that no matter how high they flew, the distance between them to the sacred palace remained the same, it was like they would never be able to reach there forever. They basically had no way to enter at all.

On the ancient peak, Goddess Nichang smiled at Qin Wentian. It was indescribable how beautiful she was. The Qin Wentian right now was enveloped by the rainbow light. A path leading towards the sacred palace seemed to open up, appearing before him. Clearly, it was welcoming him.

"Still not coming up?" A voice rang throughout the world. This voice was incomparably ethereal, like the voice of a divinity. This caused the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to tremble. These words...who were they for?

Did someone among them receive the recognition of the legendary place?

Qin Wentian faintly sensed that these words were spoken to him. He started a little. After that, he glanced at Goddess Nichang beside him only to see Nichang nodding her head at him, "Go on."

Qin Wentian turned his head back and glanced at the rainbow path leading to the sky. After that, he moved atop of it as his expression turned solemn. There was actually someone living in the legendary place?

The owner of the voice, was he the creator of the world of reincarnation? How powerful a character would that be? Could he also be the creator of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy?

At the moment Qin Wentian stepped upon the path, the rainbow path leading to the sky directly vanished. Qin Wentian's figure vanished as well along with the heavenly path.

In the air, the auspicious light was as bright as ever. Qin Wentian arrived before the sacred palace. Over there, a gate swung open as an ancient path appeared. Following that path, Qin Wentian continued forward and entered the sacred palace. After that, the scene suddenly changed, suddenly opening up to a wide panorama like he just arrived in a different world.

This world was an extremely beautiful one with blue skies and white clouds, there were also many auspicious saint beasts flying about. The scenery here was so beautiful that it seemed to be a place fit for the gods to stay in. Qin Wentian felt more and more curious, he continued ahead. After that, he saw an ox grazing on the grass. This ox was extremely gigantic and its gaze burned with spirit, staring right back at him. Although it was just an ox, it gave Qin Wentian an unfathomable feeling.

"Might I ask Senior Ox what place is this?" Qin Wentian asked.

The ox cast a glance behind it, signalling Qin Wentian that he should continue moving ahead. Qin Wentian nodded to the old ox and continued on the path. He saw several maidens here and all of them were exceptional beauties, each radiating a holy aura like a lofty goddess far out of reach. They gave Qin Wentian the feeling that not one of them was any weaker than his teacher Goddess Gudu.

Waves of shock rose in his heart, he couldn't remain calm. There were snow-white foxes playing ahead and even further up, there was a figure sitting there, exuding a casual sense of carefreeness. This figure was dressed in white but his appearance was extremely young and handsome. With just a glance from him, Qin Wentian felt that all his secrets were seen through. It was like before this young man in white, he had no secrets at all.

This young man in white was smiling at him. Beside him, there was a maiden that was incomparably saint-like, she projected an aura of innocence and elegance, her beauty has even surpassed Goddess Nichang.

Next to them, there was an immense flower petal. On top of the flower petal, a scene manifested. This scene looked very familiar, it was actually the projection of the world of reincarnation. The scene on this flower petal seemed to reflect everything that has happened in the world of reincarnation.

Was this the legendary buddhist saying? To see the world in a grain of sand, to see heaven in a wild flower petal?

Qin Wentian's heart pounded, he felt involuntarily nervous for some reason. He could faintly sense that this handsome young man in front of him was a truly supreme character that stood at the very peak of everything. Among all those people he met before, maybe only the Time King was qualified to be mentioned in the same breath as this young man.

"Junior Qin Wentian pays my respects to Senior." Qin Wentian politely greeted.

The young man laughed, "No need to be so courteous. After going through a reincarnation and arriving in this world, you have suffered a lot. I even heard you shouting saying that you want to break the reincarnation cycle of my world?"

Qin Wentian sweated. However, given this young man's identity, he most probably wouldn't care about those words.

"It has been many years since I came here. That little fellow, why did he suddenly open this place to everyone? But luckily I managed to meet you, and in any case your personality is something that suits my taste. Hence, I summoned you here." The young man smiled. Qin Wentian was completely speechless. So the reason why they managed to enter the world of reincarnation and the so-called 'trial,' was simply dependent on the mood of this young man? This was truly…

However, his heart trembled soon after that. The opening of this place had to go through the headmaster's agreement. Could it be that the headmaster of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was the 'little fellow' he was talking about? Upon thinking of this, Qin Wentian felt extremely shocked.

"I can satisfy a request of yours. What do you want?" The white-robed young man directly spoke. "Naturally, don't indulge in fantasy, asking for overly excessive things like me granting you a heavenly deity cultivation base. If you wish to ascend to the peak, it would be best if you took things step by step and slowly enhance your cultivation, depending on your comprehension. But if you want deity-level or even godking-level innate techniques and secret arts, I can satisfy your requests."

"This world of reincarnation, is this a world created by senior?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Mhm." The young man in white nodded.

"Since this is the case, senior should have absolute control over this world, right? If I want my younger sister to come back alive, is this nothing but a foolish fantasy?" Qin Wentian stared at the white-robed young man.

The white-robed young man smiled, "How difficult can that be? I can simply reverse time in my world."

"Many thanks senior." Qin Wentian drew in a deep breath, this was truly possible indeed. He connected this to his experience in the Time Realm. The Godking of Time was able to bring him back to the past, controlling time in the realm he created. In that case, for this supreme existence before him should naturally be able to do it as well. In addition, it seemed that this request was so simple that it was unworthy of a mention.

"Are you sure you want such a simple request?" The white-robed young man smiled at him. "Do you know that you can request things with much higher conditions and I would agree as well? For example, I can gift a deity-level heavenly mount to you. Do you want it?"

Qin Wentian had a face filled with black lines, feeling somewhat speechless, wasn't this stark naked temptation? A deity-level mount, it was something equal to the heavenly deities in his world yet this young man could simply gift such an existence to him? What level has this young man reached? Most probably, he has truly transcendent everything and stood at the absolute peak, right?

If his cultivation base reached the level of this young man in white, he should be able to deal with the entire Qin Clan easily, right?

"I'm sure." Although Qin Wentian's heart was trembling, he didn't hesitate. Lei`er was his only sister, how could he allow her to die here in the world of reincarnation? As for everything else, he would achieve it with his own strength some day.

"Right." The white-robed young man smiled and nodded. A trace of admiration flashed in his eyes. If it wasn't for his admiration, it would also be impossible for Qin Wentian to come to this place. If Qin Wentian made some other requests, he might actually even look down on Qin Wentian.

Among these experts who came here from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there were still many with strong wills and good personalities, managing to guard their original hearts and not fall to the temptation to the evil spirits. In fact, any of them would be willing to pay any price to seek enlightenment of the great dao. However, ultimately, he still chose to allow Qin Wentian to enter here because Qin Wentian's personality was somewhat in accordance with his own.

With a resolute heart, with a brave and unyielding impulse. For the sake of his loved one, he willingly descended into madness and in order not to harm his friends and innocents, he refused to allow the evil influence to corrupt him, choosing to give up everything instead, allowing the lightning and thunder to cripple his cultivation. From Qin Wentian, this young man in white could see someone who remained true to himself.

No matter how strong someone is, how high their cultivations are, if they chose to abandon everything including friendship, kinship, their humanity, just to achieve the great dao, these people would be nothing but scum.

"Your cultivation base should be at the world overlord level outside, right? The next cultivation realm is the heavenly deity realm for you. Do you have any thoughts with regards to your own cultivation?" The white-robed young man asked. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, he understood that this supreme character wanted to give him some pointers. He then replied, "Right now, I still feel somewhat blurry about the heavenly deity realm. I once heard the teachers in the sacred academy saying that a heavenly deity was simply someone who comprehended a heavenly dao, but I don't really understand much by that. Now, what I feel that I can do is simply to think of more ways to combine source origins together, slowly approaching the source and origins of heavenly dao step by step."

"What is the heavenly dao?" The white-robed young man asked.

Qin Wentian started. That day in the past in the sacred academy, Qin Dangtian was discussing the dao with the three heavenly deities and they had discussed this question as well.

Staring at the look of contemplation on Qin Wentian's face, the white-robed young man spoke again, "The cultivation of humans requires one to grow stronger step by step. For whichever cultivation realm, it's merely a qualitative transformation in energy. As to what source origins mean, and what heavenly dao means, they are merely a representation of you yourself. The will of humans can triumph over the heavens. When you obtain your dao, you will be the heavenly dao. When you comprehend insights into the different laws, there's no need for you to be restricted, limiting yourself in a box. You have to dare to imagine what others dare not imagine. Do you understand?"

Qin Dangtian's words in the past rang out in Qin Wentian's mind, it was very similar to the words of this white-robed young man. He silently mused in his heart, as expected of the title Heaven's Son. His comprehension of the heavenly dao was very close to the truth. No wonder he had supreme confidence in himself.

"As for the world of reincarnation, in reality, it is just a type of world. It isn't the true reincarnation cycle which you imagined. After all, I didn't cultivate in the reincarnation laws." The young man laughed. He stretched his hand out and that gigantic flower petal reflecting the world of reincarnation floated towards him, landing on his palm. After that, with a wave of his hand, that flower petal flew towards Qin Wentian.

When the flower petal came in contact with Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian felt an incredible energy boring down on him, causing him to feel how tiny and inconsequential he was. This flower petal was most probably a type of heavenly dao.

"A world in a flower petal. Where my energy exists, everything can represent the heavenly dao. You can also do this as well. You can integrate your dao into anything in the world. For example, flower petals, tree leaves, saber, sword...Everywhere your energy exists, they would be the representations of your dao. Humans then, are the true source of the great dao."

Chapter 1847: Like a Dream

Qin Wentian felt like his head was anointed with the purest cream after he heard the white-robed young man's words. At this moment, he understood many questions which puzzled him before.

Jian Junlai had the title of Sword Monarch but this wasn't because he was proficient in sword arts. Rather, the sword was his dao. As for Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, when he fought, he was surrounded by ancient characters which contained different types of daos. He acted as the intermediary to tap on the power of the different daos.

Also, there were a multitude of innate techniques in the world. In the hands of different cultivators, these techniques would be transformed differently in accordance to their dao because of the different comprehensions each cultivator have. They were only borrowing innate techniques and secret arts as a bridge to display the power of the great dao.

A world in a flower petal. Even a single petal can contain heavenly dao. Since this was the case, why can't the multitude of living things in the world contain the dao? As long as one was strong enough, everything in heaven and earth could be used by them.

Humans were then the source of the great dao.

A truly powerful person didn't need to threaten others by purposely releasing dao might. For example, this young man in white just casually sat before him and already appeared like he was the source of the great dao. With a lift of his finger, he could use the heavenly dao as he wished. He, was the dao. This should be the true pinnacle of cultivation, right?

"You cultivate the source origins of laws, fusing them together to form your dao. However, the great dao comes in a myriad of forms, even for similar source origins, their fusions would result in different daos. You have to break your line of thinking and don't be limited by what others achieved before you. If not, how can you walk your own path?" The white-robed young man continued. "In addition, even if someone has only comprehended a single source origin, that too, can become the dao. And as for you, when you can reverse time and know the past and future, is that the limit of your dao then? What is the dao? You cultivated the laws of time, of space, of sealing. I saw you using time stop, life stop, these are all ways to apply the dao. However, all of these are what people before you have thought up. There are so many other ways to apply your dao, don't be restricted in your thinking by methods of the ancients. Let me give you an example and it will hopefully spark an insight. Time, can also be twisted, or stacked upon each other via different layers. You can trap someone within the twisting flows of time, rendering them lost forever in the great river of time."

Qin Wentian's heart trembled. He once cultivated in the World of Ten Thousand Laws and comprehended many heavenheart mandates. But now that he thought back about it, his thinking was audacious enough. These casual words by the young man in white had sparked many thoughts which he didn't dare to imagine before.

Everything was just a way to apply the energy of laws. His earlier thoughts were powerful no doubt, but that belonged to something commonly scene. He didn't jump out of the box, he didn't dare to have a bolder imagination.

When humans reached a certain cultivation realm, their thinking would experience a change. Even the ancient wills of the heavenly deities have not given him such guidance. From this, one could tell that the cultivation base of this young man in white far surpassed heavenly deities. Maybe, in his eyes, ordinary heavenly deities were nothing but mortals.

The two of them continued to chat about the heavenly dao and about laws. Qin Wentian spent the majority of time quietly listening and he would occasionally ask some questions. He knew that such an opportunity was extremely rare. The beautiful maidens around the young man in white quietly watched everything. Their gazes when they stared at Qin Wentian, was like looking like a junior from their family. That fellow, the young man in white, it has been many years since he guided someone so thoroughly. Seems like this Qin Wentian truly matched his taste. Maybe, it was because their personalities were similar.

Once, how much had he suffered and how many storms had he experienced before he reached this point? Only these maidens knew clearly in their hearts. However, this young man in white still guarded his original heart before he ascended to the peak. Now, he toured the different worlds and brought them along with him.

Unknowingly, much time passed. Qin Wentian seemed to have entered a state of meditation and was in the process of enlightenment. He forgot about the passing of time, the young man in white also gradually vanished along with the beautiful maidens.

Only after a long time did Qin Wentian open his eyes. Several ancient words drifted around him, transforming into halos of resplendent light. At the instant his eyes opened, these ancient words entered his mind. Qin Wentian could sense their intent. After that, he drew in a deep breath and bowed to the empty space before him as he mumbled, "Senior, when can we meet again?"

"When you ascend to the absolute peak, standing at a lofty position and looking down at the view of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, we might be able to meet again then." An ethereal voice rang out from the void. After that, Qin Wentian only felt a wondrous energy sending him out from this space. The majestic saint palace vanished all of a sudden and the phenomenom in the sky transformed. It felt like time was being reversed. Qin Wentian was then brought out from this space to the world of reincarnation.

When Qin Wentian appeared once again, many people also appeared around him. These were all the experts who entered the world of reincarnation.

Qin Wentian's gaze turned over like he was searching for something. Very soon, he saw a beautiful figure. Luoshen Lei.

"Lei`er!" Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he rushed towards Luoshen Lei. The Luoshen Lei at this moment was in a dumbstruck state. She stared at Qin Wentian before her as well as Grandpa Lifeless beside her and felt like she was stuck in a dream. However, this dream was so clear and so real.

Her eyes instantly reddened as tears flowed. She had experienced many years in the world of reincarnation, it was like another lifetime to her. Everything she went through here was still clear in her mind. She was betrayed and abandoned by the people from the Luoshen Clan, she harmed Grand Lifeless, she cultivated an evil art, and implicate her elder brother. All of this happened in this world. Now, those scenes felt like just a nightmare. Have things finally ended?

"Elder brother, Grandpa Lifeless!" Luoshen Lei called, her voice was so shaky that it would cause one's heart to break. Qin Wentian walked up and lightly pulled her into his embrace. He smiled, "Lei`er, everything has ended."

The reincarnation was reversed, everything went back to the beginning. The only thing that didn't disappear was their memories of this world. Everything they experienced was clearly etched in their minds. Maybe, this was the true purpose of the world of reincarnation, to aid people to find their true selves, seeing themselves and their original hearts clearly.

Regardless of whether they were kind or evil, everything was revealed in this world. This knowledge would greatly benefit their future cultivation.

"I'm still alive." Not only was Luoshen Lei still alive, everyone from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms who died in the world of reincarnation were alive. Naturally, this included Yue Changkong. But very soon later, Yue Changkong's face turned pale as fear flashed across his face. Because he saw his martial uncle and the two senior brothers of the Ziwei Divine Court walking towards him, their eyes flashing with killing intent.

"Martial uncle, senior brothers, I was also forced to do so. My heart was corrupted by the evil spirit, it wasn't my original intention." Yue Changkong spoke. However, his heart was ice cold, he still wanted their lives. After experiencing the world of reincarnation, his personality has also changed. The him now was the real him.

"So that's the case. Seems like I should forgive you?" His martial uncle coldly laughed. Yue Changkong actually used them as nutrients. Although the influence from the evil arts had some effect, this was only partial. Yue Changkong's heart must have already had that base desire to kill them all.

The expressions of the three experts from the Qin Clan drastically changed. Their gazes had hints of wariness when they stared at Goddess Nichang and the Mystical Maiden. Upon seeing the unfriendly gaze Lin Xiao shot him, their hearts grew cold. They had already died once, there was nothing to fear. They were people from the Qin Clan and after they left here, it wouldn't be an easy task even if Lin Xiao wanted to act against them. Now, they were thinking of how they should explain things to Qin Dangtian. If Goddess Nichang told Qin Dangtian about this, their endings would be extremely dire.

The few of them transmitted their voices to each other, thinking of a solution. But very swiftly after, their gazes landed on Qin Wentian. He shall be their out, Qin Wentian, the son of Qin Yuanfeng.

Che Ying, the supreme expert from the Che Clan, as well as Gui Chen from the Prison God Clan and Han Shan from the God Destroying Palace. They didn't really feel any fear. Since they had entered the world of reincarnation, that place could simply be considered a trial where the geniuses contended against each other. After exiting, could it be that the incidents which happened within would cause a war among deity-ranked peak powers out here in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?

Only Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan's experts were truly frightened. Because, they even acted against those of their own clan and sect. This was simply unforgivable.

Naturally, Luoshen Lei also had a grim expression in her eyes when she stared at the two clan members of hers. This time in the world of reincarnation, their relationship has been completely broken off. Most probably, an internal storm would arise once they went back to the Luoshen Clan.

Reverend Seven Abstinences from the Pureland of Bliss in the Western Paradise of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms pressed his palms together. Has everything concluded? No. This is just the beginning. Right now, their cultivation bases were restored to what they were originally. However, they had an additional lifetime worth of comprehensions. All these insights they gained were real and could be used to raise their cultivation base. Also, when in the world of reincarnation, he obtained a true and even more profound buddha art.

It was just that he still had a question on his mind. Who was the one who entered the legendary place?

That voice that rang out across the sky, who was it speaking to?

"I wonder who was it that entered the ancient palace in the sky, gaining access to the true legendary place." Seven Abstinences asked out loud. The eyes of everyone flashed as they glanced at their surroundings. No one spoke. Goddess Nichang cast a glance in Qin Wentian's direction. Only Qin Wentian and herself knew who was the one who entered the true legendary place.

"Since no one is going to reply, let's settle all our grudges after we get out of here. We have been in the world of reincarnation for too many years, I wonder how much time has passed in the outside world." Seven Abstinences continued. Everyone nodded and started to head out. The three experts from the Ziwei Divine Court were still staring at Yue Changkong, as though they were afraid that he might escape. Qin Wentian's hatred for Yue Changkong and the Qin Clan's expert still existed but he wasn't in a hurry to deal with them. Right now, Yue Changkong would find it hard to escape from the calamity even if he didn't act.

His gaze then turned to Goddess Nichang. She who had saved him in this world, was as holy as ever, her beauty unprofanable. She acted like she didn't know him and didn't cast a glance at him.

"Thank you." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Goddess Nichang. Goddess Nichang's expression was as calm as ever and she didn't reply. The group of them then departed through a spatial gate which appeared, signifying that they truly stepped out of this world of reincarnation and returned to the external world, inside the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Everyone felt like things in the external world happened a lifetime ago. Life was like a dream. Their time in the world of reincarnation was truly surreal!

Chapter 1848: Hand of Heaven

At the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, the entrance to the world of reincarnation, those heavenly deities from the various powers have yet to depart. To them, a single meditation session might last over a hundred years of time. Also, from the time their people entered the legendary place up until now, the period couldn't be considered very long. After all, the flow of time in there was different from the time in the external world.

When numerous figures suddenly appeared, those heavenly deities opened their eyes wide, as sharpness gleamed within. A formless pressure descended on this entire area. This was the natural aura of heavenly deities.

Has the trial finally ended? They came back from the legendary place. Now, everyone could finally know what sort of location the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy's legendary place was.

Those experts who exited the world of reincarnation silently glanced at the heavenly deities of their powers. Their feelings were all different. The three heavenly deities from the sacred academy were present as well. The heavenly deities here stared at the eyes of those who just exited the legendary place but they had no way to see anything at all.

"How is it?" Qin Dangtian took the initiative to ask. He gazed at the three experts from the Qin Clan. He himself wanted to enter the legendary place but there was a terrifying energy at the entrance that wanted to destroy his dao. Hence, he didn't enter.

But even so, he still wanted to know what sort of location the legendary place of the sacred academy was.

Each of the heavenly deities here were staring at the disciples and descendants of their respective powers. Some directly asked, there were also some who asked using voice transmission and immortal senses.

"Qin Yuanfeng has a son." At this moment, an expert from the Qin Clan suddenly spoke. He didn't reply to Qin Dangtian's question about the legendary place and chose to say this directly instead.

Qin Dangtian started, but after that, an extreme sharpness gleamed in his eyes. As Qin Zheng's son, he naturally was extremely familiar with this name 'Qin Yuanfeng.' The Qin Yuanfeng which was killed by the Qin Clan back then in the past, actually has a son?

"Who?" Qin Dangtian coldly asked. Another Qin Clan's expert turned his gaze to Qin Wentian and pointed at him. "Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian, he is the son of Qin Yuanfeng. In the legendary place, the world of reincarnation, Luoshen Lei addressed him as elder brother. He is none other than the son of Qin Yuanfeng as well as that demoness from the Luoshen Clan."

"Impudent!" The heavenly deity from the Luoshen Clan snorted angrily. This man actually dared to say the second miss of the Luoshen Clan back then was a demoness? At this moment, this heavenly deity was extremely shocked too. Second miss and Qin Yuanfeng actually had a son?

In addition, Luoshen Lei also knew about it. The Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian who rose to fame in the Convention of Myriad Realms had both the Qin Clan and Luoshen Clan's bloodlines within his veins?

For a period of time, the attention of all the experts here shifted from the legendary place to Qin Wentian. To heavenly deity characters, they naturally knew who Qin Yuanfeng was. This story of the Qin Clan was extremely fascinating and had drawn the focus of many powers back in the past.

Qin Dangtian's gaze landed on Qin Wentian. A hint of disdain flashed across his eyes as he calmly spoke, "No wonder the gaze you looked at me with was different. So, your surname 'Qin,' originates from my clan. Sadly, for you, a bastard whose father who was expelled from the Qin Clan, you are not worthy to have this surname."

Although he was somewhat shocked, he soon recovered. So what if Qin Yuanfeng had a son? Qin Wentian was just an ant to him, someone whom he can kill with absurd ease. Qin Yuanfeng truly had hidden very deeply indeed. He actually even had a son that no one knows about.

Qin Wentian inclined his head as a glacial gaze turned to Qin Dangtian. He clenched his fist. Luoshen Lei stood beside him and was also staring at Qin Dangtian with trepidation in her heart. She was blaming herself for revealing this due to a moment of anxiousness. This resulted in the situation now. There was killing intent in Qin Dangtian's eyes. The people of the Qin Clan would never spare her elder brother.

"Expelled?" Qin Wentian coldly stared at Qin Dangtian. "Do you know the despicable acts your father committed in the past? Back then, your father was weaker than my father. After losing, he summoned all the elders from the Qin Clan to surround my father, ganging up on him. Do you know this?"

Qin Dangtian's expression froze. His face turned even colder as a heavenly might radiated from him.

"I heard that right now, Qin Zheng is the Qin Clan's clan leader. A defeated loser actually became the clan leader of the Qin Clan? As for the son of the defeated loser, he is actually insulting my father here? You are as shameless as your father, and also, my surname Qin is something my father passed on to me. I don't have any connection with Qin Clan of the Heaven Region." Qin Wentian continued to mock. This debt of hatred would never be forgotten by him. Now that his identity was exposed, the Qin Clan and Qin Dangtian naturally would have killing intent towards him. Nothing would change this.

However, Qin Wentian knew that Qin Dangtian wouldn't be able to kill him in the sacred academy. There was no other reason than because after he entered the legendary place and met with the white-robed young man, he learned that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was actually created by him.

Naturally, even so, Qin Wentian still felt ashamed. For the current him, he could only depend on the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to protect his life. He still couldn't stand face to face and openly contend against Qin Dangtian, or head to the Qin Clan to seek revenge. His heart felt some pain, the thirst of increasing his strength began to increase.

"BOOM!" Qin Dangtian took a step forward. With just a step, the entire sacred academy was permeated by a stifling pressure. That formless pressure bore down on Qin Wentian but at the exact same moment, the three heavenly deities from the sacred academy also stepped out and stood in front of Qin Wentian. Staring at Qin Dangtian, the Lifegovern Heavenly Deity coldly spoke, "This place is the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy."

"So what?" Qin Dangtian replied just as coldly. His voice was as arrogant as ever, so what even if this place was the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy?

The three heavenly deities of the sacred academy have admitted in the past before that they were no match for him.

The various heavenly deities from the peak powers quietly watched this scene. Was the Qin Clan preparing to act against the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy?

Seems like it wouldn't be too late to discuss matters about the legendary place later. This internal grudge of the Qin Clan seemed to be very interesting too.

At this moment, another heavenly deity stepped forward. He walked towards Qin Wentian and stared at him, "Are you really the son of second miss?"

Qin Wentian didn't know who the 'second miss' in his words was. But Luoshen Lei knew. The second miss this deity was speaking about, was none other than Qin Wentian's mother, her aunt.

"He is my elder brother. My father also knows of this and has met with elder brother before. It's just that he didn't announce it." Luoshen Lei spoke. The eyes of that heavenly deity flashed with a dazzling light. He stood beside Qin Wentian and turned to face Qin Dangtian. No matter what attitude their Luoshen Clan would have towards Qin Wentian, since he was the second miss's son, there was no way he would permit Qin Wentian to be killed by the Qin Clan's experts here.

"There's nothing much about the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. But the sacred academy wouldn't permit people acting brazen in here." Lifegovern Heavenly Deity coldly spoke. Qin Dangtian was too arrogant.

"Did you all not hear his words? This man has admitted that he is the son of the traitor of my Qin Clan. I will naturally bring him back with me. Could it be that the sacred academy wishes to interfere in my clan's business?" Qin Dangtian domineeringly spoke. He had to bring Qin Wentian away for sure today.

"If this place is the Qin Clan, you can naturally handle this however you want to. However, Qin Wentian is a student of the sacred academy. Since this is within the sacred academy, this is naturally our matter as well." The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity naturally wouldn't compromise. If they allowed Qin Dangtian to bring Qin Wentian away, what face would their Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy still have to transmit the dao to everyone in the world? If a student of theirs was forcibly brought away by others, the word 'humiliation' probably wouldn't be able to describe their emotions.

This wasn't only because the Lifegovern Heavenly Deity wanted to protect Qin Wentian. He was doing this also for the sake of protecting the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

"What if I say I have to bring him away no matter what?" Halos appeared around Qin Dangtian as a burst of dao might gushed forth. In an instant, the world changed color. Many experts in the surroundings retreated, giving Qin Dangtian more space. This Qin Dangtian was truly arrogant enough, actually directly telling the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy he wanted to take someone away, he wasn't afraid to start a war with the heavenly deities of the sacred academy.

"The juniors of the Qin Clan don't have any manners?" At this moment, a voice rang out from the void. Upon hearing this voice, the eyes of the three heavenly deities flashed while a look of relief appeared on their faces. That old man actually arrived. Since that was the case, all the problems here naturally wouldn't be problems any longer.

"Insolent." Qin Dangtian inclined his head and stared into the air. "Which cowardly rat is it? Daring to insult my Qin Clan."

"Since you, a junior of the Qin Clan has no manners, let me teach you on behalf of your seniors." That voice rang out. After that, the heavens rumbled. The crowd stared up in the air only to feel an irresistible heavenly might congealing together into a giant hand. This hand was like the hand of heaven, it pressed downwards, aiming for Qin Dangtian.

Qin Dangtian's eyes shone with a divine glow. The heavenly dao halos around him were brimming with immense power. At the heart of each halo, there was an ancient character which represented a different heavenly dao. These ancient characters then shot towards the giant hand, but under the immense pressure from the hand, the ancient characters all collapsed before managing to slam into it. The giant hand then continued smacking towards Qin Dangtian.

"RUMBLE~" Qin Dangtian soared into the air, his bloodline power erupting forth. The halos shone even more resplendently as more of them shot towards the giant hand from the sky. However, everything was useless, the ten thousand laws he sent out was all completely destroyed.

Qin Dangtian felt that something was wrong. He rapidly retreated, moving a thousand miles with a single step. However, the giant hand from the sky tracked his movements perfectly and directly grabbed towards his body, holding him securely in its clutch.

Qin Dangtian struggled frenziedly but he didn't have a way to break free.

"Since you are so lacking in manners, from now onwards, no descendants from the Qin Clan shall be allowed to enter the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy for cultivation. Although the sacred academy teaches the masses, we will not teach people like you." From the void, the voice boomed like thunder, filled with tyranny. After that, the giant hand simply made a tossing motion and in an instant, Qin Dangtian was flung an immensely far distance away, completely leaving the territory of the sacred academy.

A supreme heavenly deity, the Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, was tossed out like an ant. Within the sacred academy, the hearts of all the heavenly deities trembled as fear and respect appeared in their eyes. They understood that one must not lightly insult this majestic dao transmission academy that has lasted for countless years.

A person suddenly appeared in the minds of heavenly deities here. Other than the mysterious headmaster of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, there was probably no one else with such strength.

"Did the few of you not hear his words? In the future, no descendants from the Qin Clan shall be permitted to enter the sacred academy." The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity coldly spoke to the Qin Clan's experts. The Qin Clan's experts only felt an intense shame, all of them turned and hurriedly departed. The people from the sacred academy all felt satisfaction and joy in their hearts, finally, their breath of resentment had been vented out, returning the shame the Qin Clan brought to the sacred academy two-fold back to them.

"I, Qin Dangtian, shall remember the humiliation today. In the future, I will definitely come again to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and return this debt of shame ten fold." An incomparably enraged voice drifted from afar, causing the heavens and earth to tremble. That voice belonged to Qin Dangtian. He was completely humiliated and filled with reluctance to accept this outcome. He was a heavenly deity of the mighty Qin Clan, yet he was treated like an ant and tossed out like garbage? What a great humiliation was this?

In this life, he had always been a legendary character. Since he was young up until now, he had always basked in glory with no stain on his reputation at all. He was even given the title of Heaven's Son. However, there was now a black mark on his reputation. This would be recorded down in history, it would be a black mark on his reputation that he wouldn't be able to wipe away!

Chapter 1849: Follow Up

The Qin Clan's experts were expelled by the sacred academy. The expressions of the other heavenly deities changed. Before this, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was pressured by the various peak powers and ultimately chose to compromise and open the legendary place, allowing the experts from the various powers to enter. Most probably, the sacred academy held a grudge for that.

"Since everyone wished to enter the legendary place, our sacred academy has compromised and allowed disciples of the various powers to enter. Now that they are out, you all can leave now, right?" The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity spoke, clearly issuing an expulsion order. Many powers had joined forces to pressure them before, there was naturally no need for him to be polite. Right now, these peak powers have already obtained what they wanted, what else do they want to do to the sacred academy?

Even if they really planned on doing something, they most probably still have to consider the existence of that mysterious headmaster, right?

"We have imposed on the sacred academy for too long. We will take our farewell now." The reverends from the Pureland of Bliss spoke. The monks here all pressed their palms and bowed to the sacred academy before leaving.

"Reverends, please have a safe journey back." The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity naturally would be polite to those who were courteous.

After that, the different powers left one by one. There was no meaning for them to stay behind. When they left, the heavenly deities also inquired of their disciples and descendants about the things that happened in the legendary place. This was the first time the sacred academy has opened the legendary place to everyone. They were naturally very curious about what was inside there.

Goddess Nichang left silently without saying anything. Qin Wentian stared at her back until her figure vanished yet she didn't turn back. He could only keep his gratitude towards her deep in his heart.

Only the experts from the Luoshen Clan haven't left yet. The eyes of the two world overlords, who entered the world of reincarnation with Luoshen Lei, flashed. Now, their relationship with the Luoshen Clan was completely destroyed. It was just that they had no idea that Qin Wentian had the blood of Luoshen Clan in his body earlier. When Qin Wentian's identity was exposed in the world of reincarnation, they had already died by Luoshen Lei's hand. Now that they learned of this, many thoughts involuntarily flashed through their minds. Their faction and Luoshen Lei's faction was fighting against each other precisely because of that matter in the past which concerned Qin Wentian's parents.

Now, Qin Wentian who was their descendant, has finally appeared.

The heavenly deity from the Luoshen Clan stared fixedly at Qin Wentian, as though wanting to see through him.

"Elder brother, I'll return to the Luoshen Clan first. You have to be careful." Luoshen Lei spoke to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's identity was already exposed. She naturally wanted to head back and report this to her grandfather. She didn't know what the attitude of the Luoshen Clan would be.

"Right." Qin Wentian nodded. "You too."

As he spoke, he coldly glanced at the two world overlords of the Luoshen Clan. In the world of reincarnation, they had already died. And now, with a heavenly deity present, he naturally couldn't do anything to them. However, once they returned to the Luoshen Clan, a storm would surely arise. For this matter, his grandfather which was also Luoshen Lei's grandfather, most probably wouldn't ignore this.

"I understand." Luoshen Lei nodded, understanding Qin Wentian's meaning.

World Overlord Lifeless also cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian. After that, the people form the Luoshen Clan departed. Before leaving, that heavenly deity from the Luoshen Clan was still staring at Qin Wentian, he had many questions in his heart. Seems like he could only get some answers to those questions through Luoshen Lei for now.

Very swiftly, everyone left. Even for Devilox, he also departed along with the members from the Divine Ox Clan. He had thoroughly offended Qin Wentian. Also, he knew that Divine Sound disliked him very much. If he still stayed in the sacred academy, there would be no benefits for him. Divine Sound was much stronger than him and Qin Wentian's current strength was probably not any weaker than him as well.

Other than the evil art, Qin Wentian had comprehended many insights into different laws when he was in the world of reincarnation. Now that he was back to the real world, his insights naturally stayed with him. Back then in the world of reincarnation, before Luoshen Lei passed the evil art to Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian had already displayed immense strength.

The raging storm which forced the sacred academy to compromise, seemingly concluded like this. Naturally, no one knew what the consequences in the real world would be, after all the events that happened in the world of reincarnation.

There were still countless experts gathered outside the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. The guests staying in Daoask City came from all directions. Right now, upon seeing the peak powers leaving, all of them wanted to find out what happened in the sacred academy. However, only those peak powers knew the truth, it was clear that the news of what happened inside wouldn't spread so quickly.

After Qin Dangtian was sent flying from the sacred academy, he still remained in Daoask City. He transmitted his voice and told the three Qin Clan's experts to gather at his location. At the same time, he also sent a voice transmission to Goddess Nichang, "Nichang, let's return to the Heaven Region together."

"No need, I will leave on my own." Goddess Nichang calmly replied, her tone was empty of emotions. Qin Dangtian frowned slightly but he didn't say anything. He then replied, "Okay, be careful on your way back."

After the Qin Clan's experts arrived, Qin Dangtian spoke, "Tell me what happened."

He was naturally referring to things in the legendary place. Qin Wentian's matter can be tossed aside temporarily. Qin Dangtian shall allow Qin Wentian to live a little longer.

"The legendary place is a world of reincarnation. After we entered there, our minds were filled with tens of years of memories growing up in that place. Also, the things in there seemed to be very similar to the outside world. We were born in a dual-faction Qin Clan, as for the other faction, Qin Wentian was born there. At that time, we were already puzzled. If the world of reincarnation reflects the real world, why would Qin Wentian also be born in the dual-faction Qin Clan? We only knew the reason after that." An expert coldly spoke. After that, they gave Qin Dangtian a summary of what happened inside the world of reincarnation.

Qin Dangtian's eyes gleamed sharply after he heard that. "Could it be that the creator of the legendary place can calculate heavenly fate and knows of the destiny of every living thing?"

"In addition, even until now, you guys have no idea who it was that had entered the sacred palace in the clouds?"

"No idea. No one admitted it. However, there's still a matter which I don't know if I should report or not." An expert from the Qin Clan solemnly spoke with a hesitant tone.

Qin Dangtian swept his gaze over, "Just speak."

His domineering tone caused the Qin Clan's expert to be very uncomfortable. Qin Dangtian can be considered their junior but there was no choice, he was a heavenly deity, the Heaven's Son, while they are merely world overlords. Qin Dangtian's personality has always been like this. Although he was recently humiliated by the sacred academy, his arrogance didn't change.

"Goddess Nichang seemed to have an unclear relationship with Qin Wentian in the world of reincarnation." One of them spoke. Qin Dangtian's eyes gleamed sharply, he stared at that expert, "What did you say? Nichang had interactions with that vile spawn?"

"Yes. This matter is true. The two of them seemed to have an extraordinary relationship in the world of reincarnation. For this, there was some conflict between us and Goddess Nichang but we decided to let the matter go once we came back to the external world. After all, she is a woman you looked up to." Another person spoke. Clearly, the three of them have already discussed and set their story straight. If not, if their lustful thoughts towards Nichang in the world of reincarnation were known by Qin Dangtian, the consequences would be extremely dire.

Also for such a matter, given Goddess Nichang's personality, she wouldn't take the initiative to complain. If Qin Dangtian had speculations, given his pride, he also wouldn't ask her directly. They naturally hoped that they would be able to keep it under wraps.

Qin Dangtian frowned, he believed the Qin Clan's experts words to some degree because he knew of some information the other party didn't know. Goddess Nichang's grandfather Qu Shen, he didn't merely have a good relationship with his own grandpa Qin Ding. Qu Shen also had a very good relationship with Qin Yuanfeng's father, Qin Tiangang.

No wonder Nichang wanted to leave alone. Was this the reason?

"Let's return first." Qin Dangtian coldly spoke. After that, the group of them departed, preparing to return to the Heaven Region. He had to report the existence of this vile spawn Qin Wentian to his father. Right now, he still had no idea how old Qin Wentian was. After knowing his age, they could then began to deduce some things.

For example, if Qin Wentian's age was not too old, this could mean that a person should have died, didn't actually die then.

If Qin Yuanfeng didn't die then, wouldn't things be very interesting?

...

The people from the Ziwei Divine Court also left. Yue Changkong's martial uncle and the two other disciples surrounded Yue Changkong closely in a triangle formation, not giving him any chance to escape. Upon seeing this scene, that heavenly deity knew that something must have happened in the world of reincarnation.

After traveling for some time, that heavenly deity calmly stopped. "What's the matter? Just say it directly."

"Senior brother…" His junior apprentice brother, Yue Changkong's martial uncle, wanted to speak but Yue Changkong directly knelt down and interjected. "Master, disciple became a beggar in the world of reincarnation and suffered endless humiliation. My heart was confused by an evil spirit and I cultivated an evil art that allowed be to devour others to increase my strength. After that, I met with martial uncle and my two senior brothers but because my thinking was long corroded by the evil art, I acted against them and killed them. Disciple deserve a thousand deaths, I don't dare to beg for my life. I only hate that I won't be able to learn from master's teachings any more. Master, please grant me death."

"You still have the face to say this?" Yue Changkong's martial uncle stared at the kneeling Yue Changkong as his killing intent gushed forth. Was Yue Changkong trying to garner sympathy? Did he think that they were fools?

"Senior brother, although evil arts could influence one's thinking, it doesn't mean that he cannot control them. Yue Changkong has long had the intention to betray us. For the sake of obtaining strength, he can be unscrupulous and use all methods. Since he wishes for death, senior brother, why don't you grant him his wish?" That hegemonic-level world overlord spoke.

"Master, please kill Yue Changkong." The two other disciples also spoke. They didn't obtain anything in the world of reincarnation because they died too early. This was all caused by Yue Changkong.

"Evil arts?" The heavenly deity frowned. "What's going on? What exactly happened inside there?"

"Senior brother, the legendary place is the world of reincarnation. We were from the Moon God Hall there, which reflected the Ziwei Divine Court. There were many evil spirits sealed in that world and they could influence the minds of cultivators like us. Yue Changkong was one such individual that chose to cultivate an evil art."

"And after that?" The heavenly deity asked. The eyes of the three people flashed, they had no way to answer this question. After all, they were killed by Yue Changkong very early on.

"We got plotted against and were eventually killed by this vile creature. For events that happened after that, all of us have no idea." That hegemonic-level world overlord felt ashamed as he spoke. They had basically wasted the precious chance to enter the world of reincarnation. They didn't even know what happened there.

"Speak." The heavenly deity stared at the kneeling Yue Changkong.

"Disciple doesn't wish to explain anything. I've committed such a disrespectful crime, now I only hope for death. Master, please grant me my wish." Yue Changkong knelt there, prostrating himself. It was as though he wanted nothing more than to die.

The heavenly deity frowned, "Get up first."

"Senior brother!" That hegemonic-level world overlord shouted.

"Disciple doesn't dare." Yue Changkong continued to kneel.

"I told you to get up. Tell me everything clearly." That heavenly deity coldly spoke. This disciple of his, although his personality was despicable and sinister, his techniques and methods of doing things were much more outstanding compared to his junior apprentice brother and two other disciples. If not, Yue Changkong wouldn't be able to easily kill them all in the world of reincarnation. Yue Changkong, this man was able to accomplish great things and he was also able to sever all emotions, capable of utter ruthlessness!

Chapter 1850: Summons by Grandfather

After several months, some of the incidents that happened in the sacred academy started to circulate around. So it turned out that in the legendary place inside the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, there was actually a world known as the world of reincarnation. Over there, everyone had to start from zero. It was able to test one's nature. There were also many sealed evil spirits there that would try to bewitch the hearts of humans.

It was rumored that Yue Changkong of the Ziwei Divine Court, he cultivated an evil art in the world of reincarnation and caused a storm of blood.

It's also rumored that in the world of reincarnation, the Luoshen Clan's experts turned on each other. Luoshen Lei was forced to the brink and chose to cultivate an evil art, killing two of her clan members. A series of events happened after that but before she died, during a moment of anxiousness, she revealed the true identity of Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was actually the son of Qin Yuanfeng and the second miss from the Luoshen Clan back then. On the verge of death, Luoshen Lei passed on her evil arts to Qin Wentian. After obtaining the evil art, Qin Wentian fought against everyone who caused Luoshen Lei's death. He killed the three experts of the Qin Clan and killed Yue Changkong, displaying startling combat prowess. At the end when he was heavily injured, he was rescued by Goddess Nichang.

All these rumors grew more and more intense in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The story about Lin Xiao and the Mystical Maiden caused many to discuss enthusiastically. As for the story between Qin Wentian and Goddess Nichang, it caused many to fantasize wildly.

One must know that Goddess Nichang was a woman the Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian highly looked up to.

And who was Qin Dangtian? He was the son of Qin Zheng, the clan leader of the Qin Clan. Qin Zheng was also a clan brother of Qin Yuanfeng in the past. In that case, didn't that mean that both Qin Dangtian and Qin Wentian were destined to be enemies since their birth? And now, Goddess Nichang appeared between them. How could such a story not generate immense interest?

Hence, the name Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian, became widely circulated through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms as more people grew familiar with it.

After the Qin Clan learned about Qin Wentian's existence, they immediately gave the order to investigate everything about Qin Wentian. Very swiftly, they found out about the Qingcheng Realm and carried out checks on everything that could be checked. They learned that Qin Wentian came from Azure Mystic. Also, he was extremely young. When he attended the convention of myriad realms then, he was less than a thousand years old.

The conclusion the Qin Clan gained from this was that Qin Yuanfeng was still alive!

The Qin Clan immediately sent people to the lower world, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Right now, the forbidden order on Azure Mystic has yet to be lifted completely. Empyreans and those weaker are the only ones allowed to go there. Their Qin Clan wasn't afraid of the Grim Reaper, but they naturally also didn't wish to offend an ancient character like him.

To the Qin Clan, Qin Wentian who was at the world overlord ream, wasn't that important and couldn't threaten them. However, Qin Yuanfeng and his wife...if both of them really didn't die, the Qin Clan naturally had to deal with this carefully.

The Luoshen Clan also soon learned of everything.

At this moment, in the Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region, on a certain cloud-reaching ancient mountain's peak, a figure stood there with his hands behind his back. His posture was tall and straight and was like a pine tree. By simply standing there, he gave off a towering presence, like a majestic giant mountain.

His hair was black, yet the hair on his temples were white and he was currently staring into the distance.

Behind him, two figures could be seen. One was a male and the other was a female. The male's aura was extremely weak. As for the female, she was exceptionally young and beautiful. The two of them were none other than the Skyorder Heavenly Deity Luoshen Yu, as well as his daughter, Luoshen Lei.

"Since she is still alive, it has been so many years since that incident. Why did she not even come back once to see me?" That figure with his hands behind his back spoke. A hint of weariness could be heard in his tone, filled with the vicissitudes of time like he had seen everything there is to be seen in this world.

"She might have her own reasons. The Qin Clan is the same as us, they didn't know that Qin Yuanfeng didn't die back then. In that case, since she chose not to appear, it must be because she wanted to protect themselves." Luoshen Yu analyzed.

"Does she even have to conceal the fact that she is alive to me? Her father? She wiped away all methods to communicate with her. How ruthless." That figure spoke again. He slowly turned around, revealing a sharp face. He looked even younger than his son Luoshen Yu. His eyes were filled with a penetrative power that could see through everything in the world.

Luoshen Chuan, he was the current clan leader of the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Lei's grandfather.

"And you, you actually kept this from me." He stared at Luoshen Yu.

"Father, I didn't have any intention to do so." Luoshen Yu lowered his head.

"What are you worried about? Are you worried that I would harm him?" Luoshen Chuan angrily spoke. "Don't forget, I'm his maternal grandfather. My blood flows in his veins too."

Luoshen Yu kept his head lowered. Luoshen Chuan sighed in his heart. He naturally wouldn't continue to make things difficult for his son. He softly continued, "You guys met him before. How is he?"

"Father should already know of the things that happened in the legendary place of the sacred academy and convention of the myriad realms, right? His talent isn't in any way inferior to his parents. If he has enough time, he would surely reach the peak." Luoshen Yu spoke.

"I wish to meet with him." Luoshen Chuan calmly continued, his words causing Luoshen Lei's beautiful eyes to flash. Her heart involuntarily pounded. Her grandpa wanted to meet with her elder brother?

"Father, but the clan…" Luoshen Yu seemed somewhat hesitant. After Luoshen Lei reported back that the two world overlords from the Luoshen Clan actually betrayed her, it caused a huge commotion within the clan. Right now, the two factions of the Luoshen Clan were in an extremely sensitive situation.

"I am still the clan leader of the Luoshen Clan." Luoshen Chuan interjected. He stared at Luoshen Lei, "Lei`er, ask him when he would be free to come to the Luoshen Clan for a visit."

"Now?" Luoshen Lei started.

"Yes, ask him now. I want to know his answer." Luoshen Chuan nodded.

Luoshen Lei's beautiful eyes glanced at her father. Luoshen Yu nodded at her. She then took out her messaging crystal and selected a strand of immortal sense. "Brother, where are you now?"

"Azure Mystic." A voice rang out in her mind, his words caused Luoshen Lei's expression to freeze a little.

Lower world? The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Her elder brother actually went back to the lower world.

"Lei`er, is something the matter?" Qin Wentian's voice rang out again. Luoshen Lei looked at her grandfather, her expression became serious as she replied, "Elder brother, grandpa said that he would like to meet with you and asks that you to make a trip to the Luoshen Clan."

Qin Wentian fell silent. Luoshen Lei knew that he needed some time to think about this.

"I will enter closed-door seclusion for a period of time. After I exit the seclusion, I will head back to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and at that time, I will head to the Desolate Region to look for you." A few moments later, Qin Wentian's voice transmission rang out in her mind. Luoshen Lei nodded and replied, "Okay, I will tell grandpa about this then."

After speaking, Luoshen Lei kept her messaging crystal. Luoshen Chuan's gaze was fixed on her from the start to the end, waiting for Qin Wentian's answer.

"Grandpa, elder brother says that he is currently in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms and is preparing to enter closed-door seclusion. He would only come back to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms after his seclusion. At that time, he would come to the Desolate Region to look for me." Luoshen Lei spoke.

Luoshen Chuan didn't feel too surprised when he heard Luoshen Lei's words. His expression was unchanged. He already knew that Qin Wentian grew up in the lower world.

"Upon sensing the mounting pressure, he understands that he has to work hard in his cultivation?" Luoshen Chuan calmly mused. "Let's hope his talent is the same as what you two have evaluated. You all should know very clearly in your hearts how powerful the Qin Clan is."

After speaking, he turned and left the area, leaving behind Luoshen Yu and Luoshen Lei who were exchanging mutual glances with each other.

"Seems like grandpa is really concerned about elder brother." Luoshen Lei mumbled.

...

In the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, the emperor palace of the Heaven Empyrean City was the place of absolute authority. Even if Qin Wentian wasn't wrong, the emperor palace represented immense influence because the owner of this place was none other than the Heaven Empyrean.

Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't lie to Luoshen Lei. Right now, he was in the emperor palace. After the matters were concluded in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. He silently made his way back to the Qingcheng Realm and after making arrangements there, he brought the people around him back to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

Although many of them had cultivation bases above the empyrean realms, they were after all, originally people from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. They naturally wouldn't need to be bound by the restrictions. In addition, Qin Wentian understood that the supreme existence who sealed Azure Mystic, would definitely never act against people from Azure Mystic. After all, the future of Ancient Azure Mystic all rested on their shoulders.

As for why he was in a rush to come back, it was because Qin Wentian understood that the Qin Clan would surely investigate him. Also, they would definitely trace his roots back to Azure Mystic and send people here. With him being here, he had no need for any worries. Since his identity was already exposed, let them investigate everything they want to investigate then. There was no difference to him. In any case, the Qin Clan wanted to kill him for sure but before he grew strong enough, he would never give the Qin Clan a good opportunity to act.

Other than this, he also wanted to stabilize his cultivation base and to increase his strength. Right now, he does really need a session of closed-door seclusion to upgrade his strength. He also wanted to see if his friends and family in this world were doing well or not.

His current strength was still far from sufficient for him to deal with the Qin Clan. He could only avoid them for now. This was very humiliating, he wanted nothing more than to kill his way into the Qin Clan to avenge his parents. However, even though this was extremely shameful, he had to endure. If not, if he dies now, who would help his father to take revenge? Who would take care of his loved ones?

After so many years of cultivation, he has experienced many things. He was no longer that impulsive hot-blooded youth he was before.

Qin Wentian was currently sitting in a courtyard of the emperor palace. He had a solemn look on his face, his maternal grandfather whom he has never met before, actually wanted to meet with him and told him to pay a visit to the Luoshen Clan. Since Lei`er informed him about this, this meant that this grandfather whom he has never met before, most probably wouldn't have any malicious intentions against him. After all, blood was thicker than water.

He definitely would pay a visit to the Luoshen Clan since his grandfather wanted to meet him. However, the time is not now.

"Boss, you are back!" Outside the courtyard, a loud shout rang out. After that, Qin Wentian saw Fatty Fan Le, Ouyang Kuangsheng as well as many familiar figures walking over. Right now, all of them possessed messaging crystals, they naturally learned of Qin Wentian's return very quickly. In any case, only Qin Wentian's close friends would be able to wander freely in the emperor palace without a need to restrain themselves.

"Fatty, between you and Xuan Xin, when is she planning to give birth to a little fatty?" Qin Wentian laughed.

"Don't talk about me, look at yourself first." Fan Le replied. "Oh by the way, boss, you gotta help me increase my strength since you have returned. Just let me easily break through the ancient emperor realm and that will do. That's all I ask for."

Black lines appeared on Qin Wentian's face after he heard fatty's request. Ouyang Kuangsheng mocked, "Given your little bit of talent? I'm afraid you have no chance to break through to the ancient emperor realm at all."

"Ouyang? Are you looking for a fight?" Fatty roared.

"Hahaha." Ouyang Kuangsheng laughed disdainfully, further enraging fatty. Qin Wentian, Mo Qingcheng and the others all smiled when they saw how lively things are. Qin Wentian then informed the servants, "Prepare a grand banquet tonight, send out invitations to all my close friends and family. The banquet won't end until all of us are drunk."

"Yes, Heaven Empyrean." A servant outside bowed and accepted the command.

Not long after, inside the emperor palace, Ouyang Kuangsheng, Fan Le, Qin Chuan, Ye Qingyun, Bai Wuya, Jun Mengchen, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Nanfeng Yunxi, Mustang, Ye Lingshuang and many other familiar figures all came over for the gathering!

Chapter 1851: A Hundred Years

In the thirty-three immortal realms, there are innumerable masses of people. A hundred years of time passed by in the mere blink of an eye.

Those powers that were at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms seemed to be eternal, they will never decay.

The multitude of lives in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was countless. There would be many major incidents happening everyday and the fates of countless people would be affected. However, all of these when placed in the perspective of the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, still seemed too insignificant.

Back then, for the vast majority of people who exited the sacred academy after they went to the world of reincarnation, huge transformations happened to them. Their growth was shocking to the extreme.

It was said that Reverend Seven Abstinences from the Pureland of Bliss has already managed to see through the secrets of the heavenly dao. He was now just a single step away from breaking through to the true god level of the buddhist path.

Not only for Reverend Seven Abstinances, Han Sha from the God Destroying Palace, Che Ying from the Che Clan, Lin Xiao from the Qiankun Sect etc, everyone had huge improvements. This caused countless people to have yearning in their hearts about the legendary place in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

However, in the past, who was it exactly who had entered the sacred palace of that legendary place? Many people speculated that it was Reverend Seven Abstinences.

Occasionally, people would think about Yue Changkong from the Ziwei Divine Court. In the world of reincarnation, he devoured his fellow sect members, cultivating an evil art. After they exited the world of reincarnation, would his master, a heavenly deity, spare him? No one knew what his fate was, Yue Changkong seemed to have disappeared into thin air. There was no news about him at all. Many people guessed that he had already died, killed by the Ziwei Divine Court.

Qin Wentian has also vanished. But many people felt that it was normal for that. Qin Wentian's origins have been exposed, it was impossible for the Qin Clan to spare him. Hence, Qin Wentian naturally would want to lie low and not appear. Maybe, he chose to hide in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to cultivate and wouldn't come out until his cultivation base reached a certain level.

However, the Qin Clan who were Qin Wentian's enemies, actually knew that Qin Wentian wasn't in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy but was in Azure Mystic instead. The people they sent have been monitoring the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms and the Qingcheng Realm in secret, they felt that they knew everything about Qin

Wentian's movements but what they didn't know was that not only did Qin Wentian return to Azure Mystic, he has even entered the world destroying battlefield in Ancient Azure Mystic.

For the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms in the thirty-three heavens, it was governed by a vassal force of the Ziwei Divine Court, the Donghuang Clan. In this particular world, the Donghuang Clan was the king, staring imperiously at their subjects beneath them.

Recently, the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms was in turmoil. Many people died from unknown causes and in addition, a major incident happened a few days ago. Every expert in one of the ancient cities of the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms died for no reason and even their bones and corpses were missing after their death. It was like all the experts there vanished into thin air. That city became a city of the dead overnight.

The hearts of everyone in the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms were filled with fear and wariness. The Donghuang Clan sent out experts to investigate this matter but everyone they sent out vanished silently, none of them came back. This incident caused the Donghuang Clan to feel extremely troubled. There was a high possibility that a true devil has descended to the lower world from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and was using bloody methods to train his or her evil arts.

Just when the Donghuang Clan felt extremely uneasy, the figure of a young man suddenly appeared in the Eastern Royal Palace. This person claimed that he was the fiance of Donghuang Ying and he is here to marry her.

This matter instantly startled the upper echelons of the Donghuang Clan. Donghuang Ying was also shocked and upon rushing here and seeing the young man, she discovered that her earlier thoughts were right. It was that man who fooled the entire world, Yue Changkong.

He didn't die. Not only did he not die, he even appeared in their Eastern Royal Palace in their Eastern Royal Immortal Realms.

Donghuang Ying's expression grew extremely ugly. She stared at Yue Changkong, "Why did you come here for?"

"Why? Your man is here but you don't welcome me?" Yue Changkong laughed. Donghuang Ying's expression grew even more unsightly. Right now, there were many rumors about Yue Changkong. He was a bastard through and through. Not only did he fool the world, he was ruthless enough to kill his own sect members in the world of reincarnation.

Some in the Donghuang Clan thought about the rumors regarding Yue Changkong. Their expressions changed as one of them asked, "Are you the person who massacred that city? You have cultivated in an evil art?"

A faint smile appeared on Yue Changkong's face. After that, he took a step forward and arrived beside Donghuang Ying, pulling her slender waist into a hug. Donghuang Ying wanted to dodge but how could she do so? She was easily caught by Yue Changkong. Yue Changkong held her waist and spoke, "We are husband and wife in any case. You actually wanted to be so ruthless?"

"Release her." Donghuang Ying's father stepped out, the aura from him gushing forth. A powerful heavenheart mandate was unleashed as its pressure enveloped Yue Changkong.

A cold look flashed through Yue Changkong's eyes. His smile widened as he turned his gaze over. After that, the temperature in the entire atmosphere plunged as moonlight flooded this space, shining upon everyone.

"Let me let you experience the power of the upgraded Moon Devour that I've comprehended." Yue Changkong laughed, staring at Donghuang Ying's father. After that, a crescent moon manifested behind him and this crescent moon darkened with every passing second. A terrifying moon beam landed on Donghuang Ying's father and after that, Donghuang Ying's father got drawn into absolute darkness as the darkened moon swallowed him whole.

The expressions of people in the surroundings changed. Donghuang Ying called out frantically, "Father!"

The dark crescent moon was an extremely demonic sight. It was extremely bizarre, slowly devouring Donghuang Ying's father.

"Yue Changkong. Our Donghuang Clan is a vassal force of the Ziwei Divine Court. Your master will definitely not spare you if you do this!" A person roared loudly.

"My master?" Yue Changkong suddenly suddenly laughed uproariously. His gaze turned extremely cold. "In the future, the Donghuang Clan will be under my control. My master naturally wouldn't have any objections. I'm his disciple after all."

As the sound of his voice faded, the body of Donghuang Ying's father vanished completely.

The evil art he learned in the world of reincarnation could only be used there as it was imparted by an evil spirit of that world and also due to special conditions in the world of reincarnation. However, that evil art allowed Yue Changkong to see himself clearly. He now knew what was the path he ought to walk. After his return, he searched for a cultivation art that suited him completely and through that, he infused the insights he gained in the world of reincarnation and climbed to a higher height, comprehending a brand new power. Although this technique of his wasn't as tyrannical as the evil art in the world of reincarnation, he had total control over it. Also, as his comprehension grew deeper, this technique would become stronger and stronger.

As for his master, he wasn't worried at all. Since his master didn't kill him, his master clearly knew of his value. In any case, his master who was a lofty heavenly deity, was also someone who could be ruthless enough.

"You are my woman. In the future, I shall be the lord of the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms and I will naturally dote on you well." Yue Changkong stretched his hand out, gently stroking Donghuang Ying's pale face. The strange smile on his face still remained. At this moment, Donghuang Ying hatred herself immensely, she knew that she was the one who summoned this devil.

Right now in the entire Eastern Royal Immortal Realms, no one was able to deal with Yue Changkong.

...

Right now, in a stretch of desolation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, a sword was rapidly flying through the air. This sword was extremely gigantic and the illusion of a great roc could be seen shimmering in and out of existence from it, further boosting its speed, moving a thousand miles in the blink of an eye. On the sword, an incredibly handsome young man in white could be seen. And on the shoulder on this young man, a snowy-white puppy was also present, appearing extremely adorable.

This young man was naturally Qin Wentian. Just when the Qin Clan thought he was still in Azure Mystic, he has already silently left the emperor palace there and returned to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. In fact, he has already arrived at the Desolate Region.

Qin Wentian naturally knew the Qin Clan would keep tabs on him. His matters in Azure Mystic weren't considered any great secret. Since the Qin Clan knew of his identity, they would surely find it easy to trace it back to there. In any case, it was easy for him to slip off as Di Tian was there. And this time around, he only brought Little Rascal with him. The others were still cultivating in the ancient battlefield in Ancient Azure Mystic where the ancient wills of heavenly deities provided them with guidance. They continued to try and break through to a higher realm for some, while others were consolidating their foundations.

"Oi, demon sword. I thought you boasted that your speed was very quick? Why are you moving so slowly? Why don't I take over." The gusts of wind blew at him, Little Rascal actually felt very comfortable but he was still complaining.

"My strength is dependent on my master's infusion of power. The stronger he is, the stronger I will be." The demon sword replied.

"Tsk, so you still have to depend on Wentian after all. How useless, didn't I recall you boasting about saying that the heavens are too low or some nonsense like that? Now, the heavens in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms should be high enough, right?" Little Rascal spoke with contempt, as though he intentionally wanted to anger the demon sword.

"What do you know? The multitude of innate techniques, dao arts and all types of law energy in this world can all be fully unleashed through me. I'm that awesome." The demon sword wasn't convinced. When Qin Wentian heard their argument, he laughed, "Demon sword, just ignore Little Rascal as he is talking nonsense. He is just intentionally angering you."

"Hmph." The demon sword coldly snorted.

Qin Wentian smiled. Regardless of what sort of divine weapon the demon sword was, in the past, it did help him to rescue Qingcheng from the Pill Emperor Hall and also helped him to reverse the effect of the Demon God Sacrifice. Now, it was time to repay it. He brought it with him to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The demon sword needn't hate the fact that the heavens here were too low any longer.

"This Desolate Region is truly extremely desolate. Demonic beasts are everywhere, the cities humans stay in are also nothing special." Little Rascal grumbled.

"Isn't this place more suitable for you?" Qin Wenttian laughed. "The Desolate Region has always been a paradise for demonic beasts since ancient times. In this endless stretch of desolation, there are countless demon beast mountain ranges. Even today, other than the Luoshen Clan, there are two other hegemonic powers here - the Demon God Mountain and the Divine Ox Clan. Both of these are demon powers and as for the Luoshen Clan, they also cultivate demon energy. It's only natural that there are many demonic beasts in this place."

"Wentian, you can be considered the young master of the Luoshen Clan, right? Why don't you take control of the Luoshen Clan and I take control of the Demon God Mountain in the future? After we destroy the Divine Ox Clan, this entire Desolate Region shall belong to us. What do you think?" Little rascal's childish voice actually said something so tyrannical, causing Qin Wentian to feel somewhat comical when he heard it. This little fellow actually dared to dream so wildly.

Although the Luoshen Clan was his mother's clan, how could it be his turn to control it? There are all sorts of family politics involved in this.

"Don't speak nonsense. Look at the map, how long do we have before we will reach Luo City?" Qin Wentian asked. Luo City was none other than the location the Luoshen Clan was located in. It was the main city in the countless territories governed by the Luoshen Clan.

"It doesn't seem too far away. We should arrive soon." Little Rascal mumbled.

A human, a demon and a sword, increased their speed as they flew through the airspace of the Desolate Region.

Finally, about a month later, they arrived at Luo City. This was one of the most ancient and majestic cities in the Desolate Region.

The first thing they saw after they entered the Luoshen Clan, was a gigantic mountain whose peak reached the clouds. This ancient majestic mountain was located at the peak of Luo City. Despite the vast distance they were from it, they could still clearly sense how imposing it was. It felt like a divine mountain.

That mountain was named Luoshen Mountain, it was the place where the Luoshen Clan was located at!

Chapter 1852: Entering the Luoshen Clan

Luo City was incomparably magnificence. It was built in the surroundings near the Luoshen Mountain which was located right in the center and was the most prosperous city in the surrounding regions.

The Luoshen Mountain wasn't a real mountain but a mountain range instead. But now, there were already no mountains in this mountain range. Most of the mountains have been removed and replaced by ancient majestic buildings, the mountain range was completely populated by humans.

The Luoshen Clan, as a hegemonic power of the Desolate Region, naturally have been around for countless years. Although their population was considered the smallest ones among heavenly deity-ranked powers, the size was still quite astronomical. This Luoshen Mountain Range by itself was like another city within the ancient majestic Luo City.

Right now, Qin Wentian was standing at the foot of the Luoshen Mountain. In his surroundings, many people could be seen coming here to pay their respects. There was reverence in their eyes when they stared at the Luoshen Clan. After all, this was a hegemonic power of the Desolate Region, and there were heavenly deities staying within.

Qin Wentian inclined his head. A sense of closeness involuntarily filled his heart as he looked upon this mountain range where his mother grew up in.

Most probably, his mother had frequently strolled around here when she was younger, right?

A slight smile appeared in Qin Wentian's eyes. After that, he stepped forward. The demon sword was strapped to his back, Little Rascal continued to slump over his shoulder and was currently regarding this majestic city with curiosity.

At the mountain gate entrance of the Luoshen Clan, there were naturally guards here. On the gate, the words 'Luoshen' could be seen carved into the material. The strokes were filled with a mysterious force that lasted through time and the guards here were all extraordinary individuals. When they saw Qin Wentian ascending the mountain, one of them coldly spoke, "This is the Luoshen Clan's territory. No outsiders are permitted to enter."

Qin Wentian smiled and nodded to them. After that he took out his messaging crystal and selected Luoshen Lei's immortal sense. "Lei`er, I've arrived."

"Elder brother, you've arrived?" Luoshen Lei's voice was filled with shock. "Where have you arrived at exactly?"

Clearly, Luoshen Lei didn't know about the news that Qin Wentian was already traveling here. Earlier, Qin Wentian didn't inform her as he was rushing here.

"I'm at the mountain gate of the Luoshen Mountain." Qin Wentian replied. Luoshen Lei paused for some time due to being surprised. Only after that did she reply, "Elder brother, wait for me."

"Okay." Qin Wentian replied. After that, he simply waited outside casually. The guards at the gate saw that he seemed to have contacted someone. This, in addition to the fact that he had an extraordinary aura, made them guess that he probably knew someone from the Luoshen Clan. They couldn't help but regard Qin Wentian with some curiosity.

From the Luoshen Mountain, a group of young men and women came down. When they passed by the mountain gate, Qin Wentian could sense that all of them had extraordinary auras and were all very good looking. As descendants of the Luoshen Clan, a feeling of nobility and pride could be felt from them.

When they saw Qin Wentian waiting at the side, they curiously cast a few glances at him. A young man from the group spoke, "If you came here to pay your respects, you can just do so at the foot of the mountain range. There's no need to stay here and block the mountain gate."

The Luoshen Mountain can be considered a holy ground in the Desolate Region and many humans would come by to pay their respects. Qin Wentian could also understand the Luoshen Clan's status. To ordinary humans, even for immortal emperor characters, they would have no way to imagine the vast and majestic existence of a deity-ranked power. It wasn't too much to call it a holy ground. Back then when he was still in Azure Mystic and when he has yet to enter the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, even the immortal emperor realm was something he had to look up to. At that point of time, he simply didn't dare to imagine the concept of a deity from the upper world.

But now, after many years, even when he really stood before a deity-ranked power, the waves in his heart weren't too intense. There were only some fluctuations in his heart because this was the place where his mother was born in, and also the clan his mother belonged to.

"No, I'm here to look for someone." Qin Wentian shook his head and smiled. These young fellows weren't that old but their cultivation bases were already at the empyrean and immortal emperor ream. They should be considered juniors of the younger generation in the Luoshen Clan.

"Looking for someone?" A beautiful maiden smiled. "Who are you looking for? You are acquainted with someone from our Luoshen Clan?"

"Yes, I'm looking for a friend of mine." Qin Wentian laughed.

"Are you from one of the vassal forces under us?" Among them, a young man with a proud and cold expression spoke, his tone filled with disdain. After all, there were too many vassal forces under the Luoshen Clan.

Upon sensing the sense of elitism from the young man, Qin Wentian maintained his smile. It was very normal for a Luoshen Clan's descendant to be arrogant.

However, this group of young people seems to have never experienced any tempering in the outside world before. They revealed their thinking too easily. It was fine on the mountain range but if they head out to the outside world, they would surely suffer.

"What is your friend's name? I might know him or her." The beautiful maiden earlier smiled and asked, feeling somewhat curious. Who was this young man looking for? Also, that snowy white puppy on his shoulder does look extremely adorable, causing her to be fond of it.

"Luoshen Lei." Qin Wentian spoke. Upon hearing this name, the group of young men and women started for a moment before they all laughed.

"Hey, you are so serious when you are joking. It's like you are telling the truth." That young woman laughed.

"Just go down, we won't punish you for blocking the gate." The young man earlier calmly spoke, wanting Qin Wentian to leave.

Luoshen Lei? What a joke. Miss Lei was of direct descent. Even they would find it hard to meet her, yet this man actually lied saying that Luoshen Lei was his friend? He is either mad or he doesn't know the immensity of the heavens and earth.

Qin Wentian was completely speechless. He shook his head and stared in the direction up the mountain. A few figures were rapidly speeding over and the person in the lead exuded an air of magnificence and was extremely beautiful. It was none other than Luoshen Lei.

The young men and women from the Luoshen Clan turned their heads back when they heard someone arriving. Their gazes all froze when they saw the person in the lead. Miss Lei?

"Leier." It has been a hundred years since they last met. Leier's aura grew more and more outstanding. Evidently, her improvements for the past hundred years have been extremely great.

Luoshen Lei's speed increased and arrived beside Qin Wentian in the blink of an eye. She stretched out her hand and pulled Qin Wentian's hand, causing the people here to freeze. What was this situation?

Miss Lei`er fell in love with someone? And the person she loves actually came up to the Luoshen Mountain to meet with her?

"Elder brother!" Lei`er gently called out. She has experienced death before in the world of reincarnation and their relationship has grown even closer. Although they didn't grow up together, they still felt very close to each other as though they were real biological siblings.

"Lei`er, you seem to have grown even more beautiful." Qin Wentian smiled at Luoshen Lei.

"Really? Elder brother, let us ascend the mountain." Luoshen Lei laughed and pulled Qin Wentian by his arm as she led the way. They entered the mountain gate, leaving behind the people here who were all stunned.

Elder brother?

When did Miss Lei have an elder brother? In the Luoshen Clan, although she has many clan brothers, she had never addressed anyone so closely before.

Very soon, they thought of a rumor a hundred years ago and soon after, their hearts pounded rapidly as they exchanged mutual glances.

It must be him, he has come.

"Let's go." Their figures flashed, they didn't go down the mountain but returned from the way they came from instead. They knew that something major was about to happen in their Luoshen Clan.

The matter between Qin Yuanfeng and the second miss of the Luoshen Clan back then created huge waves of commotion that affected the entire Luoshen Clan. It caused the Luoshen Clan to suffer heavy casualties and now, an aftermath of that incident could still be felt. The clan leader's authority in the Luoshen Clan was wavering.

Also, the son of the Luoshen Clan's second miss has returned back to the Luoshen Clan.

Qin Wentian followed after Luoshen Lei as they ascended the mountain. As the grand daughter of the current Luoshen Clan's clan leader as well as the Skyorder Heavenly Deity's daughter, there was no doubt that Luoshen Lei's residence would be arranged at the peak area of the Luoshen Mountain. However, as they were halfway up there, Qin Wentian's arrival already began to circulate rapidly through the Luoshen Clan.

A hundred years ago, Qin Wentian's name caused a huge commotion in the Luoshen Clan. His identity was very sensitive, but his talent seemed to be as supreme as his father, Qin Yuanfeng.

Many years ago, that legendary young man Qin Yuanfeng has also entered the Luoshen Mountain. Many years later, his son did the same as well, it felt like fate.

In one of the courtyards here, ancient pine trees decorated the area along with many pavilions. Over here, Qin Wenitan met his uncle again. This was the second time he met with Luoshen Yu. Luoshen Yu was still as weak as ever. When Qin Wentian saw him, he thought of the Qin Clan and Qin Dangtian as coldness filled his heart.

A lofty high-up heavenly deity becoming a cripple. How agonizing this must be? It was too hard to imagine.

"Wentian, you finally came here." A happy smile appeared on Luoshen Yu's wrinkled face. His younger sister's son finally came to the Luoshen Clan.

"Uncle." Qin Wentian bowed.

"There's no need to act like this. Take a seat." Luoshen Yu waved his hand. "I've already heard about the incidents in the world of reincarnation a hundred years ago. I heard Lei`er speaking of your glory. I believed that if your mother knew about this, she would surely feel very happy as well."

"I failed to protect Lei`er well enough in the world of reincarnation, almost causing her not to be able to return. Wentian feels ashamed." Qin Wentian sighed.

"That's already in the past, isn't Lei`er fine now? Also, since she experienced a round of death, her improvements during these hundred years are extremely great. I heard if she died in the world of reincarnation she should have died in the real world too. However, she returned to life after that. Do you know why this was the case?" Luoshen Yu asked.

"The true legendary place appeared in the world of reincarnation and I entered there." Qin Wentian spoke. Luoshen Yu started but he soon started laughing uproariously. "Good, good, so this is the case. I heard that everyone in the immortal realms are guessing who was the one who entered that sacred palace. I didn't expect that person to be you. You must have gained some good fortune from there."

"Elder brother, even the legendary place acknowledged you. In the future, you would surely be able to stand proudly at the peak, peering down on the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." Luoshen Lei was also happy for Qin Wentian. Her elder brother actually managed to enter that true legendary place in the world of reincarnation.

Just when they were speaking, loud noises rang out from outside. After that, numerous immortal senses gushed over rudely. Luoshen Yu frowned, if it was in the past, no one in the Luoshen Lei would have dared to act so brazenly.

Qin Wentian frowned as well, an invasion via immortal sense was extremely rude.

However, these people not only sent their immortal senses in, they even personally arrived, barging into the area. World Overlord Lifeless wanted to obstruct them but Luoshen Yu calmly spoke, "Let them enter."

Very swiftly, many experts appeared here, all of them coldly looking at Qin Wentian with unfriendly gazes. Clearly, not everyone in the Luoshen Clan would be as welcoming to him as his uncle!

Chapter 1853: A Beam of Sword Light Creates Chills

Luoshen Yu inclined his head, coldly staring at everyone. However, the current him clearly was of no threat. The eyes of those people who just barged in were all staring at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian didn't expect the news of his arrival would circulate so quickly. He didn't cast a glance at these people and continued quietly sitting in front of Luoshen Yu. Only Little Rascal who was on his shoulder inclined his head to survey these experts from the Luoshen Clan.

"You are Qin Yuanfeng's son, Qin Wentian?" One of the experts spoke. Qin Wentian's back was facing that person, as he replied, "Is something the matter?"

These people barged in with extreme rudeness. He naturally didn't see the need to be polite to them.

Seeing that Qin Wentian refused to even turn his head, a world overlord coldly laughed. "Indeed, you are as arrogant as he was back then, having no one in your eyes. As expected, like father like son."

"Luoshen Yu, you were the one who summoned him to the Luoshen Clan?"

Luoshen Yu stared at the person who spoke. World Overlord Lifeless and Luoshen Lei both had extremely cold looks in their eyes. These people were experts from the other faction of the Luoshen Clan. Their authority now was extremely high in the Luoshen Clan and could already stand equally against the current Luoshen Clan Leader, Luoshen Chuan. In fact, they even wanted to force Luoshen Chuan to give up on his position.

"Yes, so what of it?" Luoshen Yu coldly asked.

"In the past, your younger sister Luoshen Qianxue and Qin Yuanfeng caused our Luoshen Clan to suffer so much, is that not enough? You yourself have also became a cripple. Now, you still summoned their son here? What do you mean by this?" That world overlord coldly spoke in a very rude manner. When Qin Wentian heard the other party saying Luoshen Yu was a cripple, his eyes flashed with ice while he sighed silently in his heart. He didn't expect the internal warfare of the Luoshen Clan to reach such a serious state now.

Even though Luoshen Yu was now a cripple, he was once a heavenly deity. Even leaving aside his cultivation base, just with his status of being the son of the current clan leader, no one should talk to him like this by right. Yet this world overlord didn't even have the slightest respect, directly calling him a cripple. Clearly, all cordiality has already been shredded.

A cold intent erupted forth from World Overlord Lifeless when he heard this. He took a step forward.

"Lifeless." Luoshen Yu shouted, stopping him.

"In his body, half of his bloodline comes from the Luoshen Clan. What's the problem in him visiting the Luoshen Clan?" Luoshen Yu stared at the other party.

"There's naturally a problem. The other half of his blood belongs to the Qin Clan. For the matters back then, why should our Luoshen Clan pay the price for his parents? Luoshen Yu why did you invite him here? Are you intentionally trying to harm the Luoshen Clan?" That world overlord coldly spoke.

"Luoshen Yu, the Luoshen Clan doesn't belong to your faction alone. Back then, is the damage caused by his parents not enough? Now, do you want to allow this vile spawn to continue harming our Luoshen Clan?" Another person coldly spoke. "Our Luoshen Clan shouldn't be responsible for a vile spawn. Since he is here, we might as well hand him over to the Qin Clan to end our grudges."

As the sound of his voice faded, the entire space turned cold. The words of this person were even ruder compared to the person earlier, directly insulting Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian was a vile spawn. By saying this, that person also insulted his parents. And back then, Qin Wentian's mother Luoshen Qianxue, was the second miss of the Luoshen Clan.

Qin Wentian slowly stood up and turned around, staring at the person who spoke.

Upon sensing the coldness in Qin Wentian's eyes, that person felt a sense of danger. His eyes narrowed and was filled with wariness.

Qin Wentian stepped forward and at this moment, a formless pressure descended on the area. A moment later, the eyes of everyone turned to Qin Wentian. Although their words were impolite, they all felt a little trepidation. After all, they had all heard of how powerful Qin Wentian was from the rumors. Back then, he had shown extraordinary prowess in the legendary place of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

A light sound rang out as the demon sword shot out from its sheath. A single sword beam caused chills everywhere as everything in this entire space seemed to freeze.

"Vile spawn, you dare?" Those people roared in anger when they saw Qin Wentian pulling out his sword. All of them wanted to act but at the instant the sword light flashed, everything in this space seemed to enter a state of stillness. Their movements became incomparably slow, grinding to a halt.

With another flash, a beam of sword light shot out with incredible speed. That world overlord who insulted Qin Wentian as a vile spawn, felt his entire body being frozen. A cold intent enveloped him, he knew the target of the beam of sword light was him. In an instant, he perspired cold sweat as he felt a chill in his heart.

"Chi…" A light piercing sound rang out. That person felt a coldness at his throat area, and at the next moment, he saw the beam of sword light pressing on his throat. As long as Qin Wentian wills it, that beam of sword light would directly shoot through his throat.

The actions of everyone else involuntarily halted as the atmosphere fell silent. Their gazes were all fixed on that beam of sword light. This beam of sword light even had the ability to cause time to stop. Now, it had entered a state of stillness, pressing against the throat of that world overlord. Although it was in a state of stillness, its aura didn't diminish at all.

"Who did you say was a vile spawn earlier?" Qin Wentian calmly asked. In his calm voice, an intense coldness could be felt, causing everyone to feel chills.

Since the internal warfare in the Luoshen Clan has reached such a state, since the other party was able to directly insult his uncle calling him a cripple and insulting him as a vile spawn, in that case, so what even if he retaliated? When you take a step back, others would take two steps forward. How could he stand for this?

The sword beam was right at his throat but that world overlord's expression actually turned exceptionally cold. Qin Wentian actually dared to act in this manner in this place?

"Do you know what place this is?" That world overlord spoke in a glacial tone He didn't believe Qin Wentian would dare to kill him.

"Chi…" The beam of sword light pierced forward. That world overlord could sense a chill around his throat as fresh blood flowed.

"You dare?" A cold light radiated in the eyes of the experts in the surroundings. Numerous auras gushed forth, boring down on Qin Wentian. He was too brazen, simply disregarding everything. Even back then, Qin Yuanfeng hadn't been so brazen.

"Insulting my uncle, me and my parents. Let me ask you a question. As to the vile spawn you were speaking of, are you referring to me, or yourself?" Qin Wentian continued, the beam of sword light pierced a few inches forward, penetrating his throat deeper. That world overlord felt chills in his heart. If this continued on, the beam of sword light could really take his life.

But no matter what, he was still a world overlord from the Luoshen Clan. Wanting him to say that he himself was a vile spawn, how humiliating was this? He kept struggling while fresh blood flowed from his throat. He could feel death approaching him closer and closer. The entire space seemed to be frozen solid. Nobody expected Qin Wentian to be so tyrannical. Also, he was so powerful.

When he acted, he only used a single sword beam to settle everything.

Luoshen Yu and Lifeless also froze when they saw this, their hearts weren't able to calm down at all. They didn't expect Qin Wentian would act so decisively but this scene didn't cause Luoshen Yu to feel fear. On the contrary, he felt satisfaction instead. Right now, he was already a cripple. Luoshen Lei still had a long path before her. He would naturally feel joy in his heart seeing how glorious the son of his younger sister was.

The young are brazen indeed. Given Qin Wentian's talent and strength, how could he not react when others insult his parents and him?

"I was speaking about myself." That world overlord closed his eyes and spoke in agony. After speaking these words, his entire body trembled. At this moment, Luoshen Yu knew that the dao heart of this world overlord can already be considered destroyed. This attack by Qin Wentian would be an unforgettable experience for him and would torment him forever.

This strike collapsed his dao heart, his confidence and his soul.

This was the price he had to pay for his insults.

"Since you know you are a vile spawn, why don't you quickly scram?" The beam of sword light was still present as Qin Wentian coldly spoke. That person hurriedly retreated and indeed, the beam of sword light no longer moved forward. That world overlord screamed, he turned and fled with great speed, wanting to vent out all his shame with his screams. He no longer has any face to remain here.

The experts in the surroundings coldly stared at Qin Wentian but at this moment, they no longer said anything. All of them fell silent. That scene earlier was too shocking. No one wanted Qin Wentian to use his sword again.

"Let me make a point clear. I came to the Luoshen Clan not because I want to have a connection with it. I only came here to visit my uncle and my younger sister. If the Luoshen Clan is willing to admit me as someone with the same bloodline, I can treat the Luoshen Clan as my kin. If the Luoshen Clan is unwilling, then let there be no connection between myself and the Luoshen Clan. There's no need for the Luoshen Clan to be worried about my matters, let alone handing me over to the Qin Clan. I am me, myself, Qin Wentian. If someone dares to be disrespectful to me, my sword shall show no mercy." As the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, the demon sword returned to its sheathe.

"Also, if I hear someone mentioning the word 'cripple' again, I will cripple that person." Qin Wentian added. This sentence was undoubtedly spoken for the sake of his uncle Luoshen Yu.

In the past, for the sake of his parents, his uncle got crippled by Qin Dangtian and was humiliated by all. Since his parents were no longer around, he shall protect his uncle in their stead.

The expressions of the people in the surroundings changed when they looked at Qin Wentian, their gazes growing somewhat complicated. That sword strike by Qin Wentian stunned everyone. Also, he wasn't like what they had imagined. Qin Wentian was so brazen that it seemed he had lost all sanity, yet he was powerful enough to be immensely confident in himself.

Qin Wentian expressed his attitude saying that he didn't come here to form a connection with the Luoshen Clan, he was only here to visit his uncle and his younger sister. The Luoshen Clan naturally has no qualifications to determine his fate.

World Overlord Lifeless stared at Qin Wentian with admiration in his eyes. His master had paid a terrible price for Qin Yuanfeng and his younger sister. Now, seeing how Qin Wentian acted, his master should feel gratified in his heart, right?

Luoshen Lei's eyes turned slightly red. Luoshen Yu stared at Qin Wentian as a warm smile appeared on his wrinkled face. His cloudy eyes were actually slightly wet at this moment. This was the son of his younger sister, his nephew. He would surely surpass his parents and grow capable enough of propping up the heavens!

He came to the Luoshen Clan not to form a connection with them, he only came here to visit his loved ones, that was all to it!

Chapter 1854: Maternal Grandfather

Qin Wentian's tone was extremely domineering, ringing out loud in the ears of everyone. The experts of the Luoshen Clan in the surroundings stared at him. Clearly, they didn't expect Qin Wentian would be so strong. Even a powerful world overlord from their clan couldn't withstand a single strike from him. In that case, even if they continued to stay here and act against Qin Wentian, they wouldn't receive any benefits.

"Let's go." An expert made a hand motion and retreated. Very quickly, everyone left here, vanishing in an instant, leaving Qin Wentian and his group alone. This caused Qin Wentian to feel somewhat taken aback.

Qin Wentian turned his head and stared at his uncle, "I initially thought that they would continue to make trouble."

"The conflict between the two factions is escalating. A majority of the time, each faction would weaken the power of the other to strengthen themselves, finding opportunities to act against the other faction. They immediately came here after they knew you arrived. Wanting to act against you is merely an excuse, they want you to be the excuse for the balance to break so they can seize authority from the clan leader, hence they tried to dominate you. However, they didn't expect that they actually returned with a loss. Naturally, they would no longer have face to stay here and become jokes."

Although Luoshen Yu's cultivation base was crippled, how could he not see through such a thing. He calmly continued, "However, this matter clearly won't end like this. They won't give up so easily."

"I'll take on whatever they throw at me. They wouldn't really send a heavenly deity from the Luoshen Clan to act against me, right?" Qin Wentian calmly laughed. If they really did so, that would truly be the greatest joke under the sky.

"If they really did so in this contest to seize power, they would have already lost." Luoshen Yu shook his head. Clearly, this was not possible. Naturally, although heavenly deities wouldn't act directly, it didn't mean that they wouldn't interfere.

"Bring him to the Thousand Snow Palace." At this moment, a voice suddenly rang out from the void. This voice sounded misty and ethereal, like it came from the heavens. Qin Wentian's expression froze. He seemed to have already guessed at this person's identity.

Luoshen Yu stood up and spoke to Qin Wentian, "The Thousand Snow Palace was the place your mother used to live in. Let's go and take a look."

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. After that, Luoshen Yu and Luoshen Lei led the way, bringing him through the mountain range, eventually heading into a courtyard. This place was very big, but was very quiet. The surroundings were extremely beautiful as well with many towering trees and pavilions. Fake mountains and lakes were everywhere, there was an air of tranquility in the atmosphere.

This place was none other than the Thousand Snow Palace. Once, this was the location Luoshen Qianxue lived in. Staring at the trees, fake mountains and lakes, a sense of closeness appeared in Qin Wentian's heart. Was this the old residence of his mother? Most probably, she was a female chosen of the Luoshen Clan who had no worries, right? As the second miss of the Luoshen Clan, in addition to her supreme talent, her life must be very wonderful. However, all of this changed after she met his father. No wonder his father would feel so guilty, saying that he has let his mother down. His mother was once like the moon in the sky, she could have everything she wanted. However, after being with him, she could only follow him to lead the life of a vagrant, roaming the entire world.

However, he knew that his mother has no regrets. She did this because of true love.

Naturally, Qin Wentian wouldn't forget the original reason for all of this. The Qin Clan was the entity that forced his parents to such circumstances. If not, even though they roamed the world, they could be happy with that lifestyle. But sadly, they had to deal with the assassins sent after them by the Qin Clan and now, they even had to hide so deeply, not daring to reveal themselves.

Qin Wentian quietly looked at each corner of this courtyard. His uncle Luoshen Yu then spoke, "There would be maids cleaning this place everyday but they have never touched any objects or moved anything from their original locations before. Everything was the same as the day when she left. Maybe, your grandfather hopes that she would be able to return here one day."

Qin Wentian sighed in his heart. In this world, how many parents wouldn't dote on their sons and daughters? Although his grandfather didn't approve of the marriage between his parents, there was no need to doubt his feelings towards his mother.

At this moment, under a giant ancient tree in the distance, a figure quietly stood there. His form was straight, his posture like an ancient tree, and gave off the feeling of a towering peak. However, the hair on the sides of his face was white. Qin Wentian knew that this person in front of him should be none other than his maternal grandfather, the current clan leader of the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Chuan.

The footsteps stopped. Qin Wentian quietly looked at the rear view of the figure. Luoshen Yu called out, "Father."

"Grandpa." Luoshen Lei also greeted.

Luoshen Chuan turned around, his gaze landing on Qin Wentian. His eyes were immeasurably deep and in an instant, a powerful pressure enveloped Qin Wentian. This pressure was akin to heavenly might boring down on him.

Qin Wentian probed this surge of heavenly might, he only felt an immense pressure so heavy that he was about to be crushed breathless. However, he still kept his body straight as he stared at Luoshen Chuan quietly, he didn't make a single sound despite the pressure.

"Grandpa!" Luoshen Lei's expression changed yet she only saw Luoshen Chuan stepping out, causing the pressure to increase. Qin Wentian felt that his body was about to collapse. By standing there, it felt like the entire sky was on his shoulders, it was incomparably heavy.

"I heard Lei`er say that you have never met your parents before? You were raised by others in their stead?" Luoshen Chuan asked.

"Yes." Qin Wentian nodded. That immense pressure was still there.

"Do you know who I hate most in my life?" Luoshen Chuan spoke again. Qin Wentian shook his head in response.

"The person I hate most is your father." Luoshen Chuan coldly spoke. "It was your father who abducted my daughter, causing her to be homeless and to wander around in a desperate plight, being hunted down by your father's clan members. And also, my son has also paid the price for your father's mistake and had his cultivation crippled by the Qin Clan. Tell me, should I hate your father?"

"You should." Qin Wentian spoke. There was no doubt that all this was linked to his father. His maternal grandfather Luoshen Chuan did have reason to hate his father. Every single sentence he spoke before was sufficient for him to hate.

"I hate him but I cannot find him now. Tell me, what should I do?" Luoshen Chuan asked.

"A son shall pay the debts of his father. You can do what you want to my father, to me instead." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Do what I want to your father, to you instead?" Luoshen Chuan coldly laughed. "However, the other half of your blood flowing in your veins belongs to my daughter. If I harm you, she would surely hate me."

"Since this is the case, grandfather, what do you want me to do? If I can accomplish it, I will definitely do it to pay the debt off." Qin Wentian spoke. This was the debt his father has incurred.

The Qin Clan owes a debt to his father, but his father owes a debt to the Luoshen Clan. Or more accurately, he owed Luoshen Chuan.

When Luoshen Chuan heard Qin Wentian calling him grandfather, his heart involuntarily trembled. That immense pressure also fluctuated for a moment, as though he could no longer bear to use it and continue suppressing Qin Wentian.

"I want you to cripple Qin Dangtian, find your mother and bring her back to the Luoshen Clan. Can you accomplish that?" Luoshen Chuan spoke.

"I'll do my best." Qin Wentian replied. Luoshen Chuan said to cripple Qin Dangtian. Clearly, he also wanted Qin Dangtian to endure everything Luoshen Yu felt. Qin Wentian definitely had to do this, he needed to do this. As for bringing his mother back, he was thinking that if his parents were still alive, where could they be?

The pressure boring down on Qin Wentian suddenly vanished. Luoshen Chuan surveyed the young man before him. From Qin Wentian, it was like he could see the shadow of his daughter. How could he really act against Qin Wentian? It wasn't a lie that he hated Qin Yuanfeng. However, this young man before him was his daughter's son.

"This Thousand Snow Palace has been empty ever since your mother left. Since you are here, you can stay in there then. If your mother was to know of this, she surely wouldn't have any objections." Luoshen Chuan's voice grew much calmer. It was only natural for Qin Wentian to stay in the Thousand Snow Palace. He was her son, he naturally had the qualifications to stay here.

Only now did Luoshen Lei heave a sigh of relief. A smile appeared on her face. Usually, no one would be allowed to enter the Thousand Snow Palace. However, her grandfather actually allowed her elder brother to stay here. Didn't this mean that her grandfather has already acknowledged this relationship? Although the words he spoke were cold, but in his heart, he should have always wanted to meet with this grandson, right? If not, why did he want Qin Wentian to stay?

Telling Qin Wentian to stay in the Thousand Snow Palace clearly showed that he hoped Qin Wentian would temporarily stay on the Luoshen Mountain.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded his head.

"Do you really have no news about the whereabouts of your mother? Did she leave any clues behind at all?" Luoshen Chuan's voice grew softer and more gentle. When he spoke these words, his gaze flashed with hope. However, Qin Wentian continued to shake his head. He also wanted to find his parents.

"Elder brother, I heard that Qianxue's son is here? Why don't you let everyone meet with him?" At this moment, a voice directly rang out in the air, addressing Luoshen Chuan as elder brother. This person could directly speak with the Luoshen Clan Leader, Luoshen Chuan, and he dared to use his immortal sense to directly 'enter' the area. From this, one could very well imagine how high the status of this person was.

As expected, Luoshen Yu and Luoshen Lei both frowned when they heard this voice. Evidently, the owner of this voice came here with ill intentions.

"Elder brother, the owner of this voice is Luoshen Mu. He is an immensely powerful character in the Luoshen Clan and he is the one who wishes to seize authority from grandpa. Now, more and more people are leaning over and support him." Luoshen Lei transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian. She then continued, "Back then, there were four world overlords from the Luoshen Clan who entered the world of reincarnation. Other than me and Grandpa Lifeless, the other two people are from his faction. And because of the incident in the world of reincarnation, when we returned, grandpa publicly taught them a lesson. This Luoshen Mu clearly harbored hatred for that and has been looking for an opportunity to pay grandpa back."

Qin Wentian silently nodded. Back then, the two world overlords betrayed Luoshen Lei. They were clearly in the wrong. Hence, even when his grandfather publicly taught the two world overlords a lesson, Luoshen Mu probably couldn't say anything out in the open.

And now after he had just arrived in the Luoshen Clan, he also taught a world overlord from Luoshen Mu's faction a lesson. Clearly, they wanted to use this opportunity to make things difficult for his maternal grandfather.

"If you wish to meet with him, there's naturally no problem. Where do you want the meeting to be?" Luoshen Chuan calmly spoke.

"I will summon everyone from the Luoshen Clan. Let's allow everyone to meet with him." Luoshen Mu replied. By saying this, there was naturally no need to say anything more about the location. Everyone in the Luoshen Clan would be summoned? A major commotion would definitely occur in this grand meeting of the Luoshen Clan!

Chapter 1855: Qin Zhong, Luoshen Mu

Heaven Region, Qin Clan

In a majestic ancient hall that extended so high its top touches the clouds, a figure with a violet-golden crown on his head sat there. He was dressed in luxurious robes, seemingly the embodiment of heaven's might.

If Qin Wentian was here, he would definitely recognize this man. This man has frequently appeared in the memories his father left behind for him.

Qin Zheng, the current controller of the Qin Clan, he was the father of Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian.

He stood on the stone steps with his arms behind his back. Just simply standing there, he seemed like the king of heaven and earth.

At this moment, a figure suddenly appeared below the stone step. This figure also had a transcendent aura and seemed one with the heavens. This man was one of the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan.

"Clan leader, you are looking for me?" This heavenly deity was named Qin Zhong, he has already entered the heavenly deity realm for many years but before Qin Zheng, he still maintained civility and the respect he ought to have, despite the fact that he was Qin Zheng's elder.

"Uncle Zhong, I have a matter which I might need to trouble you to make a trip out." Qin Zheng spoke. Qin Zhong was a clan uncle of his.

"Sure." Qin Zhong nodded, not asking what the matter was.

"I would originally have let Dangtian head out for this matter but after his defeat at the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, Dangtian seemed to have encountered some setbacks, he has not exited his closed-door seclusion after that incident despite a hundred years having passed. Hence, I can only trouble Uncle Zhong to do this." Qin Zhang calmly spoke. Qin Zhong casually nodded, "Clan leader, please feel free to command me."

"Mhm." Qin Zheng nodded. "The Luoshen Clan sent a message saying that Qin Yuanfeng's son is currently in the Luoshen Clan. I want you to go to the Luoshen Clan and bring him over to our clan."

Qin Zhong's eyes flashed as he asked curiously, "Clan leader, the Luoshen Clan actually sent such news to our Qin Clan?"

"Right now, the Luoshen Clan is besieged by internal warfare. Luoshen Mu wished to seize authority and his current strength is already sufficient to fight equally against Luoshen Chuan. It's just that he still lacks the support of a few old fellows. Hence, he needs an opportunity. After controlling the Luoshen Clan, he wants to settle all grudges between our clans. Qin Zheng calmly spoke.

"So when I head over to the Luoshen Clan, I only need to state that I'm here acting on behalf of the Qin Clan to deal with the son of a traitor and Luoshen Mu will cooperate?" Qin Zhong asked.

"As long as he can restrain Luoshen Chuan, it will be enough. The few old fellows in the Luoshen Clan are long already swords that have lost their sharpness, they no longer have the strength to fight against our Qin Clan. If Luoshen Chuan forcibly intervened, his time reigning over the Luoshen Clan will come to an end soon." Qin Zheng laughed, as though he had already foreseen everything.

"Alright, I'll head out now." Qin Zhong nodded.

"Try your best to do this as fast as possible. Use the fastest method to travel there." Qin Zheng spoke. Qin Zhong nodded as he turned to depart. There might be complications if things dragged out, he naturally had no objections to travel there as quickly as possible. Things would be troublesome if Qin Wentian left the Luoshen Clan.

If Qin Yuanfeng was really still alive, he would surely appear if they captured Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian, who was in the Luoshen Clan, had no idea what just happened in the Heaven Region. He also didn't expect that someone in the Luoshen Clan would actually send a message to the Qin Clan, revealing his whereabouts.

After all, the Luoshen Clan and Qin Clan had grudges that divided them since a very long time ago and viewed each other as mortal enemies.

The Qin Wentian now came to a large public square on the Luoshen Mountain. Not only was he here, the experts from the various factions of the Luoshen Clan had also arrived, many people were gathered here. Those who came were all characters with some status in the clan and at this moment, Qin Wentian could clearly sense the dispute within the Luoshen Clan. These weaker factions that gathered here at the public square now were divided into two camps. One of the camps had Luoshen Chuan, the clan leader of the Luoshen Clan leading it. As for the other camp, another heavenly deity exuding immense might could be seen there. This person was the one in-charge and he was none other than Luoshen Mu.

Behind Luoshen Mu, experts were as many as the clouds. The people in his camp was even more than those in Luoshen Chuan's camp. Not only that, Qin Wentian also saw the two world overlords who went into the world of reincarnation. His eyes flashed with coldness when he saw them. These two betrayed Lei`er in the world of reincarnation and it was precisely because of this matter that caused the conflict between these two largest factions of the Luoshen Clan to escalate to this degree within the last one hundred years.

In addition, the experts of each camp radiated a hostile air to each other. No one was bothering to mask it.

Luoshen Mu's gaze immediately locked on to Qin Wentian. After he was seated, he asked Qin Wentian, "So, you are Qianxue's son? You've grown so big in just the blink of an eye and have even cultivated to such a high realm, allowing you to easily suppress hegemonic-level world overlords. I still remember when Qianxue was growing up in the clan, she was truly extremely outstanding. Sadly, she picked a wrong path."

Luoshen Mu's voice contained no anger at all, it was as though he was speaking to a junior of the clan, and not making things difficult deliberately for Qin Wentian. As expected of a heavenly deity, he was proficient in keeping his state of heart calm, not allowing his emotions to run unchecked.

"Junior Qin Wentian pays my respects to senior. However, I don't agree with senior's views. From what I know, my mother has never walked on a wrong path before. Senior might feel the path she picked was wrong, but in reality, it didn't represent that the path she picked was really wrong." Qin Wentian calmly replied in a manner neither servile nor overbearing.

"There is some logic in your words." Luoshen Mu nodded his head lightly. However, many experts beside him had unfriendly looks in their eyes when they stared at Qin Wentian. This was especially so for those experts who were driven away by his show of force when he met with his uncle Luoshen Yu. They knew exactly how brazen Qin Wentian was. Qin Wentian simply didn't place anyone in the Luoshen Clan in his eyes.

"However, I heard that earlier when you came here, you had some conflict with the experts of the Luoshen Clan? You said that you merely came here to see your uncle and younger sister and have no connections to the Luoshen Clan. Is this correct?" Luoshen Mu asked.

"That's true." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Oh, these words cannot be considered correct. For the matters in the past, I believe you should know of some as well, right? Our Luoshen Clan had many clashes against the Qin Clan due to the marriage between your parents. And now, for many of those in the junior generations, their elders and parents all died because of that incident. Despite so, Qianxue abandoned everything and left alone without a care in the world. Since you are her son, do you really feel that you have no connection with the Luoshen Clan?" Luoshen Mu calmly asked, his voice contained no emotion at all.

"Junior wishes to ask senior, if senior's children had a conflict with some other major powers and was suppressed, would the Luoshen Clan intervene?" Qin Wentian asked.

Luoshen Mu fell silent for a few moments, instantly understand the point Qin Wentian wanted to make. He calmly smiled, "Naturally."

"If the Luoshen Clan sustained losses from that, would the Luoshen Clan blame senior's children for everything that happened?" Qin Wentian calmly continued. "Refusing to think of ideas to deal with one's mortal enemy yet shifting the blame to one's clansmen, if this is the way the Luoshen Clan does things, I'm afraid that they would truly become the greatest joke in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. If news about this were to leak out, wouldn't the Luoshen Clan be sneered at and ridiculed by everyone in the world?"

"IMPUDENT!" Someone roared.

"Might I ask which of my earlier sentences is impudent?" Qin Wentian stared at the person who roared as he calmly asked.

Luoshen Mu waved his hands and smiled at Qin Wentian, "Your words are not illogical. However, the marriage of your parents was something the Luoshen Clan has forbidden from the start. Your mother chose to ignore the clan's wishes and went ahead to do it, resulting in all these consequences. This example is different from what you had listed earlier."

"Regardless of right or wrong, if the Luoshen Clan cannot even protect their clan members and sought to transfer blame to them instead, is there even a need for the Luoshen Clan to continue existing?" Qin Wentian coldly mocked. "If senior is so mindful about what is correct or wrong, in that case, back in the world of reincarnation, there are two world overlords from the Luoshen Clan who betrayed their own clan member, going all out to act against Luoshen Lei, wanting to deliver her into the hands of their mortal enemies. Such shameless and despicable behavior, why are those two still in the crowd? Why are they not expelled from the Luoshen Clan yet?"

The eyes of two world overlords gleamed with extreme coldness when they saw Qin Wentian directing the spear head at them.

"I didn't expect Qin Yuanfeng's son to be such a sharp-tongue brat." An old man mocked.

"Senior wished to debate, so I naturally replied with logic. Now that your side cannot win the argument, are you going to become angry due to embarrassment and resort to insulting me? Such deplorable behavior..." Qin Wentian shook his head, not masking his sarcasm at all.

"Your words are correct." Luoshen Mu laughed. "In the fight you had earlier, you crushed an expert from the Luoshen Clan with a single sword strike. What a glorious victory. Your talent truly doesn't lose out to your father's talent back then. Also, there's nothing wrong with what you said. In anycase, it is hard to determine who is correct just from logic and it's not important who is right or wrong. What is important is that if the Luoshen Clan cannot even protect their clansmen when their clansmen suffered insults and humiliation, in that case, what is the point of the Luoshen Clan existing? Hence, for the insults and humiliation you gave to the Luoshen Clan's experts earlier, shouldn't you give an answer for that?"

"Oh? If that's the case, those who insulted my father and my elder brother earlier, shouldn't they give an answer for that as well?" Luoshen Lei coldly spoke. Luoshen Chuan, who was the clan leader, remained silent from the start until now. He wanted to see how Qin Wentian would respond.

"Naturally they should. Those who insulted Yu`er earlier, step out now and slap yourselves for every insulting sentence you spoke to humiliate him." Luoshen Mu's voice suddenly turned cold and imposing. The earlier experts all froze, many of them were world overlords. Did Luoshen Mu want them to slap themselves in public?

Luoshen Chuan's eyes narrowed, this Luoshen Mu...what a ruthless method. Was he preparing something even more terrifying hidden in his reserve?

"Did you not hear my words?" Luoshen Mu's voice turned even colder. The world overlords who insulted Luoshen Yu walked out. Their expressions were extremely ugly but they understood Luoshen Mu did so because he wanted to deal with Qin Wentian. Hence, they gritted their teeth and followed his orders, slapping themselves in public.

Qin Wentian's expression turned glacial when he saw this scene. He naturally understood that Luoshen Mu was looking for an excuse to act against him.

Luoshen Mu calmly watched as the world overlords slapped themselves. After that, he turned his gaze back to Qin Wentian, "You've already said it yourself that you came here to visit your uncle and have no connection with the Luoshen Clan. Now, they have already paid a price for their actions, what about you then? You insulted the Luoshen Clan's people and even held a sword to one of their throats, even drawing blood. What price should you pay for this act?"

"Since someone dared to insult me and my uncle, I naturally would retaliate. If senior wishes to let those in the junior generations deal with me, I have nothing to say and will accept this with open arms." Qin Wentian calmly smiled. If a heavenly deity wanted to act against him, his grandpa was the clan leader of the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Chuan would surely defend him.

"I naturally won't personally act." Luoshen Mu spoke.

Qin Wentian's smile grew radiant. "Since this is the case, everyone who wishes to seek revenge for what happened earlier, feel free to attack me. If you all can kill me, I will simply admit that I'm inferior. However, if those acting against me are killed by me instead, don't blame me then."

"Arrogant." The experts beside Luoshen Mu all had enraged looks on their faces. The arrogance of Qin Yuanfeng's son wasn't at an ordinary level. He completely had no one in his eyes, disregarding the experts of the Luoshen Clan!

Chapter 1856: Dao in the Multitude of Things

Luoshen Mu stared at Qin Wentian, "What bravado. I hope your strength is really as strong as you think it is."

After speaking, he glanced at Luoshen Chuan, "Elder brother won't intervene in this, right?"

Luoshen Chuan glanced at Qin Wentian before nodding, "Since things are spoken so clearly, Qin Wentian's matter shall be considered a private grudge. If someone wants to act against him, I have no objections. But if someone ignores their status and acts against him, I, as his grandfather, naturally won't stand aside."

Luoshen Chuan's attitude was very simple. If no heavenly deities acted, he wouldn't care. But if a heavenly deity acted to bully a junior, he as a grandfather, naturally wouldn't sit on the fence and ignore it.

"You guys have heard it." Luoshen Mu spoke to the people around him. For the matter that will happen next, he needn't be involved any longer.

Behind Luoshen Mu, a figure stepped out. This was a hegemonic-level world overlord named Luoshen Lie. His strength was extremely high and he can be considered to be at the peak of the world overlord level. When the people around Luoshen Mu saw Luoshen Lie was going to act, all of them set their hearts at ease. By stepping up, he was already giving Qin Wentian a high enough recognition.

After all, there were rumors in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms about how dazzling Qin Wentian's performance was in the world of reincarnation. It's best not to be careless.

Luoshen Lie had comprehended the Blazing Rend World Heart and his world heart has already reached perfection, allowing him to easily destroy a region. Also, his defense was very powerful as well. At the world overlord realm, only a rare few people could be his opponent.

Qin Wentian stepped out, his footsteps were solid. The demon sword was strapped on his back and he was clad in white. His entire person exuded an aura of carefreeness.

"Let's go up." Luoshen Lie spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, he immediately soared into the air and arrived at a layer filled with a sea of clouds. Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed. Although heavenly deities could restrain the aftershocks of a battle between world overlords, it would still be quite troublesome. It was much more convenient to fight in the air, neither would need to hold back for fear of the surroundings.

The experts from the Luoshen Clan inclined their heads, their gazes piercing through space, landing on the two combatants in the air.

In an instant, a fearsome heat erupted from Luoshen Lie. He unleashed his bloodline talent of rearing divinity and instantly, ten thousand demons appeared. Behind him, a terrifying ancient demon silhouette in the form of a firebird that resembled a golden crow appeared. However, this golden crow had nine heads and was bathed in golden flames. Each of the heads emitted a heat high enough to incinerate the heavens and earth.

A wave of golden flames then extended through the air, enveloping the entire space in an instant. The golden flames trapped Qin Wentian inside a circle. This was naturally the power of a heavenheart mandate. It was like anyone who was trapped inside the golden flames, would be burned into nothingness.

A screen of light appeared around Qin Wentian, shining resplendently, enveloping his body protectively within. It acted like a layer of isolation between him and the world, his opponent's attack wasn't able to enter it, it could resist the incineration of the golden flames.

"The dao of space?" Luoshen Lie's expression was calm when he saw this. Did Qin Wentian really feel that this was sufficient to evade his attack?

The nine-headed firebird breathed out streams of fire qi, the golden flames slowly permeated into the void, extending outwards indefinitely. In an instant, the entire sea of clouds in the area they were in, turned completely golden. Now, this place was like a sea of lava, flowing with liquid fire. Also, the heat enveloped everything. Even if one stepped into the void, they wouldn't be able to avoid this.

Qin Wentian could clearly sense that this heat energy was now strong enough to breach the section of independent space he was in.

A hegemonic-level world overlord from the Luoshen Clan was acting, how could he be compared to an ordinary world overlord?

"Congeal." Luoshen Lie spoke. In an instant, the golden flames in this area seemed to solidify, along with everything in the surrounding space. After this space was sealed in to lava flames, it became a zone of absolute death.

"Hmph." Below on the ground, the experts around Luoshen Mu coldly snorted. Inside this zone of incineration, everything would be burned. Even if Qin Wentian managed to block the first wave of attacks, he would still be solidified into the lava flames as his body disintegrated from the heat. No one could remain in such a death zone and survive.

The heavenheart mandates of hegemonic-level world overlords were truly tyrannical to the extreme.

"Why are you not using the power of your world heart and heavenheart mandate?" Luoshen Lie asked, his voice was like an ancient bell, thundering through the area, exuding incomparably tyranny.

Qin Wentian didn't reply. He inclined his head and stared at his opponent. His eyes pierced through the boundless space and stared right into Luoshen Lie's eyes. Luoshen Lie was also looking at him, and at the instant when their gazes matched, the might of a dao art suddenly manifested.

A single glance from Qin Wentian was the dao, it contained his insights into his laws. The golden lava flames in that zone of death all disappeared. Luoshen Lie even discovered that he was now in a separate space, a space that was under the control of Qin Wentian.

Luoshen Lie's heart trembled lightly. A dao that was concealed in the eyes? A single glance actually forcefully brought him into this space. How terrifying was this?

"The power of my heavenheart mandate and world heart can be in the multitude of objects in the world. Everything in the world can contain my dao, why is there a need to unleash it externally through a method like yours?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The nine-headed firebird behind Luoshen Lie was as ferocious as ever, breathing out golden flames. But almost at the same instant, the firebird felt the suppression of Qin Wentian's domain. In this place, Qin Wentian has absolute control over time and space. Now, Qin Wentian was about to stop the flow of time here.

However despite so, the flowing golden flames didn't stop completely. Although Qin Wentian activated his ability to stop time, it had no way to dominate his opponent's laws completely.

But Qin Wentian himself also moved. The humming of a sword could be heard as the demon sword was unsheathed.

Luoshen Lie's gaze turned heavy as he stared at Qin Wentian. He was prepared to block the attack but Qin Wentian's sword attack wasn't directed at him. Instead, Qin Wentian's sword slashed out a resplendent arc beside him. The sword light was cold, radiating a solemn intent to slaughter but it didn't seem to be targeted at him? This scene caused Luoshen Lie to be stunned as a look of bewilderment appeared on his face. What was Qin Wentian doing? How could there be such a weird sword art that basically didn't attack others?

Just when he was in contemplation, Qin Wentian's body suddenly flashed, leaving behind countless sword beams around him. Fast, incomparably fast, so fast to the extent where he couldn't even track Qin Wentian. When Luoshen Lie was completely surrounded by the sword light, he suddenly felt a premonition. In the next moment, he saw the beams of sword light suddenly aimed towards him. Each beam of sword light contained the dao in them. Dao concealed in the sword, the power of this dao art wanted to engulf him completely.

Qin Wentian stood in the air and slashed down with his sword. He aimed this strike at the center of the space flooded with the beams of his sword light. In an instant, those sword beams all exploded.

"NO…" A voice filled with terror rang out, shaking the area. Those experts behind Luoshen Mu all felt their hearts shuddering when they saw this. Unease filled their hearts, what was going on? Didn't Luoshen Lie have the complete advantage?

Just when this thought flashed through their minds, they discovered that Luoshen Lie, who was in that trapped space, had his eyes closed as his body fell helplessly down the air. No hints of life emitted from him, it was like his life was sealed forever, this also meant that he had clearly died.

Luoshen Lie's body continued falling and when it was about to hit the ground, Luoshen Mu waved his hands as a formless energy wrapped around Luoshen Lie's body, bringing it to the area beside him. There were no wounds at all on Luoshen Lie, in fact, even at the moment where he lost his life, many people didn't know what was going on. How had Luoshen Lie died? Was it an evil art? How did Qin Wentian managed to kill Luoshen Lie in such a silent manner?

The white-robed figure with the ancient demon sword on his back slowly floated down from the air. At this moment, the gazes of everyone were filled with unmasked shock when they stared at him.

No matter how Qin Wentian did it, he did accomplish it and killed Luoshen Lie without help from anyone. This was an iron-clad truth before their eyes.

"Dao is contained in your sword, dao is contained in your eyes. Your cultivation base is truly very high." Luoshen Mu sighed. As a heavenly deity, his insights would naturally be supreme, he naturally understood how Qin Wentian did this. He didn't expect Qin Wentian's comprehension of the dao to already reach such a terrifying extent. Right now, Luoshen Mu truly admired Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian's talent was high enough to make him feel shock.

Luoshen Yu's eyes revealed a smile. He praised, "Awesome."

"Father?" Luoshen Lei stared in puzzlement at her father. Luoshen Yu spoke, "In certain aspects, your elder brother's comprehension towards the dao isn't anyway inferior to mine those years ago."

Luoshen Lei's heart trembled. Back then, her father was a heavenly deity.

Her elder brother's comprehension has already reached that high?

Could the reason be that true legendary place he went to?

As someone from the Luoshen Clan, she naturally knew how powerful Luoshen Lie was. He was a true hegemonic-level world overlord existence yet he was so easily killed by her elder brother. In fact, many people didn't understand how Qin Wentian accomplished it. This indicated that his usage of his dao has already surpassed the vast majority of people here. Since they couldn't understand how he did it, they were naturally inferior to him.

"What a waste." Luoshen Chuan sighed again. No matter what, Luoshen Lie was also considered a major character of his Luoshen Clan. Now that he died like this, this can be considered a loss to the Luoshen Clan.

Naturally, although he felt it was a waste, he wouldn't feel sympathy for Luoshen Lie. During a contest of power, as the intensity of the conflict increased, such an incident would probably happen frequently in the future.

"Father!"

"Uncle Lie!"

Several people had looks of grief and sorrow on their faces as they moved towards Luoshen Lie's corpse. Their gazes were soon filled with the anger of hatred as they stared at Qin Wentian.

"How ruthless." Someone icily spoke. Qin Wentian saw many cold stares looking at him, yet there weren't too many fluctuations in his heart. He merely calmly replied, "If he was the victor, wouldn't you guys feel proud of his strength because I died and admire him?"

Luoshen Mu's gaze shifted away from Qin Wentian to Luoshen Chuan, "Elder brother, you have a good grandson."

Luoshen Chuan frowned, Luoshen Mu was trying to shift all the anger and resentment to him? As expected, the gazes of many people from the Luoshen Clan changed when they looked at their clan leader.

However, shouldn't the person behind Luoshen Lie's death be Luoshen Mu?

Naturally, Luoshen Chuan didn't try to argue. He calmly spoke, "He is my grandson, I don't wish to see his death. I also don't wish to see any experts from the Luoshen Clan dying like this. If you guys truly have the well-being of the Luoshen Clan in your heart, I urge all of you to stop."

Chapter 1857: Heavenly Deity’s Arrival

When the people in the surroundings heard Luoshen Chuan telling them to stop, looks of anger could be seen on their faces.

"Stop? Clan leader, what an imposing bearing. A hegemonic-level world overlord from our Luoshen Clan has just fallen here, Luoshen Lie's descendants are overwhelmed with sadness yet you, as the clan leader, actually said to stop now? Seems like clan leader is the same as the past, for your own selfish reasons, you don't mind sacrificing the entire Luoshen Clan." Someone spoke, directly blaming Luoshen Chuan.

The moment the sound of this voice rang out, even more people stared at Luoshen Chuan angrily. Clearly, there was a reason why these people supported Luoshen Mu. They felt that everything Luoshen Chuan did, had weakened the strength of the clan. They hoped that the Luoshen Clan would have a new leader.

Luoshen Chuan was speechless, he still didn't try to explain or argue. As the leader of an entire clan, there were many things he needed to bear on his shoulders. However, if he couldn't even protect his own daughter or his grandchildren, who was he to talk about protecting the entire Luoshen Clan.

The situation now was also something he didn't wish to see.

Luoshen Mu calmly watched everything. He then walked towards Luoshen Lie's corpse. He then inclined his head and coldly stared at Qin Wentian, "Since my elder brother has such a good grandson and he is bent on protecting you, in that case, this expert of my Luoshen Clan can only die a useless death."

After speaking, he waved his hand, "Let the matters here conclude today."

"Uncle Mu!" Someone called out with unwillingness in his voice.

Many people respectively turned their gazes towards Luoshen Mu, "Can it be that we are going to spare him just like this?"

The 'him,' naturally referred to Qin Wentian.

"Quiet." Luoshen Mu berated. He then continued, "What else do you all want me to do? My elder brother wishes to shield his grandson, what can I do? Should I allow you guys to continue fighting him and sending you to your deaths? This grandson of elder brother, his comprehension towards the dao is so high that most probably, no other world overlords in our Luoshen Clan can contend against him."

The eyes of everyone flashed. Many people still felt reluctant to accept this but they were shocked after hearing that. They weren't able to tell how Luoshen Lie died but heavenly deities naturally would be able to. Since Luoshen Mu said Qin Wentian was so powerful, it meant that he was truly extremely strong. There was actually no other world overlords in their Luoshen Clan who could contend against Qin Wentian.

The son of Qin Yuanfeng and Luoshen Qianxue truly did inherit their supreme talent. In fact, the talent of their son seemed to even have surpassed them.

"Do you all wish to see more world overlords of our Luoshen Clan dying?" Luoshen Mu coldly asked. "Let's go. Make arrangements for Lie's funeral."

The hatred in the eyes of many intensified after they heard this when they stared at Qin Wentian. In addition, they also coldly looked at Luoshen Chuan.

Qin Wentian quietly stood there yet he felt like his heart had turned to ice. This Luoshen Mu, what a devious method. He used him to incite the rage of the Luoshen Clansmen, to increase their hostility towards his grandfather Luoshen Chuan. He sensed that everything that happened earlier was orchestrated by Luoshen Mu intentionally. Regardless of Luoshen Lie killing him or he killing Luoshen Lie, the final winner would still be Luoshen Mu.

Many experts left the area. And upon seeing people from the other faction leaving, an old man behind Luoshen Chuan stepped out, "Clan leader, this incident most probably is Luoshen Mu's scheme."

Evidently, these old fellows who had much experience, could also tell that this was a scheme.

"I know." Luoshen Chuan calmly replied. How could Luoshen Chuan not be able to tell? This younger clan brother of his had many cunning plots up his sleeves or he wouldn't be able to amass so many supporters. For this battle earlier, no matter what was the ending, the one benefiting would only be Luoshen Mu.

"How can those people not see the truth?" Somebody behind raged.

"Those inside the situation would never be able to see things clearly. Luoshen Mu's actions were simply flawless and even if people could see his intention, they would still choose to support him, albeit silently." A hegemonic-level world overlord spoke.

"You could have chosen not to kill him. After all, he was also a descendant of the Luoshen Clan." Luoshen Chuan stared at Qin Wentian.

"If he cared about the fact that I have the Luoshen Clan's bloodline as well, and the fact that I'm the grandson of the clan leader, he wouldn't have showed killing intent towards me. Evidently, since he wanted to kill me, it clearly meant that he didn't have grandfather in his considerations at all, let alone the fact that I have the Luoshen Clan's bloodline. In order to please Luoshen Mu, he didn't hesitate to act against someone in your faction ruthlessly.

Since this is the case, why should I show mercy?" Qin Wentian calmly replied. In situations where two parties are vying power, things would always be cold and brutal. Showing mercy would only bring trouble upon oneself.

Luoshen Chuan naturally could understand what Qin Wentian was talking about. He fell silent and didn't reply. After that, he departed the area.

In another location inside the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Mu and the others gathered together. One young man asked, "Father, are we going to spare him just like that? Can it be Lie is going to die for nothing?"

Luoshen Mu's eyes flashed with coldness. "Don't worry, there is value in Lie's death."

The young man's eyes gleamed with sharpness as he stared at his father. He then sighed in his heart, seems like his father has some backup plans. His father said that his Uncle Lie's death had value to it. Also, his father's tone was cold. However, wasn't it inevitable for there to be some sacrifices?

...

Qin Wentian stayed in the Thousand Snow Palace of the Luoshen Clan, the place where his mother used to stay. In here, he felt like he could sense his mother's presence.

During these days, Qin Wentian would frequently visit his uncle's residence, accompanying him to chat in some matters. Many of their topics revolved around his mother's past deeds. Luoshen Lei was naturally there as well. As his uncle told him more stuff about his mother, Qin Wentian's mental image of his mother also grew clearer.

She was a female heaven chosen from the Luoshen Clan and also had the title of goddess. She was the daughter of the Luoshen Clan Leader and had startling talent in cultivation as well as exceptional beauty. Once, she met Qin Yuanfeng when she was outside tempering herself and his father kept on pestering his mother, chasing her all the way. Their love underwent many trials but in the end, his mother ignored all voices of objection and chose to be with his father Qin Yuanfeng.

This past incident stirred his heart. Most probably, the difficulties his parents faced in getting together far surpassed what he and Qingcheng had to face.

"What are you guys chatting about?" At this moment in Luoshen Yu's courtyard, a voice drifted over. After that, Luoshen Chuan appeared.

"Father." Luoshen Yu greeted.

"Grandpa." Luoshen Lei also called out. Qin Wentian glanced at Luoshen Chuan, he had not appeared here during the past few days. Now that Luoshen Chuan has appeared, it should be because he was looking for him.

"Nothing much, we are just casually chatting." Luoshen Yu smiled, he didn't want to mention anything about his younger sister, Luoshen Qianxue, before his father. He was afraid his old man might be sad.

Luoshen Chuan didn't continue asking. His gaze turned to Qin Wentian, "You have been here for several days, it's about time for you to leave the Luoshen Clan."

"Grandpa!" Luoshen Lei's beautiful eyes stiffened. "Elder brother has only stayed here for a few days."

She didn't understand why her grandpa want to chase her elder brother away. She could sense that in her grandpa's heart, he did dote on this grandson. If not, he wouldn't have asked Qin Wentian to pay the Luoshen Clan a visit just to meet with him.

Qin Wentian looked at Luoshen Chuan, he had already faintly guessed at the reason why. After that, he nodded, "Alright, I shall leave immediately."

Right now, his identity was known to everyone. Also, the situation within the clan was getting increasingly tense. His grandfather, Luoshen Chuan, wanted him to leave as it would be for the best.

"Don't need to be in such a rush. You can leave tomorrow morning, as for today, let Lei`er accompany you to visit the famous places in the Luoshen Clan." Luoshen Chuan sighed. Qin Wentian stared at the calmness in his grandfather's eyes as he nodded his head lightly.

"Don't get into any more conflicts with anyone if you can." Luoshen Chuan reminded before turning around to leave. After he left, Luoshen Yu sighed, "Wentian, don't blame your grandfather. Right now, you should have already seen the current situation in our Luoshen Clan. It's very difficult on him as well."

"Don't worry uncle, I can fully understand that." Qin Wentian nodded. He could sense many things in his heart, the current him was no longer the impulsive young man from back then. He was already a character that was near the peak. With just one more step, he would be able to enter the heavenly deity realm.

"Elder brother.." Luoshen Lei's beautiful eyes flashed with a faint sense of disappointment. It has only been a short period of time yet her elder brother was already going to leave.

"Lei`er, we will surely have more chances to frequently meet in the future." Qin Wentian laughed and tousled her hair.

"Mhm." Luoshen Lei nodded, she could only console herself in this way.

...

During the second morning, there was a gentle breeze on the Luoshen Mountain and it felt very comfortable. Qin Wentian came to Luoshen Yu's place to bid farewell and was preparing to leave. Luoshen Lei was here but Luoshen Chuan wasn't present.

"Lei`er, I will leave first. Will you miss me?" Little Rascal, who was sitting on Qin Wentian's shoulder, spoke in a child-like voice. Luoshen Lei who was initially feeling somewhat sad, suddenly laughed at this comical scene. She laughed, "I naturally will."

"Boohoo, I will miss you too." Little Rascal leapt into Luoshen Lei's embrace. Qin Wentian had to pull him by his tail and drag him back. This fellow is truly too shameless, he cannot allow Little Rascal to have such behavior.

"Elder brother, where are you preparing to go to?" Luoshen Lei asked.

"I still have no concrete plans yet. Maybe I will roam the Desolate Region." Qin Wentian gave a carefree laugh.

"Okay then, contact me after you arrive at wherever you want to go. I'll go look for you after that." Luoshen Lei revealed a mischievous smile. Qin Wentian rolled his eyes. Now, if she chose to follow him around, things would be very dangerous for her.

"I'm leaving then." Qin Wentian also felt some sadness in his heart. He stared at everything here, his uncle, his younger sister, truly feeling a reluctance to leave.

"Mhm." Although Luoshen Lei was sad, she still managed to smile in a beautiful manner.

"Take care of yourself, be more cautious in everything that you do." Luoshen Yu reminded. Qin Wentian nodded, after that, he turned around and departed the area.

However, at the instant he stepped out of the courtyard, a voice rang out thunderously in the air, "Who dares to barge into our Luoshen Clan?"

This voice was as explosive as thunder, ringing out loud through the air of the Luoshen Mountain, reverberating through a thousand miles, shocking many people of the Luoshen Clan. This was a warning that a very powerful expert had just barged into the Luoshen Clan.

Numerous figures flashed, flying up into the air. Qin Wentian's steps halted. Luoshen Lei and Luoshen Yu both furrowed their brows.

"Qin Zhong from the Qin Clan is here to pay a visit to the Luoshen Clan." At this moment, a resounding voice rang out in reply. The words spoken caused the hearts of Qin Wentian, Luoshen Yu and Luoshen Lei to tremble.

Qin Zhong of the Qin Clan, a deity-level expert was here to pay a visit to the Luoshen Clan?

RUMBLE~ The entire space seemed to shudder. Qin Zhong walked up the Luoshen Mountain, radiating waves of heavenly might with every step.

Luoshen Chuan also appeared in the air. His gaze was ice-cold, as he radiated a glacial intent. A heavenly deity from the Qin Clan came to the Luoshen Clan at such a time? The meaning behind this was self-evident.

However, the news about Qin Wentian being in the Luoshen Clan was only known by the people in the clan. This indicated that somebody actually informed the mortal enemy of their clan - the Qin Clan, about this.

He wanted Qin Wentian to leave here because he wanted to be cautious. However, in his heart, he still didn't really believe that this news was leaked by the Luoshen Clan to the Qin Clan despite their internal warfare. The other faction of the Luoshen Clan should know the boundaries, right? But evidently, he was wrong!

Chapter 1858: Going Down the Mountain

A heavenly deity from the Qin Clan coming here to visit the Luoshen Clan? Luoshen Chuan naturally understood that there was a spy in the clan who leaked the news.

He felt some disappointment, although the Luoshen Clan was in the midst of an internal warfare and there was a conflict of power, this was still a matter of the Luoshen Clan. The Qin Clan and the Luoshen Clan had many years of hatred between them. And now, for the sake of vying for power, someone actually colluded with their mortal enemy the Qin Clan. How could he not feel heartache at this?

Although he knew about the other faction wanting to seek peace with the Qin Clan after seizing power, he was still very disappointed. The reason for seeking peace was evident to all, it was because the Luoshen Clan now was no longer as powerful as the Qin Clan. If not, how could a heavenly deity from the Qin Clan brazenly barged into the Luoshen Mountain like that?

On the Luoshen Mountain, countless experts appeared. All of them saw an imposing figure walk over, entering the Luoshen Clan.

"Someone of the Qin Clan actually dares to come to my Luoshen Mountain?" Luoshen Chuan coldly spoke as he appeared before Qin Zhong.

"Today I came here not because of the grudge between our two clans. We can leave those matters in the past aside for now. Today, I came here to bring the son of a traitor of my Qin Clan back. I'm sure the Luoshen Clan Lord wouldn't have any objections, right?" Qin Zhong didn't beat around the bush and spoke directly.

He came here for one reason only. That reason was to bring Qin Wentian away with him.

"What sort of place do you take the Luoshen Mountain for?" Luoshen Chuan coldly spoke. How can he allow Qin Zhong to bring Qin Wentian away so easily? If Qin Wentian landed in the Qin Clan, it was almost a certainty that he would never be able to leave there again.

"I naturally know what sort of place the Luoshen Mountain is. Also, I mean no disrespect when I come here this time. Qin Yuanfeng was a traitor to our Qin Clan, I'm here to bring his son away. Does the Luoshen Clan intend to shield Qin Wentian?" Qin Zhong's voice turned glacial.

"On the Luoshen Mountain, the Qin Clan has no qualifications to act brazen." Luoshen Chuan spoke.

"Luoshen Clan Leader's attitude is so imposing. Is the Luoshen Clan planning to obstruct me from bringing the traitor's son back? If the Luoshen Clan is planning to do this, I will have to stay for some time in Luo City and inform experts of the Qin Clan to come here and seek guidance from the Luoshen Clan." Qin Zhong coldly spoke, his tone filled with threat.

"Are you threatening me? When has my Luoshen Clan ever feared the Qin Clan?" Luoshen Chuan's eyes turned to ice.

"Elder brother." At this moment, a figure walked over. It was none other than Luoshen Mu. He spoke, "Our Luoshen Clan isn't afraid of the Qin Clan, but we have to see if this is worth it or not. Several days ago, Qin Wentian himself has said that he has no connection with the Luoshen Clan and was extremely brazen, even threatening the descendants of our clan, killing a hegemonic-level world overlord. Now, you want our entire Luoshen Clan to contend against a powerful enemy just for him? I'm afraid I cannot agree."

"Clan leader, please think through this thrice." Some people behind Luoshen Mu bowed as they called out. Luoshen Chuan's gaze stared at Luoshen Mu, his gaze was extremely cold. This was clearly Luoshen Mu's intention from that battle several days ago. So it turned out that back then, Luoshen Mu has already informed the Qin Clan. If Luoshen Lie had been the victor, Qin Wentian would die. If Luoshen Lie lost, the situation would develop into the situation today.

Now, Luoshen Mu already has sufficient reason to force the Luoshen Clan to hand over Qin Wentian.

He sighed in his heart. Seems like for the position of the clan leader, Luoshen Mu was willing to use all underhanded methods, even to the extent of joining forces with their mortal enemy, the Qin Clan just to deal with him. This caused him to feel a chill in his heart.

Those gazes directed towards him also caused him to feel a chill.

"You all mean that when the Qin Clan comes to the Luoshen Clan wanting to take someone from here, we should obediently hand that person over?" Luoshen Chuan's heart was already covered in frost but there was no anger in his tone, it sounded very calm like he has seen through all matters in the world.

"Naturally not." Luoshen Mu calmly spoke. "It's just that there is no need for our Qin Clan to protect someone who killed a member of our Luoshen Clan. Why don't we get him to leave the mountain? As to what his fate would be, it would have nothing to do with the Luoshen Clan. If the Qin Clan wants someone, they can have it but I'm sure they know the boundaries and wouldn't act in our Luoshen Mountain."

"Naturally. If the Luoshen Clan can cooperate with me, I'm willing to wait at the foot of the mountain and I won't cause any disturbance for the Luoshen Clan." Qin Zhong calmly spoke. As expected like what Qin Zheng has said, Luoshen Mu would help him. He coldly laughed in his heart. The Luoshen Clan was already on a path of decline and now, given that their internal warfare was so intense. Most probably, they weren't that far off from being destroyed.

"Elder brother, you have heard what Qin Zhong said." Luoshen Mu turned to Luoshen Chuan.

"What if I say no?" Luoshen Chuan didn't look at Qin Zhong, his gaze was fixed on Luoshen Mu.

"Earlier when Qin Wentian fought against an expert of our clan, elder brother told my faction to stop and consider the whole situation, not wanting our Luoshen Clan to suffer more casualties. I agreed to elder brother's opinion and did so. Even though Qin Wentian killed someone from my faction, I didn't act against him or get anyone to create trouble for him after that. Now, elder brother as the Luoshen Clan Leader, all your actions and decisions would represent the fate of the entire clan, representing our attitude. You should understand what to do. You shouldn't be partial due to your private matter and involve the entire Luoshen Clan into this mess." Luoshen Mu calmly replied, as though if Luoshen Chuan said no, Luoshen Chuan would be betraying the entire Luoshen Clan.

"For this position, you truly racked your brains for all kinds of schemes." Luoshen Chuan sighed. This was hinting for him to give up on the clan leader's position. As long as he wasn't the clan leader, his attitude wouldn't represent the entire attitude of the Luoshen Clan. Hence, the entire clan wouldn't have to be involved in this mess because of his private matter.

At this moment, Qin Wentian stood on the ground with Luoshen Yu and Luoshen Lei beside him. His white robes fluttered in the wind and the ancient demon sword was strapped behind his back. His eyes were cold to the extreme but he naturally understood that he has already been betrayed by the Luoshen Clan. Maybe 'betray' was not the correct word. So it turned out that his grandfather had his logic in wanting him to leave.

And now, because of him, his grandfather was in a situation where he could neither advance nor retreat. To protect him, he had to give up the position of the Luoshen Clan Leader and escort him away under his own name, and not as the Luoshen Clan Leader.

"Despicable." Luoshen Yu's wrinkled face flashed with rage. He clenched his fists tightly, hating the fact that he couldn't fight now.

This Luoshen Mu actually joined forces with their mortal enemies. In order to achieve his aims, Luoshen Mu was completely unscrupulous.

Luoshen Lei's beautiful eyes flashed with anger and worry. A heavenly deity from the Qin Clan has descended and was applying pressure for their Luoshen Clan to hand her elder brother over. Qin Wentian would face a calamity soon.

"Elders, what do you think?" At this moment, Luoshen Chuan spoke, his voice drifting into the void. The elders he was referring to were the few old men that were a generation older than him. They had always been in the shadows of the Luoshen Clan, silently protecting it. Although all the decisions of the Luoshen Clan was decided by Luoshen Chuan, in truth, the statuses of these old men couldn't be ignored. Right now, Luoshen Mu could contend against him because he had some of these old fellows supporting him.

Usually, they wouldn't interfere in the Luoshen Clan's matters but they had the authority to decide on things that would affect the clan. They can be considered as leaders behind the scenes.

"Some obsessions ought to be forgotten." A sigh rang out in reply. Upon hearing this voice, Luoshen Chuan's heart trembled while Luoshen Mu's eyes flashed with a resplendent light.

Luoshen Yu's gaze froze there as his expression grew extremely unsightly.

Qin Wentian saw the change in his uncle's expression. Seems like the owner of this voice has a very important status in the Luoshen Clan.

"The person who spoke out earlier is a heavenly deity of our Luoshen Clan, a supporter of your grandfather." Luoshen Yu transmitted his voice over. Qin Wentian naturally understood what this meant. A supporter of his grandfather was even persuading him to give up. The meaning behind this was clear, the clan leader's position his grandfather was holding, was now on extremely shaky grounds.

In the air, Luoshen Chuan's figure stood there, straight-back and tall. After he heard this voice, he slowly closed his eyes before opening them again as a resolute glint flashed in them. "No."

This single word caused the entire Luoshen Clan to fall silent. There was no noise at all on the Luoshen Mountain.

Qin Wentian stared at that imposing figure as he felt warmth in his heart. During the first time when he met his grandfather in the Luoshen Clan, an overwhelming might bore down on him, the tone his grandfather spoke to him with, was like frost, there was no sense of closeness at all. Even when he stayed for several days in the Luoshen Clan, his grandfather also didn't appear and didn't really chat much with him. All of these, seemed to be pointing to the fact that his grandfather didn't care much about him.

But at this moment, with that single word of rejection, it far surpassed the tens of thousands of words Luoshen Chuan could say to him. Many matters need not be stated explicitly. Just a single word would suffice.

When Luoshen Mu heard this, a cold smile appeared in his eyes. Was everything finally going to move on the path he has charted? His distance from his goal was getting closer and closer.

"Is the Luoshen Clan Leader really preparing to interfere with matters of the Qin Clan? If this is so, my Qin Clan naturally will send experts here to the Luoshen Mountain to seek an explanation." Qin Zhong was a heavenly deity, how could he not understand the games of power being played here? Now, he naturally would support Luoshen Mu.

"Grandfather." At this moment, Qin Wentian spoke. He soared into the air and arrived behind Luoshen Chuan.

Luoshen Chuan glanced at him only to see Qin Wentian smiling, "Grandfather, I originally already planned to leave. I'm going to go down the mountain now."

"Elder brother!" Luoshen Lei was shocked as she called out. If Qin Wentian went down the mountain now, wouldn't he be brought away by Qin Zhong? What sort of fate would await him then?

Luoshen Chuan also stared at Qin Wentian. On the face of the young man, a gentle smile could be seen. When looking at his smile, Luoshen Chuan felt like he was looking at his own daughter.

"Grandfather. Uncle, Leier and many people still need you." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice. Luoshen Yu's cultivation base was crippled but he was still moving as freely as a mortal? This was originally an impossible thing. A crippled heavenly deity should have many terrifying wounds on their body, since Luoshen Yu wasn't able to live on and didn't die due to frailness, he must have depended on the resources provided by the Luoshen Clan. This was something Qin Wentian learned from Leier. Lei`er told him that his uncle has always been hating himself for not being strong enough.

Other than his uncle, there was still Lei`er, and many people in his grandfather's faction who supported his grandfather. If his grandfather gave up on the position of the Luoshen Clan Leader, what would their fates be? Would they be forced out of the clan? Not only that, they still had to deal with a powerful enemy like the Qin Clan.

Heavenly deities are absolutely not invincible existences.

Qin Wentian could not be so selfish and make his grandfather give up everything for him, putting his uncle and Lei`er into a difficult situation.

"No way." Luoshen Chuan decisively rejected. A world overlord against a heavenly deity? There would be no suspense. If Qin Wentian went down the mountain now, that would undoubtedly be a path of death. Qin Wentian was his grandson, the only son of his daughter.

"Grandfather, I'm leaving now. You take care." Qin Wentian bowed towards Luoshen Chuan. After that, he turned his head and glanced at his uncle and Luoshen Lei. At the next moment, a spatial gate appeared and Qin Wentian directly stepped through it, teleporting an unknown distance away.

"Wanting to leave?" Qin Zhong coldly laughed. His immortal sense swept through the void, extending outwards for an unimaginably vast distance!

Chapter 1859: Divine Might

The mental energy of a heavenly deity can no longer be described as immortal sense. It was divine sense instead. Under the scanning of divine sense, there was simply no way Qin Wentian could escape. Although he could travel a million miles with a single 'blink,' but once divine sense locked on to him, a formless energy would latch on to him, revealing his location every time.

"You won't be able to flee." Qin Zhong's voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind, it was like even Qin Zhong's image directly appeared inside his mind.

Qin Wentian ignored the voice in his mind. He continued traveling at great speed, stepping into the void again and again to extend the distance between them. Qin Zhong stepped out. With each step he took, he seemed to traverse the distance equal to a particle world. Although his motion seemed slow, the distance he moved was simply unfathomable to ordinary people.

"Your usage of the dao of space isn't bad, allowing you to travel freely through the void. Sadly, under divine sense, regardless of reality or illusion, you won't be able to hide your presence. Vile spawn, come back with me to the Qin Clan, don't invite suffering on yourself." Qin Zhong continued to pursue, as he spoke in an unhurried manner as though he wasn't in a rush to capture Qin Wentian. To him, Qin Wentian's capture was something already set in stone. It was best to leave this area first in case Luoshen Chuan wanted to interfere. After all, this was something Qin Zheng ordered him to do, he had to perform well. If Luoshen Chuan saw that he captured his grandson, he might be so angered that he would ignore everything and attack and in order to obstruct him.

Over at the Luoshen Clan's side, Luoshen Chuan also didn't expect Qin Wentian to be so decisive, leaving the moment he said he would leave. He clenched his fists tightly, wanting to chase after however, he saw an old man appearing beside him. That old man stared at him and shook his head lightly.

Luoshen Chuan's expression contorted as he stared at that old man. The calmness on his face earlier was long gone, his expression turned extremely unsightly.

Did he really have to see his grandson being brought away by the Qin Clan? This was his grandson, the son of Qianxue! If Qin Wentian was really brought away by the Qin Clan and if Qianxue was still alive and knew that Qin Wentian was taken away in his presence, she would truly hate him, this father of hers, right?

"Grandpa!" Luoshen Lei called out, she felt agony, helplessness and pain in her heart. Right now, only her grandpa could save her elder brother.

Luoshen Chuan drew in a deep breath, he stared at the satisfied smile in Luoshen Mu's eyes as he sighed in his heart. He was still the clan leader, but this was not because he was obsessed over power. It was rather because as a descendant of the Luoshen Clan, he had a responsibility. But now, it seemed that the Luoshen Clan no longer needs him. Since this is the case, rather than exhausting the strength of both Luoshen factions through internal warfare, why should he not simply give it up?

Lifting his foot, Luoshen Chuan was about to leave. But at this moment, Luoshen Mu's figure flashed and blocked him. "Elder brother, you are the clan leader of our Luoshen Clan and your actions would represent all of us. If you interfere in the internal matters of the Qin Clan, you would implicate the entire Luoshen Clan in this. I hope elder brother can give more considerations about the Luosheen Clan."

"Since you want this position so much, I shall give it to you. From now onwards, I'm no longer the clan leader of the Luoshen Clan." Luoshen Chuan's voice rang out within the Luoshen Clan. Behind him, his supporters stared at him in shock. They all called out, "Clan leader!"

Luoshen Chuan turned his head and stared at them, "In the future, work hard for the Luoshen Clan. I still stand by what I said earlier. If I cannot even protect my kin, how can I protect the entire Luoshen Clan? From today onwards, I, Luoshen Chuan, am no longer the clan leader of the Luoshen Clan."

The people behind him all felt misery in their hearts. They supported Luoshen Chuan because Luoshen Chuan was more 'human.' When compared to him, Luoshen Mu was full of schemes, hence they didn't really like Luoshen Mu.

A few old fellows appeared. They stared at Luoshen Chuan, some of them sighed, some of them were calm. On Luoshen Mu's face, a victorious smile could be seen. He said before that Luoshen Lie's death had value to it. Everything was like how he planned out. Given Luoshen Chuan's personality, Luoshen Mu was sure that he would do this.

"Since you want to give up on the position of clan leader, head to the sacrificial shrine for our ancestors and perform the abdication ceremony, allowing the new clan leader to take over." An old man spoke.

Luoshen Chuan's expression changed. "I will do that after I return."

"Impossible." Upon seeing that Luoshen Chuan wants to leave, the old man blocked his way. "As long as you have not performed the abdication ceremony, you are still considered the clan leader of Luoshen Clan and your actions would represent the entire clan's attitude."

They were all Luoshen Mu's supporters, their thinking was the same as Luoshen Mu, wanting to resolve their grudge with the Qin Clan. They naturally wouldn't allow Luoshen Chuan to continue antagonizing the Qin Clan and would stop him here at all costs, not letting him act against Qin Zhong. If a heavenly deity from the Qin was injured by Luoshen Chuan, the grudge between the two clans would undoubtedly be even deeper.

They spoke about the abdication ceremony but in truth, they merely wanted to delay time, they didn't want Luoshen Chuan to interfere with Qin Zhong capturing Qin Wentian.

"Why must you guys force me to the edge?" Luoshen Chuan spoke with anger. His aura erupted forth as a fearsome heavenly might engulfed the area. The few old fellows all unleashed their own auras to resist it. Luoshen

Mu stared at Luoshen Chuan, "Luoshen Chuan, you actually want to act against the elders? Don't forget, this place is the Luoshen Mountain."

"Luoshen Chuan." The old fellows who had supported Luoshen Chuan all had disappointment on their faces as they shook their heads. If Luoshen Chuan really acted now, most probably, not only would he not be able to continue holding on to the position of the clan leader, he would even become a sinner of the Luoshen Clan. They naturally didn't want to see this.

"The etiquette must not be abolished." The old man earlier had a determined look on his face, wanting to make Luoshen Chuan stay here.

"Father!" Luoshen Yu sighed in his heart. He didn't expect that this would happen today.

"Grandpa…" Luoshen Lei's heart was filled with pain. She icily stared at Luoshen Mu. Everything has happened according to his wishes.

"Sure." Luoshen Chuan spoke. After that, he moved towards the ancestral shrine of the clan. Since the other party wanted to delay him no matter the cost, he knew he wouldn't be able to leave here now no matter what he did.

"Father!" Luoshen Lei glanced at Luoshen Yu when she saw this. Luoshen Yu inclined his head and stared up in the air while sighing silently in his heart. After giving up the position as the clan leader, he knew that it was impossible for his father and the rest of them to continue staying in the Luoshen Clan. Also, given his father's personality, his father would surely act in the same manner as he did back then, rushing into the Qin Clan.

What's regrettable was that they had no power to change anything, he felt endless sorrow in his heart.

A majority of people in the Luoshen Clan were sighing, they didn't expect that their Luoshen Clan actually ended in such a state today. Although Luoshen Mu had finally become the winner, but in the perspective of the entire Luoshen Clan, can it really be considered a victory? Most probably from now on, the strength of the Luoshen Clan as a whole would continue to weaken.

"Elder brother, please be safe." Luoshen Lei's heart prayed for Qin Wentian's safety but she knew that her prayer would be useless. Because this time around, her elder brother's opponent was a heavenly deity.

A heavenly deity of the Qin Clan wants to capture him, how can he escape?

At this moment, Qin Wentian has already left the boundary of the Luoshen Mountain, and had even exited Luo City. He was rapidly flying through space but Qin Zhong's divine sense still locked on to him. Even though Qin Wentian constantly entered and exited the void, he had no way to evade Qin Zhong's divine sense's boundary.

Once Qin Zhong confirmed that Luoshen Chuan wouldn't pursue him, a coldness flashed in his eyes as he spoke, "Qin Wentian, in the past I acted against your father and now, I'm about to capture you. There are all sorts of wondrous things in the world, it feels just like samsara. Just give up and follow me back to the Qin Clan."

As the sound of his voice faded, a wave of heavenly might enveloped the area Qin Wentian was in. The winds and clouds changed, as a golden storm manifested, revolving wildly in the sky. The heavenly might permeated the atmosphere and at this moment, countless people below stared up in the sky with great waves of shock in their hearts. What was going on?

The sky was trembling and heavenly might could be felt everywhere.

A deity stood in the air, bathing in golden light. Countless people below stared up in awe as they bowed their heads, there were even some who prostrated themselves in worship. They actually saw a god and could sense the divine might radiating from him.

To countless people, a heavenly deity was a supreme existence that existed at the pinnacle of things. They were able to peer down imperiously at the multitude of living things below them.

They held deities in awe, yet heavenly deities cared nothing for them, the other lifeforms were beneath their notice, and were as insignificant as ants.

Qin Zhong stood imposingly in the air, an ancient Xuanhuang bell appeared behind him. This bell was like an ancient bell of the heavenly dao. It was an incarnation of the dao, manifested by the surroundings but it also seemed to be Qin Zhong's astral soul.

"If you don't give up, I can only act personally then." Qin Zhong calmly spoke. The ancient bell radiated boundless light as chimes filled the air. In this entire space, a tribulation formed from heavenly dao appeared, cleaving the skies apart. Many experts who were prostrating themselves on the ground all directly coughed out blood as they died. Their eyes were wide-open in death, dying with regrets. Why would a deity want to kill them?

Qin Zhong didn't have any wish to kill them, it was just that in his eyes, they were nothing at all, no difference from insects. The person he wanted to deal with was Qin Wentian.

The terrifying tribulation force spread far and wide, flooding the void completely. Qin Wentian was forced out from the void. He had no choice but to pull the demon sword out. His dao was contained within his sword and at this moment, a bright beam of light shot out, aiming for that blast of tribulation force. A terrifying destructive energy devastated the surroundings as explosions occurred from the impact.

Qin Wentian's figure appeared. When he saw so many innocents here dying, an extreme coldness flashed in his eyes. When he stared at Qin Zhong, his eyes revealed an incomparably intense killing intent.

So this is a heavenly deity? The people of the world prostrated themselves and worshiped him yet he didn't care a whit about their lives. When the tribulation force formed from his heavenly might descent, a majority of the people here had all died.

"You still want me to make a move?" Qin Zhong calmly asked. Qin Wentian's eyes were icy to the extreme. His killing intent surged forth as he wielded the demon sword. For the enemies who once acted against his father, Qin Zhong was also a part of it.

"You actually dare to radiate your battle intent?" Qin Zhong had a disdainful smile on his face. An ant trying to shake a tree, Qin Wentian was clearly overestimating himself.

Below heavenly deities, everything was the same, they were mere insects. In their eyes, a hegemonic-level world overlord was only a slightly bigger ant. They were no different than mortals.

The ancient bell behind Qin Zhong expanded, transforming into the sky, becoming an entire world. Within this world, an image of the gigantic bell could be seen. Waves of heavenly might gushed forth, raining down endless destruction wanting to crush everything. Qin Wentian's body was directly beneath the gigantic ancient bell. Before the divine might, he seemed so small and inconsequential.

Chapter 1860: Heavenly Deities are Undefeatable

Qin Wentian's gaze turned solemn. Little Rascal on his shoulder also narrowed his eyes, staring at the heavenly might. Both of them have never sensed such immense power before.

Qin Wentian's eyes contained his dao, Heavenly Fate Eye. With a single glance over, this entire space 'entered' his eye-technique world. Qin Zhong who was staring directly at Qin Wentian, was actually startled as a look of puzzlement flashed in his eyes. He was actually brought by Qin Wentian into Qin Wentian's dao.

Could it be that Qin Wentian actually felt he could battle against a heavenly deity? This was simply ridiculous.

"Break." Qin Zhong calmly spoke. The gigantic ancient bell in the air shot out a pillar of light, causing heaven and earth to shatter. This entire space trembled as Qin Wentian's eye-technique world created from his dao was destroyed. He still seemed so tiny and inconsequential under the ancient bell and could only stare up at the arrogant figure of Qin Zhong in the air.

Qin Zhong coldly snorted. Seems like if he doesn't give Qin Wentian some punishment, Qin Wentian would never obediently follow him away.

"BOOM!" The bell chimes thundered, as though wanting to shatter the bodies of those who heard it. Qin Wentian felt that his body was locked on by the wave of heavenly might. It was impossible even if he wanted to flee.

The light from the bell cascaded down, this heavenly might was like a tribulation force from the skies, capable of splitting the world in twain. Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with a terrifying luster as his body was surrounded by an incomparably resplendent heavenheart mandate's radiance. He combined his innate heavenheart mandate with the power of his world heart and used that for protection. Around him, the flow of time stopped. All attacks had to cease. At the same time, he was also readying his own attacks.

The heavenly might bore down on him, raining from the sky, directly slamming into the screen of light around Qin Wentian. It ignored the power of time stop, the destructive might penetrated everything. Qin Wentian groaned in misery as his body trembled violently, coughing out a mouthful of blood. His countenance turned as pale as paper.

Was this the power of a heavenly deity? This was the first time he faced off against a heavenly deity directly. Before this, although he has seen heavenly deities fighting before, how can that be compared to now where he was experiencing the power of the heavenly deities personally?

"ROAR!" A thunderous roar rang out. Little Rascal transformed into an ancient golden beast that resembled the king of ten thousand demonic beasts. His baleful eyes stared at Qin Zhong who was in the air as he radiated a bloodthirsty aura.

"Oh, it is actually a heaven devouring beast?" A look of interest flashed in Qin Zhong's eyes. How interesting. He hadn't noticed this little demon that was beside Qin Wentian earlier. Seems like it should be a variation-type heaven devouring beast.

The boundlessly gigantic bell enveloped this entire world. Below the sky, numerous smaller golden bells appeared. Each of them were reverberating, emitting chimes and the power of the great dao. Since Qin Wentian was already inside this world, he had no way to flee. This was a path of death, a heavenly dao world constructed by his opponent.

The dao of heavenly deities equates to heavenly dao. His will was heaven's will.

"How stubborn. If I'm not careful, I'm afraid I can only bring a corpse back." Qin Zhong calmly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, those ancient bells spiralled around crazily in the air before blasting towards Qin Wentian respectively.

A region of swords suddenly appeared behind Qin Wentian. Countless swords radiating killing intent whistled through the air. The demon sword in his hand was humming in response as well.

This region of sword was an ability of his astral soul. The resplendent light around it signified that this astral soul was from the 8th heavenly layer.

The demon sword in Qin Wentian's hand danced wildly in the air. The swords in his astral soul sword region also started to vibrate in tandem, each of them contained the might of his dao. At this moment, a terrifying sword formation manifested around Qin Wentian, radiating fearsome might. Those beams of sword light also contained the laws of time as they crackled with power.

Qin Zhong frowned when he saw Qin Wentian's action. Qin Wentian was only at the world overlord realm yet his comprehension has already reached such a high level? He could tell that Qin Wentian was already very close to comprehending the laws of a heavenly dao. His astral souls have already began to display some power similar to what a heavenly deity would possess.

This caused Qin Zhong to sigh silently in admiration. As expected of the son of Qin Yuanfeng and Luoshen Qianxue. The blood of their Qin Clan was strong in Qin Wentian.

Sadly, Qin Wentian was destined to die. After capturing him, Qin Zheng's next move would be to force Qin Yuanfeng to appear.

Countless bursts of energy from the ancient bell cascaded down onto Qin Wentian, wanting to crush the region of swords. However, above the region of swords, an immense word of power which represented the word sword appeared: '剑'!

This ancient word seemed to be the dao itself. It represented the entirety of might from the region of swords.

When the incomparably mighty energy from the ancient bell bore down into the sword region, a shocking collision didn't occur. In fact, the energy from the bell seemed to seep into the sword region and was buried within, suppressed by the countless swords. When Qin Zhong saw this, he couldn't help but sigh in admiration.

"Sword." Qin Wentian's demon sword danced and pierced out in the air. In an instant, boundless sword light gathered and shot up into the sky with a counter attack. At this moment, a sword river appeared in the sky and within the river, countless golden bells of destruction were engulfed by it. Each of them unleashed incomparable might, capable of shattering the sky.

These golden bells initially were attacks from Qin Zhong. But now, under the pressure of Qin Wentian's sword region, they actually turned against Qin Zhong.

"The bells are born from my dao, how can they turn against me?" Qin Zhong calmly spoke. That gigantic bell in the sky emitted a chime. After that, the countless golden bells exploded and the heavens themselves had cracks from the power of the explosions. Destructive might churned wildly, manifesting a storm of destruction that was terrifying to the extreme.

"Senior, what is the weakness of a heavenly deity?" Qin Wentian asked the ancient will of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity in his mind.

"Heavenly deities have no weaknesses. If you want to defeat one, you have to break his dao first. Only then would you gain a chance to kill him. However, breaking the dao of a heavenly deity is simply impossible for world overlords." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity sighed. He was once a heavenly deity too and knew how powerful heavenly deities were. Qin Zhong's dao manifestation was clearly that gigantic heavenly dao ancient bell in the sky. How would Qin Wentian be able to break that?

He didn't expect Qin Wentian would have to fight against a heavenly deity so quickly. According to his thinking, he felt that Qin Wentian only needed a little more time and he would soon be able to come in contact with the deity level as well.

"Even if it's impossible to accomplish it, I have to accomplish it. If not, I will die here." Qin Wentian sighed. Either he breaks the dao or he dies. There was no third path for him. Being captured and brought to the Qin Clan was no different from death. He would not be able to endure being a captive of his enemy. That would be a humiliation to his father as well. Being captured before even he could start on his revenge? He might as well fight to the death here. At the very least, his other self Di Tian would still be around.

Under the power of the heavenly dao, there was no escape. Qin Wentian can only choose to fight.

"Bzz!" Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he directly soared into the air towards Qin Zhong. He instantly arrived before his target. Now, his mastery over the dao of space can already be described as transcendent.

Qin Zhong coldly watched as Qin Wentian flew towards him. When Qin Wentian slashed out with his sword, he didn't even move. He could sense the power of Qin Wentian's laws, the power to stop time and life as well as a tyrannical destructive might within this sword attack. These laws fused together inside the demon sword and pierced towards his body. However, Qin Zhong didn't dodge, allowing Qin Wentian's attack to pierce him. The sound of a jarring ring could be heard at the moment of impact. To his shock, Qin Wentian discovered that the thing he pierced wasn't a body of flesh and blood. It was a type of dao.

Qin Zhong was one entity with his dao. If his dao wasn't broken, he would never fall. By attacking Qin Zhong, Qin Wentian was like attacking the heavenly dao ancient bell.

Heavenly deities have no flaws, they were invincible existences.

Qin Zhong's body grew gigantic all of a sudden. He drew in a breath and breathed out, the power of the chimes of a bell slammed into Qin Wentian, causing his body to tremble violently. The fearsome sound waves penetrated his entire body, shaking his very soul. His entire being seemed to be on the verge of death as he coughed out another mouthful of blood. Just the simple act of exhaling a breath from Qin Zhong actually contained his heavenly dao might.

"Is this the strength of Heavenly deities?" Qin Wentian truly experienced firsthand how terrifyingly powerful heavenly deities are. During this one hundred years of seclusion, he had improved a lot, his comprehension of all aspects also rose greatly and he was much stronger when compared to the past. However, he still felt helpless before a heavenly deity.

"If it wasn't for your uncle wanting me to capture you back, you would have already died." Qin Zhong calmly spoke. Qin Zheng wanted Qin Wentian to be taken alive.

When Qin Wentian heard the term 'uncle,' his eyes grew colder. His grasp on his sword also became tighter.

"Go." Qin Zhong calmly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, another giant bell fell from the sky. The giant bell radiated pure oppressive power, ruthlessly pressing on Qin Wentian. With a thunderous boom, his entire body was about to be crushed. His body appeared in the void. A manifestation of the bell also appeared, its might locking into Qin Wentian's body.

RUMBLE!

The giant bell wanted to press Qin Wentian to the ground, making him prostrate himself. However, Qin Wentian continued to stand tall despite the blood trickling out from the corner of his mouth. The sword formation powered by his astral soul behind him radiated a supreme sword might as it launched a slashing attack into the air. The surface on the ground he was standing on cracked from the impact as a deep crater appeared. The giant bell actually also shattered. Qin Wentian coughed blood once more and when he inclined his head and stare at Qin Zhong, he could see the cold disdain in Qin Zhong's eyes.

In Qin Zhong's perspective, no matter how hard Qin Wentian struggled, it would just be a waste of effort, he would simply be courting suffering for himself.

The Heavenly Dao Ancient Bell high up in the sky radiated boundless light, manifesting countless smaller ancient bells that contained the energy from earlier, causing people facing this attack to drown in endless despair.

"Roar!" Little Rascal let out a low-sounding roar.

"Don't act." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Little Rascal. Before a heavenly deity, the strength of little rascal was clearly insufficient, he wouldn't be able to do anything.

As he spoke, Qin Wentian transformed into a beam of light and shot up into the air again. Those bells that manifested chained their power together and shot towards the direction he was in. However, before the bells could unleash their pressure, Qin Wentian suddenly vanished. It seemed like the strands of time here was twisted. When he appeared again, it was right before Qin Zhong. Qin Wentian slashed out another sword strike towards his opponent.

Qin Zhong's gaze froze, he was clearly taken aback but there was still disdain in his eyes. He lifted his palm and slammed out with it, blasting Qin Wentian's body back. Qin Wentian was flung through the air and collided with the gigantic ancient bell in the sky. His bones felt to be on the verge of shattering but he endured the pain and stabilized his footing.

"It's about time to end this?" Qin Zhong calmly spoke. Qin Yuanfeng's son has the same personality as Qin Yuanfeng himself. If they continued to fight on, Qin Wentian would only be seeking more suffering for himself.

Qin Wentian's body arced through the sky like a beautiful beam of light as he flew towards Qin Zhong for the third time, not hesitating at all. A look of cold determination could be seen on his face.

If one wished to kill a heavenly deity, he would have to break the heavenly deity's dao first.

But the dao of heavenly deities are all heavenly daos, how should he break it?

Qin Zhong wasn't really bothered, he stared with contempt at Qin Wentian flying towards him. However, at this moment, a black-colored rod appeared in Qin Wentian's hand. This rod seemed extremely ordinary, radiating no hints of energy at all, it was like a common item from the mortal world. However, Qin Wentian held onto it tightly with his left hand, like it was a secret weapon of some sort!

Chapter 1861: Death of a Heavenly Deity

Qin Zhong's gaze was filled with his earlier disdain. How recalcitrant, Qin Wentian actually didn't want to give up and wished to court more suffering for himself? Did he really have to cripple Qin Wentian before bringing him away to make Qin Wentian accept his fate?

His cold gaze landed on Qin Wentian and he didn't even bother to defend. Since he was one with his heavenly dao, how can Qin Wentian's attack shake him? It would just be like an ant trying to shake the tree. Qin Zhong radiated heavenly might as coldness flickered in his eyes. He didn't intend to waste any more time. Since Qin Wentian refused to give up, let this experience be one he would never be able to forget for his entire life.

Behind him, countless ancient bells manifested, releasing their light. The might of the great dao brimmed with power, waiting for Qin Wentian's arrival.

Qin Wentian's eyes were glacial to the extreme. He encountered no obstructions and successfully arrived before Qin Zhong. The self-confident Qin Zhong didn't even bother to block, he was waiting for Qin Wentian's attack, an attack that clearly overestimated its strength. He was a heavenly deity, and below deities, everything were ants.

And when Qin Wentian arrived before Qin Zhong, his initial attack wasn't the demon sword in his right hand. Rather, he used the black rod in his left hand. The rod expanded all of a sudden, becoming as large as a heavenly stone pillar, smashing downwards. With a thunderous boom, the rod directly slammed into Qin Zhong's giant body. However, the jarring impact felt like it has hit the gigantic heavenly dao ancient bell instead. It was like the target Qin Wentian has attacked, simply wasn't a body of flesh and blood.

However, at the instant the black rod came in contact with Qin Zhong, the confident expression of Qin Zhong drastically changed. His expressions contorted, revealing extreme agony as disbelief flickered in his eyes. He didn't dare to believe that Qin Wentian's strike was actually able to do something to him.

When the black rod smashed into him, Qin Zhong felt his body and soul about to be separated. The black rod struck into the depths of his soul, this caused his dao to be unstable, he could feel his grasp of heavenly dao trembling.

How could Qin Wentian miss such a good opportunity? He changed the flow of time, increasing it and instantly erupted forth with multiple attacks.

For a period of time, countless shadows of the black rod filled the air as the thunderous booms continued from the impact. At this moment, the black rod had slammed into Qin Zhong countless times. It was basically impossible for Qin Zhong who was a heavenly deity to suffer so many attacks without making any moves to dodge or defend. However, he really didn't do either. Under the trembling of his soul, even if he was a heavenly deity, his reactions slowed tremendously. This was why Qin Wentian's barrage of attacks succeeded.

Qin Zhong was completely dumbfounded. In his perspective, even the entire sky was shuddering. After that, the heavenly dao ancient bell in the sky shattered, his heavenly dao energy crumbled into nothingness. Qin Wentian glanced at Qin Zhong, utilizing his Heavenly Fate Eye with his dao contained within, bringing Qin Zhong into a domain of his absolute control.

"Swordbirth." Qin Wentian spoke. The astral soul sword domain behind him radiated a supreme sword might, forming countless ancient words of power representing sword, each containing the unrivalled might of the great dao. The demon sword in Qin Wentian's hand slashed out and in an instant, the light from all the ancient words of power erupted, generating a flood of light that engulfed Qin Zhong. The dao bone in Qin Wentian's body also exploded forth with the power from the laws of time. Numerous astral souls of his manifested behind him, infusing their law attributes and strengthening this attack.

To deal with heavenly deities, since there was such a good opportunity now, he naturally didn't want to waste it and would go all out to kill him. If not, Qin Zhong would surely not give him any more opportunities after this. The one who dies would be him.

Hence, in a very short period of time, the power Qin Wentian erupted forth with could truly be described as earth-shattering and heaven-shaking. Qin Zhong's body was the focal point as he rained down attacks with ruinous might unceasingly.

At this moment, a terrified look actually appeared in Qin Zhong's eyes. Qin Wentian actually hid his true strength so deeply, only erupting forth now at this moment. Also, that black rod was a true deity-level divine weapon.

His body was slowly being destroyed by the power Qin Wentian erupted forth with. Even his life force was fading away. Qin Wentian's actions didn't stop, he was still unleashing a barrage of attacks. Only until Qin Zhong's body finally disappeared did he cease his actions. Right now, Qin Wentian was basically soaking in respiration.

Finally, did he kill Qin Zhong?

Heavenly deities were too dangerous. If it wasn't for Qin Zhong being careless and if it wasn't for that crazy old freak giving him this divine rod, he basically wouldn't have such an opportunity.

And just when Qin Wentian relaxed, all of a sudden, an intense sense of danger bore down on his heart. Qin Wentian felt that something was wrong and he instantly retreated with explosive speed, fading into the void. After that, an illusory figure appeared in that space of destruction where Qin Zhong died. That was a divine soul!

The appearance of this divine soul was naturally none other than Qin Zhong. His eyes contained a terrifying killing intent. He was a heavenly deity yet he was actually killed by Qin Wentian? A lofty and high up deity being killed by an ant crawling on the ground? What a laughable matter.

Qin Wentian's pretense has succeeded in fooling him, resulting in him becoming too confident. However this time, he will not give Qin Wentian any more opportunities any longer.

RUMBLE~ The illusory figure transformed into an incomparably gigantic ancient bell that radiated boundless light, wanting to kill everything. In the next moment, this entire space was completely enveloped by the power of the ancient bell. Qin Wentian, who had entered the void, was being suppressed as well. After that, the bell locked onto Qin Wentian's figure and directly shot into the void, launching an attack at Qin Wentian. The golden light from the bell was like a heavenly tribulation, wanting total destruction.

Qin Wentian retreated rapidly, he kept his demon sword and lifted the black rod once more. He felt that this ancient bell was transformed from a deity soul. Only this black rod would a suitable defense.

There was no way to retreat. That flood of golden light engulfed him within and Qin Wentian felt a true destructive might boring down on him. At this moment, Qin Zhong no longer held back. He was already in this state, how would he still want to capture Qin Wentian back alive? The him now only wanted Qin Wentian to die.

"ROAR!" Little rascal could sense that Qin Wentian was in danger and wanted to rush out.

"Get away!" Qin Wentian forcibly grabbed and toss little rascal out of harm's way. How would he let little rascal court death? The black rod in his hand transformed into a heavenly rod of god slaughtering while Qin Wentian expanded his form, becoming a giant. He lifted the divine rod and changed the flows of time here, enabling his speed to hasten as he swung the weapon towards the giant ancient bell.

The divine weapon directly penetrated the golden light. This weapon was made to attack the soul. Even if the opponent was the soul of a heavenly deity, they would still be attacked.

As he was attacking, the golden light from the bell bore down with full force on Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian only felt his body being destroyed bit by bit. He let out a roar of pain as parts of his body gradually turned illusory from being destroyed. The final attack of a heavenly deity, how immensely powerful that must be?

Even so, Qin Wentian had enough focus to continue with his own attack. The weapon struck out with extreme speed, aiming for the bell.

"ROAR!" Little rascal let out a howl of madness when he saw parts of Qin Wentian's body becoming illusory, as though they would vanish completely at any moment. His gigantic form seemed about to dissipate into nothing but dust.

But for Qin Zhong who has transformed into the bell, he wasn't able to dodge the attack despite the distance between him and Qin Wentian. He let out a scream of misery at the instant of impact.

"BOOM!"

A deafening blast rang out as though the dome of the heavens have shattered. Qin Wentian's divine rod slammed into the ancient bell, the impact causing even the heavens to tremble. In this entire space, a storm of destruction suddenly raged, ravaging the surroundings.

Qin Wentian's body was directly destroyed. The divine god slaying rod also fell from the sky.

That giant bell trembled as a voice filled with rage howled, "As a heavenly deity, I'm unwilling to accept this!"

This voice thundered through the surroundings, the echoes spreading for tens of thousands of miles. Sadly, there was nothing alive in a zone of tens of thousand miles as the innocents have all been slaughtered by Qin Zhong earlier. As the sound of his voice faded, cracks appeared on the bell and a moment later, the bell shattered into pieces.

After the bell shattered, the illusory figure of Qin Zhong appeared. Explosions rang out from within his soul as the space trembled violently once more.

Now in this vast space, there was only silence. A formless silhouette helplessly drifted about and there was also the body of a giant beast hovering on the verge of death, lying on the ground in misery.

The god slaying rod transformed back into an ordinary black rod and quietly rested on the ground. It looked so ordinary that people who walked past might not even deign to pick it up. Yet, this rod actually killed a heavenly deity.

The deathly silence still permeated the atmosphere. No one knew what happened here yet somebody actually knew of Qin Zhong's death.

...

In a majestic palace of the Qin Clan, Qin Zheng's calm expression suddenly changed, becoming extremely unsightly, causing many people to wonder what had happened.

Today, not long ago, a disaster befell the Qin Clan. A heavenly deity of theirs died.

In the entire great hall, silence was everywhere. For a heavenly deity, no matter which power they were placed in, they would be supreme lofty existences, true characters that stood at the peak. The death of a heavenly deity was absolutely a great loss. This was also true for a supremely powerful clan like the Qin Clan.

"Clan leader, the Luoshen Clan must have interfered. Let's send our troops to the Desolate Region." Someone suggested, his expression cold to the extremes. The Luoshen Clan actually truly dared to kill a heavenly deity from their Qin Clan.

They naturally couldn't endure this. Only by attacking the Luoshen Clan could their hatred be sated. Even if a great war broke out, they wouldn't hesitate.

Since this concerns the death of a heavenly deity, how could the Qin Clan let this matter rest?

"Right." Qin Zheng only replied with a single world. The death of a heavenly deity...there was no need for any reasons or explanations, they will directly send out their troops, heading towards the Luoshen Clan.

The entire Qin Clan was in a commotion, many experts made preparations to head towards the Desolate Region. However, the Luoshen Clan at this moment knew nothing about this. They just finished the clan leader abdication ceremony and Luoshen Mu officially became the Luoshen Clan Leader. Now, he was flushed with success, how could he ever imagine that the Qin Clan was going to attack the Luoshen Clan?

Chapter 1862: Soldiers at the City Wall

At the place where Qin Wentian fought against Qin Zhong, even after a long time passed, there was no vitality in the surroundings.

However at this moment, that illusory figure suddenly emitted a fluctuation. After that, the illusory and formless figure glowed with light as parts of it turned corporeal, gradually recovering. Although the speed was extremely slow, the signs of recovery were evident.

And after that, the illusory form completely turned corporeal, taking on Qin Wentian's form. In fact, astral light illuminated the entire area around him. His flesh regenerated, his wounds from before slowly disappeared. If others could see this, they would all be extremely shocked.

After a long time, a perfect and undamaged body appeared. This was none other than Qin Wentian. In the air, a resplendent beam of light suddenly manifested. This had the laws of time within and this beam of light directly shot into Qin Wentian's body, integrating into his reconstructed body. When the integration was completed, Qin Wentian was still the old Qin Wentian. In fact, he was even conscious and was quietly lying on the ground. His finger moved a little. That ordinary black rod on the ground flew into Qin Wentian's body and fused with it.

Although he had obtained this rod since a long time ago, he had only recently finished refining it during the last hundred years. He knew that the rod was named as the god slaying rod. Back then, that crazy old freak in the Darknorth Immortal Mountain tossed this rod in front of him and now, this rod actually helped him to kill a heavenly deity, saving his life. If not, he would surely be captured by the Qin Clan. And at that point of time, even though he had cultivated the undying scripture and has the ability to reconstruct his body from undying energy, he would still die a true death. Everything he had would be stripped away from him.

As long as his soul doesn't die, he wouldn't be able to die. This was how strong the undying scripture is. In addition, his devil astral soul also had the undying energy aspect to it. This was why no matter how heavy the damage his physical form had to take, he could still regenerate from it. However, it was clear it wasn't a full recovery. The him now was extremely weak, he needed more time to recover.

At this moment, a few bolts of lightning flashed through the space here as a group of figures appeared in the air. In the lead stood a man and a woman. The young man was very handsome and his eyes were incomparably sharp. The young woman exuded magnificence and elegance, but she projected a cold jade-like aura.

"This is…" When they saw little rascal's gigantic body on the ground, their eyes couldn't help but narrow.

"A royal heaven devouring beast." That young woman spoke. Her voice was as cold as her demeanor. She continued, "Bring him back to the mountain."

"What about that human?" Someone glanced at Qin Wentian and asked.

"There seemed to be a great battle here earlier. I have no idea about the identity of this young man, let's temporarily bring him with us." The young woman instructed. After that, Qin Wentian felt his body being lifted by someone as they soared into the air. He felt somewhat speechless, he was actually 'abducted'? He has never experienced this before, this was too pitiful.

Some time after they left, a few other figures came here. This group of people included Luoshen Chuan and a few of his supporters. Luoshen Yu and Luoshen Lei were within this group as well.

"A deity-level battle erupted here." Luoshen Chuan turned ashen. This indicated that it was very possible Qin Wentian fought against Qin Zhong. Given Qin Wentian's cultivation base at the world overlord realm, how is it possible that he could contend against a heavenly deity? His ending would sure be very dire.

After Luoshen Chuan finished the abdication ceremony, he instantly rushed here but it still seemed that he was too late. Naturally, this was only to be expected. After all, it wouldn't take long for a heavenly deity to crush a world overlord. Given that Qin Wentian was able to flee so far, this must be because Qin Zhong intentionally allowed him to do so.

"Elder brother." Luoshen Lei's eyes turned red. How could things be like this? In the world of reincarnation, they had experienced a parting of death. Could it be that she had to experience this in reality as well?

"Let's leave." Luoshen Chuan had no expression as he led everyone away.

"Father, don't go to the Qin Clan." Luoshen Yu implored. His heart was filled with pain, he also wanted to kill his way into the Qin Clan. However, what would be the use of this? This would simply be useless. His father was powerful but it was completely impossible if he wished to take Qin Wentian from the Qin Clan.

"Since they can send out a heavenly deity to capture my grandson, I can use the same method against them." Luoshen Chuan coldly spoke. Right now, he was no longer the clan leader of the Luoshen Clan. There was no need for him to have too much considerations when he does things.

Luoshen Yu's eyes flashed, knowing that his father has already decided. It was useless to try and persuade him further.

They then hastened their speed, traveling in the direction of the Heaven Region as quick as they can. The experts from the Qin Clan were also on the way, rushing towards the Luoshen Clan. The Qin Clan has decided to send an army there.

Since so many experts from the Qin Clan were making a move, how could this be hidden from the eyes of the other major powers? The other peak powers in the Heaven Region immediately received news. When they heard that the Qin Clan was sending out an army with a heavenly deity at its helm, they instantly gathered their respective experts for a meeting. It was rumored that Qin Zheng was the one personally leading this army. They knew that something major had definitely happened. If not, the Qin Clan wouldn't have sent out such an imposing group.

After that, they sent people to investigate where the Qin Army was heading to. The best place to gather information was naturally within the Qin Clan itself.

Although the mobilization of Qin Army was very sudden, they soon uncovered much information. After all, such a major matter couldn't be hidden for too long. This act of sending the Qin Army out was one that could shake the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Which hegemonic power wouldn't take this seriously?

Finally, they received the information that the Qin Clan was sending troops to the Desolate Region to attack the Luoshen Clan.

The reason for this was because Qin Zhong, a heavenly deity from the Qin Clan, had died in the area around the Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region when executing Qin Zheng's order.

For a period of time, this news started to spread like a wildfire to the various regions. It spread to the Earth Region, Mystic Region, Yellow Region...All the peak powers were shocked by this and decided to pay close attention.

Right now, the Qin Clan was at their strongest. Before the Qin Clan, the Luoshen Clan was clearly weaker yet they dared to kill a heavenly deity from the Qin Clan? Do they want a war at the highest level to erupt?

How could the Qin Clan forget about this and give it up seeing that one of their heavenly deities died?

The mobilization of the Qin Army caused the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to be in a commotion. Everyone was paying attention to this. After some time, the news finally circulated to the place where everything originated - the Luoshen Clan.

When the Luoshen Clan learned that Qin Zhong died and the Qin Clan mobilized their army, they were completely dumbstruck.

How could this be possible?

When Qin Zhong left to pursue Qin Wentian, in order not to offend the Qin Clan, they even intentionally delayed Luoshen Chuan, making it so that Luoshen Chuan had no way to deal with Qin Zhong. The amount of time they delayed was clearly sufficient.

But now, the news said that Qin Zhong has actually died? In addition, the Qin Clan was going to send their army over to Luo City?

On the Luoshen Mountain, the atmosphere which was usually calm, was now completely different. The entire clan was in a commotion, the victor from the vying for authority and power ended up being Luoshen Mu, Luoshen

Chuan bowed out and left the clan. However, because of this, their clan just lost Luoshen Chuan which meant that their strength had decreased. And at this moment, news about the Qin Army rushing here was received? What should they feel?

But they still didn't understand how Qin Zhong died? He went to pursue Qin Wentian, how could it be possible that he died? Could it be that Qin Zhong failed to capture Qin Wentian despite such a long time and Luoshen Chuan arrived in time to save Qin Wentian and killed Qin Zhong?

As for the hypothesis that Qin Wentian killed Qin Zhong, no one in the Luoshen Clan dared to imagine this. The entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms didn't dare to speculate so wildly. Below heavenly deities, everyone were ants. Heavenly deities were lofty existences and no matter how strong a world overlord is, as long as he has not stepped into the heavenly deity realm, he would be no different from a mortal in the perspective of a heavenly deity. So, how can Qin Wentian kill Qin Zhong? Such a thinking naturally wouldn't appear in the minds of these people.

After the Luoshen Clan learned of this, their reactions were very fast as well. They immediately sent out news saying that Qin Zhong's death absolutely had nothing to do with their Luoshen Clan. Their Luoshen Clan didn't obstruct Qin Zhong and even intentionally held the abdication ceremony after Qin Zhong and Qin Wentian departed from here to delay Luoshen Chuan.

After this news circulated out, the Qin Army that was currently heading towards Luo City naturally also learned of this. However, they didn't stop and continued on their way. The various peak powers all had different reactions. A majority of the peak powers wanted to watch the show and felt joy in the misfortune of others. And as for the Divine Ox Clan that was also one of the peak powers of the Desolate Region, they actually felt excited that this happened.

In the Desolate Region, the Luoshen Clan was the strongest of the three hegemonic powers here. They only weakened after the clash with the Qin Clan those years ago. But even so, the Luoshen Clan was still very strong and proud. The Luoshen Clan has always looked down on the Divine Ox Clan. There were also grudges between the two hegemonic powers in the past.

Right now, the Luoshen Clan suffered a change within their ranks again. The powerful Luoshen Chuan was forced to abdicate. Although they didn't personally experience this, they could very well imagine what had happened.

Luoshen Chuan naturally would leave the Luoshen Clan. He no longer had any reasons to stay behind.

In addition to the news that the Qin Army was rushing towards Luo City, the Divine Ox Clan made a decision and sent out their experts to the Luoshen Mountain, preparing to join the liveliness. Maybe, they would find a chance to pull the Luoshen Clan down once and for all. They were naturally very happy about this.

Today, in the airspace above Luo City, a layer of dark clouds seemed to gather. All of a sudden, waves of heavenly might bore down, engulfing the boundlessly vast Luo City. This was heavenly might. The people in Luo

City all felt their hearts trembling. This city was none other than the main city of the Luoshen Clan. Through countless years, no one had dared to provoke it. But today, the Qin Army has arrived. Under the attention of all the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the Qin Army descended onto Luo City.

After that, another fearsome pressure manifested. The experts from the Divine Ox Clan also arrived and they were standing in the air above Luo City as well.

Other than them, there were still experts from the various peak powers in the shadows. They came here to watch the show.

On Luoshen Mountain, the people from the Luoshen Clan felt a stifling pressure boring down on all of them.

And at the exact same moment, Luoshen Chuan and his group also arrived at the Qin Clan in the Heaven Region. Because they kept rushing, they didn't pay attention to the news in the outside world. They only learned of this after they entered the Heaven Region. Qin Zhong didn't return to the Qin Clan, he actually died in the Desolate Region.

After learning this news, their hearts violently trembled. What happened exactly after Qin Zhong and Qin Wentian left the Luoshen Clan?

Chapter 1863: Humiliating Conditions

When Luoshen Chuan and his group found Qin Wentian and Qin Zhong's battlefield back then, there were traces of might unleashed from heavenly daos. There was no doubt that Qin Zhong fought there. However, they didn't manage to find Qin Wentian. They naturally assumed Qin Wentian had been captured by Qin Zhong. This was why they kept rushing throughout the day and night to the Heaven Region. However, when they reached the Heaven Region, they received shocking news that Qin Zhong actually died in the Desolate Region and the Qin Clan was sending an army to the Luoshen Clan?

What was going on exactly?

Who killed Qin Zhong and where was Qin Wentian now?

"Lei`er, you still can't contact him?" Luoshen Chuan asked Luoshen Lei. Luoshen Lei has been attempting to use her messaging crystal to contact Qin Wentian but up until now, she didn't receive any replies.

Luoshen Lei shook her head. She was very worried about her elder brother. Qin Zhong had died, but where had her elder brother gone?

"Clan leader, what about the Luoshen Clan?" Those experts from the Luoshen Clan who chose to follow Luoshen Chuan wanted to say something but they hesitated. Luoshen Chuan sighed and replied, "The Qin Clan had a heavenly deity that died in the Desolate Region. Although Luoshen Mu already proclaimed that this matter has no connection to the Luoshen Clan, how can the anger the Qin Clan felt over having one of their heavenly deities dying dissipate just like that? Even if they know this matter isn't connected to the Luoshen Clan, the Qin Clan wouldn't stop just like that. Luoshen Mu has brought a calamity on the Luoshen Clan."

The Qin Clan sent Qin Zhong because Luoshen Mu informed them. And now that they have invited a pack of wolves into their home, who could the Luoshen Clan blame?

Now, they could only hope that the Luoshen Clan won't suffer too many casualties. Even if Luoshen Chuan rushed back now, he wouldn't be able to make it in time.

"Luoshen Mu's heart isn't pure. He would rather weaken the Luoshen Clan to seize power. Clan leader, why don't you set up a separate clan and get the rest to submit once this matter blows over? I believe that after this calamity, many in the Luoshen Clan would wake up and see clearly for themselves what sort of character Luoshen Mu is." An expert at the side suggested.

"If I do so, I would only be fragmenting the Luoshen Clan even more. The Luoshen Clan's foundation might even collapse completely from that." Luoshen Chuan's expression was grim. The people around him all sighed in their hearts when they heard that. They could only hope that the Luoshen Clan was able to get through this calamity. After all, although these people had left the Luoshen Clan in support of Luoshen Chuan, those people who remained there were still their kin. The people they hated were only a small part of the whole. The vast majority were the ordinary members of the clan.

...

Just like what Luoshen Chuan has speculated, since the Qin Clan lost a heavenly deity, even if they really believed in the news sent out by Luoshen Mu that Qin Zhong's death had nothing to do with the Luoshen Clan, the Qin Clan wouldn't stop. Now that they mobilized the Qin Army, how can they simply leave just like that? If they did so, how would the people of the world view the Qin Clan? In the future, wouldn't anyone would dare to offend the Qin Clan then?

At this moment, the Luoshen Clan had to give them an answer.

In the airspace above Luo City, divine might bore down on everything. This feeling was extremely clear on the Luoshen Mountain. In the airspace above the Luoshen Mountain's peak, a group of experts descended from the sky. The man in the lead was none other than the Qin Clan Leader Qin Zheng. After Qin Zheng became the Qin Clan Leader, it was very rare for him to reveal his face outside the clan. However, there was no need to doubt his strength. When he was younger, he was already nurtured as a future successor of the Qin Clan. Back then, only Qin Yuanfeng could be comparable to him but the ending was that everything Qin Yuanfeng possessed was stripped off from him and transferred to Qin Zheng. Qin Zheng was the ultimate victor and became the Qin Clan Leader.

The Luoshen Clan's experts also appeared. Luoshen Mu looked at Qin Zheng and glanced at the surroundings, "Since the experts from the Divine Ox Clan have also arrived, you might as well just show yourselves."

"Haha, we only came to take a look. Congratulations to Brother Mu for becoming the Luoshen Clan Leader." A boorish voice drifted through the air as another group of experts appeared. These experts all had muscular and sturdy builds, exuding a feeling of savageness. These were none other than experts from the Divine Ox Clan. Among them, several heavenly deities were present. Even the chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan personally appeared.

"Many thanks." Luoshen Mu's voice turned somewhat cold. This chief of the Divine Ox Clan personally came, it was clear that he had ill intentions. It was highly possible that he wanted to hit the Luoshen Clan when they are down.

"Luoshen Mu, Qin Zhong from my Qin Clan only came to the Luoshen Clan due to the information you sent. However, he actually died here. What do you intend to do?" Qin Zheng calmly asked, not giving Luoshen Mu any face at all, directly saying that Qin Zhong came due to the info Luoshen Mu sent them. By making this public, this clan leader Luoshen Mu would no longer have any face. After all, the Luoshen Clan and the Qin Clan already had a grudge since the past. Yet, Luoshen Mu colluded with the clan's enemies to deal with Qin Wentian and Luoshen Chuan.

"Before this, I've already sent out news. I believed that the Qin Clan has received the news too that Qin Zhong's death absolutely has nothing to do with my Luoshen Clan. At that time, Qin Zhong left to pursue the traitor's son Qin Wentian. Luoshen Chuan wanted to leave to obstruct Qin Zhong but our Luoshen Clan stopped him, and delayed him with the abdication ceremony. At that time, all the heavenly deities of my Luoshen Clan were present, not a single one of them left. Hence, it is impossible for Qin Zhong's death to be connected to my Luoshen Clan." Luoshen Mu replied.

"Qin Zhong has already died, there's no proof to validate your words hence you can say what you want to? No matter what, it's true that Qin Zhong died after he came to the Luoshen Clan. I find it hard to believe that the Luoshen Clan has no connection to this matter." Qin Zheng domineeringly spoke. "Luoshen Mu, for this matter, the Luoshen Clan has to give a satisfactory answer to my Qin Clan. If not, prepare to face the consequences…"

This was a stark naked threat. The expressions of the Luoshen Clan all turned very unsightly. No matter what, they were also a hegemonic power in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and had once fought equally with the Qin Clan. Although they were weaker now, it doesn't mean that they could be threatened like this. The Qin Clan actually sent out an army and wanted to pressure them by pressing their heads down?

"I invited Qin Zhong over to capture the traitor's son because I wish to mend the relationship between both our clans. Clan Leader Qin should have understood my intentions, right? I also didn't want Qin Zhong to die, but this definitely wasn't something done by my Luoshen Clan. What sort of answer do you want?" Luoshen Mu spoke. When the Luoshen Clan's experts heard his words, they couldn't help but feel disappointment. Compared to Luoshen Chuan's tyranny, Luoshen Mu's aura was clearly weaker, as though he was willing to submit. This was simply extremely shameful, a humiliation to the Luoshen Clan.

Right now, as the Luoshen Clan Leader, Luoshen Mu didn't simply represent himself, he represented the entire Luoshen Clan.

"In that case since you, Luoshen Mu, put it this way, if you can do the things I will state, I will believe you." Qin Zheng spoke.

"Clan Leader Qin, please feel free to speak." Luoshen Mu spoke.

"Qin Zhong was a heavenly deity from my Qin Clan, but he died in the territories near the Luoshen Clan. However, you, Luoshen Mu said that you wish to form a good relationship with my Qin Clan? Since this is the case, I want a heavenly deity from the Luoshen Clan to head over to my Qin Clan as a guest to indicate good will from the Luoshen Clan. Other than this, I also invite ten world overlords from the younger generation of the Luoshen Clan over to my Qin Clan to cultivate. When the Luoshen Clan completes these two matters, I will allow them to return. The first matter, get Luoshen Chuan to come to my Qin Clan and give me an answer. I suspect this incident has something to do with him. As for the second matter, capture the traitor's son Qin Wentian and bring him to the Qin Clan. If he is alive, I want to see his person. If he is dead, I want to see his corpse." Qin Zheng spoke.

When the experts of the Luoshen Clan heard this, they were incomparably enraged. Although the word used was 'guests,' they are nothing but hostages in reality. They wanted the Luoshen Clan to do their bidding and capture Luoshen Chuan to exchange for the hostage heavenly deity and capture Qin Wentian to exchange for the ten world overlords. This was simply a humiliation for the Luoshen Clan. If they agreed to these conditions, the Luoshen Clan would become the ridicule of the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

But if they didn't agree, the Qin Clan most probably wouldn't give up. There were still experts from the Divine Ox Clan at the side eyeing them like how tigers eye their prey.

A heavenly deity and ten world overlords. The Qin Clan wanted to ruthlessly diminish the Luoshen Clan's strength. The Qin Clan also didn't really want to start a war directly. Although they could win, their Qin Clan would have to suffer heavy casualties too. Hence, they made such a request, wanting to slowly weaken the Luoshen Clan. Taking a heavenly deity and ten world overlords, and not only so, the remainder of the Luoshen Clan had to capture Luoshen Chuan and Qin Wentian.

The chief of the Divine Ox Clan looked at Qin Zheng. As expected of the formidable Qin Clan Leader. Today, the Luoshen Clan had to agree even if they didn't want to. And once they agreed to it, the Luoshen Clan would not only weaken, there would also be internal unrest and they wouldn't be far from collapse. After all, their internal warfare just ended, the current Luoshen Clan now was extremely unstable.

"Qin Clan Leader, aren't your conditions a little too over the top?" Luoshen Mu's expression grew very unsightly.

"You are the one who said that you wish to have a good relationship with my Qin Clan. If you don't agree with my invitation of a heavenly deity and ten world overlords coming to my Qin Clan as guests, I can only suspect that Qin Zhong's death was caused by your Luoshen Clan. Since that's the case, we can only start a war." Qin Zheng solemnly spoke, radiating imposing might. In the air, waves of heavenly might engulfed the Luoshen Mountain. It was like as long as Luoshen Mu said the word 'no,' the Qin Clan would start a war immediately.

Luoshen Mu's expression turned extremely ugly. The first major event that happened after he became the clan leader was the arrival of the Qin Clan declaring a war? Could it be that he had to agree to such humiliating conditions?

If they didn't agree, could the Luoshen Clan bear the consequences?

"Uncle Han, are you willing to head to the Qin Clan to be their guest?" Luoshen Mu turned his head and spoke to an old man standing behind him. This was a heavenly deity of the Luoshen Clan. This person was once Luoshen Chuan's supporter. When the old man heard Luoshen Mu's words, his eyes suddenly flashed with coldness. Luoshen Mu wanted him to go to the Qin Clan?

To be a guest? This was merely what was said on the surface. Most probably after he headed there, his fate would be controlled by the Qin Clan completely.

"Uncle Han, our Luoshen Clan will take good care of your aunt, younger brother and younger sister. Also, for the world overlords that go over this time around, there will be none from your family." Luoshen Mu transmitted his voice to the old man when he noticed the flash of coldness in the old man's eyes. This sentence he spoke also constituted a threat. The old man was so angry that he clenched his fists tightly. Luoshen Mu then spoke out on the surface, "Uncle Han, if you are willing to head over for the sake of our Luoshen Clan, our Luoshen Clan will never forget your contribution."

"Luoshen Mu, you are really excellent." Luoshen Han icily spoke. How regrettable, he had switched from supporting Luoshen Chuan to Luoshen Mu. And now, he was actually betrayed by Luoshen Mu.

"I'm willing to go over." Luoshen Han spoke. However, it was clear from his tone that he was extremely unwilling.

"Many thanks Uncle Han for considering the big picture." Luoshen Mu nodded. After that, he named ten other world overlords who had been supporters of Luoshen Chuan before. They were all incomparably infuriated. In fact, some even cursed him out loud in public. However, after Luoshen Mu sent a voice transmission to threaten their family, all of them shut up. They knew that they had to go even if they didn't want to go.

"Since the Luoshen Clan is willing to show good will, I will believe the Luoshen Clan. I hope the Luoshen Clan will properly accomplish the two tasks I've spoken of earlier." Qin Zheng spoke, his voice ringing with the tone of command.

"My Luoshen Clan will naturally do our best." Luoshen Mu felt incomparably humiliated. At this moment, the chief of the Divine Ox Clan laughed, "The ascension of a new Luoshen Clan Leader, what a joyous matter. How can we not celebrate this? My Divine Ox Clan is also willing to have a marriage alliance with the Luoshen Clan. The supreme character of my clan, Devilox of the younger generation, has always viewed the maidens from the Luoshen Clan very highly and wishes to marry several of them. I wonder if the Luoshen Clan Leader would agree to this marriage proposal?"

Chapter 1864: Internal Collapse

As the voice of the Divine Ox Clan Chief faded away, many of the Luoshen Clan revealed looks of anger.

The strength of their Luoshen Clan was inferior to the Qin Clan. They had experienced a series of events that led to their strength weakening and even their original clan leader was forced out. But even so, the Divine Ox Clan didn't have authority to act brazenly in here. However, right now, the Divine Ox Clan was not simply acting brazen, their words were basically an insult to the Luoshen Clan.

They can forget about it if Devilox wanted to marry a maiden from the Luoshen Clan. However, the ox chieftain said that Devilox wanted to marry several beauties of the Luoshen Clan? On the surface, a marriage alliance seemed pleasant to the ears. But in truth, these vile creatures from the Divine Ox Clan merely wanted to get their hands on the Luoshen Clan bloodline. They wanted to breed many mix-bloods. This was simply a great insult.

"Scram." An old man from the Luoshen Clan couldn't control his rage any longer. The large eyes of the ox chieftain stared at that old man as he laughed uproariously, causing the space here to tremble. Luoshen Mu coldly glanced at the ox chieftain as he icily spoke, "My Luoshen Clan has no intention of forming a marriage alliance with the Divine Ox Clan."

Since a heavenly deity from the Qin Clan died, them coming here had a reason to it. But for the Divine Ox Clan, they were clearly planning to take advantage of the situation when they were down.

"Oh, I've heard of Devilox from the Divine Ox Clan, it's said that he was born with a dao bone and has excellent talent. Since having a marriage alliance can increase the strength of the future generations, Luoshen Mu, why must you toss this thought out of the window? I think a marriage alliance between both your clans seems to be a very good idea." At this moment, Qin Zheng calmly spoke, his words causing the gazes of countless people in the Luoshen Clan to freeze. Luoshen Mu's expression grew even uglier. When the Qin Clan and the Divine Ox Clan came here together earlier, he was already worried that if a conflict occurred, would the two of them join forces? Now it seemed that things were indeed as he had expected, the Qin Clan and the Divine Ox Clan must have come to an agreement.

The Qin Clan had the intention to support the Divine Ox Clan to confront their Luoshen Clan. By doing so, they could continue weakening the Luoshen Clan without having to fight a war. This was undoubtedly the ending the Qin Clan wished to see the most. Hence, other than weakening the Luoshen Clan, they naturally wanted to see a rival of the Luoshen Clan grow stronger.

The ox chieftain laughed loudly, "Many thanks for Clan Leader Qin's beautiful words. Luoshen Mu, I believe we showed enough sincerity today. Look, there are so many heavenly deities from my Divine Ox Clan here. I'm sure you have not seen such an imposing array of experts during a marriage proposal, right?"

Such 'sincerity' was a stark naked threat. The heavenly deities from the Divine Ox Clan came here to pressure the Luoshen Clan.

"Vile beast." An old man from the Luoshen Clan coldly spoke.

"What did you say?" The laughter of the ox chieftain abruptly stopped. He took a step down from the air as heavenly might bore down on the Luoshen Mountain, causing the entire mountain to tremble.

"Clan leader, you definitely cannot agree to this matter." Someone spoke, ignoring the ox chiefain's rage. This was a clear humiliation.

"If there's no way to set up a marriage alliance, I have no objections. But earlier, someone insulted the chieftain of my Divine Ox Clan. As long as you hand over the offender to our Divine Ox Clan, we will forget everything." Another heavenly deity from the Divine Ox Clan pointed to the old man who scolded the ox chieftain as a vile beast. The old man was also a heavenly deity.

"Can it be you guys are not vile beasts?" That old man coldly spoke.

"Clan Leader Qin, you should have heard it too. How do you feel this matter should be handled?" The ox chieftain stared at Qin Zheng.

"If the two of your clans can form a marriage alliance, all of these are small matters and can be forgotten. I believe you, as the ox chieftain, would be magnanimous enough to forget about this." Qin Zheng calmly spoke.

"Mhm, if there is a marriage alliance between our clans, I can forget about that earlier insult." The ox chieftain nodded. "But what if the Luoshen Clan doesn't agree?"

"Insulting the chieftain of a hegemonic power? In that case, the Luoshen Clan naturally has to give a reply and send the offender to the Divine Ox Clan." Qin Zheng spoke, the two of them acting in a show the other directed.

"Since that's the case, I will have to ask Clan Leader Qin to administer justice today then." The ox chieftain laughed. After that, the experts from the Divine Ox Clan all released their auras which enveloped the Luoshen Clan.

"Clan leader, we would rather fight than to suffer this humiliation. Whoever wants to destroy our Luoshen Clan, we shall make them pay a heavy price." That old man earlier coldly spoke.

"You have backbone, as expected of a heavenly deity of the Luoshen Clan. In the past, there have been many battles due to conflict between our Qin Clan and the Luoshen Clan but a clan war has never erupted before. Today, we might really have the chance to experience the full strength of the Luoshen Clan." Qin Zheng spoke. Behind him, the experts from the Qin Clan all released their might. The auras from the experts of the two clans bore down on the mountain. It would be a lie if one were to say that the people of the Luoshen Clan weren't panicking. If a war erupted, only heavenly deities have the chance to escape or to deal with the Qin Clan and Divine Ox Clan. For the rest of their Luoshen Clan, they would surely be annihilated here.

"Chieftain, how many people do you want?" Luoshen Mu asked, his words causing many experts of the Luoshen Clan to stare at him in disbelief.

"Let's make it ten people, just like what the Qin Clan requested. Initially, Devilox is interested in Luoshen Lei, sadly, she is no longer here or I would have asked for her. Naturally, if the Luoshen Clan is agreeable to send Luoshen Meng for the marriage alliance, I can lower the quota down to three females. The Luoshen Clan can randomly pick the other two, provided that they are beautiful world overlords." The ox chieftain smiled. Among the crowd, there was an extremely beautiful maiden whose beauty wasn't inferior to Luoshen Lei. She exuded grace and elegance, and also had a transcendent presence. She was the descendant of a heavenly deity, and had extraordinary talent. Now, her cultivation base was at the world overlord realm and among females in the younger generation of the Luoshen Clan, she was definitely one of the most outstanding ones.

Luoshen Meng instantly paled. Just so coincidentally, her grandfather was none other than that heavenly deity who cursed at the ox chieftain. At this moment, her grandfather coldly replied, "I won't agree to this."

"Fine, as long as you follow me back to the Divine Ox Clan. I won't mention anything about a marriage alliance again." The ox chieftain laughed in a glacial manner.

"Luoshen Meng, you should have also seen the situation. Your grandfather is a heavenly deity, do you want him to sacrifice himself for you? Wouldn't it be better if you just agree to the marriage proposal?" Luoshen Mu transmitted his voice to Luoshen Meng. Luoshen Meng turned even paler. She stared at the experts in the air and felt despair crushing her heart. She didn't expect that she would be so unfortunate.

"I will definitely not agree to this." At this moment, her grandfather spoke with a tone that could sever iron. Heavenly might radiated from his body as he prepared to battle.

"Make your decision quickly. If your grandfather fights, with the power of the Qin Clan and the Divine Ox Clan, his only ending would be death." Luoshen Mu transmitted his voice over again. Tears fell from Luoshen Meng eyes as she sighed, "I agree to the marriage proposal of the Divine Ox Clan."

"Meng!" That old man turned to look at his granddaughter.

"Grandfather, it's fine. I have to marry someone sooner or later." Luoshen Meng spoke softly.

"Since Luoshen Meng has agreed. Let's settle this matter then. I will choose another two beautiful females for the marriage alliance. I believe the chieftain will be satisfied now, right?" Luoshen Mu coldly spoke.

"Haha, great. Three months later, I will send people to fetch the three brides over and will definitely throw a glorious wedding banquet for them." The ox chieftain laughed uproariously again. It was like he could already see the future. His Divine Ox Clan would be the only one shrouded in glory. The Luoshen Clan would be basking in boundless humiliation.

Luoshen Mu's eyes were cold to the extreme. He naturally knew how shameful the matters that happened today were. However, if they started a war, the entire Luoshen Clan would be annihilated. In that case, wouldn't his many years of efforts in the dark to seize power be a waste? He had just become the Luoshen Clan Leader. Could it be that the Luoshen Clan would be destroyed in his hands?

The incidents on the Luoshen Mountain soon spread to the other regions. The Luoshen Clan who had just ended their internal warfare became a joke in the eyes of many. However, those hegemonic powers understood that the Qin Clan did so intentionally, causing the Luoshen Clan to suffer boundless humiliation because Qin Zheng betted correctly that Luoshen Mu didn't dare to start a war. He used the excuse of Qin Zhong's death to heavily stab the Luoshen Clan. Not only did the Qin Clan bring away a heavenly deity and ten world overlords from the Luoshen Clan, they even supported the Divine Ox Clan of the Desolate Region to suppress the Luoshen Clan.

The Divine Ox Clan would also be able to obtain what they wanted - the bloodline of the Luoshen Clan. Obtaining the maidens of the Luoshen Clan was something the Divine Ox Clan had planned for since a very long time ago. Today, their desires were finally fulfilled. Their next step would be to claim supremacy in the Desolate Region after the Luoshen Clan weakened even more.

After the Luoshen Clan compromised, it was said another internal conflict broke out in the Luoshen Clan. Some of the elders were unable to endure all of this, completely cutting off their relationship with Luoshen Mu, even saying they wanted to leave the Luoshen Clan. Luoshen Mu was in a complete rage. He even sent people to control Luoshen Meng, preventing her from leaving. In any case, after Luoshen Mu became the clan leader, the Luoshen Clan clearly was much weaker now. Everyone in the world sighed, could it be that the number one clan of the Desolate Region was going to collapse?

After Luoshen Chuan learned of this, he didn't say anything but Luoshen Yu could sense the anger in his father's heart. That was his clan, yet now, they had suffered so much humiliation in the hands of Luoshen Mu. They had fought with the Qin Clan for many years and although their strength was inferior to the Qin Clan, they had never been humiliated so badly before. In addition, even the Divine Ox Clan dared to ride on their heads.

"Clan leader." Finally, someone contacted Luoshen Chuan through his messaging crystal.

"I'm no longer the Luoshen Clan Leader." Luoshen Chuan sighed. The person who messaged him was Luoshen Meng's grandfather, Luoshen Xiao.

"Is it possible to save Meng`er? Our Luoshen Clan cannot stand for such humiliation. Will you be able to return to the Luoshen Clan?" The other party asked. Luoshen Chuan fell silent before he replied, "I've already abdicated. This is the will of the entire clan. There's no meaning even if I returned now. Do you want me to start another internal war with Luoshen Mu?"

"In that case, I'm willing to leave the Luoshen Clan. Many elders have started to regret. They are willing to support you to establish a second Luoshen Clan. The Luoshen Clan of the Luoshen Mountains is no longer the Luoshen Clan of the past." Luoshen Xiao sighed. Luoshen Chuan didn't reply for a long time.

Next, another elder contacted Luoshen Chuan saying that he was willing to leave the Luoshen Clan as well. Luoshen Chuan's heart stirred. Now, even though he had no wish to further weaken the Luoshen Clan, the Luoshen Clan was already undergoing inevitable internal collapse. If the hearts of the people in the clan weren't united, they would be nothing but a pile of loose sand.

Although Luoshen Chuan's heart stirred, he still hesitated and didn't reply. Now, the most urgent thing to him was that he had to find his grandson Qin Wentian. How was he doing now and where exactly was he?"

How did Qin Zhong die in the Desolate Region? It's said that the experts from the Qin Clan have not left the Desolate Region yet. They were still investigating this.

...

In the Desolate Region, there were three hegemonic powers - the Luoshen Clan, the Divine Ox Clan and Demon God Mountain.

Demon God Mountain was an empire of demon beasts, it was a paradise for demons. Over here, the various races of greater demons allied together to contend against the Divine Ox Clan. Through the powerful bloodline abilities of the various races, they managed to climb to the peak of the Desolate Region as well and became one of the three hegemonic powers. Also, they were very clear about the major incidents that just happened in the Desolate Region. In fact, they were even clearer than most others.

On the Demon God Mountain, within an ancient demon god palace, Qin Wentian quietly laid there yet Little Rascal was not at his side. Little Rascal was now at some other location. And as for that young man and young woman who brought them both here, they were now regarding Qin Wentian with interest.

"I didn't expect that this man whom we casually brought back, is actually the source of everything that recently happened in the Desolate Region. Qin Wentian, he is the son of the supreme character of the Qin Clan in the past, Qin Yuanfeng, the grandson of the original Luoshen Clan leader Luoshen Chuan. If we hand him over now, there would surely be a huge commotion. Not only the Qin Clan and Luoshen Clan are looking for him, Luoshen Chuan is surely looking for him as well." That young man with a demonic air laughed. How interesting.

"It's best that you don't have such thoughts. The heavenly devouring beast we found beside him is now a hot favourite of the Heaven Devouring Ancestor who treats him like a treasure. Maybe, the royal heaven devouring beast's status would soon surpass you." The young woman beside him coldly spoke. That young man laughed, "That's true, but have you forgotten something interesting? Qin Zhong, the heavenly deity of the Qin Clan has died. The place where we found Qin Wentian and that royal heaven devouring beast should be the battlefield, right? Could it be that Qin Zhong was really killed by Qin Wentian?"

Chapter 1865: Demon Sovereigns

It has been about two months worth of time after Qin Zhong died. During this period of time, the incidents that happened in the Luoshen Clan circulated to the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. It has been a long time since such major matters happened. A war almost broke out among three hegemonic powers, the Qin Clan, Divine Ox Clan and the Luoshen Clan. However, because the Luoshen Clan decided to be willingly humiliated, the matter was concluded.

After this matter, the Qin Clan and the Luoshen Clan started to search for Qin Wentian's traces, they also continued with the investigation of Qin Zhong's death.

Luoshen Chuan also returned to the Desolate Region, he was also searching for Qin Wentian.

However, never in their wildest imaginations would they imagine that Qin Wentian was actually currently at the other hegemonic power of the Desolate Region, he was on the Demon God Mountain.

Today, Qin Wentian woke up. The young man and young woman who brought him here appeared before him and they were both staring at him with interest.

"This place is the Demon God Mountain?" Qin Wentian asked. Evidently, he hasn't been completely unconscious and maintained a hint of clarity. He actually knew that this place was the Demon God Mountain.

"Qin Wentian." That young man smiled. "Was Qin Zhong killed by you?"

Clearly, he was very curious about this point. The Qin Clan actually lost one heavenly deity and even now, the Qin Clan was still investigating this seriously, despite there being no clues.

Now, the only person who could solve this riddle was none other than Qin Wentian alone.

"What do you think?" Qin Wentian smiled. He knew that he was on the Demon God Mountain but he had no idea whether the Demon God Mountain had good or bad intentions. After all, his understanding of the Demon God Mountain only extended to the information he read in the ancient records.

There are five demon sovereigns on the Demon God Mountain that governs all the demonic beasts here. There were many different demonic races, and for those demons who could become heavenly deities, they were known as demon gods and given the title of demon sovereigns. In the world of demons, strength was everything. They contended against the Divine Ox Clan but didn't suppress and dominate the other races, choosing to cooperate with each other instead. They only hope more demon sovereigns would appear on the Demon God Mountain. After all, the main purpose of them allying together was to deal with the Divine Ox Clan. And now, by pooling their strengths together, they finally obtained enough power to stand equally with the Divine Ox Clan.

"He actually awoke. Let's inform this to the demon sovereigns." The young woman calmly spoke. The young man smiled and glanced at Qin Wentian before leaving the area with the young woman, leaving Qin Wentian alone behind.

Qin Wentian stood up and walked out from the ancient demon palace. He discovered that he was on a very tall mountain and there was a boundlessly vast mountain range before his eyes. All sorts of demonic beasts gathered in groups, even for those rarely seen demons, they could not be considered rare here. After all, this place was the Demon God Mountain, a paradise for demonic beasts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. It was also a gathering place for all greater demons.

Qin Wentian breathed out, expelling the impurities in his body. He felt extremely refreshed. Luckily, he had cultivated the Undying Scripture and he had the undying law energy protecting his body. This was why he could recover so quickly. After that battle with Qin Zhong, he truly understood how terrifying heavenly deities are. Before this, the power of heavenly deities only existed in his imagination but after that fight with Qin Zhong, he had personally experienced the tyrannical strength of heavenly deities.

Being able to survive that battle was truly due to luck. Not only so, he had also gained many benefits from that. His insights in comprehending a heavenly dao would surely increase when he tries to break through in the future.

"Leier." Qin Wentian took out his messaging crystal. The first thing he did was to inform Leier about his safety. Most probably, she was extremely worried about him.

"Elder brother." A voice filled with surprise and joy replied back instantly. "Elder brother…"

"It's me, Lei`er." Qin Wentian could hear her choked sobs. That little lass must have teared because of her agitation. She should have believed that he had already died.

"This is excellent. Elder brother, you are still alive." Luoshen Lei emotionally spoke. "Elder brother, where are you now? I will go look for you with grandpa."

"I'm on the Demon God Mountain." Qin Wentian replied.

"Demon God Mountain?" Luoshen Lei's gaze froze. Her elder brother was actually in the third hegemonic power of the Desolate Region, the Demon God Mountain. Could it be that the Demon God Mountain was the one who killed Qin Zhong? This was impossible, right?

"Mhm. Back then Qin Zhong was chasing after me but I managed to kill him due to luck. I was heavily injured and brought here by experts from the Demon God Mountain. Although I have no idea whether they did so because of kind intentions or evil intentions, I think that they won't harm me or they would have long handed me to the Qin Clan or the Luoshen Clan." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice. The Demon God Mountain didn't imprison him or restrict him.

"Elder brother, you actually killed Qin Zhong. That was a heavenly deity!" Luoshen Lei felt her heart shaking with disbelief. However, she knew that her elder brother surely wouldn't lie to her. Qin Zhong's death didn't really have a secret to it. The answer was very simple. He was simply killed by Qin Wentian.

"If it wasn't for him being careless and wanting to capture me alive, the one who died would have been me instead." Qin Wentian felt really fortunate when he thought back to that battle. Just with his strength alone, leaving aside the divine rod, he still wasn't powerful enough to kill a heavenly deity.

"Oh, by the way Lei`er, what happened after that? Are you and grandfather okay?" Qin Wentian asked. After hearing this question, Luoshen Lei told Qin Wentian everything that happened to the Luoshen Clan during this period of time. After hearing it, Qin Wentian had an indescribable feeling in his heart. His grandfather actually gave up the position of the clan leader for him and even directly rushed to the Heaven Region, wanting to take him back from the Qin Clan.

As for the Qin Clan, they actually allied with the Divine Ox Clan, sending an army to the Luoshen Clan. Luoshen Mu shied from battle, causing the Luoshen Clan to be gravely humiliated. In fact, he even made use of this opportunity to suppress those who used to support his grandfather. Regardless of the heavenly deity or the ten world overlords brought away by the Qin Clan, all of them used to be Luoshen Chuan's supporters. Luoshen Meng's grandfather was also one of them.

Luoshen Lei even told Qin Wentian that right now, the Luoshen Clan was crumbling internally. Many experts have decided to leave.

Just when Qin Wentian was silently musing over these, the young man and young woman from the demon races came back. Qin Wentian then ended the conversation with Luoshen Lei.

"The demon sovereign wants to see you." The young man calmly spoke." Qin Wentian nodded and followed the two of them, heading towards one of the five tallest mountains in the Demon God Mountain Range and arrived before a true demon god palace.

In the palace, on a majestic throne, a demon sovereign sat there. Although this demon sovereign was in human form, his body size was extremely large. His eyes gleamed with terrifying light, exuding an imposing pressure.

"This is the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign." The young woman's cool voice rang out. Heaven Devouring Demon Sovreign, his true form was a heaven devouring beast and was one of the five demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain.

Right now, Little Rascal was actually seated beside that divine throne of this demon sovereign. He winked at Qin Wentian and transmitted his voice, "Ah, Wentian. You've finally awakened."

"You little bastard, you really know how to enjoy life. After you woke up from your injuries, you actually didn't take care of me?" Qin Wentian transmitted back with a curse.

"The demon sovereign has already instructed them to take care of you. He wants me to remain by his side." Little Rascal replied. Qin Wentian felt joy in his heart. Heaven devouring beasts were extremely rare and now, a demon god-level character like the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign actually regarded Little Rascal so highly. He naturally felt happy for Little Rascal.

"Was Qin Zhong killed by you?" The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign stared at Qin Wentian as he asked.

"It was only by luck." Qin Wentian glanced at Little Rascal. It should be this little fellow who told this demon sovereign about that. Hence, there was no need for him to conceal anything. Since this demon sovereign was fond of Little Rascal, he naturally wouldn't have any ill intention towards him.

"Even though it was by luck, being able to kill a heavenly deity at the world overlord level clearly shows that you have supreme talent. However, right now, the external world is looking for you everywhere. The Qin Clan and the Luoshen Clan are the ones behind it. What do you plan to do?" The demon sovereign asked.

"I have no plans as of yet." Qin Wentian honestly replied.

"I told this little fellow to follow me but he wants to follow you instead. Why don't you stay on the Demon God Mountain? After all, the ones who know of your identity are only a few people and I've already told them to keep it a secret. How about it?" The heaven devouring sovereign spoke. Qin Wentian pondered a little. Cultivating on the Demon God Mountain? It wasn't too bad. Right now, he needed to stabilize his foundation and attempt to break through to the next cultivation realm.

"Sure." Qin Wentian nodded in agreement.

"You can leave first." The heaven devouring demon sovereign nodded. Qin Wentian bid his farewell. The young man and young woman glanced at Qin Wentian. Qin Zhong was really killed by him alone?

"How much has your strength recovered?" The young man asked.

"Is there a problem?" Qin Wentian laughed as he asked.

"Nothing much, I wish to spar against you. I want to test myself against someone who can kill a heavenly deity." The eyes of the young man gleamed with sharpness as he brimmed with excitement.

"In the future if there's a chance, I will be sure to spar with you." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Alright." The eyes of the young man still gleamed sharply. "I'm a sky roc under the Kun Sovereign."

"I will remember it." Qin Wentian nodded. The Kun Sovereign's true form should be a KunPeng (Leviathan Roc). It was able to rule unchallenged in the oceans or fly supreme in the sky. The young man true's form was a roc. Although he is directly under the command of the Kun Sovereign, any one of the five demon sovereigns on the Demon God Mountain would be able to give orders to them.

The sky roc's silhouette flashed as wings took formed behind his back. The wings gleamed resplendently and a moment later, he vanished in an instant. The young woman brought Qin Wentian back to his resting place, "You can stay here temporarily for now."

"Right, many thanks." Qin Wentian nodded. After that, the young woman departed.

Qin Wentian glanced at the surroundings. This area should be considered a territory governed by the Heaven Devouring Sovereign.

"Who is it that has come to my Demon God Mountain?" At this moment, the voice of the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign thundered out. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as he stared in a certain direction.

After that, a figure descended from the sky, directly appearing here. When Qin Wentian saw that figure, his eyes gleamed sharply as he sped over there directly.

Outside the Demon God Palace, Qin Wentian rushed back after he had just left here. That figure who just appeared was standing in opposition with the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign. The demon sovereign was extremely unhappy now, "Luoshen Chuan, isn't it a little rude for you to be barging in unannounced like this?"

So it turned out that the person who came here was Luoshen Chuan who has returned to the Desolate Region. After he learned from Luoshen Lei that Qin Wentian was here, he immediately rushed here alone.

"Grandfather!" Qin Wentian called out. Luoshen Chuan turned and nodded his head at Qin Wentian. He had been worried for many days but upon seeing that Qin Wentian was safe, he acted extremely calm. After that, he turned to the demon sovereign, "I came to fetch him. Sorry for any disturbance caused."

"Luoshen Chuan, you forcefully barged into my Demon God Mountain. Isn't your behavior too rude? You want to brush this off with a simple apology?" Another voice rang out. In the air, another figure sped over with frightening speed. This figure had huge wings behind him, capable of blotting out the sun. He was like the lord of the nine heavens, it was none other than the Kun Sovereign.

"Senior, my grandfather only did this because he was worried about me, he has no other intentions. Please pardon his behavior." Qin Wentian spoke. He wasn't worried about Luoshen Chuan's safety. As the leader of the Luoshen Clan, although he was the previous one, Luoshen Chuan was undoubtedly strong enough to retreat safely. However, he didn't wish for there to be a conflict between Luoshen Chuan and the Demon God Mountain.

Chapter 1866: Joining Forces with the Demon God Mountain

After speaking, Qin Wentian looked at Luoshen Chuan, "Grandfather, I was unconscious after that battle with Qin Zhong and was brought to the Demon God Mountain where I received care. The demon sovereign allowed me to stay here temporarily and I owe him a debt of gratitude."

By speaking of this, it was naturally because he wanted to alleviate the tension between the two parties. As expected, the expression of the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign grew better after he heard that. He turned to Luoshen Chuan, "No matter what, you are the original clan leader of the Luoshen Clan. Even your grandson is more well versed in etiquette compared to you."

Luoshen Chuan was once a peak character who controlled immense authority in the Luoshen Clan and stood at the peak of the Desolate Region. The demon sovereigns wouldn't really make things difficult for him. When Luoshen Chuan was the Luoshen Clan Leader, the Luoshen Clan didn't really have any major conflicts with the Demon God Mountain. At most, only those from the junior generations would contend against each other. There wasn't too much trouble created.

"Many thanks demon sovereign for helping me to take care of my grandson. I apologize for my earlier rudeness." Luoshen Chuan clasped his hands. After knowing that Qin Wentian was here, he instantly rushed over because he was afraid that Qin Wentian might be in danger on the Demon God Mountain. But now after he heard Qin Wentian saying that the Demon God Mountain treated him quite well, Luoshen Chuan's tone naturally also grew more polite.

"Forget it. No matter what, we are the masters of the Desolate Region. Let's sit down and chat. Men, go and organize a banquet." The Heaven Devouring Sovereign waved his hand. Luoshen Chuan smiled and nodded. Only then did Qin Wentian sigh in relief. Seems like there would be no conflict.

Very soon, the banquet was prepared. The two demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain acted as the hosts and graciously welcomed Luoshen Chuan. Speaking of statuses, Luoshen Chuan was once the clan leader of the strongest hegemonic power in the Desolate Region. Their statuses were naturally slightly lower than him. Although the earlier incident caused some unhappiness, but since everything has been understood, given that they are heavenly deity-level characters, the two demon sovereigns naturally were more than willing to forget about such a minor matter.

"Luoshen Chuan, you have governed the Luoshen Clan for so many years yet you still let your emotions control your actions. After you have given up the position of the clan leader, the Luoshen Clan was thoroughly humiliated. What were you thinking of? Why did you allow someone like Luoshen Mu to take up the clan leader position? That person is extremely scheming and sinister, he doesn't have the vision needed to lead a clan, nor the magnamious heart of a leader. If you were the one leading, you definitely wouldn't allow the Luoshen Clan to suffer such humiliation even if it meant starting a war." During the banquet, the Heaven Devouring Sovereign bluntly spoke, not avoiding this topic at all. The personalities of demons would always be more straight-forward compared to humans.

"Heaven devourer, if you are the one facing against the pressure of the Qin Clan and Divine Ox Clan, how would you choose?" Luoshen Chuan asked.

"Kill my way through their forces and flee. Since the Qin Clan and Divine Ox Clan dares to step on my head, what does our Demon God Mountain have to fear? At most, we will simply all die. As long as the five demon sovereigns can escape, we will definitely avenge the deaths of our descendants in the future. The Qin Clan and Divine Ox Clan no longer need to dream about having a moment of peace." The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign directly spoke. If they want war, let's war then. It was clear they would surely lose to the combined forces of the Qin Clan and Divine Ox Clan. Hence, they didn't plan to win, they only planned to slaughter a path out and escape, choosing to take revenge in the future.

"Ruthless." Qin Wentian silently mused. This should be the personalities of all demon sovereigns. They had strong enough spirits to endure the destruction of their races. Not everyone would have the courage to make the same choice as them. Even for Luoshen Chuan himself, he might not have dared to make this decision.

"The Divine Ox Clan is truly brazen enough. In the past, they schemed to obtain the bloodlines of the various demonic races, and has long planned to obtain the Luoshen Clan's bloodline. Now, they seem to be about to succeed. Luoshen Chuan, what do you plan to do in the future?" The Heaven Devouring Sovereign asked. Since they were at the same level, his manner was very direct and to-the-point.

Luoshen Chuan glanced at Qin Wentian before he replied, "Before this, I focused my attention on finding my grandson. I still have no concrete plans for the future yet. Now, the internal situation of the Luoshen Clan is extremely bad, they are crumbling from within. How would I be willing to see this?"

"Why don't you join our Demon God Mountain? If you want to, we will have six sovereigns. Haha." The Heaven Devouring Sovereign laughed.

"Good idea." The Kun Sovereign smiled in agreement. Naturally, these words were spoken with the tone of teasing in them. It wasn't too possible that Luoshen Chuan would agree.

"It's not possible for me to join the Demon God Mountain, but if we are talking about me joining forces with the Demon God Mountain, this is something that can be considered." Luoshen Chuan's gaze flashed. If it was in the past and if his identity was still the Luoshen Clan Leader, he naturally wouldn't say this. But now that the Luoshen Clan was on the verge of collapsing, he naturally wanted to do something for the Luoshen Clan.

The eyes of the two demon sovereigns flashed as they glanced at each other.

The control of the Desolate Region has always been split between three powers. Luoshen Chuan was no longer the Luoshen Clan Leader but his strength was still present. Also, there would surely be people from the Luoshen Clan regretting their choice and might want to follow him. If he joined forces with the Demon God Mountain, the balance of the three powers would definitely be broken. They would gain the initiative.

"Who do you want to deal with?" The Heaven Devouring Sovereign asked.

"Naturally, the Divine Ox Clan." Luoshen Chuan calmly spoke. If he said his target was the Qin Clan, the Demon God Mountain would surely not agree. The Qin Clan of the Heaven Region was simply too powerful, and it's impossible that the Demon God Mountain would want to antagonize them for no reason. However, the grudge between the Demon God Mountain and Divine Ox Clan has already been festering for countless years. The Divine Ox Clan always had ambitions to occupy and rule the Demon God Mountain themselves.

"Luoshen Chuan, you should understand that the strength of the Divine Ox Clan isn't inferior to the Demon God Mountain. My Demon God Mountain won't fear provoking the Divine Ox Clan but if we take the initiative to attack them, this might not be a good thing for the Demon God Mountain." The Kun Sovereign spoke.

"The Qin Clan and Divine Ox Clan went to the Luoshen Mountain, acting together to suppress the Luoshen Clan. But in reality, did they even act? You have also seen the ending. Since they can do so, why can't we do the same? Also, even if we joined forces, I didn't say to really let the Demon God Mountain start a war with the Divine Ox Clan." Luoshen Chuan spoke.

"Haha, Luoshen Chuan. What do you want to do?" The Heaven Devouring Sovereign seemed interested, laughing loudly as he asked. Seems like although Luoshen Chuan was no longer the Luoshen Clan Leader, he still couldn't endure this breath of resentment.

"I wish to return their coin back to them, a tooth for a tooth." Luoshen Chuan coldly spoke. During the banquet, both parties discussed. Qin Wentian quietly listened. After all, before the demon sovereigns and his grandfather, he was just a junior.

The atmosphere during the banquet was very joyful. After the banquet ended, the demon sovereigns invited Luoshen Chuan to stay on the Demon God Mountain and Luoshen Chuan agreed to it. After that, he left to bring Luoshen Lei and the others in his group here and he naturally did so silently. The demon sovereigns sent out orders to seal this news to prevent leakage. On the Demon God Mountain, the demon sovereigns had complete authority.

When Luoshen Yu and Luoshen Lei saw that Qin Wentian was safe and sound, they were naturally relieved. When they learned that Qin Wentian killed Qin Zhong with no help from others, their hearts were incomparably shaken. They were filled with yearning with regards to Qin Wentian's growth in the future.

Also, the topic of discussion during the earlier banquet was also made known to Luoshen Yu and the rest.

During the night, the moonlight cascaded down on the Demon God Mountain, filling the air with some coolness. Luoshen Chuan stood at the edge of a cliff and stared into the distance. His gaze was immeasurably deep and serene. Behind him, the sound of footsteps echoed. It was none other than Luoshen Yu. He softly spoke, "Father, it's time to show our determination."

"Do you think we should really do this?" Luoshen Chuan asked.

"Now that the Luoshen Clan is in Luoshen Mu's hands, it would be destroyed sooner or later. Since that is the case, why doesn't father take control and set up a secondary Luoshen Clan? In the future, we would be able to rise again if this secondary clan develops. When one day, everyone in the primary Luoshen Clan decides to side with us, we will be able to unite the hearts of people and gain our former glory. If not, could father really bear to watch as the Luoshen Clan crumbles apart?" Luoshen Yu spoke.

He knew that his father had deep emotions towards the clan. If he chose to step out and set up a secondary Luoshen Clan, the Luoshen Clan would be further fragmented, divided into two completely separate entities. Maybe, this would be a path of eternal condemnation, damning them for their futures.

"Can our Luoshen Clan really regain our former glory?" Luoshen Chuan mumbled. Under his leadership, the Luoshen Clan has actually declined, allowing a person like Luoshen Mu to appear.

"Father, don't forget about one person." Luoshen Yu spoke.

"Who?" Luoshen Chuan turned and glanced at Luoshen Yu.

"Wentian." Luoshen Yu's eyes gleamed with sharpness. "Father, right now, the talent Wentian has displayed, has already surpassed the talent of his parents. If we give him more time, he would surely reach the peak of martial dao. He was born to be enemies with the Qin Clan. In his body, there is also our Luoshen Clan's bloodline. If he grew stronger, how can it not be possible for our Luoshen Clan to regain our former strength?"

Luoshen Chuan's eyes shone brightly. "Seems like you are very confident in Wentian."

"Father, don't you have confidence in Wentian? He killed Qin Zhong, who was a heavenly deity after all. No matter how Wentian did it, he still managed to do it. Didn't Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian also do the same before? Although Qin Dangtian had just broken through to the heavenly deity level when he defeated me. In addition, Wentian has also entered the legendary place of the sacred academy. When all the elite geniuses in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms gathered, he was the only one who had done so." Luoshen Yu spoke. "He is the gift Qianxue brought to us. He will pay her debt to you, to the Luoshen Clan."

"Qianxue…" When Luoshen Chuan thought of his daughter, a trace of longing flashed across his eyes. After that, a look of contemplation appeared on his face, as the glint in his eyes grew more determined.

The Divine Ox Clan and the Luoshen Clan made an agreement that the Divine Ox Clan would come and fetch the brides three months later, and they would throw a grand wedding.

As expected, the Divine Ox Clan was true to their words. As the deadline of three months got increasing nearer, the various major powers of the Desolate Region received their wedding invitations. In the Desolate Region, other than the three hegemonic powers, there were still many other major powers. All of them sighed silently in their hearts when they received the invitations. Clearly, the Divine Ox Clan was doing this intentionally to establish their dominance. They wanted to tell everyone that glory would soon belong to their clan. So what if they were once weaker than the Luoshen Clan? Now, wasn't the Luoshen Clan humiliated by them? They even had to send maidens to the Divine Ox Clan for marriage.

Even the Demon God Mountain also received the wedding invitation from the Divine Ox Clan. After they received it, the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign had a deep smile on his face. The chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan wanted to tell the Demon God Clan that they would soon rule the Desolate Region unchallenged? What a beautiful dream, the Divine Ox Clan must be very immersed in their fantasy.

The grander the wedding was, the more the Luoshen Clan would lose face. In the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Meng and the two other maidens were being controlled, they were not allowed to leave the clan and when the deadline of the three months is up, that would be the date of their calamity.

Also, recently, many experts could be seen leaving the Luoshen Mountain, disappearing quietly. Naturally it was normal for experts to wish to temper themselves in the outside world when cultivating. Luoshen Mu didn't care too much about that. Maybe, these experts left because they didn't want to be present during Luoshen Meng's wedding and witness how humiliating things would be. In truth, Luoshen Mu didn't want to witness this too. But he felt that for the sake of the entire clan, he would rather sacrifice a few. He believed that the people of the Luoshen Clan should be able to understand him.

As the deadline drew nearer, the atmosphere of the Desolate Region became increasingly lively. Many experts from the other regions headed straight to the Divine Ox Castle, the place where the Divine Ox Clan was located. It was as though this is a sign that the strongest hegemonic power's position was changing. The Luoshen Clan was weakening while the Divine Ox Clan was on the rise.

Time passed by in the blink of an eye, and finally, the deadline of three months had arrived!

Chapter 1867: A Wonderful Drama

Today, inside Divine Ox Castle, the experts here were as many as the clouds. The majestic Divine Ox Castle became a gathering place for the experts of all factions. There were powerful demonic races, as well as strong human clans and sects. All of them came here to congratulate the Divine Ox Clan for the wedding. The Divine Ox Castle basked in boundless glory. There were two chariots pulled by a dragon and phoenix respectively, heading from the Divine Ox Castle to the Luoshen Clan to receive the brides. Devilox from the Divine Ox Clan sat proudly in the dragon chariot, exuding a proud and imposing aura.

Today, Devilox would be marrying three maidens from the Luoshen Clan. The elegant beauties of the Luoshen Clan would be pressed down underneath him by the end of today. Sadly, Luoshen Lei wasn't here. But even so, Luoshen Meng was also extremely outstanding and was an exceptional beauty, filling him with anticipation.

In the Divine Ox Castle, countless experts glanced up in the air, staring at the welcoming group that was sent out as many emotions filled their hearts. The Divine Ox Clan intentionally wanted to make this wedding as grand and as impressive as possible. The Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan stood at the stairway leading up to the Divine Ox Castle, smiling widely as he stared at the chariots.

"Congratulations to Ox Chieftain."

"Such a joyous event is truly worthy of celebration." Many experts clasped their hands towards the Ox Chieftain. The chieftain had a wide smile on his face. Below the stairway, countless banquet tables were set up and the dishes were all exotic and valuable demon meat. This caused some of the experts from the demonic races to feel extremely unhappy. The way the Divine Ox Clan does things was too arrogant, without the slightest scruple.

"Many thanks for everyone's arrival. Let's not waste time and please feel free to enter to enjoy the banquet." The chieftain laughed, his voice booming like thunder. Today was the first step of his Divine Ox Clan ruling the Desolate Region supreme and unchallenged. This wedding was a very significant event to their clan, symbolizing the decline of the Luoshen Clan. Some years from now, the Divine Ox Clan would grow to become the strongest hegemonic power in the Desolate Region, growing stronger and stronger.

Within the Luoshen Clan, the atmosphere was still very tense. The three maidens had phoenix crowns on their heads and were dressed in a very beautiful manner, exuding holiness and elegance. This was especially so for the maiden in the center. After she dolled up, she was so beautiful that people might find themselves breathless just from staring at her. Her face was exquisite to the extent where there were no flaws. However, there was a vacant look in her eyes. She didn't want to imagine what the future would hold for her. She has became a sacrifice for the Luoshen Clan.

Behind the three maidens, a group of experts appeared. These experts were people from the Luoshen Clan who would escort them to the wedding in the Divine Ox Clan.

"I'll escort you all over." At this moment, an old man spoke. This old man was an elder from the Luoshen Clan, a heavenly deity character. His name was Luoshen Weng and was once a supporter of Luoshen Chuan.

"Uncle Weng, there's no need to trouble yourself. Elder Qiong will do the escort." Luoshen Mu spoke. Elder Qiong was another heavenly deity but was his supporter from the start. With Luoshen Qiong escorting, Luoshen Mu would feel more at ease.

"Sure." Luoshen Weng didn't argue, he simply nodded. He arranged some of his people to be in the escort team and after that, all of them quietly waited at the Luoshen Mountain. After a period of time, the dragon and phoenix chariots arrived, soaring through the air. Luoshen Meng turned pale after she saw the chariots.

This time, not many people appeared in the Luoshen Clan to send them off. Only a few people showed up, the atmosphere felt extremely oppressive. This was because no one in the Luoshen Clan wished to see this scene. They felt intense humiliation, the three maidens of their Luoshen Clan even had to be controlled and restricted in their movements before being sent off to the Divine Ox Clan today.

Devilox walked down from the dragon chariot and walked towards the three maidens. When he saw Luoshen Meng's beauty, his large eyes gleamed with lust as he smiled happily, feeling very satisfied.

"Many thanks to Luoshen Clan Leader." Devilox clasped his hands towards Luoshen Mu. "Luoshen Clan Leader, are you not intending to attend the wedding at my Divine Ox Castle?"

"I won't be heading there. You guys can set off now." Luoshen Mu waved his hand, feeling an intense loss of face. To him, this was a shameful and truly humiliating matter. After speaking, he simply turned around and left. Looking at his back, Devilox laughed loudly, "Clan leader please rest your heart at ease. I will treat these beauties from the Luoshen Clan very well."

"My dear wives, please." Devilox smiled at Luoshen Meng and the two other maidens. After that, the three of them walked towards the phoenix chariot and entered it. Not long after, the chariots soared into the air, moving towards the Divine Ox Clan for the wedding.

The atmosphere in the Luoshen Clan was still very cold and tense.

Over at the Divine Ox Clan, after they learned that Devilox successfully received the brides, the Ox Chieftain felt even happier. Indeed, things were like what he had expected. The Luoshen Clan didn't dare to try anything funny. This was something promised by Luoshen Mu and back then, the Qin Clan was present as well as a witness. Luoshen Mu didn't dare to break his words.

"Devilox will return soon. Everyone, please enjoy yourselves to the fullest." The Ox Chieftain spoke.

"That's only natural. Many thanks for chieftain's warm reception to all of us."

"Chieftain, come let's drink a toast to the Divine Ox Clan." Even before Devilox and the brides returned, the banquet already started at the atmosphere was extremely lively. In the Divine Ox Castle, there were already countless experts from the Divine Ox Clan, not including the guests invited here today. All of them drank and feasted with gusto, appearing very excited. It felt like the groom today was them instead.

"Devilox is a supreme genius of my Divine Ox Clan and he will inherit my position in the future as the chieftain. What does everyone feel about him taking in the Luoshen Clan's beauties as his concubines?" The Ox Chieftain laughed uproariously, his voice like thunder. Devilox wasn't taking a wife but concubines instead. The three beauties from the Luoshen Clan would only have the status of a concubine. This was a further attempt to lower the Luoshen Clan's status while raising the Divine Ox Clan's.

"It seems pretty suitable, like a string of jade and pearls, an ideal combination." Someone fawned.

"This matter will surely become a beautiful story in the Desolate Region." Many also started fawning but some human experts silently shook their heads at this. These experts from the Divine Ox Clan were truly shameless enough. The chieftain asked that question because he wanted everyone to mock the Luoshen Clan while announcing the Divine Ox Clan's current status.

"Old kui ox, are you not afraid that you spoke too soon?" At this moment, a disagreeable voice drifted over, causing the large eyes of the Ox Chieftain to stiffen. The experts from the Divine Ox Clan all had savage looks in their eyes. Who dares to speak to their chieftain in this manner?

In the air, five figures flew over. These five people each exuded a terrifying aura. For a period of time, the entire space felt stifled. When the countless guests here saw who these five people were, their hearts couldn't help but to tremble violently.

"Demon sovereigns!"

"That is the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign, I've met him before."

"That is the Kun Sovereign."

"Oh, that man is the Dragon Sovereign." Numerous voices of exclamations rang out. Very soon, everyone knew of the identities of these people.

The five demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain actually appeared here together.

For a period of time, terrifying waves arose in the hearts of everyone. Although the Divine Ox Castle did send out invitations to the five demon sovereigns, it was merely to boast of their imposing glory. Usually, the sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain wouldn't show up but right now, they actually came and not only so, all five of the demon sovereigns came.

Since the five demon sovereigns showed up together. Their purpose naturally wouldn't be so simple as to attend the wedding.

Was the Demon God Mountain showing that they planned to contend against the Divine Ox Clan for supremacy of the Desolate Region?

"Today is truly an excellent day. Since you guys, the five old demons came here, you are naturally our guests. However, heaven devouring old demon, what do you mean by your earlier words?" The Ox Chieftain coldly asked.

"You don't understand what I mean?" The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign laughed. "Don't forget the history of how your Divine Ox Clan rose up. Right now although the Luoshen Clan is weaker, their history is still more radiant compared to your Divine Ox Clan. It's not unsuitable that the Divine Ox Clan wished to take one of the maidens from the Luoshen Clan as a wife but now, the Divine Ox Clan wanted to take three beauties as concubines? This is simply a wild fantasy. I'm afraid your dream is so beautiful but when you wake up the next day, everything will be gone and your clan would be ridiculed by others."

Everyone could sense a deeper layer of meaning in the words spoken by the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign. It was like he was hinting at something. The faces of the experts from the Divine Ox Clan all turned more solemn. The chieftain's expression was ice cold, "In that case, could it be that your Demon God Mountain is planning to interfere in matters of my Divine Ox Clan?"

"Haha, our Demon God Mountain couldn't care less about your matters with the Luoshen Clan. We only came here for a matter today. Your Divine Ox Clan has enslaved many demonic beasts of the various demonic races. Today, we want to bring them all away. They belong to our Demon God Mountain." The Kun Sovereign's eyes shone with a bright light as he spoke sharply.

In the past, the Divine Ox Clan had enslaved many greater demons in the Desolate Region. It was only after that did the rest of the greater demons band together in a huge alliance becoming the current Demon God Mountain. But even now, the Divine Ox Clan still continued with their enslavement activities, making the demons from the other races perform tasks for them. An example was the true dragon and phoenix sent out to pull the chariots for Devilox's wedding.

The Kun Sovereign's voice caused a wave of commotion, shocking everyone. Today, five demon sovereigns of the Demon God Palace arrived. Were they planning to declare war against the Divine Ox Clan?

The face of the Ox Chieftain turned dark, he stared at the five demon sovereigns and coldly replied, "Old demons, do you all understand what you are saying?"

"We naturally do." The demon sovereigns had sharp expressions. A moment later, the atmosphere of the banquet instantly turned tense, causing people to feel stifled. Not long ago, the Divine Ox Clan humiliated the Luoshen Clan, how imposing were they then? Devilox even managed to get three beautiful maidens from the Luoshen Clan to be his concubines. And right now, the five demon sovereigns came here together and said that they wanted the Ox Chieftain to free all the demonic beasts they enslaved?

A puff of demonic qi shot out of the Ox Chieftain's nostrils. He glared at the five demon sovereigns. At this moment, another wave of might descended from the sky. The Ox Chieftain froze as he stared into the air. "Who is it?"

A moment later, two figures descended from the sky. When the Ox Chieftain saw who it was that had come, his expression couldn't help but change drastically as he icily remarked, "Luoshen Chuan!"

As the sound of this voice faded, the Divine Ox Castle was thrown into an uproar.

The person who came was none other than the original clan leader of the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Chuan.

And today was the day where Devilox humiliated the Luoshen Clan, wanting to take the beauties of the Luoshen Clan as his concubines. Since Luoshen Chuan appeared here today, the meaning of his presence was clear to all.

What was thought-provoking was that before Luoshen Chuan came, the five demon sovereigns arrived first and gave a condition.

In addition beside Luoshen Chuan, there was another heavenly deity expert. This expert was Luoshen Tu from the Luoshen Clan.

The five demon sovereigns in addition to Luoshen Chuan and Luoshen Tu. There were a total of seven heavenly deities present on their side.

As for the Divine Ox Clan, they also only had a total of seven heavenly deities. Right now, one of the heavenly deities followed Devilox to welcome the brides. This also meant that currently in the Divine Ox Castle, they only had six heavenly deities. Naturally, among the six heavenly deities they had, the immensely powerful Ox Chieftain himself was present.

But even so, the other party had Luoshen Chuan who was the original clan leader of the Luoshen Clan, as well as the five demon sovereigns from the Demon God Mountain. Would they be weak?

Clearly, they came here prepared.

If someone said that Luoshen Chuan and the Demon God Mountain didn't join forces, would anyone believe them?

"What a wonderful drama." Many people silently mused, feeling somewhat excited. Not long ago, the Divine Ox Clan and Qin Clan of the Heaven Region joined forces to threaten the Luoshen Clan, harshly humiliating the Luoshen Clan. And just when the Divine Ox Clan was immersed in their fantasy of ruling the Desolate Region unchallenged, Luoshen Chuan had joined forces with the five demon sovereigns and now appeared here together.

And at this moment when Luoshen Chuan appeared in the Divine Ox Clan, Devilox and the others were halfway on their journey back. On the phoenix chariot, tears were flowing out of Luoshen Meng's eyes uncontrollably.

"Luoshen Meng." At this moment, a voice entered her mind. Luoshen Meng's eyes flashed, her beautiful eyes glanced at an escort from the clan. This was somebody arranged to be here by Luosheng Weng. Earlier, it was him who transmitted his voice to her.

"Don't worry, you won't be forced to marry into the Divine Ox Clan."

Her beautiful eyes flashed with a strange look and at this moment, the chariots suddenly stopped as heavenly might from the sky bore down on everything!

Chapter 1868: Establishing One's Own Power

In the Divine Ox Castle, the Ox Chieftain stared at Luoshen Chuan and coldly spoke, "Luoshen Chuan, you have already left the Luoshen Clan. This joyous occasion between my Divine Ox Clan and the Luoshen Clan has nothing to do with you. Why are you here for?"

Evidently, the Ox Chieftain felt some trepidation. The appearance of seven heavenly deities was more than sufficient to threaten the entire Divine Ox Castle.

"I came here to announce a thing." Luoshen Chuan calmly replied. His words causing the gazes of everyone here to focus on him. Qin Chuan came to the Divine Ox Castle to announce something? What major thing did he want to announce?

"Back then, I gave up on the position of the Luoshen Clan Leader and have already left the Luoshen Clan. Now, I didn't come here with the identity of the main Luoshen Clan. I'm planning to set up my own force and some old friends of mine from the Luoshen Clan have decided to follow me. From today onwards I, Luoshen Chuan, will be the fourth hegemonic power in the Desolate Region." Luoshen Chuan serenely spoke, yet his words were like bolts of thunder exploding in the minds of everyone who heard this.

Luoshen Chuan wanted to establish his own independent power?

What did this mean?

It meant that from today onwards, the fourth hegemonic power in the Desolate Region would be born. This also indicated that the Luoshen Clan has officially fragmentated. No one doubted that Luoshen Chuan would have the ability to fragment the Luoshen Clan. He was the original clan leader and had been so for countless years. His influence and foundation in the clan was naturally extremely deep. Right now, beside him, there was already a heavenly deity from the Luoshen Clan who chose to join him.

The Luoshen Clan was once the strongest power in the Desolate Region and they had over ten heavenly deities. Even though they declined now, if one was to count Luoshen Chuan in, the current Luoshen Clan before the fragmentation, had a total of nine powerful heavenly deities. Naturally, since one of the heavenly deities was brought away by the Qin Clan, they still had eight heavenly deities on the surface. After Luoshen Clan established his own power, if the eight heavenly deities divided into two camps, each of the hegemonic powers would have four heavenly deities respectively. There won't be a problem for Luoshen Chuan to become the fourth hegemonic power in the Desolate Region.

The fragmentation of the Luoshen Clan originally would be beneficial to the Divine Ox Clan because the Divine Ox Clan could jump to being the strongest in the Desolate Region with a single leap. However right now, things didn't seem to be so because Luoshen Chuan was clearly already allied with the Demon God Mountain.

If it was in the past, such a situation would definitely have not occurred. The three hegemonic powers of the Desolate Region would have maintained the balance. It was only because the balance was disrupted and because of the outside interference - the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region, Luoshen Chuan decided to join forces with the Demon God Mountain.

"So what?" The Ox Chieftain icily asked.

"Luoshen Xiao of the Luoshen Clan has decided to follow me. The people of his branch will be my people from now on, including his granddaughter Luoshen Meng. Luoshen Xiao isn't agreeable for his granddaughter to marry into the Divine Ox Clan as the Divine Ox Clan isn't qualified. Hence, I came here to tell you that there's no longer a need to hold the wedding. Luoshen Meng will not be marrying today." Luoshen Chuan calmly spoke. "In addition, the words spoken by the five demon sovereigns earlier made sense. The various demons in your clan don't really belong to your Divine Ox Clan. They belong to the Demon God Mountain. The Divine Ox Clan must release them immediately."

"My Divine Ox Clan has already fetched her from the Luoshen Clan and is currently on their way back. How can you stop the marriage because you want to?" The Ox Chieftain coldly spoke, his voice filled with a hint of probing.

"I've already sent men to obstruct the chariots. If the Divine Ox Clan's experts are willing to hand the maidens over, I can forget about this. If they refuse, that would mean that the Divine Ox Clan is planning to treat I, Luoshen Chuan, as an enemy. Hence, if your subordinates are injured, please don't mind it too much." Luoshen Chuan quietly spoke. After hearing Luoshen Chuan's words, the Ox Chieftain turned ashen. As expected, these heavenly deities appearing here was to obstruct the Divine Ox Clan from sending any aid. All of this was already planned out.

And at this moment, a voice rang out in the Ox Chieftain's mind, causing his expression to turn even more unsightly. He took out his messaging crystal and sent a voice transmission, "Luoshen Chuan and the demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain are currently in the Divine Ox Clan. Settle the matters there yourselves."

After that, he kept the messaging crystal. The Ox Chieftain stared at Luoshen Chuan, "Luoshen Chuan, are you declaring a war on my Divine Ox Clan?"

"That would have to depend on your attitude. I've already said. If you do things according to what I said earlier, everything will be a peaceful ending. If not, if the Divine Ox Clan wants to forcibly abduct those who chose to follow me, that would be you declaring war on I, Luoshen Chuan. Since that's the case, I will play with you all until the end." Luoshen Chuan coldly replied. This scenario was somewhat similar to the earlier scenario of the Qin Clan and the Divine Ox Clan pressuring the Luoshen Clan.

It was just that the situation was now reversed.

Right now, Luoshen Chuan was the one holding the initiative. Upon seeing this, many people sighed. When the Divine Ox Clan bullied and humiliated the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Mu bowed and accepted it. However, the original clan leader stood up and returned a tooth for a tooth back to the Divine Ox Clan.

"So what if I rule over the demonic beasts? They are the possessions of my clan, what has this got to do with you?" The Ox Chieftain's voice got more and more glacial.

"To protect the social order of the Desolate Region." Luoshen Chuan replied. When the Ox Chieftain heard that, his face instantly turned black. Social order? What the hell was that? Such an excuse was clearly insulting the intelligence of their Divine Ox Clan. However, this was how they dealt with the Luoshen Clan before too. Since both Luoshen Chuan and the demon sovereigns have joined forces, they naturally had to achieve their purposes for coming here. Was the reason important? The reasons given would all be excuses.

Now, his Divine Ox Clan met with the same choice as the Luoshen Clan. Should they compromise or start a war?

Today, countless people came here and they initially thought that it would be a day of glory for the Divine Ox Clan, this wedding would symbolize the Divine Ox Clan climbing up to glory. Yet now, all those beautiful fantasies were utterly crushed. How ironic was it? Luoshen Chuan was telling the Divine Ox Clan that he could do what they did as well.

...

At the other location, at the area where the phoenix and dragon chariots were, two heavenly deities appeared from the sky.

These two heavenly deities were heavenly deities from the Luoshen Clan. One of them was Luoshen Meng's grandfather, Luoshen Xiao and the other one was the heavenly deity who said he wanted to escort the maidens, Luoshen Weng. Right now, both of them actually appeared here.

The expressions of the people from the Luoshen Clan, who was part of the escort team, all changed. Luoshen Qiong walked out and coldly spoke, "What do the two of you mean by this?"

"Luoshen Qiong, Luoshen Mu actually allowed the Luoshenn Clan to suffer such humiliation. Many of the people in the Luoshen Clan cannot endure this. We have to pay back this shame. Right now, clan leader has already arrived at the Divine Ox Castle and will do to them what the Divine Ox Clan did to us back then." Luoshen Xiao spoke. The clan leader he spoke of, was naturally referring to Luoshen Chuan.

Luoshen Qiong instantly understood when he heard this. He coldly continued, "Luoshen Chuan has already given up the clan leader's position and back then, none of you objected. Why are you guys betraying the Luoshen Clan today?"

"Betray?" Luoshen Weng sighed. "Luoshen Qiong, you guys should question your own hearts. Is the Luoshen Clan now still the Luoshen Clan? Clan leader, Luoshen Chuan, has already decided to establish his own independent power and we and some others are willing to follow him. For the sake of restoring our Luoshen Clan's glory, do you choose to continue following Luoshen Mu, or do you want to follow our clan leader, Luoshen Chuan?"

"You guys have all gone crazy. Your betrayals will tear our Luoshen Clan apart." Luoshen Qiong's expression turned extremely ugly. There were two heavenly deities here. Not only that, Luoshen Tu had also vanished. Could it be that there are three heavenly deities willing to join Luoshen Chuan?

If this was the case, the strength of the entire Luoshen Clan truly would be divided into two.

"You should consider it well if Luoshen Mu's actions can face up to the Luoshen Clan. When facing the pressure and humiliation brought on by the Qin Clan and Divine Ox Clan, he still wanted to avenge those who didn't support him in the past. Such behavior has already clearly indicated that he isn't fit to govern the Luoshen Clan. Let's not waste words. If you still have some conscience left, just step aside. Now, we have already decided to follow Luoshen Chuan. My granddaughter won't be marrying into the Divine Ox Clan. That vile spawn Devilox isn't qualified to wed her." Luoshen Xiao coldly spoke.

Below, on the dragon chariot, Devilox turned ashen. The experts from the Divine Ox Clan beside him all had looks of rage in their eyes. The Luoshen Clan actually went back on their word. Also, when they reported this to the Ox Chieftain, their chieftain actually told them to settle this themselves?

"Is the Luoshen Clan planning to go back on their word?" The heavenly deity from the Divine Ox Clan coldly asked.

"I've already said that right now, we decided to follow Luoshen Chuan. We are no longer a part of the Luoshen Clan. You bunch of vile beasts only love to fantasize. Just scram the hell back to where you come from." Luoshen Xiao's tone was extremely rude. This caused the anger of the experts from the Luoshen Clan to tower up into the sky. Their heavenly deity glanced at Luoshen Qiong as he spoke, "Luoshen Qiong, if we don't settle the matter today, the Divine Ox Clan will never rest. Don't forget that the Qin Clan was the witness. They won't do sit aside if your Luoshen Clan reneges on its words either."

"Let Devilox and the others continue on their way. We will obstruct the two of them." Luoshen Qiong replied. Now, the Luoshen Clan was already fragmented. If the Divine Ox Clan and the Qin Clan were antagonized, the consequences for the Luoshen Clan would surely be extremely dire.

But now, since Luoshen Chuan appeared, let's let all the blame shift onto him then. Luoshen Qiong would do his part and whether Luoshen Chuan could save these maidens from their fates or not, that would have to depend on Luoshen Chuan's preparations. At the very least, on the surface, Luoshen Qiong had to clearly show that the Luoshen Clan wasn't a part of Luoshen Chuan's newly established power. Most probably, Luoshen Chuan also didn't want to implicate the Luoshen Mountain where the foundations of the Luoshen Clan was stored.

"Right." The heavenly deity from the Divine Ox Clan nodded. After that, the two of them soared into the air towards Luoshen Xiao and Luoshen Weng.

"Continue on the journey." Devilox gave the order. The dragon and phoenix chariots continued. He coldly swept his gaze towards the escort team of the Luoshen Clan. He had to be on his guard towards these people. But at this moment, there didn't seem to be anyone planning on creating trouble.

Luoshen Meng was extremely nervous now. She clutched her hands tightly. Her grandfather and Grandpa Weng appeared, validating the words the young man beside her said to her. However, when the four heavenly deities are in combat, who here would be able to stop the experts from the Divine Ox Clan?

The speed of the chariots was extremely fast. Behind them, crackles of heavenly might could be felt as a deity-level battle erupted. Despite traveling a long distance with their speed, they could still feel the heavenly might fluctuations. Devilox was extremely vigilant, he transmitted his voice to the experts from the Divine Ox Clan, "Be prepared, the enemy might have some other plans."

After the voice transmission, he spoke to the escort team from the Luoshen Clan. "The Luoshen Clan can return now. Next, just the experts from my Divine Ox Clan will be enough to bring my three concubines back to the Divine Ox Castle."

Many experts of the Luoshen Clan on the escort team understood what Devilox meant. They nodded and turned to leave. After all, the majority of people were arranged by Luoshen Mu and the family of the three beautiful maidens weren't included in them. But even so, there are still quite a few people that were arranged to be here by Luoshen Weng. For example, the young man beside Luoshen Meng. He simply stood there unmoving and he didn't radiate any aura. It was like everything about him was concealed.

Devilox's sharp eyes instantly landed on that young man. Before this, he didn't care about a mere follower. But now, after the two enemy heavenly deities appeared and in addition to the fact that this young man had no aura at all, he had to be on his guard. This young man has clearly trained in some concealment techniques.

"Didn't you hear my words?" Devilox coldly asked.

As the sound of his voice faded, the young man beside Luoshen Meng suddenly erupted forth with a mighty aura, causing an intense pressure to permeate the atmosphere. Devilox frowned but soon after, his expression drastically changed. Coldness flickered in his eyes as he icily spoke, "Qin Wentian!"

From that intense pressure, he could sense a trace of the dao bone's energy.

Qin Wentain's eyes flashed, how did Devilox know it was him? His countenance changed, revealing his original handsome face. When Luoshen Meng saw Qin Wentian, she had an expression of disbelief on her face. Qin Zhong personally chased after Qin Wentian. In the end Qin Zhong, who was a heavenly deity, actually died; but Qin Wentian didn't die at all and even appeared beside her today!

Chapter 1869: Devilox’s Death

Luoshen Meng understood immediately. It seems like Qin Wentian was someone her Grandpa Weng intentionally arranged to be by her side. Grandpa Weng and her grandfather have now decided to oppose Luoshen Mu, choosing to turn their support to Luoshen Chuan.

"To think that you are actually still alive. Could it be that Qin Zhong's death really has something to do with the Luoshen Clan?" Devilox narrowed his eyes. The incidents today couldn't help but to make him suspect this. The heavenly deities of the Luoshen Clan suddenly chose to oppose Luoshen Mu, switching their allegiances to Luoshen Chuan instead. Qin Wentian appeared in the escort team while Luoshen Chuan appeared at the Divine Ox Castle? This was clearly something they planned out.

"In the sacred academy, didn't you wish to fight me? Now, your chance is here." Qin Wentian's expression was cold. Devilox laughed uproariously. "Fight you? Why should I fight you? So what even if you are alive? Daring to appear here alone means you will simply die here today. Your dao bone shall be mine."

After he spoke, Devilox waved his hand. The experts from the Divine Ox Clan immediately surrounded Qin Wentian. Devilox naturally wouldn't be impulsive enough to fight alone against Qin Wentian. After all, he was somewhat fearful of Qin Wentian's ability. It would be best to simply gang up on him and kill him.

The other people from the Luoshen Clan have already left. Qin Wentian was the only one arranged to be here by Luoshen Weng to serve as backup. Devilox couldn't understand, what was the point of having Qin Wentian here alone? Although Devilox's team now didn't have any heavenly deities, there were plenty of powerful world overlords with him at the hegemonic-level. How can Qin Wentian be of any use?

Luoshen Meng's beautiful eyes flashed with a trace of worry. Indeed, even if her Grandpa Weng arranged Qin Wentian to be here, the Divine Ox Clan still had many powerful world overlords here.

Violent and savage demonic auras engulfed this entire space. Behind the experts from the Divine Ox Clan, many phantoms of gigantic kui oxen appeared, instantly blotting out the sun, completely locking down on this space not allowing Qin Wentian to have any chance to escape.

However, Qin Wentian simply calmly regarded this scene. Behind him, his sword-type astral soul manifested. Currently, his astral soul was different from the past. This stretch of sword region now contained the power of his dao. Once, Luoshen Yu commented when he watched how Qin Wentian fought. In certain aspects of understanding the dao, Qin Wentian wasn't in anyway inferior to him. This indicated that Qin Wentian has already faintly touched on the power of heavenly deities.

"Devilox, you are said to be a supreme genius of the Divine Ox Clan. However, your understanding towards strength actually still rests on numerical values like the number of people you have? How ridiculous." Qin Wentian calmly glanced at Devilox. After that, he pulled his sword out and at this instant, the light from his astral soul sword region, completely integrated into his demon sword. A terrifying power that could cause everything, including time and space, to enter a state of stillness permeating the atmosphere. Luoshen Meng sensed this the clearest. Her body wasn't able to move at all, her beautiful eyes froze, staring at the motion of Qin Wentian pulling out his sword.

After that, at the instant when the demon sword was pulled out, there seemed to be might from the great dao arcing through the sky. In an instant, a perfect arc appeared, formed by a beam of sword light. Everywhere the sword beam passed by, time would stop. After that, following the arc line, the space here was directly cleaved. Qin Wentian stood at his original location issuing a sword attack. This sword attack could actually ignore distance and reached his target no matter where they are. The presence of the sword beam equates to the presence of his dao.

As the demon sword slashed out, it felt like the heavens and earth were both torn asunder.

This seemingly ordinary sword contained too many different types of laws within it, transforming into a supreme sword strike. Even for hegemonic-level world overlords, they would still be slayed by a single strike.

At this moment, Devilox finally knew how great the distance between him and Qin Wentian was. It was so great that he would never be able to catch up.

Qin Wentian's motion didn't cease. He once used his dao of swords to slash Qin Zhong's body. Heavenly deities could be killed, and after that battle, his comprehension of using his dao energy to attack was stronger than before. How could world overlords even block one of his attacks?

The beam of sword light flashed once more. Within his sword region astral soul, numerous ancient words representing the word 'sword,' appeared. The experts from the Divine Ox Clan continuously died under its might. In just an instant, other than Devilox still surviving, the others have all been exterminated.

Devilox turned pale. At this moment, there was only fear in his heart. He took out his messaging crystal with a trembling hand but at the moment his messaging crystal appeared, Qin Wentian arrived directly before him as the flow of time around Devilox halted. Devilox's action froze there. He wanted to use his law energy to counteract the time stop ability but at the same instant, a beam of light directly penetrated through the messaging crystal in his hand.

Sword light sealed this entire space, only Qin Wentian and Devilox was in it. Even Luoshen Meng wasn't able to see clearly the situation within. Because what he was about to do, was not going to be nice to watch.

Only to see that at this moment, an incomparably radiant beam of light erupted from Devilox's body as a shocking battle intent radiated from him. With a loud roar, the heavens and earth shook. The time top ability was broken. Devilox transformed into a gigantic Kui Ox that was incomparably savage. Just the battle intent he radiated seemed sufficient to dominate everything under the sky.

"Qin Wentian, if you kill me, how can you live?" Devilox coldly spoke.

"I even dared to kill Qin Zhong. What's there to care about even if I add you to the mix?" Qin Wentian calmly replied. The terror in Devilox's large eyes grew more intense. Qin Zhong was killed by Qin Wentian?

How can this be possible? Qin Wentian was actually already able to kill heavenly deities?

"Seems like although you were born with an innate dao bone, the power you inherited was still the power of the dao bone from the Battle Saint Tribe." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The large eyes of Devilox shone with shock. The Battle Saint Tribe? That was already a history that was very long ago. It wasn't strange that Qin Wentian knew of them through ancient records. But why did he instantly identify this power as that of the Battle Saint Tribe's dao bone the moment he felt it?

"What connection do you have with the Battle Saint Tribe?" Devilox coldly asked.

"You don't need to know about this. But in any case, so many years have already passed. It's time to return your dao bone to their original owners. Haven't you always wanted to seize my dao bone? In the world of reincarnation, you already had designs on it. I shall give you a chance to do so today." As he spoke, the dao bone in Qin Wentian's body brimmed with heavenly might as a beam of light shot into Devilox's gigantic body. This caused Devilox's tyrannical aura to enter a state of stillness. Devilox howled in anger, wanting to struggle free from the power of Qin Wentian's innate heaven heart mandate. Numerous phantoms of giant Kui Oxen manifested, wanting to destroy everything. However in this current space, their movements were all exceptionally slow, even to the point where they couldn't move at all. Devilox basically wasn't able to exert any strength.

Upon seeing Qin Wentian walking closer and closer to him, Devilox had a look of fear on his face. "Don't kill me, I can agree to all your requests. There are many treasures in the Divine Ox Clan. I can use treasures to exchange for my life."

Qin Wentian walked closer, moving step by step towards him. His heart didn't waver at all. Devilox's personality was extremely despicable. Back then in the world of reincarnation, Devilox tried to sneak attack when he was fighting other opponents, wanting to seize his dao bone of time. Leaving aside that his words held no attraction for Qin Wentian, even if it held attraction, Qin Wentian wouldn't have believed him.

Devilox's eyes were filled with boundless terror when he saw Qin Wentian's expression. He was a supreme character from the Divine Ox Clan, and had the supreme battle dao bone in his body. When he erupted full force with his strength, it would be shockingly powerful. But today, he would actually die here and his dao bone with the power of the Battle Saint Tribe he inherited, would be dug out from his body? When he thought of this, he naturally began to panic.

A sword light flashed, engulfing the entire space.

The sword region locked this space completely. Luoshen Meng stared ahead, but she didn't know what was happening within. However, a short time after, Qin Wentian already walked out. His white robes were completely unstained. He directly flew towards the phoenix chariots and spoke, "Destroy the messaging crystals on your bodies."

The people here naturally understood Qin Wentian's intentions. They followed his instructions and destroyed their messaging crystals. They knew Qin Wentian was worried that the matters here might be leaked to the Divine Ox Clan too early.

"Head to the Demon God Mountain." Seeing that they have destroyed the messaging crystals, Qin Wentian gave another order. After arriving at the Demon God Mountain, the Demon God Mountain would handle the matters of the true phoenix and dragon. If they were enslaved by the Divine Ox Clan, they should be able to cultivate freely on the Demon God Mountain in the future.

The chariots changed directions and flew towards the Demon God Mountain. Luoshen Meng still sat within the chariot, staring at the magnificent figure in white flying above the phoenix as her eyes shone with gratitude. She softly whispered, "Thank you."

...

To the time when the two heavenly deities of the Luoshen Clan appeared to block Devilox's group to the point where the deity-level battle erupted, until the moment when Devilox and the other world overlords died, only a relatively short time had passed. The four heavenly deities were still locked in combat, devastating the area around them. Only after Luoshen Weng and Luoshen Xiao received a voice transmission that the maidens were rescued, did the burden in their hearts lighten. But even so, they still continued to obstruct the heavenly deity from the Divine Ox Clan and Luoshen Qiong. At the very least, they must not allow the enemy heavenly deities to chase after Luoshen Meng.

"WHAT ARE YOU DOING? DEVILOX IS DEAD!" Not long after, the enraged voice of the Ox Chieftain rang out in the mind of the heavenly deity from the Divine Ox Clan. The gigantic body of that heavenly deity trembled as his aura fluctuated. His expression was ashen as he stared at the two opposing heavenly deities before him.

"WHO KILLED DEVILOX?!" He howled in rage.

Luoshen Qiong was stunned. Devilox got killed?

As expected, Luoshen Chuan had made preparations for this.

"I already told you guys to hand over the maidens yet you all refused and insisted on a battle. Since this is the case, you should have already been prepared to pay the price." Luoshen Weng calmly spoke. The heavenly deity from the Divine Ox Clan still wanted to fight but the command of the Ox Chieftain rang out in his mind, "Come back immediately to the Divine Ox Castle."

The heavenly deity from the Divine Ox Clan chose to give up on this battle. He directly turned and sped towards the direction of the Divine Ox Clan. Luoshen Xiao's body flashed, chasing after him. Luoshen Weng continued to stay here as he stared at Luoshen Qiong.

Only to see Luoshen Qiong taking out his messaging crystal and informing what happened today to Luoshen Mu. When Luoshen Mu learned of this, he let out a roar of anger on the Luoshen Mountain. "Luoshen Chuan, you are planning to destroy the Luoshen Clan!"

Not long after he became the clan leader, the Luoshen Clan encountered so many humiliating things. After that, Luoshen Chuan still decided to fragmentate the Luoshen Clan. All of these things were out of Luoshen Mu's control. He didn't know how the Luoshen Clan would fare in the future.

"Head to the Divine Ox Castle immediately." Luoshen Mu replied to Luoshen Qiong. Since this matter has already happened, their Luoshen Clan should show their stance clearly. This matter was done by Luoshen Chuan, it has nothing to do with their Luoshen Clan. If not, the fragmented Luoshen Clan would surely be targeted again. Since Luoshen Chuan has done all these things, he would naturally have to shoulder the blame for this. Luoshen Chuan should know this too and he wouldn't have wanted to implicate the Luoshen Clan in this. For this point, Luoshen Mu still believed this. He believed that Luoshen Chuan would shoulder the consequences of this action. Since this is the case, just let Luoshen Chuan bear all the responsibilities alone then!

Chapter 1870: Lowering Their Heads

In the Divine Ox Castle, after the Ox Chieftain learned that Devilox was killed, a terrifying might gushed forth from him. He immediately summoned the heavenly deity who was escorting Devilox back. Low rumbling roars emitted from his mouth as his body suddenly expanded, becoming extremely gigantic. Behind this large body, an even more towering phantom of a Kui Ox manifested, as a baleful aura engulfed the entire Divine Ox Castle.

Those who came here for the wedding banquet were all stunned as they stared at the enraged Ox Chieftain. Before this, when Luoshen Chuan and the five demon sovereigns listed their conditions, the Ox Chieftain wasn't even so angered. But now, he seemed to be completely infuriated.

"Luoshen Chuan, you actually sent people to kill Devilox." The Ox Chieftain's voice boomed like thunder, causing the hearts of countless people to tremble. Their eardrums were about to explode from the intensity of the volume and it was extremely unbearable. When they stared at the Ox Chieftain, they could clearly sense his palpable anger. The Ox Chieftain transformed into a true demon god, unleashing his fury.

Devilox was actually killed by someone.

Devilox was a supreme character of the younger generation who inherited the power of the dao bone. That was the ultimate treasure of their Divine Ox Clan, no one could touch him. By killing him, it was undoubtedly challenging the bottom line of the Divine Ox Clan. No wonder the Ox Chieftain would be so enraged.

"In this case, when I sent people to receive Luoshen Meng, your Divine Ox Clan actually refused?" Luoshen Chuan coldly spoke. His form also turned gigantic, growing to the same size as the Ox Chieftain while he radiated an intense pressure, like a true master of ten thousand demons. When countless demonic beasts here felt the power of his bloodline, they had the thought to kneel and submit to Luoshen Chuan. Luoshen Chuan's bloodline was something all the demons in the Desolate Region wanted. This was also the reason why the Divine Ox Clan wanted to marry a maiden from the Luoshen Clan. They wanted to plunder the Luoshen Bloodline.

"I've already announced that Luoshen Meng has left the Luoshen Clan and belonged to my faction. Your Divine Ox Clan actually still dared to forcibly abduct her? Did you even put me in your eyes?" Luoshen Chuan's voice turned cold as heavenly might shook the entire area. So what even if Devilox died? He only died because your Divine Ox Clan didn't follow my instructions. Although all these could be anticipated, but in a confrontation between heavenly deities, how can one show that their presence is weaker? Not only you, the Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan can fly into a rage. I can do the same as well.

The Ox Chieftain didn't completely lose his rational. He knew that if they started a war in the Divine Ox Clan, based on their current power, they didn't occupy any advantage. Also, the battlefield was in the Divine Ox Clan. If a deity-level battle erupted here, all his clansmen would definitely die from the aftershocks. Once a war started, he was sure that Luoshen Chuan and the demon sovereigns would surely show no mercy.

The Ox Chieftain stared fixedly at Luoshen Chuan. The Luoshen Clan's bloodline had the power to nurture divinity. They could summon demonic beasts that were subservient to them. In addition to Luoshen Chuan's strength, if the Ox Chieftain chose to fight, he wouldn't enjoy any advantages at all.

"I can agree to your condition and no longer pursue the matter about Luoshen Meng. Also, I can release the enslaved demonic beasts. However, you have to give me Devilox's corpse." The Divine Ox Chieftain spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, countless people were stunned. The Ox Chieftain actually chose to lower his head? Seems like Devilox's corpse was more important to him than everything else. Even if the Divine Ox Clan was humiliated, he wanted to get Devilox's corpse back first.

Everyone in the Desolate Region knew that Devilox had an inherited dao bone in his body. Also, those who read ancient records all knew that the origin of this dao bone, belonged to the Battle Saint Tribe. Once, the Battle Saint Tribe depended on the power of their ancestral dao bone to stand at the peak of the Desolate Region and has always dominated the Divine Ox Clan, even forcing the Divine Ox Clan to migrate and flee to evade a calamity. It was only until the Divine Ox Clan seized the Battle Saint Bone did the Battle Saint Tribe lose their most important inheritance and begin to decline.

The ancient records stated that the Battle Saint Bone was way too important to the Battle Saint Tribe. With the Battle Saint Bone, the bloodlines of the descendants would all receive an upgrade, gaining the inherited power of the Battle Saint Bone. It wasn't something an ordinary dao bone could be compared to. If not, the Battle Saint Tribe wouldn't have declined so badly the moment they lost the Battle Saint Bone.

Now, this supreme dao bone was with the Divine Ox Clan. Although its effect was already weakened through the passage of time, the Divine Ox Clan still treated it like an ultimate treasure. And now, although the Divine Ox Clan was humiliated, the Ox Chieftain had to choose to compromise, getting the dao bone back at any cost.

"Not pursue the matter about Luoshen Meng? I still have not yet brought up the topic of me pursuing what your Divine Ox Clan has done." Luoshen Chuan coldly replied. "As for releasing the greater demons you enslaved, that is what the five demon sovereigns wanted. What a joke, you actually want to use this to negotiate the conditions? No matter what, the Divine Ox Clan has to agree to this or risk total annihilation today."

The corpse of Devilox... the Divine Ox Clan still wanted to get back the dao bone?

The Divine Ox Clan humiliated the Luoshen Clan so badly, it wasn't too much for Luoshen Chuan to claim back some interest on this debt, right? In addition, Qin Wentian had volunteered to do this. Qin Wentian told him that the dao bone in Devilox's body was of great use to him. This was why Luoshen Chuan arranged for Luoshen Weng to place Qin Wentian in the escort team.

After he spoke, Luoshen Chuan took out his messaging crystal and pretended to ask some questions. After a few moments, his expression turned heavy and incomparably cold, "Luoshen Xiao told me that when they were facing against the heavenly deity of your Divine Ox Clan and Luoshen Qiong, Devilox ignored Luoshen Xiao's words and still chose to bring Luoshen Meng and the other maidens back to the Divine Ox Castle. He even forced the escort team of the Luoshen Clan to leave. Now, the locations of Luoshen Meng and the two other maidens are unknown. All this was planned by your Divine Ox Clan, right? Shouldn't your Divine Ox Clan give me a satisfactory reply?"

"You…" The Ox Chieftain howled in rage. Luoshen Chuan actually didn't want to admit that Devilox was killed by his side and even tried to pin the blame on him saying that the Luoshen maidens went missing.

The crowd below was speechless. When heavenly deities schemed, they can truly be shameless enough. They naturally wouldn't believe in Luoshen Chuan's words. Clearly, this was something he instructed his men to do and didn't want to return the dao bone. However, he refused to admit this. So, what does the Divine Ox Clan want to do? If they want a war, Luoshen Chuan would comply with a happy smile.

"Let's war then!" The Ox Chieftain roared in madness. He soared into the air, yet Luoshen Chuan merely coldly glanced at him. Luoshen Chuan icily spoke, "For those who are innocent, leave immediately. The dao is merciless, don't blame me when the aftershocks of the battle cause the entire Divine Ox Castle to be demolished and buried."

He continued standing at his original location. He inclined his head and glanced at the Ox Chieftain. The Ox Chieftain wanted to shift the battlefield up in the air? Why would he agreed? When the Divine Ox Clan went to the Luoshen Mountain with the Qin Clan, they weren't so considerate at all.

"Seems like the Divine Ox Clan doesn't intend to release the enslaved demonic beasts at all." The Kun Sovereign coldly spoke. Abruptly, he reverted to his true form as a bizarre monster with the features of both a leviathan and a giant roc appeared. The wings of this creature blotted out the sky, with a wingspan that spanned ten thousand miles, exuding a tyrannical and imposing aura. A stifling demonic qi engulfed the surroundings. His wings seemed to be the sharpest divine weapon in the world, capable of tearing apart everything. With a gentle flap of his wings, the motion seemed to be extremely slow yet it instantly generated a fearsome storm of destruction.

The Divine Ox Castle was in complete chaos. Countless experts paled. If a deity-level battle really erupted, they would all die helplessly here.

"Chieftain!" Many experts from the Divine Ox Clan stared up at their chieftain as terror appeared on their faces. It wasn't realistic if they said they weren't afraid. Be it humans or demons, before their lives, was pride and prestige important?

Back then when the Qin Clan and Divine Ox Clan went to the Luoshen Mountain, could it be that the people on the Luoshen Mountain weren't afraid? There were some of the Luoshen Clan who were reluctant to accept this and wanted to battle. But what about the others? Who would easily throw their lives away?

And now, the Divine Ox Clan faced the same choice. The Kun Sovereign has already reverted to his true form. He wanted to tell the Divine Ox Clan this, "If you feel I don't dare to battle, just bring it on and test me."

Naturally, before doing this, one has to occupy an advantage first. Back then, the Divine Ox Clan enjoyed this advantage when they went to the Luoshen Mountain with the Qin Clan. And now, they were in the same situation as the Luoshen Clan back then.

On Luoshen Chuan's side, their battle strength wasn't so simple. Luoshen Chuan was the original clan leader of the Luoshen Clan. He had an additional helper and the five supreme demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain were also present. Their combat prowess wasn't something ordinary heavenly deities could stand against.

"You guys are forcing my Divine Ox Clan like this today, are you not afraid that I will pay the Luoshen Clan and Demon God Mountain back?" The Ox Chieftain roared in rage.

"Old ox, this sentence should be something we say to you. Back then when you went to the Luoshen Mountain, didn't you expect such a day like today would occur? Naturally, in the future you can still head to the Luoshen Mountain and Demon God Mountain. But unless your Divine Ox Clan can annihilate all of us in one fell swoop, we can also do the same and use the blood of your clansmen to wash the Divine Ox Castle clean." Luoshen Chuan domineeringly replied.

"Chieftain, our original intent wasn't to start a battle. We only wanted you to release the demonic beasts you enslaved. After all, we are doing this in consideration for the social order of the Desolate Region." The Dragon Sovereign exuded a tyrannical aura as he spoke. The Ox Chieftain swept his gaze towards these people. After that, his large saucer-like eyes closed as he spoke, "Fine, I'll agree to all your wishes."

"Since that's the case, I would have to thank chieftain for your graciousness." The Kun Sovereign calmly spoke.

The Divine Ox Clan had chosen to lower their heads.

The hearts of everyone trembled. A deity-level battle didn't erupt here after all. Luoshen Chuan's words were correct. This matter was started by the Divine Ox Clan who first chose to ally with the Qin Clan against the Luoshen Clan. Luoshen Chuan was merely repaying them back in their own coin. However, given that the Divine Ox Clan suffered such humiliation today, they most probably wouldn't forget about this given their personalities. Most probably, the Desolate Region in the future wouldn't be too peaceful.

Back then, in order to evade calamity, the Divine Ox Clan was forced to hide in particle worlds and suffered great humiliation. But in the end, the Battle Saint Tribe was the one destroyed.

And now, the dao bone of the Divine Ox Clan was seized. The Divine Ox Clan could temporarily suppress this breath of resentment but they would surely never give up just like that.

Next, the Divine Ox Clan told all the guests to leave and they released the demonic beasts they enslaved. When that heavenly deity of the Divine Ox Clan and Luoshen Qiong arrived at the Divine Ox Clan, everything has already ended. Luoshen Qiong sighed in his heart. He didn't expect that Luoshen Chuan would be the one to get revenge for the humiliation the Luoshen Clan suffered earlier. He didn't know what to feel in his heart.

But thinking of Luoshen Mu's perspective, he knew that Luoshen Mu also had no choice. Could it be that Luoshen Mu would rather allow the Luoshen Mountain to be demolished by the Divine Ox Clan and the Qin Clan by resisting?

...

The five demon sovereigns led the demonic beasts back. Many of the demonic beasts were extremely excited. Although their positions in the Divine Ox Clan weren't low, they were still treated as servants. Over there, the people of the Divine Ox Clan were lofty and supreme individuals. Only the Demon God Mountain was the true paradise for demonic beasts. And now, they were finally freed and came here. As long as they could become a demon god, they could also be a demon sovereign.

"How satisfying." The Heaven Devouring Sovereign laughed. After making arrangements for the freed demonic beasts, they came to the peak of an ancient mountain. He then spoke to Luoshen Chuan, "This time, our Demon God Mountain benefited greatly from the release of these demonic beasts. But as for you Luoshen Chuan, you didn't obtain anything."

"I've actually received plenty of things." Luoshen Chuan laughed. He avenged the humiliation the Luoshen Clan faced. This was the most important. In addition, Qin Wentian also obtained Devilox's dao bone.

At this moment, quite a few figures flew over. It was none other than Qin Wentian and Luoshen Meng, including Luoshen Yu and Luoshen Lei as well. They all knew what just happened in the Divine Ox Castle.

"Grandfather." Qin Wentian walked towards Luoshen Chuan as Luoshen Chuan nodded to him.

"Grandpa, we've finally vented the suppressed breath of resentment and gained revenge for the humiliation our clan suffered." Luoshen Lei was a little excited.

"Lei`er, don't forget that there's still the Qin Clan." Qin Wentian spoke. Luoshen Lei's beautiful eyes flashed. A hint of coldness also flickered in Luoshen Chuan's eyes. The Qin Clan was then the main culprit. Now, the Qin Clan held a heavenly deity and ten powerful world overlords from the Luoshen Clan as hostages.

Just this debt alone wasn't something they could easily avenge.

Chapter 1871: Returning the Dao Bone

The strength of the Qin Clan was far mightier compared to the Divine Ox Clan. Even when the Luoshen Clan was at the peak of its glory, they had declined when they fought against the Qin Clan. Needless to say, the current Luoshen Clan had insufficient strength. Even with the aid of the five demon sovereigns, they still wouldn't be a match for the Qin Clan.

Luoshen Chuan naturally also wished to get revenge for this debt. However, it wasn't going to be so easy. They could pressure the Divine Ox Castle because they had enough strength. But if they headed towards the Qin Clan, the Qin Clan would surely not hesitate to start a war. In addition, the Qin Clan had hostages. Clearly, the five demon sovereigns would also never agree to this.

The expressions of Luoshen Chuan, Luoshen Lei and the others turned solemn when they heard Qin Wentian's words. In the Qin Clan, Luoshen Han and the ten world overlords would surely be imprisoned. Nobody had any idea what their fates are.

"Grandfather, senior demon sovereigns, I'm preparing to leave the Desolate Region." Qin Wentian suddenly spoke.

"You are going to leave?" Luoshen Chuan's eyes flashed.

"Mhm. Grandfather, try to be more cautious in the Desolate Region." Qin Wentian nodded his head as he reminded. Now that the Luoshen Clan was fragmented, the Divine Ox Clan would surely not let the matter rest like that. In addition, the Qin Clan also wanted to capture Luoshen Chuan. In the future, the Desolate Region would surely be extremely chaotic.

"We are in the shadows, you don't have to worry about us. But as for you…" Luoshen Chuan couldn't set his heart at ease about his grandson Qin Wentian.

"I'm fine. The demon sovereigns have already gave the order not to leak any news of me. No one knows my location after Qin Zhong died. I've also told Luoshen Meng and the rest to keep this a secret. No one will know I'm the one who killed Devilox. I'm someone who is long classified as missing." Qin Wentian smiled. The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign nodded, "Don't worry about this point. The Demon God Mountain will surely not leak anything about this. It's just that, I'm worried about that little fellow."

"Since senior is fond of that little fellow, I'm naturally more than happy to hear that. It's for his own good that he has the fortune to cultivate at senior's side. I will settle this with him." Qin Wentian spoke. The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign nodded. He wanted to nurture Little Rascal into the sixth demon sovereign of their Demon God Mountain.

Luoshen Lei felt some reluctance but she knew that it wasn't safe for Qin Wentian to remain in the Desolate Region. Leaving would be a better choice. Qin Wentian stayed for one more night at the Demon God Mountain. He spent his time chatting with Luoshen Lei. The three beautiful maidens from the Luoshen Clan also came and thanked him. He then went to speak with Little Rascal, persuading him. And when morning came, Qin Wentian departed the Luoshen Clan.

Most probably in the near future, the Desolate Region would be extremely chaotic. However, all of this no longer had anything to do with Qin Wentian. Before becoming a heavenly deity, he had no way to do anything about the situation in the Desolate Region.

...

Time flowed by, the incident of the Divine Ox Clan caused a great commotion in the Desolate Region, and news about this naturally spread to all the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. There were people mocking the Divine Ox Clan, jeering at their fantasies. Before truly reigning supreme, they learned from the Qin Clan and went to humiliate the Luoshen Clan. In the end, they were simply courting their own humiliation. The Qin Clan's strength was able to make it so that the Luoshen Clan didn't dare to look for them for revenge. But for the Divine Ox Clan, their strength clearly wasn't at that level. Not only did they not obtain the bloodline of the Luoshen Clan, they even lost their inheritance dao bone.

In the Luoshen Clan, many people sent voice transmissions to Luoshen Chuan, persuading him to go back and take up the leadership position. However, Luoshen Chuan refused. Right now, the Luoshen Clan could be considered officially divided. If he returned, the situation would still be that of vying for authority. He might as well stay in the shadows of the Desolate Region. By doing so, the Divine Ox Clan wouldn't recklessly dare to move against the Luoshen Clan.

Luoshen Chuan didn't want to return, but there were some people who wanted to follow him but they were rejected by Luoshen Chuan. Now since Luoshen Chuan wanted to stay in the darkness, it would be more convenient for him if the number of people was less. If he established a base like the Luoshen Clan on the Luoshen Mountain, it would in fact be even more dangerous.

The Divine Ox Clan was investigating the identity of the person who killed Devilox. Back then, the heavenly deities who were followers of Luoshen Chuan appeared, it was impossible for them to be involved as they were fighting against Luoshen Qiong and that heavenly deity from the Divine Ox Clan. The vast majority of the escort team from the Luoshen Clan was driven away by the Divine Ox Clan, even if there are people who remained behind, there would only be one or two at most. But, including Devilox, there were still many powerful world overlords from the Divine Ox Clan. This definitely constituted an extremely powerful force. If a heavenly deity didn't act, who would be strong enough to act against them?

This matter also became a secret. It was impossible for Divine Ox Clan to find an answer. Naturally, as for the dao bone, they weren't able to find it either.

The character and object they wanted were both now in the lower world, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realm.

After a long journey, Qin Wentian finally returned to Azure Mystic.

After Qin Wentian came back, he immediately headed towards the ancient battlefield in Ancient Azure Mystic. His friends and family were all cultivating there.

In the ancient battlefield, the experts of the Battle Saint Tribe all gathered together in a certain location. They felt somewhat bewildered and had no idea why their Saint Lord suddenly wanted to summon them. Also, the Saint Lord told them to gather all their clansmen here. This was the first time such a thing happened.

"Does anyone know what the Saint Lord wants?" Someone asked in bewilderment. Everyone shook their heads, indicating that they had no idea. Qi Yu's eyes gleamed, he also didn't understand the reason for this. He understood Qin Wentian's character very well. If there was a major matter, he would surely not have summoned the entire Battle Saint Tribe, he would also have summoned the rest of his followers as well. After all, the people following Qin Wentian now wasn't limited to the Battle Saint Tribe alone.

Qi Yu was the Emperor Yu back then, the servant of Ancient Emperor Yi. But now, his title was no longer Emperor Yu because he had already broken through to the world overlord level. Although he was just an ordinary world overlord, he still managed to step into the fabled world overlord realm. It wasn't that easy to do so.

At this moment, spatial fluctuations could be felt as a spatial gate appeared in the air. After that, a figure walked out from within, it was none other than Qin Wentian. The Qin Wentian today was no longer the young man who entered the God Hand Mountain Manor, or the same person who entered the secret realm of the Battle Saint Tribe. He was now a hegemonic-level world overlord, a truly supreme expert. Just standing there casually would cause him to give off the presence of a majestic and towering mountain. It was like his entire person was one with the heavens.

It was very possible that the Saint Lord of this generation would lead their Battle Saint Tribe to unprecedented heights.

"Saint Lord." Everyone bowed and called out, they were all very respectful to Qin Wentian. Right now, Qin Wentian wasn't merely their saint lord, he was also the Heaven Empyrean of Azure Mystic, and was a hegemonic-level world overlord. Any of his identities was sufficient to make them respect him. Even in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, he was able to summon the wind and rain with his current power.

Qin Wentian nodded lightly, "Ever since I became the Saint Lord of the Battle Saint Tribe, many years have already passed. It has always been members of your tribe supporting me, yet I've not done anything for you all. Now, I believe that you guys already know who is the true enemy of your Battle Saint Tribe."

When in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, he already told the members of the Battle Saint Tribe who went there with him.

"Saint Lord, our Battle Saint Tribe is able to have our current strength today, was all because of your help. What you have done has already surpassed what the previous two saint lords have done for us." Someone spoke, not agreeing with Qin Wentian's words. Many people nodded, they all knew gratitude. If there was no Qin Wentian, let alone reaching the world overlord realm, they wouldn't even know when would they be able to break through to the empyrean realm. And now, there were already several world overlords in their Battle Saint Tribe.

"That's right. Saint Lord, there's no need to say such things. As for our enemies, we all know they are the Divine Ox Clan from the Desolate Region.

Qin Wentian nodded as he continued, "I just returned from the Desolate Region. Also, I had some conflict with the Divine Ox Clan."

"Saint lord, how is the Divine Ox Clan's current strength?"

"They are one of the three hegemonic powers of the Desolate Region and have a total of seven demon gods." Qin Wentian replied. The expressions of the people from the Battle Saint Tribe turned extremely unsightly, feeling despair in their hearts. Seven heavenly deities? To them, such height was simply unreachable. It seemed that there would still be a long time before they can take revenge.

"This time around, I brought something back from the Divine Ox Clan." Qin Wentian spoke. After that, with a wave of his hand, a beam of light flashed. Before Qin Wentian, a resplendent object appeared. This was none other than a golden-colored dao bone with countless blood runes engraved upon it.

When this dao bone radiated its light, in that instant, everyone in the Battle Saint Tribe felt the power of their blood boiling in their bodies. Red-color wisps of energy from the dao bone floated over and directly seeped into their bodies, forming a connection with the resplendent dao bone.

A feeling like their bloodlines have connected appeared. The expressions of the Battle Saint Tribe changed as the power of their blood roared in their veins. A shocking amount of battle intent gushed forth from each of them involuntarily. Their hearts pounded rapidly, all of them could feel that this dao bone belonged to their Battle Saint Tribe. It was like the dao bone was a part of their bodies.

"The Battle Saint Bone!"

A solemn voice rang out. There was no mistake. Although this was the first them they saw this, they could clearly sense that this was none other than the inheritance saint bone of their Battle Saint Tribe. Today, their Saint Lord has actually brought it back.

The eyes of many people instantly turned red. The Battle Saint Tribe had declined because their ancestral Battle Saint Dao Bone was seized. Now, after the passage of countless years, the Battle Saint Bone once again appeared before them, brought back by their Saint Lord. They had an indescribable feeling in their hearts.

"The heavens are protecting our tribe, how fortunate it is for us for the Saint Lord to have found us." An old man sighed. After that, he actually knelt on the ground and kowtowed to Qin Wentian. He had a cultivation base at the empyrean level yet he was so emotionally moved that tears were flowing from his eyes. Who in the world wouldn't want the power of this dao bone? Yet, their Saint Lord simply took it out and returned to them.

"Saint Lord." More and more people knelt, they were so agitated that their bodies trembled. At this moment, their emotions towards Qin Wentian was more sincere and honest than what they had ever been before. Their Saint Lord brought back their ancestral saint bone for them.

"There's no need to act like this, everyone please get up." Qin Wentian spoke. A formless energy engulfed everyone and pulled them back up. He looked at the reactions of the Battle Saint Tribe as he sighed in his heart. Ever since people of the Battle Saint Tribe were born, they had to carry this heavy responsibility. The memories of the ancestral dao bone was also engraved in their hearts. Now, they could finally see the long lost ancestral Battle Saint Bone and could truly feel for themselves the connection between them and it. No wonder they were so agitated.

It seems like although in this generation, the ancestral dao bone was inherited by Devilox, it still ultimately belonged to the Battle Saint Tribe. Just simply by floating in the air already caused a resonance between it and the blood of the Battle Saint Tribe.

"Don't be so agitated yet. There is only one dao bone but there are many of you. Who should it belong to?" Qin Wentian asked. The experts of the Battle Saint Tribe froze. Honestly speaking, the dao bone has appeared and formed a resonance with them. Who among the tribe wouldn't want it?

If they said they didn't want it, that would be hypocrisy. But there was only one dao bone, who would obtain it?

"We will listen to Saint Lord's decision." That old man from earlier bowed. Everyone nodded. The dao bone was brought back by their Saint Lord. Also, they had all originally already vowed to follow their Saint Lord's orders. It should be Qin Wentian who decided this.

"Since this is the case, don't blame me for those who didn't get the dao bone." Qin Wentian spoke, not hesitating.

"How would we blame Saint Lord. Now that the dao bone has returned, it would be inherited by the later generations successively. As long as it is not seized away again, it will always exist in the body of one of our members, belonging to our Battle Saint Tribe. Also, it would automatically choose the next inheritor based on their talent. We only hope that one day, our Battle Saint Tribe can take back what once belonged to us." That old man's voice was solemn.

"Mhm." Many people nodded. "We shall obey the decision of Saint Lord."

"Good. Since this is the case, I won't be overly courteous any longer." Qin Wentian nodded and continued, "Qi Yu, right now your cultivation base is at the world overlord realm. You will be the one to inherit the Battle Saint Bone. I hope that the saint bone will be able to unleash the glory of the past through you."

Qin Wentian chose Emperor Yu. One of the reasons was because Emperor Yu was now a world overlord. As for the second reason, it was because Emperor Yu had shown him kindness many times in the past. Back then in Azure Mystic, Emperor Yu saved him multiple times when the emperor-level battles erupted between the peak powers. Qin Wentian wanted to repay this debt, hence he was slightly biased. But then again, which human would truly be completely impartial?

Chapter 1872: Tranquil

Qi Yu inclined his head. His gaze stared at Qin Wentian and his heart wasn't calm at all. He drew in a deep breath, he could clearly recall the first time when he met Qin Wentian in the God Hand Mountain Manor. At that time, Qin Wentian was just a junior at the immortal foundation realm. Qin Wentian went there with Nanfeng Yunxi and some others to search for traces of Ancient Emperor Yi's inheritance. After that, Qin Wentian became the Saint Lord of this generation for the Battle Saint Tribe and from then on, he protected this young Saint Lord on numerous occasions in the dark.

However, he was only doing what he was supposed to do. How would the him back then ever thought that today, that young Saint Lord has already grown to such a state. In addition, Qin Wentian would only be even stronger in the future. Now, he has already brought the Battle Saint Bone of the Battle Saint Tribe back to them and was preparing to bestow the bone to him.

"Saint Lord…" Qi Yu didn't know what to say. Qin Wentian smiled, "Uncle Yu. From now on, the Battle Saint Bone will be considered to have returned to its original owner. Since you have the bloodline of the Battle Saint Tribe in your veins, you should find it very easy to integrate your power with the power of the dao bone."

In the past, when the Godking of Time gave him the time dao bone, it was also extremely easy for Qin Wentian to integrate that with his power. There was no need to mention about the Battle Saint Bone which originally already belonged to the Battle Saint Tribe.

Qin Wentian waved his hand, the dao bone floated towards Emperor Yu. When Qi Yu heard how Qin Wentian addressed him, he felt warmth in his heart and solemnly nodded his head. His gaze stared ahead, and after that, motes of light from his body radiated forth, forming lines of blood that enveloped the dao bone completely. The dao bone seemed to have sensed something. It directly transformed into a beam of light and entered Qi Yu's body.

In the next moment, Qi Yu's blood churned frenziedly, as though his blood was an ocean and was now being overturned by a mighty force. The dao bone's energy was channelled to all parts of his body, performing a baptism, causing Qi Yu to undergo wondrous transformations. His bloodline seemed to be remodelled and his bones shattered and reformed again and again. A fearsome battle intent radiated from him as his veins throbbed violently. He closed his eyes and had his fists clenched as he underwent the transformations.

Qin Wentian stared at Qi Yu. The experts of the Battle Saint Tribe were also staring at Qi Yu. Was this the power of the Saint Bone? The ancestral saint bone that belonged to their Battle Saint Tribe was actually capable of such incomparable power.

Time slowly flowed by as Qi Yu's body transformed bit by bit. His hair turned blacker and his muscles were more taut. There was even a layer of faint jade-white luster underneath his skin. The lines on his face also grew clearer as he seemed to have gotten younger. His aura was changing even now.

At this moment, a piercing light erupted. Within Qi Yu's body, a word of power appeared. This word was the word for 'battle.' It was like a rune that contained the power of the great dao. The word of power grew increasingly larger and fused together with Qi Yu's body. After that, countless words of 'battle' manifested from him as a surge of battle intent towered up into the sky, permeating the entire region. Qin Wentian and the experts from the Battle Saint Tribe in the surroundings only felt a terrifying energy pushing against them. They couldn't help but to take a few steps back involuntarily.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. An immense might gushed forth from him, resisting against that power. Only then did he manage to stabilize his footing. Qi Yu inclined his head and opened his eyes. At this moment, the word 'battle' shot up straight into the sky, as though it wanted to fight the heavens.

Qi Yu opened his mouth and let out a roar. The clouds in the sky all scattered from the power of that roar. Many experts from the Battle Saint Tribe directly fell onto the ground as the qi and blood in their bodies churned wildly. However, there were no hints of resentment in their eyes, only a wild excitement. Was this the power of the ancestral saint bone? The saint bone of their Battle Saint Tribe!

Finally, the terrifying aura from Qi Yu gradually ceased as the piercing light faded away. His eyes were like lightning, countless times sharper compared to in the past. Just merely standing there, he resembled a god of battle, unexcelled in the world.

"Saint Lord." Qi Yu's eyes gleamed with emotions as he called out with gratitude to Qin Wentian. Although he was now completely transformed, his attitude towards Qin Wentian didn't change. The Saint Lord has given him everything. After the dao bone entered his body and merged with him, he finally knew how strong the ancestors of their Battle Saint Tribe were. This was something that belonged to their tribe. Even though the Divine Ox Clan seized it away, and their descendants could also inherit the power of the Saint Battle Bone, they would never be as powerful as someone with the Battle Saint Tribe's bloodline. Only members of the Battle Saint Tribe could truly call upon its power.

"Uncle Yu, how do you feel?" Qin Wentian smiled and asked. Qi Yu has truly transformed. His gaze now was extremely sharp. If it wasn't for Qin Wentian personally witnessing his transformation, he felt that maybe he wouldn't even be able to recognize Qi Yu if he met him only after this transformation.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Seems like the Battle Saint Bone had many wondrous aspects to it. However, he didn't inquire further. As long as Qi Yu could grow stronger, everything was enough. He hoped that the Battle Saint Tribe was able to get back their past glory when their ancestors stood at the peak.

The experts of the Battle Saint Tribe all had looks of wild excitement on their faces. Seems like the Qi Yu now was no longer the past Qi Yu. Every part of him has been completely remodelled.

"Saint Lord, the people of our tribe have always followed you but among our ranks, we had never selected a leader that could speak for the tribe. Can we nominate Qi Yu as the tribe leader?" Some of the experts asked.

"Sure. As long as Uncle Yu has no objections to this." Qin Wentian smiled.

Qi Yu glanced at his clansmen, their eyes were filled with anticipation as they stared back at him. Right now, Qi Yu was the future hope of the Battle Saint Tribe.

"Sure." Qi Yu nodded. He was willing to become the tribe leader of the Battle Saint Tribe. Let's hope that in his hands, the Battle Saint Tribe was able to climb back up to the peak once again. He who was completely transformed, now seemed to be filled with even more confidence. In addition, their Saint Lord was still around and would also aid them.

"Alright, you guys chat. I will make a move first." Qin Wentian smiled as he stared at the people from the Battle Saint Tribe. After that, he directly departed the area. It can be considered that he has finished one of the more major matters weighing on his heart upon helping the Battle Saint Tribe to take back their ancestral dao bone. In the future, let's see how far Qi Yu would be able to walk on his path.

After Qin Wentian left, he went over to Qing`er and Qingcheng's location. Mo Qingcheng's beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian strangely, causing Qin Wentian to blink in confusion. "Qingcheng, why are you looking at me like this?"

"You summoned the Battle Saint Tribe the moment you returned. Did many things happen in the Desolate Region?" Mo Qingcheng stared at Qin Wentian. This fellow sent her a voice transmission saying that everything was well. However, she didn't believe it. Even if Qin Wentian encountered danger, he would also not tell her for fear of her worrying.

"Silly lass." Qin Wentian's eyes flickered with a hint of gentleness as he looked at Mo Qingcheng. He touched her face softly, "This time, there are indeed many things that happened in the Desolate Region. I met with my grandfather, he is doing very well. Although he isn't good at expressing himself, I can feel the love he has for me. Also, my uncle and Lei`er are both doing well too. I summoned the Battle Saint Tribe because I managed to take back something that belonged to them."

"Are you sure that's all? Don't think that I wouldn't know what happened in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms just because I'm in Azure Mystic." Mo Qingcheng glared at Qin Wentian.

"How would I dare to hide things from my Qingcheng?" Qin Wentian smiled. Mo Qingcheng looked at him suspiciously. When he saw how adorable she was, Qin Wentian leaned in and gave her a kiss. Mo Qingcheng was startled, her face instantly turned red as she cast a glance at Qing`er who was behind her.

"I didn't see anything." Qinger calmly replied before turning over. Qin Wentian stared at this scene in astonishment before laughing uproariously. When did Qinger also became so adorable?

"Senior brother, you have returned." From the outside, an ill-timed voice rang out. It was none other than Jun Mengchen. Qin Wentian rolled his eyes. This fellow truly knew how to pick his timing. He walked out and stared at the excited Jun Mengchen as he asked, "Mengchen, why are you so excited?"

"Senior brother, I rushed here the moment I heard about your return. During this period of time, I improved quite a lot under the guidance of the heavenly deities and my comprehension of the dao has also deepened. Senior brother, your comprehension is deeper than mine, hence I wanted to come over to seek verification." Jun Mengchen spoke.

"Sure." Qin Wentian nodded. Just as well, he did gain many new insights and he also wanted to share them with Jun Mengchen and the others. "Qing`er, go and help me call Youhuang, little Qing and the others over. I will discuss about the dao today in Ancient Azure Mystic."

"Good idea." Jun Mengchen's eyes flashed. After that, Qin Wentian gathered his friends and got everyone to share their insights. Naturally, the majority of the time was Qin Wentian sharing with them.

Many changes happened in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms yet in Ancient Azure Mystic, in the ancient battlefield, everything was the same as before, like a world on its own.

The long river of time continued flowing yet Ancient Azure Mystic seemed untouched by it, everything was as tranquil as the past. Qin Wentian entered close-doored seclusion again. As his comprehension grew deeper, the time he needed to consolidate his insights naturally also grew longer. After that battle with Qin Zhong, he benefited a lot and he now naturally wanted to properly take the time to assimilate what he has learned and see if there was a chance for him to pry into that legendary level, the path leading to the heavenly deity realm.

Many years passed by in the blink of an eye. Many major matters happened in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Other than the commotion in the Desolate Region, the Ziwei Divine Court and Great Devil Divine Palace in the Mystic Region weren't that peaceful as many conflicts occurred between them.

Over at the Qin Clan, there were rumors saying that after Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian suffered a humiliating defeat at the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, he finally exited seclusion after many years. His strength grew more terrifying and now, even for those powerful heavenly deities who had already been famous for a long time, also weren't his match now. After all, Qin Dangtian was someone who defeated Luoshen Yu the moment he entered the heavenly deity realm. His talent caused the three heavenly deities at the sacred academy to sigh at their inferiority.

Other than Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, there were some other people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that drew the attention of everyone. Among them, the most dazzling one was Reverend Seven Abstinences from the Pureland of Bliss in Western Paradise. Not long ago, he had already verified his dao and smoothly entered the doorway leading to the heavenly deity realm. In addition, there were rumors saying that the power he comprehended was an extremely extraordinary one.

Also, there were people saying that back then in the world of reincarnation of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, the person who entered the legendary place was none other than Reverend Seven Abstinences.

Naturally, not too long after, Seven Abstinences who broke through to the deity-level personally announced that he wasn't the one who entered the legendary place, it was someone else instead. Many people were shocked by this. Even Reverend Seven Abstinences didn't manage to enter the legendary place, who was it that had entered exactly?

Could it be Qin Wentian?

There were also some rumors in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms saying that back then when the heavenly deity of the Qin Clan, Qin Zhong, was hunting Qin Wentian in the Desolate Region, Qin Zhong's death had nothing to do with a heavenly deity. He was killed by Qin Wentian alone. Qin Wentian was then a truly supreme character and was the one who had entered the world of reincarnation. It was just that when such sayings circulated, countless people treated this as a joke. It was true that many people acknowledged that Qin Wentian's talent was very high. However, a world overlord killing a heavenly deity? This must be a joke, right?

Chapter 1873: Devouring a Deity

For the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms controlled by the Ziwei Divine Court, right now, many years have already passed. The vitality of the entire realm declined and an unknown amount of people have already died mysteriously.

And as for the main culprit behind everything, he was currently in an exquisite bed chamber in the Eastern Royal Palace, enjoying the taste of a beauty.

Yue Changkong stood up and glanced at the figure with jade-white skin on the bed as his evil eyes gleamed with a hint of wondrous satisfaction. As for Donghuang Ying, her eyes were completely empty. She had a trace of hatred on her expression as she stared at Yue Changkong. During these years, she felt more pain at being alive than dead. She planned to kill Yue Changkong countless times and have even acted against him. However, Yue Changkong was simply too powerful, she wasn't able to do anything. Her numerous attempts only resulted in her being defiled by him again and again.

She spent her days living in hatred and regret. Back then, she was the one who brought this demon into her life. Not only did he defile her, Yue Changkong also defiled many of the beauties in the Eastern Royal Palace. For the males who objected and stood against him, all of them were killed. Currently, Yue Changkong possessed absolute might and authority in the Eastern Royal Palace. Only those who agreed with him were able to retain high positions. Right now, the controllers of the Eastern Royal Palace were mere figureheads, all of them his lackeys.

"It has been so many years yet you are still so beautiful." Yue Changkong's aura had changed again, becoming even more evil now. His skin was a ghastly white, completely pallid without any blood. His finger gently stroked the fair thighs of Donghuang Ying, savouring the softness of her skin. An intoxicated look then appeared on his face. What a beauty.

"Are you still a human now?" Donghuang Ying insultingly spoke as she stared at Yue Changkong, her tone so cold that it pierced the bone. However, Yue Changkong didn't care about it. He smiled and looked at the maiden before him. He didn't reply at all and simply turned around to leave.

Donghuang Ying wore her clothes and went out from the bed chambers, she went to the sacrificial altar of the Eastern Royal Palace. This was a place where they gave offerings to the heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court. She would come here every day to kneel and pray. Today wasn't an exception as well. A sincere look appeared on her face as she prayed. Although her actions seemed useless for so many years, she didn't want to give up. This was her only hope.

Yue Changkong naturally knew she came here every day but he has never stopped her. The Ziwei Divine Court?

If the heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court wanted to appear, they would have appeared long ago. Everything that happened was silently permitted by the Ziwei Divine Court. But why did they do so? Everytime Yue Changkong thought about this, he would feel an intense coldness in his heart.

Donghuang Ying knelt and kowtowed, praying before the altar as she piously spoke, "If a heavenly deity can bear my voice, please cast a look at the lower worlds and how miserable this world currently is."

"BOOM!" In the air, thunder suddenly crackled as the sky seemed to split apart. A beam of light flashed as a heavenly deity appeared, basking in boundless radiance. When Donghuang Ying saw this, she was completely stunned. A look of wild joy then appeared on her face as she kowtowed, "Deity!"

Has a heavenly deity from the Ziwei Divine Court finally descended?

The appearance of a heavenly deity in the mortal world caused intense fluctuations of energy to churn wildly. The heavenly deity flew towards the airspace of the Eastern Royal Palace and stopped there. At this moment, countless people in the palace trembled. For those who were enslaved, wild joy appeared in their eyes, followed by hope. As for those who chose to submit to Yue Changkong, they now had a look of terror in their eyes. Evidently, they knew very well what they were doing all these years.

"Yue Changkong." A voice thundered as heavenly might bore down. Yue Changkong's figure flashed and arrived in the air. When he saw the heavenly deity, he knelt in the air and respectfully greeted, "Disciple Yue Changkong pays my respects to master."

"Yue Changkong, you said you would do a good job in governing the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms. Is this the result?" The heavenly deity coldly spoke, his voice thundered through the air, ringing out loud in the ears of everyone. At this moment, tears flowed from Donghuang Ying's eyes. A heavenly deity was finally about to intervene?

Now that a heavenly deity was here. The devil Yue Changkong was finally going to pay for his crimes.

"Master. During these years, disciple has been working hard to govern the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms." Yue Changkong prostrated himself.

"You still dare to argue?" The expression of the heavenly deity was ice cold. He then turned towards Donghuang Ying. "Seems like I have been careless and caused all of these to happen. What occurred exactly during these years in this world?"

"Heavenly deity, during these years, Yue Changkong committed all sorts of evil in the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms. He cruelly killed many people from the Eastern Royal Clan, those who submitted to him would prosper when those who went against him would be dead. Also, he is incomparably brutal, using the lives in this Immortal Realm to cultivate his evil arts. It is unknown how many people have already died for this. Currently, many cities in the world have turned into cities of the dead." Donghuang Ying sobbed. The expression of the heavenly deity grew colder and colder. He glanced at Yue Changkong. "Vile creature, I didn't expect you to commit such sins. Tell me, do you deserve death?"

"Master, your disciple will not do this again in the future. Please spare me." Yue Changkong trembled as he begged for mercy.

"If I knew today would happen, I would have taken your life back then. I didn't expect that because of a moment of mercy I showed, things would actually end up like this." The heavenly deity from the Ziwei Divine Court icily spoke. Astral light flashed as a terrifying constellation formation was formed, enveloping Yue Changkong. Boundless light from the formation gushed into Yue Changkong's body as a terrifying might radiated from the heavenly deity.

"Master, please spare my life!" Yue Changkong begged in terror. However, there was only coldness in the heavenly deity's eyes. As more constellation light gushed into his body, Yue Changkong's body began to disintegrate, forming into flows of energy that flowed back into the heavenly deity's body.

In the blink of an eye, Yue Changkong vanished completely. When Donghuang Ying saw this, tears flowed uncontrollably down her face. Was that devil finally dead. Is everything concluded?

"I'll send some people down to reorganize the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms." The heavenly deity spoke. However at the instant his voice rang out, his expression suddenly changed. After that, a grey region altered in the air. The atmosphere of the entire Eastern Royal Immortal Realms became greyish with death qi which then began to flow towards the heavenly deity from the Ziwei Divine Court.

"Who is it? The heavenly deity roared.

"Master. How can you do this to your disciple?" A voice rang out from the void. The heavenly deity from the Ziwei Divine Court abruptly changed, becoming exceptionally ugly. How could this be? After being attacked by his divine art, how could Yue Changkong still be alive?

"Master, you intentionally kept me alive until today before you sought to kill me. Do you think that disciple doesn't know of your intentions? The so called Ziwei Divine Art is also an evil art cloaked in the guise of a divine art. After you knew about my experience in the world of reincarnation, you wanted the evil art I learned there. This is why you allowed me to come to the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms and do whatever I wanted to, giving me the utmost freedom to verify my dao. But before I could comprehend my divine will, you intended to absorb everything of mine for your own. Master, are my words right?"

Yue Changkong's voice was very soft but seemed extremely bizarre. This entire world was permeated by the greyish death qi and when Donghuang Ying heard Yue Changkong's words, her countenance instantly paled. How could this be, hasn't he died yet?

Also, despair formed in her heart. Could it be that everything that happened was truly silently allowed by the heavenly deity? The lofty heavenly deity allowed Yue Changkong to do everything he wanted to her clan because he wanted to absorb Yue Changkong?

Was this really the esteemed heavenly deity she had been praying to?

"Vile creature, scram out of my body!" The heavenly deity coldly spoke.

"Hahaha..." An extremely evil laughter rang throughout the sky. The boundless grey of countless ghosts filled the atmosphere of this world, frenziedly gushing into the body of the heavenly deity. Gradually, a giant face appeared on the back of the heavenly deity. This face was actually that of Yue Changkong. It was completely grey in color and had an extremely evil expression.

"Master. Today, disciple shall give up my body to attain the dao. For the true intent of dao, disciple can only thank Master for helping me with the final step." The evil face detached itself from the heavenly deity's back as it floated up into the air and spoke. Yue Changkong's body was already destroyed, his words weren't wrong in the sense that he had given up his body in order to attain dao. His purpose was none other than to enter the soul of his master. After all, he was familiar with his master's methods and long guessed at how his master wanted to deal with him. During these years, he had used the lives of so many people to cultivate, strengthening himself precisely because he wanted an opportunity to contend against his master.

After his master appeared, he had still knelt and begged for mercy. Because, if he didn't do so, he wouldn't have a chance to enter his master's soul and unleash the dao he comprehended. He would have no way to kill his master who was a heavenly deity if he didn't do so.

"A vile beast that can even abandon your own body? Stop with your wild fantasies." The heavenly deity icily roared. Boundless constellation light radiated forth, becoming a resplendent radiance that illuminated the sky. This was a divine art. The radiance permeated his body and entered his soul, wanting to purify it. Yue Changkong's illusory face started to tremble uncontrollably.

"Ever since master punished me for my lies in the past, I've already decided to give my body to the devil. Now, all the spirits of the deceased here in the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms can be used by me. Since I've reached this step, it's impossible that I'll tolerate failure." Yue Changkong roared. In this world, the spirits of the dead all started flying over with rapid speed, their energy infusing Yue Changkong, stabilizing his form and corroding the heavenly deity's soul.

Below on the ground, countless people felt chills in their hearts when they saw this scene. One was a lofty heavenly deity while the other was his disciple. However, their conversation caused everyone to feel a bone chilling cold in the depths of their soul.

Was this the world of cultivation? How cruel and terrifying was it? Yue Changkong was like this, his master was like this as well.

Donghuang Ying also felt her body turning clammy. So the heavenly deity knew about everything all this while but still chose to close his eyes to nurture Yue Changkong. As for Yue Changkong, he could no longer be called a human. How ridiculous, the heavenly deity she prayed to for all these years, what was the difference between him and Yue Changkong? The heavenly deity was the true main culprit behind all of this.

At this moment, she couldn't help but think of the handsome countenance of that young man during the Convention of the Myriad Realms. The young man who was once her friend, the young man who warned her about Yue Changkong. Back then, why didn't she listen to his advice? The Donghuang Ying now felt her heart turning to ashes. Although Yue Changkong was fighting an intense battle against his master in the air, she didn't feel the slightest bit of interest to look at them. No matter who the victor was, it was meaningless to her.

Her heart was already dead.

After a long time, the battle in the air finally ceased. The grey-colored face of Yue Changkong disappeared. The heavenly deity stood arrogantly in the air but at this moment, a malevolent smile appeared on his face as a voice rang out from his mouth. "I've finally succeeded."

This voice, was the voice of Yue Changkong! After that, the heavenly deity's face began to change into that of Yue Changkong. His master wanted to seize everything from him, but didn't he want to do the same to his master as well?

"You once asked me if I was still a human. I can tell you now that I'm no longer one. I'm a god instead. HAHAHA!" Yue Changkong stared at Donghuang Ying below as an evil smile appeared on his face. His pitiful master thought he had succeeded but now, his master has paid the price of everything he had done to him.

Chapter 1874: Heaven Vault

The Eastern Royal Immortal Realms was still a vassal world under the Ziwei Divine Court. Given the magnitude of events that happened there, it was impossible for the news to be masked completely. After all, the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms wasn't a sealed world like the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. People from the upper world would frequently tour this place.

This news soon spread to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The first region where the news circulated to, was the Mystic Region. After that, the other regions soon caught wind of it, as shocking waves of commotion ensued.

Yue Changkong devoured his master.

Also, this happened because the heavenly deity from the Ziwei Divine Court was greedy and wanted to absorb his soul. This was the reason why he was counter-devoured by Yue Changkong. To the Ziwei Divine Court, this was absolutely a scandal. They even wanted to suppress this news but their methods couldn't keep up with the rate of circulation.

However, many people were curious as to how Yue Changkong accomplished this. How did he kill a heavenly deity?

Soon after this, all the evil Yue Changkong had committed in the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms was revealed. The vitality of the entity world has declined immensely. After Yue Changkong came back from the world of reincarnation, he used the principles of the evil art he learned there and practiced it using the countless lives of innocents from the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms. By right, it was impossible for the heavenly deity from the Ziwei Divine Court to die in Yue Changkong's hand. However, he wanted to absorb all of Yue Changkong's insights into the evil art due to greed. This allowed Yue Changkong to find an opportunity to enter his soul. After that, Yue Changkong used the countless spirits of the deceased he gathered to weaken the soul defense of the heavenly deity while he attempted to take over the heavenly deity's body. Such an evil art belonged to the seizing category.

After this, Yue Changkong actually boldly went to the Ziwei Divine Court. It's said that a deity-level battle erupted in the Ziwei Divine Court and after the battle, Yue Changkong officially took over the position his master had in the Sect and became a heavenly deity of the Ziwei Divine Court, one of the controllers there. This caused another round of commotion. Nobody knew what the exact situation was when Yue Changkong entered the Ziwei Divine Court, but the Ziwei Divine Court actually chose to allow him to be a part of them. This caused everyone to curse the Ziwei Divine Court as being incomparably shameless. After all, Yue Changkong's actions in the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms could be considered a great sin. Although many heavenly deities also didn't really have glorious reputations, they would still treat such an act as a great taboo and would never do such a thing.

After the Great Devil Divine Palace learned of this, they humiliated the Ziwei Divine Court saying that the Ziwei Divine Court doesn't deserve to share equal fame with their Great Devil Divine Palace. There were originally already many conflicts between them and it's very normal that the Devil Palace would say such words during such a time. However soon after that, those experts from the Devil Palace who said such words were all found dead mysteriously. Also, multiple world overlords from the Great Devil Divine Palace were killed. This matter completely enraged the Great Devil Divine Palace and their conflict with the Ziwei Divine Court further intensified as more and more casualties appeared on both sides.

It seemed that the Mystic Region was in chaos as well.

But no matter how the people of the world cursed at Yue Changkong, their feelings towards him were extremely complicated. One couldn't help but say that this young man, who was once ridiculed by all for fooling the world, had finally walked his own path out. From a certain perspective, Yue Changkong already achieved what he wanted to. He has successfully stepped into the heavenly deity realm, the legendary realm which countless aspired to. Although everyone in the world despised him, who would dare not to show respect if he appeared before them currently?

Since this news circulated through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Luoshen Lei in the Desolate Region naturally also learned of it. She told Qin Wentian about this via a voice transmission.

Qin Wentian also didn't expect that Yue Changkong actually managed to devour a heavenly deity and became one through evil methods.

He silently sighed at how terrifying the world of reincarnation was. He had also cultivated an evil art and he knew that the evil arts from the world of reincarnation couldn't be directly used in this world. However, there are still several aspects worth comprehending. Also, the main purpose of the world of reincarnation was to allow one to see the true nature of their hearts. In that world, Yue Changkong completely unleashed the evilness in his nature. Speaking of this in the language of cultivation, it can actually be said that Yue Changkong's dao heart was determined enough and incredibly stable, surpassing countless people. Even if he had to sacrifice the lives of countless innocents, he didn't feel guilty at all. He had completely lost his humanity. Such a dao was truly terrifying.

Qin Wentian thought back to the mysterious white robed young man he met at the legendary place. What sort of existence was he exactly. How high did his cultivation reach before he could create a world that seemed to know about heavenly fate like the world of reincarnation?

Yue Changkong was just one of the classic examples among the types of geniuses who entered the world of reincarnation. In truth, before Yue Changkong became a deity, Reverend Seven Abstinences already succeeded. Most probably, there would still be a few more among those geniuses who would be able to break through to the deity realm.

Back then, for the sake of entering the legendary place, Qin Dangtian forced the sacred academy to compromise. The three heavenly deities from the academy didn't want to allow him to enter because they were worried that unimaginably dire consequences would appear if Qin Dangtian entered, given his supreme talent and the fact that he was already at the heavenly deity realm. However in the end, Qin Dangtian chose to give up because he wouldn't allow any other energy to destroy his dao. This was something he couldn't endure.

"Elder brother, you have to be careful of Yue Changkong. He has already gone crazy. I heard that during these years, Donghuang Ying has been living her life in shame and humiliation. And after he became a heavenly deity of the Ziwei Divine Court, his then martial uncle and the two others who entered the world of reincarnation with him, all encountered unfortunate events and had very dire endings. In addition, the person Yue Changkong hates the most is none other than you." Luoshen Lei reminded.

Her elder brother was like Yue Changkong's jinx. Back then during the convention, Yue Changkong had been defeated by her elder brother. After that, Yue Changkong lost once more and he also lost again during their stint in the world of reincarnation.

"I understand. Most probably if I didn't exist, I wouldn't have caused Yue Changkong to become what he is now." Qin Wentian sighed. This should be the karma spoken of in the world, right? If it wasn't for him, the Yue Changkong now would still be a glorious disciple of the Ziwei Divine Court. He wouldn't have chosen the path of evil.

"His nature has always been like this. Things would end up the same even if you didn't appear." Luoshen Lei spoke. She then continued, "Naturally, although Yue Changkong managed to devour a heavenly deity through his evil methods, elder brother you have also killed a heavenly deity before. In the future, you would still be the jinx that would counter him. Elder brother, when will you breakthrough to the heavenly deity realm?"

"I have no idea. I keep feeling that I'm still missing something." Qin Wentian laughed in reply. It wasn't so easy to enter the deity level. Currently, his comprehension towards the dao had already reached an extremely high level. In fact, he could even already understand some of the techniques used by the heavenly deities. However, he felt that his comprehension hasn't fully matured yet. Maybe, his opportunity hasn't arrived yet.

"I see…" Luoshen Lei seemed to be mumbling to herself. Although they were separated by a vast distance, Qin Wentian still sensed that something was unusual. Qin Wentian then spoke, "Lei`er do you have something you want to talk to me about?"

"Let me think about it." Luoshen Lei giggled.

"Lei`er what's the matter? Don't hide things from me." Qin Wentian spoke. "Could it be that something has happened in the Desolate Region?"

"Nope." Luoshen Lei replied. "It's just that over in the Heaven Region, a major thing just occurred. I'm hesitating whether to inform this to elder brother or not."

"What's the matter?" Qin Wentian asked.

Luoshen Lei fell silent for some moments but eventually decided to tell him, "Heaven Vault has opened."

"Heaven Vault." Qin Wentian's heart trembled. This place was a legendary secret realm in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He had only seen this name once, back in the ancient records kept by the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

However, he had a deep impression of it. The reason was because Heaven Vault was the burial place of two heavenly deities - Qin Tiangang and his wife.

And those two heavenly deities were none other than his paternal grandfather and grandmother. It was precisely because his grandparents had died which resulted in his father becoming an orphan, causing his status to gradually weaken in the Qin Clan until the point where the status of his father's faction became inferior to Qin Zheng. But then again, it's only natural given how big an impact the death of two heavenly deities would be to a faction. In this world that was governed by strength, it was an exceptionally pragmatic world.

If Qin Tiangang and his wife didn't die, the history of the Qin Clan's junior generation might have very well been rewritten.

And now, the secret realm where his grandparents died in has just reopened again. It meant that the entrance to the Heaven Vault just appeared.

No wonder Luoshen Lei was hesitating to tell him about this or not. Clearly, she also knew of some past matters and was worried that Qin Wentian would head there due to his character.

"Elder brother, grandpa said that your paternal grandparents died precisely because they went to explore the Heaven Vault." Luoshen Lei softly spoke.

"Mhm, Lei`er. Were you testing me when you asked when I would enter the deity realm?" Qin Wentian sighed. "You didn't want to tell me about this, right?"

"I initially really didn't plan to tell elder brother about this. I'm afraid that you would surely go if you know about this. After all, the Heaven Vault is a place where even heavenly deities could fall if they are careless. But, if I didn't tell you and if you learned about this in the future, you would surely blame me." Luoshen Lei felt a little depressed. From the perspective of concern, she truly didn't wish for Qin Wentian to head there.

"Silly lass." Qin Wentian laughed. "That place is the legendary Heaven Vault. Although it's dangerous, how can it be that there are no opportunities there? Also, I've read about the Heaven Vault from the ancient records in the sacred academy. There would always be many experts who entered whenever it is opened and although there are cases of heavenly deities dying, the probability is very minuscule. Maybe my grandparents died because they ventured too far into it and entered a forbidden area."

"Elder brother, don't tell me you really want to go?" Luoshen Lei could sensed that something was up from Qin Wentian's tone. As expected, he immediately wanted to go the moment he learned of this. If she knew about his response, she would rather not have chosen to tell him.

"I'll head out immediately to the Heaven Region..." Qin Wentian continued. Luoshen Lei was completely speechless, she called out, "Elder brother, you…"

"Lei`er let's talk again at a later date. I'll go make my preparations now. I've always wanted to go to the Heaven Region for a look and I have to go there eventually. I might as well take this opportunity to do so." Qin Wentian spoke. The eight regions of the Supreme ancient Immortal Realms are known as the Heaven, Earth, Mystic, Yellow, Eternity, Universe, Chaos and Desolate Regions. The Heaven Region had the most supreme experts within and was claimed as the strongest.

The powerful Qin Clan also came from there.

And just like what he has said, the Heaven Region was a place he had to go sooner or later. Now, he was merely going there sooner.

"Wentian." Just when Qin Wentian was about to keep his messaging crystal, a juvenile voice rang out in his mind. Qin Wentian started. He then spoke, "Little Rascal, why do you have the time to miss me? Are you lazing around too much on the Demon God Mountain?"

"Nonsense. I'm the uniquely rare royal king of heaven devouring beasts. I heard Lei`er saying that you wanted to go to the Heaven Region. Just so coincidentally, the Demon God Mountain will be sending experts there as well and I'm also preparing to make a trip over there." Little Rascal spoke.

"You?" Qin Wentian snickered with disdain. "It's probably for the best that you continue to cultivate beside the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign for some more time first."

"Detestable, how dare you look down on me. Wentian, I'm now really very strong. Who knows, even you might not be able to defeat me." Little Rascal boasted.

"Fine. If the demon sovereign has no objections, the choice is up to you then. I really want to see how strong you are now." Qin Wentian laughed. It has indeed been many years since he last saw Little Rascal. Staying by the side of the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign was the most suitable place for him. Little Rascal's strength should have improved tremendously, right?

Chapter 1875: Deity Qu

The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were boundlessly vast, the distance between each of the regions was unimaginably far. However, there were several supreme gigantic spatial array formations that could directly allow one to teleport to the different regions.

In the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, the teleportation arrays leading to each region could be found. Naturally, it wasn't just the sacred academy alone that had so many teleportation arrays.

Hence, when the news about the Heaven Vault's opening circulated, the experts from the various regions all used teleportation arrays and headed to the area of Heaven Vault. The commotion caused by Yue Changkong also faded somewhat as the Heaven Vault's opening attracted interest.

Heaven Vault was one of the most famous secret realms in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Even up until now, no one in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms knew what sort of place the Heaven Vault was and what rules governed its opening. There were rumours saying that the Heaven Vault was a link to a world in another universe. There were also rumors saying that the Heaven Vault was a ruin left behind by a godking from the primordial era.

All sorts of rumors flew about wildly, further increasing the mystery of Heaven Vault. However, there was no need to doubt one point - there surely are opportunities inside the Heaven Vault although there are also dangers. Everytime the Heaven Vault opened, there would be people who obtained great fortune and also many who died inside. In fact, even heavenly deities would die inside if they took on too much risk. The most high profile deaths that shook the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms recently were none other than the death of Qin Tiangang and his wife. Both were legendary characters who were extremely powerful heavenly deities but they vanished completely inside Heaven Vault. Their disappearance was what caused the strength of their faction to decline and resulting in Qin Yuanfeng becoming a traitor of the Qin Clan. For some of the older generations who knew of this history, they would always sigh when they thought about it.

The location of the Heaven Vault was fixed in a place called the Boundless Ocean. This sea region was truly boundlessly vast, it was unknown how large an area it spanned. On the other shore of the Boundless Ocean, a majestic city named Boundless City was created long ago and the experts within it were as common as the clouds.

Right now, this city has already stood for countless years and would draw numerous experts here everytime Heaven Vault was opened. Even plenty of heavenly deities would venture here, wanting to take a look for themselves on what sort of place the Heaven Vault was exactly.

A heavenly deity existed in Boundless City. Although this deity didn't set up a power and was an unaffiliated cultivator, he possessed transcendent status here. Many visitors to Boundless City would frequently pay him a visit. However, because this deity didn't like a fuss, it was very rare for him to meet with characters of the junior generations. Only a rare minority of the visitors would be able to meet with him.

But today, this heavenly deity was actually preparing a banquet in his residence preparing to welcome some guests.

This heavenly deity was none other than Qu Shen, Deity Qu. Also, the guests he would he welcoming, would be none other than the current clan leader of the Qin Clan, Qin Zheng.

As the clan leader of the powerful Qin Clan, it was very rare for Qin Zheng to pay a visit to people. However today, he actually came to Boundless City to pay a visit to Deity Qu.

Within the Qu Residence, the people attending the banquet weren't merely Qin Zheng. His son, the Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian, was present as well.

Right now, Deity Qu no longer had any children, all of them had died long ago when they attempted to explore the Heaven Vault. He only had a granddaughter left. The name of his granddaughter was none other than the number one beauty in the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang.

For this banquet, Goddess Nichang was present as well.

"It has been a long time since I came to visit Uncle Qu. Seeing that Uncle Qu is as well as ever, I, Qin Zheng, can set my heart at ease. Before I came here, I met with my father and my father told me to send his regards over, saying that he would miss Uncle Qu often." Qin Zheng spoke. His father was none other than Qin Ding.

"Thank you for your concern." Deity Qu nodded. Although Qin Zheng was showing the etiquette of a junior towards him, he knew very well in his heart that regardless of status, identity or strength, Qin Zheng has long surpassed him.

Just the identity of being the Qin Clan leader, coming here to visit, was already considered giving Deity Qu a huge amount of face. After all, any casual sentence spoken by Qin Zheng could cause the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to tremble.

"This is what I ought to do. Oh, by the way Uncle Qu, how are your injuries?" Qin Zheng asked in a concerned tone. If people of the world knew of this, they would surely be shocked. Qu Shen was a heavenly deity but he was actually injured? Also these injuries had been plaguing him since a long time ago and he hasn't recovered from them yet.

"Same old thing but I can suppresses them. I have to thank Brother Qin Ding for sending over the divine medicines every year." Deity Qu nodded.

"That sounds good." Qin Zheng nodded. After that, he turned his gaze to Goddess Nichang as he smiled. "Nichang is growing more and more beautiful every year. As expected of the number one beauty in our Heaven Region. In addition, her talent is first rate. Considering the fact that she is also a descendant of Brother Qu Shi, only a scarce few individuals in the Heaven Region would be capable of matching her."

This praise could be understood by Deity Qu. Most probably, the main topic was soon approaching. Seems like the reason why Qin Zheng came here wasn't so simple as a visit.

"My son Qin Dangtian is known as Heaven's Son through the world. There's no need for me to mention anything more about his talent. This son of mine has his sights set on the peak. In the vast immortal realms, how many people would be able to make him regard them highly? The only person he can't forget is Brother Qu Shi's daughter. This can be considered fate. Right now, Dangtian has already attained his dao for many years and Nichang has also reached the peak of the world overlord realm. Uncle Qu, today, Qin Zheng decided to be thick-skinned and came here for the purpose of a marriage proposal." Qin Zheng laughed and lifted his wine cup in the direction of Deity Qu. His true purpose here was finally revealed. After all, this concerns the marriage of his son and it is a major matter. No matter what, he still needed to give Qu Shen some face.

Deity Qu wasn't surprised, he has long guessed that this was Qin Zheng's purpose or Qin Zheng wouldn't have intentionally made a trip here to pay him a visit.

He turned his gaze onto his granddaughter Nichang as he sighed silently in his heart. Although he didn't wish for Nichang to marry Qin Dangtian from the perspective of emotions, from the perspective of rationality, this was indeed a very good choice for Nichang.

Qin Dangtian had the title of Heaven's Son and possessed supreme talent. He would also be the future clan leader of the Qin Clan.

If Nichang marries him, she would be the future mother of the Qin Clan. Her future would then be boundlessly bright and her position was guaranteed to be unshakable. He also believed that Qin Dangtian wouldn't mistreat his granddaughter. After all, as the number one beauty in the Heaven Region, Nichang does live up to her reputation. For people in the world, no matter how high they stood, which of those men wouldn't love beauties? In addition, Qin Dangtian didn't have to make a choice between fighting to carve out an empire and between a beauty. The territories the Qin Clan possessed could already be considered an empire that would be handed to him. As for the topic of beauties, the number one beauty of the Heaven Region Goddess Nichang was undoubtedly the most optimal choice to match with him.

He had no grounds to reject. So, he passed the authority of choice to his granddaughter.

Goddess Nichang's expression was very calm. She didn't feel surprised or shocked. She was always calm and beautiful, it was like nothing in the world could move her heart.

Qin Dangtian turned his gaze to Goddess Nichang. His magnificence was boundless and only a rare few women in the world could enter his eyes. But when he stared at this maiden before his eyes, he would often imagine how could he make her smile. If she smiled, how beautiful would she be? He has never seen it before.

Maybe, her nature was like this since she was born. Pure, holy, perfect and she would never smile. This was what Qin Dangtian thought but he didn't know that Goddess Nichang has smiled before and someone had seen her smile.

That day in the world of reincarnation, underneath the rainbow… Sadly, Qin Dangtian didn't manage to see that scene.

Seeing that Goddess Nichang didn't express her stance, Qin Zheng continued, "Before this, a few members of my Qin Clan tried to sully the name of niece Nichang to Dangtian. Today, I've brought all of them over here as well."

After Qin Zheng spoke, he turned around and coldly barked, "Get the hell out now and kneel to apologize."

Beside him, three world overlords from the Qin Clan had turned completely pale. But even so, they still walked out and knelt before Goddess Nichang. "The three of us have done wrong and offended Miss Nichang. We are begging for Miss Nichang's forgiveness."

Once, in the world of reincarnation, they cultivated evil arts and lust manifested in their hearts towards Goddess Nichang. After they came out, they even intentionally spoke bad about Nichang to Qin Dangtian, hinting that she had an ambiguous relationship with Qin Wentian. But they clearly failed and their consequences were extremely miserable. The Qin Clan Leader Qin Zheng personally came here to propose marriage. Goddess Nichang would be the future mistress of the Qin Clan.

Goddess Nichang coldly swept her gaze at the three of them. It was naturally impossible for her to tell Qin Zheng that not only so, the three of them even dared to have lustful thoughts about her. After all, complaining to others wasn't her personality. She merely coldly spoke, "Get out."

The three of them were stunned. They stared at Qin Zheng only to hear Qin Zheng speaking, "Why have you three not scramed yet?"

"Yes." The three of them bowed while feeling incomparably humiliated in their hearts. But what could they do. Before them, other than Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian being present, the Qin Clan Leader Qin Zheng was here too. Any of them could easily decide their fates.

In any case, Qin Zheng's authority in the Qin Clan was absolute. No one would dare to challenge him.

Goddess Nichang calmly regarded this scene. Her beautiful eyes landed on Qin Dangtian before turning to look at her grandfather. She was very clear of the relationship between her grandpa and the Qin Clan. Her grandfather held nothing back and told her everything. Also, she knew of her grandfather's attitude towards this matter. On the perspective of emotions, her grandfather wasn't willing but in his heart, he still hoped that she could find a good husband with a powerful background or her beauty might bring her more trouble than what she could handle.

After learning of some secrets of the past from her grandfather, she also felt unwilling in her heart. However, when her beautiful eyes turned back again to Qin Dangtian, she had actually chosen to nod her head.

Seeing that she was nodding, Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian revealed smiles in their eyes.

"Excellent, excellent…" Qin Zheng lifted his wine cup and laughed. "Although I have no fate to become good buddies with Uncle Qu's deceased son, Brother Qu Shi, my father would frequently mention about him to me. I believed that if Brother Qu Shi was able to see this scene today, he would surely feel gratified in his heart."

After some time, the banquet ended. Qin Zheng bid farewell. Qin Dangtian also left with him.

When they left, the atmosphere grew silent. Only Deity Qu and Nichang remained here. Qu Shen stared this granddaughter and spoke, "You don't have to agree because of your considerations about me."

Goddess Nichang's expression was as calm as ever and she didn't reply. Qu Shen continued, "You have also met Qin Yuanfeng's son before and have interacted with him in the world of reincarnation. Between him and Qin Dangtian, who do you like more?"

Goddess Nichang blinked her eyes and stared at her grandpa. Who does she like more? How was she supposed to answer this?

"My mistake. My question should be, which of their personalities do you like more?" Qu Shen laughed and shook his head.

Goddess Nichang thought back to the young man whom she was acquainted with in the world of reincarnation while comparing him to Qin Dangtian. After some time, she replied, "Qin Dangtian would cause people to feel a sense of distance from him."

After Qu Shen heard his grand daughter's words, he started. "That's true, this sentence is very accurate. A sense of distance...both Qin Ding and Qin Zheng are the same as well. Compared to them, Tiangang and Yuanfeng…"

As he spoke, he sighed and shook his head, "What a pity."

Evidently, Deity Qu wasn't merely acquainted with Qin Ding and Qin Zheng. He was also acquainted with Qin Tiangang and Qin Yuanfeng!

Chapter 1876: Boundless Sea Coast

The news about Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian being engaged with Goddess Nichang, the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, soon circulated through Boundless City. After all, Goddess Nichang's residence was in Boundless City itself.

Countless people were filled with envy but they also felt that this was very normal. The Heaven's Son matching up with the number one beauty of the Heaven Region was truly a very good match. They are like an immortal couple that inspired envy in the hearts of people. However, there were also many people who felt disappointed. Goddess Nichang was someone whose beauty couldn't be profaned in their eyes but ultimately, she was also going to marry someone? But many geniuses in Boundless City could only accept this helplessly as they knew that they would never be able to be compared with Qin Dangtian. Regardless of talent, strength or status, it was impossible for them to surpass Qin Dangtian.

What a pity, the goddess in the hearts of many people was ultimately going to marry into the Qin Clan.

In a top-grade inn in Boundless City, the experts from the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace also arrived. The mystical maiden herself also came and because of her presence, Lin Xiao naturally also arrived and came here for the purpose of seeking her out. After he arrived, he laughed, "Goddess Nichang actually agreed to the marriage proposal of the Qin Clan and would be marrying Qin Dangtian. When would you be willing to marry me?"

The experts from the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace all stared at Lin Xiao with anger when they heard his words. The mystical maiden was the successor of the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace and would never marry out. Naturally, they also understood Lin Xiao's personality. Lin Xiao was someone who was honest and extremely direct. The people of the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace didn't really loathe him but it was impossible for their mystical maiden to marry him.

Right now, Qin Wentian who was already in Boundless City also heard of this news. Goddess Nichang agreed to the marriage proposal and this caused a huge commotion in Boundless City, it was difficult even if one didn't wish to know about it. This time around, he brought Qi Yu and Jun Mengchen with him. The two of them also wanted to enter the Heaven Vault for exploration.

After hearing the news, Jun Mengchen cursed in a low voice, "What a pity for the number one beauty in the Heaven Region. Such a beauty is actually going to be married off to that bastard."

Undoubtedly, after Qin Wentian's true identity was exposed, Jun Mengchen clearly wouldn't feel any good will for the Qin Clan. This was especially so after he learned of what happened to Qin Wentian's father. Now, Jun Mengchen felt like he himself was the one who had hatred with the Qin Clan. Also, Qin Dangtian was the son of the man who killed his senior brother's father. Qin Wentian and Qin Dangtian were born to be enemies. Hence, one could very well imagine Jun Mengchen's attitude towards Qin Dangtian.

Qin Wentian also felt some discomfort in his heart when he learned of this. Back then in the world of reincarnation, although he had only spoken with Goddess Nichang for a few times, she did save him after all and they shared a period of interactions together. Even now, he could still remember the beautiful scene after that thunder storm. That flawless figure who stood on the mountain peak underneath the rainbow… In his heart, he already treated Goddess Nichang as his friend. This was so despite the fact that they had no further interactions after they left the world of reincarnation.

If Goddess Nichang truly married his enemy Qin Dangtian, in that case in the future when he fights the battle of destiny against Qin Dangtian, how should he face Goddess Nichang?

Qin Wentian felt somewhat complicated in his heart. As they flew through the air, the three of them now already arrived at the Boundless Oceancoast.

The Boundless Ocean was truly boundless. In the sea region, the waves churned wildly but in the air, a magnificent phenomenon appeared. At the point where the sea was connected to the sky, a heavenly eye appeared. From afar, there seemed to be a crack in the heavenly eye, allowing one to fly further into it. This crack was none other than the entrance to the Heaven Vault.

Those who stood at the Boundless Sea Coast and stared far into the horizon would be able to see experts everywhere, extending in an unbroken line from the sea region at the bottom to the crack in the heavenly eye in the sky. Evidently, these were all people who came for the Heaven Vault.

"There are so many people." Jun Mengchen spoke. The sea domain was incomparably vast. The Heaven Vault was at the point where the sea connected to the sky. Although it appeared very near, the distance was in truth, extremely far. But in such a vast ocean, one could even see everyone flying in the airspace above it. From this, one could very well imagine how many experts were present today.

Naturally, although countless people arrived, most likely only extremely powerful world overlords and heavenly deities would dare to enter the Heaven Vault.

Heaven Vault was a place where even deities would die. Although the possibility of that was very small, one could still tell how dangerous it was. World overlords might barely qualify to enter, but for those weaker than world overlords, they probably would die in there not knowing the reason why they died. There was no need to talk about opportunities with their strength.

"A place that can attract heavenly deities. How can there not be many people who wish to come here?" Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. Since the Heaven Vault could attract heavenly deities, this indicated that it was able to attract the vast majority of experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Those with low cultivations would find it impossible to fly such a far distance to rush here. As for those with outstanding talents, they would undoubtedly chose to use those supreme teleportation arrays and cross realms to arrive here. There was no need to speak about the number of experts that was already present in the Heaven Region.

"BOOM!" From the air, a thunderbolt rang out. The terrifying deafening blast rumbled the ears of everyone as a fearsome heavenly might bore down from the sky, engulfing the Boundless Sea Coast. After that, two rows of figures descended from the air. One of the groups radiated intense devil might, their auras causing the ocean waves to churn wildly. This was especially so for the man in the lead, he was a devil god, a heavenly deity among devils. He resembled an eternal statue, radiating devil intent that towered up into the sky.

As for the experts behind him, all of them were at the world overlord level.

"The people from the Great Devil Divine Palace of the Mystic Region have arrived, with a heavenly deity personally leading them." Someone exclaimed. There were people who then continue to ask, "In that case, who is the other group of figures that dared to stand in opposition to them?"

"Evil might flood the area around the man leading the second group and they dared to contend against the Great Devil Divine Palace. Can you still not guess who the second group is?" A person at the side mumbled, as the eyes of everyone stared at the pale-looking young man leading the second group. The person who spoke earlier trembled as he thought of a character. A wave of fear then rose in his heart.

"Yue Changkong…" That person mumbled. It was none other than that monster who caused the majority of humans in the Eastern Royal Immortal Palace to die off, using their lives to train his evil arts. The Ziwei Divine Court has arrived and the moment they came, they instantly created a conflict with the Great Devil Divine Palace. From this, one could imagine how intense the hatred between these two hegemonic powers was.

"Indeed, Yue Changkong doesn't resemble a human nor a ghost. This person is so evil that he has long lost all humanity. This is why he dared to create such huge sins. The heavens would punish this evil cultivator sooner or later." Someone below cursed in a low voice, filled with contempt for Yue Changkong's character.

A strange smile then appeared on the face of Yue Changkong when he heard that. He turned his gaze below, instantly locking onto the person who insulted him.

"You dare to insult a heavenly deity?" Yue Changkong evilly laughed. When that expert saw Yue Changkong's evil smile, he instantly turned pale. He didn't expect that Yue Changkong would notice him. Because of a sentence he spoke, Yue Changkong's gaze locked onto him. Also, Yue Changkong's smile was so evil, it felt like a devil grinning at him.

In the next moment, grey-colored streams of energy flowed forward, forming thin lines of death that wrapped around the person who spoke. That person screamed in fear but swiftly after, his entire flesh and blood was cleaning devoured, leaving behind a pile of bones.

"Is there anyone else who still has objections to my presence? Come on out together." Yue Changkong smiled, staring at the crowd below. The people here felt chills as their hearts trembled.

When everyone shut up, Yue Changkong laughed uproariously. An evil cultivator? So what of it? If he could gain supreme strength, he was willing to give up everything. One day when he can stand at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, who would dare to disrespect him? Strength represented everything. He has no need for the world to respect him, in fact, he preferred it if the people of the world feared him instead. Fear was a much better emotion compared to respect as proven by him now. After his action, was there anyone who still dared to talk bad about him?

"Amithaba." At this moment, a treasured light suddenly flashed in the sky. Golden rays illuminated the area, congregating into the form of a human. This was a reverend from a buddhist sect, he was extremely imposing as his law body traversed the void, appearing here.

"Everything is tied to karma. Yue Changkong, you actually created such great sin, you will definitely meet with a tribulation in the future." The monk stated.

"Reverend Seven Abstinences truly knows how to bemoan the state of the universe and pity the fate of mankind. If karma truly exists, what is the use of cultivation? Everyone should simply wait for the cause-and-effect law of karma." Yue Changkong grinned evilly. "As for the tribulation you are talking about, who would bring the tribulation to me? Does Reverend wish to be justice?"

Reverend Seven Abstinences pressed his palms together and no longer looked at Yue Changkong. His golden body disappeared as he flew with great speed towards the direction of the Heaven Vault. The reason why he came wasn't to argue with Yue Changkong over what was good or evil. His purpose here today was for the Heaven Vault.

"Yue Changkong, you will be faced with retribution in the future." The devil god from the Great Devil Divine Palace coldly spoke. Yue Changkong laughed even louder, "A devil cultivator actually changed his alignment? Are you a buddhist practitioner now?"

The devil god flicked his sleeves and flew towards the direction of the Heaven Vault, not bothering to exchange any more words with Yue Changkong. The devil cultivators behind him naturally followed after him. When the devil god flew past Yue Changkong, he asked, "Are you not entering the Heaven Vault?"

"There is no need for your concern. I'm still waiting for one person." Yue Changkong smiled. However, his smile seemed extremely evil.

"Who?" The devil god from the Great Devil Divine Palace asked.

"Just like what Reverend Seven Abstinences has said, if there truly is karma, the 'effect' of what I have become now was because of the 'cause' he had sewn back then. I naturally wish to conclude this bout of karma." Yue Changkong's smile grew colder. He knew that the person he was waiting for would suddenly come since Heaven Vault has opened. This was his premonition.

In truth, the person he was waiting for was already at the Boundless Sea Coast at this instant. Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at Yue Changkong in the air. His expression was glacial. He didn't expect that Yue Changkong has managed to verify his dao through seizing the body of his master. As for who Yue Changkong was waiting for, it was naturally him, Qin Wentian.

However, he didn't come here with his true appearance. Even for Jun Mengchen and Qi Yu, the three of them used special methods to change their looks. Qin Wentian actually didn't have Yue Changkong in his considerations at all. He changed his appearance because he had to go to the Heaven Region, a place where the Qin Clan held sway. If he appeared using his true face, wouldn't he be resenting that his life was too long?

"Senior brother, should we enter?" Jun Mengchen transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian. Even a character like Yue Changkong could verify his dao. This caused Jun Mengchen to feel extremely unsatisfied. Yue Changkong was merely someone who lost to his senior brother. In fact, Yue Changkong even tried to fool everyone by hinting that he was the one who received the godking of time's inheritance.

"No rush, let's see how many experts would enter Heaven Vault." Qin Wentian replied. He was prepared to stay at the Boundless Sea Coast for a period of time.

"Alright." Jun Mengchen nodded. After sometime, the saw Qin Dangtian flying over here with Goddess Nichang. When they appeared, a huge commotion was caused. Countless people stared at this immortal couple with envy in their eyes. Right now, the two of them were already engaged.

From Qin Wentian's observation, Qin Dangtian, Goddess Nichang and the experts from the Qin Clan then headed into the entrance of Heaven Vault together.

For the following period of time, Qin Wentian saw several familiar figures whom he met before in the world of reincarnation. One day, he saw another figure whom he was very familiar with. It has been a long time since he last saw this man. When Qin Wentian stared at the young man in white appearing above the Boundless Ocean, his heart was filled with a thousand emotions. He didn't expect to actually encounter him here. He could still remember the words this man spoke to him back then when they parted - I'll wait for you at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms!

Chapter 1877: Bizarre Scene

This figure was none other than Hua Taixu. Qin Wentian knew that after the Myriad Transformations Immortal King died, Hua Taixu seemed to have transformed completely. Hua Taixu also had many secrets on his body.

His aura now was completely different from the past. By casually standing there, he gave off a feeling of transcendence, like he had already surpassed everything in the world. He turned his gaze towards Heaven Vault, as well as the numerous experts on the Boundless Sea Coast. When his eyes swept towards Qin Wentian and his group, they paused for a moment before shifting away. And just when Hua Taixu shifted his eyes away, his gaze suddenly turned back again as though he had discovered something. His eyes abruptly underwent a transformation. His gaze turned immeasurably deep as a strange dot of white light flickered and revolved within both of his pupils.

"You came." Hua Taixu's voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind, causing Qin Wentian to start. Right now, his proficiency in illusionary arts has already reached the level of a dao art. Even heavenly deities wouldn't be able to see through him. Yet Hua Taixu actually saw through his disguise in a single glance? What sort of ability was this?

"Indeed." Qin Wentian replied. Since Hua Taixu has already seen through him, there naturally wasn't a need to lie to him.

Hua Taixu nodded his head slightly towards Qin Wentian. After that, he took a step out and moved towards the direction of the Heaven Vault. This minor detail didn't attract any attention. After all in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, not many people knew of the name Hua Taixu. His appearance didn't attract any attention or cause any commotion. The people here were simply too many and there were even quite a few heavenly deities present.

"Senior brother, Hua Taixu seemed to have recognized us?" Jun Mengchen asked in a voice transmission.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian replied. Jun Mengchen's eyes flashed. "Strange, why do I feel that Hua Taixu is getting more and more heaven-defying?"

Powerful heavenly deities might be able to tell that they were in disguise but they wouldn't be able to see through their original appearance. Yet, Hua Taixu managed to do this. Could it be that his eyes were able to see past all samsara and reincarnation? The art of disguise was nothing before his eyes.

"Let's enter the Heaven Vault." Qin Wentian spoke. Jun Mengchen and Qi Yu nodded. Even now, there were still unending streams of experts arriving here. There were still many people from the hegemonic powers that haven't arrived yet. For example, Little Rascal and the other experts from the Demon God Mountain weren't here yet.

Qin Wentian's group flew towards the direction of the Heaven Vault. At this moment, a figure flew from afar. This figure seemed very ordinary and was clad in simple clothing and he had a sword strapped to his back. With every step he took, the waves underneath him would stop churning, becoming impossibly calm like they entered a state of stillness. Qin Wentian glanced at the man. This person gave him an unfathomable and immeasurable feeling. He might be a heavenly deity.

However, his appearance was too ordinary, so ordinary to the extent where not many people noticed his existence. If those who knew him saw him, they would surely know who this man was. After all, this man was an extremely famous character in the Mystic Region.

"Crouching tigers and hidden dragons." Qin Wentian silently mused. This time, it was unknown how many characters with legendary strength would appear here due to Heaven Vault. Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian from the Qin Clan, Reverend Seven Abstinences from the Pureland of Bliss, Yue Changkong, Hua Taixu… all these were those who he was acquainted with. There should be many more who he wasn't acquainted with among the crowd.

This commotion far exceeded the one which happened due to the legendary place in the sacred academy back then. After all, back then only the experts from the hegemonic powers had the qualifications to enter and the people who entered were limited to world overlords. However, for the Heaven Vault, there were no such restrictions. As long as you wished to enter, all heavenly deities and world overlords from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could enter.

Qin Wentian's group flew towards the point of connection between the sea and the sky. The ocean waves churned wildly, as they arrived below the entrance, staring up at the horizontal slit in the heavenly eye.

"Heaven Vault, the place where my grandfather died." Qin Wentian's expression was solemn as he flew closer to it. Their figures seemed extremely tiny in the perspective of the horizontal slit, like a drop of water in the ocean. Finally, they stepped through the entrance and vanished from sight.

When they reappeared again, it seemed that they just went to another world. Before them, the ocean had totally vanished. What awaited them was a stretch of desolation with many ruins in it. Amidst the ruins, there were several figures present. Before this, the ordinary-looking man with a sword strapped behind his back was here as well, including Hua Taixu. Other than them, the others were those who entered the horizontal slit in the heavenly eye. The vast majority of those who entered were still here and the reason for this was very simple. It wasn't so easy to go further into the depths of this land.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze ahead. There was an exceptionally shocking scene in front of his eyes. Numerous towering stone pillars lined the pathway in the distance and there were complex runic patterns sketched upon them. They radiated an ancient air and what caused shock in the hearts of people was that on the peak of each stone pillar, a stone statue that seemed like an eternal guardian could be seen. They were fully clad in armor and covered in white dust.

If he didn't see one of the statues moving, he would have assumed that these stone statues were nothing extraordinary.

Qin Wentian discovered that if one wanted to move ahead, they would have to pass by those stone pillars. There was no other way around it.

At this moment, a world overlord stepped forward with a heavy expression. The power of his heavenheart mandate circulated around him, permeating the atmosphere. But as he set foot on the ancient pathway, one of the stone statues suddenly moved. The dust fell from its body as its weapon suddenly gleamed with a black luster, revealing its true form to be a halberd, radiating shocking devilish might. Dust continued to fall from the statue, when its true appearance was revealed, everyone could tell that it seemed to be a statue of a devil god.

The devil god wielded the devil halberd in his hand and pierced forth with it. Terrifying devilish might gushed forth as the manifestation of a ten thousand foot halberd pierced towards the sky, wanting to penetrate everything. The world overlord below was shocked when he saw the gigantic halberd piercing towards him with thunderous might, radiating an intent of wild slaughter.

Fear appeared on that world overlord's face. He felt that his surroundings were completely sealed by the power of the halberd. When that majestic might descended, he had no way to evade. He released his powerful heavenheart mandate wanting to resist it. However, boundless devil might brimmed around the tip of the halberd as it crushed down like a hot knife slicing through butter, easily destroying the world overlord's pathetic attempt at defense. That world overlord's body shattered completely, turning into dust. The entire space around him was still shaking.

The ten thousand foot long devil halberd flew back into the hands of that statue. That statue resembled a heavenly deity standing on guard here for all eternity.

Strength to break through all techniques. The devil god only used a simple move. When one's strength reached a certain level, nothing would be able to block it.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with sharpness when he saw this scene. Although these stone statues were very strong, their strength didn't exceed the boundaries of the world overlord realm and clearly wouldn't be able to block heavenly deities. However, there would be no hope for ordinary world overlords who wanted to pass them.

He was thinking how much strength must one possess if they really wanted to venture into the depths of the Heaven Vault to find out its core secrets? Back then his grandfather Qin Tiangang had precisely entered an area where the dangers there exceeded the limits of his strength and he ended up dying despite being a heavenly deity.

At this moment, the ordinary-looking man with a sword strapped to his back walked out. His movements were very slow. As he proceeded, an extremely terrifying statue rushed out. A terrifying energy gushed forth from the statue and bore down on him, but in the next instant, everything in his surroundings seemed to enter a state of stillness and slowed down. Only his movements didn't slow. His movements seemed extremely casual as he simply walked past the region blocked by the stone statue.

"Who is he?" Someone exclaimed in shock.

There were experts from the Heaven God Mountain whose eyes flickered with a bright light. It was him, he has actually arrived, attracted by the appearance of the Heaven Vault.

"He is Jian Junlai." A voice rang out, causing many in the crowd to start in astonishment. This was especially so for people from the Mystic Region, all of them could feel their hearts shaking.

This seemingly ordinary man was actually Jian Junlai?

The number one sword in the Mystic Region, Sword Monarch Jian Junlai.

"Hu…" Many people drew in a deep breath. What magical powers does Heaven Vault have exactly? There were several heavenly deities drawn here.

At this moment, Hua Taixu also flew forward. Similarly, he also encountered obstruction. His eyes stared at the statue and in an instant, the light of samsara shone as the statue started to tremble.

"How can mere dust block my path?" Hua Taixu calmly spoke and continued on his way. In the next moment, the statue blocking him directly shattered, crumbling into dust as Hua Taixu walked past it.

After he passed, the statue began to reconstruct itself, as though it had an undying body.

"Who is that young man?" Someone asked in shock.

"No idea, but I can feel that he is very strong."

Many people sighed in their hearts. Seems like the number of experts here today were truly plenty. Even some reclusive experts decided to come here and enter the Heaven Vault.

After that, more and more people tried to enter. There were also some world overlords who died due to being too weak.

"Let's enter." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice as Jun Mengchen and Qi Yu nodded their heads. The three of them walked together, moving towards the same ancient pathway. The statue on the towering sky pillar before them started moving as a terrifying might engulfed the three of them.

Qin Wentian's aura gushed forth but at this moment, his brows suddenly furrowed. After that, a resplendent light flashed in his eyes as he discovered that deep within his sea of consciousness, the tiny astral-being that has remained dormant for so many years, was actually shining with luster. This luster was so bright that it was about to emit out. And at this moment, the terrifying statue that was currently flying through the air, suddenly stopped and returned back to its original position on the stone pillar. This bizarre scene caused everyone to be stunned. What the hell was going on?

It seemed that these three figures weren't going to be obstructed on the ancient pathway? They didn't even launch any attacks. Why did the stone statue suddenly return to its original location?

Chapter 1878: Bone Boats on a Blood Sea

Qin Wentian also had a look of bewilderment on his face. However after some moments, the tiny astral-being dimmed and no longer emitted any aura. A rumbling sound rang out, the statue on the stone pillar moved again, exuding a heavy pressure as it rushed forward.

When he saw this, Qin Wentian's eyes narrowed. The aura from the tiny astral-being was actually able to make the statue return to its original location? Was it because the tiny astral-being was a wondrous treasure? Or was it because it had a connection with the Heaven Vault.

This caused Qin Wentian's interest in this place to intensify. His grandfather, who was a heavenly deity, died here and the tiny astral-being also had a reaction after he came here. Could there be a connection between everything?

He didn't have time to think. In the air, the stone statue that was like a divinity, wielded a giant axe wanting to cleave the sky apart. When the giant axe slashed down, the space here was completely severed. Qin Wentian, who was standing on the ancient pathway, seemed incomparably tiny. An immense amount of pressure bore down on him as the axe intent from the giant axe engulfed him. At this moment, a terrifying line appeared in the sky, wanting to sever his body into twain.

Qin Wentian had a feeling that in the area he was in, the space here would be completely torn apart by the giant axe. He had no way to escape.

Behind him, a bright light manifested. Above his head, numerous ancient words of power manifested, revolving around him. They transformed into a spatial screen of light that resembled a diagram of the great dao and shot up into the air. An instant later, that terrifying axe attack was completely swallowed up by the spatial light screen and vanished completely. It was like no matter how fearsome an attack was, the attack wouldn't be able to come in contact with Qin Wentian's body. Qin Wentian then gracefully stepped out and directly walked through the ancient pathway, passing the region guarded by the statues of the stone pillars.

"Another powerful expert." The spectators behind felt a bit numb by this point. Jian Junlai, the Sword Monarch, the mysterious expert Hua Taixu and now, another young man had appeared, this young man effortlessly blocked a tyrannical attack and his strength seemed to be nearing the level of heavenly dao. However, no one here knew who this young man was.

After Qin Wentian passed through, Jun Mengchen also attempted it. He followed Qin Wentian's footsteps and walked past the same stone pillar. Naturally, the attack he faced was the same as well.

Jun Mengchen had long comprehended an extraordinary world heart during the convention of myriad realms many years ago and was a transcendent-level world overlord since then. Now, after so many years and after him cultivating in Ancient Azure Mystic, receiving the guidance of heavenly deities, his strength was no longer at the same level as the past. His senior brother effortlessly walked past this zone, Hua Taixu was the same as well, causing a powerful statue to crumble with a single glance. He mustn't lose too much face.

He stepped forward and in an instant, it seemed that the strength of everything in the world could be used by him. Jun Mengchen transformed into an emperor of the world and with a stretch of his hand, a miniature world could be seen revolving slowly around in his palm. He suddenly clenched his fist resulting in waves of terrifying light erupting forth, shrouding his entire body, covering it with a divine glow. The aura he exuded now was so strong that it was inconceivable.

"What ability is this?" The eyes of everyone flashed as they stared at Jun Mengchen. This young man was like the reincarnation of a heavenly deity. The glow from him was blindingly resplendent. He lifted his fist and punched out aiming for the giant axe. Fist light flooded the sky, his punch crushed through everything, completely destroy the axe and the statue.

"Not too bad." Jun Mengchen laughed. His cultivation method was different from many people. He continued moving forward and exited the zone.

Lastly, Qi Yu stepped out. He drew in a deep breath. After he obtained the Battle Saint Bone, he had cultivated for many years and sparred against many people in the ancient battlefield. But this was the first time he would truly be displaying his prowess in public.

From Qi Yu, a shocking amount of battle intent radiated. Although his form remained the same, the might from his body wasn't anyway weaker compared to the stone statue that was just reconstructed.

A terrifying battle intent gushed forth from him, the spectators here could feel the violent strength contained within Qi Yu's body.

Finally, Qi Yu roared loudly, causing the sky to tremble. From his roar, ancient runes manifested, representing the word 'battle.' These runes further intensified the battle intent he was unleashing and concentrated the battle intent into a beam of light that shot towards the gigantic axe. The power of the runes easily pierced through the giant axe before penetrating the body of the stone statue.

"Battle word runes?" The spectators all had looks of contemplation on their faces after Qi Yu left. There were many people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that integrate the runes of different laws into their attacks. But for a rune that represented the word 'battle,' was there any other special meaning to this?

After that, more and more experts tried the trial. However, only extremely powerful world overlords could enter. Ordinary world overlords couldn't even pass the first test which is to defeat one of the stone statues on the ancient pathway. In fact, there were even quite a few world overlords who lost their lives.

It wasn't so easy to enter the Heaven Vault. If one wasn't strong enough, death was a very real possibility.

Even heavenly deities could die, this wasn't false information but true history.

After Qin Wentian and his group passed the region of the stone pillars, they continued forward. Very soon, they saw many people gathered in a location before them. They were all standing there and gazing ahead, not daring to move recklessly. When Qin Wentian saw the scene ahead, his heart couldn't help but tremble. Inside Heaven Vault, it truly felt like every step they took would lead to a different world. Previously, it was a stretch of desolation with an ancient pathway with stone pillars. And now, the scene before his eyes was actually a sea. A red-colored sea like a sea of blood. The redness of the sea water was extremely bright.

Near the shore, many bone boats could be seen floating there. Qin Wentian glanced at a stone monument erected at the shoreline. There were words engraved there, "Transforming blood into a sea, using bones as the boat."

Qin Wentian's heart trembled again. Transforming blood into a sea. Using the blood in one's body, transforming into a sea of blood. Using bones as the boat, the floating boats on the blood sea were all constructed from bones.

What sort of place was the Heaven Vault exactly?

Blood as the sea, what does this mean?

"Why don't you guys continue to head forward?" Qin Wentian came over and asked someone at the side. That person glanced at Qin Wentian. This person arrived here earlier than Qin Wentian and also wanted to cross the sea earlier. However, he was hesitating due to something he saw.

"This blood sea is exceeding dangerous. Your blood would also become a part of the blood sea." That expert calmly spoke. Qin Wentian's expression froze. "Did such a scene occur earlier?"

"Yes." That person nodded slowly with a heavy expression. "There was a hegemonic-level world overlord who sat on one of the bone boats, entering the blood sea. It is unknown what he encountered, the bone bone capsized and as he fell into the blood sea, he directly transformed into blood. Not even his bones were left as he died inside."

Qin Wentian's heart pounded violently. The blood sea was actually so terrifying? If the person on the bone boat was a heavenly deity instead and if the boat capsized, what would happen?

"What about heavenly deities?" Qin Wentiaan asked. That person also honestly told Qin Wentian, "Heavenly deities would be suppressed the moment they entered. Earlier, there was a heavenly deity who tried but he was forced to return halfway through his journey. Someone asked him what he experienced but he didn't want to say anything. After some time, that heavenly deity simply turned and departed, not wanting to take any risks."

Jun Mengchen and Qi Yu also walked over. They were waiting at the side and after they heard these words, their hearts both trembled. Jun Mengchen asked, "In that case, although we just entered the Heaven Vault, we already encountered an unknown power capable of threatening heavenly deities so soon? Even a heavenly deity had chosen to retreat, how many more people would dare to traverse this blood sea?"

"It isn't easy for heavenly deities to reach their level. They naturally wouldn't want to risk their lives for some unknown benefits." That person laughed. Qin Wentian understood that this was the truth. For someone who had already reached the deity level, why was there a need for him to take such a risk? If this blood sea truly had the power to kill heavenly deities, most probably many heavenly deities who came here today would immediately choose to leave.

"Dangtian, have you decided?" Over at the Qin Clan's direction, Qin Zheng came as well. He spoke to his son, Qin Dangtian, who was standing beside him.

"Mhm, I'm willing to continue ahead." Qin Dangtian nodded. So what even if the blood sea was before him? In the past, someone from the Qin Clan had succeeded in traversing the blood sea before. Since someone had succeeded, how could he retreat? He was Heaven's Son.

"Good. Since this is the case, go do your best. I shall wait for you back at home." Qin Zheng spoke. Qin Zheng didn't want to enter the blood sea. To him, his cultivation base was already at a very high level and he was also the Qin Clan Leader. There was no need for him to risk it.

Back then when Qin Tiangang and his wife died in the Heaven Vault, his father said that their cultivation then was weaker compared to him now.

Since his son Qin Dangtian had the guts to explore, Qin Zheng naturally would support this.

"There are only places where I don't want to go but there are no places where I cannot go." Qin Dangtian's eyes turned sharp. He glanced at Goddess Nichang who was beside him as a look of tenderness flashed in his eyes. "Nichang, the blood sea is filled with danger. It's best that you don't attempt it. How about waiting for me to return?"

Goddess Nichang shook her head lightly. The Heaven Vault was also the place where her father died in. She wanted to see what secrets are there within exactly.

When he saw Goddess Nichang shaking her head, Qin Dangtian nodded, "Fine then, let's traverse the blood sea together. If there's danger, I will send you back."

As he spoke, he moved forward and stood upon a bone boat. The bone boat floated into the blood sea. Goddess Nichang also stepped upon one. The two of them traveled side by side and resembled an immortal couple.

Many people weren't in a hurry. They wanted to see how Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang would fare. However at this moment, sword intent gushed forth as the sword on Jian Junlai's back was unsheathed, flying towards a bone boat. He took a step forward and stood upon his ancient sword that was now resting on a bone boat. In this blood sea, the bone boats were the only means of transportation.

"Since Qin Dangtian dares to traverse the blood sea, why wouldn't I dare?" Many supreme characters of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms silently mused. Since someone took the lead, they no longer hesitated and chose to step onto a bone boat.

Qin Wentian glanced at Qin Zheng at the shore line only to hear Qin Zheng mumbling in a low voice, "Back then, the things you have accomplished...I did not do so. However, my son will accomplish them in my stead."

After speaking, he turned around and departed.

Some times, he couldn't help but admit that he truly felt impressed by his clan brother Qin Yuanfeng. Despite Qin Yuanfeng's parents dying for many years, he still chose to enter the Heaven Vault when it opened again, not caring about the danger.

"Let's head out too." When Qin Wentian heard Qin Zheng's words, he couldn't help but wonder who Qin Zheng was referring to. Was he referring to his father? Could Qin Yuanfeng also have entered the Heaven Vault before?

Chapter 1879: Entering the Blood Sea

The blood-colored sea, the boats made of bones. Each boat could only contain one person.

Qin Wentian stepped onto a bone boat with no hesitation. Jun Mengchen and Qi Yu also had determined expressions as they stood on his left and right, standing on the bone boats respectively. After that, the three of them floated into the blood sea.

Blood as the sea, bones as boats. Qin Wentian was thinking if this sea was formed from the blood of a supreme expert and the boats here...could they be constructed from the supreme expert's bones?

If it is so, what sort of place is the Heaven Vault exactly?

A suppressive aura permeated the atmosphere. Qin Wentian's bone boat slowly floated into the horizon. The number of experts proceeding gradually increased, influencing the others who were still watching.

Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, Reverend Seven Abstinences, Lin Xiao. Which of them isn't a heaven chosen that radiated magnificence? All of them were willing to take the risk and for many people here, they originally were already inferior to these supreme characters. Since those supreme characters dared to risk it, why wouldn't they dare?

Even the mystical maiden from the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace, and the number one beauty of the Heaven Region Goddess Nichang, both of them also proceeded. What reason did the others have to shrink back in cowardice?

Upon thinking of this, more and more people stepped upon a bone boat. Naturally, there were still many who were hesitating. After all, there were many people here. Experts from the eight regions in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms all gathered here for the opening of the Heaven Vault.

At this moment within the crowd, a white-robed figure stepped forward, exuding an air of elegance and carefreeness. He was handsome and extraordinary, everywhere he passed by, the people there were stunned by his aura and involuntarily opened up a pathway for him. He gave everyone an unfathomable feeling. How could this be? Their cultivation bases were at the world overlord realm after all, they actually involuntarily stepped back to open up a path for this young man when he passed by? This caused them to feel chills in their heart. They stared at the white-robed young man in wonder, how strong was he exactly?

The white-robed young man walked to the shoreline and stared at the monument there.

"Transforming blood into a sea, using bones as the boat." He mumbled in a low voice as a smile appeared on his face. "Interesting."

After speaking, he directly stepped out. A shocking scene then occurred. This young man didn't step on a bone boat, he directly stepped onto the surface of the blood sea as he moved forward. In fact, with a wave of his hand, a torrent of water swirled about. He reached out and touched the water, feeling the energy contained in the blood sea.

"Is it worth it...?" He seemed to know something behind the scenes as he softly spoke. He continued walking further into the distance. This blood sea that could even injure heavenly deities was actually akin to an ordinary sea to him.

"This…" The other experts at the shore all had stunned looks on their faces as fierce waves of emotions rose in their hearts. There were still heavenly deities among those at the shore. Even for them, respect appeared in their hearts. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there was actually such an existence. What was terrifying was that no one seemed to know of the existence of the white-robed young man.

Qin Wentian and the others were currently traversing the blood sea. The traveling speed of world overlords was naturally extremely fast, there was no need to speak about heavenly deities. But on the blood sea, no one dared to travel too quickly. All of them honestly stood upon the white bone boats as they controlled it to slowly float forward on the water's surface. At this moment, the people on the blood sea saw a white-robed figure walking past them, exuding an extremely carefree aura. Great waves of shock rose in their hearts. How could this be? There was actually someone who was traversing the blood sea so easily? From their senses, they could tell that the energy inside this blood sea was able to destroy all living things.

Qin Wentian also saw the white-robed figure and the instant he saw him, his eyes gleamed with a resplendent light. He opened his mouth and wanted to call out a greeting yet he saw the white-robed young man also glancing at him. Although Qin Wentian was in disguise, that white-robed man effortlessly saw through it. The white-robed young man smiled and nodded to Qin Wentian. After that, he simply walked past Qin Wentian's side.

"This man is so terrifying." Jun Mengchen's heart pounded violently. "Senior brother, you know him?"

"I met this senior once before. Since he came here, it's perfectly normal that he is able to do this. The dangers in Heaven Vault might be able to stop heavenly deities but they won't be able to stop him." Qin Wentian replied. Jun Mengchen and Qi Yu by the side froze when they heard that, shocked by Qin Wentian's words. Since Qin Wentian said this, it was clear that he knew how powerful this white-robed young man was.

"Senior, where have you met him before?" Jun Mengchen was filled with curiosity.

"Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, the world of reincarnation. Mengchen, do not reveal this matter to anyone else." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Jun Mengchen. After that, he didn't say anything more. Since this senior wanted to live in seclusion, it would be for the best if Qin Wentian spoke less of his matters.

"Right." Jun Mengchen nodded, understanding that his senior brother might have had a miraculous encounter with this senior before. This senior must be a transcendent character.

Qin Dangtian, who was ahead of Qin Wentian, also saw the white-robed figure. His gaze froze, filled with shock as he called out, "Sir, please hold on."

That white-robed figure turned and casually glanced at Qin Dangtian.

"Sir, how did you manage to do this?" Qin Dangtian asked.

The white-robed figure didn't reply. He turned around and continued on his way. Qin Dangtian stiffened, he was actually disregarded. However, when he saw the white-robed figure easily stepping on the water as he traversed the blood sea, he had no way to say anything. It was highly possible that the strength of this white-robed figure far surpassed his imagination. It's best not to offend him.

Seems like there are still some unknown and extremely powerful existences in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He had to continue to work harder. He could only hope that this trip to Heaven Vault would allow him to make a new breakthrough.

As the experts traveled further, the redness of the blood sea turned deeper. The air above them was tinged with streaks of red as well, illuminating the area. The suppressive atmosphere also grew more and more terrifying.

Up ahead, the blood waves churned wildly, forming giant tides, manifesting a storm of blood. The white-robed figure directly walked through the storm. The blood sea posed no obstruction to him. However, for those experts on the white bone boats, they could feel how dangerous things are.

"Nichang, make sure that you don't leave my side." Qin Dangtian reminded. His expression grew heavier as he regarded the surroundings.

As the sound of his voice faded, many ancient characters manifested around Qin Dangitan, transforming into a screen of protective light that engulfed his and Nichang's bone boats. No matter how wild the blood waves are, they were blocked by the protective light screen, unable to come in contact with Qin Dangtian or Nichang.

The others on the blood sea all encountered the same situation as well. Qin Wentian stared at the churning waves ahead. A screen of isolated space appeared around him, completely swallowing the blood waves that came in contact with it, sending the waves into the void.

As for Jun Mengchen, the phantom of a world appeared, revolving around him protectively. Qi Yu's battle intent surged as battle runes manifested, blocking the blood waves.

All the experts unleashed their own techniques as they continued to traverse the blood sea.

The storm ahead grew more and more terrifying, the churning waves slammed over, containing immense might. Some defensive measures of the experts on the blood sea were completely overwhelmed by the power of the blood sea. Their defensive measures crumbled away as their expressions changed.

"Careful!" Qin Dangtian's expression grew increasingly heavy.

"Nichang, the blood sea contains a power that can corrode everything. Let me send you back, okay?" Qin Dangtian spoke to Goddess Nichang. Even for him, his defensive light screen was in the midst of being corroded.

"No need." Goddess Nichang had a determined look on her face. Blood as the ocean, bones as the boat. There would surely be a way to get through this obstacle.

At this moment, within the blood sea, numerous streams of black-colored air flow suddenly gushed towards the experts on the blood sea. These blood-colored air flows directly penetrated their protection, allowing the blood waves to flow onto the white bone boats.

Up ahead, the treasure light surrounding Reverend Seven Abstinences had completely faded away. His position was the furthest ahead. Gradually, the blood waves submerged the white bone boat he was on and the boat started to sink down. The sight of this caused the hearts of those experts behind him to sink as well.

Reverend Seven Abstinences was already a heavenly deity. What would he choose to do.

Only to see at this moment, Seven Abstinences pressed his palms together and chanted a buddhist verse. After that, he resolutely gave up on the bone boat as he chose to sink into the blood sea. When his legs came in contact with the blood sea, they gradually turned illusory and vanished bit by bit. For every inch of his body sank into the water, that part of his body would become a part of the blood sea.

"This…" The experts behind had terror on their faces. Reverend Seven Abstinences was a heavenly deity. Even he was unable to block the corrosion of the blood sea? Doesn't this mean that everyone here would perish in the blood sea today?

Finally, Reverend Seven Abstinences completely vanished into the blood sea. A beam of buddhic light flashed from the depths of the blood sea, like the sarira of Buddhism.

"Reverend Seven Abstinences, is he abandoning his physical form (body) to seek the dao?" Someone asked in a trembling voice. Behind, there were several people who decided to turn back. They didn't wish to take the risk.

"Nichang." Qin Dangtian stared at Goddess Nichang. Goddess Nichang's expression was still as calm as water. Her beautiful eyes held no fear as she directly stepped out of her white bone boat, entering the blood sea.

"NICHANG!" Qin Dangtian called out loudly. However, Nichang didn't care about him. Her body entered the blood sea and she encountered the same situation as Reverend Seven Abstinences. Her body gradually become part of the blood sea as she vanished. The people behind felt their hearts trembling even fiercer when they saw this. The number one beauty in the Heaven Region Goddess Nichang was going to die just like this?

"Wait." Qin Dangtian's eyes flashed. The Pureland of Bliss was one of the strongest hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. There are many secret tomes recorded there, and there might be some records about the Heaven Vault. As for Nichang, her father entered the Heaven Vault before and she might know of some secrets. Entering the blood sea with their bodies might not lead to death.

As he thought of this, Qin Dangtian's eyes flashed with resolution. He gave up the protection of his light screen and stepped out of the bone boat, entering the blood sea. Even Nichang dared to do this, what does he, Qin Dangtian, have to fear?

"Has everyone gone mad?" The experts behind all felt that this scene before their eyes was unbelievable. These people were all crazy.

Qin Wentian naturally saw what happened. Reverend Seven Abstinences, Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, Goddess Nichang. Which of them weren't characters that exuded magnificence? Yet, they all actually chose to step off their bone boats and directly enter the blood sea. Would this choice really lead to a path of death?

If it is a path of death, how did people in the past manage to get through this obstacle? Although the Heaven Vault was dangerous and heavenly deities might die within, but according to the ancient records in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, as long as one was more cautious, the probability of surviving was still very high. This blood sea wasn't truly a path of death.

Upon thinking of this, he spoke. "Uncle Yu, Mengchen. You guys should make your own choices."

After speaking, he completely gave up on resisting and let the white bone boat sink down. His body also sank into the blood sea!

Chapter 1880: The Other Shore

Qin Wentian's body sank into the blood sea. He could sense his body gradually disappearing, turning into the void. When he completely entered the blood sea, he could sense that his flesh no longer existed. Only his soul was left.

The blood sea is able to corrode one's body but it would leave the soul untouched?" Qin Wentian mused to himself. As long as one's soul remained, they could always reconstruct their body. If their souls don't die, they wouldn't die.

The white bone boat continued to sink into the endless depths of the blood sea. Qin Wentian's soul sank as well while floating forward. Even though only his soul was left, he still wanted to traverse this blood sea.

The Heaven Vault was even able to provide enough attraction to cause heavenly deities to risk their lives. There would surely be some secrets within. However, it wouldn't be so easy to come in contact with those secrets.

Up ahead in the blood sea, a black-colored stream of air flowed towards Qin Wentian's ethereal soul. It was none other than the substance that corroded the defenses of everyone on the blood sea earlier. This black-colored air flow now actually transformed into the shape of a human. His eyes were black, filled with an intense evil like an evil spirit. After that, not only was there a single evil spirit, Qin Wentian saw that more strands of the black-colored air flow manifesting and becoming evil spirits before lunging at his soul together.

A bright light radiated from Qin Wentian's soul, unleashed by his astral souls, wanting to block the evil energies from these evil spirits. However, when the evil spirits rushed over, they instantly devoured the astral light radiating from him. Countless black-colored evil spirits lunged towards his soul and at this moment, Qin Wentian only felt his soul being devoured bit by bit. Terror appeared in his heart. These evil spirits actually caused him to feel fear. His consciousness was growing dimmer by the second.

"Have I died?" Qin Wentian felt his consciousness blurring. After that, it felt like he had died but a remnant of his soul returned to Ancient Azure Mystic and was floating in the airspace there.

He saw Qing`er, Qingcheng, Ye Qianyu, Beiming Youhuang, Bai Qing. All of them were waiting for him, day after day, year after year. But ultimately, he didn't return to them as he had already died.

It was like he could see Qing`er cutting off her white hair as her heart turned to ashes. He could see Qingcheng's heart falling into utter despair.

His consciousness floated towards the Demon God Mountain. He saw his grandfather and Leier and after they learned of his death, Leier cried while his grandfather stared up at the sky and sighed. His uncle suffered the sorrow silently. Everything has concluded. No one would be able to take revenge for his parents. No one would take care of his wives. They had to remain in the world and endure endless suffering. Such terror caused him to feel despair, further weakening his will. He didn't want to watch this any longer as he couldn't stand the sights of his loved ones acting like this.

"Since I can see all of this, this indicated that my will still exists. I have not died completely." Qin Wentian bolstered his weakening will and with a great force, he managed to pull himself back to the blood sea. Countless evil spirits were invading his soul but right now, Qin Wentian's will was extremely tough. His soul continued to float forward, ignoring the negative emotions from the evil spirits, not bothered by them.

These evil spirits formed from the black-colored air flow weren't true evil spirits that could destroy one's soul and wipe one's will. They were like spirit bodies formed from negative emotions, they were ethereal and would bring terror and despair to everyone, wanting the people in the blood sea to remain trapped here in their illusions forever.

Qin Wentian's soul continued forward, more and more evil spirits lunged over at him. But because of his earlier experience, his will no longer wavered as he resolutely continued on his way.

Not only for Qin Wentian, everyone who entered the blood sea would encounter the attacks from these evil spirits.

Right now, Goddess Nichang was also surrounded by countless evil spirits. Her ethereal soul radiated a holy light, but there were tear stains from the eyes of her soul. She gritted her teeth and continued to resist while moving forward.

In the blood sea, Qin Wentian didn't know how many people have chosen to enter here. In any case, he wasn't able to help them either. He could only depend on his strong will to resist everything.

He believed that there would be a day where he walked out of the blood sea.

However, despite so, Qin Wentian's resolute conviction still actually wavered after a period of time. As more time flowed by, he felt that he had already spent centuries traversing the blood sea. However, the blood sea seemed boundlessly vast, like there was no end to it. He would never be able to exit this place to reach the other shore.

The evil spirits formed from the black-colored air flow continuously tried to invade his soul, bringing with them all sorts of negative emotions. A day, two days; a year, two years... Qin Wentian felt that he had already been traversing the blood sea for a very very long time. However, there was no end to this at all. He kept telling himself to guard his original heart, not allowing his will to waver and he would be able to leave here sooner or later. Maybe, tomorrow would be the day where he reached the other shore.

Hope rose up, only to turn into disappointment. After countless cycles, despair became steeped in his heart.

The blood sea was still the blood sea, it felt like he had never moved from his original location at all, like he kept pacing about in a fixed location. However, in reality, tens of years have already passed and he simply continued walking forward. Only he himself knew how much despair there was in his heart. Also, fear kept building up as well.

Such immense amounts of fear and despair was sufficient to cause one's heart to completely collapse.

He involuntarily thought of Qing`er, Qingcheng, Ye Qianyu again. Everytime he felt close to giving up, he would think about them, drawing support from his memories of them as he continued on forward.

However, the despair seemed eternal. Despair was able to destroy one's conviction bit by bit. Another unknown amount of years passed and he was still in the blood sea. If this continued on, even if one day he finally managed to exit the blood sea, how many years would have passed?

Qin Wentian was tired, he truly felt fatigued and wanted to give up, allowing himself to die here.

His will slowly dissipated, no longer able to persist. But at this moment, he suddenly shivered, feeling coldness in the depths of his soul. In an instant, all illusions seemed to vanish as he broke free from the depression. His soul was still currently being invaded by many evil spirits. Those hundred years of despair seemed to be nothing but a dream.

The evil spirits not only could bring terror, they could also bring despair. These evil spirits in the blood sea would cause negative emotions of their targets to magnify, causing their wills to collapse.

"Too terrifying." Qin Wentian shuddered. Unknowingly, these evil spirits could cause one to sink into their nightmares, unable to extricate themselves. When you thought you broke free from the illusions and came back to reality, you discovered that the reality was still an illusion.

Qin Wentian continued ahead. After some time, he saw a flawlessly beautiful figure before him. It was none other than the soul of Goddess Nichang. She was currently struggling, it felt like she had also sank into the despair and terror which engulfed him earlier. Qin Wentian's soul floated forward, he sent a strand of soul force into Goddess Nichang's world of despair as their souls formed a connection.

"It's you?" Goddess Nichang's beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian.

"It's me. The evil spirits within the blood sea have the power to bewilder the minds of people entering it. They can cause negative emotions and fill the hearts of people with despair and terror." Qin Wentian spoke. "Don't be affected by it."

Goddess Nichang's beautiful eyes flashed and after that, it seemed that she managed to break free from the despair. Her soul shuddered. After that, her beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian. "Thank you, let's travel together from now on."

"Sure." Qin Wentian nodded as the two of them traveled together, continuing to traverse the blood sea. However, they still couldn't reach the other end despite after a long time. During the journey, they met with many dangers and had to continuously resist the influences from the evil spirits.

"Will we be trapped here forever, unable to exit?" Goddess Nichang stared at Qin Wentian.

"I don't think so." Qin Wentian shook his head. At this moment, Goddess Nichang suddenly stretched out a dainty hand and pulled on Qin Wentian's arm as she softly spoke. "I'm already very tired and wish to give up."

Qin Wentian's arm trembled a little. He stared at Goddess Nichang, "Even if this blood sea truly has no other shore, we will still be able to exit it."

"I'm really tired. Can you stay here and accompany me?" Goddess Nichang moved closer to Qin Wentian, wanting to lean against him. Upon seeing this scene, Qin Wentian closed his eyes and sighed, "Ultimately, is this still an illusion? Can it be that the evil spirits are able to trap me in unending layers of illusion unceasingly?"

When he opened his eyes again, Goddess Nichang wasn't here at all. Everything was false. Earlier, there was despair and terror. What is this now? Are these the lust and greed in his heart?

Goddess Nichang was the number one beauty of the Heaven Region and had a period of interaction with Qin Wentian before. If Qin Wentian said that he didn't feel the slightest bit of lust towards her, that was absolutely impossible. In the depths of everyone's heart, there would always be lust and greed. The only question was how intense are those emotions? Qin Wentian didn't really have any nefarious intents towards Nichang but at the bottom of his heart, lust still existed however slight. The evil spirits actually found the lust and created that illusion earlier.

"Blood as the sea, bones as the boat." Qin Wentian mumbled. He no longer wished to continue traveling ahead. There were a countless number of evil spirits. Now, he couldn't even differentiate between reality and fantasy.

"Since this is the case, I shall use my soul as the boat, my will as the sea. The blood sea won't be able to impede me." Qin Wentian murmured. His soul was as though it transformed into the form of a boat. His powerful will integrated with the blood sea and protected the soul boat, guiding it forward, allowing the evil intents from the evil spirits to invade, ignoring them. He no longer used the blood sea as a medium to travel forward. He depended solely on his will.

And after a very very long time, Qin Wentian felt a gentle breeze blowing past him. He opened his eyes, feeling extremely comfortable. Right now, he has already reached the other shore. Stepping forward, as his foot touched the shoreline, he discovered that his soul was undamaged, his flesh was present as well. It was like everything he experienced earlier was just an illusion. Yet, the blood sea behind him still seemed so real.

But no matter what, he reached the other shore.

On the other shore, only a few people were there. It was a huge contrast compared to the starting shore of the blood sea.

Among these people, there were: Sword Monarch Jian Junlai, Reverend Seven Abstinences and Hua Taixu.

Hua Taixu actually also managed to traverse the blood sea with such a quick speed. What he cultivated was the laws of samsara. He could see through the cycle of reincarnation itself, all these illusions would never be able to obstruct him!

"Blood as the sea, bones as the boat. All the evil spirits manifesting the evil intents in the hearts of everyone. Could this Heaven Vault be…?" Reverend Seven Abstinences mumbled in a low voice, thinking of a possibility. After that, his heart couldn't help but tremble violently, filled with great waves of shock!

Chapter 1881: Secret of Heaven Vault

Jian Junlai stared at Seven Abstinences, "What did you think of?"

"The many evil spirits in the blood ocean, they can ignite despair, rage, fear, lust, all sorts of negative emotions in the hearts of humans. Are all these not the distracting thoughts that obstruct our states of heart from evolving further?" Seven Abstinences softly spoke, "Blood as the ocean, bones as the boat. Our negative thoughts are the things that formed the evil spirits."

"Good conjecture." Jian Junlai's eyes flashed. If this was really the case, who was that white-robed young man? What sort of existence was it. His cultivation base should be unfathomable.

At this moment, more and more figures arrived at the other shore. There were heavenly deities and world overlords. Some of the world overlords had wills strong enough that they wouldn't lose out compared to heavenly deities. Qin Dangtian appeared, Goddess Nichang whom Qin Wentian interacted with in the illusion also appeared, both of them had managed to exit the blood sea.

"What's up ahead?" Many people glanced ahead, there seemed to be another ancient path there. There were already people walking towards it, continuing to probe ahead.

Qin Wentian didn't immediately set foot on the ancient path. He chose to wait here. After a period of time, Jun Mengchen and Qi Yu also walked out from the blood sea and only then did Qin Wentian set his heart at ease. Jun Mengchen's personality was free and unconstrained, but his will was extremely sturdy, he was able to subdue all negative emotions given how exuberant he was. His comprehension was also at a very high level. As for Qi Yu, after obtaining the Battle Saint Bone, his entire being has undergone a transformation. Right now, his only goal was to recover the glory of the past for his tribe.

"So dangerous." Jun Mengchen directly complained when he exited. "The blood sea is too dangerous. I kept thinking that it was reality but everything was just illusions. I was unable to extricate myself and at the end, there was even a flawless beauty that asked me to stay with her forever."

"Eh…" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. He then asked, "Who is that flawless beauty?"

Since that figure existed in Jun Mengchen's imagination, it should have been based on the truth.

"I don't think I know her." Jun Mengchen shook his head. Qin Wentian stared at him, he also didn't know if his junior brother was telling him the truth.

"Let's leave." Qin Wentian spoke. The three of them walked towards the ancient path. They have yet to come in contact with any of the Heaven Vault's secrets.

As they advanced, they saw a corpse on the ground. This corpse has already been here for countless years but it has not rotted away yet and seemed to be in perfect condition. However, the inner organs of this body were cleanly penetrated through, this should be the cause of his death. The corpse stood straight there on the path unmovingly, radiating an imposing might. The blood in his body had long ran dry, runes could also be seen on his bones, resembling incomplete dao bones.

"This…" Qi Yu stared at the corpse as shock filled his heart.

"The corpse of a heavenly deity." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. "This man can't be considered dying to the environment here in the Heaven Vault. The cause of his death seemed to be from a fight."

The Heaven Vault was a secret realm of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and had opened quite a few times before in the past. There would naturally be experts of past eras entering here. It's very normal for combat between those who entered to erupt.

"There's a stone monument." At this moment, Qi Yu spoke out. Qin Wentian and Jun Mengchen glanced at the side. There was actually a stone monument with the words 'Heaven Vault' engraved on it.

Could this pathway be the origin of the Heaven Vault? It would lead to the true Heaven Vault?

Beside the words 'Heaven Vault,' another row of words could be seen, "The path of god ascension, the path of godsfall."

Ascension and falling?

Many people stopped here, feeling their hearts shuddering when they saw the words. Those experts who reached here earlier didn't continue to advance. Clearly, they were filled with trepidation when they saw these words.

Godsfall. This undoubtedly meant that heavenly deities (gods) also had the possibility to die here. Nobody knew what was going to be up ahead.

"This pathway has already opened, there's no need to worry so much. Just walk through it." At the end of the pathway, a voice drifted over. This voice seemed to contain a magical power, causing people to involuntarily believe his words.

The pathway has already opened, there's no need to worry too much? Does this mean that the danger up ahead has already been eliminated?

"It's him." Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. It was that mysterious white-robed senior he met before in the legendary place. He had eliminated the danger on this ancient pathway, allowing everyone else to continue advancing so they would be able to seek the secrets of Heaven Vault.

"Let's go." Qin Wentian spoke. He had complete trust in the white-robed young man. This was an expert that has transcended the world. Since he said that the pathway has already been opened by him, there was no need to doubt his words.

Seeing Qin Wentian's group advancing, the other experts here weren't willing to fall behind too. Also after the voice drifted over, many people recalled the scene earlier where the mysterious white-robed young man strode through the blood sea with absurd ease. It might be him who cleared the danger for them.

Hence, this ancient pathway leading to the true Heaven Vault that has obstructed countless people in the past, was easily 'opened up' by the mysterious white-robed young man. Those who passed the blood sea and reached this point were all able to proceed forward. Naturally, only extraordinary characters would be able to arrive here. Ordinary characters would be stumped by the first two trials.

However, they knew that since this ancient pathway also had the name of Godsfall, the danger here was undoubtedly multiple times higher compared to the blood sea. This pathway might be the reason why experts from the past eras failed to properly probe the Heaven Vault completely, causing Heaven Vault to still be so mysterious.

But this time, since an extraordinary expert had aided them, things might be different now.

Everyone's heart was filled with yearning as they continued to advance. As they moved forward, they could see several corpses on the ground. These corpses haven't rotted despite the passage of countless years and some of them even exuded a tyrannical yet incomplete dao might. It was extremely terrifying. Many of these corpses were corpses of heavenly deities.

It was unknown how long Heaven Vault has existed for. Most probably, ever since it existed, for each opening, there would be countless experts coming here to probe the secrets within. Through the years, countless generations of experts would have entered. The number of those who died within would naturally not be little.

The sky gradually turned dark, the day and night seemed to merge. The expressions of everyone on the ancient pathway grew increasingly heavier as they could faintly sense that this pathway might lead them to an extraordinary place.

Finally, daylight vanished completely. The ancient path transformed into a path of night. The starlight from above illuminated the surroundings, allowing the experts to continue forward.

"Bathump…" The heartbeats of everyone could be heard. This space was completely and incomparably silent and the atmosphere felt a little weird. No one said anything, only the sounds of their heartbeats rang out. Many people could no longer control their emotions because they discovered that the pathway was no longer in the territory of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The pathway was gradually leading them towards the starry skies.

"Heaven Vault!"

Many people involuntarily thought of these two words. Heaven Vault, the vault containing the secrets of the heavens.

There seemed to be no end to the path, it directly spanned across the sky. The stars around them grew increasingly resplendent and above them, layers of heavenly astral rivers that were boundlessly vast appeared. Each heavenly astral river contained countless constellations within them.

"The nine heavenly layers." The hearts of everyone trembled violently. This was the first time they were so close to the nine heavenly layers, the nine flowing astral rivers felt to be within inches of them. Right now, they have completely arrived above the heavens. There was no need for them to use their perception to sense the constellations, they could see the different heavenly layers with their own eyes, as well as the countless constellations within them.

"My constellation is over there." Someone could sense the constellations they formed a connection with, as their heart trembled.

"BOOM!" A figure soared up into the air, flying straight towards the nine heavenly layers. This person was none other than Sword Monarch Jian Junlai. His speed was like a supreme sword beam, fast to the extreme. The crowd only saw him flying towards a constellation. His figure gradually grew smaller and although the constellations appeared very close to them, the crowd understood that the distance between them and the constellations were still unimaginably far because the starry space was simply too large. After sometime, Jian Junlai could be seen approaching a constellation that was in the form of a sword.

The constellations in the nine heavenly layers were of all shapes and sizes.

"Path of god ascension." Many people recalled the introduction on the stone monument as their hearts pounded unceasingly.

"Father." Qin Dangtian wasn't in a hurry to fly towards the nine heavenly layers. He took out his messaging crystal and sent a voice transmission to Qin Zheng.

"Dang`er, what's the matter?" Qin Zheng asked.

"A mysterious expert appeared in Heaven Vault, he managed to resolve the dangers of the ancient path and should have already obtained some secrets of this place. At the end of Heaven Vault, the nine heavenly layers can be seen, we are so close to them that they feel as though they are only inches apart from us." Qin Dangtian spoke.

"Father, you should immediately send experts from the Qin Clan over. The first trial of the Heaven Vault cannot stop the experts of our clan. As for the second trial, it is a sea of blood, the blood sea can create illusions and would magnify the negative emotions in one's heart. As long as the people entering the blood sea have a strong enough will and banish the fear in their hearts, they would be able to traverse it. As for the third trial, it is an ancient path with the name of either path of god ascension or path of godsfall. However, it has already been opened by that mysterious expert."

Qin Zheng, despite his state of heart as a heavenly deity, couldn't help but feel his heart trembling when he heard what his son said. After that, he replied, "I will immediately mobilize experts from our clan and head towards Heaven Vault."

After keeping his messaging crystal, Qin Zheng was thinking about Qin Tiangang and Qin Yuanfeng. Back then when they entered Heaven Vault, how far did they manage to go?

Not only Qin Dangtian, the various heaven chosen and geniuses all informed their respective sects and clans about this. For a period of time, great waves of commotion shook the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Countless powers in the eight regions received this news and immediately sent out their experts to the Heaven Region, heading for the Heaven Vault in Boundless City.

"A storm will soon rise up in the immortal realms." Many people silently mused. The Heaven Vault was actually a passageway leading to the nine heavenly layers. Now that the secret was revealed, it was unknown how many experts would rush over.

Qin Wentian also took out his messaging crystal and informed his grandfather. But whether his grandfather would come or not, he had no idea.

Staring at the ancient path and staring at the constellations in the sky, Qin Wentian was thinking how far did his paternal grandfather, Qin Tiangang, walk to before he fell.

Did he die on the ancient path?

However, with regards to the corpses on the ancient pathway, he didn't see anyone resembling him or his father's features. If he truly saw his grandfather, given his current cultivation base today, he would surely be able to feel something.

Qin Wentian turned his head back and glanced at the ancient pathway. This path was able to lead to the nine heavens. Qin Wentian was very clear in his heart what this indicated. This meant that this ancient path was formed from the absolute dao of space, allowing those who traversed it to ignore actual distance. The essence of the dao of space was concentrated on the ancient path, resulting in it becoming a bridge to the nine heavenly layers. The proficiency one must reach in order to use the spatial laws to this extent...Qin Wentian completely had no idea how to imagine it!

Chapter 1882: A Finger Shattering a Constellation

All the figures stared at the ancient path in the sky. From behind, more and more experts arrived and when those who just arrived saw the scene before them, their hearts and souls couldn't help but shudder.

What's even more terrifying was that they have not reached the end of the ancient path yet. It felt like this ancient pathway could really allow one to pass through starry space that was without end, acting as a bridge that connected the mortal world to the nine heavenly layers.

For the person who created this ancient pathway, how high must his cultivation base be?

At this moment, numerous figures soared into the air, flying towards the constellations. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, they had visited many particle worlds and entered many astral mines. It was said that the Yuan Meteor Stones and the various ranked cultivation stones all existed because they fell from the constellations in the sky. And now, they were actually only a step away from the constellations in the nine heavenly layers.

"It's rumored that there are heavenly deities who spent countless years to explore the starry space, seeking the path to reach the nine heavenly layers. Who would have thought that the answer to that lies in Heaven Vault." An expert exclaimed in shock. In the ancient records of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there were a few people who have succeeded before. These were all heavenly deities with extremely resolute wills. They wanted to see for themselves the nine heavenly layers personally. However, it was rumored that they had to spend countless years before they could reach there.

Only a relative few heavenly deities had determination strong enough to achieve this. To heavenly deities, their perception could already reach the nine heavenly layers. There was no need for them to waste countless years to explore the starry space. Or maybe, only when one reached a certain level, for heavenly deities who wished to seek a higher realm, would they have such thoughts.

But now, all of them actually arrived here. Who could control their emotions and not cause their hearts to tremble?

"Nichang, let's go towards the sea of constellations." Qin Dangtian walked to Goddess Nichang's side. Goddess Nichang was staring at the ancient pathway. Did her father die on it.

"You can go ahead." Goddess Nichang softly spoke, her beautiful eyes still staring at the ancient pathway.

"Alright then. Send a voice transmission to me if anything happens." Qin Dangtian nodded. After that, his silhouette flashed as he soared towards the constellations.

"Senior brother, I also feel like taking a look there." Jun Mengchen's heart thrummed with desire. No matter who it was, they wouldn't be able to endure the thirst in their hearts for their constellations. After all, their astral souls which were manifested from the constellations in the nine heavenly layers were the origin of their cultivations.

"Go on ahead, search for the constellations you want to find." Qin Wentian nodded. "Uncle Yu, you should go as well. This is a type of good fortune."

"Mhm." Qi Yu nodded. Qi Yu then soared into the air. After that, Qin Wentian also flew towards the constellations, with the intention of seeking a specific one.

All the experts here respectively flew in different directions, wanting to probe the secrets of their constellations.

"How did you guys arrive at this place?" At this moment, a thunderous voice rang out through the air. In the starry space, a gigantic face appeared. An instant later, rumbling might permeated the atmosphere, causing the expressions of everyone to be filled with shock and fear. The gigantic face was actually even larger than the constellations. It was simply too frightening.

"Senior, we came here through the Heaven Vault." Someone replied. This person who replied was a heavenly deity but even so, he still addressed the gigantic face as senior. From this, one could tell how powerful the gigantic face was.

"I naturally know that you guys come from the pathway in the Heaven Vault. However, how can the path of godsfall be so easily traversed? The vast majority of you basically aren't worthy to come here at all." That figure spoke coldly. "Once, I had to give everything up before I can reached the end of the Heaven Vault Pathway to arrive here. I even narrowly died. But you guys came here so easily? How did you all manage to do so?"

Evidently, this person felt extremely unhappy about it.

The hearts of everyone trembled. This expert should be an ancient heavenly deity who came here to probe the secret of Heaven Vault.

"I brought them here." At this moment, another voice drifted through the air. The white-robed figure stood among the stars. His figure appeared very tiny before the gigantic face but as he stood there, everyone could clearly see him.

"Who are you? Why are you doing this? Are you trying to destroy the rules of Heaven Vault?" The gigantic face coldly asked.

"Since there is such a place like this that can allow cultivators of the world to come in contact with a higher level of cultivation, allowing them to gain deeper insights from the original sources, why is there a need to lock the ancient pathway leading to here?" The white-robed young man calmly spoke. Clearly, he felt that the ancient pathway should be free for everyone to enter.

"What an individual with a magnanimous heart. In that case, what did all the sacrifices I made back then count for? Since they originally wouldn't be able to reach here without your help, I want them all to die!" The gigantic face coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, terror filled the hearts of everyone. This ancient heavenly deity actually wanted their lives.

"What if I disagree?" That white-robed figure calmly asked.

"You should go to hell then." The gigantic face replied. In the next instant, the gigantic face fused itself to a constellation. The light radiating from the constellation directly engulfed the young man in white. After that, the power of the great dao flooded out, wanting to destroy the white-robed young man.

"Since this is the case, I will strip everything from you." The white-robed young man watched everything calmly. He took a step out, allowing the radiance from the constellation to engulf him freely yet no matter what the ancient heavenly deity did, he wasn't able to injure the white-robed young man at all. The crowd saw the white-robed figure directly speeding forward towards the gigantic face that has fused with the constellation.

"GO AND DIE!" The ancient heavenly deity roared in rage. Overwhelming amounts of destructive might gushed forth as the entirety of astral energy within the constellation was released. Streaks of flowing light that could penetrate everything shot out with great speed yet they were unable to pierce the white-robed young man's body. The white-robed young man merely calmly raised a finger and pointed it at the constellation.

In the next moment, a beam of light that could tear the world asunder blasted into the gigantic face that was fused with the constellation. At this moment, under the gazes filled with terror of everyone here, cracks actually appeared on the constellation, gradually widening as the gigantic face contorted in pain and agony. He howled in disbelief, "No, this is impossible! I can control this constellation, and I've already fused with it. How did you do this?!"

"I can control everything in this universe. Your heart isn't worthy to obtain the dao." The white-robed figure stated. In the next moment, the constellation shattered as countless numbers of ever-widening cracks spread through the constellation. It transformed into many fragments of rocks that fell down from the air.

"NO!" That person let out a howl of despair. He had cultivated here for many years, was he going to die so easily like this? No, he didn't want to accept this!

On the ancient heaven vault pathway, all the experts who were flying to their respective constellations all personally witnessed this scene. Great waves of shock filled their hearts, this shock was something indescribable by words.

In this world, there actually was an expert who could shatter a constellation with a single finger.

He said that he could control everything in this universe.

He said that the heart of that man wasn't worthy enough to obtain the dao. Hence, he acted. Using a single finger to shatter the constellation.

At this moment, even heavenly deities here had the urge to prostrate themselves at his feet in worship. If they were deities, what sort of existence was the white-robed young man? Could he be a godking? A king among deities, the lord of everything.

Qin Wentian drew in a deep breath. This mysterious white-robed young man he met in the legendary place of the sacred academy was actually so powerful to this extent. It was like he had already transcended everything. When would he be able to reach this level?

He said he could control this universe. He also once told him that humans can triumph over the heavens, the heavenly dao was merely a type of power from humans. Were constellations the origin of everyone's strength? But, he could shatter a constellation with a single finger.

"There are already many astral miens in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. With that strike earlier, I'm afraid even more astral mines would appear in the near future. Could it be that all astral mines were born like this?" Qin Wentian felt somewhat ridiculous, this sounded a little impossible. If one were to say that experts in the past eras fought among the sea of stars and the aftershocks of their battles caused constellations to shatter, allowing fragments of the constellations to become astral mines in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it might still be somewhat plausible. But shattering a constellation with a single finger? From the past up until now, there shouldn't be any case like this, right?

"This is the cultivation realm I wish to attain." Qin Dangtian stared at the white-robed figure. At this moment, a wild look of yearning could be seen in his eyes. If he reached such a level, who in the world would still be qualified to be his enemy? He would probably be able to proclaim himself king of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms - the Supreme Ancient Godking.

All the experts here clenched their fists tightly. It seemed that the heavenly deity realm wasn't the limit. The path of the great dao was still very long.

After the white-robed young man shattered the constellation, his figure flashed as he departed the area. He exuded an air of casualness and was graceful as ever like everything in the world was so simple to him, able to be solved with the effort exerted by a single finger.

Qin Wentian drew in a deep breath as he continued flying towards his target constellation. His purpose was the same as Jian Junlai, they both wanted to seek out sword-form constellations. However, when Qin Wentian flew near, he could feel a startling sword might gushing forth from the constellation, wanting to slash him apart.

Once, when he depended on his perception to condense astral souls from the constellations in the heavenly layers, he could feel the immense pressure exerted by the constellations. But now, it was his true body that approached the constellations. The heaviness of the pressure he felt was countless times more intense. With an intention of his will, he absorbed a strand of astral light that was radiating from that constellation. Although he wasn't going to condense an astral soul from this sword-form constellation, even that he was at such a close distance, he could still absorb sword-attributed energy from this.

The closer he flew, the more intense the sword intent from the constellation was. Qin Wentian faintly sensed that the dao of swords could be comprehended here. But naturally, the closer he got to it, the more dangerous things would be.

"When sensing the constellation using perception when we are so far below it, the feeling truly cannot be compared to right now when we are sensing the constellation's energy with our true bodies." Qin Wentian silently mused. A corona of sword light revolved around him. He allowed the sword rivers formed from sword energy of the constellation to cascade down onto his body, but they weren't able to pierce through him.

Finally, Qin Wentian's body arrived on top of the constellation. Every inch of the constellation's body contained shocking sword intent that faintly hinted at the dao of swords!

Chapter 1883: Mother of the Qin Clan

Qin Wentian stood on the constellation. He could sense traces of the dao of the sword all around him, which were akin to heavenly might. The entirety of the sword-form constellation radiated it. At this moment, Qin Wentian truly understood. So it turned out after they formed an innate connection with the respective constellations and condensed their astral souls, the energy they gained access to was the most basic form of astral energy. Only after they stepped into a high enough realm would they be able to gain access to the full power of the constellation, the so-called power of heavenly dao.

Each constellation contained a different type of heavenly dao might.

Qin Wentian stared at the nine heavenly layers, at the boundless starry space. He involuntarily fell into a daze. If each and every one of the constellations here could represent the might of the heavenly dao, how were the countless constellations in the nine heavenly layers born? Did they exist even before humans appeared? This universe was truly marvelous. He couldn't help but wonder if he would be able to probe such secrets when he reached the cultivation realm of the white-robed young man.

However, Qin Wentian could understand what it meant for them to come here. It meant that for each of them, they would have the opportunity to sense different types of heavenly dao, the power of heavenly deities. This time, it was definitely sufficient to send the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms into a frenzy. He could already anticipate that for experts at the world overlord realm and above, they would surely rush over to the Heaven Vault.

And just like what he expected, right now after the various powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms obtained the news, all of them set out, heading towards the Boundless Ocean. After that, the news further circulated to the other weaker powers in all areas of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, causing an unprecedented commotion of immense magnitude. The legendary Heaven Vault could actually connect the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to the nine heavenly layers.

The people outside were in a frenzy, it was the same for the experts currently inside Heaven Vault as well. After they perceived the energy contained within the constellations, all of them started to cultivate assiduously. They knew that this was a bout of heaven-defying opportunity. Regardless to world overlords or heavenly deities, this was an extremely rare chance for them.

Qin Wentian immersed himself in comprehending the energy from his chosen constellation and solidified his insights, integrating them with his prior understandings. He felt that he was getting closer and closer to the heavenly deity realm. Maybe this trip to the Heaven Vault would be the opportunity he needed to break through.

Cultivation wasn't a thing where one could succeed in it overnight. When the experts in the Heaven Vault were all cultivating, the other experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms all arrived one after another. They were all peak characters, extremely powerful world overlords and heavenly deities. Although the third trial which is the path of godsfall has already been 'opened up' by the mysterious young man in white, the first two trials were still in place. Ordinary characters wouldn't be able to pass them.

Those experts from the peak powers naturally arrived here quickly. This was especially so for the powers in Heaven Region. The Qin Clan, Qiankun Sect, Nine Heavens Mystic Palace, etc… All of them were the first to arrive after the first batch of experts and each peak power also sent out a huge group of people, including several heavenly deities. After all, since Heaven Vault could allow them to reach the nine heavenly layers personally, it was naturally an attraction for heavenly deities.

Qin Zheng led the experts of the Qin Clan here, even his wife came. His wife was extremely beautiful and was also a heavenly deity. Back then, she was one of those with the highest talent among the younger generations of the Qin Clan. During his youth, even Qin Yuanfeng had also once fallen in love with her. Just by simply standing there, no one would dare to stare at her directly for fear of profaning her beauty.

"Dang`er." The woman stared at Qin Dangtian, her beautiful eyes contained a hint of gentleness as she stared at her son. Qin Dangtian had always been her pride.

"Mother, you also came?" Qin Dangtian's figure flashed as he sped over.

"Mhm, I've always wanted to see for myself what sort of place the nine heavenly layers are. Now that there's such an opportunity, I naturally wanted to come. There are many elders who came here as well." The woman smiled.

"Oh, did grandfather come as well?" Qin Dangtian asked.

"Your grandfather is still in closed-door seclusion, we didn't disturb him. Since the Heaven Vault is already opened, there would still be opportunities for him to come in the future." Qin Zheng spoke as Qin Dangtian nodded.

Qin Zheng then stepped forward. He stared at the resplendent constellations above from the nine heavenly layers as he sighed in his heart. Back then, both Qin Yuanfeng and his father also came here. Did they ever reach this place?

They should have succeeded. Also, back then the supreme treasure Qin Tiangang obtained should have originated from here. But they had no idea how that supreme treasure ended up in Qin Yuanfeng's hand.

This matter has always been a secret of the Qin Clan. Only a very few peak powers on the same level as the Qin Clan knew of some of these matters.

Behind him, more and more experts came. Qin Zheng glanced back for a look, the woman in the lead for this group was extremely outstanding, her beauty was not inferior to Qin Zheng's wife at all and was even slightly more outstanding. She didn't seem to be a woman from this mortal world.

"The Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden has also came here." Qin Zheng spoke. This woman was none other than the palace mistress of the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace. She had the title of the number one celestial of the nine heavens of the older generation.

Her aura was transcendent. She stared at Qin Zheng and softly spoke, "Didn't Clan Leader Qin come as well?"

"With regards to the marvelous scene before us, does mystical maiden have any thoughts about it?" Qin Zheng asked.

"This is good fortune for our Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." The mystical maiden laughed. Qin Zheng nodded his head. This was indeed great fortune for everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Most probably, many people would grow even stronger after this.

"The two of you came so early." Another voice drifted over. At this moment, a middle-aged man clad in violet-gold robes with a crown on his head appeared here. He floated into the air, like he was the master of the universe. This person was none other than the sect leader of the Qiankun Sect. It was said that he could control the forces of Qiankun (universe).

"You are not too slow either." Qin Zheng calmly spoke.

The Qiankun Sect Leader laughed. He then turned to the mystical maiden, "It has been a very long time since I last saw the mystical maiden but even so, your beauty is as stunning as ever, transcending the mortal world. It's truly a pity that you have no intentions to marry."

The mystical maiden glanced at him, she wasn't angered. All of them were acquainted with each other since a long time ago and had even fought against each other on multiple occasions in the Heaven Region for many years.

"Oh by the way, that useless disciple of mine Lin Xiao is keen to pursue the mystical maiden of the new generation. In any case, since you won't be passing your position over to her any time soon and will still rule over your palace for a long time, why don't you let her marry my disciple?" The Qiankun Sect Leader straightforwardly spoke. After the mystical maiden heard his words, she coldly glanced at him. This old fellow was much more detestable compared to Lin Xiao.

"Let's go." The Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden couldn't be bothered to argue verbally with the Qiankun Sect Leader. No matter what, as a female, she would surely suffer a disadvantage and hence, she might as well just ignore him. A group of fairy maidens then flew through the air, causing countless experts here to turn and look at them. This scene was simply too beautiful. Many people sighed in admiration, were these the maidens of the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace? The beauty of their palace mistress was truly transcendent. This was especially so when the radiance from the constellations cascaded down on her. Nothing else in this world could surpass her beauty.

"Dang`er, where is Nichang?" Qin Zheng's wife asked. She wanted to see her future daughter-in-law as she has never met her before. Nichang was the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, her beauty most probably wouldn't be inferior to hers, right?

"Nichang is currently cultivating," Qin Dangtian replied.

"I wish to meet her." Qin Zheng's wife smiled. Qin Dangtian paused for a moment before he nodded. He then took out his messaging crystal and sent a voice transmission, "Nichang, my parents are here. My mother wishes to meet with you."

Goddess Nichang was currently cultivating on a constellation. After she received Qin Dangtian's message, she hesitated a little and didn't really feel like going. But eventually, she still agreed. After some time, she descended from the air and arrived on the ancient pathway below the nine heavenly layers. When she saw Qin Dangtian's parents, she nodded politely towards them.

"Mother, Nichang's personality has always been like this, please don't take offense." Qin Dangtian spoke.

"Truly a beautiful woman, her beauty even surpassed mine when I was young and she is truly a good match for my son Dangtian." Qin Zheng's wife laughed, not bothered at all by Nichang's aloof attitude. For beauties, it was only natural that they had their own personalities. She wouldn't take offense at such a thing.

"Nichang, after I return, I will discuss with Dang`er and his father about choosing a good date. After you join our Qin Clan, we will definitely not mistreat you. In the future, you will be the mother of the Qin Clan." Qin Zheng's wife smiled. Nichang's expression was as calm as ever, not changing in the slightest. Her state of heart was like water.

"You shouldn't be involved so much with the matters of young people. Our future daughter-in-law Nichang might feel embarrassed." Qin Zheng laughed. "Nichang, you and Dang`er feel free to go and do your own things."

"Okay. Father, mother, we will go and cultivate then." Qin Dangtian nodded. After that, he left with Nichang, soaring towards the constellations in the sky. After they left, the smile on Qin Zheng's wife's face vanished. "I heard some rumors about the happenings in the legendary place in the sacred academy. Do you know of this?"

Qin Zheng's eyes flashed, he naturally heard the rumors before as well. If not, he wouldn't make the three world overlords to kneel in apology when he went to pay Deity Qu a visit back then. The reason for this was to not allow Nichang to suffer any damage to her reputation. How could his future daughter-in-law's reputation not be pristine?

"I've already handled the matter. There's no need to be too bothered about such minor things. In the past, didn't Qin Yuanfeng also fall in love with you? Given how outstanding Nichang is, it's very normal that Qin Yuanfeng's son would feel attracted to her." Qin Zheng calmly spoke.

"You should know about the relationship between Qu Shen and Qin Tiangang. Qin Yuanfeng had also paid Qu Shen many visits before and Qu Shen's attitude towards them is much more amiable compared to how he acts towards us. Also, Nichang had some interactions with Qin Yuanfeng's son in the legendary place. This is naturally just a minor matter and I don't feel anything strange about it. It's just that even up until now, Qin Yuanfeng's son has yet to be captured. What are our subordinates doing?" Qin Zheng's wife coldly spoke, her voice ringing out with a hint of might. As the mother of the Qin Clan and Qin Zheng's wife, she naturally wouldn't be an ordinary character.

A flicker of coldness flashed in Qin Zheng's eyes. Indeed, Qin Zhong of his Qin Clan had died but even now, they still have yet to find where Qin Wentian is.

"Let me share some of my thoughts with you. The Heaven Vault has opened, experts from all around would naturally rush here. Do you think that Qin Yuanfeng's son would miss out on this opportunity?" Qin Zheng's wife asked. Qin Zheng's eyes flashed, as he asked, "Would he dare to come here?"

"Why wouldn't he dare? Back then, is there anything Qin Yuanfeng don't dare to do? He even dared to kill his way into our Qin Clan." The eyes of Qin Zheng's wife turned to the crowd in the sky. Maybe, Qin Wentian was already here, currently hiding within the crowd.

Qin Zheng's expression turned grim. Qin Wentian was able to survive despite a heavenly deity, Qin Zhong, having gone to pursue him, it was nothing strange that Qin Wentian would have some supreme concealment techniques at his disposal. This was truly thought-provoking.

Chapter 1884: It’s him!

Qin Zheng inclined his head and stared up at the starry space. The experts who came here already flew up into the air. Even if Qin Wentian was here, it wouldn't be an easy task to find him. This place was the starry space and not on the ground. It if was on the surface, his immortal sense could easily sweep through the vast space, no one would be able to escape evasion from him. However, in the starry space where the nine heavenly layers existed, he had no way to do so. Just a single constellation was already as large as an immortal realm.

For some people who wished to head towards constellations that were further away, if it wasn't for this ancient pathway being able to shorten the distance, they could only depend on their own flying speed to reach where they wanted to go. It was unknown how much time would be needed then.

This ancient heaven vault pathway seemed to be able to extend indefinitely into the sky.

"I'll get our subordinates to pay attention to this. Let us visit some of the constellations. Have you not always wanted to take a look at the nine astral rivers in the heavenly layers? Now that we are here, it can be considered that a dream of yours is fulfilled." Qin Zheng held his wife's hand as both of them stepped out. Many people had looks of admiration in their eyes when they saw this. That was the Qin Clan Leader and the mother of the Qin Clan. Their relationship was still so good after so many years.

The two leaders of the Qin Clan were also filled with curiosity with regards to the constellations, there was no need to mention about others. Next, for a period of many years, there were people who came here unceasingly. And after several years, more than half of the peak characters in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were all cultivating in here.

Luoshen Chuan also came, he and the demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain came here together. When he saw the boundless starry space, his heart trembled with shock. This was simply too mystical.

Luoshen Chuan and the rest also respectively flew into the air searching for their respective constellations. For stellar cultivators, one could very well imagine their feelings when they are met with the origin of their cultivations.

Today, in the starry space, one of the constellations there suddenly flared with a light brighter than the others. Dazzling brilliance flowed from it, illuminating its surroundings, causing many people to turn their attention towards it. They could see that the might of a heavenly dao was gathering on that constellation. A human figure could be seen standing on it, and although the human figure seemed extremely tiny and inconsequential on the gigantic constellation, the light radiated from the constellation was layered in such a way that it shone upon the human.

This human, was a young man with a lanky build. He was handsome and exuded an extraordinary aura. At this moment, boundless astral light flowed around him, like a divine glow baptizing his entire body.

"He is receiving the heavenly dao. He has attained the dao!" The eyes of an expert gleamed with sharpness. On the starry space above the ancient heaven vault path, the first person to obtain the dao has appeared. This young man had managed to break through and enter the heavenly deity realm.

The heavenly deity realm is an accomplishment where countless people would never be able to reach. Right now, someone actually managed to step into that legendary realm only using several years of time while cultivating here. Naturally, there was also a possibility that this young man's original cultivation base already wasn't far from the heavenly deity realm when he first came here. After that, he simply smoothly comprehend more insights and managed to succeed.

"Another heavenly deity has appeared in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." Someone spoke. Heavenly deities are considered the ultimate peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They could set up deity-ranked clans and sects. Only powers with heavenly deities in them are considered true peak powers.

Nobody knew which power this heavenly deity belonged to.

Many people discovered that they didn't recognize this young man at all.

This young man who entered the heavenly deity realm stood on his constellation, drawing the energy into his body. Around him, an entire world appeared. That world seemed to integrate together with the heavenly dao and the constellation. Terrifying might gushed forth from that world, the energy it radiated belonged to that of samsara and reincarnation.

"I've cultivated for two lifetimes and have finally managed to make up for the regrets in my previous life, stepping on a path I had never walked before." The young man drew in a deep breath. He was none other than Hua Taixu. In his previous life, he was already a character who stood at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, he was a heavenly deity.

However, although heavenly deities stood at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there wasn't just a single heavenly deity. There would naturally be a difference in strength among them.

As for Hua Taixu, because he felt that he had failed after a divine battle. He was reluctant to accept his fate. He wanted to restart everything, and comprehend an even stronger heavenly dao. Hence, he didn't hesitate to enter a cycle of samsara of his own creation, giving up everything for a chance to be reborn. It was only until when his master of this lifetime, the Thousand Manifestations Immortal King died in his embrace, did he gradually awaken a portion of his memories. He finally awakened truly and knew who he was. He also knew what he was pursuing all this time.

Upon seeing Hua Taixu obtaining the dao, many world overlords had looks of envy on their faces. When would they be able to comprehend their own heavenly daos and step into that truly legendary realm, surveying down all below them at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?

This time around, this was an opportunity. They had to grab hold of this opportunity. As for what would happen in the future, no one knew.

In the blink of an eye, several years passed by again. In the boundless starry space, on the constellations, another expert attained the dao. When he attained the dao, the constellation he was on also grew brighter, becoming a unique existence at that moment in the starry space.

In the face of attaining the dao, several tens of years counted for nothing. To these experts who could come here, even hundreds and thousands of years would fly past in the blink of an eye.

But in the outside world in the immortal realms, the commotion caused by the opening of the Heaven Vault still didn't subside. This storm has already lasted for several tens of years and it was rumored that right now, the vast majority of experts from peak powers were all inside the Heaven Vault. Countless world overlords of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms also rushed to Boundless City, flooding the place. And when they arrived there, they received the news that there were already quite a few supreme experts in Heaven Vault who managed to attain the dao and become a heavenly deity.

However, a strange point was that the majority of those who obtained dao and became heavenly deities, were all people who entered the legendary place in the sacred academy before this. Seems like the legendary place of the sacred academy truly lived up to their reputation. That place was able to help those supreme world overlords solidify their dao hearts and foundations, allowing them to more easily comprehend their daos.

Right now in the Azzure Mystic Immortal Realm, within the emperor palace, Qing`er, Qingcheng, Ye Qianyu, Beiming Youhuang, even experts from the Battle Saint Tribe, experts from the Myriad Devil Islands, Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Southern Phoenix Matriarch...all of them were waiting. They knew about the commotion which shook the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They knew that the Heaven Vault was opened and Qin Wentian was now cultivating in the starry space. During these years, they didn't take the initiative to disturb Qin Wentian. From the news circulated from there to here, they knew that quite a few people had already attained their daos and became heavenly deities. They also knew how much Qin Wentian thirsted for the heavenly deity realm and they were all hoping that Qin Wentian would be able to succeed.

Countless days and nights passed, Mo Qingcheng, Qing`er and Ye Qianyu would often stare up at the skies, thinking of the person they longed for.

Time continued to flow. Qin Wentian didn't merely stop and cultivate on a single constellation. During these years, he traveled to different constellations and cultivated the different types of law energy, comprehending the different heavenly daos. Everytime he had some spare time, he would send voice transmissions to his wives, telling them not to worry about him.

Today, Qin Wentian once again returned to the sword-shaped constellation he was on before. He released his own astral soul, the sword region astral soul which originated from the 8th heavenly layer.

"Constellations contain the power of heavenly dao. In that case, since astral souls originate from constellations, astral souls themselves should be heavenly daos." Qin Wentian silently mused. "My earlier insights weren't wrong."

His body floated among the stars. An astral soul forming a heavenly dao was also a representation of the great dao. For an astral soul to form a dao, there wasn't simply a single law energy within it, it must contain the fusion of the various types of laws as well as the cultivator's insights.

For example, the dao might radiating from this sword-shaped constellation was released in the form of the dao of swords. However, there were all sorts of other law energy mixed within the heavenly dao that is represented by the sword-shaped constellation. Each constellation can be considered a world, and it was naturally impossible for just the source origins of a single law to be present in a world. There are all sorts of laws within, it's just that the main body of the laws in the sword-shaped constellation leaned more heavily towards the dao of swords.

Qin Wentian was currently making his break through using his sword astral soul. All the various types of astral energies from the different laws enveloped him, infused into his sword astral soul and gradually, the constellation in the form of a sword region, began to grow brighter and brighter.

His sword region astral soul increased in brilliance, illuminating the surroundings as it constantly expanded, containing a startling amount of power within.

Finally, a resplendent beam of light shot up into the sky. Qin Wentian's astral soul transformed into a sword that could reach the heavens, floating in the center of the air. The entire space around him seemed to transform into a world that was filled with regions of swords. Also, unceasing strands of sword intent flowed all around the world, permeating the atmosphere.

"Is this, dao?" Qin Wentian mumbled in a low voice. In an instant, the boundless sword intent from the constellation flowed over. The sword intent took the ancient sword floating behind him as the centerpoint and flowed constantly into it. At this moment, both his astral soul and the constellation linked together. The constellation grew brighter and brighter, drawing the attention of everyone.

"Another person broke through?" The gazes of everyone turned towards the constellation Qin Wentian was on. Many people had surprised looks on their faces. Nobody knew the identity of this man, was there truly still such powerful characters choosing to live in reclusiveness?

Qin Zheng and his wife were also cultivating on a constellation. At this moment, their gazes turned towards the constellation Qin Wentian was on. The eyes of Qin Zheng's wife flashed with a terrifying golden light as she stared fixedly at Qin Wentian.

When her eyes landed on him, the golden light within flashed brightly, piercing through the disguise Qin Wentian had on, revealing his real features to her eyes. When Qin Wentian's true appearance appeared, a sense of familiarity manifested in her heart. This familiar feeling caused a dazzling light to flash through her eyes. Qin Wentian truly resembled him alot.

"His son has actually reached such a high level in terms of his comprehension." Qin Zheng's wife spoke. Qin Zheng's eyes gleamed, he stared at Qin Wentian and asked, "You mean, that is him?"

"I won't be mistaken." A smile could be seen on his wife's face. However, when this smile appeared on her beautiful face, it gave off a sense of extreme coldness.

Chapter 1885: Divine Punishment Heavenly Deity

Qin Zheng glanced in Qin Wentian's direction as a coldness flashed in his eyes. He knew about this ability his wife had cultivated. Since she was sure that young man was Qin Wentian, there should be no mistakes.

"Go." Qin Zheng spoke as he stepped out, heading straight towards the constellation Qin Wentian was on.

Their speed was extremely fast. If one was to look at the scene with their naked eyes, they wouldn't even be able to track their silhouettes, as their silhouettes would vanish the moment they appeared.

And at this moment, Qin Wentian was still on the constellation he was cultivating, receiving the baptism of the heavenly dao. His cultivation base wasn't stable, yet he was still contemplating his own energy and didn't notice that there were two figures currently flying towards him with great speed.

"Dang`er." At this moment, Qin Zheng's wife sent a voice transmission to Qin Dangtian. Qin Dangtian replied, "Yes, mother?"

"The son of that clan uncle of yours has appeared. He is none other than the person who is currently breaking through. Rush there immediately." Qin Zheng's wife spoke. On another constellation, Qin Dangtian's gaze directly turned towards Qin Wentian who was in the midst of receiving the baptism from the heavenly dao. His eyes gleamed with coldness. Qin Wentian was in disguise?

A killing intent flashed in his eyes. Nichang would soon become his wife, he wouldn't care about the past interactions she had with Qin Wentian in the world of reincarnation but Qin Wentian must not allowed to be left alive.

With a flash of his silhouette, he directly sped towards the constellation Qin Wentian was on.

Other than them, there was still one more person who had been paying attention to Qin Wentian. It was none other than his grandfather, Luoshen Chuan. After he arrived, he immediately contacted Qin Wentian and knew that his grandson was in disguise, cultivating on a sword-shaped constellation. Seeing that his grandson was about to break through, he felt gratified in his heart. The cultivation talent of his grandson has exceeded his daughter and her husband.

However at this moment, he saw two figures flying with great speed under the starry skies. These two figures seemed extremely tiny amidst the constellations, completely inconsequential. However, the vision of heavenly deities was also immensely strong. When he saw that they were flying towards where Qin Wentian was, a bright light flashed in his eyes. He instantly took out his messaging crystal and sent a message, "Wentian, Qin Zheng and his wife have discovered you and they are currently speeding towards your direction."

Qin Wentian, who was in the midst of cultivating, abruptly opened his eyes and paused what he was doing. His figure flashed as he left with no hesitation, directly flying into the starry space, leaving this constellation.

His speed was also incredibly fast. The heaven vault ancient path was before him. The higher he went, the more conducive it would be for hiding.

When his figure vanished from the constellation he was on, the sword-shaped constellation no longer illuminated his figure. Qin Zheng and his wife paused as their expressions changed.

"He left?" Qin Zheng furrowed his brows. Although they've seen Qin Wentian's figure earlier, that was through the illumination by the sword-shaped constellation. In truth, their distance from Qin Wentian was extremely far. Each constellation here was at the very least, the size of an immortal realm. Even with Qin Zheng and his wife's cultivation base, it was impossible for them to traverse so far a distance in such a short time.

"Over there." At this moment, Qin Zheng's wife suddenly turned her gaze towards the ancient heaven vault path and spotted Qin Wentian's figure. The two of them instantly changed direction and headed for the path instead. Qin Wentian actually wanted to flee using the ancient heaven vault path into the higher heavenly layers? Seems like he must have discovered them and wanted to hide in the boundless starry space.

Luoshen Chuan was also rushing there currently.

Qin Wentian flew through the heavenly layers with great speed as though he wanted to walk until the very end of the nine heavenly layers.

"Vile spawn, why are you fleeing in a panic when meeting with me, your clan uncle?" Qin Zheng directly called out. His voice was as though it contained a magical power, allowing to penetrate through the nine heavens, ringing out loud in the area. When Qin Wentian heard it, his eyes were like ice. As expected, his identity had been exposed. He didn't expect that his disguise wasn't able to conceal him completely from the eyes of his opponents.

"Qin Zheng, back then you were defeated by my father and had to depend on the combined strength of the Qin Clan before you could win against him. And now, you are actually the leader of the Qin Clan? This is simply ridiculous." Qin Wentian spoke, his voice booming like thunder. The eyes of many people flashed when they heard that as expressions of interest appeared on their faces. After that, they saw Qin Wentian's disguised appearance slowly changing, revealing his real features.

"So it was him." Those who recognized Qin Wentian were startled, they didn't expect the person who just broke through was him, the son of the legendary Qin Yuanfeng. However, since he was discovered by Qin Zheng, his fate now would undoubtedly be extremely grim.

Qin Zheng was the Qin Clan Leader and had controlled the Qin Clan for many years. His cultivation base has already reached unfathomable heights. Even his son Qin Dangtian was given the title of Heaven's Son. Ordinary heavenly deities simply wouldn't be his match. In addition, Qin Wentian had just broken through and could not be considered to have fully stepped past the gate leading to the heavenly deity realm yet. After all, he has yet to condense his final astral soul.

"Luoshen Chuan is also rushing over." Someone saw the ex-clan leader of the Luoshen Clan rushing over. Seems like a lively drama would soon occur.

Right now, the majority of the experts have gathered here in this place. They were scattered around the constellations closer to the ancient pathway as they watched the scene with interest. There were even people flying closer to Qin Wentian, preparing to get a better view.

"Vile spawn, your father is a traitor to our clan. I didn't expect that he actually has a son. Stop running away, it is useless. Uncle won't kill you." Qin Zheng spoke. Qin Wentian continued to speed away frenziedly and right now, he had bypassed a number of heavenly layers and was at a very high vantage point, almost nearing the end of the ancient pathway.

A terrifying suppressive pressure enveloped him, causing his footsteps to slow as his body felt somewhat heavy. When using his perception to enter the heavenly layers, the pressure was already extremely great. The higher one went, the greater the pressure would be as the power of the constellations here was unfathomably vast and majestic. Even heavenly deities wouldn't dare to enter here easily.

At the end of the ancient path, a stone monument could be seen with the words 'God Extinction Path' engraved on it.

God Extinction? It was likely if one continued on, there would be no more path ahead, the boundless universe laid before this. In the distance, Qin Wentian actually could see several skeletons floating there, it was truly a shocking sight.

Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed, decisively leaving the ancient path as he flew sideways towards the starry space. This place was already the 9th heavenly layer. Even with his current cultivation base, the pressure on him caused him to feel extremely uncomfortable and very suppressed. There weren't many constellations here and the distance between each constellation was incomparably far apart. However, the power they radiated was extremely fearsome.

"If one broke through in the Heaven Vault, they can directly use the ancient heaven vault pathway, walking all the way to the end to reach the 9th heavenly layer and condense an astral soul from the 9th heavenly layer." A thought appeared in Qin Wentian's mind. However, he didn't think too much about it. Qin Zheng was about to reach him.

"Vile spawn, you still want to flee?" Qin Zheng coldly spoke, his voice ringing out as though he was already directly behind Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian stood in the air, he turned his head and stared at the two figures that were rapidly approaching him. There was no more meaning even if he continued to flee. The two figures stepped through space with such incredible speed that the naked eyes wouldn't be able to track their movements. A few moments later, they arrived before Qin Wentian and stood in 9th heavenly layer as well.

Qin Wentian surveyed the two figures before him. He had seen them before since a long time ago from the memory fragments left behind in the tiny astral-being from his father to him. The man was Qin Zheng and the woman was none other than the female heaven chosen from another faction of the Qin Clan whom his father fell in love with when he was young. The woman eventually married Qin Zheng and was now the mother of the Qin Clan. She was indeed very beautiful and had a graceful and elegant demeanor. Her thin ruby red lips were spread in a smile, however that smile gave off a sense of coldness.

"You truly resemble your father. Is he still alive?" The woman asked. Right now, the Qin Clan was guessing that Qin Yuanfeng hasn't died.

"Naturally. He is living well now. You all will meet him again sooner or later as he kills his way into the Qin Clan once again." Qin Wentian was very calm now, despite facing the two leaders of the Qin Clan.

"Oh, is that so? I heard that your name is Qin Wentian. Did your father ever mention me to you before?" The woman smiled.

"Mhm. My father once said that when he was younger, his judgement was extremely awful. He treated you two as his closest friends and had even once found you to be beautiful before. But after he met my mother, he felt that he must have been blind back then." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Your father wouldn't say such a thing. He isn't as sharp-tongued as you." The woman confidently smiled, as though she understood Qin Yuanfeng very well.

"Vile spawn, seeing the fact that you are a junior, I don't wish to act against you. Destroy your own cultivation and return with me to the Qin Clan. I will consider the fact that you have our Qin Clan's bloodline and I promise not to kill you." Qin Zheng stood with his arms behind his back, speaking in a tone of arrogance. He did have such confidence because he was Qin Zheng, the clan leader of the Qin Clan.

"Qin Zhong also said the same thing as you." Qin Wentian coldly laughed. Telling him to destroy his own cultivation and return with them to the Qin Clan? What a joke. If this was the case, he might as well fight to the death here.

"How did Qin Zhong die?" Qin Zheng coldly asked when he thought about Qin Zhong.

"I killed him." Qin Wentian replied. "If not, how do you think he died?"

"Hahaha, back then your cultivation base was only at the world overlord realm. It's impossible for you to kill Qin Zhong alone. Who was the one who aided you?" Qin Zheng continued asking.

"If you don't want to believe, why bother asking in the first place?" Qin Wentian replied.

"Recalcitrant fool. Since you refuse to destroy your own cultivation, I can only act." Qin Zheng calmly stated. As the sound of his voice faded, a fearsome blast of heavenly might bore down from the sky, wanting to engulf the entire surrounding. Qin Wentian only felt himself being drowned in waves of power from the great dao. A supreme formation appeared in the air as divine light flowed from it, enveloping Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian felt that his movements were bound, it was like the divine light could tie down everything it came into contact with.

Qin Wentian's body, beneath his feet, his surroundings, were completely engulfed by the divine light. The light rays criss-crossed while Qin Wentian was at its center. He had no way to move at all.

Qin Zheng had a long-forgotten title in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. After he became the Qin Clan Leader, this title was gradually forgotten by many people as the two words 'Qin Zheng' alone, possessed sufficient weightage.

His title in the past was none other than the Divine Punishment Heavenly Deity.

He waved his finger and in an instant, the divine light transformed into a divine punishment formation. A bolt of lightning rumbled the heavens, containing the power to tear the world asunder, destroying all existences. The lightning bolt then cleaved down towards Qin Wentian. The might within this lightning bolt was controlled carefully. After all, Qin Zheng didn't want to kill Qin Wentian. He wanted to leave Qin Wentian alive for other uses!

Chapter 1886: Spacetime Sword Dao

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at the formation that seemed akin to an entire world filled with divine punishment. Boundless divine light radiated forth, he was unable to move in the slightest. This power definitely wasn't formed from just a single source origin. This was Qin Zheng's dao, the Divine Punishment Heavenly Dao.

Qin Zheng naturally wasn't only proficient in a single heavenly dao. Since his title was the Divine Punishment Heavenly Deity, it's clear that he focused on the divine punishment dao as his strongest law. When one obtained a heavenly dao that has strength that surpasses all others, the other daos are no longer as important as compared to it, they would only be able to support and complement the main dao you focus on, allowing your main dao to become stronger and stronger.

The Qin Zheng at this moment resembled an invincible godking standing loftily at the peak of the world. He wanted Qin Wentian to suffer Divine Punishment.

The power of the Divine Punishment Heavenly Dao was unleashed. The starry space flashed with a resplendent light, so bright that even people extremely far away could feel the intensity of the glare. Many experts in the starry space turned their attention towards it, instantly understanding that a deity-level battle had erupted there.

"Qin Zheng actually acted? Who is he dealing with?" The heavenly deities here who knew about Qin Zheng's attacks all silently speculated. After that, they stepped out and moved along the ancient heaven vault pathway, rushing towards the site where the battle was taking place.

However, all of these speculations had nothing to do with Qin Wentian. What he could do now at this moment was to try his best and withstand Qin Zheng's attack.

Qin Wentian stretched out his arms and in an instant, a region of swords appeared around him. His sword astral soul also appeared behind him. Right now, Qin Wentian's astral soul had already transformed into heavenly dao, containing boundless sword intent. Each of the swords in the sword region all contained heavenly might. There were even ancient words of power representing 'sword.' Each of them similarly blazed with the power of his dao.

Sword intent towered up into the sky, and when Qin Zheng saw this scene, a look of interest appeared on his face. He could clearly sense the power of the dao Qin Wentian had comprehended. It was truly not bad indeed. Just from the sword region alone, he could sense the power of space and time.

Everything happened in the blink of an eye. The divine punishment descended, wanting to cleave apart everything in the world. However, at this moment, the sword region around Qin Wentian transformed into a sword river that reversed its flow, flowing upwards into the sky. Gurgling sounds rang out, along with the humming of a million swords as the sword river gushed towards the power from the divine punishment.

When the light from the divine punishment bore down on the sword region, it cleaved apart all obstruction. But within the sword region, the time there seemed to freeze, but even so, it had no way to completely obstruct the power of the divine punishment. The powerful light broke apart all restrictions, ripping Qin Wentian's sword dao into shreds.

But the sword river flowed frenziedly without end. Although it wasn't able to completely block the might of the divine power, it was able to continuously weaken and slow it. Ultimately, the millions of words of power transformed into miniature sword rivers that unceasingly revolved around Qin Wentian protectively. When the weakened divine punishment might landed, the light from the divine punishment vanished, as did the sword river, both cancelling out each other.

And at the same time, a gigantic explosion rang out at a constellation that was extremely far away. Two beams of light that manifested from the impact earlier, ricocheted and blasted into the constellation, shattering it into pieces. Large fragments of astral stones as large as cities fell from the sky. From this, one could see how strong the attack might of Qin Wentian and Qin Zheng are. If they didn't fight in the starry space but chose to fight in the ground area of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm instead, any exchange of moves from them was able to easily devastate the surroundings.

"This sword dao…" Sharpness flickered in the eyes of those experts who saw this scene. Was this a power level that belonged to someone who had just recently attained the dao?

This Sword Dao actually contained the power of space and time within, slowing down the attack before shifting the attack targeted at him away. In addition, they also saw the power of the divine punishment becoming weaker. Such a sword dao could be claimed as a Spacetime Sword Dao. Although it was only in the embryonic form, it already had such power. In the future, it would only grow increasingly terrifying.

However, Qin Zheng most probably wouldn't give Qin Wentian a chance to continue growing. He would surely capture him and bring him back to the Qin Clan.

What a pity, Qin Wentian's potential could be said to be boundless, attaining the dao within a thousand years. Sadly, he had encountered Qin Zheng. He was Qin Yuanfeng's son but his opponent was the strongest power, the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region, the past clan of Qin Yuanfeng.

"You truly resemble your father." Qin Zheng's wife calmly spoke. Qin Zheng didn't say anything. He merely waved his hand as the divine formation glowed even brighter. The light continued extending outwards, wanting to engulf the entire region. Terrifying beams of punishment light directly locked down on Qin Wentian's surroundings. This time, there wasn't merely a single beam of attack. There were multiple beams preparing to be launched, filling the area around it with an extremely bright light.

The dao is boundless. Most probably, this phrase could be used to describe this scene. It was simply too dazzling.

"Qin Zheng, you actually lowered yourself to bully a junior. Don't you know shame?" At this moment, a thunderous voice rang out, causing the surrounding space to tremble. After that, a beam of light descended as a figure appeared before Qin Wentian. The moment he appeared, many immensely gigantic astral beasts manifested and attacked straight away after they appeared. There were Hunduns devouring the constellation, there were Heavenhold Demons trampling on the divine formation, there were Supreme Demonic Apes lunging towards the beams of divine punishment. This entire space was swamped by astral beasts.

"Luoshen Chuan of the Luoshen Clan." The eyes of the experts spectating from afar flashed. They naturally knew of the stories in the Desolate Region. Luoshen Chuan was Qin Wentian's grandfather and had appeared just in time. Qin Zheng, the clan leader of the Qin Clan was now facing against Luoshen Chuan, the ex-clan leader of the Luoshen Clan, both in stark opposition.

The power of the divine punishment was blocked but the divine formation still glowed as brightly as ever. Qin Zheng calmly stared at Luoshen Chuan, "Luoshen Chuan, although you are my senior but you have truly grown old. Back then, you shouldn't have allowed your daughter to do what she wanted, resulting in the decline of your Luoshen Clan. Today, you still dare to obstruct me?"

"Although back then I had objected Qin Yuanfeng being with my daughter, but I really must say that Qin Zheng, you are truly inferior as the Qin Clan Leader when compared to Qin Yuanfeng." Luoshen Chuan calmly replied.

Qin Zheng wasn't angered. In the grand scheme of things in the world, the victor would always be the king. No matter how outstanding Qin Yuanfeng was, Qin Zheng was born as the king of the Qin Clan, this was a fact that never changed. At the end, he truly did become the Qin Clan Leader but as for Qin Yuanfeng, he was forced to hide away, dragging out an ignoble existence. Hence, why would he be bothered by Luoshen Chuan's words?

"Even if I add you into the mix, I have no worries at all." Qin Zheng calmly spoke, he was extremely confident even though he had to fight against two opponents. To Qin Zheng, Qin Wentian was someone who just recently attained his dao, Qin Wentian was still an existence he could easily crush. At his current level, Qin Wentian could be ignored completely even if he had to fight against Luoshen Chuan.

As the sound of his voice faded, a brilliant light gushed forth from the divine formation once more. A resplendent glow appeared behind him as waves of divine punishment might shot forth, engulfing the surroundings, wanting to destroy everything.

"Wentian, flee quickly!" Luoshen Chuan shouted. He also understood that in his battle with Qin Zheng, even if Qin Wentian was added into the mix, he would be of negligible influence. It was like if Qin Wentian fought against another newly-ascended heavenly deity. If a world overlord joins in, the world overlord would only be courting death, completely insignificant.

After all, Qin Wentian had just attained his dao. No matter how high his talent is, he still wouldn't be able to contend against an existence like Qin Zheng. The Qin Clan Leader was one of the rare few people in the Heaven Region that has true power.

"Where can he flee to?" At this moment, another voice drifted over. Qin Dangtian flew over from afar and arrived beside Qin Zheng. His gaze stared at Luoshen Chuan and Qin Wentian. There was a faint hint of disdain when he looked at Qin Wentian, like he had never placed Qin Wentian in his eyes before. This was merely the son of a traitor. If it wasn't for the fact that there were some rumors about Qin Wentian and Nichang in the world of reincarnation, Qin Wentian's weightage in Qin Dangtian's heart would be even lighter.

"Dang`er, you truly arrived at an opportune time." Qin Zheng's wife smiled. Qin Dangtian was their son, it was naturally the most suitable for him to deal with Qin Wentian.

"Father, mother, leave the son of the traitor to me." Qin Dangtian casually spoke in a calm manner, as though Qin Wentian was simply nothing in his eyes.

"Sure." Qin Zheng calmly nodded. Although there wasn't a problem for him to deal with Luoshen Chuan while simultaneously acting against Qin Wentian. But since his son Qin Dangtian has arrived, he would simply hand over Qin Wentian for Qin Dangtian to handle.

Qin Wentian stared at Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian, his eyes flashed with a similar pride as he coldly laughed, "Heaven's Son?"

"The Qin Clan isn't worthy enough for my father. Qin Zheng, back then you were defeated by my father and today, your son is similarly inferior to me. Back then at the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, Qin Dangtian, you once said that I don't know what heavenly daos are and have no qualifications to speak. However, you who is proclaimed as Heaven's Son, how many years did you take to attain the dao?" Qin Wentian calmly asked.

Qin Dangtian stared straight at Qin Wentian as he calmly asked, "What do you want to say?"

"Up until now, I've cultivated for less than a thousand years. What about you?" Qin Wentian calmly continued, his words causing the hearts of many people to tremble. Less than a thousand years and managing to attain the great dao? What cultivation speed and talent was this? Even Qin Zheng and his wife felt slightly awed by this. But even so, they maintained the calm looks on their faces. So what if Qin Wentian's cultivation talent was strong? Wasn't Qin Yuanfeng just as outstanding as well? But how did he ended up?

Qin Dangtian didn't reply. The amount of time he took to attain the dao was indeed longer than Qin Wentian.

"You were born in the Qin Clan and enjoyed countless cultivation resources. In comparison, I was born in a particle world. You flaunt your identity as Heaven's Son and are proud because of this. But before me, what qualifications do you have to call yourself Heaven's Son?" Qin Wentian mocked.

"Your father wasn't as talkative as you. How can you take one's cultivation time in comparison?" Qin Zheng's wife coldly smiled. "Dang`er, capture him. Let him know what it means to be the Heaven's Son."

"Right." Qin Dangtian nodded. He lifted his foot and walked towards Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian flew to the side, beckoning Qin Dangtian to follow him. Since Qin Dangtian wanted to fight, he naturally wouldn't mind it. He also wanted to know how strong exactly Qin Dangtian was, a person who was proclaimed to be Heaven's Son.

Chapter 1887: Battle of Destiny

In the starry space, Luoshen Chuan faced Qin Zheng.

Qin Dangtian and Qin Wentian who were destined enemies, stood in opposition to each other. Just like what Luoshen Yu had said, they were born to be mortal enemies.

There was naturally no need to say anything more about Qin Zheng and Luoshen Chuan's battle. As for the battle between Qin Zheng's son and Qin Yuanfeng's son, it filled the hearts of others with anticipation. Back then when Qin Zheng fought against Qin Yuanfeng, there had been many rumors. Many people stated that back then, Qin Yuanfeng's talent was even higher than Qin Zheng who was nurtured as the successor of the Qin Clan but ultimately, Qin Yuanfeng died. After a thousand years of his death, Qin Zheng ascended to the position of the Qin Clan Leader.

That legend of the Qin Clan, Qin Yuanfeng, had faded away after Qin Zheng's complete victory. But nobody knew that the grudge within the Qin Clan still continued. Qin Yuanfeng might not have died. His son grew up in a particle world and came all the way to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and even attained the dao within a thousand years.

Qin Dangtian stared at the young man before him. His eyes were still filled with an incomparable arrogance, not considering Qin Wentian important at all. Attaining the dao within a thousand years? So what?

"Just like what you said, back then at the sacred academy I once said to you that you don't know what is the dao. Today, you feel that you already know it but I'm going to show you that you still don't understand." Qin Dangtian's arrogance knew no bounds. He was Heaven's Son and was destined to be extraordinary the moment he was born. He had comprehended the heavenly dao for many years. He himself was the heavenly dao. How could he only have comprehended a single dao?

"Let's hope your strength can match up to your words. If not, wouldn't things be incredibly ironic?" Qin Wentian calmly replied. However, he didn't dare to slight his enemy. He who had cultivated to his current realm naturally understood that the higher a cultivation realm was, the greater the disparity in strength between people at that realm would be. Back then when he first entered the world overlord realm, he could already understand the difference between world overlords. He was a supreme-level world overlord right after he broke through, ordinary world overlords couldn't even withstand a single strike from him. But at that point of time, he was truly nothing before a hegemonic-level world overlord.

And now, he had entered the heavenly deity realm. Among those of the same cultivation realm, the disparity in strength between each deity would be even greater than the disparity between world overlords due to the different daos once comprehended.

Qin Dangtian was known as the Heaven's Son. The moment he broke through, he defeated the Skyorder Heavenly Deity Luoshen Yu. One could tell how high his talent was. From that time until now, how much had his strength improved by? He would only be stronger. Back when at the sacred academy, ancient words representing each different heavenly dao revolved around him. This caused the three heavenly deities of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to sigh in inferiority to him.

And after that, Qin Dangtian suffered intense humiliation when he was slapped away by a gigantic hand of heaven manifested by the sacred academy's headmaster and went back to the Qin Clan for closed-door seclusion. It was rumored that he was now much stronger than before.

This was Qin Dangtian. And as for Qin Wentian, he had just comprehended the dao of swords. From this, one could very well imagine the pressure he had to face. However, he still felt no fear. He knew that this battle was inevitable.

Qin Dangtian laughed arrogantly, he didn't continue speaking. Only by battling would everything be proved. Someone who just attained the dao wanted to fight against him? Is Qin Wentian dreaming foolishly?

Ancient words revolved around him, each of them had their own halo, containing an incomparably vast might that was the power of their heavenly daos.

His father focused on the Divine Punishment Heavenly Dao but he was different. He had his own dao, a completely different one from his father. The path he walked was a different path from all others. He cultivated different daos at the same time and because of his proficiency in them, he was given the title of Heaven's Son by everyone.

At this moment, the halos from the ancient words around him engulfed Qin Dangtian, he was like an invincible divinity, capable of peering down imperiously at everything in this world. He took a step forward and pointed a finger at Qin Wentian. In an instant, an ancient word blasted out with incredible speed, aiming for Qin Wentian. At this moment, a supreme restrictive force bore down on Qin Wentian. It felt like his movements were completely locked.

No, it was more than that. It was like the space around him was locked, not allowing him to make any moves.

Qin Wentian's heart was as calm as water. He glanced at the ancient word blasting over. His sword region manifested behind him and similarly, an ancient word representing the character 'sword' appeared. It blasted out abruptly, leaving behind a streak of resplendent light in the starry space.

Both the ancient words collided together, resulting in a thunderous explosion that illuminated the entire area. Just the aftershock from a casual exchange of blows from heavenly deities was already extremely shocking in terms of power.

"Not bad." Qin Dangtian calmly spoke. Abruptly, even more ancient words of power representing the character 'lock' manifested. In an instant, the entire starry space seemed to be locked down. This power was mighty to the extreme.

"However, I really want to see if your cultivation base is strong enough for me to exert 10% of my power." As the sound of Qin Dangtian's voice faded, the ancient words erupted forth, blasting towards Qin Wentian. The law energy from the great dao engulfed everything as a gigantic word of 'locking' spanned across the air, focusing on locking down Qin Wentian, brimming with enough energy to lock the heavens.

Numerous rune words of locking directly blasted into Qin Wentian, causing his movements to be completely locked. After that, more ancient words appeared around Qin Dangtian. One was unable to see clearly what character they represented. The power of the words penetrated everything as a shocking destructive might brewed within.

Qin Wentian's body was in the center of his sword region. Although his body was locked, the sword region around him dragged his body along as it spun about, shifting its position. At the next moment, Qin Wentian's body seemed to have vanished, he broke through the words of 'locking'. He instantly appeared before Qin Dangtian and slashed out with his sword.

The moment the sword slashed out, time seemed to stop. Only the sword existed and it was capable of devouring everything.

Qin Dangtian stretched out his hand and pressed his palm forward. An instant later, the haloes of the ancient words formed a brilliant light screen that blocked the area before him. The spacetime sword might severed the light screen into two, but the sword might was also greatly diminished.

However, all of this was just the start.

Sword light manifested, a boundless sword region appeared around Qin Dangtian, sealing him within. A beam of light directly fell from the sky, cleaving downwards wanting to slash apart everything. Even before this sword beam faded, another sword beam erupted forth from another direction. In an instant, the area around Qin Dangtian had completely became a world of swords. In there, only the sword dao existed.

Qin Dangtian inclined his head and calmly stared at the boundless sword might gushing towards him. He pressed his palm forward as his own ancient words of power erupted forth, forming a divine barrier that could withstand the invasion of ten thousand daos. This divine barrier was formed from countless ancient rune words, it simply sat there and absorbed the blow of the sword beams, the sword attacks were unable to break apart the barrier's defense. Qin Dangtian stood there with complete ease.

"Continue." Qin Dangtian calmly spoke. It was like Qin Wentian's attacks were completely insignificant to him, unworthy of a mention.

"Wentian, be careful! His divine barrier can absorb the energy of your attack and rebound it back!" Luoshen Chuan yelled. Back then, when Luoshen Yu fought with Qin Dangtian, he was defeated because he underestimated Qin Dangtian's strength of dao and resulted in his cultivation base being crippled.

Now, Qin Wentian was fighting against Qin Dangtian. Although his own opponent was the powerful Qin Zheng, he couldn't help but be distracted as he was concerned about Qin Wentian. He couldn't rest his heart at ease at all. Although Qin Wentian's talent was supreme, but at this very moment, it was still too difficult for him to defeat Qin Dangtian. The Heaven's Son was already extremely powerful when he first entered the heavenly deity realm. And now, many years have passed since then. Qin Wentian also hasn't completely stepped into the heavenly deity realm yet as he needed to refine his dao and condense his final astral soul. Before all of that, he would have no way to contend against Qin Dangtian.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed when he heard his grandfather's reminder. After which, a cold smile flickered in Qin Dangtian's eyes. So what if Qin Wentian was warned? His palm slammed out and in the next instant, the countless ancient words on the divine barrier each erupted with their own radiance. At this moment, the power of Qin Wentian's sword dao earlier was augmented by the force of Qin Dangtian's rune words and rebounded back towards Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian didn't merely have to contend against Qin Dangtian's attack. He had to deal with the power he himself unleashed against Qin Ddangtian earlier. The stronger his earlier attack, the stronger the rebound effect would be.

Time around him stopped, locking him in place. The destructive might came crashing down and at this moment, Qin Wentian truly felt danger. His eyes gleamed with sword intent and at this moment of imminent peril, his gaze suddenly erupted forth with might from the heavenly dao. The sword intent from his gaze twisted time and space as the destructive might unleashed by Qin Dangtian missed him by a hair, flying passed beside him. He made use of this gap in time as he retreated with explosive speed, to a very far away place.

A strange light flashed in Qin Dangtian's eyes. He felt that his strength was several leagues higher than Qin Wentian and his cultivation was deeper. He who has been comprehending the heavenly dao for many years at the heavenly deity realm, wasn't someone Qin Wentian who just attained the dao could compare to. He was very sure of the power of his divine barrier. The amount of power, the number of daos fusing together made it so that his divine barrier was a tool of offense and defense. Also, by right, this earlier attack should be sufficient to crush Qin Wentian. Yet, Qin Wentian managed to evade it. It did cause him to feel somewhat surprised.

"In the past, your uncle Luoshen Yu was crippled by this attack." Qin Dangtian spoke to Qin Wentian, his words causing a cold light to gleam in Qin Wentian's eyes. Heavenly deities were lofty existences, yet his uncle's cultivation was actually crippled.

"I will stop playing around with you. I don't feel that interested in fighting you. You are still not qualified." Qin Dangtian continued. After that, an even stronger pressure erupted from him. It was like he was completely not serious before this. Only now did he get serious and was preparing to conclude the battle.

Qin Wentian turned his eyes ahead. His demon sword was unsheathed and appeared in his hand. In an instant, it expanded its form, becoming extremely gigantic. Qin Wentian pulled the giant sword along as he flew forward and the sword might radiating from the demon sword was so strong that it felt as though it was capable of tearing apart the starry space. Such intensity of power, even heavenly deities would feel that it was terrifying!

Qin Dangtian stared at Qin Wentian's actions, he was as calm as ever. The divine might radiating from him grew increasingly stronger. The current Qin Wentian wanted to challenge him? This was nothing but a fool's dream!

Chapter 1888: Power of the Heaven's Son

Qin Wentian pulled the gigantic sword along and unleashed his spacetime sword dao. The spacetime sword intent flowed around him, radiated by his sword region astral soul. The light from his astral soul flowed frenziedly into the gigantic demon sword and at the sametime, a countless number of swords manifested around him. The starry space around him became a world of swords.

Qin Dangtian was unconcerned. So what if the power Qin Wentian erupted forth with was shocking? The ending would still be the same because Qin Wentian's opponent was him. Let alone the current Qin Wentian, even if he lets Qin Wentian solidify his cultivation, what could Qin Wentian do against him?

"I'll let you see my astral soul heavenly dao and allow you to broaden your horizons, letting you know what the dao truly means." Qin Dangtian arrogantly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, his astral soul was released. The dao of heavenly deities… their dao had integrated with their astral soul and their astral soul was the root. In the past, Qin Wentian already comprehended this point. At that time, he depended on his astral soul to unleash dao might when he was at the world overlord realm. Hence, Luoshen Yu said that in certain aspects, Qin Wentian's comprehensions were already at the deity-level despite him still being a world overlord then.

Qin Dangtian unleashed the radiance of his astral soul. This was an astral soul that came from the 9th heavenly layer, something he condensed after he became a heavenly deity. It was also his final astral soul.

This astral soul didn't take on any form, it was vastly different compared to the other astral souls. To describe it, this astral soul was like an extremely bright screen of light, there were countless ancient words engraved on the screen that seemed to have originated from the primordial era, no longer existing in this era. The ancient words changed unceasingly as new words manifested now and then. Each of these words radiated a feeling of transcendence.

The Qin Dangtian at this moment was truly like the son of the heavens, it was destined that he would be above the other heaven chosen.

"It's very rare for me to display my ninth astral soul, the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul which contained the origins of ten thousand daos in heaven and earth. You should feel honored. I will let you experience the might of my Absolute Beginning Dao." Qin Dangtian's tone was filled with arrogance. Absolute Beginning was the start of the myriad of things. Back then when Qin Wentian participated in the convention of the myriad realms, he had met a world overlord with the title of Absolute Beginning as well. However, in reality, that world overlord wasn't qualified to use that as his title. Qin Dangtian's ninth astral soul was the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul, the dao he comprehended was the Absolute Beginning Dao.

All the heavenly deities here stared at Qin Dangtian, they knew the meaning of the words 'Absolute Beginning' extremely well. Qin Dangtian dared to name his astral soul as such indicated how confident he was, as well as his tyranny. All of the heavenly deities wanted to see for themselves how powerful his Absolute Beginning Dao truly was.

When Qin Zheng's wife saw Qin Dangtian releasing his astral soul, a smile appeared on her face. She knew that after her son was defeated in the sacred academy, he made a marked improvement in his comprehension of the Absolute Beginning Heavenly Dao during his closed-door seclusion. Right now, this was the first time he displayed such strength before the public. She knew how strong her son was. Let alone Qin Wentian, her son could even defeat some of the famous and powerful heavenly deities in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Capture him alive." Qin Zheng spoke from the side. He was worried Qin Dangtian's attack might be too fierce and accidentally kill Qin Wentian. If Qin Wentian died, his plans would be spoiled. Right now, Qin Wentian mustn't die yet, Qin Zheng still had some plans for him.

Luoshen Chuan was very worried but because his opponent was Qin Zheng, he basically had no way to help Qin Wentian.

More and more experts gathered in the surroundings. Even the lofty heavenly deities were watching this deity-level battle with interest. It was extremely hard to witness a deity-level battle in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. After all, in the boundlessly vast Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there were only a few heavenly deities.

No one believed in Qin Wentian. Everyone was waiting for Heaven's Son to display his brilliance. After all, the difference between the two was too great. Despite Qin Wentian having supreme talent, he was after all someone who had just attained his dao. How could he contend against the Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian? It's already considered impressive that he could evade the earlier attack.

"You comprehended a sword dao, right? In that case, I will use a sword to defeat you. Witness the power of my Absolute Beginning Sword Dao, I'm also interested to see how powerful I myself am exactly." Qin Dangtian spoke. He wanted to use sword dao to deal with Qin Wentian. From this, one could tell how arrogant, and confident he was. Naturally, if his comprehensions towards the Absolute Beginning Dao was truly very deep, he would be able to unleash extreme power no matter what type of dao he used.

Qin Dangtian stretched out his hand. The power of the Absolute Beginning Dao congregated in his palm and after that, he pierced out with his finger, "Go."

As the sound of his voice faded, countless sword beams manifested. At this moment, the area around him also transformed into a world of swords. All the spectators inclined their heads and stared at the light screen which was Qin Dangtian's Absolute Beginning Heavenly Dao. They could see countless beams of sword light being manifested from the chaos, as they underwent a transformation, continuously growing larger. After that, all of them blasted towards Qin Wentian.

These countless number of sword beams seemed to grow stronger with every inch of distance they traveled, they were capable of self-evolution. Qin Wentian's body was locked onto by the sword intent. His surroundings were also sealed and locked down completely.

Qin Wentian looked at Qin Dangtian's dao. The Absolute Beginning Heavenly Dao, the sword intent from it was actually able to undergo self-evolution and the manifestation of it seemed endless, becoming increasingly stronger.

Qin Wentian drew in a deep breath. A resplendent space time sword screen appeared around him and warped the time factor in his surroundings, drawing the Absolute Beginning Sword Beams into time gaps that were formed.

But this wasn't the end. The Absolute Beginning Sword Dao was terrifying because it could evolve and continuously grow stronger. It could absorb the force of ten thousand daos in the heavens and earth until the might in each sword beam became overwhelming. Terrifying strands of sword intent surrounded the sword region around Qin Wentian and now, the time factor in the entire surrounding the sword region was in, actually began to warp. This caused Qin Wentian's expression to freeze. The Absolute Beginning Sword Dao borrowed his dao to produce an even stronger sword dao that included aspects of his dao within.

For the light screen released by Qin Dangtian, it began to produce stronger and stronger sword beams that shot towards Qin Wentian, wanting to sever time and space apart. Its power seemed to be without limits.

"How strong." Someone sighed in admiration. Being able to comprehend such a heavenly dao enabled Qin Dangtian to grow stronger when he was faced with someone stronger. His comprehensions over the heavenly dao had already reached such a tyrannical extent. How much more terrifying would Qin Dangtian be in the future?

Qin Wentian was currently in the center of this storm. He felt slightly disappointed in himself when he saw the power of the Absolute Beginning Heavenly Dao. Was this the strength of Heaven's Son? His destined enemy. Although Qin Wentian was proud of himself and he has supreme talent, he still couldn't help but admit the strength of his opponent. At the very least as of now, Qin Dangtian who was already in the heavenly deity realm for several years was truly stronger than him in terms of insights gained about the heavenly dao. After all, Qin Wentian had just attained the dao very recently.

In terms of astral souls, Qin Wentian also didn't have an advantage. Firstly, he has yet to condense his final astral soul but Qin Dangtian released his final one. Qin Dangtian's ninth astral soul was the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul and he used it to comprehend the Absolute Beginning Dao, fusing his insights into it.

Qin Dangtian was truly brazen, but since he could have the title of Heaven's Son, there was naturally merit to this. The experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms weren't blind. Not everyone can have the title of Heaven's Son, and right now in the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there was only a single person worthy of that title.

Although Qin Dangtian was strong, unimaginably strong, the battle intent Qin Wentian was radiating actually surged continuously. He can be defeated but he cannot lose his intent to battle and cower. This was his destined enemy, he had to win against Qin Dangtian. As long as he doesn't die today, in the future, he would also make it his mission to defeat Qin Dangtian.

"After entering seclusion for so many years to comprehend my Absolute Beginning Dao, you should feel honored to be the first person to face off against it." Qin Dangtian calmly spoke. The sword intent flared stronger, wanting to destroy everything.

But at this moment, Qin Wentian moved. He rushed forth with unstoppable momentum and didn't hesitate at all as he slashed the demon sword towards Qin Dangtian. This was his spacetime sword dao, although it was merely in its embryonic form, it still was able to blaze with its own glory.

A sense of danger actually rose in Qin Dangtian's heart. After that, he saw the sword slash transcending space and time, slashing towards his head. His expression changed as he roared loudly. His Absolute Beginning Sword Dao erupted forth with a greater intensity, containing countless transformations, evolving into a stronger attack. The attack it produced similarly transcended space and time and slashed towards Qin Wentian. Also, the source it flowed from seemed unending, like the energy would never cease.

A brilliant beam of light that could tear the world asunder flashed. After that, the spectators only saw the two of them being separated at the instant of the collision. Just from spectating, they could sense how terrifying the two attacks were. At this moment, a wound filled with blood in the shape of a line appeared on Qin Dangtian's body. He stretched out his finger and gingerly touched his wound as his expression grew extremely unsightly. He was actually injured.

Qin Wentian was in even more dire straits, it felt like his body was on the verge of being severed. That unending flow of energy that was the Absolute Beginning Sword Dao had slashed his flesh apart. But, he depended on his heaven-defying undying energy to regenerate, allowing him to continue standing. Only he himself knew how heavily injured he was. Even his soul was damaged from that earlier attack.

"He actually managed to wound Qin Dangtian. "Everyone was shocked. Qin Wentian had just attained his dao. Although Qin Wentian was heavily injured, he actually also managed to injure the Heaven's Son. This was simply a miracle. The current Heaven's Son was much stronger than the past him who had defeated Luoshen Yu. His current understanding of the Absolute Beginning Heaven Dao was also much more terrifying. If he improved by another step, his dao would surely become one of those supreme daos at the peak.

"Take him down." At this moment, a few terrifying figures actually sped towards Qin Wentian, prepared to act against him. All of these figures were heavenly deities from the Qin Clan. The person who gave the order was an old elder from the Qin Clan. He wanted to capture Qin Wentian alive.

"GO!" Luoshen Chuan roared loudly as he clashed again with Qin Zheng. When the two of them pulled back from the impact, he took the change to yell at Qin Wentian.

If Qin Wentian was to land in the Qin Clan's hands, his ending would be unimaginably dire. Although Qin Wentian's talent was heaven-defying, he wouldn't have any opportunity to reverse the situation. The Qin Clan wouldn't give him the chance to do so.

When Qin Wentian heard his grandfather's roar, his heart trembled fiercely. After that, his figure flashed as he sped through the air. Go? Where can he go? He had no path left to go to.

After a moment of thought, he actually sped towards the direction of the Gods Extinction Path, at the very endpoint of the ancient heaven vault pathway!

Chapter 1889: Gods Extinction Path

At the very end of the ancient heaven vault path, there was a stone monument with the words 'Gods Extinction Path' engraved on it.

In the distance after the heaven vault path, only the boundless space could be seen, darkness was everywhere as skeletons floated in the air. They have been floating here since an unknown amount of time. Over there, no hints of life could be felt. That place was the path of gods extinction.

Gods extinction. Even if heavenly deities entered there, they would still die. It was truly a path of death.

But Qin Wentian at this moment, was basically facing a hopeless situation. If he had to choose between death or being captured by the Qin Clan, he would rather choose death. Most probably if he was captured by the Qin Clan, his ending would be even more agonizing than death.

Not only so, the Gods Extinction Path might have a sliver of chance for survival.

Hence, Qin Wentian flew towards here. After seeing the stone monument, he didn't hesitate and simply stepped off the path, flying into the unknown dark, a place where there were no hints of life. The heavenly deities behind him pursued frenziedly. Qin Wentian had no other choice left to him.

Behind, the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan also reached the end of the ancient heaven vault pathway. Qin Dangtian also came. When they stared into the distance, their expressions were cold. They were hesitating whether to continue ahead or not.

The Gods Extinction Path had countless ancient corpses floating within it. The atmosphere there was extremely heavy. Just from staring at the lonely and boundless dark space ahead, the heavenly deities all could feel a strong sense of danger.

However, Qin Wentian headed directly into the dark space with no hesitation. Should they follow him in?

Right now, even Qin Zheng had given up the battle against Luoshen Chuan and came here. To him, Qin Wentian was far more important than Luoshen Chuan. Although he had some grudges with the Luoshen Clan, the Qin Clan had always been the victor when the two clans competed. The Luoshen Clan wasn't a threat for the Qin Clan at all. Hence, he didn't have too strong a killing intent when he fought with Luoshen Chuan.

"What a ruthless fellow." Many heavenly deities silently mused when they saw Qin Wentian rushing into the death zone. He would rather enter the Gods Extinction Path rather than to allow the Qin Clan to capture him.

"Where can you flee to?" Qin Dangtian spoke. He took a step out and also entered the Gods Extinction Path, flying into the dark and endless void.

"Dang`er!" Qin Zheng's wife called out. Her beautiful eyes had worry in them, staring at the departing back of her son. Although she was very powerful, she still feared the unknown. After all, that place was the Gods Extinction Path, beyond the boundaries of Heaven Vault. There were corpses of many heavenly deities floating there. Who could guarantee that those who entered it would be able to return safely?

However, Qin Dangtian stepped forth with no hesitation. He was actually injured by Qin Wentian, this was simply something that ought not to happen. How could he let Qin Wentian flee now? Even if Qin Wentian fled into the Gods Extinction Path, he wouldn't spare him. He must capture Qin Wentian alive. He was Heaven's Son, he had his own pride. Hence, he didn't hesitate at all and directly entered Gods Extinction Path.

"Chase!" Qin Zheng's wife commanded. Her son had entered Gods Extinction Path, the end of the heaven vault path. They naturally had to go in with him. Her figure flashed as she entered the dark void too. Qin Zheng's eyes flashed as he also stepped out, following after. Not only for the sake of pursuing Qin Wentian, he was also extremely curious and wanted to probe the secrets of the dark void.

Luoshen Chuan's expression was extremely ugly. When he saw Qin Zheng and the others entering, he also stepped out and entered the dark void as well.

"Have all of them gone crazy?" Behind them, the Qiankun Sect Leader stared at those who entered the dark void which was the Gods Extinction Path. What if those who entered weren't able to exit?

"Don't you wish to take a look for yourself about the greatest secret in Heaven Vault?" The Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden asked. She was like the epitome of holiness, incomparably graceful and pure. She was dressed in white and stood in the air. Even heavenly deities were awed by her beauty.

"It's still you who understands me the most." The Qiankun Sect Leader laughed. He then turned to the experts behind him, "I should also be crazy for once. If I don't come out, Lin Xiao shall be my successor."

This voice thundered through the air, spreading out to extremely faraway. As the sound of his voice faded, he took a step and entered the dark void. Crazy? He could be crazy too.

Naturally, he didn't do this to pursue anyone. It was purely because of his curiosity regarding Heaven Vault. At his current cultivation level, he was already standing at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Only a scarce few people were above him. If he still wished to improve further, it was extremely difficult as well. He knew there were still a few reclusive figures who were extremely terrifying even to heavenly deities in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He also wanted to reach that realm.

Heaven Vault was directly connected to the nine heavenly layers. The end of the Heaven Vault Pathway was known as the Gods Extinction Path, it was a dark and endless void. How could he not feel curious about it?

The mystical maiden laughed. Her ethereal-like figure soared forward as she moved towards the direction of the Gods Extinction Path.

"Even the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden is walking towards there?" Many people sighed in their hearts. The number one beauty in the nine heavens, a character that exuded boundless magnificence. She didn't hesitate to enter the Gods Extinction Path as well. They, as men, and as heavenly deities, why would they not dare?

Hence, more and more heavenly deities entered. Most probably from ancient times up until now, there has not been so many experts entering the Gods Extinction Path at the same time.

The people inside Heaven Vault were shocked. If something happened to the heavenly deities in there, the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would suffer an earthquake-level commotion.

The moment Qin Wentian entered, he instantly could feel how terrifying this place was. There was no astral energy in here. No one could borrow energy from outer sources inside this place. It was a bleak place of complete loneliness and desolation.

Those ancient corpses floated in his vision, but they seemed a very far distance away, he had no way to get close to them. He could see people chasing after him from the back, but there was a formless energy that circulated inside the dark void. When Qin Wentian stepped into this place, he vanished completely, brought away by the currents. This happened to everyone who entered after him as well. Soon, all of them vanished from the vision of the other experts in the Heaven Vault.

"Where did they go?" The gazes of the experts in Heaven Vault froze, the heavenly deities who entered all vanished before their eyes. Regardless of vision or their divine senses, they were unable to sense those who stepped into the Gods Extinction Path.

Qin Wentian naturally could sense the formless energy in this space. In addition, he was very sensitive to this particular type of energy because he was comprehending this. The formless energy here was a mixture of both space and time.

The him now was actually traveling through time and space. He didn't know which direction he should go.

Also, the spacetime laws in the dark void were completely scrambled, he couldn't control it. He could only drift along with the current and had no way to choose where he wanted to go.

Not only for Qin Wentian, the others were also engulfed by the chaotic spacetime energy here and were floating about aimlessly in the dark void. Could it be that those heavenly deities who vanished in the past, were all missing due to this chaotic energy bringing them to unknown locations?

The spacetime laws here didn't seem like a law that had order at all. Would they still be able to return?

Even for heavenly deities with incredible wills, they also felt some fear towards this unknown energy. Their fates were out of their control.

At this moment, they saw many strange objects. The chaotic atmosphere of the twisting spacetime laws finally disappeared after a period of time and numerous long corridors appeared before their eyes. Some of the corridors intersected, some did not. No one knew where these corridors would lead them.

At this moment, Qin Wentian suddenly furrowed his brows. He could feel movement from the tiny astral-being in his sea of consciousness. It was emitting a faint luster and this feeling felt extremely bizarre. When he just entered Heaven Vault, the tiny astral-being showed a reaction. This was the second time it reacted. Such a situation was something that has never happened before.

He chose a corridor and entered it. After flying through for a long time, a human figure appeared in his vision. This figure was an old man but his eyes were full of spirit, gleaming brightly as he stared at Qin Wentian who just appeared.

However, Qin Wentian now was still trying to throw off his pursuers. He couldn't stop at all and simply sped past the old man.

After a few moments, the other heavenly deities arrived here and when they saw the old man, one of them asked, "Sir, who might you be?"

The old man stared at these people who just came as he counter-asked, "Where did you guys come from?"

"Heaven Vault." Qin Zheng replied.

"Heaven Vault, Heaven Vault. Why, oh why?" The old man gave a long sigh before turning and flying away.

"Old sir, might we inquire your name? Are you from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?" Someone asked.

"This old man is named Nine Purities." The old man calmly spoke. After that, his figure vanished completely. When they heard his name, some of the older heavenly deities trembled as their expressions drastically changed into one of shock.

"Daoist Nine Purities." They exchanged glances at each other. Nine Purities was an extremely ancient and immensely powerful heavenly deity. There were records about him in ancient scrolls. Back then, his strength eclipsed everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and he roamed independently through the eight great regions. He was rarely defeated and was terrifying to the extreme. Everyone in the world thought that he had already died but in truth, he was actually trapped at the very endpoint of Heaven Vault, inside the Gods Extinction Path.

Qin Wentian flew through the corridor and after some time, he saw a second person. This person seemed incomparably graceful and carefree. He had a headful of long hair and sat in the air. He was currently playing on a flute and sounds of a pleasing melody permeated the area he was in.

"What a handsome figure." A feeling appeared in Qin Wentian's heart. For some reason, this man seemed somewhat familiar, like he knew him.

When that person saw Qin Wentian, he stopped playing on the flute. His handsome eyes stared at Qin Wentian as a strange light flashed in his eyes.

Qin Wentian walked past him only to hear that person suddenly calling out, "Who is Qin Yuanfeng to you?"

Qin Wentian's body violently trembled as he paused his steps. He turned his head back and stared at that handsome figure, feeling shock in his heart.

"You are acquainted with my father?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Oh, so you are Yuanfeng's son." That person laughed. His gaze grew more gentle but at this very moment, Qin Dangtian and the others managed to catch up and appeared here as well. Qin Dangtian stepped out. He looked at Qin Wentian, "Even if you flee to the end of the heavens, you won't be able to escape."

"Who are you by the way?" The handsome figure glanced at Qin Dangtian.

"I should be asking the questions. Who are you? Why do you know the son of the traitor of our Qin Clan, Qin Yuanfeng?" Qin Dangtian had heard the earlier conversation between this man and Qin Wentian. Qin Zheng and his wife also arrived and they were staring at that handsome figure. They could feel a sense of familiarity from him, like they used to know him.

"My name is Qu Mo." That handsome figure calmly replied. When the sound of his voice faded, the eyes of Qin Zheng and his son narrowed as their expressions froze.

Qu Mo. These two words held a special meaning to Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian.

Because, the wife Qin Dangtian was going to marry, the number one beauty of the Heaven Region Nichang, was none other than Qu Mo's daughter!

Chapter 1890: Meeting in Time

Qin Dangtian stared at Qu Mo. Qu Mo was incomparably handsome and elegant. No wonder his daughter could become the number one beauty of the Heaven Region. Both father and daughter looked alike, causing him to feel a sense of familiarity.

"Nephew Dangtian pays my respects to uncle." Qin Dangtian clasped his hands. "If Nichang knows that uncle is still alive and well, she would surely be very happy."

"Nichang." Qu Mo's eyes flashed. His daughter, how was she now?

"You know my daughter?" Qu Mo stared at Qin Dangtian.

"Brother Qu." Qin Zheng stepped forward and spoke to Qu Mo. "I've long heard of Brother Qu's name. It's a pity that we didn't have a chance to be acquainted. I didn't expect to be able to meet with Brother Qu here. Most probably, this meeting was arranged by fate. Before I entered the Heaven Vault, I've already paid a visit to Uncle Qu to discuss about the marriage between my son Qin Dangtian and your daughter Nichang."

"Marriage?" Qu Mo's body trembled. His daughter was already going to get married?

"Who are you?" Qu Mo asked.

"The current Qin Clan Leader, Qin Zheng. This is my wife and my son Qin Dangtian." Qin Zheng spoke.

Qu Mu turned his gaze onto Qin Dangtian. He wasn't unfamiliar with the Qin Clan, on the contrary, he was extremely familiar with them. He was famous much earlier, during the time of Qin Zheng's youth, this was why Qin Zheng hasn't interacted with him before. However, Qu Mo knows Qin Zheng's father, Qin Ding, as well as Qin Tiangang. Qu Mo was also acquainted with Qin Yuanfeng.

"Earlier, you said that Qin Yuanfeng is the traitor of the Qin Clan?" Qu Mo stared at Qin Dangtian as he asked.

"Uncle Qu, Qin Yuanfeng once betrayed the Qin Clan and is undoubtedly a traitor. Many years ago, he was hunted down by the Qin Clan and this brat is none other than the vile spawn Qin Yuanfeng left behind, Qin Wentian." Qin Dangtian pointed to Qin Wentian as he continued, "Because he fled to here, that is the reason why we pursued him until here. We didn't expect to be able to meet Uncle Qu here. This must be an arrangement of fate."

"From what I know, Yuanfeng is a magnanimous and heroic individual, how would he betray the Qin Clan?" Qu Mu felt extremely doubtful. He glanced at Qin Wentian after that. He naturally knew that different people had different opinions, and he wouldn't believe someone fully.

"Wentian pays my respects to Uncle Qu." Qin Wentian was also very polite. At this moment, he naturally knew who this handsome man before him was. This man was acquainted with his father and their relationship seemed to be not bad.

"People of the Qin Clan are all incomparably shameless. It's true that my father rebelled against the Qin Clan and left it but it is only because the Qin Clan let my father down first. My father has always stood tall and faced the heavens proudly all his life. He initially wanted to live a reclusive life with my mother but this despicable person Qin Zheng sought him out and acted against him. After Qin Zheng lost, he wasn't convinced and used all methods at his disposal to force my father to act. Ultimately, in a fit of rage, my father killed his way into the Qin Clan and everything he had was seized from him, including his flesh, rune bone, blood and possessions." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. Qu Mo's gaze froze as a look of sorrow flickered in his eyes. Yuanfeng actually died?

"What a load of nonsense. You are the son of a traitor from the Qin Clan and will naturally speak for him. Uncle Qu, please don't believe him." Qin Dangtian spoke in cold arrogance. After speaking, he stepped out and walked towards Qin Wentian. "Even if you flee to the ends of the world, I will still pursue and capture you back to the Qin Clan."

"Yuanfeng has already also died? Ultimately, did he not escape his destiny?" Qu Mo mumbled in a low voice, his tone was filled with sorrow.

"Also?" The experts here glanced at Qu Mo. When they heard this word, a strange look appeared on their faces. Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian looked closely at Qu Mo before Qin Zheng spoke, "Brother Qu, why is there a need for you to feel sorrow for a traitor? What sort of place is this Gods Extinction Path? Why doesn't Brother Qu come with us and we can join forces to barge our way out?"

"Barge our way out?" Qu Mo turned his gaze onto Qin Zheng. "I pray for your good luck. I really hope you guys will be able to leave this place. As for me, there's no more opportunities left."

"Uncle, what do you mean?" Qin Dangtian asked. However when he spoke, his tone was calm, there weren't much emotions in it. Even though this man before him was Nichang's father, the person he liked was Goddess Nichang. Initially, everything was fine. But this man actually was acquainted with Qin Yuanfeng and had a good relationship with that traitor.

"In this place, the people you meet might exist in a different spacetime. Do you understand what I mean? They may be from a certain time back in the past. I'm a very good example." Qu Mo slowly spoke. "Now, for me, it is my present, but for you guys, you see me in the past. In my future, I've already died in the Gods Extinction Path."

"A spacetime from the past…?" The hearts of everyone trembled. This place was actually a zone of intermingled timelines? Qu Mo had actually truly died and no longer existed in the real present. He only existed at a space and time in the past. As for them, the corridor they chose led them to here.

This was simply unimaginable. The hearts of every expert present pounded wildly.

"Brother Qu, how did you die?" Qin Zheng asked again. His gaze blazed with a fiery heat. It wasn't because he was sad for Qu Mo, he just wanted to know what Qu Mo experienced before he died. Only knowing the answer would enable him to probe the secrets of the Gods Extinction Path further.

Qu Mu calmly glanced at Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian. He suddenly felt somewhat uneasy. He didn't like this father and son pair at all. In fact, he felt an intense dislike for them.

"Since you addressed me as Brother Qu, can you promise me to spare him? After all, Yuanfeng is a good friend of mine. Now, after all of you entered this place, your lives are already not up to your control. Why is there a need to fight each other?" Qu Mu sighed, as he spoke sincerely.

"Brother Qu, this Qin Wentian is the son of the traitor. Our Qin Clan has to capture him for sure. I hope Brother Qu can understand this." Qin Zheng politely rejected.

"Uncle, I will definitely walk out of this place alive. You don't need to worry about Nichang. I will take good care of her on your behalf. In the future, she is destined to be above everything, ruling the masses beside me." Qin Dangtian spoke with arrogance. Qu Mu glanced at the two of them. This father and son pair was truly alike. As expected of them being father and son.

"If you can leave here alive, help me tell my father and Nichang that I, Qu Mo, don't agree to this marriage." Qu Mu transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian froze before nodding his head. If he could leave this place alive, he would pass on the message. From his perspective, he also doesn't wish for Goddess Nichang to be married to Qin Dangtian.

Upon seeing Qin Wentian nodding, Qu Mo placed the flute in his hands towards his lips. He then played a melody. The sound of the flute was filled with a hint of sorrow, as well as longing.

Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian stared at Qu Mu. Seeing that he was playing his flute and ignoring them, Qin Dangtian turned his gaze back to Qin Wentian. He then took a step forward as he spoke, "Do you still want to flee?"

As he spoke, the Qin Clan's experts stepped out, surrounding Qin Wentian from all directions. Luoshen Chuan stepped out and arrived beside Qin Wentian. He didn't expect that even when Qin Wentian fled into the Gods Extinction Path, there was still no way to avoid the Qin Clan.

The Qin Clan was actually willing to pay any price to catch him.

"Grandfather, you don't need to care about me." Qin Wentian sighed. Luoshen Chuan stared at him, his expression was incomparably calm as he spoke, "You are my grandson."

Qin Wentian's heart trembled as currents of warmth flowed in his heart. This was his maternal grandfather, the father of his mother.

"Since this is the case, grandfather let us fight together." Qin Wentian laughed loudly. His aura erupted forth. Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian both coldly laughed. Struggling at death's door? Was there any meaning to it?

Just as their auras gushed out, the flute melody changed, transforming into waves of power from the great dao. The sound waves spread out in all directions and at this moment, the surroundings here started to twist. The time corridor was changing as well. The flute melody seemed to have created a tunnel that would lead to a different point in space and time.

"This…" All the experts stared at Qu Mo. The distance between them and him seemed to be increasing, yet also nearing. It was very chaotic and confusing. Qu Mo merely sat there calmly, playing on his flute. It was like the matters of the world wouldn't be able to disturb his heart.

"What is he doing?" Someone asked, but nobody knew. However, they had a feeling of travelling through time.

No one understood what Qu Mo wanted to do. Qu Mo continued playing his flute as everyone was being transported through different spacetime. They met many different people, everyone they saw had existed in Heaven Vault once in the past. No one knew if those people they saw were alive but trapped, or had already died.

"He wants to send us to a different point in time." An expert spoke, understanding Qu Mo's intents. However, they didn't know which spacetime Qu Mo wanted to send them to exactly.

Finally, when a certain figure appeared in this particular spacetime, Qu Mo's flute melody suddenly ceased. The time and space here no longer twisted. Qu Mo's figure moved further and further before gradually vanishing from the vision of everyone. Another figure had replaced him. That figure stood there, giving off an aura as mighty as a majestic ocean, like an evergreen tree that stood tall and straight. His headful of black hair fluttered in the wind. The lines on his face were also incomparably clear. When at the instant Qin Wentian laid his eyes on this man, his heart couldn't help but tremble.

Not only him, when Qin Zheng and Luoshen Chuan saw this man, their gazes also froze as they looked at the man in disbelief.

The eyes of this man were terrifying to the extreme, as though they contained the myriad of constellations within. The gaze of this man turned to Qin Wentian. It was like despite everyone being here, he only had eyes for Qin Wentian alone.

Their gazes matched, as though crossing through a cycle of samsara. They were seperated by boundless distance but the flute melody of Qu Mu matched their points in space and time together, allowing this man to encounter Qin Wentian here at this moment.

Qin Dangtian stared at the imposing man in front of him as he frowned. He also seemed to have sensed something. He turned to his father only to see Qin Zheng staring at this man in shock, yet that man didn't even glanced at Qin Zheng.

"My name is Qin Wentian, the son of Qin Yuanfeng." At this moment, Qin Wentian suddenly spoke, revealing his name.

That figure stared at him. After that, that figure slowly spoke, " My name is Qin Tiangang!"

Chapter 1891: War God of the Past

"My name is Qin Tiangang."

As the sound of his voice rang out, the hearts of many people involuntarily trembled. Qin Tiangang of the Qin Clan, he was Qin Zheng's clan uncle, of the same generation as Qin Ding who was Qin Zheng's father. During their era, both he and Qin Ding could summon the wind and call the rain in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. And now, he actually appeared before their eyes, encountering them in this particular point of space and time.

It seemed that Qu Mo intentionally sent them here. He only stopped his flute melody after this spacetime was connected to the corridor, he seemed to have the intention of helping Qin Wentian.

Qin Tiangang, is the grandfather of Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian stared at the figure before him.

He didn't expect he would have a chance to meet with his grandfather at the very end of Heaven Vault, in the chaotic space that was the Gods Extinction Path.

"Grandfather!" Qin Wentian called out. The deep contours of Qin Tiangang's face smoothed as he revealed a smile. He took a large step forward and appeared before Qin Wentian. After that his hands patted Qin Wentian on his shoulders, "I didn't expect the three generations of our family actually all came in here. Maybe, this is fate."

"Father has indeed came here before." Qin Wentian silently mused. Qin Dangtian surveyed Qin Wentian at a close distance as he continued to speak, "Good, very good. You really resemble Yuanfeng a lot when he was younger."

Luoshen Chuan stared at the scene before him, he was also similarly shocked in his heart. He didn't expect to be able to meet Qin Tiangang here. Most probably, Qin Zheng and his family also never imagined this.

Qu Mo's daughter Goddess Nichang had a marriage engagement with Qin Dangtian, but Qu Mo was acquainted with Qin Tiangang and Qin Yuanfeng. He wanted Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian to spare Qin Wentian and they didn't agree. Clearly, Qu Mo disliked Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian. He used his flute melody to send everyone to another point in spacetime, bringing them to the spacetime where Qin Tiangang was.

At this moment, Qin Tiangang's expression suddenly turned cold. He looked at Qin Wentian and asked softly, "How's your father?"

"Back then, father was killed by the Qin Clan and everything on his body was seized from him. Right now, I have no idea whether he is still alive or has he already died." Qin Wentian replied. Qin Tiangang's aura grew even colder. He turned and faced Qin Zheng as well as the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan. His gaze then landed on one of the heavenly deities. That heavenly deity was an old man. Back then when Qin Tiangang was still in the Qin Clan, this old man was already a Qin Clan's elder. His name was Qin Mo.

"Tiangang. I didn't expect to be able to meet you here." Qin Mo's heart was also filled with shock. It wasn't until now when he finally chose to say something.

Qin Tiangang's aura was still as cold as ice. He glanced at everyone of the Qin Clan, "The Qin Clan killed my son?"

"Tiangang, after you were trapped in Heaven Vault, many things happened in the Qin Clan, you don't understand the situation at all. The Qin Clan has always nurtured Qin Yuanfeng properly, hoping that he can inherit your legacy. However, Yuanfeng's personality was overly rebellious, he even dared to act against the elders of the Qin Clan for the sake of a mere woman. He didn't hesitate to pay any price and he even betrayed the Qin Clan to be with her. In the end, he actually killed his way into our clan. If we had a choice, the Qin Clan would also not have chosen to kill him." Qin Mo spoke. His addressing of Qin Yuanfeng had changed from traitor to Yuanfeng.

"Earlier in another spacetime, I have heard all the words you guys have spoken." Qin Tiangang coldly spoke. "Qin Mo, do you think that I, Qin Tiangang, am so easily fooled? How much have I given for the sake of the Qin Clan? Yet, the Qin Clan actually killed my son?!"

"Who was the one who gave the order." A violent aura gushed forth from Qin Tiangang.

"Since he was killed, he was killed. A traitor naturally deserved to be killed. So what if he is your son?" Qin Dangtian coldly spoke. Even when facing Qin Tiangang, his tone was still filled with arrogance. How can the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan be frightened with meeting someone who has already died.

"Qin Ding's grandson." Qin Tiangang stared at him. "Do you know who you are talking to?"

"Hmph." Qin Dangtian coldly snorted. Qin Zheng hurriedly interjected, "Uncle. Father misses you even now. Back then when Uncle roamed the Heaven Vault, the life-sensing tablet you left behind crumbled into pieces. The Qin Clan was very sad by that."

"So, after I died, the Qin Clan dared to kill my son? Is this an order given by your father Qin Ding?" Qin Tiangang stared at Qin Zheng.

"Yuanfeng's matter caused us to feel sorrow too. Me and him were brothers from young and grew up together. However, he had betrayed the Qin Clan so the clan had no choice but to kill him. That was the will of the entire Qin Clan and not an order given by any individual." Qin Zheng spoke.

"Qin Zheng, do you still want face?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. "Why do your words change so much now? Back then, you guys seized everything for my father, his bloodline, his rune bone, his talent, everything from his body. You all used the most cruel and brutal method to deal with my father. Did all of that spring from being brothers since young? Were you all forced to do that?"

"BOOM!" An even more savage aura gushed forth from Qin Tiangang. He stared at Qin Wentian, "The Qin Clan really used such a method to deal with your father?"

"Yes. In the memory fragments my father left for me, I personally witnessed everything." Qin Wentian nodded.

"HAHAHA…" Qin Tiangang suddenly laughed loudly, the volume of his laughter causing the entire space to tremble.

"What an excellent Qin Clan, you all actually treated my son like this?" Qin Tiangang was completely enraged. The heavenly deities of the Qin Clan exchanged mutual glances, they silently transmitted voice messages to each other and spread out their positioning, as thought wanting to surround Qin Tiangang. They knew how powerful Qin Tiangang was in the past. Now that they met him again inside here, they had no idea how strong the current Qin Tiangang is. Hence, they had to deal with this very cautiously.

"Tiangang, could it be that you are planning to act against the clan?" Qin Mo coldly spoke.

"The clan?" Qin Tiangang was still laughing. "Is this still my clan? I, Qin Tiangang, actually have such a despicable clan?"

"Since uncle is determined to betray the clan today, your nephew, me, as the clan leader of the current Qin Clan, can only choose to offend you." Qin Zheng spoke. "Act against him together."

As the sound of his voice faded, the heavenly deities from the Qin Clan all unleashed their heavenly dao might. The divine punishment light flashed brilliantly in the air, forming the divine formation. Radiance from the divine formation then cascaded down, engulfing Qin Tiangang, wanting to destroy him by divine punishment.

"Qin Ding, your son has now become the Qin Clan Leader. As for my son, he was killed by the Qin Clan. Excellent, what an excellent clan!" Qin Tiangang was still laughing uproariously. The heavens and earth seemed to be crumbling as the divine formation vibrated intensely like it was out of control, as though it could shatter any time.

Qin Zheng released his astral soul. A divine punishment sky canopy appeared behind him, blotting out the sky. The divine formation expanded and locked onto Qin Tiangang. Powerful beams of divine punishment light descended from the sky, brimming with a fearsome destructive might that wanted to annihilate everything.

Qin Tiangang inclined his head. He opened his mouth and sucked in a deep breath abruptly. In the next instant, the beams of divine punishment were actually devoured by him. The fearsome power of the Divine Punishment Heavenly Dao completely vanished.

"Qin Clan. Very good. I Qin Tiangang has actually become a traitor now and the Qin Clan Leader even wants to kill me." Qin Tiangang laughed. "But, can any of you kill me?"

As the sound of his voice faded, he stretched out his five fingers as a terrifying energy erupted forth. After that, he closed his fingers into a fist as the space around here trembled violently.

"BREAK!" Qin Tiangang slammed out with a punch, aiming for the divine formation. In the next moment, the entire sky seemed about to break apart. The divine formation shattered completely. His fist slammed out with the power to destroy an entire world, and the remnant force of that punch continued to flow towards Qin Zheng.

At this moment, Qin Dangtian appeared. His divine barrier appeared around him, allowing him to have an incomparable defense that could absorb the power of ten thousand laws. He wanted to absorb the energy of this attack and turn it back onto Qin Tiangang.

"Dang`er, don't do that!" Qin Dangtian's mother shouted loudly. Although Qin Dangtian's heavenly dao power was strong, the person he was facing off against was Qin Tiangang, once known as the War God of the Qin Clan in the past. Although he had disappeared for many years, he was still alive in this particular spacetime inside the Gods Extinction Path. No one knew how much more powerful he was now.

When Qin Ding and Qin Tiangang's name resounded famously through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, she and Qin Zheng were still youths. At that time, Qin Tiangang and Qin Ding were already legends of the Qin Clan. The War God of the Qin Clan Qin Tiangang, could shatter heavenly daos with a single punch.

But when she called out, it was already too late. Qin Tiangang's attack landed at the same time as her warning, directly blasting into the divine barrier. The heavenly dao that made the divine barrier collapsed completely. The power of this punch seemed to be able to penetrate the annals of time. Qin Dangtian's body was flung through the air directly as blood seeped from the corners of his lips. His dao was able to absorb the power of the daos of other people. But under the might of this punch, his dao actually shattered and he was heavily injured.

"Dang`er!" Qin Zheng's wife screamed as she flew towards her son. At the same time, the various heavenly deities of the Qin Clan unleashed their heavenly dao powers at the same time, launching attacks at Qin Tiangang. For a period of time, the entire space here seemed to be on the verge of destruction. An even stronger divine formation manifested and its radiance engulfed this boundless space, causing the divine punishment dao to permeate the atmosphere. The entire space seemed like a scene from the apocalypse.

"Was this how you guys bullied my grandson earlier?" Qin Tiangang's battle intent soared up into the sky like he was a War God from the primordial era. He ignored the countless dao attacks and stood tall facing the barrage. When the divine punishment beams of light and the other destructive abilities flowed towards him, the time and space around Qin Tiangang suddenly seemed to blur. The attacks that were supposed to blast into his body were sent to some other place due to the twisting of time and space here. It seemed that no attacks could touch him, not even attacks from the divine punishment heavenly dao.

Upon seeing this scene, the hearts of everyone pounded violently. How powerful. So this was once the legendary War God of the Qin Clan, Qin Tiangang?

He alone could fight against all the heavenly deities from the Qin Clan.

"KILL!" Qin Tiangang roared. A dimensional light flashed causing time and space to reverse. The earlier attacks that were sent to some unknown place, actually reversed their trajectories and shot back at their attackers. At the same time, he punched out and flew towards the Qin Clan's heavenly deities.

A thunderous rumbling rang out as the entire area shook, causing the void to collapse. Numerous heavenly deities of the Qin Clan were directly injured and coughed out blood. Their countenances were pale as their eyes flashed with disbelief, staring at the legendary character of their Qin Clan. This man was the War God of their Qin Clan and now, he was acting against them. If he was truly still alive, what a great irony that would be.

Luoshen Chuan sighed when he saw this scene. Before Qin Tiangang, even Qin Zheng couldn't withstand a single strike. The power of his divine punishment could directly be swallowed up by Qin Tiangang. This was simply pure dominance. Through the strength displayed by Qin Tiangang, Luoshen Chuan could see the disparity between the Luoshen Clan and Qin Clan. Qin Ding was someone of equal fame with Qin Tiangang. Right now, how far has Qin Ding embarked upon the path of the heavenly deity realm? Was he at the same level as Qin Tiangang?

Chapter 1892: Pass Down for Three Generations

From afar, the other heavenly deities spectating this also felt shock in their hearts. The Qin Clan of the Heaven Region. If back then, Qin Tiangang didn't enter the Heaven Vault, the current Qin Clan would undoubtedly reign supreme over all the other hegemonic powers in the Heaven Region. Qin Tiangang alone could fight against countless heavenly deities.

In addition, there was still his wife, and his son Qin Yuanfeng.

Luckily some situations appeared, causing internal conflict. If not, if the Qin Clan was too powerful, the balance in the Heaven Region would be gone.

Qin Tiangang didn't care about what these people were thinking. He stepped out and traversed across space as he coldly spoke, "Back then, who among you all participated in the killing of my son Yuanfeng?"

"Tiangang, Yuanfeng did betray the Qin Clan then. Now, you even heavily injured people of our clan, can you face the ancestors of our Qin Clan?" Qin Mo shouted loudly. He was also injured by Qin Tiangang and was extremely shocked by it. Compared to the Qin Tiangang who vanished years ago, this Qin Tiangang was so much more powerful that he was terrifying.

Only at the heavenly deity realm would a cultivator understand that this path was a path without end. You had no idea what heights entailed the peak of the heavenly deity realm.

Was Qin Zheng strong? As the current clan leader of the Qin Clan he naturally was extremely strong and can be considered at the peak of heavenly deities in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Leaving aside Qin Zheng, was Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian powerful? He naturally was powerful. Given his age and talent, he was absolutely outstanding. Even in ancient times, his talent was rare. He was able to cripple the Skyorder Heavenly Deity the moment he entered the heavenly deity realm.

But so what of it? No matter how strong they are, they weren't even able to withstand a single strike before Qin Tiangang. No one could block him at all. This was the absolute disparity between their strengths. The Qin Tiangang now was extremely terrifying, no one knew how strong he was when compared to godkings.

"The Qin Clan treated my son like this yet you still have the face to mention about the ancestors to me? Did the Qin Clan manage to not let me down?" Qin Tiangang was even more enraged after hearing to the other party's words. He stepped forth and moved straight towards a heavenly deity from the Qin Clan.

"Traitor." That heavenly deity coldly spoke.

"Hahaha, I, Qin Tiangang, actually became a traitor of the Qin Clan." Qin Tiangang laughed maniacally. The space trembled. Qin Mo silently mused that things were dire but before he could do anything, Qin Tiangang continued speaking icily, "Killing my son, acting against my grandson. Since the Qin Clan was inhumane first, don't blame me for being cruel."

He roared in rage. That heavenly deity who spoke earlier felt space around him shuddering. After that, Qin Tiangang grabbed out with five fingers and clenched them tightly, sending out a punch that seemed to travel through time, capable of penetrating everything. With a rumbling boom, that heavenly deity lowered his head and surveyed his body. A huge hole appeared on his chest area and a moment later, the rest of his body started to explode. He died in despair.

A heavenly deity died from a single punch.

When the experts from the Qin Clan saw this, all of them were filled with disbelief as chills seized their hearts.

"Qin Tiangang!" Qin Zheng roared. He took out a treasure. After that, he bit his tongue and allowed a drop of blood to drip on it. In an instant, a supreme divine artifact appeared before Qin Zheng.

This was a treasured armor, the armor instantly enlarged, blotting out the sky, manifesting many ancient rune words that contained the power of the dao in them. It instantly surrounded Qin Tiangang and after that, many rune words blasted towards Qin Tiangang. Each of the rune words seemed to be a figure from the ancient era, each containing a different type of dao might.

"Myriad Laws Armor." Qin Tiangang stared at the treasured armor as his eyes flashed with cold tyranny. This was a supreme treasure of the Qin Clan. Now it landed in the possession of Qin Zheng and he was actually using it to deal with him.

Above the Myriad Law Armor, blasts of power shot from it, streaking through the skies aiming for Qin Tiangang.

"RUMBLE~!" A shocking might erupted forth from Qin Tiangang. He was truly like a god of war, the numerous attacks launched at him all exploded in the twisting strands of times around him before they could come in contact with him.

The Myriad Laws Armor spun rapidly, the dao beams of light it shot out grew stronger and stronger. Those figures that appeared caused Qin Tiangang to hesitate, these figures were all formed from the ancestors of the Qin Clan. The Myriad Laws Armor was something the first ancestor of the Qin Clan created and passed it down to successive generations. Each ancient rune word represented a different heavenly dao comprehended by the different ancestors.

"KILL!" Qin Tiangang roared. The light radiating from the Myriad Laws Armor became even more terrifying, engulfing the entire area. The spectating heavenly deities all hurriedly retreated. This world-destroying light was extremely powerful. Luoshen Chuan stepped before Qin Wentian to shield him as he softly spoke, "Be careful."

Qin Tiangang took a step out and blocked the other angles where Qin Wentian might be injured from. As for himself, he stood in the center of this storm. Around him, space and time twisted rapidly as numerous Qin Tiangangs appeared. Each of the figures raised their fists gathering their power. With a thunderous shout, all the Qin Tiangangs unleashed a punch so powerful that it could destroy space and time, clashing against the treasured beams of light from the armor. For a period of time, the entire surroundings were completely devastated. Even this stretch of spacetime seemed about to be destroyed.

"LEAVE!" Qin Zheng howled. At the same time when he attacked, the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan retreated. When Qin Zheng also fled away, the Myriad Law Armors transformed into a beam of light that followed after him.

Qin Tiangang didn't pursue them when he saw Qin Zheng and the others fleeing. If they could survive and walk out of this Gods Extinction Path, good for them then.

The other heavenly deities from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that retreated far away were still extremely shocked. So this was the War God of the Qin Clan, Qin Tiangang. Depending on his strength alone, he fought against all the heavenly deities from the Qin Clan and injured them all, even killing one of them. When Qin Zheng took out that supreme treasure, he could only use that to create an opportunity for them to flee. If not, if they truly clashed head-on, those heavenly deities of the Qin Clan would probably die here today.

Qin Tiangang's strength has reached a completely different level.

Turning back, Qin Tiangang walked towards Qin Wentian. Luoshen Chuan tactfully walked away, giving the two of them some private space to speak.

Qin Tiangang looked at Qin Wentian, like he would never be able to see enough of him. He didn't expect his grandson to already be so big. In addition, he had already attained the dao and entered the endpoint of the Heaven Vault.

After that, Qin Tiangang turned and stared at the other heavenly deities faraway. "You guys leave this place immediately. I have something I wish to talk to my grandson about."

The eyes of everyone flashed before they departed respectively.

"Wentian, I didn't expect Yuanfeng's son to have already become an adult. Excellent, this is truly excellent." Qin Tiangang felt countless emotions in his heart. After sometime, his gaze turned sharp, he stared at Qin Wentian, "Wentian, is your father still alive?"

"Back then, everything father had was stripped from him by the Qin Clan. But from what I know, he had a second life time and he recultivated starting from scratch. During his second lifetime, I was born." Qin Wentian spoke. After that, he told everything he knew to Qin Tiangang.

After Qin Tiangang knew everything, he clenched his fist tightly but a palpable sense of anger radiated from him like a terrifying primordial beast.

"Qin Clan, what a good Qin Clan." Qin Tiangang inclined his head and coldly spoke. "Wentian, I'm afraid that this debt of revenge has to fall on your shoulders."

"Grandfather, what…" Qin Wentian stared at Qin Tiangang.

"I'm no longer alive. The me you see now belongs to a different spacetime." Qin Tiangang smiled at Qin Wentian, casually speaking of his death like he wasn't bothered at all.

"How can that be? Since I can see grandfather, it means that you are still alive in that certain spacetime. Since that is the case, there should be a way." Qin Wentian got the answer but this wasn't the answer he wanted. His grandfather Qin Tiangang was actually the same as Qu Mo. In truth, they had already died. They only existed in a spacetime of the past. Qu Mo probably sent him here because he intentionally wanted to allow them to meet.

"No matter how strong one's cultivation base is, it is impossible for them to revive from the dead. This Gods Extinction Path exists in a zone where time and space are in disorder. Me being able to stay alive in some other spacetime is considered already very good. Also, I even manage to see you, I'm already very satisfied." Qin Tiangang didn't really mind it. He had already died for many years but at a certain spacetime in the past, he was still alive.

"If this Gods Extinction Path undergoes spacetime reversal and returns to the past, wouldn't grandfather be able to be still alive?" Qin Wentian spoke. When he participated in the convention of the myriad realms, he had once returned to the past inside the Time Realm. The Godking of Time's insights into the laws of time allowed him to traverse between the past, present and future effortlessly.

"Isn't that equal to my current state now? That would also be a spacetime of the past." Qin Tiangang laughed.

Qin Wentian froze before continuing, "But if we can return to the spacetime before grandfather died, we might be able to save grandfather and change what had happened, allowing grandfather to return alive."

Qin Wentian felt some reluctance. He finally met with his paternal grandfather only to learn that his grandfather had already died.

"Silly child." Qin Tiangang patted Qin Wentian on his shoulder. "Let's not talk about grandfather's issues. Talk more about you instead. Why did you come into the Heaven Vault, was it because you knew this was the place where I died?"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. "After I receive news that the Heaven Vault had opened, I knew grandfather came here before, hence I decided to enter this place too. I disguised myself but I didn't expect my disguise to be seen through by the Qin Clan. They started to pursue me and I had no choice but to head into the Gods Extinction Path to seek a chance for survival. I didn't expect to be able to encounter Senior Qu Mo and grandfather in here."

"Haha that little brat Qu Mo truly has the heart." Qin Tiangang laughed.

"Grandfather, what is this place exactly? I saw many heavenly deities being trapped here. Are they all in a spacetime of the past? How did grandfather die back then?" Qin Wentian asked. This Gods Extinction Path was filled with many strange things. Maybe his grandfather knew a thing or two about this place.

"Gods Extinction Path...Back then because of greed, it caused bad karma and I died in here." Qin Tiangang sighed. "Wentian, did your father pass you that item?"

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. He stared at Qin Tiangang as though he thought of something. "Grandfather, are you referring to the tiny astral-being?"

Qin Tiangang started. After that, he nodded his head, "It does indeed resemble a tiny astral constellation humanoid. In that case, that item is with you?"

"Mhm, father passed it to me. When I first entered the Heaven Vault, it had a reaction. Could it be that this item is something grandfather passed on to father?" Qin Wentian curiously asked.

"That's right. The three generations of our family have the same encounter. Seems like fate wants that item to belong to my descendants." Qin Tiangang's eyes gleamed sharply. Since Qin Yuanfeng has passed that item to Qin Wentian, there was no need to worry about the fact that Qin Wentian wouldn't be able to leave here!

Chapter 1893: Secret of the Tiny Astral-being

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. His grandfather was the first person who obtained the tiny astral-being. In that case, he might know of the secrets within.

"Grandfather, what sort of thing is the tiny astral-being exactly?" Qin Wentian asked. The tiny astral-being was mysterious and unfathomable but he had never been able to truly probe its secrets before.

"Let me talk to you about Heaven Vault first." Qin Tiangang spoke. "Back then, I launched punitive expeditions for the Qin Clan and aided the Qin Clan, allowing them to climb to the peak of the Heaven Region. My cultivation base was already high enough, hence I wanted to probe the unknown secrets of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. I went to many places and searched for information that had records of the secret realms in this world. Even for some secret realms that were concealed very well, I managed to find them. And there was one time when I received information that hinted heavily that the Heaven Vault had a very important connection with a legendary figure of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Hence, I decided to explore this place."

"Who is the legendary figure?" Qin Wentian asked. Being able to attract his grandfather, this legendary figure was definitely an impressive fellow.

"During the period of time when the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were divided into eight great regions, the first generation king of the Heaven Region, Godking Xi." Qin Tiangang slowly spoke. "My investigations told me that the hometown of Godking Xi was none other than Boundless City that lies beside the Boundless Ocean."

"Grandfather, do you suspect that Heaven Vault has a connection with Godking Xi?" Qin Wentian's countenance changed. The king of the Heaven Region, Godking Xi. What sort of powerful existence was that?

At the time when the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were split into the eight great regions, each of the eight regions were ruled by a godking. Now, where were all of them?

"I've been thinking about this. Those godkings who stood at the peak of the heavenly deity realm, where did they go? Most probably, they wanted to pursue an even higher cultivation realm. I discovered that the Heaven Vault might have a very high possibility that it had a connection with Godking Xi. Hence, I decided to explore the secrets here, heading deeper into its depths. In any case, many things happened after that. Oh, by the way, I suddenly thought of something. When you entered the Heaven Vault, did you pass by a place where there were ten heavenly pillars with statues on them?"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Before you reach the ancient heaven vault pathway, did you have to traverse a blood sea using boats made from bones?" Qin Tiangang asked again. Qin Wentian continued to nod.

"Blood as a sea, bones as a boat. There are all sorts of negative emotions in the blood sea. Have you ever thought about that? I was wondering if that blood sea could have been transformed from the blood of a supreme expert. The bone boats were made from his bones. As to those negative emotions of despair, it should caused by the stray thoughts of the supreme expert's heart. They are not illusions, they are all real." Qin Tiangang spoke, his words causing Qin Wentian's heart to tremble as he stared at Qin Tiangang in shock.

"Grandfather, are you saying that Heaven Vault is an internal world inside the body of a supreme expert?" Qin Wentian felt somewhat flabbergasted. This thinking...wasn't it slightly too audacious?

"Initially, I didn't dare to think about it. But after that, when I came to the Gods Extinction Path, I realized that there are many terrifying types of destructive energy here. In addition, the time and space here would intersect often, causing people to be trapped here for all eternity. This resembled countless memories inside the mind of someone. Every memory existed in a different timespace and each timespace had their own daos here. After I obtained the tiny astral-being, it further confirmed the guesses I had in my heart. The tiny astral-being is like an item transformed from someone's soul, it could control everything here. However, in order to obtain this, I was on my last breath of life. I depended on my will and forcibly broke apart the spacetime I was in to escape but I no longer had the strength to leave this place. I could only wait here in reluctance, until your father came in to find me."

Qin Wentian felt his heart trembling fiercely when he heard his grandfather's words. The tiny astral-being was an item transformed from a soul?

"If the nature of this thing really is a soul, given my current power, wouldn't it be easy for me to find its secret?" Qin Wentian spoke.

"You are thinking too much. This man's divine sense could encapsulate the entire nine heavenly layers. I believe that his cultivation base was already approaching the rumored Transcendence Realm, infinitesimally close to that realm where no one in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms had managed to step into before. His ambitions were extremely vast, wanting to occupy the nine heavenly layers for himself. The soul energy he transformed into isn't merely so simple just to cover the constellations in the nine heavenly layers. He wanted to reach a higher point, becoming an existence that surpassed the nine heavenly layers and it seemed that he had almost succeeded. However, I suspect that he was just a single step away and still failed ultimately. This was why he allowed his body to transform into the Heaven Vault and wanted to wait for people of the later generations to accomplish the ambitions he had, but couldn't achieve."

Qin Tiangang slowly spoke, Qin Wentian's heart continuously trembled. He thought about the countless astral fragments inside the tiny astral-being. It was an item that could also store memories. The tiny astral-being itself seemed to be a universe that could contain countless constellations. This was something very similar to his grandfather's conjectures. Using divine sense to encapsulate the nine heavenly layers, Godking Xi most probably wasn't willing to exist below the nine heavens and wished to become an existence surpassing them.

Such ambitions were truly great. How could someone else not feel their heart trembling after they heard it.

"Mhm." Qin Tiangang nodded. "After I obtained the tiny astral-being, I tried to probe its origins. I believe that your father must have done so as well. Now, I don't know if any changes occurred after it was transferred to you. But since fate arranged for it to be passed through the bodies of our three generations, I believe that Wentian, you will surely be able to uncover its final secrets."

"Let's hope so." Qin Wentian nodded. "Is this Gods Extinction Path very dangerous?"

"There are many regions of unknown danger. I suspect Godking Xi left behind some of his power here to test the future generations. Staying here for a short period of time wouldn't be dangerous, but what about ten years, a hundred years, a thousand years, ten thousand years? One would eventually be met with danger. This is also the main reason why the vast majority of experts died after they entered this place. Because, they couldn't exit here and were trapped for an eternity. Eventually, they wandered into a danger zone and died there. However, now that I know you possess the core of everything here, I can be certain that you will definitely be able to exit. Back then, your father managed to leave here as well." Qin Tiangang spoke.

Qin Wentian nodded his head. Things were like what his grandfather said. After they entered, they didn't encounter much danger. Maybe, the places of danger here could be considered minimal but since the people here were trapped for countless years, they would run into danger sooner or later. Unless of course, they could exit this place.

"The tiny astral-being kept showing reactions since I entered. I have not tried to detailedly comprehend it yet." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Grandfather believes that you will definitely be able to do this. Try and search for your father if he is still alive." Qin Tiangang patted Qin Wentian on his shoulder. After that, the spacetime will here seemed to dissipate as Qin Tiangang's body grew illusory. His tyrannical aura vanished completely as a smile of warmth appeared on his face, staring at his grandson while his body grew more and more illusory.

"Grandfather…" Qin Wentian felt pain in his heart when he saw this scene.

"Being able to meet you here, grandfather already feels very happy. Child, you have to walk the path in the future on your own." Qin Tiangang smiled. His figure then transformed into nothingness, like he has never existed before. It was tough to imagine that not long ago, he was standing here solidly, fighting against all the heavenly deities from the Qin Clan.

Qin Wentian stood there in a daze. Behind him, a figure walked over. It was none other than Luoshen Chuan. When he saw Qin Tiangang's vanishing figure earlier, his heart was filled with a thousand emotions.

He has heard everything earlier. Qin Wentian naturally didn't have anything he needed to conceal from his maternal grandfather.

"Your paternal grandfather...What a pity. He was a hero that ruled supreme in his generation and could summon the wind and rain in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." Luoshen Chuan sighed.

"Grandfather, you should have heard everything earlier. I'm will keep trying to gain insights about the tiny astral-being and see if we can leave this place earlier." Qin Wentian spoke. Luoshen Chuan nodded his head. After that, Qin Wentian sat cross-legged and his consciousness sank deep inside the tiny astral-being. After he entered the Gods Extinction Path, the tiny astral-being kept having reactions but because he had been fleeing, he didn't have time to check it out. Now, he could finally see for himself the changes that occurred to it.

When Qin Wentian's will entered, he discovered that a complicated world akin to a maze has appeared in the tiny astral-being. There were countless intersecting long corridors and tens of thousands of buildings. Wasn't this the exact scene in Gods Extinction Path?

In the past, his grandfather must have sensed this. This was why he would have such an audacious conjecture. Sadly, his grandfather was already on the verge of death after he obtained the tiny astral-being. If not, he would definitely be able to exit this place.

"Grandfather, there shouldn't be any problems for us to exit if I spend some time studying this. If I can control this fully, things wouldn't be as simple as us just leaving this place." A cold light flickered in Qin Wentian's eyes when he spoke. Luoshen Chuan's eyes flashed, he didn't expect the truth to really be like this. In that case, for all those heavenly deities who came into the Gods Extinction Path to probe for its secrets, most probably only danger existed for them. Only for Qin Wentian would there be opportunities because he had the tiny astral-being.

...

Many years later, in the boundless dark void that was the Gods Extinction Path, Qin Zheng and his group were still trying to find an exit. Their expressions were all incredibly ugly to behold.

"What sort of hellish place is this?" A heavenly deity cursed in a low voice. There aren't any secrets at all in here, there was only danger. Opportunities were non-existent. Also, not only did they fail to capture Qin Wentian, they themselves were almost killed by Qin Tiangang as well.

"What is that?" At this moment, their gazes turned ahead only to see an airflow of destructive might flowing in their direction. Qin Zheng's expression changed as he turned and fled, "Run!"

After that, no one here hesitated, they immediately turned and fled away. As for the other heavenly deities who entered Gods Extinction Path, they had similar encounters before. They were safe the majority of the time, but they could only float around in the dark void, not even able to stop if they wanted to. There seemed to be no end to this place and they would even meet with danger occasionally.

Thinking about of the heaven-defying opportunities and secrets they thought would be here before they entered this path, all of them felt anger and regret. There was simply nothing here. What was even more terrifying was that in here, even their messaging crystals were useless. They had no way to contact the external world, it was like they were in a completely different dimension.

Today, at the end point of the ancient heaven vault path, above the nine heavenly layers and amidst the countless constellations below the path, there were still several powerful characters who were cultivating here. All they knew was that the heavenly deities who had entered the Gods Extinction Path all seemed to have vanished. Many people were worried, this was especially so for experts from the various peak powers. If those heavenly deities truly died in there, the strength of their peak powers would surely be affected and an earthquake-level commotion would happen in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

At this moment, from the entrance of the dark void, two figures walked out from there and stepped upon the endpoint of the ancient heaven vault pathway. They were clearly very tired and their clothes were ragged. However, they actually managed to leave the Gods Extinction Path?

"Finally, we are out." Qin Wentian glanced at the ancient heaven vault path before his eyes. He felt as though he spent a few lifetimes inside the dark void. They had to travel for an extremely long period of time inside the dark void as the space within was simply far too vast. As for the other heavenly deities who entered with them, it was unknown where they had drifted to. Even if Qin Wentian wanted to find them, it would be almost an impossible task. He could only bring his grandfather along with him as he exited that place!

Chapter 1894: The Final Astral Soul

The nine heavenly layers were as resplendent as ever.

"Mhm?" At this moment, when the experts here noticed Qin Wentian and Luoshen Chuan's figures, their eyes all froze. There were actually people who could exit the Gods Extinction Path? What had the two of them experienced in there?

What about the other experts who entered? Why did they not come out as well?

Back then, when Qin Wentian and the first batch of people entered the Gods Extinction Path, there were other heavenly deities who came to Heaven Vault after that. Now, those heavenly deities were completely gone. It was rumored that people in the outside world did try to contact them but they were unable to receive any reply. No one knew what those heavenly deities had experienced in the Gods Extinction Path.

Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't explain anything to these people. He took out his messaging crystal and reported his safety to his family. After that, he flew towards the nine heavenly layers. If he wanted to unravel the secret of the tiny astral-being, the nine heavenly layers were naturally the most suitable place for him to do so.

"Grandfather, I will go and cultivate for now." Qin Wentian spoke. After he attained the dao, he was immediately pursued by Qin Zheng, Qin Dangtian and their subordinates. After that, he entered the Gods Extinction Path and only managed to come out after experiencing many years in there. He didn't have anytime to rest at ease and cultivate properly. And now, he first needed to consolidate and stabilize his cultivation base before he attempts to unravel the secret of the tiny astral-being.

For the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan, they should still be trapped within the Gods Extinction Path. It was unknown if they could exit or not. But even if they were trapped forever, the Qin Clan would still exist as Qin Ding was still alive. The person who gave the order to deal with his father back then definitely was a person with a status higher than Qin Zheng. Qin Ding was the one with the highest possibility.

"Go on ahead." Luoshen Chuan knew of Qin Wentian's yearning towards cultivation. He nodded his head. The experiences they had this time around also caused him to feel something. After seeing how strong Qin Tiangang was and the secrets of the Heaven Vault, Luoshen Chuan also hoped that he would be able to grow stronger. After all, he still had a mission he has yet to accomplish. Although the current Luoshen Clan was divided, he still hoped to reunite them and recover their past glory, standing once again at the peak of the Desolate Region.

Qin Wentian's figure flashed as he flew into the boundless starry space. Floating amidst the nine heavenly layers, he didn't head for any specific constellation but chose to stand in the center of the desolate starry space. He sat here cross-legged as he closed his eyes, sensing the countless constellations radiating astral light. He then directed the flow of these astral energy into the tiny astral-being. It has been a very long time since he did this.

Back then when his father passed the tiny astral-being to him, his mother was visibly affected by her emotions. Maybe, his father had already obtained the secrets of the tiny astral-being.

As more astral energy flowed unceasingly into the tiny astral-being, the tiny astral-being seemed to glow slightly brighter. The constellations here were countless but the tiny astral-being itself seemed to be a bottomless black hole, capable of absorbing everything. As more astral light flowed into it, the constellations inside the tiny astral-being started to light up. In the past, Qin Wentian used the astral energy to unlock the memory fragments because he wanted to search for the memories his father left for him. But now, he wanted to probe the secret of the tiny astral-being.

The tiny astral-being greedily drank in the astral energy here. No matter how much energy it absorbed, it seemed as though the tiny astral-being would never be filled fully. However, Qin Wentian didn't give up and continued to direct astral energy to flow into it. He didn't believe that there would be no changes to the tiny astral-being.

Time flowed by. Although doing this was very boring, it could be considered cultivation of a type too. Qin Wentian seemed as though he wasn't able to sense the flow of time and repeated his actions year after year. But, no matter how much effort he put in, everything seemed to be useless. He felt a little helpless and even had the intentions to give up. If it was in the past, he definitely wouldn't have the patience to spend several years drawing astral energy into the tiny astral-being. But now, he was much more patient compared to before. His cultivation realm had also reached an unprecedented height and he was now already a heavenly deity.

"By doing this, no matter how much effort you put in, it would still be useless." At this moment, a voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind, causing Qin Wentian's body to shudder violently. His gaze suddenly opened, gleaming with a bright light. But there was no one else in his surroundings.

"Who?" Qin Wentian asked.

"You are the one that wanted to know my secrets, right? Yet you don't even know who is speaking to you?" That voice rang out again. Qin Wentian felt his heart trembling badly. He could sense that the tiny astral-being was currently radiating with a shimmering light.

"How can that be?" Qin Wentian discovered that the tiny astral-being was truly the one conversing with him. Could it be that his grandfather's guess were correct? This was something a person's soul transformed into.

And that person might very well be the first king of the Heaven Region, Godking Xi.

"Are you Senior's soul?" Qin Wentian asked.

"What are you talking about?" The voice asked, like it didn't understand Qin Wentian's meaning. This caused Qin Wentian to furrow his brows. Could it be that the tiny astral-being didn't know of the conversation between him and his grandfather?"

"Senior, you didn't exist earlier?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Naturally not. I'm just a remnant of thought sealed within the tiny astral-being. Now, my consciousness was stimulated by you and that was why I appeared." The other party replied. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Seems like his efforts during these years were still useful and allowed him to actually manage to wake up the remnant thought left behind by the senior.

"Senior, your identity is?" Qin Wentian probed.

"Who am I isn't important. Now, listen well. I will tell you about some things." The other party's voice was filled with an unquestionable authority but Qin Wentian didn't mind it. If his grandfather's guesses were correct, that existence who left behind this remnant thought might very well be the original king of the Heaven Region, Godking Xi.

"I was born in the immortal realms and could cultivate like all the other living things. Finally, I reached the apex of this world and became one of the strongest existences. But to my sorrow, I discovered that I was merely still an inconsequential existence living under the shadows of the nine heavenly layers. For stellar martial cultivators, we borrow astral energy from the constellations to cultivate. However, where did the constellations originate from? Were they created by a supreme expert, becoming the origin of our cultivations?"

The other party slowly spoke, as though it still had a strong thirst for knowledge. When one's cultivation reaches the peak, that person would definitely wish to probe the secrets of some of the ultimate truths. Clearly, this existence was the same as well. When he grew strong enough, he finally started to explore the nine heavenly layers, wanting to find out the truth about them. In fact, he even suspected that there might be a supreme existence who created the nine heavenly layers and this universe for them to live in.

"People of the world stated that human will would triumph over the heavens. When one's cultivation reached the peak, they would control heavenly dao. My will would be heaven's will, representing the heavenly dao. Isn't this enough to cause one to feel pride? But so what. Controlling a heavenly dao? I'm still underneath the nine heavenly layers. Since humans could triumph over the heavens, why can't I surpass the nine heavens? Why must I be limited to a cultivation situation created by the nine heavens? I was unwilling to accept this and wished to prove the ultimate truth of cultivation. Hence, I came to the top of the nine heavenly layers, wanting to leave this area. The boundless universe, would there be other worlds appearing? If this entire world consists of the thirty-three immortal realms and the billions of particle worlds, including the nine heavenly layers, would this world we live in actually be as small as a particle world to the perspectives of others?"

"I don't want to accept this. I wish to transcend this entire world. I don't want the nine heavenly layers to be above me, they should be a part of my cultivation instead of my cultivation having originated from them. My dao must be the supreme one, in a position of dominance, above the nine heavenly layers." That voice continued, his tone was filled with an incomparable arrogance. He has already verified his dao and became a heavenly deity that stood at the very peak, an existence known as a godking. But he wasn't satisfied with this. He wanted to transcend everything, controlling everything under the nine heavens.

At their levels, they naturally would have targets different from others. Once, he met the Godking of Time in the past. Wasn't the Godking of Time the same as him as well? The Time King hoped that he would be able to truly control time to a complete degree. These were the targets of those who already stood at the peak, their obsessions.

Authority to them no longer proved to be anything of temptation. For example, that mysterious white-robed young man Qin Wentian met in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. If that young man wanted to establish a power in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the power he established could easily stand at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms because the strength of him alone was already sufficient to dominate over everything else.

"Ultimately, I still got stuck at that final step and failed in the end. I hoped someone would be able to step across the gap and allow me to see the view at the absolute top. Show me that there truly is a world other than ours, let me see what's the true scenery of that place outside of the nine heavenly layers. Hence, I decided to transform my body into the Heaven Vault."

Qin Wentian felt his heart trembling after he heard this. Was the truth like what his grandfather had speculated? The Heaven Vault was actually the body of a supreme expert. The Heaven Vault had a pathway that could lead people up to the nine heavenly layers. What heaven-defying methods were this?

"Now, this item that you've obtained, is something transformed from my soul. It can encompass the nine heavens but if you wish to gain its secret, the current you is still not qualified yet. One day, when you can absorb the astral energy of every constellation in the nine heavenly layers, this tiny astral-being shall become your final astral soul."

That voice was ethereal and ended off with a long sigh which gradually dissipated. After all, it was only a remnant of thought that was sealed in the tiny astral-being.

Although the voice had disappeared, Qin Wentian's heart was unable to calm down and was still pounding violently.

"One day, when you can absorb the astral energy of every constellation in the nine heavenly layers, this tiny astral-being shall become your final astral soul."

Did it mean that the ultimate form of this tiny astral-being was an astral soul? His final astral soul. However, the prerequisite was that he had to be able to absorb the astral energy from all the constellations in the nine heavenly layers. This prerequisite by itself was already an extremely difficult question to crack. How could he solve this?

The goal of that mysterious expert was to transcend the nine heavens. How could this be easy to achieve? He wanted to be at a position above the nine heavenly layers and achieve true transcendence.

Qin Wentian didn't know if there was an existence like this in this world. In that case, that mysterious white-robed young man who could shatter a constellation with a single finger...Was he at the rumored Transcendence Realm then?

Other than that mysterious young man in white, Qin Wentian also met the Time King before. Most probably, the Godking of Time wouldn't be able to achieve this feat.

Qin Wentian closed his eyes and sank into thinking. The shock in his heart wasn't able to dissipate even after a long time. He had to absorb the astral energy of all the constellations in the nine heavenly layers. This...how can he accomplish this?

Chapter 1895: Abduction

For the cultivation of stellar martial cultivators, they had to form an innate connection with the constellations to condense an astral soul. After that, they had to draw the power of the constellations into their bodies. Wanting to absorb the energy from ALL the constellations in the nine heavenly layers, that was an impossible task. If he could do so, wouldn't he first have to have countless astral souls then? How can he do so?

But, this was something the voice that was very likely to be Godking Xi had told him. The owner of that voice wanted to transcend the nine heavens and dominate them. He wanted to walk on an unprecedented path that no one had ever attempted before. If not, what qualifications does he have to be above the nine heavenly layers?

"Grandfather." Qin Wentian took out his messaging crystal and contacted Luoshen Chuan.

"Wentian, what's going on?" Luoshen Chuan's voice rang out.

"In the history of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, were there anyone who had once absorbed the power of all the constellations in the nine heavenly layers before?" Qin Wentian asked.

Luoshen Chuan paused. Qin Wentian's words were beyond his expectations.

"I've never heard of someone who had done this before. Naturally, there might also be experts whom I don't know of, managing to succeed in that." Luoshen Chuan replied. He then continued, "Naturally, maybe my grandson would be able to succeed in this in the future. Hahaha."

Clearly, he knew the intention of why Qin Wentian was asking this. Most probably, his grandson wanted to try walking on a heaven-defying path.

"However, I don't know where to start. Does grandfather has any suggestions?" Qin Wentian asked. His grandfather had already been in the heavenly deity realm for many years. He wondered if Luoshen Chuan could give him some advice.

"This is such a tough question. You should know that the cultivation of demonic beasts is different from humans. They can absorb the power of constellations that shares the same attributes with them directly, without the need to condense astral souls. For example, that heaven devouring beast comrade of yours, as long as a devouring-attributed constellation existed, he would be able to sense it no matter what and draw energy from it without needing an astral soul. This is the innate talent of all demonic beasts. For humans, they require astral souls before they can absorb the energy of the constellations. If one wanted to form innate connections with all the constellations in the nine heavenly layers, they must first have an unparalleled perception capable of sensing everything."

Luoshen Chuan then continued, "However, from what I know. There are still some powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that have bloodlines enabling themselves to absorb the power of constellations at a scope that far exceeds the scope of astral souls. These powers are exceedingly rare but one of them has a huge connection with you. That power is none other than the Qin Clan."

"Qin Clan." Qin Wentian's eyes flashed.

"From what I know, the ultimate secret of the Qin Clan's bloodline is that the bloodline can fuse the daos of ten thousand laws together. Experts of the Qin Clan are rumored to be able to cultivate the myriad of laws. Their perception towards constellations definitely would have some extraordinary aspects." Luoshen Chuan spoke. Qin Wentain's eyes flashed. The power of his bloodlines still existed within Di Tian. As for his original body, he had lost his bloodlines when he died once back then.

"Our Luoshen Clan's bloodline similarly has extraordinary attributes. If you can awaken the divinity rearing talent, you would be able to perceive the power of countless demonic beast constellations and summon the myriad of demons. If the two bloodlines can fuse their effects together, you might have a chance to do so." Luoshen Chuan slowly spoke. Qin Wentian's heart trembled. He had inherited both the bloodlines of the Qin Clan and Luoshen Clan. In addition, in the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it seemed like he was the only one.

"Grandfather, I'll give it a try." Qin Wentian replied. Luoshen Chuan grunted in agreement. After that, Qin Wentian terminated the voice connection. Qin Wentian has already reached his current step. Although Luoshen Chuan was a heavenly deity as well, there were no help he could provide Qin Wentian with. Everything had to depend on Qin Wentian himself.

Today, in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, the other self of Qin Wentian, Di Tian, had finally left there and set off on a journey to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

After many days, Di Tian arrived at Boundless City and flew towards the Heaven Vault. He then ascended the ancient pathway and arrived in the midst of the nine heavenly layers, meeting up with Qin Wentian.

In the past, Qin Wentian created this avatar by using the Great Nirvana Immortal Art. His two bodies each comprehended different daos and walked on different paths. But this time, the two bodies of his came together to cultivate. They sat side by side with each other and perceived the energy of the constellations as they tried to comprehend it together.

In the blink of an eye, several years passed. But even with two bodies trying to gain insights, Qin Wentian still failed to succeed. In the starry space, he at most could sense the constellations that had a connection with his astral souls and absorb the energy from them. For example, he had a sword-attributed astral soul and this could allow him to absorb energy from many of the sword-type constellations in the nine heavenly layers. If he didn't have such an attribute, it would be impossible for him to do so.

He thought back to his time in the world of reincarnation. Only in that world could he sense all the laws of the world. Sadly, he didn't put in too much effort then to properly sense them.

"I have to make another trip to the world of reincarnation in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy." Qin Wentian silently mused. After that, he decisively left this place and prepared to head towards the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. He could only hope that the elders of the sacred academy would permit him to enter the world of reincarnation once again.

As for his other self Di Tian, it would be best for Di Tian to remain here in the starry space. However, Di Tian didn't continue to try and gain any insights. Di Tian's plan was to head towards all constellations one by one and attempt to sense the law attribute energies from the different constellations.

Qin Wentian knew how difficult this must be, but he had to succeed. He had to put in all his effort.

Qin Wentian then descended from the nine heavenly layers and returned to the ancient heaven vault path. Now, there were many people cultivating here. Heaven Vault's opening had long caused a huge commotion in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, attracting many powerful world overlords and heavenly deities over. Leaving aside these people inside the vault, it was unknown how many people in the outside world wanted to enter but couldn't.

Before he left, he saw a beautiful figure standing on the ancient path. Her clothes fluttered in the wind as she stared at the starry space. This scene was extremely beautiful.

This figure was none other than the number one beauty in the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang.

Qin Wentian walked over. Goddess Nichang's beautiful eyes that were as calm as water, turned to stare at him. There were no waves of emotions in her eyes, like she wasn't acquainted with Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian wanted to speak but hesitated, he didn't know what to say. Nichang had once rescued him, but she now has an engagement with his enemy, the Qin Clan. He naturally didn't hope that they would stand on opposite sides in the future. If she married Qin Dangtian, either Qin Wentian or Qin Dangtian would have to die. But naturally, the prerequisite was that Qin Dangtian had to walk out of the Gods Extinction Path alive first.

But how should he pass on her father's message to her? He felt somewhat strange. Given the hatred between him and the Qin Clan, would Nichang believe him?

"I met your father in the Gods Extinction Path." In the end, Qin Wentian still decided to say it, going directly to the point." Goddess Nichang trembled. Her eyes that originally didn't have any emotions, suddenly glowed with a bright light. Her beautiful eyes surveyed Qin Wentian as she spoke, "Is my father still alive?"

Her voice trembled slightly. Her father's life tablet has shattered, it meant that Qu Mo had truly died. However, Qin Wentian actually said that he met with her father in the Gods Extinction Path?

Qin Wentian shook his head and continued, "The Gods Extinction Path is a place where different spacetimes intersect. I met your father in a different timespace that existed in the past."

"A timespace in the past?" Goddess Nichang's voice trembled even more. Her rising hope was instantly dashed. She stared at Qin Wentian, "How is he?"

"We met each other when I was fleeing for my life. Your father, Senior Qu Mo, loves to play the flute. He is very handsome and resembles you greatly, while exuding an air of carefreeness. At that time, I was being hunted by Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian. Your father helped me." Qin Wentian sighed. "Back then in the world of reincarnation, you helped me. And now in the Heaven Vault, Senior Qu Mo also aided me. Seems like the favors I owe you have just increased."

"How did he help you?" Goddess Nichang asked, she wanted to know everything about her father, even if it was him who only existed in a certain timespace in the past.

"His flute melody sent me to another timespace, allowing me and my paternal grandfather Qin Tiangang to meet." Qin Wentian spoke. "After that, I didn't see Senior Qu Mo anymore. I didn't even have the chance to thank him, I can only convey my thanks to you."

"Did he mention me?" Goddess Nichang's beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian, there were actually emotions of nervousness in her eyes. Did her father miss her?

"Yes." Qin Wentian nodded. Goddess Nichang froze, "What did he say?"

"When I met your father, Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian were both present and they told him about your engagement with Qin Dangtian. Your father knew Qin Zheng wanted to act against me, and he pleaded for them to stop. Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian refused. Hence, your father used his flute melody to link the timespace he was in, to the timespace of my paternal grandfather, sending us all away. Before we were completely sent away, he sent a voice transmission to me. He wanted me to tell you and your grandpa a message. The message is that he doesn't agree to this marriage engagement between you and Qin Dangtian."

Goddess Nichang looked at Qin Wentian's eyes. She went silent for a moment before asking softly, "Just this?"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. He could tell that Goddess Nichang didn't doubt him. On the contrary, she felt some disappointment. Most probably, she wanted to know more about her father.

"I got the message. Thank you." Goddess Nichang nodded. After that, she lifted her foot and continued up the ancient pathway, her beautiful eyes flashing with her determination.

Qin Wentian started. After that, he seemed to have thought of something as he called out, "What are going to do?"

"I'm going to find him." Goddess Nichang didn't turn her head. However, Qin Wentian's figure flashed and blocked her from moving forward. "Are you crazy? In the Gods Extinction Path, even heavenly deities have no way to exit. I only manage to do so because I had a prior bout of good fortune. But even so, it took me several years before I could exit. Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian are still inside and they might not be able to leave there forever. If you enter, you would simply be courting death and you might not be able to meet with your father."

"This has nothing to do with you." Goddess Nichang coldly spoke. She then walked past Qin Wentian's side. Qin Wentian was speechless. Does this have something to do with him?

"In the world of reincarnation, you once guarded me, not letting me fall to my heart's demon. In fact, you even faced the risk of being killed by me. In that case, your safety today naturally has something to do with me." Qin Wentian stared at her back and spoke. After that, his figure flashed again and pulled her on her arm, not letting her move another step. It was impossible for him to watch as Goddess Nichang send herself to death.

"Release me." Goddess Nichang's expression turned to ice.

"I can only offend you then." Qin Wentian spoke. After that, heavenly might bore down and enveloped Goddess Nichang. Qin Wentian used the power of his space dao to bind her and brought her with him on the return path, preparing to bring her out from Heaven Vault. It was too dangerous for her to remain in this place. She would definitely enter the dark void and throw her life away.

"How dare you!" Goddess Nichang glared at Qin Wentian who was inches away from her side.

Qin Wentian stared at her icy expression and spoke, "What can you do about it?"

After that, he ignored the cold glare she shot him and continued on the return path. On the way back, there were people who saw this scene. All those who saw it were shocked. Qin Wentian actually was planning to abduct Goddess Nichang? Was this his plan to get revenge on Qin Dangtian?

However, heavenly might radiated from Qin Wentian. Other than heavenly deities, who else would dare to obstruct him?

Chapter 1896: ’Fame’ Shaking the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms

Qin Wentian brought Goddess Nichang with him as he flew out of Heaven Vault. Outside Heaven Vault, at the point where the sky connects with the sea, countless experts could be seen there.

When they saw Qin Wentian abducting Goddess Nichang, all of them were stunned. This was especially so when they noticed the icy glare Goddess Nichang shot at Qin Wentian, as though she had suffered a great humiliation. A few moments later, they felt a burning rage in their hearts. In fact, there were even people who roared and rushed forward, wanting to attack Qin Wentian. However, these people were sent flying with a wave of Qin Wentian's hand. He directly brought Nichang with him as he flew away with great speed.

Countless people exchanged mutual glances as violent curses erupted.

"Bastard, scoundrel. Who the hell is he?"

"Qin Wentian, the son of Qin Yuanfeng." Someone revealed.

"So it is the traitor of the Qin Clan. How completely shameless, he actually dares to humiliate the number one beauty of our Heaven Region?" Many people were thoroughly enraged as though the one abducted was their own girlfriends.

After all, that was the number one beauty in the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang. In the hearts of countless experts, she was a pure and holy woman whose beauty couldn't be profaned. This was especially so for people of Boundless City. Only the Heaven's Son was worthy of her. But even so, when the news of Qin Dangtian and Nichang's engagement circulated, many people still felt sad.

And now, they personally saw Goddess Nichang was forcefully abducted away. One could very well imagine their rage. Qin Wentian's lust truly knows no bounds!

Was he doing this for the sake of getting revenge on the Qin Clan and Qin Dangtian?

Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian's fiancee, the number one beauty of the Heaven Region was actually abducted by someone. This news instantly circulated, causing huge waves of commotion in Boundless City. After that, this news began to spread to the Heaven Region. Qin Wentian's reputation instantly blackened, becoming a lecher. The people of Boundless City were incomparably enraged when they heard this, especially so when the people outside Heaven Vault spoke of the icy yet helpless glare on Goddess Nichang's face when Qin Wentian brought her away.

They couldn't help but imagine what if Goddess Nichang's innocence was sullied by this lecher? They simply didn't believe and didn't want to believe this. That bastard Qin Wentian was too detestable.

Naturally, all this happened only after some time. The poor Qin Wentian had no idea that his name would be cursed by countless people from now onwards and his 'fame' would spread through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, becoming the most lecherous, brazen and incomparably shameless fellow...

Qin Wentian brought Goddess Nichang back to Boundless City. He then asked, "Where do you stay? I'll send you back."

Only to see Goddess Nichang coldly looking at him as though she was extremely angry. This was the first time she was handled so roughly. In addition, he even stopped her from seeking her father.

Qin Wentian felt somewhat speechless towards her gaze. However, it's fine even if she hated him. There was no way he could stand aside and watch as she went to court death in the Gods Extinction Path. Even those powerful heavenly deities were trapped inside. Goddess Nichang was just a world overlord, no matter how high her talent is, this trip into the Heaven Extinction Path would surely be a one-way ticket for her.

"It's fine that you hate me. You have saved me before, Senior Qu Mo also helped me out before. If you truly encountered him in the Gods Extinction Path, he would probably hate me for not stopping you, actually allowing you to enter. It's also fine if you don't tell me where you stay. I can ask people myself. But surely, you don't hope for me to bring you around like this to ask others, right?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke, ignoring her icy gaze.

"I can walk on my own." Goddess Nichang finally replied, her tone was like ice.

"Fine. But if you disobey, I will still use force." Qin Wentian didn't care about showing tenderness to pretty girls at all. Goddess Nichang was completely speechless when she saw this, she has never met someone so overbearing at all. She couldn't find it in herself to hate him as after all, he was only doing this because he didn't want her to die. How could she hate him?

After Qin Wentian released the bindings, Goddess Nichang flew off in another direction. Not too long after, she returned to the Qu Residence situated in Boundless City.

"Nichang, you are back." Qu Shen naturally was happy when he saw his granddaughter coming home. His gaze then landed on Qin Wentian who was beside her as curiosity appeared on his face. His granddaughter actually traveled together with such a young and handsome stranger, even bringing him home. In addition, this young man gave him a sense of familiarity.

However, things were somewhat strange. His granddaughter had an unsightly look on her face, like she was bullied.

"Junior Qin Wentian pays my respects to Senior Deity Qu." Qin Wentian bowed, executing a courtesy of a junior paying respects to a senior.

"Qin Wentian." Qu Shen's eyes flashed. He stared at the young man before him, "Yuanfeng's son?"

"That's me." Qin Wentian nodded.

Qu Shen surveyed Qin Wentian as his eyes gleamed sharply. He was acquainted with Qin Tiangang and Qin Yuanfeng. Back then, Qin Yuanfeng would visit him often. He didn't expect that today, Qin Wentian also came here. Now that this was the case, it meant that he was acquainted with the three generations of Qin Tiangang's family.

"Not bad." Qu Shen nodded. Qin Wentian had a handsome appearance and an extraordinary aura. However, when he glanced at his granddaughter, he noted that her face was filled with anger. He felt puzzled in his heart. From what Nichang said, she was already acquainted with Qin Wentian when they were in the world of reincarnation. She had even aided him before. Now that the two of them even came back together. It's just that the atmosphere felt strange.

"Why are you not leaving yet?" Goddess Nichang icily stared at Qin Wentian, not giving him face at all.

"Eh…" Deity Qu blinked. He stared at Nichang, "Nichang, how can you treat a guest like this?"

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled. He stared at Goddess Nichang, "No matter what, I should talk a little with Senior Deity Qu before I leave. If not, what if you still want to head there in the future?"

"What's going on?" Qu Shen asked.

"Senior, junior entered a forbidden land in the Heaven Vault and had the fortune to meet with Senior Qu Mo." Qin Wentian spoke. He then told Qu Shen everything that occurred. After Qu Shen heard that, he turned silent. His gaze stared into the distance. His son was actually still alive in a certain spacetime in the Gods Extinction Path? No wonder Nichang wanted to head there. Even for himself, he also had such thoughts in his heart.

"Wentian's actions are right." Qu Shen spoke. "Nichang, you are too willful. If you encountered some misfortune on the Gods Extinction Path, what should I do? I only have you left in the world."

"Grandpa…" Nichang's beautiful gaze froze. She could argue with Qin Wentian but when Qu Shen lectured her, she could only nod and listen.

"I won't allow you to be so impulsive anymore in the future. Understand?" Qu Shen solemnly spoke. Goddess Nichang stared at the serious look on her grandfather's face. She lowered her head and nodded lightly.

Only then did Qu Shen spare her. He turned his gaze to Qin Wentian, "Wentian, luckily you stopped this brat. If not, the consequences would be unimaginably dire."

"Brat?" Qin Wentian stared at Goddess Nichang somewhat strangely. The number one beauty in the Heaven Region was being addressed as a brat? Most probably, only Qu Shen, the person closest to her, could call her this.

"This is what junior ought to do. Nichang and Senior Qu Mo have shown kindness to me before. How can I stand aside and watch as she enters the Gods Extinction Path? Now that I've sent her home, this junior will bid my farewell." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Why are you in a rush? Why don't you stay here for a few days so we can chat about the past matters of your father." Qu Shen smiled. Goddess Nichang inclined her head and coldly shot a glance at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian instantly sweated, how could he dare to accept? He hurriedly spoke, "Junior still has something I need to do. I won't impose on senior's hospitality any longer. In the future, if there's a chance to, I will come again to pay a visit to senior."

"Mhm, that's fine as well. Wentian, I'm an old friend of your grandfather. There's no need for you to feel too restrained in my presence. If you don't mind it, you can directly call me Grandpa Qu. Also, since the two of you are already acquainted, in the future you can come by often to my residence." Qu Shen also didn't force Qin Wentian to stay.

"Grandpa Qu. Right, in the future if there's a chance to, I will come by often." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded. He then bidded his farewell, "I will take my leave first."

"Mhm," Qu Shen nodded. Qin Wentian turned and left but before he walked too far away, he turned his head back, "Grandpa Qu, before I leave, Senior Qu Mo told me to bring a message to you. He doesn't agree to the marriage agreement between Nichang and Qin Dangtian."

After speaking, he no longer stayed. He directly flew away and vanished from the area quickly.

His final words caused Qu Shen to start. His son Qu Mo actually doesn't agree to the marriage between Qin Dangtian and Nichang. But then again given his son's personality, it was not surprising that he would say this.

Qu Shen saw Nichang coldly staring at the direction where Qin Wentian left. He smiled, "You hate him? How did he stop you and bring you back?"

Goddess Nichang's expression froze as panic flashed in her eyes. "I agreed to come back on my own."

"Oh, is that so?" Qu Shen had a smile that was not a smile on his face. If she agreed herself, how could there still be such a situation? Most probably, that young man must have forcefully brought her back. Qin Wentian was truly audacious but such a personality could be said to be extremely carefree and confident. No wonder back then when he asked his granddaughter the question of which personality does she prefer between Qin Wentian and Qin Dangtian, Nichang had replied that Qin Dangtian would cause people to feel a sense of distance.

From Qin Wentian, they could see true emotions, he was a sentimental man and also had the unbridled nature of his father Qin Yuanfeng.

"Mhm." Goddess Nichang nodded. She naturally wouldn't admit that it was false. However, she didn't expect that not long after, news about this circulated swiftly through Boundless City. The lecher Qin Wentian had abducted Goddess Nichang!

Many months later, Qin Wentian entered the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and begged for an audience with the sacred academy's heavenly deities, requesting to enter the legendary place. After the deities of the sacred academy consulted with the headmaster, they agreed and gave Qin Wentian special permission to enter. Once again, Qin Wentian entered the world of reincarnation but this time around, he was just an ordinary mortal who had an ordinary identity in the world of reincarnation, leading an ordinary life. This was also what he wanted. His purpose for coming back here was to properly sense the different law attributes. This was a unique point of this world, his perception wouldn't be affected by his astral souls and as long as his comprehension was high enough, he could sense and comprehend any type of law attributes he wanted to.

Also, when Qin Wentian entered the world of reincarnation, his name as a lecher had already spread throughout the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Also, the news about him already becoming a heavenly deity also circulated. While the people of the world were shocked by his talent, they also felt disdain for him. This should be one of the most shameless heavenly deities in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, right? After breaking through to the heavenly deity realm, the first thing he did was actually to abduct the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang?

The name of the number one flirtatious and lustful heavenly deity of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms belonged solely to Qin Wentian and no other. How could the pitiful Qin Wentian ever imagine that his 'fame' would shake the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms in this manner?

After the Qin Clan learned of this news, many people were extremely unhappy. They wanted to hunt Qin Wentian down. After all, Goddess Nichang already had a marriage engagement with Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian. This rumor already caused the Qin Clan's reputation to suffer. This was simply an insult to the Qin Clan.

However, everything already had nothing to do with Qin Wentian. He was immersed in his own cultivation and had cast aside all distractions, even forgetting about the flow of time!

Chapter 1897: Refusion as One

During the next tens of years, many changes occurred in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. During these years, the attention of most people was fixed on Heaven Vault. And even now, there were still countless experts gathered at Boundless City of the Heaven Region, including many experts from the peak powers were still in the Gods Extinction Path and seemed to have vanished completely. Someone claimed that these experts would have miraculous encounters, others claimed that those experts might have died within.

Naturally, all of these could only be verified through time.

In the Gods Extinction Path, the heavenly deities from the Qin Clan were still fleeing for their lives. Up ahead, there was a terrifying spatial storm. As long as one was drawn into it, even heavenly deities would be torn into pieces. Also, the chaotic currents produced by the spatial storm does not follow any law or order. They could only escape as far as possible. During these tens of years, they didn't have a single miraculous encounter in the Gods Extinction Path, let alone uncovering any secrets. Their steps were dogged by danger and not long ago, one of the heavenly deities among them just died.

This was already the second heavenly deity that had lost his life. The first who died was the one killed by Qin Tiangang.

What made them terrified was that even up until now, they couldn't find any path to exit. Gods Extinction Path, they finally understood the meaning of Gods Extinction. They felt some regret in entering here so impulsively.

"Clan leader, is there still no way to contact the outside world?" A heavenly deity asked. Qin Zheng nodded with an unsightly expression on his face.

"Nothing will happen to us. Maybe, we can cultivate here while thinking of ways to escape. The laws of time and space are easier to perceive inside here." Qin Dangtian's expression was solemn. He was Heaven's Son, no matter how cruel the environment was, he would still be able to survive. In addition, his will only grew even stronger.

"Dang`er, you are right. You are the chosen of heaven. The Gods Extinction Path definitely won't be able to take your life, this trial would only make you stronger and stronger." Qin Zheng's wife calmly spoke. Although she was a female, she was the mother of the Qin Clan. Her will was naturally stronger compared to many people. It was just that right now, her radiance had dimmed somewhat after suffering in the Gods Extinction Path.

"Maybe, we can only truly find out the secret here if our cultivations reach a certain realm." Qin Zheng mumbled. They continued to struggle in the dark void of the Gods Extinction Path. Other than them, many heavenly deities of the other peak powers were also in here. For example, the Qiankun Sect Leader, Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden, etc.

The Sword Monarch of the Mystic Region was here, Hua Taixu had also entered.

Yue Changkong too. In the past, he didn't manage to locate Qin Wentian despite camping outside. After that, he received news that Qin Wentian had appeared in Heaven Vault, hence, he didn't hesitate to enter. But when he entered, Qin Wentian was already forced into the Gods Extinction Path by his enemies. Hence, Yue Changkong entered as well and was now trapped in the Gods Extinction Path.

However, he wasn't afraid at all. On the contrary, he felt happy. Within the Gods Extinction Path, if he encountered some of the more senior heavenly deities, if he met with strong ones, he would seek their guidance. But if he met with weak ones...he would absorb everything from them. As for the danger inside, so what of it? This body didn't belong to him. It wasn't so easy for him to die. He would only grow stronger and stronger inside the Gods Extinction Path.

Today, Qin Wentian finally exited the world of reincarnation in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. His aura seemed changed, the spacetime of the world of reincarnation was different from the outside world. Back then although they spent a lifetime inside the world of reincarnation, only a short amount of time passed on the outside. But this time around, tens of years had passed on the outside. Qin Wentian already had several lifetimes in the world of reincarnation and comprehended many many different kinds of law attributes. However, when he left the world of reincarnation, all his cultivation was reverted back to the past but his memories and insights gained during comprehension, still remained fresh in his mind. They wouldn't vanish. This was similar to Yue Changkong's experience. In the outside world, he still depended on the insights he gained in the world of reincarnation to produce a new evil art based on the principles of the old one.

After Qin Wentian exited the world of reincarnation, he went to pay his respects to the heavenly deities of the sacred academy. The Lifegovern Heavenly Deity and Goddess Dugu both sighed with emotions in their heart when they saw Qin Wentian. The people of the younger generations would always replace the older ones. This young man who entered the true legendary place in the world of reincarnation, might very well be one of the most talented students of the academy in this generation. He was currently walking on his own legendary path although currently, his 'name' in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wasn't that good.

In a certain location with beautiful scenery in the sacred academy, Goddess Dugu's beauty was unparalleled. When Qin Wentian bid his farewell, and was flying away, she suddenly asked, "In the past, what did you do after you abducted Goddess Nichang?"

Qin Wentian's face was instantly filled with black lines. He already learned from the heavenly deities of the sacred academy about his current reputation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. When he saw the expression on Goddess Dugu face, a smile that was not like a smile, he instantly panicked and increased his speed. Staring at his back, Goddess Dugu laughed charmingly, beautiful to the extreme. A smile from a female goddess could cause the multitude of lives in the mortal world to swoon. Sadly, most probably only people on the same level of existence with her would be able to see it.

Qin Wentian didn't return to Heaven Vault directly. He went to Azure Mystic first and accompanied his family for a period of time before making another journey back to Heaven Vault. The moment Qin Wentian appeared, a wave of commotion occurred. The number one shameless heavenly deity of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms actually still had the face to appear.

Qin Wentian couldn't be bothered about the strange looks everyone was casting his way and entered the Heaven Vault directly, stepping onto the ancient heaven vault pathway. Coincidentally, he encountered Goddess Nichang here again. She had promised her grandfather not to take any risks and Deity Qu naturally allowed her to go back to the Heaven Vault once again. She also didn't expect to meet Qin Wentian again here.

"What a coincidence." Upon seeing the cold look Goddess Nichang was shooting his way, he felt a little awkward. Right now, his reputation was very 'smelly' in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and he had also implicated Goddess Nichang. Currently, many people speculated that he must have 'done' something to Goddess Nichang...he would naturally feel guilt when he encounters Nichang again.

Goddess Nichang didn't say anything and merely looked at him coldly, causing him to feel even more awkward. Given Goddess Nichang's personality, it was impossible for him to publicly state that she was innocent and try to explain, right? In any case, those years ago, Qin Wentian really didn't do anything to her. The more she tried to explain, the more suspicious it would sound. What would people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms think?

"Mhm, don't be too bothered with the rumors floating outside. If there's a chance, I will explain it to everyone." Qin Wentian spoke as he coughed. Goddess Nichang remained silent.

"It's fine if you are unwilling for me to explain to everyone. I will go and cultivate now." Qin Wentian's figure flashed as he took the chance to flee. How truly awkward. After all, this matter was caused by him and back then, his method of handling that situation was also somewhat extreme, damaging Goddess Nichang's reputation.

From faraway, when the others in here saw the situation between the two of them, they couldn't help but speculate when they saw the cold look on Goddess Nichang's face and the guilty look on Qin Wentian's face. Surely, something must have happened between the two of them. Ahhh, Qin Wentian was truly a beast. How could there be such a shameless heavenly deity in the world? He actually publicly acted against the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Nichang.

After Qin Wentian left the area, he followed the ancient heaven vault path and came to the starry space amidst the nine heavenly layers. He met up with Di Tian again. During these tens of years, his original self was cultivating in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy while Di Tian roamed the starry space, going from constellation to constellation, sensing the different law attributes. The two of them had many different insights. But even so, Di Tian was unable to absorb the energy from all the constellations in the nine heavenly layers.

The thoughts of Qin Wentian and Di Tian were one to begin with. The insights Qin Wentian gained in the world of reincarnation would naturally also be understood by Di Tian. But, even Di Tian who had his intact bloodline powers, was unable to accomplish this. From this, one could see how difficult this task was.

Right now, they could only try the final step.

In the starry space, Qin Wentian and Di Tian sat side by side. Both of them began to emit a brilliant radiance. This time around, Di Tian didn't conceal his features, and his appearance was exactly the same as Qin Wentian. Although he hid his aura and face from the outside world, his original essence was still that of Qin Wentian, they were one and the same. At this moment, they were completely alike. If someone else was to be present here, that person wouldn't be able to sense any differences from their auras.

"Back then, my other self was created by using the Great Nirvana Immortal Art. Now, I wonder if would there be any changes if we fused back as one." The same voice rang out from the two of them.

Back then when Ancient Azure Mystic appeared, he went to many of the secret realms inside Ancient Azure Mystic and managed to find the second and final volume of the Great Nirvana Art, the art of refusion.

Qin Wentian was preparing to let his original body and avatar refuse as one. He didn't know what changes would there be.

Also, the second volume of the Great Nirvana Immortal Art stated that after the refusion, it doesn't mean that he would lose his avatar forever. In the future, he could still summon his avatar for battle, splitting one into two. If he encountered an opponent of similar strength, this division technique would undoubtedly grant him a huge advantage in combat.

The two completely similar figures gradually moved closer to each other. An illusory light flashed and at the point of their contact, the two bodies melded together. At this moment, a wondrous radiance erupted forth from Qin Wentian and the illusory figure of Di Tian could be seen above him.

His bloodlines gradually returned as his soul fused back into one, becoming the truly complete Qin Wentian. However, all of these were expected. What Qin Wentian cared about the most was what changes would occur to his astral souls? The Great Nirvana Immortal Art was just a cultivation secret art, but as to its true effects after refusion, it wasn't stated in the volume. He would only know after testing it out himself.

As the two of them became one, Qin Wentian's body trembled slightly. The light emitting from him grew brighter and brighter and a long moment later, the space around him trembled as he opened his eyes. A ray of brilliant light shot out from within as his eyes grew even more spirited. There wasn't too much difference now compared to the previous him, he was still him. The two bodies he had were originally the same person, although Di Tian could think independently and had his own soul, his thoughts were ultimately Qin Wentian's thoughts. Now that they joined back into one, he naturally was still himself. Upon sensing the changes to his body, a faint smile appeared in Qin Wentian's eyes. He stared at the constellations in the starry space and an instant later, waves of radiance radiated from him. At this moment, a total of sixteen beams of astral light simultaneously shot towards Qin Wentian, cascading down on him. These beams of astral light naturally belonged to the constellations he condensed an astral soul from. He no longer only had eight astral souls, he had a total of sixteen astral souls now!

Chapter 1898: Returning Home, Old Memories

Sixteen beams of astral light from sixteen constellations. The Qin Wentian now, his soul had a total of sixteen astral gates.

Before this, his true self and avatar each had eight astral souls respectively. Now that they merged together as one, their astral souls actually stacked. Qin Wentian naturally was very satisfied. This meant that he had all the advantages despite fusing back into one. He was able to sense even more law attributes and gain more heavenly daos.

Naturally, this wasn't Qin Wentian's ultimate goal. Godking Xi had said that Qin Wentian had to be able to form an innate connection with all the constellations in the nine heavenly layers and absorb their energy. This was then his ultimate goal. This was clearly more extraordinary than having sixteen astral souls. Once he could accomplish that, he would be able to use all the laws in the world, there would be no cultivation arts and techniques he couldn't learn.

As his aura gradually calmed, Qin Wentian closed his eyes once more and sensed the power of his bloodlines flowing in his body. Two sources of bloodline power existed. For the bloodline whose power was akin to a white candle-light flame, it was much more resplendent compared to the past. In the past, this bloodline power allowed Qin Wentian to be immune to poison. After that, as Di Tian grew stronger, the innate talent of this bloodline also strengthened. Leaving aside poisons, this bloodline also enabled him to be immune to sinister techniques such as curses. The white candle flame was able to purify everything.

Also, his grandfather once said that the ultimate secret of his Qin Clan's bloodline would enable him to comprehend the myriad of laws. Di Tian has also felt it. This bloodline power was able to help in fusing his other laws. It was only because Di Tian focused on the sealing laws and the astral souls he condensed towards the end, were all of the sealing attributes. This made it so that Di Tian wasn't able to fully display the potential of the bloodline's talent.

In the past, for the vast majority of time, Di Tian was either cultivating, attempting to comprehend insights, or protecting a place. It was very rare for Di Tian to participate in combat.

For his other bloodline, the Luoshen Clan demon god bloodline, it was much more violent, churning with intensity inside his body. In addition, Di Tian had already awakened the divinity rearing bloodline. Right now when the power of this bloodline is released, he would be able to summon ten thousand demons.

At this moment, Qin Wentian gave full reign to the power of this bloodline, allowing it to circulate with full force. There seemed to be a violent storm raging in his body, and the phantom of a demon god appeared behind Qin Wentian. At this moment, the illusory figures of ten thousand demons appeared around him. The sounds of countless demon beasts roaring could be heard in the sky. Qin Wentian could clearly sense the existences of all the beast-aligned constellations in the nine heavenly layers.

"This feeling is much clearer compared to prior to the fusion." Qin Wentian silently mused. Before his two bodies merged, Di Tian could already do this, but now, the feeling was clearer and more intense, allowing him to sense the existences of those constellations more easily.

The number of beast-aligned constellations in the boundless starry space were countless. He began to try and form an innate connection with them and attempted to absorb the astral light from the constellations.

This would be an extremely long and boring process but Qin Wentian kept trying and presisting. What Godking Xi pursued, was transcendence, transcending all existences in the nine heavenly layers. And if he wanted to pursue transcendence as well, this was the most important first step he needed to accomplish. As long as he could take this step, his future cultivation would surely advance with great speed, a thousand miles with the effort of a single day, granting him a huge advantage over all the heavenly deities in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. In that case, there would be a day where he stood at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and stared down at the extremely powerful Qin Clan.

Qin Clan not only has Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian. There was also Qin Ding, a character of equal fame with his paternal grandfather Qin Tiangang, existed as well. Qin Ding was surely even more powerful than Qin Zheng.

This path was going to be a long one. Qin Wentian cast aside all distractions and set his heart at ease as he cultivated.

Time continued flowing and in the blink of an eye, another tens of years passed.

Today, amidst the nine heavenly layers, a handsome young man could be seen standing on a particular constellation, sensing the law attributes radiating from the constellation. This constellation was a fire-attributed one. Qin Wentian didn't have any fire-attributed astral soul but at this moment, fire energy continuously seeped into his body unceasingly. He was able to sense the fire laws and even absorb the fire astral energy anytime.

Qin Wentian waved his hand, in an instant, a terrifying fire divine formation manifested. The power from it surged forward, destroying everything, capable of burning all things in the world into ashes. Evidently, he not only could absorb the fire astral energy, he was also able to use it as he willed. But the problem now was that if the distance between him and the constellation was too far away, he wouldn't be able to absorb it easily. Qin Wentian encountered this situation many times in the past, he also tried many ways to solve it, but to no avail.

"Let's try and comprehend other law attributes first." Qin Wentian mumbled. After that, he closed his eyes. A terrifying sword tempest appeared on the constellation he was on. This storm tempest contained the energy of time and space, and was churning violently. Around Qin Wentian, numerous resplendent swords appeared. This entire world transformed into a Spacetime Sword Region under Qin Wentian's control.

"A world in a flower petal." Qin Wentian mumbled. He thought of the scene he once saw when he encountered the mysterious white-robed young man in the true legendary place in the world of reincarnation. He closed his eyes and silently recalled those memories. In an instant, the Spacetime Sword Region continuously shrank as an ancient word of power representing the word 'sword,' was condensed from it. At this moment, there seemed to be white candle flames flowing into the ancient word. Boundless sword might radiated forth, fusing as one with that ancient word, augmented by the power of his bloodline.

"Back then, senior told me the truth about the heavenly daos. Now, although I can only comprehend a little bit of his words, I'm sure the power of my ancient words manifestation wouldn't lose out to Qin Dangtian." Qin Wentian mumbled to himself. As the sound of his voice faded, the ancient word representing the character 'sword' blasted outwards. An instant later, the space before him transformed into a world of sword region. Spacetime swords shot through the air with shocking might. This boundless energy was actually all contained in a single word. From this, one could very well imagine how powerful this was.

Qin Dangtian was also proficient in using ancient words to attack. He proclaimed himself as having comprehended ten thousand laws and would often be surrounded by revolving ancient words, each representing a different type of heavenly dao, giving him near-invincible combat prowess.

But now, this method Qin Wentian had comprehended was very similar to Qin Dangtian but there were still some differences. What Qin Wentian had comprehended was using the truth told to him by that mysterious white-robed young man in the legendary place in the world of reincarnation. His ancient words contained the power of truth, the concept of a world inside a flower petal. Naturally what Qin Wentian had accomplished now was merely the tip of the iceberg. He was still extremely far away from the level of 'a world in a flower petal.' But he resolutely believed that if he could comprehend all the daos, he would reach that level sooner or later. Even now, the power of a single word manifested by him wouldn't be weaker than Qin Dangtian.

Other than comprehending insights, Qin Wentian also cultivated. It was like he didn't know fatigue.

Many years later, he felt that he had encountered a bottleneck. Hence, he stopped his cultivation and prepared to set out for a walk to rest and relax a little, paying a visit to his friends and family. Wanting to succeed in a single leap was almost impossible. Godking Xi used his entire life and still failed to reach the Transcendent Realm. Right now, although Godking Xi pointed out a clear path for him, it wasn't something he could succeed in in a short period of time. Talent, comprehension ability, state of heart, timing...he couldn't lack any of these.

Today, Qin Wentian exited the Heaven Vault once again. He first headed to Deity Qu's residence to pay a visit. After all, he promised to visit Qu Shen back then, now since it was on the way, Qin Wentian naturally went over to greet him. Goddess Nichang wasn't around, so things weren't too awkward. However, Qu Shen kept making jokes about this, causing Qin Wentian to smile wryly. However, it seemed that Qu Shen wasn't too angry and was someone who could take a joke, truly gracious to the extreme.

In any case, what did the words of others in the world have to do with him? As long as his state of heart was clear, there was no need to be bothered. In addition, Qin Wentian only abducted Nichang to prevent Nichang from putting herself in danger.

After the visit, Qin Wentian headed back to Azure Mystic and accompanied his wives and family. Right now, the cultivation of Qin Wentian's family was no longer comparable to the past. There were immortals everywhere. They were already used to roaming secret realms and only returned after many years. Each had their own lives and were living very comfortably in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Ever since Qin Wentian united Azure Mystic, no one had been able to challenge his authority.

And after that, Qin Wentian prepared to head towards the Qingcheng Realm. After all, he was still the Qingcheng Realmlord and it has been a long time since he returned. Truly, after becoming the Qingcheng Realmlord, he actually did nothing for his realm and went off adventuring straight away.

When Ye Qianyu heard of Qin Wentian's plan, she also wanted to go with him. Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't disagree. To Ye Qianyu, although the Qingcheng Realm was named after Qing`er and Qingcheng, it also had an extraordinary meaning to her. This was the empire Qin Wentian fought for on her behalf.

Right now within the Qingcheng Saint Hall of the Qingcheng Realm. The various palace lords instantly rushed over with their fastest speed upon learning of the Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian's return. Their hearts were trembling with many emotions.

After all, Qin Wentian's current name has circulated through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Their Realmlord was now already a heavenly deity that stood at the peak.

Qin Wentian met with everyone in the Qingcheng Sainthall. He could see that all of these people were much more sincere and respectful in their attitudes compared to the past. Trepidation and awe could be seen in their gazes. A heavenly deity to them was a true legend. Their young realmlord actually reached this legendary realm in a few short hundred years. Everytime they thought of this, their hearts would involuntarily tremble.

"Realmlord, Xuanyuan is willing to follow you to my death. Can Realmlord bring me along with you as a servant?" The Xuanyuan Palace Lord bowed and spoke. His Xuanyuan Clan was a great aristocrat clan. Given how proud he was, he was actually willing to become a servant. The status of a heavenly deity's servant wasn't something that would be inferior to the palace lord of a realm. In any case, there would be no mistake following Qin Wentian. According to the news, many of Qin Wentian's close friends were already world overlords.

"Just help me govern the Xuanyuan Palace well. After all, the Qingcheng Realm is my root in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." Qin Wentian laughed. Evidently, he rejected Xuanyuan's request. The Xuanyuan Palace Lord couldn't help but feel some disappointment. He could only nod his head in agreement.

"Enough, you guys can take your leave." Qin Wentian waved his hand. Everyone bowed and retreated but there were still people who didn't leave yet. They were none other than Jialan Jiangshan and Jialan Qiuyue from the Jialan Clan.

"Jialan, is there a matter?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Your subordinate, I…" Jialan Jiangshan wanted to say something but he didn't know how he should say it. After all, Qin Wentian had already rejected Xuanyuan earlier.

"Where is Di Tian?" Jialan Qiuyue stared at Qin Wentian, not feeling fear at all. On the contrary, she was actually staring at Qin Wentian with some bitter resentment.

Qin Wentian saw Jialan Qiuyue's gaze, he couldn't help but laugh bitterly. "In the past, you've already seen Di Tian's true features. Do you still need me to say anything more? You already knew that I am Di Tian and Di Tian is me. He is my second self. Now, the two of us have already merged together back as one."

Jialan Jiangshan's body trembled violently. This secret...Jialan Qiuyue has never told him before. Now that Qin Wentian revealed it, he finally understood some of the decisions Jialan Qiuyue told him to make. So it turned out that this was the case.

Jialan Qiuyue bit her lip lightly, stubbornly staring at Qin Wentian. "Can I follow you?"

"Follow me for?" Qin Wentian asked.

"I can be your maid and serve you. Won't you allow me to do so?" Jialan Qiueyue spoke in bitter resentment.

Qin Wentian glanced at Jialan Jiangshan. "Did you get her to do this?"

Jialan Jiangshan's gaze stiffened. Jialan Qiuyue shook her head and spoke, "I'm willing to do so myself and this is my own decision. Right now, you are already a heavenly deity. Can it be that I don't even qualify to become your maid?"

Qin Wentian stared at the stubborn look on the face of the beauty before him as he bitterly smiled. How hard was it to enjoy a beauty's grace? He silently sighed, he couldn't help but be reminded of Beauty Xiao and the instant her face flashed in his memories, a faint sorrow filled his heart!

Chapter 1899: All of Us are From the Mortal Earth

Qin Wentian still felt a faint sense of guilt towards Beauty Xiao. It was the same towards Jialan Qiuyue too. Back then, he had indeed made use of Jialan Qiuyue, using the identity of Di Tian to deceive her.

At that point of time, Jialan Qiuyue would frequently come by to look for Di Tian, fond of appearing before him. How could Qin Wentian not know of her feelings?

Right now, she said that she only wanted to be his maid, could it be that she wasn't even qualified for this? Qin Wentian truly didn't know how to reject her. If he did so, wouldn't he be too cruel? But what could he do even if he brought her around with him? The path in the future is still so far ahead. She might only be saying this due to a moment of impulse.

Beside Qin Wentian, Ye Qianyu smiled as she stared at him. This fellow truly knows how to make women fall for him. She naturally could also tell what a difficult situation Qin Wentian was in. She involuntarily spoke, "Just so coincidentally, I lack a serving lady by my side. Why don't you follow me? Naturally, if you regret this in the future, you can simply say you want to go and you shall be free to go. Are you willing?"

Upon hearing Ye Qianyu's words, Qin Wentian started. Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes froze as she stared at Ye Qianyu, only to see a smile flickering in Ye Qianyu's eyes. Jialan Qiuyue's eyes flashed with stubbornness. She knew that by saying this, people might look down on her. This was especially so given that Qin Wentian's woman, Ye Qianyu, was just beside him. However, she still chose to do this. She didn't mention anything about what if she regretted it in the future.

Jialan Qiuyue cast another glance at Qin Wentian before she bit on her ruby red lips. She turned her gaze towards Ye Qianyu, "Right. I will follow you."

Ye Qianyu naturally could sense the conflict in Jialan Qiuyue's heart but she didn't mind it. She smiled, "Alright then."

After speaking, her beautiful eyes glanced at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian could only smile bitterly but he didn't say anything.

"You should go and make some preparations. We will only stay a few days in the Qingcheng Realm and we will be setting off soon after." Qin Wentian spoke. Jialan Jiangshan and Jialan Qiuyue both nodded. After that, they turned and departed the area.

When everyone left, Qin Wentian glanced at Ye Qianyu, "Qianyu, you really…"

"I'm thinking for your sake. In the future, if you are willing, I can still send you a little lass to warm your bed. How beautiful would that be? If you are unwilling? I will be the bad guy for you. I shall torment her for a period of time and she would naturally leave of her own volition." Ye Qianyu giggled. Qin Wentian speechlessly said, "Oh, by the way for your past followers who stuck by you despite you being in trouble then, let's bring them all along. That little lion and Xu Li. I will heavily nurture the two of them."

"Mhm, many thanks lord husband. Do you want little wifey to serve you tonight?" Ye Qianyu gave a charming laugh. Her alluring figure leaned against Qin Wentian, causing his heart to itch with lust. This woman was truly a demoness...

Qin Wentian went without sleep that night. During the second day, the clan leader of the Mo Clan brought along Mo Junyi with him as he requested an audience. Mo Fei was someone who had always followed Di Tian, along with Mo Junyi. At that point of time, Mo Junyi was the same as Jialan Qiuyue, she would often come by to look for Di Tian. But this time around, Qin Wentian was worried the same situation might happen. He didn't accept the request for an audience and sent them away. However, for their help in the past, he naturally would compensate them well. In the future, the Mo Clan of Lifire City would definitely become an aristocrat clan that was at the peak level in the Qingcheng Realm.

After the common people of the Qingcheng Realm knew that their Realmlord has returned, countless experts gathered outside the Qingcheng Sainthall for an entire night, hoping that they could meet with their Realmlord, Qin Wentian.

Right now to the Qingcheng Realm, Qin Wentian was already a character of legends. His story has spread to all corners of the realm, everyone living in the realm knew of him. A young man who started with nothing in the realm, fighting his way up and eventually defeating the Lifelong Realmlord to take over his position. Now, this legendary young man was already a heavenly deity. How could his story not spread far and wide? Qin Wentian has long became the symbol of faith for people of the Qingcheng Realm.

Qin Wentian who was in the Qingcheng Sainthall, naturally saw the situation outside the hall. Below the stairway, it was flooded by people. It was unknown how many experts gathered here today. Most probably, everyone in the city all came here. Qin Wentian bitterly smiled, was this the influence of a heavenly deity? But then again, it was naturally to be expected. A heavenly deity appearing in a remote location like the Qingcheng Realm naturally presents an inconceivable weightage. The people here have never seen a heavenly deity before.

There were countless people gathered outside the Qingcheng Sainthall, all their eyes flashed with fervor.

Heavenly deities were characters that only appeared in legends. And now, a heavenly deity had appeared in their Qingcheng Realm, and it was none other than their very own Realmlord. He who first challenged the Lifire Palace Lord, and killed the Lifelong Realmlord after that for the sake of a beauty. The eyes of the younger experts here all flashed with yearning and excitement, Qin Wentian was their idol.

At this moment, before the Qingcheng Sainthall, a white-robed figure appeared, floating in the air, standing before the eyes of everyone from the Qingcheng Realm. He exuded no aura, and seemed extremely ordinary.

However, he had a transcendent presence, just simply standing there made everyone feel how extraordinary he was. The crowd was first stunned. After that, countless people roared in excitement, "Realmlord!"

"Heavenly deity!"

The hearts of many trembled. A heavenly deity appeared before them. There were even many who instantly knelt and kowtowed. This was a living deity, a true god.

"Although I'm a heavenly deity, I was also once a mortal, standing at the place where all of you are standing, staring up at the person who once presided over this Sainthall. I can still remember back then, how lofty was the Lifelong Realmlord? Everyone even had to bow to his concubines."

Qin Wentian slowly spoke, he smiled as he stared at everyone. "Hence, although all of you are staring up in awe at me today, if you have the heart to, you can also be the same as me in the future. When you reach my level, you can stand here at my vantage point at the peak, and stare at the scenery of the world, enjoying a much more different and beautiful scenery than what you are used to seeing. Who says that deities are unreachable? We are both from the mortal earth, is there any of us who were born superior, in an unreachable lofty position?"

When everyone heard Qin Wentian's words, all of them fell silent. After that, countless people felt their hearts surging with emotions as their blood boiled. Just a single sentence had caused the fire in their hearts to ignite.

This was the legendary heavenly deity from the Qingcheng Realm. Although he stood at a high vantage point and was worshiped by countless people, his words might have been arrogant yet they were filled with encouragement, causing everyone to feel a sense of respect from the depths of their hearts. All of them were convinced by him.

We are both from the mortal earth, is there any of us who were born superior, in an unreachable lofty position?

In the future, you all can also be the same as me, standing at my vantage point, staring at a different and more beautiful scenery.

Who says that deities are unreachable?

If some other heavenly deities were to say this, they wouldn't feel anything. But when Qin Wentian said it, they who were familiar with the stories of his growth, all knew that once, Qin Wentian had also stood at the same level as them, staring up at the Lifire Palace Lord and Lifelong Realmlord. He was once as insignificant as a speck of dust. But now, what was the height he stood at?

From the mortal earth, to a heavenly deity.

Qin Wentian smiled. After that, many figures appeared behind him. Ye Qianyu, the lion Evil Emperor, Xu Li, Jialan Qiuyue and the others. Qin Wentian initially wanted to stay a few more days but he didn't expect his return to draw such a huge commotion. It was still best for him to leave.

The group of them soared into the air and sped away, vanishing from sight.

Only then did an uproar break out from the people here. Their surging volume followed Qin Wentian's back and there were many who directly knelt to send him away. Because of that earlier sentence from him, they felt even more respect towards him.

Most probably, they wouldn't be able to forget this scene all their lives. Their legend of the Qingcheng Realm, the heavenly deity Qin Wentian. He told the people of the world that they are the same as him, starting from the mortal earth. Who was born lofty and unreachable? These words became engraved in the hearts of many people in the Qingcheng Realm, following them throughout all their lives.

And many years later, when more legendary characters appeared in the Qingcheng Realm, these legendary characters would all think back to the past, filled with gratitude towards the heavenly deity whom they had the fortune to meet with once. Naturally, at that point of time, their symbol of faith was no longer just a legend in the Qingcheng Realm. Qin Wentian had already became a legend in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Since the Heaven Vault opened, already over two hundred years have passed. However, the commotion it caused still continued. Geniuses arrived by the batches day after day, heading into the Heaven Vault.

To the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, especially so towards world overlords and heavenly deities, even ten thousand years can be considered a short period of time, let alone a mere two hundred years. Many world overlords who were stuck at their cultivation realm would require a few hundred years of cultivation in just one closed door seclusion. Hence, for some commotion caused by secret realms, the commotion lasting a thousand years or ten thousand years, wasn't surprising at all. Let alone the fact that Heaven Vault was a mythical place that could connect the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms directly to the nine heavenly layers.

Naturally, although two hundred years wasn't a long time. Those who had entered Heaven Vault all improved remarkably fast, with the speed of traveling a thousand miles a day. After all, they were sensing the astral energy directly from their constellations. Given the close distance, many people would naturally gain many insights. Those extremely famous world overlords all managed to break through one after another, stepping into the deity realm. In the past, it took at least tens of thousands of years before a heavenly deity would appear. Now, because of Heaven Vault's appearance, a few hundred years was enough to make the juniors catch up to the senior generation. As for the heavenly deities of the senior generation, many were still stuck inside the dark void that was the Gods Extinction Path.

During these two hundred plus years of time, Qin Wentian was long incomparable to his past self. During this period of time, other than cultivating, he was still cultivating. He would occasionally accompany his loved ones but the vast majority of his time was spent on his cultivation. Right now, many people around him like Qinger, Bai Qing, Nanfeng Yaoyue, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor...Qin Wentian sent them all into the Heaven Vault for them to cultivate there, allowing them to sense the heavenly daos at a close distance. For Qinger and Bai Qing, Qin Wentian even acted as a protector for them, leading them personally to their respective constellations and allowing them to gain insights, helping them to increase their strength.

Everyone's strength was improving rapidly. Qin Wentian had already verified his dao and entered the deity realm. He didn't wish for himself to be too lonely and hoped everyone around him could catch up to him so they could all stare at the scenery of the world at his current vantage point.

But clearly, not everyone had the same level of talent as Qin Wentian. It wasn't so easy to comprehend a heavenly dao even though they could cultivate in such a sacred place like the Heaven Vault. They still needed more time and opportunities. Becoming heavenly deities ultimately wasn't something that could be accomplished within a short time after all.

Naturally, the one who improved the most during these years was none other than Qin Wentian. Other than gaining insights into the different daos, the number of constellations he could sense grew increasingly in number. Right now, he could already absorb the astral energy of several constellations. Small accumulated improvements would lead to abundance. He believed that there would be a day where he succeeded at that ultimate step.

Today, Qin Ding of the Qin Clan exited seclusion. After that, he learned that his son and daughter-in-law, as well as his grandson, all actually went to the Heaven Vault and even entered the Gods Extinction Path, losing all contact with the outside world. He even heard that Qin Yuanfeng might still be alive. Qin Yuanfeng's son Qin Wentian, had also appeared in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Chapter 1900: The Brightest Constellation

In the boundless starry space of the Heaven Vault, Qin Wentian had his eyes closed in cultivation. Beams of astral light from different constellations cascaded down on him. If it was in the past, with so many sources of astral energy, it would definitely enable Qin Wentian's cultivation to move a thousand miles with a single day. But it was different now as he was already a heavenly deity.

For heavenly deities, comprehension of the daos was everything. Astral energy was merely the basis to unleash the power of the daos they had comprehended.

Qin Wentian's goal also wasn't to unceasingly absorb these beams of astral energy. What he wanted was to sense all the constellations in the nine heavenly layers and draw energy from them.

It has been over two hundred years. Although he was still continuously improving, he still has not managed to reach his goal yet.

At this moment, Qin Wentian activated the Undying Scripture. From his body, wisps of his soul separated, transforming into illusory figures that walked out from his body. They flew towards the boundless starry space. His vibrant soul energy wisps began to spread through the sea of constellations.

Every soul wisp occupied an area. This scene persisted for a very very long time until Qin Wentian sensed that his soul energy had completely permeated the nine heavenly layers, and continued to extend outwards.

Qin Wentian had used all sorts of methods but he still failed to reach that step. Right now, he was attempting to use the Undying Scripture to split his soul energy, forming tiny soul wisps that would go to each corner in the starry space to sense the existence of the constellations there.

However, those constellations were truly countless in number, it was unknown how many of them existed. Qin Wentian's illusory soul wisps occupied many places and all directions but he still had no idea how long he would need to fully envelop the nine heavenly layers. The current him still didn't have such an ability. He wasn't like Godking Xi who could use his will to envelop the entire nine heavenly layers.

Although he had no way to envelop the starry space fully, but after long periods of exploration and thought, the scene of a boundless starry space appeared in Qin Wentian's mind with his wisps of soul energy within, transmitting images after images to him. Upon seeing them, he could sense how majestic and shocking these sights were. Now that these scenes were in his mind directly, such feelings of awe far surpassed what he felt by countless times when he was staring up at the constellations of the nine heavens.

The Qin Wentian at this moment couldn't help but feel how tiny and inconsequential humans are. As insignificant as specks of dust.

However, it was precisely an existence as insignificant as specks of dust that could project their perception to the nine heavens, and even aim for the goal of transcending everything.

At this moment, Qin Wentian had a strange feeling. The multitude of constellations seemed different yet they also seemed strangely similar. They were all constellations in the starry space, releasing their own radiance. No matter where Qin Wentian's soul wisps were at, from any of them, he could sense the majesticness of the nine heavenly layers. The radiance from the constellations could reach any corners in the nine heavenly layers.

A sense of enlightenment appeared in Qin Wentian's mind. The nine heavenly layers, the countless constellations. In truth, the radiance from all of them could reach the mortal world, cascading down on the bodies of humans. Yet, humans could only see a single constellation or multiple constellations at best and absorb energy from those particular constellations.

Why?

Why was this the case?

Was it because of astral souls?

However, given his current cultivation realm, even if he didn't condense astral souls, he could still sense all the constellations in the starry space by standing here. Since this was the case, were astral souls supposed to help stellar martial cultivators in cultivation, or did it serve to restrict cultivators instead?

Qin Wentian's heart trembled as a bolt of lightning flashed through his mind. In the world of reincarnation inside the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, why was he able to sense all types of laws despite not having astral souls?

Because over there, he didn't have what he had in the outside world. He had no astral souls. As long as he could sense the existence of a certain law, he would be able to gain insights and comprehend that law. And in there, he could sense the multitude of laws!

In the boundless universe, in the true primordial ancient world outside of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, do the cultivators there cultivate in the same way as those in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?

The world of reincarnation was a world created by the mysterious young man in white. As long as your comprehension ability is high enough there, you can master any type of laws you wanted to. But why can't people do so in the world under the nine heavenly layers?

"Why would Godking Xi leave a message saying that once the astral energy from the countless constellations was absorbed, the tiny astral-being would transform into my ninth and final astral soul? What is the meaning behind the purpose of the ninth astral soul? Does the ninth astral soul truly needed to exist?" An audacious conjecture appeared in Qin Wentian's mind. He could sense the final astral gate in his soul. Astral gates governed the laws of the cultivation world. Each astral gate could only host one astral soul.

In that case, he really wanted to see what would happen when he formed an innate connection with the multitude of constellations.

Qin Wentian drew in a deep breath. His heart was incomparably resolute. It has been so many years yet he had never succeeded before. But even so, he would attempt it again and again despite meeting with failure after failure.

His soul wisps and perception extended outwards, coming in contact with the various constellations in the starry space. For stellar martial cultivators, before they condensed an astral soul, they weren't under any sort of restrictions. As long as their perception could reach one of the nine heavenly layers, they could pick any type of law-attribute they wanted to. And now, Qin Wentian's perception could easily reach the ninth heavenly layer.

Initially, the cultivation of humanity had no restrictions. Why was there a need to impose a restriction on oneself?

At this moment, Qin Wentian felt an incomparable determination in his heart. His perception and soul wisps had completely engulfed the entire starry space and were connected to all the constellations within the nine heavenly layers. At this moment, Qin Wentian was as though he was at the center of the boundless starry space. The endless astral light was drawn towards his body, entering his soul, wanting to seep inside his astral gate. When the beams of astral light cascaded down, they didn't act the same way they did in the past, and condense an astral soul. Because this time, Qin Wentian wanted not to simply condense an astral soul from a constellation, he wanted to do so for all the constellations, countless in number.

"RUMBLE!" Qin Wentian's astral gate trembled violently. After that, even his soul was shuddering violently. An incomparably intense and piercing pain shot through Qin Wentian's soul, wanting to explode it. Within his astral gate, a mixture of different beams of astral light frenziedly clashed against each other, as though they wanted to shatter the astral gate.

Was this a failure?

Qin Wentian silently mused. Such a bold conjecture, was this nothing but a foolish dream?

Yeah...there were so many experts in the world. Through the history of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, how many supreme geniuses were there? Could it be that no one among them has attempted to do so before? Wasn't there anyone who could break the restrictions imposed by this heaven and earth?

Was this the regulations of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? For countless years from the past until now, was there no one who could break the regulations?

Qin Wentian was unwilling to accept this. If his soul shattered, even if he had cultivated the Undying Scripture, he wouldn't be able to live either. But he was truly unwilling to accept this. He had been trying for over two hundred years yet each of his experiments ended in failure. In that case, how should one walk this path?

At this moment, Qin Wentian didn't think about other things. He only thought of Godking Xi and the words his paternal grandfather told him. His grandfather believed that he would be able to do it, creating history.

For Godking Xi, he wanted to transcend everything. He was willing to pay any price, and even if he lost his body, he still wanted transcendence. He didn't want to be restricted by the nine heavens, he wanted to dominate and control them.

Although he had failed in the end, his soul transformed into the tiny astral-being with a boundless starry space within it. He hoped that someone in the future generations would be able to accomplish what he did not.

Now, Qin Wentian was the one who inherited the tiny astral-being of Godking Xi.

If one wanted to transcend the nine heavens, they must do something unprecedented, do something no one in the past has ever done before. Now, he already had some insights and managed to walk until this point. He was unwilling to accept failure. Qin Wentian believed that the path he picked should be the correct one. His insights also shouldn't be wrong. The only problem now was whether he dared to take the final step or not?

If he made a wrong move, he might consign himself to eternal condemnation, he would die and his dao would vanish.

Should he continue?

Qin Wentian felt a struggle in his heart.

"Godking Xi. The tiny astral-being your soul transformed into had once saved my life. If I die, I hope you would still be able to manifest your spirit and guard a wisp of my soul, saving it from complete death." Qin Wentian seemed to be mumbling to himself. He had chosen to continue despite the violent shuddering of his soul.

If one wanted great fortune, they naturally had to take on great risks without fear. If he didn't dare to take the final step, why was there a need to talk about transcendence? When he was young, he had already chosen to destroy his meridians so he could better walk his path of cultivation. And now, as a heavenly deity, since he knew that his path ought to be the correct one, why would he cower now? Why would he not dare to challenge the regulations set by this heaven and earth?

Boundless radiance from the countless constellations frenziedly flooded the astral gate in Qin Wentian's soul.

At this moment, that astral gate of Qin Wentian seemed to contain the astral light from the multitude of constellations in the nine heavenly layers. In the interior of the astral gate, it resembled a starry space now. Huge explosive sounds rang out from within Qin Wentian's soul, his astral gate shattered from not being large enough to contain the might of the constellations. His mind trembled, and in the depths of his soul, the 'sky' and 'earth' in there seemed to be split open. The pain was so severe that Qin Wentian directly fainted and lost consciousness. His body was still floating in the boundlessly vast starry space, as tiny and insignificant like a speck of dust.

...

Amidst the nine heavenly layers, and countless constellations of the boundless starry space, a figure that was like a speck of dust floated through the void aimlessly. No one discovered this. The starry space was just too large and vast. A corpse was nothing special, just a speck of dust.

This speck of dust was none other than Qin Wentian's body. He didn't know how long has he floated for or how long has he been asleep for.

Today, the little finger of the floating Qin Wentian trembled, it was like he regained a hint of consciousness. After a long time, his eyes finally opened, shining with a light as bright as the stars. He stared up at the sky before he stood up stably in the starry space.

"I'm still alive, I'm still alive!" Qin Wentian murmured as a smile appeared on his face. Being alive was undoubtedly a wondrous and beautiful thing.

His will entered his sea of consciousness in his soul and perceived his final astral gate. When his perception sensed the transformation within, Qin Wentian was completely stunned. He stood motionless for a very long time and finally, a radiant smile appeared on his face, filled with intoxicating satisfaction. He closed his eyes again and stretched his hands out, embracing the starry space.

"From today onwards, the boundless starry space, the countless constellations in the nine heavenly layers, can all be used by me." In the starry space, Qin Wentian's voice sounded ethereal, echoing through the void. Right now, beams of astral light from the multitude of constellations streamed towards him from all directions.

At this instant, Qin Wentian was no longer a speck of dust. The radiance from his body was as blinding as the constellations. When all the astral light from the ALL the constellations in the nine heavenly layers entered his body, he himself was like the brightest constellations in the starry space.

At this moment in the starry space, countless gazes involuntarily turned towards a certain direction, staring at the source of this radiance, the brightest constellation in the starry sky.

Chapter 1901: End of the Commotion

Qin Wentian was none other than that constellation. It's just that right now, he was surrounded by boundless astral light and resembled a true constellation. No one could see his figure clearly, all of them could only see the radiance he exuded.

At this moment, the final astral gate in his soul vanished. What replaced it, was a stretch of boundless starry space. Right now in his sea of consciousness in the depths of his soul, more and more constellations started to shine brightly. When the light of each constellation shone upon Qin Wentian from the outside world, his inner starry space would reflect it and form a similar constellation to the one outside.

"After waiting for countless years, there's finally someone who can inherit my unfinished regret. I hope that there would come a time where you can truly transcend the nine heavens and stare at the scenery out there. From now onwards, Godking Xi shall no longer exist within the nine heavens." A voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. As the sound of the voice faded, a formless light entered Qin Wentian's mind. Above the nine heavenly layers, the dark void that is the Gods Extinction Path seemed to be wavering as void ripples could be seen. At the same time, all the scenes within the Heaven Vault, as well as the Gods Extinction Path, became imprinted in Qin Wentian's mind.

At this moment, the ten stone pillars all froze. The stone statues on them would never come to life again. As for the blood sea, it gradually dried up, no more evil spirits existed. Even the ancient heaven vault pathway started to shimmer in and out of existence, like it would disappear very soon. Right now, in the dark void, only desolation, loneliness and many ancient corpses could be seen. But other than them, many living figures appeared as the Gods Extinction Path vanished.

"We are out."

"Finally, we came out from there."

Numerous voices rang out. Those heavenly deities drew in a huge breath as their eyes were filled with the vicissitudes of time. They, finally saw the nine heavenly layers again. They could sense that the space they were in was no longer that spacetime maze which they had been trapped within.

Qin Zheng's group was here too. Qin Zheng stood there and breathed heavily. The Gods Extinction Path finally disappeared?

"Father." Qin Dangtian, who was at the side, called out. "We finally exited that place."

"Mhm." Qin Zheng nodded. He looked at his wife and held her hand before glancing at the heavenly deities at the side. In the Gods Extinction Path, the Qin Clan lost two heavenly deities. After that, during the past several years, they were all extremely cautious but there was still one heavenly deity who was heavily injured and almost died within. Qin Zheng only managed to save him after expending great effort.

This was like a nightmare and now, the nightmare was finally over.

Not only to Qin Zheng's group, to the heavenly deities of the other peak powers, it was also a nightmare. The number one fairy of the nine heavens, the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden, she was still as beautiful as ever but a hint of haggardness could be seen on her features. In fact, the hint of haggardness in her expression actually added to her charm in a different way.

"Hahaha! Heaven never seals off all the exits!" A heavenly deity shouted to vent his emotions. Even for heavenly deities, they also suffered and felt despair. However, since they are still alive, let's treat this experience as a nightmare.

All the heavenly deities sighed with emotions. All of a sudden, their hearts were filled with suspicions. Why did the Gods Extinction Path suddenly vanish?

Could it be that someone has obtained the secret within?

The people in the surroundings exchanged mutual glances at each other. Although this space was very large, it wasn't as large as the dark void that was the Gods Extinction Path. That place was a true stretch of chaotic spacetime. It was impossible for them all to be in the same spacetime after they entered.

"Qin Zheng, you are still alive." The Qiankun Sect Leader laughed loudly.

"You are not dead yet, how can I be dead?" Qin Zheng replied.

"Hahaha." The Qiankun Sect Leader laughed. After that he stepped out and moved towards the nine heavenly layers. "What a pity, I spent so many years in there but I didn't obtain anything."

The experts respectively departed and flew downwards to the nine heavenly layers.

"They've returned." The people cultivating in the nine heavenly layers saw the heavenly deities flying down. The eyes of many people flashed with excitement. If these people were gone, wouldn't the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms be too boring? All of them were heavenly deities, and many of them were from the various peak powers of the different regions.

Qin Wentian also knew that the heavenly deities have exited. Just like what his paternal grandfather had guessed, everything here was created by Godking Xi. The Gods Extinction Path should be formed by Godking Xi's will. His will was able to engulf the nine heavens and even create the Gods Extinction Path. How terrifying was that? Even heavenly deities couldn't find their way out and would die within.

Not only did Qin Wentian know that the heavenly deities have left the Gods Extinction Path, he could even see many people entering the Heaven Vault from the scenes imprinted in his mind. Right now, he felt like he could control the Heaven Vault completely. He also sensed the aura of an extremely terrifying existence. This man bore some resemblance to Qin Zheng but his aura was much more fearsome in comparison.

This caused Qin Wentian to instantly think of someone. Qin Zheng's father, that character who had equal fame with his grandfather, Qin Ding of the Qin Clan.

He came here. Probably, he must have learned that his descendants were trapped inside the Heaven Vault which was why he rushed here.

This caused Qin Wentian to frown. Although right now he had already taken that crucial step, it didn't mean that his strength would surge explosively and he was strong enough now to fight against Qin Ding. Cultivation has never been gaining accomplishments in a single leap. The transformation he underwent this time around would enable him to tread on a path no one had ever treaded before. But even so, he still needed time to properly comprehend things. During these two hundred years, his improvements were extremely great but he wasn't arrogant enough to feel that he could surpass the peak heavenly deities of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms with just these two hundred plus years of cultivation.

After all, to heavenly deities, two hundred years of time was simply too short.

Today, Qin Zheng's family left the Gods Extinction Path. To Qin Wentian, Qin Ding's arrival was undoubtedly a troublesome matter. Although in the boundless starry space, Qin Ding might not be able to locate him for sure, but given how strong Qin Ding was, who knew if there would be something unexpected happening? In addition, he wasn't alone in the Heaven Vault now. Qing`er and his other loved ones were here cultivating in the starry space as well.

Luckily, he could control the Heaven Vault now. Since this is the case, these troubles wouldn't be so problematic to resolve.

With an intention of his will, even the ancient heaven vault path leading up to the nine heavenly layers started to turn illusory like it would vanish at any moment. In this instant, the gazes of many froze. What was going on?

"Mhm?" Qin Zheng and the other heavenly deities just arrived here. Their eyes flashed with a strange light when they notice the change to the ancient heaven vault pathway.

"What's going on?" Someone asked.

"Gods Extinction Road has disappeared, even the ancient heaven vault pathway seems to be vanishing soon. Can it be that the Heaven Vault is going to disappear?" Someone frowned as he spoke. The ancient pathway began to dim, parts of the pathway would occasionally vanished after turning illusory. This caused the hearts of everyone to clench. Seems like the ancient heaven vault pathway was truly going to disappear.

This ancient heaven vault pathway connected the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to the nine heavenly layers, ignoring the impossibly vast actual distance in space, condensing everything onto a single ancient heaven vault pathway. When the ancient heaven vault pathway started to shimmer in and out of existence, everyone in the different heavenly layers could see it clearly.

At this moment, a thought flashed through the minds of many people. Should they leave?

They didn't want to leave. All of them had huge improvements during these two hundred years. Their cultivation bases advanced a thousand miles with a single day of effort, this place was undoubtedly a sacred ground for cultivators.

There were even some world overlords who managed to break through and become heavenly deities in here.

No one wanted to leave. How could there be any place more conducive for cultivation other than here?

Even heavenly deities didn't want to leave.

However, if they don't leave, when the heaven vault path disappears completely, would they be stuck here forever? It would be unknown when they would ever be able to return to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms again. Could it be that they were willing to float in the boundless starry space forever?

Some of the leaders from the peak powers immediately gave the orders to leave this place. For a period of time, many experts returned via the ancient heaven vault pathway, despite the fact that their hearts were filled with reluctance.

Not only so, the entrance to the Heaven Vault in the outside world also had some transformations. The entrance was trembling, the open slit of the 'heavenly eye' where the sea connects with the sky, seemed to be closing gradually. The hearts of many people trembled. Was the Heaven Vault going to be closed so soon?

Through history, the opening and closing of the Heaven Vault was always random, there were no fixed times for it. This time around, it seemed that the timing where Heaven Vault was closing has came.

The entire Heaven Vault was shuddering. Many people took out their messaging crystals and sent this news to the respective elders of their sects and clans who were cultivating within. Hence, the news unceasingly circulated, the experts in the nine heavenly layers all decisively stopped their cultivations and prepared to leave.

"Wentian, the Heaven Vault is about to close. Where are you now?" Luoshen Chuan's voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind.

"Grandfather, rest your heart at ease and just cultivate. There's no need to care about the Heaven Vault closing." Qin Wentian replied. Luoshen Chuan started after hearing Qin Wentian's words. After that, it seemed that he understood something as a faint smile appeared on his face. Hence, he closed his eyes and continued to focus on his cultivation. He was much more at ease compared to before. He knew that from now onwards, this secret realm that is the Heaven Vault, his grandson had full control of it.

"Wentian gege, should we exit?" Bai Qing's voice rang out. After that, Qing`er, Nanfeng Yaoyue, Little Rascal and the others all sent voice transmissions to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian gave them the same answers, telling them to rest at ease and continue with their cultivations, there was no need to care about the changes to the Heaven Vault. Hence, all of his friends and family continued with what they were doing. Even for those among his friends who didn't ask him, Qin Wentian also sent voice transmissions to them, telling them about this. Hence, right now, other than Qin Wentian's friends and family, all the other experts had already begun to leave the Heaven Vault.

After Qin Ding came here, he discovered that the Heaven Vault was going to close. He turned his gaze up to the nine heavenly layers and a moment later, a voice transmission rang out in his mind, causing him to set his heart at ease. Qin Zheng and his group were still alive and they were currently making their way to the entrance. Not long after, Qin Ding saw his son and the others coming back. It was just that there were two heavenly deities missing.

"Father." Qin Zheng walked over to Qin Ding, wanting to say something. There were many things he needed to inform his father about. He had met Qin Tiangang in the Gods Extinction Path.

"The Heaven Vault is about to close. Let's return first and talk while we are moving." Qin Ding spoke. Qin Zheng nodded. After that, their group flew out of the entrance. Qin Dangtian turned his head back and glanced at the nine heavenly layers, his eyes flashing with some longing. But eventually, he still chose to follow his father and grandfather out of the entrance as they departed.

Outside the Heaven Vault, in the Boundless Sea Region, experts flew out from the Heaven Vault's entrance unceasingly. Everyone understood that the commotion caused by the opening of the Heaven Vault which has lasted for over two hundred years, was finally coming to an end!

Chapter 1902: Suspicion

The Heaven Vault shuddered, the experts in the vault grew increasingly fewer, all of them leaving it and gathering at the Boundless Sea Region.

Some of these people were from the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"That's Qin Zheng. Qin Zheng's clan members as well as the Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian. Who is that old man walking before them?"

"He is Qin Ding from the Qin Clan. In the past, he was a legendary character that could call the rain and summon the wind in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." The eyes of some people gleamed with sharpness.

"Even Qin Ding came?" Many people exclaimed.

"The Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden also came out. How beautiful, her beauty is truly unrivalled in the world. Even the fairies of the Nine Mystical Palace are extremely beautiful."

"The mystical maiden of the junior generations has also broken through to the Heavenly Deity Realm. How powerful. Look, there's a young man beside her."

"That is Lin Xiao, someone who wishes to woo the mystical maiden. He is the successor of the Qiankun Sect and has also broken through to the heavenly deity realm. This time around, seems like there are many geniuses who achieved a transformation during their visit to the Heaven Vault, managing to verify their daos. Next, in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, a glorious era is about to unfold."

More and more experts continued to walk out from the Heaven Vault. The heavenly eye gradually closed bit by bit and it appeared that it was on the verge of closing completely.

Finally, when no more people walked out from the Heaven Vault, a thunderous rumbling sound rang out. The heavenly eye closed directly and the Heaven Vault seemed to vanish from the world. Right now in the airspace above the boundless sea region, there was only the sky, the Heaven Vault has disappeared.

"It vanished." Many experts silently sighed. During these two hundred plus years, they had gained many insights. This time around, the Heaven Vault's secret had been exposed to all and everyone knew that it connected the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to the nine heavenly layers. Sadly, it only lasted for two hundred years. If not, the existence of the Heaven Vault would surely allow geniuses of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to grow even faster as more and more heavenly deities appeared.

Nobody knew when the next opening of the Heaven Vault would be.

After Qin Dangtian came out. He glanced at his surroundings. After that, he saw the figure he was looking for and instantly sped over there. Before him, a maiden as beautiful as a celestial appeared. This was none other than the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Nichang.

"Nichang, how has your cultivation been through these years?" Qin Dangtian asked.

It has been over two hundred years. When she saw Qin Dangtian again, Goddess Nichang's expression was still as calm as ever. She nodded her head lightly.

Qin Ding glanced over in this direction. He then asked Qin Zheng, "Is this the granddaughter of Qu Shen who has a marriage engagement with Dang`er?"

"Mhm." Qin Zheng nodded.

"Recently, there are some rumors that darken her reputation spreading around in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." Qin Ding calmly spoke.

"What rumors?" Qin Zheng was puzzled. He was trapped inside the Gods Extinction Path and didn't know about matters in the external world.

Qin Ding then revealed the rumors about Qin Wentian and Nichang. Qin Zheng's expression grew extremely unsightly. This was a heavy blow to the reputation of their Qin Clan. Qin Dangtian seemed to have sensed something and glanced over in their direction. After that, he spoke to Nichang, "Nichang, my grandpa is here. Let's go and pay our respects to him, alright?"

Goddess Nichang glanced at Qin Ding. After that, she followed Qin Dangtian and went over to Qin Ding's side. She didn't say anything. Qin Ding's gaze was filled with an imposing might, he stared at Goddess Nichang as he spoke, "Nichang, I'm a very old friend of your grandfather. I'm sure you have heard of the rumors about you circulating recently in the immortal realms. Back then, did Qin Wentian do anything to you?"

Goddess Nichang turned pale upon hearing Qin Ding's questions, her expression grew unsightly. She inclined her head and stared at Qin Ding as she icily replied. "No."

Qin Ding stared at her eyes before nodding, "It's good then. Let's find a time for your wedding with Dang`er. I will go and discuss with your grandpa now. Let's go together."

Their figures flashed as they sped away. Qin Zheng and his wife both were frowning.

"Qin Wentian, how did he leave the Gods Extinction Path?" Qin Zheng couldn't understand this. The recent rumors between Qin Wentian and Nichang in the outside world were after they had entered the Gods Extinction Path. Since this is the case, it meant that Qin Wentian had left the dark void earlier than them."

"It might be because of Qin Tiangang?" Qin Ding calmly spoke. His younger brother had been in the Gods Extinction Path for so many years. It wasn't surprising that he might have found an exit.

Qin Zheng's eyes flashed. This was possible indeed. Although the probability wasn't high, but if one was to tell him that Qin Wentian depended on himself to leave the Gods Extinction Path, he wouldn't believe it.

The countless people in the Boundless Sea Region gradually dispersed as they left the area.

Now, in amidst the starry space of the nine heavenly layers in the Heaven Vault, the atmosphere had turned completely silent. Qin Wentian walked out and arrived at the ancient heaven vault path. This pathway that was supposed to have vanished, now became extremely clear and solid again. There were no signs that it was going to disappear.

"Wentian." Luoshen Chuan's figure sped over. He then asked, "Right now, you are already in complete control of Heaven Vault?"

"Yes, grandfather. In the future, all of you can set your hearts at ease and cultivate here. Without my permission, no outsiders can venture in." Qin Wentian smiled. Numerous figures appeared and flew over, all of them were Qin Wentian's friends and family. They listened to Qin Wentian's words and didn't exit but they did notice that everyone else had left. At this moment, they all crowded around Qin Wentian, not understanding what had happened.

"Wentian gege, why did the vanishing heaven vault path became stable again?" Bai Qing asked.

Qin Wentian stretched out his hand and ruffled her hair, he gently laughed, "This heaven vault path is already under my control."

A bright light flashed in Bai Qing's beautiful eyes, "In that case, doesn't that mean that we can cultivate in here forever? In addition, Wentian gege, you are the one who decides who can enter?"

Qin Wentian nodded, the hearts of everyone trembled. Even Luoshen Chuan was shocked. He knew what this implied. It meant that in the future, Qin Wentian was able to create peak-tier experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. It was too terrifying.

For example, if Qin Wentian permits the experts of the Luoshen Clan to enter. In the future, how terrifying would the Luoshen Clan's development be? Most probably their strength would soon surpass the Divine Ox Clan. As long as they have enough time, they would surely be able to attain their past glory once more.

"In that case, the members of the Battle Saint Tribe can also come here to cultivate in the future?" Qi Yu exclaimed.

"That's only natural."

"Wentian, the people of my Southern Phoenix Clan would like to come here as well." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch laughed.

"Yaoyue, since you have spoken, there naturally won't be a problem." Qin Wentian smiled. His eyes flashed. In the future, his friends, family and followers all can cultivate in the Heaven Vault.

"Grandfather, didn't you say that there are many people in the Luoshen Clan who wish to follow you? In the past, you didn't want to further fragment the Luoshen Clan. You were also worried because if you have a fixed base, enemies might attack it and it wasn't convenient for too many people from the Luoshen Clan to follow you. But now, this problem is solved. You can slowly contact those loyal to you and get them to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation. I'm sure the Luoshen Clan would rise up once again." Qin Wentian spoke. The Luoshen Clan was his mother's clan, the heartblood of his grandfather. In addition, they were already considered quite a strong force. Qin Wentian naturally wanted to nurture the experts from the Luoshen Clan properly and produce peak-tier combatants.

"Right." Luoshen Chuan didn't reject. With such good cultivating conditions, he naturally hoped that the people of the Luoshen Clan would be able to enjoy it.

After Qin Ding's group left Heaven Vault, they headed towards Qu Shen's residence in Boundless City and were discussing about the marriage between Qin Dangtian and Nichang. There were rumors saying that Qu Shen was very unhappy about something and didn't wish to fix a date so fast, it was unknown what his intentions were. But Qin Ding's attitude was like iron, he directly set a date and left with Qin Zheng and the others, returning back to the Qin Clan.

Naturally, no one knew of the true details. There was someone who said that after the Qin Clan left, Deity Qu was incomparably enraged. Both he and Goddess Nichang didn't step out of their residence at all after that. This couple that was proclaimed as an immortal couple in the past seemed to have a shadow cast on their relationship now. Maybe, it was due to the rumors between Goddess Nichang and Qin Wentian back then.

In any case, currently, Qin Wentian still had the name of the number one shameless heavenly deity in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

After Qin Zheng returned to the Qin Clan, the more he thought about it, the more he felt something was fishy regarding the closure of the Heaven Vault.

In a majestic ancient hall within the Qin Clan, his brows were furrowed as he heard the news brought to him by his subordinate. Although they left the Heaven Vault, they had stationed people there until the Heaven Vault closed completely. But even so, they didn't see Qin Wentian or Luoshen Chuan leaving the place. At that time, as long as either one of them appeared, Qin Zheng would instantly head back to capture them. However, they didn't come out at all. Both Qin Wentian and Luoshen Chuan seemed like they had already left the Heaven Vault long ago.

Those informants sent to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms stated that during the past two hundred plus years, Qin Wentian had returned numerous times and even brought some people from Azure Mystic away. It was unknown if they were heading towards the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms but the chances are high that it was so. Qin Wentian should be bringing them to the Heaven Vault.

Also, Qin Wentian had managed to leave the Gods Extinction Path earlier than them. The Gods Extinction Path had vanished before the Heaven Vault's closure. Qin Zheng kept feeling that something was wrong somewhere.

This was especially so when he recalled some matters of the past. Qin Yuanfeng had obtained that mysterious treasure which seemed to have been given to him by Qin Tiangang who obtained it from the Heaven Vault. What was the reason why the Qin Clan has always been trying to force Qin Yuanfeng out? It was the same reason why they wanted to capture Qin Wentian alive.

He frowned as he silently mused, could it be that supreme treasure has already been passed on by Qin Yuanfeng to Qin Wentian?

And Qin Wentian, depending on that treasure, managed to solve the mystery of Heaven Vault and cause the Gods Extinction Path to disappear and the Heaven Vault to close?

One couldn't help but say that Qin Zheng's conjecture was the truth. But this was just speculation on his part after all. He couldn't ignore the unease in his heart, hence he gave an order, "Send people to monitor the area around Heaven Vault and Azure Mystic. The people at the Heaven Vault's area need not be strong, just pretend that they are cultivating in the boundless sea region."

"Yes." A subordinate bowed and went to execute his order. Qin Zheng stood up as coldness flickered in his eyes. If his speculations are true, Qin Yuanfeng's son, Qin Wentian, might have just accomplished something his father had never accomplished before!

Chapter 1903: A Stone Causing a Thousand-layered Wave

Other than Qin Zheng, there was still one more person observing the area around the Heaven Vault. This person was none other than Yue Changkong. Through these two hundred plus years, he had been trapped inside the Gods Extinction Path but he had improved greatly. Now, on the path of heavenly deities, it can be said that he was climbing higher and higher. But after he exited, he heard about the news regarding Qin Wentian. This meant that Qin Wentian could easily leave the Gods Extinction Path while everyone was trapped.

After he exited the Heaven Vault, Yue Changkong didn't leave immediately. He was waiting for Qin Wentian to appear but Qin Wentian didn't show up despite him waiting for a long time. Since this is the case, there were only two possibilities. Firstly, Qin Wentian had left the Heaven Vault long ago. Secondly, he hasn't exited from there.

With regards to Qin Wentian, Yue Changkong has always viewed him as a mortal enemy. It was like Qin Wentian was the jinx destined to cause setbacks to him in his life. He also truly believed that Qin Wentian had some outstanding characteristics, and even if Qin Wentian really was the one who solved the Heaven Vault's secret and exited way before any of them from the Gods Extinction Path, Yue Changkong didn't feel that it would be strange. This was because Qin Wentian was the one who made him take this path of eternal condemnation.

He hated Qin Wentian but he also admired this opponent of his. Just like how Qin Wentian viewed Qin Dangtian as his destined enemy, Yue Changkong also viewed Qin Wentian as his destined enemy. Killing Qin Wentian was his strongest obsession.

Right now, in the boundless sea region where waves continuously surged, there was an expert currently sitting in a boat, appearing as though he was cultivating. His cultivation level wasn't high.

This lonely boat simply floated quietly through the sea.

All of a sudden, a head bobbed out from the churning waves, this wasn't a human head but was the head of a demon living in the sea. Its demonic eyes glanced at the boat, before glancing at the area in the sky where the Heaven Vault had vanished, a moment later, it dove back into the sea and vanished from sight.

In the boundless sea region, the sound of waves crashing could be heard along with the roaring wind. But in the air space above the sea region, everything seemed so quiet. It was very hard to imagine that not long ago, this place was the source of a commotion that shook the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, causing experts from all eight great regions to gather here.

During these days, everything seemed normal. Qin Wentian was also worried people might discover the secret of somebody controlling the Heaven Vault. Hence, he didn't come out and chose to cultivate in the starry space of the nine heavenly layers. He wanted to wait until the news of the Heaven Vault's closure completely subsided before he came out. Things would be much safer then.

But Qin Wentian had a feeling that this secret was very tough to conceal. The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would never lack of curious people and the Heaven Vault was a place that could even attract heavenly deities. It was undoubtedly the best place to cultivate as of now in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. If such a place was controlled by him, and if the news of this was leaked, how could the peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms not try to seize it from him?

Naturally, even if it was discovered, the Heaven Vault can still be considered a safe location. Other than him, no one could enter here.

Many days later, in the airspace above the boundless sea region, a tiny slit in the sky appeared. After that, two figures walked out from the slit. These two were none other than Qin Wentian and Luoshen Chuan. The moment they came out, the slit that was the entrance to the Heaven Vault, immediately closed. This opening lasted for an extremely short instant, if someone didn't stare with their complete attention at that particular spot, they wouldn't notice anything.

In any case, it was impossible for Qin Wentian's group to remain inside the Heaven Vault forever. Although they knew there was a danger in being exposed, they still chose to come out. But, for the sake of safety, only the two most powerful heavenly deities among them which are Qin Wentian and Luoshen Chuan exited first. The moment they appeared, their silhouettes flashed as they left immediately. They only appeared here for a very short moment.

There was no one currently here in the sea domain. However, below the sea, there was a school of fish swimming around. The eyes of one fish demon flashed with a cold light, after that, the fish demon actually spat out a messaging crystal and sent its demon sense into it, sending out a message.

Abruptly, a terrifying heavenly might bore down on it. That fish demon was greatly shocked, the waters around it churned wildly and flowed in reverse, shooting up into the sky. A white-robed figure stood in the air with a cold expression, this was a true heavenly deity. With a wave of his hand, lives in this particular area were completely exterminated. The fishes below were all killed, their blood dying the water red. But as the currents from the sea flowed back in, the blood was gradually washed away.

"There was no one above the sea, I didn't expect there to be a messenger hiding in the sea." Luoshen Chuan walked over. The one who acted earlier was none other than Qin Wentian.

"Seems like this secret can no longer be concealed." Qin Wentian softly spoke. Although he was already prepared in his heart and didn't feel that this secret could be kept forever, he still didn't expect this moment would come so fast. After the commotion of the Heaven Vault's closing faded, there were already people paying attention to the area around it? How unexpected. He also didn't know who wanted to find him so badly. Was it the Qin Clan? But most probably, he would soon have the answer.

"Grandfather, let's leave." Qin Wentian spoke. The two of them flew to Boundless City. Qin Wentian than spoke to Luoshen Chuan, "Grandfather, you have to be careful about this trip of yours to the Desolate Region this time around. If the Qin Clan is there, other than me, they would surely target you."

"I know, you be careful as well." Luoshen Chuan nodded.

"Don't worry grandfather. Right now, I believe I have the strength to protect myself." Qin Wentian confidently replied. Luoshen Chuan nodded. After two hundred plus years of cultivation, the Qin Wentian now couldn't be compared to the past. His grandson now can be considered as a truly powerful heavenly deity.

The two of them split up at Boundless City as the destinations they were heading to were different. Luoshen Chuan directly sped away, while Qin Wentian entered Boundless City. He paid a visit to Deity Qu. Firstly, this was because of courtesy. After all, Qu Mo and Nichang had helped him out before. Secondly, he wanted to know if Qin Zheng had spoken to Qu Shen about the marriage after they came out. Although he had conveyed Nichang's father, Qu Mo's attitude to them, it wasn't going to be so easy to reject the Qin Clan.

After all, the Qin Clan was a peak power of the Heaven Region.

After arriving at the Qu Residence, the atmosphere was somewhat quiet. A smile appeared on Qu Shen's face when he saw Qin Wentian arriving.

"Grandpa Qu," Qin Wentian called out.

"Wentian, thanks for visiting." Qu Shen nodded lightly. If Qin Zheng or Qin Dangtian could show him true respect like Qin Wentian, maybe he wouldn't want to reject the marriage engagement.

"Nichang, Wentian is here. Why don't you come out?" Qu Shen called. A moment later, Goddess Nichang came here. She was still as beautiful as ever but her expression was somewhat cold when she stared at Qin Wentian, filled with a hint of bitter resentment. Qin Wentian could only smile bitterly.

"There's no need to trouble Nichang. I just came to see if everything is well. I will be leaving soon." Qin Wentian shifted his gaze away as he smiled.

"Since you already came, just take a seat and rest a little. I will get someone to prepare a banquet." Qu Shen spoke. He then continued, "You can accompany me for a chat. The waves at the back of the river would always catch up with the waves in the front. I didn't expect you to become a heavenly deity at such a young age. The junior generations are truly to be feared."

Qin Wentian was helpless and could only agree to stay. The banquet was soon prepared. Goddess Nichang sat beside Qu Shen but she didn't say anything at all. From the start to the end, Qin Wentian and Qu Shen were the ones chatting. As they chatted, their topic soon moved to the Heaven Vault and to the Qin Clan. Upon hearing of the Qin Clan, Qu Shen's expression turned cold. Qin Wentian could sense his attitude and felt somewhat puzzled. Qu Shen then explained, "After the Heaven Vault closed, Qin Ding and Qin Zheng came by to look for me."

"Mhm?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Could it be the cold look on Qu Shen's face has something to do with this?

Qin Ding actually came by personally.

"Back then, some rumors were spread about you and Nichang. In truth, I hoped that the Qin Clan would cancel this marriage engagement out of their own will. In that case, even if I lose face, I can at least face up to her father, Qu Mo. However, Qin Ding took the initiative to ask if you have done anything to Nichang. After Nichang said no, Qin Ding directly set the date for the marriage. I wanted to delay this but Qin Ding's attitude was extremely overbearing. Although I'm acquainted with him since a long time ago, right now our statuses are not equal. He wouldn't give me face just because we are old acquaintances."

Qu Shen calmly spoke. Qin Wentian sighed in his heart. This, might be the cruel reality of the cultivation world.

He glanced at Goddess Nichang. But when she heard that they were speaking about her marriage, she kept her head lowered.

"In her heart, what does Nichang feel? Is she willing though?" Qin Wentian asked. He also didn't know if he should direct this question to Nichang or Qu Shen. If Goddess Nichang was willing, there was nothing he could say. Although he naturally didn't hope that she, as his benefactor who helped him before would marry his fated enemy.

"Nichang, Wentian isn't an outsider. You can tell him your thoughts." Qu Shen spoke to his granddaughter.

Not an outsider?

Qin Wentian felt warmth in his heart. Qu Shen truly treated him as how Qu Shen would treat a junior of his own clan.

Goddess Nichang inclined her head. Her beautiful eyes glanced at Qu Shen before glancing at Qin Wentian. She was as cold and calm as ever, no one could tell what she was thinking about in her heart.

"I don't really have any thoughts about this." Goddess Nichang stood up. She didn't say anything else and simply turned to leave, causing Qin Wentian to start.

When he saw this scene, Qu Shen's eyes gleamed. He then softly spoke, "I actually know what she is thinking in her heart."

"Grandpa Qu, what do you mean?" Qin Wentian asked.

"She is unwilling too." Qu Shen calmly spoke, his words causing Qin Wentian's gaze to grow sharp.

"It's just that she is worried. Given the Qin Clan's current might, if she disagrees…" Qu Shen sighed, hating that he wasn't strong enough. It was one thing even if his strength was far from Qin Ding. He still had hidden injuries on his body. Now that they had already agreed to the marriage engagement, it wasn't going to be so easy to break their word.

Nichang also understood this. Hence, even if she wasn't willing, she wouldn't say anything. Because, she had to consider this useless old fellow which was him.

...

Qin Wentian's emotions felt somewhat heavy after he left the Qu Residence. Qu Mo's words have been passed on by him but has this marriage already become something unobstructable?

After he left, he naturally prepared to head back to Azure Mystic.

And just when he arrived in Azure Mystic, shocking news erupted in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The Heaven Vault actually wasn't truly closed. The secret of the Heaven Vault had been obtained by somebody and the Heaven Vault now was in someone's control.

A tiny stone caused a thousand-layered wave to rise. An earthquake-level commotion once again shook the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

How could the experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm forget a cultivation holy ground like the Heaven Vault?

Now that there was news saying that the Heaven Vault has fallen into someone's control, another formless storm was currently brewing!

Chapter 1904: His Name Today

The strange thing was that this news didn't circulate from the Heaven Region but came from the Mystic Region instead.

After that, the identity of the Heaven Vault's current controller was exposed as well. It was actually none other than the number one shameless deity of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Qin Wentian.

There were news saying that many peak characters of the major powers including the Qin Clan, Qiankun Sect, Nine Heavens Mystic Palace, had all entered and were trapped inside the Gods Extinction Path. No one managed to break out from there save for one person and that person was Qin Wentian. He brought his grandfather Luoshen Chuan out with him, safe and sound, way ahead compared to any of the other heavenly deities. It was only after the Gods Extinction Path had vanished did the other heavenly deities manage to return.

There was more news saying that several days after the Heaven Vault had closed, someone personally saw Qin Wentian exiting the Heaven Vault.

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, many people believed in this news, including many of the peak character. Because, they all had gone inside the Gods Extinction Path before and knew that unless one managed to obtain the secret of Heaven Vault, they would surely not be able to leave the dark void.

Hence, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms which had originally calmed down, was seized by another commotion again. Countless experts rushed from the eight regions to Boundless City. Their target was still the Heaven Vault.

After some time, the experts gathered outside the Heaven Vault were as common as the clouds. Although the number couldn't be compared to back then, many of the people here today were still from the peak powers of the eight regions. All of them wanted to meet Qin Wentian. If the rumours were real, they wanted Qin Wentian to open the Heaven Vault and allow them to go back in for cultivation.

The Qin Wentian now has already returned to Azure Mystic and he was preparing to bring his friends and family here to the Heaven Vault for cultivation. Being in such close contact with the various constellations, Heaven Vault was undoubtedly the most suitable place for cultivators to comprehend insights.

Although he had returned to Azure Mystic, he soon received the news from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. As expected, the news has spread. Several people messaged Qin Wentian, including some people from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

But this was fine too. Since the secret was out, he actually felt more at ease as he didn't have to hide anything. He directly told those who sent the news to him that the rumours are true. He was now the person controlling the Heaven Vault.

The news inadvertently leaked. For a period of time, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was shaken by an earthquake again. Even more experts headed towards the area of the Heaven Vault. So, everyone was fooled by Qin Wentian. The Heaven Vault didn't close by itself. It was controlled to close by Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's name once again shook the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, ringing even louder.

After that, even more news spread out saying that back then in the world of reincarnation of the sacred academy, Qin Wentian was the person who entered the true legendary place. He was then the true chosen of the heavens and was much more outstanding than Qin Dangtian. In the future, he would take revenge on the Qin Clan for sure. Qin Dangtian was named Heaven's Son? What a joke. Even his woman was played by Qin Wentian before.

This news was somewhat malicious and had the intent to humiliate the Qin Clan. Also, it made many experts from the Qin Clan and other peak powers wary of Qin Wentian.

He is the son of the traitor of the Qin Clan, Qin Yuanfeng, and the Goddess of the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Qianxue. Now, he was already a heavenly deity and can control the Heaven Vault. Not only so, he also abducted Qin Dangtian's woman and even entered the true legendary place of the sacred academy before. All of this caused the people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to treat him as a supreme character. Qin Wentian had unknowingly rose up and was now already standing at a very high peak.

In the Pureland of Bliss of the Universe Region, within a buddha sect, a reverend pressed his palms together and faced the west.

"Seven Abstinences." At this moment, a voice drifted over. Behind the reverend, the illusory image of a buddha arhat appeared, shining resplendently.

Reverend Seven Abstinences turned and bowed towards the ancient buddha.

"A storm has manifested in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. You should enter the mortal world." The buddha spoke. Seven Abstinences nodded. After that, he turned and directly left the mountain. Back then, there were so many geniuses from the different peak powers who went to the world of reincarnation. However, the one who entered the true legendary place in the end wasn't him. That person was now already creating a storm in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

In the Che Clan, golden light filled the sky. As the number one artificer clan of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The Chen Clan was like a huge golden-color metal world. It shone resplendently, akin to a divine formation, able to emit shocking might at any moment.

Within the Che Clan, Che Ying stood inside a majestic ancient hall. Now, he has already become a heavenly deity, verifying his dao in the Heaven Vault. However, there was news saying that the young man who once narrowly lost his life in the world of reincarnation, was then the true person who entered the legendary place. Also, that young man now was the controller of the Heaven Vault.

Che Ying decided to set off again, heading towards the Heaven Region.

And in the Heaven Region, within the Qiankun Sect. Lin Xiao also turned his gaze to the horizons. He thought back to the young man who went crazy in the world of reincarnation when Luoshen Lei died. He didn't expect the person who entered the true legendary place to actually be him. Also, Qin Wentian was the current controller of the Heaven Vault. Things were too interesting.

Desolate Region, Divine Ox Castle. Recently, the ox chieftain would often fly into a rage. There were many rumors regarding Qin Wentian. Some guessed that Devilox of the Divine Ox Clan had precisely died to Qin Wentian's hand. The Battle Saint Bone already landed in Qin Wentian's hand and now, Qin Wentian was the controller of the Heaven Vault and had already broken through to become a heavenly deity.

Also in the Desolate Region, within the Devil God Mountain, the five demon sovereigns gathered together. Luoshen Chuan was here as well. The Kun Sovereign spoke in a somewhat depressed tone. "That little fellow is faithless. We taught him so many years yet he didn't inform us when he snuck over into the Heaven Vault to cultivate. Even when we told him to come back, he didn't reply."

"Kun Sovereign, you should know that Little Rascal has been following my grandson around since they were very young. Their relationship is exceptionally deep and you should know what would happen if this secret was exposed. Now, you have already seen the situation, the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is shaken. It's only normal that Little Rascal chose to temporarily keep the news from all of you." Luoshen Chuan spoke.

"He has no conscience. We have nurtured him for nothing." The Kun Sovereign angrily spoke. "Luoshen Chuan, your Luoshen Clan and our Demon God Mountain are allies. What is Qin Wentian's attitude regarding the Heaven Vault? Can experts from our Demon God Mountain enter there to cultivate?"

Who didn't wish to enter the Heaven Vault?

Luoshen Clan and the Demon God Mountain always had a good relationship with Qin Wentian. This was their advantage. Now that the secret was exposed, that fellow Qin Wentian wouldn't not allow their people to go there to cultivate, right? If Qin Wentian refused, then there would be no meaning of being allies any more.

"I will have to consult him for his opinion." Luoshen Chuan spoke. The Kun Sovereign nodded. The gazes of the five demon sovereigns were filled with anticipation. If the experts from their Demon God Mountain could enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation, they would surely improve very quickly. In the future, there might not be five, but ten demon sovereigns of their Demon God Mountain instead.

All the experts of the various powers had different thoughts but there was one undoubtable point. Qin Wentian's name had already spread throughout the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm.

There were now many experts outside the Heaven Vault. Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't show himself easily, and he had not appeared in public for several years already. He wanted to see how long these people could wait for. After all, even if he wasn't inside the Heaven Vault, he could still cultivate.

In fact, no one knew that in truth, Qin Wentian has actually already arrived at the boundless sea region. It was just that he was disguised and no one could recognize him.

As time passed, the number of people outside the Heaven Vault wasn't as much as before. This was especially so for powerful heavenly deities. It was impossible for them to waste their time and wait here forever for Qin Wentian to appear. Because they knew that Qin Wentian would surely not show himself easily.

Today, a group of experts appeared in the boundless sea region. They headed forward in batches and came to the location below the Heaven Vault, mixing into the crowd. Although currently, the number of people outside Heaven Vault wasn't as much as before, there were still plenty of them. A few batches of people mixing into the crowd wasn't too conspicuous. This was especially so that their cultivation bases weren't high.

These batches of people were from Azure Mystic. After several years, Qin Wentian noticed the crowd outside Heaven Vault had lessened. This was why he silently brought them here.

These people consisted of experts from the Battle Saint Tribe, Southern Phoenix Clan and Myriad Devil Islands. Naturally, not everyone was here, only those with a higher cultivation base relative to the people of Azure Mystic. Qin Wentian didn't intend to bring everyone here in a single trip or that would have been too eye-catching.

These people gradually moved towards each other and gathered together. After that, an intense spatial storm engulfed them.

"Huh?" Many people frowned, staring over. After that, they only saw a spatial storm above the sea region and in an instant, at the point where the sky connected with the sea, a thin slit appeared.

The Heaven Vault had opened.

"Go." Numerous figures soared into the air and flew towards there. But at this moment, that spatial storm engulfing the groups of people earlier brought them into the slit and at the same time, a terrifying heaven might bore down on everyone else, obstructing them from advancing forward. In just an instant, the slit that was the entrance, closed again as a white-robed figure stood in the air, staring at everyone else.

"Qin Wentian." Many people stared at the handsome young man whose true features were changing to his original appearance. Their eyes gleamed with sharpness as several terrifying auras gushed forth. These terrifying auras all belonged to heavenly deities. Clearly, there had been some heavenly deities hiding in the shadows here.

"Everyone, what can I do for you?" Qin Wentian stared at them as he calmly spoke. Since the secret of the Heaven Vault has been exposed, he didn't really care anymore.

"Qin Wentian, you are actually in control of the Heaven Vault. You should allow everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to peruse it. What do you intend by occupying it for your own?" A person coldly spoke. That person was a world overlord from a peak power.

Qin Wentian calmly glanced at him before speaking with cold disdain, "Do you have the qualifications to talk to me?"

That expert's expression froze before turning extremely unsightly. One of the heavenly deities spoke, "Qin Wentian, the Heaven Vault cannot be something you possess alone, it belongs to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Are you really intending to not share with everyone and occupy it yourself?"

"I'm the inheritor of the Heaven Vault, I naturally have the power to decide who can enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation. In any case, which of the peak powers are you from?" Qin Wentian calmly asked.

"Heavenly Deity Mountain." That heavenly deity replied.

"The Heavenly Deity Mountain originally also belonged to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms but it is now occupied by you experts from the Heavenly Deity Mountain Sect. Why can you all possess it alone then? If one day I bring some people over to cultivate there, would all of you welcome everyone who wants to use the resources of the Heavenly Deity Mountain with open arms?" Qin Wentian coldly replied.

"You are distorting logic." That heavenly deity angrily spoke. Another heavenly deity then spoke, "Qin Wentian, experts from the various peak powers from the eight regions are here today. If you want to occupy the Heaven Vault alone, that would be tantamount to declaring war against all the experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Are you trying to threaten me?" Qin Wentian's eyes flickered with coldness, staring at that heavenly deity. When that heavenly deity matched his gaze, that heavenly deity actually felt a sense of pressure!

Chapter 1905: Announcement

The expression of that heavenly deity turned cold. It was said that Qin Wentian recently attained his dao about two hundred years before this, during the time when the Heaven Vault opened. How strong would he be?

As a heavenly deity, he naturally has his own pride and imposingness. He stared at Qin Wentian and coldly spoke, "This isn't me threatening you, I'm just stating facts. Right now, everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms knows that you are the controller of the Heaven Vault. I want to ask if you have the face to occupy the Heaven Vault yourself? Do you really think you are strong enough to take on all the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms as your enemy?

All the experts below stared up at Qin Wentian. The secret of the Heaven Vault was too extraordinary, everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were paying attention to it. Qin Wentian wanted to monopolize the Heaven Vault? This was absolutely impossible.

Qin Wentian calmly stared at everyone below. It was not impossible for him to allow the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to enter there and cultivate. However, the prerequisite was that he had to truly have enough strength to look down imperiously on all the other powers from a height above like the mysterious white-robed young man in the world of reincarnation. When one stood at the absolute peak, they naturally hoped for the junior generations being able to grow in strength as well.

But now, he can't do this yet. It wasn't because he was selfish. Rather, it was because the human heart was unfathomable. If he allowed everyone to enter the Heaven Vault and everyone knew that he was the controller, how could they not act against him? Could they not try and seize the authority of control from him? What was the reason why the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms launched a war against the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms back then, causing the loss of countless lives? Naturally, it was because of authority of control as well as cultivation resources.

Treasures were always the source for conflict. Let alone the control authority of a supreme treasure such as the Heaven Vault. It would definitely attract the killing intent of everyone. By allowing people from the other peak powers to enter, it would only be dangerous for him. In addition, he still had powerful enemies like the Qin Clan and Divine Ox Clan.

"If you obtain a treasure, would you take it out and share with everyone in the world?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed. After he obtained the inheritance of Godking Xi, he naturally gained control of the Heaven Vault. In that case, he clearly became the one to decide who could enter Heaven Vault, he shouldn't be forced or pressured by others.

If one was to say that the Heaven Vault should belong to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, that would be a joke. When one obtained a treasure, did that person really have to take it out and share with everyone else?

"Qin Wentian, this decision isn't up to you. Those people earlier were allowed into the Heaven Vault by you, they should be your friends or family, right? This means that you are already starting to take preventive measures, you clearly understand what the Heaven Vault means to everyone. Have you thought about the consequences of being stubborn?" That heavenly deity coldly spoke, he naturally wouldn't argue about logic with Qin Wentian.

"Haha, threatening me?" Qin Wentian suddenly laughed. "Fine then, I will wait outside the Heaven Vault for everyone in the world. I want to see exactly what the consequences would be."

His voice thundered through the air as he simply stood above the sea region, allowing the ocean breeze to set his clothes aflutter while exuding an air of boundless magnificence.

As long as he entered the Heaven Vault, what could anyone to do him? However, he didn't enter the Heaven Vault, he simply stood there and seemed to be calmly waiting to see what people could do to him.

Many people took out their messaging crystals and sent out information to their own respective powers.

Qin Wentian's appearance, the reopening of the Heaven Vault as well as Qin Wentian sending some people into it soon began to circulate around. In Boundless City that was closest to the boundless sea region, a storm of commotion occurred as experts from the city flew towards the sea region endlessly.

For a time, the dissipated commotion rose up again as a storm manifested.

The Qin Clan always had someone here monitoring the Heaven Vault. Currently in Boundless City, two powerful heavenly deities of the Qin Clan were stationed there. When they received the news, they instantly set off, flying towards the direction of the Heaven Vault.

In the Qu Residence, Qu Shen called his granddaughter Goddess Nichang over. He stared at her and softly spoke, "Earlier, I received the news that Wentian has appeared once more and his location is at the Heaven Vault. He just sent in a batch of people to cultivate in there. During these years, I'm sure you also know about the news circulating around the outside world."

"Mhm." Goddess Nichang nodded her head lightly. Qin Wentian created such a huge commotion, it would be difficult even if she didn't wish to know.

"Do you still remember back then when Wentian came to our residence, I once asked you what are your thoughts?" Qu Shen suddenly asked. Goddess Nichang started before nodding her head. Her grandfather had asked her what are her thoughts regarding the marriage engagement with Qin Dangtian.

"Maybe at that time, he wanted to say something. Maybe if you said you don't agree with the marriage engagement, he would have revealed the fact that he controls the Heaven Vault and you can hide in there. However, you didn't express your true feelings." Qu Shen bitterly smiled. "Grandpa knows what you are thinking about. If you truly don't want to marry to Qin Dangtian, don't force yourself. This is your father's wish as well. Although the Heaven Vault became a place everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm are lusting over, it's very safe in there. Most probably other than Qin Wentian, no one else would be able to enter.

Goddess Nichang's beautiful gaze froze as she stared at her grandpa, she naturally understood the thoughts in his heart.

"I will go to the boundless sea region to take a look first." Goddess Nichang softly spoke. Qu Shen smiled and nodded his head lightly. He had no choice but to act like this due to the personality of his granddaughter. His granddaughter was always so cold to everyone else. Most probably, this was because her parents weren't around when she was growing up. Because of this, Qu Shen also felt some guilt.

Goddess Nichang then departed. Although her back view was beautiful, one could sense that she radiated a sense of loneliness.

In Boundless City, endless waves of experts flew into the air with lightning speed, radiating terrifying auras as they rushed towards the boundless sea region.

These people were clearly here for the Heaven Vault. Because Qin Wentian didn't appear for several years, they left the boundless sea region and waited in Boundless City instead. Now, the news of Qin Wentian's appearance finally came.

One could say that for those peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the vast majority of them had sent people to wait at Boundless City.

Because of Qin Wentian's appearance, they rushed out at the same time, heading towards the sea region. In fact, quite a few deity-level auras engulfing the entire city could be felt. Other than the several deities, there were also many powerful world overlords.

The people of Boundless city felt their hearts shaking. If Qin Wentian didn't appear, they would basically never imagine so many powerful existences were hiding in their city.

Currently at the location of the Heaven Vault above the sea region, more and more experts came by. Those who arrived first weren't in a hurry to do anything to Qin Wentian. Just like what the first heavenly deity had said, by monopolizing the Heaven Vault, the whole Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would treat Qin Wentian as his enemy.

Qin Wentian wouldn't give up his control of the Heaven Vault. The number of people who wished to deal with him was almost countless. Hence, no one felt hurried.

More and more experts arrived. Other than those from the major powers, there were also many bystanders who came to watch the drama. Their eyes were fixed on the white-robed young man standing in the air. Qin Wentian had his eyes closed and seemed incomparably calm. Many people silently sighed in admiration. Even at this moment, he was still so calm, as expected of a character that could cause a storm in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Lin Xiao also arrived. He came here with the mystical maiden, it was like he would be everywhere with her until he successfully wooed her. His gaze turned to Qin Wentian. Back then, the person in the world of reincarnation who went crazy due to Luoshen Lei's death, was actually so imposing now.

Goddess Nichang also came. Her beautiful eyes stared at the figure in the air but there was no expression on her face.

"Goddess Nichang!" Her appearance instantly caused a minor commotion.

"Her eyes don't seem to contain any hatred when she looks at Qin Wentian." Many people discussed. Back then, the incident of Qin Wentian abducting Nichang created huge waves in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. By right, Goddess Nichang should have some reaction when staring at him, right? Could it be something really happened?

Many people were still waiting. It was like no one was in a hurry to make things difficult for Qin Wentian.

After some time. the two heavenly deities of the Qin Clan finally walked out. Their expressions were cold as they spoke, "This brat Qin Wentian has immense ambitions, actually wanting to monopolize the Heaven Vault. Everyone, why is there a need to waste time? We should capture him directly and force the controlling mechanism out from him."

Qin Wentian opened his eyes and stared at the two heavenly deities from the Qin Clan.

"Qin Wentian, say it for yourself. Are you willing to open the Heaven Vault to let everyone enter?" Someone asked.

Qin Wentian didn't say anything. The experts in the crowd frowned as their expressions turned cold. Another person questioned, "Since he is unwilling to express his stance, why bother wasting words?"

Such voices rang out consecutively, all of them wanting to capture Qin Wentian and seize the secret of controlling the Heaven Vault from him. For a time, Qin Wentian was the target for a multitude of arrows.

Qin Wentian opened hdis eyes and stared at the countless experts here. He would have to face them sooner or later. In that case, he might as well make things clear in one go. If someone wants to be enemies with him, he was fine with it.

"Today, I won't lie to everyone. The Heaven Vault was left behind by an ancient expert and I've inherited it. This means that the Heaven Vault now belongs to me. I waited for all of you here because I want to tell the world that this Heaven Vault is mine and mine alone. If I want to allow people to enter, they can enter but if someone wishes to threaten me and be my enemy, I, Qin Wentian, shall accept no matter who or how many powers want to come at me." Qin Wentian calmly spoke, his gaze sweeping through the area. The wind here fluttered his robes, causing flapping sounds in the air.

He stood there and announced to everyone that the Heaven Vault belongs to him. It was his choice whether or not to let someone enter it.

Also, for those who wished to threaten him and become his enemy, he shall accept it no matter who or how many powers came at him!

Chapter 1906: Domineering

Suave!

The hearts of many involuntarily praised in admiration. When facing the experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Qin Wentian was still able to give such a domineering reply. The Heaven Vault belonged to me, I will let whoever I want to enter it. Such grace and charm he exuded was like indicating he didn't give a damn about the threats spoken by the heavenly deity earlier at all.

However, it was one thing to be suave. But could he really endure the fires of rage from all the experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?

Let alone Qin Wentian, even if the strongest peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms obtained Heaven Vault, they need not dream about monopolizing it alone. Things wouldn't be easy for them either.

"Everyone, I believe you all have heard his words." After a moment of silence, a heavenly deity spoke, his voice filled with a heavy mocking tone.

Indeed, now that the Heaven Vault was inherited by Qin Wentian, he should naturally be its controller by logic. But, does he have the strength to support this? He made that announcement before all the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm. How arrogant and ridiculous was that? He simply didn't know the immensity of the heavens and earth despite the fact that he was already a heavenly deity.

Qin Wentian gracefully smiled. He calmly spoke, "Since this is the case, for those who wish to threaten me to handover the Heaven Vault, just stand before me."

After hearing Qin Wentian's words, the airspace above the Heaven Region fell silent once more. Qin Wentian already said that he would accept it no matter who or how many wanted to be his enemies. Now, he wanted those who would be his enemies to stand before him. Clearly, he wasn't running away. Since this is the case, who among them should take the lead?

Seeing everyone remain silent, Qin Wentian laughed. "No matter what, everyone is at least someone from one of the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. There are even several heavenly deities here. If you all only dare to make a commotion while hiding in the crowd, it would be better for you to shut up so as not to embarrass yourselves."

His words were already filled with the hint of provocation.

"Arrogant." Lin Xiao laughed in a low voice after he heard that. The mystical maiden also felt speechless. This Qin Wentian, not only did he attempt to avoid the pressure from the peak powers, he actually voluntarily welcomed the pressure? This was truly arrogance and not arrogance of an ordinary level.

"Vile spawn." A cold voice rang out. The two heavenly deities from the Qin Clan walked out, their eyes flashing with coldness as they stared at Qin Wentian. One of them spoke, "Qin Wentian, although your father was a traitor of the Qin Clan, the blood that flows in your veins ultimately is that of the Qin Clan as well. If you are willing to apologize on behalf of your father and beg the clan leader for forgiveness and gift the Heaven Vault to our Qin Clan, the Qin Clan might be magniamous enough to forgive the crimes you and your father committed."

"Gift the Heaven Vault to the Qin Clan? Apologize? Beg for forgiveness?" Qin Wentian stared at the heavenly deity from the Qin Clan who spoke. Such shameless words, yet this heavenly deity spoke like justice was on his side. Could it be that the higher one's cultivation was, the thicker their skin would be?

"I have never been someone from the Qin Clan. My father also feels shame that he was born as part of the Qin Clan. As for all of you, who the hell do you think you are? How can your skins be so thick? Do you even still want face?" Qin Wentian mocked. The eyes of the two heavenly deities narrowed as their expressions froze. Their auras gushed out, causing heavenly might to crackle. A terrifying power erupted forth in the airspace above the sea region.

"As expected of a vile spawn. Since this is the case, we can only forcibly capture you back to the Qin Clan." Another one of the heavenly deities spoke in a righteous manner. Capturing Qin Wentian back to the Qin Clan? The other experts here would definitely not agree. So, the purpose of the two heavenly deities saying all of this was because they wanted to bring Qin Wentian away. After all, capturing Qin Wentian means obtaining the Heaven Vault. How can they allow the plans of the Qin Clan to succeed?

However, since the Qin Clan was willing to take the lead in this situation, they didn't mind watching for now. But if the Qin Clan wanted to bring Qin Wentian away, this was clearly impossible.

"Foolishly stubborn." The heavenly deity from the Qin Clan coldly spoke. A vertical slit appeared in the center of his brows, opening to reveal an eye. This eye was terrifying to the extreme and shot out heavenly might. In an instant, the area ahead was engulfed by the power of his eye, including the body of Qin Wentian.

"Qin Li's eye of control." The heavenly deities of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were all famous individuals. The moment this heavenly deity acted, even for those juniors who haven't seen him before, would all know who he was based on the attacks he used. Qin Li, a heavenly deity of the Qin Clan. He depended on Qin Clan's bloodline art to attain his heavenly dao and formed an eye of control that contained heavenly might. It was able to control the movements of people and even seize everything from its target.

Qin Wentian stiffened when he felt the controlling might boring down on him. For a time, his entire body felt ice-cold. Was it this kind of power that plundered all the energy from his father back then?

In the past, his father encountered the joint attacks by many of the elders from the Qin Clan. He also had no idea what agony his father faced. But now, as a heavenly deity, when he sensed the power of the eye of control, he could faintly sense that it was a similar power. Likely it was this eye of control that seized everything from his father after he was heavily injured when he was being ganged up on.

This surge of heavenly might was extremely fearsome and tyrannical, enveloping a complete area. Directly trying to invade Qin Wentian's body.

But right now, there was only coldness in Qin Wentian's gaze.

The other party frowned, the power of his eye of control descended, wanting to control everything in the world. However, Qin Wentian actually simply stood there in a stable manner. Qin Li could sense the existence of a layer of sealing energy in Qin Wentian's body protecting him from any invasion of outside energy.

Qin Wentian took a step forward and crossed the space, appearing before Qin Li. This amount of distance was simply too short to heavenly deities, let alone Qin Wentian who was proficient in the laws of space and time. A single step was all he needed.

Qin Wentian glanced at Qin Li, similarly casting a glance at him. In an instant, Qin Li felt an entire spacetime being created by Qin Wentian's gaze, completely enveloping him. His body directly sank into the world created by Qin Wentian's gaze, he could do nothing to resist that tyrannical power.

His eye at the center of his brow began to glow with a terrifying luster. In the air, a manifestation of Qin Li's eye of control appeared, locking down on this created world. However, to his horror, Qin Li discovered everything in this world was under Qin Wentian's control. This included his own dao as well.

A beam of light radiated forth from an ancient word, moving with incredible speed, resembling a sword of the heavenly dao. Qin Li's eyes were filled with fear. He sensed that sword was moving too fast, so fast that he had no way to evade. It wasn't the sword that was fast. Rather, in this spacetime, he was simply too slow. Everything here was under Qin Wentian's control. Fast or slow depended on his desire.

He cursed in rage. A beam of extremely bright light shot out from his third eye, but when it came in contact with the power of the ancient word, the beam of control light directly shattered. The ancient word contained Qin Wentian's dao, his Spacetime Sword Dao.

"ARGH!" A scream of misery rang out. Qin Li's third eye was directly pierced through as fresh blood flowed. He covered his third eye with his hand as a look of incomparable agony appeared on his face.

However, people in the surroundings were all staring at this scene in shock. Because, the current Qin Li wasn't in the same spacetime as them, he was sealed in another world created by Qin Wentian.

"From today onwards, you will be trapped in that world forever." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. A beam of light shot out from his eyes and the sealed spacetime he created earlier vanished, like it never existed before. No one knew where that world had gone to. It disappeared alongside with Qin Li.

It wasn't difficult for a heavenly deity to create a world. However, after creating it, Qin Wentian sealed the world away completely with Qin Li being trapped within. As long as Qin Li couldn't break through the seals, he would never be able to exit from there. Also, it was clear that Qin Li who was trapped by a single gaze wouldn't have enough strength to break the world he was sealed in.

A heavenly deity was going to vanish just like that?

This was like a play, a heavenly deity had vanished with the effort of a single gaze.

Everyone knew the difference in strength with regards to each cultivation realm. The higher one climbed, the greater the disparity would be. At the heavenly deity level, the disparity in strength between different heavenly deities could reach a terrifying extent. At this moment, all the people here clearly saw this.

Qin Wentian and Qin Li were both heavenly deities but the disparity in their strength wasn't just a little bit. Qin Wentian could completely dominate his opponent. Before Qin Wentian, there was no difference between Qin Li and a world overlord. However, everyone knew that Qin Li was a heavenly deity and he had become one since countless years ago.

Comparing the two of them, Qin Wentian had just broken through to the heavenly deity realm roughly about two hundred years back.

However, the strength and weakness of heavenly deities were never measured by the amount of time they spent in this realm.

The other heavenly deity of the Qin Clan was named Qin Cang. When he saw the fight that ended in an instant, his expression turned extremely pale. His strength was roughly equal to Qin Li. If he fought against Qin Wentian now, the ending could very well be imagined.

Qin Yuanfeng's son was already so powerful to this extent?

He involuntarily thought of Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian. When Qin Dangtian had just been a heavenly deity for two hundred years, was he as powerful as Qin Wentian?

To his shock, he realized that the Qin Dangtian then, couldn't be compared to the current Qin Wentian.

The talent of Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian was acknowledged by everyone in the Qin Clan. In the future, he would surpass Qin Zheng and might be the strongest person ever to be born in the Qin Clan. However, when he compared Qin Dangtian and Qin Wentian, he actually didn't have the absolute confidence to say that Qin Dangtian's talent was higher. What did this indicate?

This indicated that as long as this traitor's son had enough time, Qin Wentian might be able to surpass everyone in the Qin Clan, including Qin Dangtian. In that case, what would the situation for their Qin Clan be like?

"During these years, there are plenty of rumors floating around about me. As a heavenly deity from the Qin Clan, you should have heard the rumors, right?" Qin Wentian stared at Qin Cang as he asked.

Qin Cang's expression turned ugly. He had naturally heard the rumors regarding Qin Wentian before.

"In that case, have you not heard that Qin Zhong's death was caused by me alone?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Qin Cang turned pale. In the past if Qin Wentian said this, he would doubt this. But now, he actually believed it.

"When I was at the world overlord realm, I could already kill a heavenly deity of your Qin Clan. Now, with my current level of power, the two of you want to bring me back there?" Qin Wentian mockingly spoke, the hearts of everyone trembled when they heard that. They were like Qin Cang. At this moment, no one doubted Qin Wentian. Back then, Qin Zhong was killed by him alone, when Qin Wentian was still a mere world overlord.

"Don't worry. I won't kill you but I won't let you go either." Qin Wentian calmly continued. It was like the fate of this heavenly deity before him was already in his control, no one would be able to do anything. If he wanted Qin Cang to die, Qin Cang wouldn't be able to live.

"There's one more heavenly deity from the Luoshen Clan being detained in the Qin Clan now, right? Just as well, get them to use him to exchange for you. You better pray that nothing has happened to him. If not, I will make sure you experience whatever he experienced." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. A single sentence has determined Qin Cang's fate, the fate of a heavenly deity from the Qin Clan!

Chapter 1907: Friends and Enemies

After Qin Cang heard Qin Wentian's words, he directly turned and sped away.

A heavenly deity from the powerful Qin Clan actually chose to flee.

This seemed somewhat mocking. Not long ago, Qin Li and Qin Cang still publicly proclaimed that they would capture Qin Wentian back to the Qin Clan to apologize and force the secret of the Heaven Vault out, handing control to the Qin Clan. But now, Qin Cang as a respectable heavenly deity, actually chose to run away instead of fighting.

Although this felt extremely mocking, it was also normal. The strengths of Qin Li and Qin Cang were relatively on the same level. Since Qin Wentian could easily handle Qin Li, it naturally wouldn't be difficult for him to deal with Qin Cang.

How difficult was it for one to cultivate to the level of a heavenly deity? They would naturally treasure their lives.

"Wanting to leave now? Isn't it a little too late?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke. With a glance, the time and space there seemed to twist. His gaze was extremely terrifying, shooting out beams of heavenly dao light. With a single glance, the area ahead was completely engulfed by his pressure. The space there churned wildly, as the laws of time and space revolved rapidly.

At this moment, the experts in the boundless sea region all saw Qin Wentian's eyes. His eyes were like the heavenly dao, representing the law order of heaven and earth.

When Qin Cang sensed the spacetime twisting, his expression turned ashen. He punched out, causing heaven and earth to rumble. This fist of his seemed capable of penetrating everything, yet it failed to break apart the twisting space and time. The pressure produced by the twist bore down on him, pulling him in, and tethered him to Qin Wentian.

"If I don't let you leave, can you leave?" Qin Wentian spoke arrogantly. "Since you want to enter the Heaven Vault so much, I will grant you your wish."

Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, the wave of twisted space time flew into the sky. A slit opened up and Qin Cang was sent inside it. Qin Wentian believed that even a heavenly deity wouldn't be able to breakfree from his twisted spacetime imbued with the power of the sealing laws.

"Wasn't that a powerful heavenly deity character?" Many world overlords felt their hearts shaking. Today, the battle they had witnessed overturned all their knowledge. A powerful heavenly deity was actually as weak as an ant, captured so easily without any chance to fight back.

In truth, they had never seen this before because it was very rare for deity-level battles to erupt in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The implications of a deity-level battle was too great. The various powers all had trepidations in their hearts. However, between Qin Wentian and the Qin Clan, they were originally already mortal enemies. So, which party would have trepidation in using heavenly deities?

Back then in the Heaven Vault, the Qin Clan already forced Qin Wentian into the Gods Extinction Path. Hence, towards the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan, Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't be polite. This was why the deity-level battle they saw today was different from their imaginations. To those peak characters of the peak powers, other than feeling shock at Qin Wentian's strength, they didn't feel too much of a surprise with regards to there being such a large disparity in power between heavenly deities.

But, wasn't this Qin Wentian a little too monstrous?

He seemed to have effortlessly settled the two heavenly deities of the Qin Clan. Most probably, other than those few extremely strong heavenly deities in the Qin Clan, no other heavenly deities would be a match for Qin Wentian.

Was this the source of his confidence of why he dared to take everyone in the world as his enemy? He was so powerful that ordinary deities could only stare up at him in awe.

Qin Wentian still stood in the air space above the sea region. The ocean breeze gusted by, but the gazes of everyone staring at him had changed. They no longer felt Qin Wentian was arrogant or a fool that could easily be trampled on. At this moment, they truly realized that the fact that the fame of the arrogant and handsome-looking young man in the air could resound through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wasn't a fluke. He had enough strength to depend on. He was currently writing his own legend.

There was no doubt that the future Qin Wentian would surely be able to leave behind a stroke in the history of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Countless gazes stared at Qin Wentian, including those familiar with him. Goddess Nichang also didn't expect that the young man who once almost sank into mara in the world of reincarnation, was actually so powerful now to this extent. No wonder he was the one who got chosen to enter the true legendary place. It was rumored that one could view heavenly fate there.

Qin Wentian was the focus of all the attention. His gaze was still as calm as water. He displayed his strength earlier because he wanted to shock everyone to prevent people from fishing in troubled waters. If they wanted to force him to open the Heaven Vault, they better be prepared.

A high enough level of strength was undoubtedly the best threat.

After that battle, the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, other than those from the peak powers, definitely wouldn't dare to provoke him. If not, they would simply be overestimating their strengths.

"Is there still anyone who wishes to threaten me? Please step forward now. I can consider it and might send you into the Heaven Vault as well." Qin Wentian calmly smiled. Send them into Heaven Vault and suffer the same fate as Qin Cang?

If their strength wasn't comparable to Qin Wentian, what could they do when they entered the Heaven Vault? They would only become the fish in the net of a fisherman and their fates would be in Qin Wentian's control.

This time, everyone shut up. Those arrogant heavenly deities earlier also tactfully fell silent.

Given the situation now, ordinary heavenly deities would no longer dare to threaten Qin Wentian, that would truly be not knowing the immensity of the heavens and earth. Qin Wentian clearly wanted to depend on his advantage of the Heaven Vault to fight against the experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. If he wasn't strong enough, things were fine as he could be captured. But now, they all knew Qin Wentian's strength was enough to destroy them. Who would still dare to easily step out? Did they feel that their lives are too long?

"Why? Wasn't there many people threatening I, Qin, earlier? Now, why have you all fallen silent?" Qin Wentian mockingly laughed. After that, he waved his hand as a gap appeared in the sky. Within the gap of space, the Heaven Vault could be seen.

"Who wishes to enter?" Qin Wentian calmly asked. "Maybe, I won't obstruct those who wish to enter."

The Heaven Vault was now in plain sight. As long as someone wanted to, it seemed that they could simply enter it. Not long ago, all of them were in a frenzy due to it and wanted to enter. But now that the Heaven Vault appeared, no one dared to make any reckless moves. If they entered the Heaven Vault, how can they fight against Qin Wentian?

Wouldn't Qin Wentian be able to do whatever he wanted to with them?

"No one?" Qin Wentian coldly smiled.

"Me." At this moment, a voice drifted over. After that, a person stepped out. His clothes were simple, he stood there and his entire being was like a sharp sword. He stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, "If you are agreeable, I feel like entering the Heaven Vault to cultivate."

Qin Wentian glanced at the person. He smiled, "Since senior is interested, this junior naturally welcomes you. Please feel free to enter."

He had seen this person before. But this was the first time he had a conversation with him. This man in simple clothes was none other than Sword Monarch Jian Junlai.

Jian Junlai nodded lightly to Qin Wentian. After that, his figure flashed and transformed into a beam of sword light, directly entering Heaven Vault before the eyes of everyone.

"When I don't allow people to enter, you guys wished to threaten me. But when I allow people to go in, no one dares to enter? How ridiculous." Qin Wentian mockingly laughed. His figure flashed as he entered Heaven Vault as well. After he entered, the Heaven Vault closed once again.

Qin Wentain's voice still echoed through the airspace above the sea region. The expressions of those people turned extremely ugly. After some time, some people spoke, "That's right, Qin Wentian earlier already said that he might allow people to enter. Why didn't I step out together with the Sword Monarch?"

"We missed an opportunity." Lin Xiao clapped his hand to his forehead as he depressedly spoke. Who said that entering the Heaven Vault means becoming an enemy of Qin Wentian?

Earlier, Qin Wentian was only so domineering before people who had threatened him. But when he took the initiative to issue the invitation of entering, if it wasn't for the hearts of these people being filled with doubts, most probably nothing would happen to them even if they entered the Heaven Vault. Could it be Qin Wentian would really kill everyone who entered the Heaven Vault?

After thinking about it, many people felt regret, as though they missed out on a heaven-sent opportunity. There were some who coldly snorted. Maybe Qin Wentian didn't obstruct the person in simple clothes because that person was the Sword Monarch. Who could guarantee that Qin Wentian would really allow them to enter?

Truly, no one could be certain of that. When they thought of this, many people suddenly felt more relieved.

However, many of the experts gathered here felt as though they had been played by Qin Wentian. But even with so many experts, no one could do anything to Qin Wentian who was a newly ascended heavenly deity. When he opened the Heaven Vault, everyone didn't dare to enter. What an irony.

...

After that battle in the boundless sea region, Qin Wentian's name once again resounded through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The son of the past Qin Clan's traitor Qin Yuanfeng, was already so strong to this extent, he even dared to publicly challenge the Qin Clan now and effortlessly dealt with two heavenly deities from the Qin Clan. One was deported by Qin Wentian into an unknown space. The other was trapped within the Heaven Vault.

After that, news circulated around the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Qin Wentian told the Qin Clan to bring the heavenly deity and ten world overlords of the Luoshen Clan imprisoned in the Qin Clan to come to him and exchange for the hostage.

After the Qin Clan received this news, they were shaking in anger.

Including Qin Li and Qin Cang, ever since the Heaven Vault opened, the Qin Clan has already lost a total of four heavenly deities. Two died in the Gods Extinction Path, one of them was killed by Qin Tiangang while the other died to the dangers of the dark void. And now, Qin Li was trapped in a sealed world while Qin Cang was captured by Qin Wentian.

Even though the Qin Clan was one of the top three peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and had several heavenly deities, the loss of four heavenly deities was enough to damage the foundation of the Qin Clan.

In addition, Qin Zhong who died before the opening of Heaven Vault hasn't been counted into the list of casualties yet. In total, the Qin Clan has already lost five heavenly deities.

This was an irony because all five of the heavenly deities had one point in common. That point was Qin Wentian.

A person who was once disregarded by Qin Dangtian, the son of the Qin Clan's traitor, has actually caused the powerful Qin Clan to lose face again and again. Unknowingly, there were already five heavenly deities who fell to Qin Wentian. How terrifying. Was this the steps of his revenge?

Boundless City once again attracted the attention of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Countless experts rushed there, including powerful heavenly deities from the peak powers. They were prepared to negotiate with Qin Wentian. Since Qin Wentian had allowed Sword Monarch Jian Junlai to enter, why couldn't he allow them to?

But no matter how fierce the commotion raged in the outside world, it seemed as though the commotion had nothing to do with Qin Wentian. He was currently cultivating in the Heaven Vault. But naturally, there were people who were still communicating with him via voice transmissions.

"Ah, back then I could already see that you would become someone that can dominate the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. That was why I became friends with you and treated you to wine. Seems like my judgement is very precise, I can't help but be impressed by myself. Brother Qin, now that your name is so famous, you wouldn't forget the brothers who braved dangers with you in the past, right? The four of us are together now and are planning to throw in our lot with you." The voice of Ten Miles Springwind rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. Qin Wentian couldn't help but smile, this Ten Miles Springwind was as shameless as ever.

"Bring some good wine over. But don't blame me for not warning you guys. If you all enter Heaven Vault with the identity of being my friends, this news would be leaked sooner or later. In the future after you exit the vault…" Qin Wentian stated. Ten Miles Springwind naturally could understand this. Qin Wentian was the controller of the Heaven Vault, his friends naturally could enter and cultivate. But if this was made known, there might be extremely powerful heavenly deities acting against them in a bid to force Qin Wentian to open the Heaven Vault. Ten Miles Springwind understood all this.

"Can it be that we are not friends? Is our relationship not good enough to weather through this storm with you? Don't tell me you are planning to forget our friendships now that you are a heavenly deity?" Ten Miles Springwind spoke with a straight face. Qin Wentian laughed. Since his friends wanted to come despite knowing all of this, he would naturally welcome them!

Chapter 1908: Ambition

Outside the Heaven Vault, the wind and clouds gathered. The experts in Boundless City were as common as the clouds. Even Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian personally arrived but when they came here, the Heaven Vault had already closed and they could only wait it out in Boundless City, discussing how exactly should they deal with Qin Wentian.

Right now, their Qin Clan still had one heavenly deity named Qin Cang in Qin Wentian's hands.

As long as Qin Wentian hides in the Heaven Vault and doesn't exit, they would never be able to enter. For the Heaven Vault's entrance, no one else other than Qin Wentian could open it.

Given Qin Wentian's current level of power, even Qin Zheng felt a hint of threat. It was very troublesome. If things continued on, Qin Wentian might really grow to the point where he could threaten the Qin Clan. They had to find a chance to exterminate Qin Wentian before that.

And as for the situation within the Heaven Vault currently, the scene was completely different.

Back then, those good friends Qin Wentian made when he attended the convention of the myriad realms, Ten Miles Springwind, Old Ghost, Phoenix and Cao Tian, have already entered the Heaven Vault. Many people personally saw them entering but the Heaven Vault closed in an instant. No one dared to rush into it despite there being enough time for some of the more powerful people. With Qin Wentian's strength as a deterrence, no one dared to move recklessly.

In the Heaven Vault, amidst the stars, a group of figures sat there. In the center of them, there was a constellation stone table with jars of wine placed on it. The fragrance permitted the area and these wines were naturally brought here by Ten Miles Springwind.

At this moment, Cao Tian took out his messaging crystal seemingly busy with something.

"Cao Tian, it isn't easy for us to gather together. How would you have so much stuff to be busy about?" Ten Miles Springwind asked.

"You can only say that the Heaven Vault is too popular. We just entered and news about it has already circulated. My clansmen are all asking me about it." Cao Tian spoke.

"Haha, why have you ever cared about your clan?" Ten Miles Springwind laughed. Cao Tian kept his messaging crystal, "Very well. I shall ignore them, they would influence my mood. Come, let us drink!"

"Practical." Phoenix laughed.

"Cao Tian, you should feel proud instead. Most probably, the unwelcomed you has now become a blazingly popular figure in your Cao Clan." Ten Miles Springwind continued to tease Cao Tian. After that, he turned his eyes to Qin Wentian. "Although back then I already knew Wentian would have great accomplishments in the future, I didn't expect you to become so strong so fast. Even heavenly deities cannot withstand a blow from you. Qin Cang of the Qin Clan was even captured by you, right?"

"I didn't expect you would be the same as Junlai, leaping up to the heavens in a single leap. There are truly countless wondrous things in the world." Old Ghost drank his wine. Not only were they here, the Sword Monarch Jian Junlai was sitting at the side and drinking wine with them too.

"So it turns out that the reason why old ghost was familiar with Jian Junlai's matter was because he was acquainted with him since a long time ago. Back then when they participated in the same convention years ago, they were already friends. After that, Jian Junlai became a character whose name shook the Mystic Region and gained the title of Sword Monarch, the number one sword in the Mystic Region."

"Old Ghost, you are really good at becoming the foil to enhance the light of others." Phoenix laughed. They also felt somewhat taken aback that Old Ghost actually knew Jian Junlai personally. In fact, their relationship seemed to be extremely good as well.

Many years ago when he and Jian Junlai participated in the convention, he became the foil to enhance Jian Junlai's radiance. Now, he was a foil to enhance Qin Wentian's radiance.

In truth, Qin Wentian's current fame was not weaker but in fact stronger, when compared to the Sword Monarch. The Sword Monarch could summon the rain and call the wind in the Mystic Region but Qin Wentian could invoke storms in the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"This can also be considered fate. Old Ghost has participated in two conventions where the time stone monument appears. I and Qin Wentian both received the guidance of the Time King and now, we even have a chance to sit and drink wine together." Jian Junlai spoke. He was a man of few words, the sharpness that always emanated from him seemed to have disappeared. He seemed more ordinary and didn't exude any signs of imposingness or tyranny.

"Let us toast for the sake of fate." Qin Wentian smiled as he lifted his wine cup. Everyone toasted but at this moment, a voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. His gaze flashed and he took out his messaging crystal before selecting a strand of immortal sense.

"What's the matter?" Ten Miles Springwind asked.

"My grandpa came. He is arriving here very soon, I'll go out to bring him in." Qin Wentian spoke. Everyone nodded. So it turned out that Qin Wentian's grandfather was none other than the original clan leader of the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Chuan.

Back then, when Qin Wentian's name resounded through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Ten Miles Springwind and the rest were all badly shocked. To think that Qin Wentian was the son of Qin Yuanfeng and Luoshen Qianxue.

Qin Wentian's figure flashed as he left here.

At the same time, in the airspace above the boundless sea region, a terrifying gigantic bird could be seen soaring through the air. The wingspan of this bird was at least a million miles, and with a single flap of its wings, typhoons would be generated, causing the waves below to churn wildly. This bird was truly terrifying to the extreme. Its speed was exceptionally quick, traveling a countless amount of distance with each flap.

This giant bird was none other than the Kun Sovereign. In the span of a few breaths of time, he has already arrived at the location of the Heaven Vault.

When all the experts in the surroundings saw the Kun Sovereign arriving, the eyes of many people flashed dazzlingly.

"Kun Sovereign."

"The Kun Sovereign of the Demon God Mountain also came to Heaven Vault. Who is on his back?" The eyes of everyone gleamed sharply. The Kun Sovereign was none other than one of the five demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain.

"There seems to be plenty of people with him." The eyes of everyone gleamed. The Kun Sovereign reverted into his true demonic form, a Kunpeng. His body was gigantic to the extreme, every feather of his was larger than a human. Within the tiny gaps of his feathers on his back, people could sit there. At this moment, there were several silhouettes on his back.

"Luoshen Chuan!" The eyes of someone narrowed. Near one of the feathers on the Kun Sovereign's back, Luoshen Chuan could be seen standing there. However, because of the giant body the Kun Sovereign had, Luoshen Chuan appeared extremely tiny but even so, divine sense could still sense him.

When they thought about the relationship between Qin Wentian and Luoshen Chuan, their gazes froze as they stared in the air. A thought flashed through their minds. The Kun Sovereign and Luoshen Chuan were clearly heading towards the Heaven Vault. Does this mean that the Heaven Vault was about to open again?

Their divine sense swept out, wanting to see clearly who the others are. However, the Kun Sovereign can be said that he was the king of the skies. His speed was incomparable and akin to lightning. He dashed straight towards a location in the air and in that instant, a slit opened up and the Kun Sovereign entered it. At the next moment, the slit immediately closed. The opening and closing of the Heaven Vault was almost instantaneous.

"I think I saw many people on the back of the Kun Sovereign." Someone exclaimed.

"In the Desolate Region, Luoshen Chuan and the Demon God Mountain joined forces to deal with the Divine Ox Clan, they are already in an alliance. Seems like because of this relationship, Qin Wentian permitted the people of the Demon God Mountain to enter the Heaven Vault to cultivate." Everyone quickly managed to guess at some things. Earlier, it was unknown how many people were on the Kun Sovereign's back. His speed was so fast that normal vision wasn't able to track him. Divine sense scans also only lasted a single instant before the Kun Sovereign vanished completely. No one was able to see the identities of the people on his back clearly.

Within the Heaven Vault, the Kun Sovereign continued flying ahead and arrived at the ancient heaven vault path. Up ahead, Qin Wentian appeared. After that, the Kun Sovereign landed and dipped his wings downwards, aiming at the ground. At this moment, numerous figures walked down from his back. It was exactly like what the people on the outside guessed, there were thousands upon thousands of people here.

The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign also walked out, including the other three demon sovereigns. The five demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain all appeared here today. Not only that, there were also plenty of people from the Luoshen Clan. They were staring at the young man up ahead as thousands of emotions filled their hearts. These people were people from the Luoshen Clan that chose to follow Luoshen Chuan. Today, they came together with the Kun Sovereign to the Heaven Vault.

Once, the young man whom the Luoshen Clan held in disdain, was now the Heaven Vault's controller. This was something all the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wanted. Also, Qin Wentian himself was already a heavenly deity expert. Ordinary deities couldn't even withstand a single blow from him. He captured Qin Cang from the Qin Clan and wanted to use Qin Cang to trade with the captives of the Luoshen Clan imprisoned in the Qin Clan, helping their Luoshen Clan to wash clean the shame of the past.

When they thought about how the Luoshen Clan had treated Qin Wentian back then, many people felt guilt and shame. This was also part of the reasons why they chose to follow Luoshen Chuan now.

"Seniors, how have you all been?" Qin Wentian smiled.

"Brat, you are already so strong now. Why are you still referring to us as seniors." The large eyes of the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign stared at Qin Wentian. He didn't expect this. In just a few hundred years, Qin Wentian already had such accomplishments. His talent was just too shocking.

Qin Wentian smiled. "You are all my seniors, it's only normal for me to address you all as such. Now that seniors have all arrived in the Heaven Vault, you can cultivate anywhere you want in the starry skies. In fact, all of you can even choose demon-type constellations that have a connection with you and treat them as Demon God Mountains."

"Treating a constellation as a Demon God Mountain?" The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign mumbled. After that, he laughed uproariously. "Tyrannical! In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there shouldn't be any peak powers that are so majestic that they are built upon a constellation, right?"

"In the boundless starry skies, seniors can claim as many constellations as you want to for you to cultivate there." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Nice." The Kun Sovereign calmly spoke. After that, he swept his eyes towards the constellations in the starry skies. Qin Wentian does have the qualifications to say such a thing. Now that the Heaven Vault was in his control, the countless constellations in the nine heavenly layers could all become cultivation grounds. It was impossible for any place in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to have such good conditions for cultivation as this place.

"Awesome." The Dragon Sovereign laughed. "I'm prepared to select demon dragon constellations for the dragons of my race. Haha."

"In that case, I will take roc-type constellations then." The Kun Sovereign laughed.

"What about me then?" Anger flashed in the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign's eyes. After some time, he spoke, "Fine then. Me and Little Rascal will occupy the same constellation together."

Everyone laughed. There was no choice, after all, heaven devouring beasts are all exceedingly rare.

"Seniors, please feel free to make yourselves at home." Qin Wentian spoke. Everyone nodded and began to ascend to the nine heavenly layers through the ancient pathway.

Qin Wentian followed behind them. He stared at the boundless starry space. Right now, the number of people in the Heaven Vault gradually increased. In the future, courtyards and residences could be constructed on the ancient pathway. The Demon God Mountain and Luoshen Clan could use this as their base. He believed that one day, the strength of his Heaven Vault would be able to overwhelm everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. All he needed was time!

Chapter 1909: Rejection of the Goddess

In an inn inside Boundless City, the area around it was now being controlled. Many experts guarded this area and the cultivation bases of those guards were shockingly high, all of them were at the world overlord realm. In addition, they all had different symbols on their clothes. It was clear that they belonged to different powers.

But at this moment, these world overlords only had the qualifications to stand guard outside.

And at a place extremely far away from the inn, many experts gathered around wanting to know what those people in the inn were talking about in exact detail. Because, they knew what statuses those people who were currently sitting inside the inn had. Just a few sentences from them could cause the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to tremble.

Today, the Qin Clan Leader Qin Zheng, was hosting a banquet in the inn for people from the peak powers. This wasn't a huge secret, everyone in Boundless City knew about it.

As for the topic of discussion, everyone could guess that it naturally had something to do with the Heaven Vault.

At this moment, everyone seated within the inn was from a peak power. For ordinary deities, they could only stand. Those seated were people like the Qin Clan Leader Qin Zheng, Qiankun Sect Leader, Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden, Che Clan Leader, Lei Clan Leader, Five Elements Sect Leader, the Poison God of God Destruction Palace, etc… Every one of them was a hegemon in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Most probably only the Qin Clan had enough prestige to invite all these people to gather together. Ordinary heavenly deities wouldn't be able to do so.

"Today, I invited everyone here for a purpose. I believe all of you should have already guessed what I want to say. The Heaven Vault is a secret realm in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that is the most suitable for cultivation. It can connect the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to the nine heavenly layers, allowing people to cultivate among the stars. I believe that since all of you showed up, you all should have interest in the Heaven Vault, right?" Qin Zheng spoke.

"Qin Zheng, just go straight to the point." The Qiankun Sect Leader calmly spoke. They weren't here to listen to Qin Zheng speak nonsense. Why exactly did he gather all of them here?

"Right." Qin Zheng nodded. "For a secret realm like the Heaven Vault, if any power obtained it, they would probably find it hard to monopolize it. If any of us were the controller, we would surely share it with the rest to maintain a basic level of fairness in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms."

Everyone naturally understands that with the Heaven Vault, it would mean that a particular power would be able to create more heavenly deities. The controller of the Heaven Vault would eventually control the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms eternally, unless some internal conflict occurred in that power.

Currently, the controller of the Heaven Vault is none other than the traitor of your Qin Clan. He hides himself within and refuses to come out. Also, he summoned the experts of the Luoshen Clan and Demon God Mountain and allowed them to enter. If they choose to hide in there for a thousand or ten thousand years, what can you do? What's the point of discussing about control of the Heaven Vault now?" The Che Clan Leader calmly spoke. Everyone glanced at Qin Zheng. Since he gathered all of them here, he should have some plan up his sleeves.

"Qin Wentian wants me to use the hostages of the Luoshen Clan to exchange for Qin Cang. But if he wishes to make the trade, the Heaven Vault naturally has to open up for him to exit." Qin Zheng spoke. The eyes of everyone flashed, this was true indeed. News about this has long circulated, Qin Cang was captured alive precisely to be used in a trade for hostages.

"Given the methods all of you have at your disposal, if you make your preparations, even if the Heaven Vault only opens for an instant of time, you would also be able to enter, right?" Qin Zheng spoke. "And as long as all of us enter together while sending people of our powers to surround the Heaven Vault from the outside, where can Qin Wentian flee to?

The eyes of everyone gleamed brightly. Qin Zheng's words were truly a solution. If the Qin Clan did this alone, they might not succeed. After all, Qin Wentian's current power was already very strong and he even had the five demon sovereigns and heavenly deities of the Luoshen Clan helping him. This plan could only succeed if all of them allied together and seized control of the Heaven Vault in a single move.

The peak experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were discussing about the plan here. As for Qin Wentian, he was currently isolated from the outside world and naturally had no idea about this.

At this moment, Qin Wentian who was cultivating, suddenly received a voice transmission from Qu Shen. He took out his messaging crystal and replied, "Grandpa Qu?"

"Wentian, not long ago Qin Zheng summoned the experts of the peak powers and they had a meeting in a certain inn. I guessed that they must be discussing plans about how to deal with you. You should be more careful." Qu Shen reminded. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Has the day finally come?

As expected, since the Heaven Vault was under his control, the peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would never accept this.

"Many thanks Grandpa Qu." Qin Wentian spoke with gratitude. "By the way, Grandpa Qu, do you and Nichang want to come in here to cultivate?"

Actually, Qin Wentian had always wanted to invite them but it wasn't convenient for him to do so. Qu Shen was an expert at the heavenly deity realm and had his own pride. As for Goddess Nichang, she was the number one beauty in the Heaven Region. He wanted them to enter the Heaven Vault because there was another layer of meaning behind this. He wanted them to avoid the marriage engagement with the Qin Clan. Although he doesn't hope for Nichang to be with Qin Dangtian, he didn't have the qualifications to interfere. Also, if he invited them and news of this circulated, their reputations would surely suffer damage. This was especially so considering the fact that there were rumors about him and Nichang. Hence, he kept hesitating.

Now that Qu Shen informed him about this, Qin Wentian naturally understood what Qu Shen was thinking about. If he really wanted to be in-laws with the Qin Clan, why would he inform him about this?

Hence, Qin Wentian took advantage of the situation and decided to still invite them.

"Let me ask Nichang for her opinion." Qu Shen laughed. After so many years, his pride has long been discarded. Right now, he only hoped that his granddaughter would be able to live a good life. Hence, as long as Nichang was agreeable, he wouldn't care about his face at all. Hence, he didn't feel anything about Qin Wentian's invitation, he also didn't feel that Qin Wentian had slighted him by inviting him to the Heaven Vault.

After he found his granddaughter, he stared gently at her and softly asked, "Nichang, Wentian wishes to invite us to cultivate in the Heaven Realm. What do you feel about this?"

Goddess Nichang inclined her head, her beautiful eyes looking at her grandfather. She naturally understood the meaning behind this invitation.

She fell silent for a period of time, as she contemplated this. But finally, she shook her head.

"Nichang, can you talk to grandpa about your feelings?" Qu Shen stared at his granddaughter. He knew that his granddaughter's heart had wavered slightly back then when Qin Wentian brought her back. Now, Qin Wentian issued his invitation to them, he wanted to know what she felt about all of it.

"What qualifications do I have to enter the Heaven Vault?" Goddess Nichang calmly replied. After that, she turned, "Grandpa, I will go and cultivate."

Qu Shen started, he stared at his granddaughter's back before smiling bitterly. He didn't know how to reply.

That's true. He could ignore his pride and face, but what about his granddaughter? She had extraordinary talent and was also known as the number one beauty in the Heaven Region. She had her own pride. What qualifications does she have to enter the Heaven Vault?

Breaking the marriage engagement and seeking Qin Wentian's protection? How would people of the world view her? Qin Wentian and Nichang had no official relationship, there were only rumors floating about them. If she agrees to enter the Heaven Vault to avoid the marriage under such a situation, her name would surely be dragged through the mud.

Naturally, maybe Goddess Nichang could ignore what others said about her. But then again, what qualifications does she have to enter the Heaven Vault? Qu Shen had no answer for that.

He took out his messaging crystal and replied Qin Wentian, "Wentian, Nichang said what qualifications does she have to enter the Heaven Vault."

After Qin Wentian heard this, he could only smile bitterly. This was also the reason why he was hesitant to invite them before.

"Grandpa Qu, if you two encounter any troubles, you must remember to tell me about it." Qin Wentian spoke. The gratitude the Qu Clan has shown him...he would surely remember it.

"Right." Qu Shen laughed.

...

At the boundless sea region, countless experts from the peak powers arrived. Qin Zheng led the experts of the Qin Clan along with the hostages they took from the Luoshen Clan here, namely Luoshen Han and the ten world overlords. Qin Dangtian came as well. His gaze was extremely cold as he stared at the sky.

Right now, his grudge with Qin Wentian wasn't merely the hatred from the previous generations. The young man he looked upon in disdain at the sacred academy back then, had already grown powerful enough to talk terms with the Qin Clan.

"I've already returned your messaging crystal to you. Now, you can contact Luoshen Chuan. Tell him to tell Qin Wentian that we are here for the exchange." Qin Zheng coldly spoke to Luoshen Han. He had no way to send a message directly into the Heaven Vault, hence he could only use Luoshen Chuan as the point of contact.

Luoshen Han took out his messaging crystal and sent a message to Luoshen Chuan. In the Qin Clan, he had to endure countless humiliations. Now, he finally saw hope. It was just that he didn't expect the new clan leader of the Luoshen Clan back then, Luoshen Mu, would betray him and the one who was going to save him now, was the young man the Luoshen Clan had given up on, Qin Wentian. When Qin Zhong hunted Qin Wentian, the Luoshen Clan sat on the fence and simply watched. This matter was truly a shameful one that haunted his thoughts.

Within the Heaven Vault, Luoshen Chuan and Qin Wentian soon received the news. They were currently flying towards the Heaven Vault's entrance. Naturally, Qin Wentian who received Qu Shen's warning, already knew that there was a sinister trap set by Qin Zheng waiting for him outside.

The area outside of the Heaven Vault's entrance was completely locked down. With an intention of his will, as the controller of the vault, Qin Wentian was able to see the situation outside. In his vision, he could see many experts gathered, including some familiar faces. These were all experts from the peak powers. For example, he saw the Qiankun Sect Leader, Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden, etc. All of these people were just too outstanding, he could recognize them with a single glance.

His divine sense swept out. After that, the scene outside was shown on a light screen, allowing Luoshen Chuan to see the situation.

"Qin Zheng has gathered the peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms before bringing the hostages for exchange. Grandfather, they wish to make a move to seize the Heaven Vault." Qin Wentian spoke.

"It's true that they brought Luoshen Han here, but they also came prepared. Wentian, what do you plan to do?" Luoshen Chuan asked. Unknowingly, the status of Qin Wentian in the hearts of everyone had already changed. Right now, even Luoshen Chuan would consult him on things. If this was in the past, such a thing would be impossible.

"Grandfather, help me inform Grandpa Han to tell Qin Zheng that there can only be experts from the Qin Clan outside the Heaven Vault before we will agree to an exchange." Qin Wentian spoke. Luoshen Chuan then sent a message to Luoshen Han who informed Qin Zheng. After learning of Qin Wentian's words, Qin Zheng's expression turned to ice as he regarded the sky above. This fellow was truly cautious. Could it be that he could see the scenes outside from within the Heaven Vault? Was the Heaven Vault truly a sealed dimension or not?!

Chapter 1910: Threaten

Qin Wentian wanted the others to leave. In the sea region below the Heaven Vault, only experts from the Qin Clan can remain here. If that's the case, Qin Zheng's plan might not be able to succeed so easily.

"How can I control the various powers here?" Qin Zheng coldly spoke as he stared at the sky. Luoshen Han directly conveyed the words to Luoshen Chuan.

"Since this is the case, let's change the timing for the exchange. I will inform you again." Qin Wentian replied as Luoshen Chuan conveyed the words to Luoshen Han.

Upon hearing Luoshen Chuan's words, Luoshen Han sighed silently in his heart. Could it be that he still wouldn't be able to gain his freedom today and still has to wait some more? However, Luoshen Chuan's voice rang out in his mind a few moments later saying that as long as the Qin Clan dared to use any methods on him, they would do the same to Qin Cang. Luoshen Chuan wanted him to convey this to Qin Zheng.

Qin Wentian and Qin Zheng conversed with each other through Luoshen Chuan and Luoshen Han. Qin Zheng's expression grew colder and colder. Seems like Qin Wentian has already seen through that this is a trap. Hence, he rejected making the deal.

"I can don't do anything to Luoshen Han. However, a faction of the Luoshen Clan still exists on the Luoshen Mountain. Other than that, what about the Qingcheng Realm and Azure Mystic Immortal Realms? How many people can you protect?" Qin Zheng crossed his arms and spoke coldly, intending to threaten Qin Wentian.

When everyone heard Qin Zheng's words, they were extremely shocked. Qin Zheng was a powerful heavenly deity in his own right and was also the Qin Clan's clan leader. Given his status, he shouldn't have said such words, using the lives of innocents to threaten Qin Wentian. This was truly an underhanded method that would be looked down upon by everyone. When a heavenly deity did such a thing, it was only even more shameful.

But even so, Qin Zheng still said this. From this, one could see his determination. Although he would lose face, he didn't care about it, wanting Qin Wentian to come out from the Heaven Vault at all cost. Not only did he want to seize control of the Heaven Vault, he also wanted Qin Wentian's life.

Luoshen Han conveyed the words. When Qin Wentian heard that, his expression grew extremely ugly. Even Luoshen Chuan was stunned. Qin Zheng was a lofty heavenly deity, yet he used such a method to threaten them.

For the Luoshen Clan's side, although Luoshen Mu was the one currently in control there, Luoshen Chuan naturally still had sentiments for the Luoshen Clan.

As for the Qingcheng Realm, although Qin Wentian already moved his family and friends away, the people remaining there were still his subordinates as well as the other innocents. All these were lives, yet Qin Zheng wanted to use the lives of these innocents to threaten him.

As for Azure Mystic, he naturally couldn't give it up as well.

It was like Qin Wentian could see the scenes of how the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms invaded Ancient Azure Mystic back then, causing a world-destroying battle to occur. So, this was the true character of the lofty heavenly deity, the Qin Clan Leader, Qin Zheng.

Also, today was different from the past. If Qin Zheng really wants to do something so despicable, Qin Wentian had no way to resist. Because, the opponents who wanted to deal with him weren't Qin Zheng alone. All the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were eyeing the Heaven Vault. Once he goes out from the vault, the situation would instantly become complex.

"Che Clan is the number one artificer clan in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and is exceptionally proficient with regards to formations. I believe that the Chen Clan wouldn't have a problem creating a divine formation in this location, right? Also as for the God Destroying Palace, you all can transform the area outside Heaven Vault to become a poisonous world. Everyone would die if they go near it. From now on, as long as anyone comes out from the Heaven Vault, only a path of death would be waiting for them. Since they don't want to come out, let us see how long they can stay in there." Qin Zheng coldly spoke. Evidently, they didn't only discuss the plan of forcing Qin Wentian out of the Heaven Vault during their meeting. They also had made plans in case their first plan failed.

These words were soon conveyed to Qin Wentian. His expression grew heavier and heavier and his eyes flashed with an extremely cold light.

This was forcing him to come out. Getting the Che Clan to create a divine formation and the God Destroying Palace to establish a poison world? Wasn't this sealing the Heaven Vault completely? When the Heaven Vault was sealed, they would act against the Luoshen Clan, Qingcheng Realm and Azure Mystic in the outside world. When that happens, they wanted to see if Qin Wentian would still stay inside the Heaven Vault or not?

The lofty heavenly deities could actually stoop so low to deal with Qin Wentian.

But at this moment, no one blamed Qin Zheng. After all, everyone wanted to enter the Heaven Vault.

However, to many people, this was nothing but a dream. Even if the Heaven Vault was opened and Qin Zheng and co. gained control, these peak powers definitely wouldn't allow everyone to enter. In fact, after the Heaven Vault falls into their control, friction might even occur within their alliance.

Right now inside Heaven Vault, Jian Junlai calmly spoke. "I didn't expect Qin Zheng to be capable of uttering such words."

Although Qin Wentian was the Qingcheng Realmlord, in truth, the Qingcheng Realm didn't really have too major a connection with him. The people there didn't have any direct relationship with him and are all innocents yet Qin Zheng wanted to use them to threaten Qin Wentian. How despicable. Such character truly would cause one to look down on Qin Zheng. However, in such a situation, those peak powers didn't blame Qin Zheng at all. The looks on their faces were calm, as though this ought to be the case.

"Since he still refuse to come out. The Che Clan and God Destroying Palace, please act now." Qin Zheng calmly spoke. Several heavenly deities from the Che Clan and God Destroying Palace stepped out, radiating terrifying auras. The experts from the Che Clan started to inscribe runes to create the formation while the experts from the God Destroying Palace started to establish a poison world, causing miasma to permeate the area.

In the future, even if Qin Wentian wanted to come out or bring people away, that would be nothing but a fool's dream.

The expressions of the people inside the Heaven Vault all drastically changed. This not only affected Qin Wentian, it affected everyone cultivating in the Heaven Vault. When they exited this place, they had to face the divine formation from the Che Clan and poison world established by the God Destroying Palace.

"Those bastards." The five demon sovereigns had heavy looks on their faces when they saw what was happening outside as demonic qi radiated from them.

"I heard that the five demon sovereigns are in the Heaven Vault as well. If they are willing to act against Qin Wentian, we might have a chance to capture Qin Wentian." At this moment, the Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan spoke. The eyes of everyone flashed as they stared at the chieftain. They all knew about the conflict between the Divine Ox Clan and Luoshen Chuan. Seems like the Ox Chieftain wanted to use this opportunity to deal with his enemies.

Qin Zheng also understood the Ox Chieftain's intent. But he still nodded and spoke to Luoshen Han beside him. "Convey this to the five demon sovereigns of the Demon God Mountain. The Demon God Mountain has allied with Qin Wentian, wanting to monopolize the Heaven Vault. Does this mean that they intend to forsake the other demons on the Demon God Mountain?

This sentence was clearly a threat. When the five demon sovereigns heard this, their demonic qi surged wildly. Qin Zheng even implicated them in this, what nonsense was this?

It was impossible for the Kun Sovereign to bring ALL the demons on the Demon God Mountain with him here. This time around, the demons he brought here with him were those with better strength and higher talents. But the Demon God Mountain was their headquarters. Earlier, they weren't afraid of the Divine Ox Clan because the five sovereigns were present. But if they were not there, the Divine Ox Clan would surely be able to trample the Demon God Mountain with ease. Now, given the current situation, the Divine Ox Clan's Ox Chieftain purposely used this to threaten them.

In the outside world, the Che Clan's experts were still inscribing the divine formation. Astral light unceasingly cascaded down as the might from the great dao infused the divine formation. Gradually, an incomparably resplendent light screen appeared, locking down this area. Multi-colored light radiated within, capable of destroying all existence. It was like as long as the Heaven Vault was here, the power of the divine formation would flood inside it, killing everyone in there currently.

"How terrifying."

Everyone inclined their heads and stared at the sky. This divine formation had a range of tens of thousands of miles. The divine light flowing from the formation was terrifying to the extreme, having the power to destroy the world.

Also, the Che Clan's experts didn't cease their movements, they continued to perfect the formation. After all, the people they wanted to deal with weren't ordinary characters, they were heavenly deities too. Qin Wentian, Luoshen Chuan... most of the deities in there are extremely powerful ones.

The experts of the God Destroying Palace weren't idle as well. The poison world was gradually established, poison qi permeated the atmosphere around the Heaven Vault. They wanted those inside to be in a death situation the moment they came out. Since they don't want to come out now, we will make sure you die when you come out in the future.

"Che Clan, God Destroying Palace." Qin Wentian's expression was like ice. He personally saw everything that they were doing. He would remember this grudge deep in his heart.

He once said that he would accept all enemies who wanted to seize the Heaven Vault from him. Now, the Che Clan and God Destroying Palace clearly have allied with the Qin Clan. Qin Wentian naturally would remember them.

"Elder brother, what should we do now?" In Heaven Vault, Luoshen Lei asked. This situation was very bad for them. It was fine if the other party merely created a divine formation to lock down this area, but the other party even used the lives of the Luoshen Clan, Qingcheng Realm and Azure Mystic to threaten Qin Wentian. Now, it was truly difficult for Qin Wentian to advance or retreat. If he decided to stay and cultivate for many years in the Heaven Vault and only exit after his cultivation base became extremely powerful, many people would undoubtedly die in the outside world. Since Qin Zheng could be shameless enough to say those words, he would definitely make sure to follow through as well. If Qin Wentian doesn't exit, he would absolutely do what he said.

"Let's exit." Qin Wentian spoke. "We have to think of a method to leave after exiting."

Luoshen Chuan nodded lightly, this was what he thought as well. It was impossible for him to watch on passively as the Luoshen Clan got destroyed.

And for Qin Wentian, he remembered all his memories about the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Although there was a ban order on Azure Mystic, what would happen if Qin Zheng decided to ignore the ban?

After all, this time around, the Heaven Vault was at stake. All the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would join forces. It's very possible that Qin Zheng would do this.

"There are so many experts waiting for you, elder brother, to exit." Luoshen Lei had a worried look on her face. Should they really exit? Qin Zheng could toss aside his face and shamelessly threaten Qin Wentian. What was the reason for this? The reason was naturally because he wanted Qin Wentian to exit.

If Qin Wentian exits the Heaven Vault, Qin Zheng's objective would be accomplished.

"Once we exit, we have to flee directly and make it so that they will be unable to catch up." Qin Wentian spoke. Outside here, there were many powerful enemy heavenly deities. It wouldn't be so easy to do this.

Chapter 1911: Kun Sovereign

Although things were very difficult, but as the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, many gazes turned to a certain figure.

Qin Wentian sensed something and glanced over. After that, his gaze fell onto the Kun Sovereign.

The true form of the Kun Sovereign was a Kunpeng (Leviathan/roc). He is also known as the lord of the sky.

"Are you sure you want to go out?" The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign asked in a cold tone of voice. Qin Zheng actually implicated their Demon God Mountain and threatened them together. How dare he.

Qin Wentian glanced at Luoshen Chuan. Earlier, he didn't intend to go out. But after Qin Zheng's threat, he was hesitating. In truth, he could ignore the Luoshen Clan as it has once abandoned him, allowing Qin Zhong to hunt him down. Now that Luoshen Mu was the current Luoshen Clan Leader, he would never admit Qin Wentian as a part of the Luoshen Clan. Since this was the case, Qin Wentian could have easily ignored their blood relations. And as for the Qingcheng Realm, it actually didn't really have much of a connection with him. For example given the vast amount of territories the Qin Clan controlled, if he captured a place and used it to threaten them, would the Qin Clan really feel threatened?

However, Qin Zheng did so because he wanted Qin Wentian to know something. For everything that has a connection with him, Qin Zheng would use them as part of his threat. This basically didn't seem like something a heavenly deity would do, let alone the lofty Qin Clan Leader. But clearly, Qin Zheng's bottom line was much lower than what Qin Wentian had imagined.

As for Azure Mystic, it was still under the ban. It was unknown how determined Qin Zheng was, would he really dare to break the ban?

Hence, Qin Wentian could actually ignore Qin Zheng's threat and continue to cultivate in peace. So what even if the people outside used a divine formation to seal the area? He could stay here for thousands to ten of thousands of years. He doesn't believe those people would wait outside forever.

However, Qin Wentian was still Qin Wentian. As long as there was a solution, he didn't wish to implicate innocents. This was especially so for the world he grew up in, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded towards the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign.

"Kun, if you act. How confident are you?" The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign turned to the Kun Sovereign.

No one would be more suitable than the Kun Sovereign. Out of the five demon sovereigns, the dao of Kunpeng contained boundless might and could soar through the heavens, ignoring the restrictions of the heavenly dao.

"As long as we can break through the divine formation and poison world, none of those people will be able to catch up to me." The Kun Sovereign confidently spoke. Based on strength alone, he might not be able to win against those hegemons from the peak powers. But if based on speed, he was confident that even for sect and clan leaders like Qin Zheng, no one would be able to catch up to him.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. There were only five demon gods on the Demon God Mountain and they were known as the five demon sovereigns. Their strength ensured that the Demon God Mountain could become one of the peak powers in the Desolate Region. Back then, the Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan gave in because he knew how fearsome the five demon sovereigns are.

Demonic beasts each had their own natural domains. Even for the dao they comprehended, also had something to do with the talent of their races.

"Since someone wants to act against our Demon God Mountain, let's give them a lesson that would make it hard for them to forget." The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign icily spoke. "I will go out with you all."

"Add me into the group, the divine formation inscribed by the Che Clan isn't stable yet. They think they can do something to us now?" The Dragon Sovereign also stood out.

"Leave the divine formation to us." The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign spoke, his eyes flickering with coldness. Wanting to use the Demon God Mountain to threaten them? These demon sovereigns could bear it no longer.

"I will go out with seniors." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Me as well." Luoshen Chuan stated. In the outside world, there were many peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms waiting for them. Yet now, they were discussing plans to head out. Their guts were truly extraordinary.

"I'm already prepared." The Kun Sovereign spoke. He reverted to his true form as a shiny luster shone from his body. The might of the great dao could be sensed, Qin Wentian felt that this was extremely strange.

The Dragon Sovereign transformed into a giant, his body was filled with explosive might, boundless golden light radiated as a violet-golden crown appeared on his head. Right now, he looked like a supreme dragon god. When he stretched out his palms, violet-golden claws could be seen as a sense of destruction radiated from him. They had to be prepared when inside the Heaven Vault so they could immediately unleash their greatest strength when they exit.

"Me and the old dragon will deal with the divine formation. You guys go on ahead."

"Let me handle the poison qi in the area." Qin Wentian spoke. Everyone nodded. They long knew that the Qin Clan's bloodline had the ability to purify all poison, rendering Qin Wentian effectively immune to the poison world. There were naturally no objections to his request. In any case, Qin Wentian now could already be considered as someone equal to the demon sovereigns, they no longer treated Qin Wentian as a junior.

Qin Wentian activated the strength of his bloodline, causing a radiance to emit from his body which enveloped the giant body of the Kunpeng, as well as the experts on the Kun Sovereign's back. In addition, the bloodline force also seemed to contain a layer of formation light. It was like as long as Qin Wentian was willing, he could instantly enhance his defense.

"Senior Kun. Are you all ready?" Qin Wentian asked.

"We are done." The Kun Sovereign replied.

"Then, let's move out." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

The light radiating from the Kun Sovereign's body grew increasingly intense. With a flash, his speed was inconceivably quick as he dashed out, and at the very instant, the entrance to the Heaven Vault opened.

In the outside world, the eyes of everyone was still staring at the divine formation and towering poison qi. But at this moment, a slit opened up in the sky as a gigantic figure sped out from it.

"Huh?" The eyes of the experts flashed, stunned for an instant. After that, sharpness gleamed in their eyes.

The divine formation locking this area erupted with a shocking might. Boundless destructive beams of light shot directly into the Heaven Vault yet a draconic roar of anger answered the attack. Numerous dragon images manifested with a gigantic violet-golden divine dragon in the center. This dragon was like a dragon god, lofty and high-up, the lord of heaven and earth.

His palm transformed into claws as he swiped out. In an instant, a giant claw manifested and mirrored the movement, wanting to tear the world asunder. This attack was capable of ignoring distances and it landed directly on the divine formation. In an instant, the divine formation trembled unstably and after that, it actually started to collapse. Even the sky was trembling. The dragon images also rushed out and started to aid in the divine formation's destruction.

At the instant the Dragon Sovereign attacked, the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign transformed into his original form as a gigantic heaven devouring beast appeared. He opened his mouth and drew in a breath, the killing light from the divine formation was completely sucked in by him, swallowed into his stomach.

The heaven and earth trembled violently as cracks appeared on the divine formation. The boundless poison qi rushed out, making this world a world of poison, wanting to engulf everyone. However, the Kun Sovereign directly rushed into the depths of the poison world, ignoring the poison.

The terrifying miasma and poison qi rushed over yet everyone could see a layer of light around the Kun Sovereign that purified the poison.

But at this moment, those major characters also acted. Earlier, they had already set up the poison world and divine formation, they didn't expect Qin Wentian would really dare to come out. That was why they didn't react in time to rush inside the Heaven Vault. But since Qin Wentian's group dared to come out, it naturally wouldn't be so easy for them to leave.

Another divine formation appeared as heaven punishment light shone upon the Kun Sovereign and the figures on his back.

"KILL!" Qin Zheng didn't hesitate. As the sound of his voice faded, the light of divine punishment fell from the sky. But at the same time, the Kun Sovereign directly arced through the sky and the beam of divine punishment light actually missed, slamming into the boundless sea instead. In the next moment, the boundless sea seemed to be penetrated through. A vacuum appeared, the water in the area was sucked away, directly leading to the bottom of the sea.

The Kun Sovereign once again shot into the void, his body transformed into something ethereal, shimmering in and out of existence, allowing him to ignore any other types of energy seeking to bind his movements.

Numerous figures acted at the same moment. A domain of thunder appeared, transformed into a world of thunder. The nine heavenly divine thunder blasted towards the Kun Sovereign. Even if the Kun Sovereign was in the void, he would not be able to escape.

Heavenly deities from the Prison God Clan also acted, sealing the area in the void where the Kun Sovereign was in, wanting to trap him.

The Dragon Sovereign, Luoshen Chuan, Qin Wentian and the others also unleashed their attacks, attempting to neutralize the attacks aimed at the Kun Sovereign. The gigantic body of the Kun Sovereign still shone with heavenly dao light. With every flap of his wings, dao might was generated, he sped out from the thunder domain and once again entered the void from another space. No spatial energy was able to trap him.

"What terrifying speed." The eyes of everyone flashed. The body of the Kun Sovereign already vanished into the clouds. Even though they had created worlds and utilized the force of heavens and earth in their divine formations, they weren't able to trap him.

The various hegemon characters pursued after him. Terrifying energy waves roiled about in the air, but very soon, the fluctuations ceased. After a short period of time, those hegemon characters who set off in pursuit all returned here with dark looks on their faces.

They were all from peak powers but despite their combined forces, they weren't able to obstruct the Kun Sovereign. This was truly an embarrassing matter. As for ordinary heavenly deities, they didn't even have the qualifications to try and stop the Kun Sovereign when speaking in terms of speed.

To many people, this was also the first time they fought against the Kun Sovereign. They also finally understood why although the Kun Sovereign wasn't at the peak-level of heavenly deities, but in terms of speed, most probably only a very few heavenly deities in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm could compare to him. In addition, what was truly terrifying was that the Kun Sovereign had combined his bloodline's innate talent with the dao he comprehended. When he flew through space, no spatial energy or world energy would be able to block him, he could pass through them directly. It was precisely because of this ability that none of the other peak characters had the confidence to block him.

"Bastard!" Qin Zheng coldly spoke. He summoned a meeting with all the experts from the peak powers and came up with the plan of using a divine formation and poison world to seal the Heaven Vault. He didn't expect Qin Wentian's group to actually waltz out directly and speed away just like that. Although they could continue to chase, they all understood that it was impossible to catch up after they saw the Kun Sovereign's speed.

At this moment, it was unknown how far the Kun Sovereign had traveled. Within the clouds, the Kun Sovereign finally slowed his speed. "No one is pursuing us."

"Kun, you are injured." The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign spoke. Many bloody wounds could be seen on the gigantic body of the Kun Sovereign.

"Don't worry." The Kun Sovereign spoke in a low voice. At that time, there were too many violent attacks aimed at him. Although everyone on his back helped him to defend and neutralize some, it was inevitable for some of the other attacks to go through and injure him. But even so, it didn't affect his speed.

Now, the wide seas allowed the fish to leap about and the vast skies allowed the bird to fly. Since these people wanted to deal with their Demon God Mountain, they better prepare themselves to pay the price.

Chapter 1912: Great Changes to the Desolate Region

"Where should we go?" In the air, the Kun Sovereign who was flying through the clouds asked.

"Let's go to the Desolate Region." Qin Wentian spoke. After all, the Demon God Mountain and Luoshen Clan were both in the Desolate Region. That place would naturally be their first goal.

Naturally, other than the Demon God Mountain and Luoshen Clan there, there was also the Divine Ox Clan.

"Even if we went to the Desolate Region, it will no longer be as easy as before if we wish to bring people into the Heaven Vault. At the very least, it's very difficult to do so temporarily." Luoshen Chuan spoke in a heavy voice. Everyone understood this. Although they managed to barge out from the Heaven Vault, but if they wanted to return, the difficulty would surely be higher. The experts from the various powers all knew that they are outside now. How could they not guard the entrance even tighter?

"Mhm, that's true. In any case, since those people have already threatened us once, there would surely be a second time." The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign nodded.

"After returning, temporarily disband the Demon God Mountain first. After a suitable opportunity arrives, we will summon the various demons of the Desolate Region to the Heaven Vault directly. I believe at that time as long as we issue an announcement with the Heaven Vault's name, all the demons would surely come back." The Dragon Sovereign spoke. The eyes of the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign and Kun Sovereign gleamed. It seemed that there were no other solution. If they didn't want the other demons at the Demon God Mountain to be threatened, they could only temporarily disband and give up on their old headquarters. If not, given that Qin Zheng has threatened them once, he would surely do so again.

"Grandfather, what about the Luoshen Clan?" Qin Wentian looked at Luoshen Chuan.

"As to the threats that were made earlier, I will let the elders of the Luoshen Clan know and get them to decide on their own. I have no way to control how they think." Luoshen Chuan spoke. Many of those who chose to follow him, were already in the Heaven Vault. As for the others, they were all Luoshen Mu's followers and didn't wish to leave the Luoshen Mountain. But now, Qin Zheng has threatened Qin Wentian with the Luoshen Mountain, it meant that there was a possibility that the Qin Clan would attack the Luoshen Mountain.

Naturally, Luoshen Chuan would never allow Qin Wentian to directly war against the Qin Clan for the sake of the Luoshen Mountain, or make sacrifices to save it. Even if he was Qin Wentian's grandfather, he had no reason to say such a thing. Back then when the Qin Clan wanted to act against Qin Wentian, the Luoshen Clan chose to step aside and abandon him. Qin Wentian departed alone and fought against the heavenly deity Qin Zhong. Not only did the Luoshen Clan not allow Luoshen Chuan to help Qin Wentian, they even blocked his path. Under such circumstances, now that Qin Wentian was willing to accept those people from the Luoshen Clan who chose to follow him, Luoshen Chuan already indicated that Qin Wentian has given enough consideration due to him having the same bloodline.

Since the Luoshen Clan didn't want to acknowledge his existence back then, Qin Wentian naturally also didn't want to have any connection with the people on the Luoshen Mountain. He had no reason to fight for them. As his grandfather, Luoshen Chuan also wouldn't make such a request. At most, he could only inform those people on the mountain and let them decide what to do themselves. In addition, he could also do something in the outside world to threaten Qin Zheng and the others.

"Right." Qin Wentian nodded. The Kun Sovereign continued to fly through the air, heading in the direction of the Desolate Region.

At this moment, on the main peak of Luoshen Mountain, many experts of the Luoshen Clan gathered together. Many of them had dark looks on their faces. For example, Luoshen Mu. His expression was currently the most unsightly one.

"This time, we are all implicated by Luoshen Chuan and that vile spawn." Luoshen Mu coldly spoke. From his point of view, they were implicated due to Luoshen Chuan and Qin Wentian. They first fragmented the Luoshen Clan and now, because of them, the Qin Clan wanted to use the Luoshen Mountain to threaten them.

"What's the point of saying all these now? What should we do next?" An old man spoke.

In truth, some of them could already feel their hearts wavering. Back then if they left with Luoshen Chuan, they would already be cultivating inside the Heaven Vault now. As long as they didn't exit there, they wouldn't face any danger.

"Everyone, what do you all feel about this?" Someone asked.

"Luoshen Chuan said that he will take some actions to warn the other powers, making them feel trepidation in their hearts. However, as to how great an effect this would wrought, we have no idea. As long as the Luoshen Mountain is here, the Qin Clan might truly attack. Also, once the Qin Clan joined forces with the other powers, what we have to face wouldn't merely be the Qin Clan alone. At that time, we might be completely annihilated. Hence, we have to act with the utmost precaution." An old man that was a heavenly deity stated.

Everyone had heavy looks on their faces. Some people were sighing. Actually, after Luoshen Mu became the clan leader, the Luoshen Clan has always been living in humiliation and were ridiculed by the other peak powers. Only the actions of Luoshen Chuan and Qin Wentian on the outside helped them to gain back some face. This included them killing Devilox and stopping the marriage between the two clans. And now, Qin Wentian even wanted to exchange Qin Cang for Luoshen Han and the ten world overlord hostages.

It was precisely so that many experts decided to follow Luoshen Chuan and entered the Heaven Vault. Currently, the Luoshen Clan on the Luoshen Mountain doesn't even have half of their original strength. They couldn't see any hope at all.

On the contrary, the young man who was forsaken by the Luoshen Clan then, Luoshen Qianxue's son Qin Wentian, has already grown to such a terrifying stage today. His name shook the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and he is also the controller of the Heaven Vault, capable of allowing people to cultivate in the nine heavenly layers. From him, they actually saw the hope they couldn't see. Right now, this young man was taking all the other peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms as his enemy. How glorious was this? Back then, this was something even his father has never done before.

"In the past, the Divine Ox Clan once relocated their entire clan in order to avoid a calamity." Someone spoke. After that, the expressions on the faces of everyone sank even further. Relocating the clan...what a tragic decision.

"If we did so, would the Luoshen Clan still be the Luoshen Clan?"

"If we stay, we can at least still preserve our strength, it's better than the Luoshen Clan being disbanded. Or we could pretend like nothing has happened, and bet on the fact that the Qin Clan won't take any action against the Luoshen Clan." A person spoke, everyone was speechless.

"Or why don't we look for Luoshen Chuan? We can unite our strength once more, reverting to our peak strength." Another person suggested. After that, numerous cold glances shot towards that person. This was especially so for Luoshen Mu. Right now, most of those elders who remained on the Luoshen Mountain had all offended Luoshen Chuan deeply back then. To put it nicely, it's to look for Luoshen Chuan. To put it in ugly words, it's to surrender to Luoshen Chuan. How could those elders endure this?

After so many years of inner conflict, these elders finally gained control of the Luoshen Clan. Now, they were supposed to surrender to Luoshen Chuan?

"Let's not disband, we will stick together and relocate." Luoshen Mu coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, the hearts of everyone trembled.

Luoshen Mountain still had countless people staying here. When the other members heard this news, all of them were speechless. Had the Luoshen Clan declined to such a state?

Some people disagreed. They would rather look for Luoshen Chuan. It was better for the clan to co-exist chaotically together compared to being fragmented.

Some people sighed. If they knew this would happen, why did they still act as such back then. From now onwards, only Luoshen Chuan's faction could truly represent the Luoshen Clan. As for their faction on the Luoshen Mountain, they now only existed in name.

The Demon God Mountain made a different decision from the Luoshen Clan, deciding to disband temporarily. There were countless demonic beasts existing in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it was very easy for them to mix into the other regions. Also, the five demon sovereigns believed that when they grew strong enough one day, they could just send out an announcement and all the demonic beasts would be back. Hence, they made this decision.

...

The Divine Ox Castle of the Desolate Region has as many experts as the clouds. They were one of the three hegemonic powers of the Desolate Region. Although the Divine Ox Clan was only considered average among the peak hegemonic powers, they were very ambitious and were always dreaming about the day they could conquer the Desolate Region. Once, they forced the Luoshen Clan to marry their maidens over. But in the next moment, another calamity occurred. Luoshen Chuan joined forces with the Demon God Mountain, even Devilox was killed and the dao bone was stolen.

But even so, the Divine Ox Clan still believed that they are still the strongest power in the Desolate Region and would unite the Desolate Region sooner or later.

At this moment, in the airspace above the Divine Ox Castle, violent winds gusted about. Black clouds littered the sky, and in the air, an incomparably gigantic figure that blotted out the sun could be seen flying towards the Divine Ox Castle. This gigantic avian figure flapped his wings, forming blades of wind that were incomparably sharp, causing this entire area to appear like one from an apocalypse.

"Kunpeng." The experts of the Divine Ox Clan naturally recognized this form.

"Kun Sovereign." A cold voice rang out. The few ox deities rose into the air, staring at the approaching figure.

"Seems like the Divine Ox Clan didn't learn anything from the punishment resulting from the incidents that occurred back then. At the boundless sea region, your Ox Chieftain actually dared to incite the other peak powers against my Demon God Mountain. Since this is the case, I want to do something today that will let the Divine Ox Clan remember this forever." The Kun Sovereign coldly spoke. After that, a few figures dismounted from the Kun Sovereign's back. These figures were none other than the Dragon Sovereign, Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign and the other two sovereigns. All of them reverted to their true forms and their gigantic true forms radiated a shocking heavenly might.

Qin Wentian and Luoshen Chuan floated in the air with cold expressions. They shall use the Divine Ox Clan as an example then, warning the other peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms not to do anything rash.

The wings of the Kun Sovereign flapped and slashed out. In an instant, two gigantic blades of wind manifested, capable of tearing apart the earth. The Divine Ox Castle was sliced apart, numerous structures were damaged and countless experts of the Divine Ox Clan screamed in panic when they saw the gigantic figure in the air.

Currently, there are three powerful ox deities in the Divine Ox Clan. The other heavenly deities went with the Ox Chieftain to the Boundless Sea Region and have yet to return.

They were still fantasizing about entering the Heaven Vault, waiting there for Qin Wentian to return. However, Qin Wentian has already killed his way into their headquarters.

"Kill the three ox deities and use them as a warning." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. His targets were the heavenly deities of the Divine Ox Clan.

Only with a certain number of heavenly deities, could a power be considered a hegemonic power. The other people weren't important. Leaving them alive would be better to spread fear.

The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign nodded, understanding Qin Wentian's intention. Although their Demon God Mountain has disbanded, the other demons still existed. As long as they could instill fear in the Divine Ox Clan, there was no need to annihilate them completely. Leaving them alive was a warning to the Ox Chieftain. If the Ox Chieftain dared to do anything to target those disbanded demons, they would annihilate the entire Divine Ox Clan in the future.

With the five demon sovereigns acting against three ox deities, there was naturally no suspense. The three ox deities simply glanced at the five demon sovereigns. In the next moment, they immediately turned to flee.

"Can you all even escape?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, his eyes turned extremely terrifying, like the eyes of heaven. The space ahead twisted chaotically, freezing everything there. A moment later, the area became a spacetime world of his own.

The expressions of the three ox deities turned ashen. Was this the legendary technique Qin Wentian used to effortlessly defeat the two powerful heavenly deities of the Qin Clan?

A single glance from him could create a world of space and time!

Chapter 1913: Nearing the Date of Marriage

At the boundless sea region, below the Heaven Vault, the experts there were still around, including the major characters from the hegemonic powers.

Although Qin Wentian and some people had exited the Heaven Vault, could it be they intended not to return forever? Clearly, that was impossible.

The Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan was here as well. But at this moment, a voice suddenly rang out in his mind, causing his aura to erupt forth as a look of wrath appeared on his face. "BASTARD!"

For a period of time, countless gazes turned to him as looks of bewilderment appeared on the faces of the others here.

"Chieftain, what's going on?" Qin Zheng asked. The Ox Chieftain actually had such a great reaction.

"Qin Wentian, Luoshen Chuan and the five demon sovereigns actually went to my Divine Ox Castle." The Ox Chieftain's body trembled violently. However, he didn't move from his spot. It was impossible for him to rush back in time. Right now, he could only pray.

But in reality, he understood in his heart that given the strength of Qin Wentian's group and the current power level of the heavenly deities who stayed behind to guard the Divine Ox Castle, Qin Wentian's group would easily be able to steamroll his subordinates. The ending would be extremely dire for his clan. When he thought of what might possibly happen, his heart pounded violently. He was truly afraid, although he was a heavenly deity, he felt true fear at this moment.

The Divine Ox Castle was the foundation of their Divine Ox Clan, all his descendants and juniors were there. Now, Qin Wentian's group was slaughtering their way into it. What would the fate of the Divine Ox Castle be?

The eyes of the major characters from the peak powers all flashed. Those experts who acted against the Heaven Vault felt worry in their hearts. Qin Wentian's group was doing this because of revenge, as well as a type of threat towards them.

Now, his group went to the Divine Ox Castle. But after that, would he go to the other powers?

"Seems like Qin Zheng's words had provoked Qin Wentian." Many people silently mused. Using a divine formation and poison world to seal the Heaven Vault and even wanting to act against places like the Luoshen Clan and Qingcheng Realm. This was why Qin Wentian's group took the risk to rush out and started their revenge.

"Chieftain please rest at ease. Most probably, they wouldn't really dare to annihilate the entire Divine Ox Clan. If not, can't you go and destroy the people connected to them?"Qin Zheng calmly spoke. In truth, he wanted nothing more than for the Ox Chieftain to do this. He wanted the Ox Chieftain to deal with the Luoshen Clan and conduct a massacre in the Qingcheng Realm. When that happened, the sin for all these crimes wouldn't be on him, Qin Zheng.

As for the Qin Clan, although he was a little worried, that was all to it. The Qin Clan wasn't something the Divine Ox Clan could be compared to. With Qin Ding there, if Qin Wentian really dared to go, he wouldn't be able to leave so easily.

The expression of the Ox Chieftain was ugly to the extreme. Waves of anger radiated from him. Qin Wentian didn't dare to act against the Qin Clan and decided to use his Divine Ox Clan as a warning. Did Qin Wentian think that his Divine Ox Clan was good to bully?

Everyone looked at him, waiting for more news.

Not long after, the Ox Chieftain howled in madness. He reverted back to his true form of a demonic kui ox as a terrifying aura blasted out from him.

"Qin Wentian, Luoshen Chuan. I'll kill you two for sure!" The Ox Chieftain roared angrily. He already received news that the three ox deities guarding the Divine Ox Castle had fallen. Other than this, the Divine Ox Castle was completely destroyed and many experts in the Divine Ox Castle died from the aftershocks. Before they left, Qin Wentian's group still told the survivors to send a message to the Ox Chieftain saying that they will stop the destruction today. But if the Divine Ox Clan still has the idea to act against the Demon God Mountain and Luoshen Clan, they wouldn't be so polite next time around.

Qin Wentian's group didn't completely demolish the Divine Ox Castle because the Luoshen Clan, Demon God Mountain and Qingcheng Realm were still around. It wasn't that they had no trepidations in their hearts. Hence, they only killed the three ox deities but left many others of the Divine Ox Clan alive, telling them to wake up their idea. Naturally, this can also be considered a warning to the other peak powers.

Qin Wentian's group wanted to tell all the peak powers that if any of them did what Qin Zheng suggested, they best be prepared to suffer their flames of anger.

After that, more news circulated from the Desolate Region. Three ox deities from the Divine Ox Clan were killed, the Divine Ox Castle was heavily damaged and many ox demons died. Qin Wentian's group even left a warning behind before they left.

At the same time, the Luoshen Clan on the Luoshen Mountain decided to relocate. It was unknown where they would go. Naturally, there were some who refused to leave and decided to stay. The Luoshen Clan under Luoshen Mu once again was fragmented. Right now, this Luoshen Clan existed only in name but was already dead in reality. Everyone understood that only Luoshen Chuan's faction had the qualifications to represent the Luosehn Clan.

Not only for the Luoshen Mountain, in the span of a day, the countless demons of the Demon God Mountain also left the Demon God Mountain, mixing into other places. The Demon God Mountain was disbanded.

Right now, the three hegemonic powers of the Desolate Region were all shook by commotion.

The Luoshen Mountain's Luoshen Clan relocated, the Demon God Mountain disbanded, the Divine Ox Clan was under attack, even their Divine Ox Castle was destroyed.

In an instant, the situation in the Desolate Region turned chaotic. Many powers saw their chance to rise up and started to expand. Many powerful characters exited in seclusion and went to vie for supremacy in the Desolate Region, preparing to rise up to a hegemon power.

Just after a short time, countless battles erupted in the Desolate Region.

And just when the Desolate Region was in chaos, the other regions sent news saying that there were experts who saw the Kun Sovereign in the Earth Region. The Kun Sovereign flew through the sky, blotting out the sun. This caused the major powers of the Earth Region to panic.

And during that day in the rumors when the Kun Sovereign appeared, a few experts from the Thunder Clan of the Earth Region also vanished, like they were abducted by someone. Many days later, they were found dead in random locations. It was rumored that this was done by Qin Wentian and the Kun Sovereign. However, they didn't launch any large-scaled attacks on the Thunder Clan. This was considered just a small warning.

The experts from the peak powers of the Earth Region respectively left the location of the Heaven Vault, only leaving behind one of two deities each to monitor the situation here. The other experts planned to return to deal with the danger. However, after they returned, everything was calm. Nothing happened at all. However, the seeds of threat have already been planted in their hearts.

And after that, people claimed that they saw the Kun Sovereign in the Eternity Region, and also the Chaos Region. In any case, those powers who acted against Qin Wentian and his group were all extremely worried, and sent people back, taking precautions.

With the Divine Ox Clan being made an example of, how would any of the peak powers dare to be careless?

In the boundless sea region, Qin Zheng's heart kept sinking when he saw the number of powers gathered here being gradually reduced daily. He felt extremely unhappy. He didn't expect Qin Wentian to use such a method to neutralize the trap he had set up. As for his threat against the Luoshen Clan, Qingcheng Realm and Demon God Mountain, right now, the Luoshen Clan has already relocated and the Demon God Mountain has disbanded. Qin Zheng didn't truly feel that the Qingcheng Realm was important enough to Qin Wentian to threaten him. That was merely a place Qin Wentian had conquered.

As for Azure Mystic, the ban order was still present. If he truly sent people in, no one knew what the consequences would be.

The days passed one by one, the people in the boundless sea region all understood that if they kept staying here, Qin Wentian would never walk into the trap. The only solution is that they send out heavenly deities to try and locate him. However, given the power of Qin Wentian's group, they most probably have to send out a team of extremely powerful deities or all those they sent out would surely die. And even if they sent out a team of extremely powerful deities that could deal with Qin Wentian's group, with the Kun Sovereign's speed, who could stop them from fleeing away?

This was too difficult. Their patience was slowly diminishing.

"Dangtian, your wedding date is getting nearer. Let's visit the Qu Residence and get Qu Shan and Nichang to make their preparations." Today, Qin Zheng spoke to Qin Dangtian. Back then, Qin Ding personally went there to set the wedding date and the date was already very close to arriving. As for the matter of the Heaven Vault, he could only temporarily put it aside for now.

"Mhm, father. For the marriage, I wish to invite the various peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." Qin Dangtian spoke. He was the Heaven's Son, his wedding with Goddess Nichang naturally couldn't be allowed to be an ordinary event and had to be the focus of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Right, let me and your mother handle this. We will make this wedding a grand occasion." Qin Zheng nodded. He had supreme talent but he only had one son. This son of his was so outstanding that he needn't have a second son. Hence, all his hopes were placed on Qin Dangtian.

As they spoke, they headed towards the Qu Residence. Qu Shen still went out to welcome them but his attitude didn't seem as good as before. Qin Zheng didn't really care about that.

"Nichang, a few days later will be the date of our wedding. For this wedding, I want all the females in the world to envy you." Qin Dangtian spoke with pride. He did have such qualifications. He was Heaven's Son, the future clan leader of the Qin Clan. Now that he was going to be marrying a wife, this occasion naturally must be as grand as it possibly can be.

Goddess Nichang was as cold as ever, she didn't say anything. Qin Dangtian was already used to her personality. It was precisely like this so he could enjoy the feeling of the hunt, pursuing her and slowly gaining her heart. After a few more days, this ice beauty, the number one beauty in the Heaven Region, would become his wife.

After the welcoming banquet, Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian departed.

"Nichang, have you thought about this clearly?" Qu Shen spoke to Goddess Nichang.

"What can I do?" Goddess Nichang replied softly. Breaking the marriage agreement? This was something her and her grandfather have agreed to. If they backed out now, there was no need to say how dire the consequences would be.

"If I knew this would happen, I would not have allowed you to choose back then and just decisively rejected them for you." Qu Shen sighed, feeling somewhat helpless. Back then, he only wanted his granddaughter Nichang to have a good backing, hence he didn't persuade her, allowing her to agree to the engagement with Qin Dangtian. He knew that his granddaughter Nichang would become the future mother of the Qin Clan after the marriage, and would have a better life.

However, after Qin Wentian's appearance and the news he brought to them from Qu Mo, Qu Shen gradually changed his thinking.

But since he had already agreed, how can it be so easy to break the engagement?

Most probably, even if Qu Mo was present, there was no way for them to do so.

After Qin Zheng returned to the Qin Clan, he started to issue the wedding invitations inviting all peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

The wedding was for Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian, and the number one beauty in the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang.

As for Qin Wentian, he was now currently in the Heaven Region.

In addition, most probably no one knew about this. Qin Wentian was not only in the Heaven Region, he was even inside Qin City, the headquarters of the Qin Clan.

Since he was inside Qin City, he naturally received this news quickly. After he learned that Qin Dangtian and Nichang's wedding date was nearing, he could only sigh silently. Was there no way out from this?

Chapter 1914: Challenge Letter

Qin City. This was the first time Qin Wentian entered this ancient and majestic city. Most probably, even the people of the Qin Clan wouldn't expect that Qin Wentian actually dared to enter here.

Upon walking on the streets of Qin City, Qin Wentian could truly feel how prosperous this city was. Cultivators flooded the streets and the vast majority were actually world overlords. Since this was the headquarters of the hegemon power, the Qin Clan of the Heaven Region, one could very well imagine how majestic this city was.

"In here, there should be traces of my father, right?" Qin Wentian silently mused. His father was born in the Qin Clan and grew up there. When he was young, he must have frequently roamed the city. And now that Qin Wentian was here personally, he could sense the charm of this place.

Walking on a city street, his eyes turned towards the central area of the Qin Clan. Over there, he could see a Qin Palace so tall that the top touched the clouds. No matter where in Qin City you are, you would be able to see the towering Qin Palace as long as you inclined your head.This was because the Qin Palace was just too vast. It was said that the size of the Qin Palace alone, was larger than some territories owned by the Qin Clan. There were numerous castles within, all the branch bloodlines resided there.

At this moment, there was a saint beast flying through the air. Numerous figures stood atop the saint beast and the person in the lead was a young man and a young woman. The young man was incomparably handsome, exuding boundless magnificence. The young woman was also extremely beautiful, and would cause one's heart to pound the moment they saw her. However, no one in Qin City dared to profane her. Because, everyone in the city knew that this group of people were people from the Qin Palace.

"Qin Yan, Qin Lan. It's said that they went to send an invitation to the Nine Heavens Mystical Palace." Below, many passersby stared in the air. The Qin Clan has sent some of their members to give the invitations to the peak powers.

"Qin Yan and Qin Lan are both transcendent-level world overlords at their ages. It was unknown how many young men and women envied and adored them. This is especially so for Qin Lan. With her identity and beauty, most probably only the heaven chosen from the other peak powers could match up to her." Someone sighed. For a young woman like Qin Lan, people like them could only look at her from afar. Even experts at the world overlord realm wouldn't dare to profane her beauty.

"There are many people below discussing about you." In the air, Qin Yan who stood on the back of the saint beast laughed.

Qin Lan's beautiful eyes flashed with arrogance. She didn't glance below. She has heard much of such words before. In addition, who said that a woman must marry for sure? Unless there was another absolute supreme character like her elder clan brother Qin Dangtian, her heart most probably wouldn't be moved.

"We have already sent the invitation and we are also not in a hurry to go back. How about going to enjoy some delicious food?" Qin Yan laughed. The beautiful eyes of Qin Lan flashed. After that, she nodded. Delicious food was one of the things she liked most. It wasn't a bad idea to indulge herself occasionally.

"Seems like they will be heading to the Culinary God Inn." After hearing their conversation, someone mused silently. The Culinary God Inn was the number one inn in Qin City.

"Culinary God Inn." Qin Wentian mumbled in a low voice. His divine sense spread out and after that, he started to walk in a certain direction.

As the largest inn in Qin City, the environment of the Culinary God Inn was naturally extremely good and it was also very spacious. Each table was located in a separate and independent pavillion, one could enjoy delicacies while enjoying the scenery. Also, those who came here were mostly world overlords. Ordinary people wouldn't be able to afford the prices.

Many people instantly recognized Qin Yan and Qin Lan the moment they came. All of them clasped their hands "Young Master Qin Yan, Young Miss Qin Lan."

The two of them nodded casually and sat down after selecting a good seat. Qin Wentian also arrived and chose a seat not far away from them. Earlier, the sounds of people chatting could still be heard, but now, the atmosphere was very quiet. Evidently, this was because of Qin Yan and Qin Lan's arrival.

"All of you please be at ease. There's no need to feel restrained." Qin Yan stared at everyone and calmly spoke. The people here then nodded and smiled. A world overlord then asked, "I've long heard of Young Master Qin Yan and Young Miss Qin Lan's name. Now that I've met you two personally, I can only say that both of you do live up to your reputations."

Qin Yan smiled, he has also heard much of such fawning words before. There was no meaning to them. He was clear in his heart that he has only one target and his target was far above the other so-called geniuses.

"Miss Qin Lan's beauty is flawless and incomparable. Although I have never met the number one beauty of the Heaven Region Goddess Nichang before, I believe that Miss Qin's beauty wouldn't lose out to hers." An exceptionally young world overlord praised. There was no woman who didn't like people to praise their beauty. Qin Lan was no exception.

"You've never met her before, but I have. The number one beauty in the Heaven Region Goddess Nichang is much more beautiful than me." Qin Lan calmly spoke. Although she was fond of people praising her, it didn't mean that she would lose her head in self-satisfaction. She had once met Goddess Nichang before. In terms of beauty, it was true that Qin Lan was inferior.

"Miss Qin is too humble." That person laughed. "However, news about the wedding between Heaven's Son and Goddess Nichang has now circulated throughout the world. It's truly a legendary story, they are like a celestial couple."

"That's only natural. Only Goddess Nichang is qualified enough to match up to my clan brother." Qin Lan calmly spoke. Many people glanced at her side-profile. Her face was beautiful and her tone was gentle, causing many to feel adoration towards her.

"That's right, Heavenly Deity Qin Dangtian is known as Heaven's Son, his combat prowess is unrivalled and he immediately crippled the Skyorder Heavenly Deity the moment he broke through to the Heavenly Deity Realm. Now, his strength would undoubtedly be much more terrifying than before. He is like the Qin Clan Leader, possessing supreme talent and is destined to not suffer any defeat in his life and it's extremely hard to find someone in the world who can match him." A person spoke, his tone filled with reverence when he mentioned Qin Dangtian and Qin Zheng. This pair of father and son was truly unparalleled characters. In the Qin Clan, they were the symbol of conviction for many people, and their statuses were incomparably lofty.

"That's only natural." A faint smile appeared on Qin Lan's face, causing her to be even more beautiful.

"But has the Qin Clan Leader really not suffer any defeat before?" A this moment, a calm voice rang out. The eyes of everyone flashed as they stared at the person who spoke. They only saw Qin Wentian quietly sitting there with his back facing Qin Yan and Qin Lan.

Qin Yan and Qin Lan turned their gazes to Qin Wentian. The two of them frowned, they could tell that this person's cultivation base was unfathomable. However, how dared he refute her words.

"Naturally." Qin Yan calmly added, his tone was filled with certainty.

Qin Wentian laughed mockingly, "But from what I know, Qin Zheng was once defeated by a certain person in the past."

"Nonsense." Qin Lan's expression turned cold. This place was Qin City, to think that there was actually someone who dared to speak such things.

"If our Qin Clan Leader has suffered a defeat before, why haven't I heard of it?" Qin Yan's eyes gleamed with a cold light, his voice also turned colder by a few degrees.

"Oh? Don't the people of the Qin Clan know of Qin Yuanfeng's existence?" Qin Wentian replied. At this moment, the eyes of everyone in the inn narrowed as they stared at Qin Wentian. Qin Yuanfeng, this name was a taboo here in Qin City, no one dared to mention it. This was especially so before the members of the Qin Clan.

Yet this fellow actually dared to say Qin Yuanfeng's name?

As expected, the expressions of Qin Yan and Qin Lan turned glacial.

"Just a traitor of our Qin Clan." Qin Yan coldly spoke.

"But from my knowledge, the traitor you spoke about once killed his way into the Qin Clan and defeated Qin Zheng. Only after the many experts of the Qin Clan joined forces and ganged up on Qin Yuanfeng, did Qin Yuanfeng finally lose. In that case, I wonder where did you two get the courage to say that Qin Zheng has never been defeated before?" Qin Wentian's voice was calm. Qin Yan radiated coldness, although he was still seated, it felt like he was prepared to act explosively at any moment.

"Who the hell are you?" Qin Lan turned her head and stared at Qin Wentian's back. Qin Wentian's back was still facing them but at this moment, he slowly turned around. At the moment when he turned, the lines on his face changed and swiftly after, the handsome appearance of a young man appeared.

When Qin Lan saw his face, she was instantly stunned by Qin Wentian.

"I am Qin Wentian." A calm voice rang out from Qin Wentian's mouth. At this moment, the hearts of many people in the inn trembled fiercely. Qin Yuanfeng's son, Qin Wentian.

He actually was audacious enough to come to Qin City alone. Also, when facing the Qin Clan's experts, he didn't hesitate and revealed his identity.

Qin Lan and Qin Yan instantly retreated, their hearts filled with wariness. The news from the Desolate Region has long reached here. Wherever the sightings of the Kun Sovereign are reported, the peak powers in that region would be on their guard. Now that Qin Wentian suddenly appeared in Qin City, Qin Yan and Qin Lan instantly thought that he was here to deal with the juniors of the Qin Clan.

"If any of you try to take out your messaging crystals, I guarantee that you won't be able to live long enough to send a transmission." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Two of the experts who attempted to do so instantly stopped their actions. Qin Wentian's current fame wasn't weaker than that of Qin Dangtian. In the boundless sea region, Qin Wentian easily crushed two Qin Clan's heavenly deities in a single battle.

The two heavenly deities couldn't even withstand a single strike from him. And now, he actually appeared in the headquarters of the Qin Clan, Qin City.

Qin Lan's heart trembled violently, her beautiful eyes staring at the handsome figure before her. She had always wanted to know what sort of person Qin Wentian was exactly. Today, she has seen it for herself. His magnificence didn't lose out to Qin Dangtian. Just casually standing there, he gave off an incomparable pressure. He was still so young and was so good-looking.

Also, his surname was Qin too. The blood in his veins was the blood of the Qin Clan.

"Don't worry, I didn't come here to kill or to kidnap you all." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, a paper flew out with a wave of his hand. The paper shone with a bright light and floated before Qin Yan and Qin Lan.

"This is my challenge letter. Please pass this to the Qin Clan on my behalf. Qin Dangtian has the title of Heaven's Son and he believes that he is unrivalled, living in his lofty arrogance. You two also claimed that he has never been defeated before, right? Since this is the case, I believe he wouldn't not have the courage to fight me." Qin Wentian calmly continued. As the sound of his voice faded, he took a step forward. Spatial energy flooded the area and Qin Wentian vanished in the next instant.

"A challenge letter." The people in the inn felt their hearts trembling. Qin Wentian was issuing a challenge to Qin Dangtian.

Qin Yan and Qin Lan's gaze turned to the challenge letter. Qin Wentian actually sent a challenge letter to the Heaven's Son. And the date of the challenge was actually set on the wedding date of Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang.

Was this intentional?

"Let's go back." Qin Lan took the challenge letter and spoke. Their silhouettes flashed as they left the inn directly.

But since the people in the inn witnessed this scene, it naturally didn't take long for this news to spread. Qin Yuanfeng's son Qin Wentian, actually appeared in Qin City and personally delivered a challenge letter to the people of the Qin Clan, telling them to hand the letter to the Qin Clan on his behalf.

Qin Yuanfeng's son Qin Wentian, officially challenged Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian.

Chapter 1915: Arrival

This challenge letter caused a huge commotion in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Countless people in Qin City of the Heaven Region were discussing about this matter.

Many people guessed that could it be there was really something going on between Qin Wentian and Goddess Nichang? If not, why would Qin Wentian do something so crazy?

In addition, the marriage date of Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang was nearing. Countless experts were rushing to Qin City of the Heaven Region to attend this grand occasion. How could they miss out on this?

Qin Dangtian was Heaven's Son, he would be marrying the number one beauty in the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang.

Right now, Qin Wentian who was an existence whose fame didn't lose out to Qin Dangtian, actually would be challenging Qin Dangtian on the day of Qin Dangtian's wedding.

Also, Qin Wentian was none other than Qin Yuanfeng's son. Qin Yuanfeng was once the rival of Qin Zheng.

The grudge between the two of them seemed to be one that originated from fate. This would be played out in Qin City. How could people not rush over with their fastest speed after they heard that?

Right now, all the small and large inns in Qin City were filled with people. Countless people could be found discussing this matter on the streets. Everyone knew about this.

"Has this Qin Wentian gone mad? He actually dared to issue a challenge to Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian. Could it be that he has enough confidence that he would be able to defeat Qin Dangtian?"

"Although Qin Wentian's name now can shake the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and he has proven his combat prowess at the battle of the boundless sea region, effortlessly dealing with Qin Li and Qin Cang, the Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian has already been famous for many years. The first deity-level battle he fought when he broke through, was against the Skyorder Heavenly Deity. Back then, the Skyorder Heavenly Deity's fame was far more widespread compared to Qin Li and Qin Cang. Now, so many years have already passed. Qin Dangtian would only be stronger than ever."

"Seems like that battle at the boundless sea region caused Qin Wentian to be overconfident."

"Qin Wentian dealt with two heavenly deities one after another and is even the Heaven Vault's controller. Who knows, maybe he truly has shocking combat prowess and might be strong enough to fight against Qin Dangtian?"

Some people felt that Qin Wentian was strong enough to fight Qin Dangtian but the vast majority of people here all felt that the Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian was stronger. After all, he was already extremely famous many years ago and even had the title Heaven's Son. He was the chosen of the heavens. It wouldn't be so easy for Qin Wentian to be victorious.

In addition, the vast majority of people here all felt that Qin Wentian was mad. Could it be he was doing this for the sake of a beauty, Goddess Nichang?

Even if Qin Wentian truly had the strength to contend against Qin Dangtian, so what of it? Could it be that the Qin Clan will simply stand aside and watch neutrally?

There was no problem even if Qin Dangtian accepted the challenge. But if Qin Dangtian was defeated, what would the Qin Clan do?

One must know that a previous example already existed in the past. Regarding the death of Qin Yuanfeng, some of the experts of the older generations still knew a thing or two about that.

The father and son seemed to have similar fates. Would Qin Wentian be able to change anything? It was most probably extremely difficult to do so.

The experts from the various peak powers also arrived. However, they didn't go to the Qin Clan straight away although the Qin Clan would receive them warmly if they headed there. Clearly, the people of the various peak powers loved to be more free and unrestrained. They wouldn't feel too at ease in the Qin Clan.

As the date of the wedding became nearer, the winds and clouds gathered in Qin City, like there would be a storm incoming. Naturally, this might be because of Qin Wentian. Qin Dangtian has already sent out a message saying he would first slay Qin Wentian before proceeding with the wedding.

Time flowed by, the wedding date finally arrived.

At the Qin Clan, the experts from the various powers gathered there. Countless people were staring at a location. Over there, Qin Dangtian and a few other heavenly deities could be seen leading a group of experts as they headed to Boundless City to receive the bride. There were saint beasts pulling the sedans and they set out in an imposing manner, attracting the attention of countless people.

The people of the Qin Clan understood that it was very possible for Qin Dangtian to become the future Qin Clan Leader. Also, the wife he would be marrying would become the future mother of the Qin Clan. This wedding would be a grand occasion so majestic that the likes of it haven't been seen in the Qin Clan for several years. The Qin Clan naturally treated this very seriously.

Also the groups of experts sent to escort the bride were all extremely powerful.

The thing that happened back then in the Desolate Region was naturally known by the Qin Clan. When Devilox of the Divine Ox Clan went to escort the three brides from the Luoshen Clan, they were ambushed halfway and the brides all fled. This matter was arranged by none other than Luoshen Chuan and Qin Wentian. Since there was a previous example, how could the Qin Clan not take precautions against that?

Although Qin Dangtian was a character Devilox couldn't compare to, but the strength of Qin Wentian's group was undoubtedly very powerful. Luoshen Chuan, Qin Wentian, and the five demon sovereigns definitely constituted them as a top-tier power. The Qin Clan naturally had to guard against underhanded methods by them.

The imposing group soared into the air. The hearts of countless people in Qin City were filled with anticipation.

And just like Qin City, the atmosphere of Boundless City right now was also extremely lively. This was especially so outside the Qu Residence, it was unknown how many experts gathered there. There were several geniuses who felt very disappointed. Their number one beauty in the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang, would be marrying someone today and become a wife. Although her husband-to-be was Qin Dangtian, they still couldn't help but to feel slightly disappointed.

After all, from today onwards, Goddess Nichang would become someone's wife.

This might be the last time they could see Goddess Nichang. After she marries into the Qin Clan, her status would instantly change. It would be as tough as ascending the heavens if they ever wanted to meet her again. Maybe, they wouldn't even have an opportunity despite waiting for an eternity.

But naturally, many people here approved of this marriage.

Compared to the liveliness on the outside, the atmosphere in the Qu Residence was silent. Qu Shen held his arms behind his back and stared into the distance. Behind him, Goddess Nichang quietly stood there, she alone was enough to cause the simple design of the residence to become more beautiful and charming. She didn't doll herself up but she was as beautiful as ever. There was no need for her to use any makeup or accessories to enhance her beauty. Even if she appeared in her wedding like this, no one would say anything.

In here, there were only the two of them. It was very quiet.

"Qin Dangtian is on his way and will arrive soon." Qu Shen calmly spoke, one couldn't hear any joy nor anger in his voice. After Goddess Nichang heard his words, her expression was very calm as well.

"Wentian chose to challenge Qin Dangtian today. Other than his fate, I'm afraid there's another reason for his challenge. Most probably, he doesn't hope that you would marry Qin Dangtian." Qu Shen spoke in a light voice. He naturally could tell this point. Qin Wentian always had a good relationship with him and also had some interactions with Nichang. Qin Wentian even met his son Qu Mo before. It was very normal that Qin Wentian didn't wish for Nichang to marry into the Qin Clan because once she did so, it would mean that they would be standing on opposite sides. At that time, what should Qin Wentian do?

Hence, Qin Wentian chose this day to challenge Qin Dangtian.

"I know." Goddess Nichang spoke in a soft voice. She lowered her head slightly but her expression didn't change. No one knew what she was thinking in her heart.

Qu Shen sighed silently, he also didn't say anything more. He has already said all that he wanted to say. Everything depended on Nichang's own decisions.

As they waited quietly, the clouds in the sky faraway started to shift. Colored-clouds appeared, like a sign of auspiciousness as a saint beast could be seen pulling two sedans through the air with heavenly deities acting as protectors. Qin Dangtian stood on his sedan, his long hair fluttered in the wind and he was incomparably handsome. His looks caused many females in the crowd to feel slightly dazzled. What a grand event this was, maybe only a woman like Goddess Nichang had the qualifications to enjoy such preferential treatment.

Even for heavenly deities, they could only act as protectors for this marriage escort.

"Nichang, I've arrived." The sedans landed on the ground as Qin Dangtian walked out.

Goddess Nichang nodded lightly. After that, she stepped out and moved towards the second sedan and entered it. Qin Dangtian smiled and looked at Qu Shen, "Grandpa Qu, let's go."

"I won't be going." Qu Shen calmly shook his head. Qin Dangtian's eyes flashed. He knew that his grandfather Qin Ding, had caused Qu Shen to feel a little unhappy with the domineering way he handled the marriage. But even so, he didn't expect Qu Shen to not attend the marriage of his granddaughter.

But since both were heavenly deity characters, he wouldn't try and persuade Qu Shen either. He simply nodded, "In that case, Grandpa Qu, please take care of yourself."

After speaking, he turned and walked towards his own sedan. Under the gazes of countless people, the auspicious saint beast pulled the two sedans and soared into the air with heavenly deities acting as guards flying beside the sedans. This was like the beauty of a childhood fantasy.

They departed the area. They came in such an imposing manner yet they left so quickly. The people of Boundless City were deep in discussion. Deity Qu actually didn't go with them. Could it be that Deity Qu was against this marriage?

In the Qu Residence, the atmosphere turned silent.

However in the Qin Clan of Qin City, the atmosphere grew more and more lively as the experts from the various powers arrived and went to offer their congratulations. Before the ceremonial stage of the Qin Clan, a grand banquet was laid out, it was unknown how many experts there were. Just the number of experts in the Qin Clan alone was countless.

And to the tables closest to the ceremonial stage, they belonged to the peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They were able to view the wedding at a close distance.

Many people had smiles on their faces but different thoughts in their hearts. When would Qin Wentian appear?

In the air, the saint beast roared. Multi-colored light sparkled as the sedans arced through the skies. After that, Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang walked out from their respective sedans. Both of them were dazzling to the extreme, instantly attracting the attention of countless people.

Qin Zheng and his wife stood at the side of the ceremonial stage with smiles on their faces. Goddess Nichang was clad in simple-style clothing but even so, her simple clothes did nothing to mask her radiance.

"Congratulations to Clan Leader Qin." Someone offered congratulations.

"Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, the number one beauty of the Heaven Region Goddess Nichang. They are truly a match made in heaven." Everyone laughed. Qin Zheng smiled and clasped his hands in response.

Qin Dangtian looked at the beauty beside him. A smile could be seen on his handsome face. The two of them then walked up to the ceremonial stage together. After the ceremony, both of them would be wedded.

"BOOM!" As Qin Dangtian just stepped upon the stage, a trembling sound echoed as the ground trembled.

"BOOM, BOOM!" The ground continuously trembled along with the ceremonial stage. In an instant, numerous divine senses gushed out, as countless gazes turned to the direction outside the Qin Clan.

He's here. Who could have thought that he would really dare to come today. This was simply crazy.

Outside the Qin Clan, there were countless experts here. These people didn't have enough qualifications to enter the Qin Clan and could only stand outside. But at the moment as the ground trembled, their hearts shuddered along as well. The masses of people actually stepped aside involuntarily, creating an open path. From afar, a figure slowly walked over. He calmly regarded everything ahead inside the ancient Qin Clan. Every step he landed on the ground would cause the ground to tremble.

"Qin Wentian came alone." The crowd stared at the figure moving over as their hearts and souls trembled.

Too mad, too crazy. He actually came like this to the Qin Clan.

Only to see that at this moment, Qin Wentian waved his hand. An instant later, a challenge letter flew into the depths of the Qin Clan, flying straight for the ceremonial stage and landed before Qin Dangtian!

Chapter 1916: Battle of Destiny Continues

Countless gazes in the Qin Clan stared outside. Their eyes directly penetrated through the distance and landed on Qin Wentian, staring at the figure making his way through the crowd.

At this moment, everyone could feel how outstanding Qin Wentian was, and also how lonely his figure seemed.

This place was the Qin Clan, one of the three hegemonic powers in the Heaven Region. Qin Wentian actually came here alone. In the view of many people, this was no different from courting death. Even if he was strong enough to deal with Qin Dangtian, how could he be strong enough to deal with the entire Qin Clan?

Also, who knows? Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian might have enough strength alone to end his life.

At this moment, Qin Dangtian was staring at the challenge letter floating before his eyes. His gaze then turned towards the distance and gleamed sharply, more terrifying compared to sword light.

Qin Wentian came. He wanted to challenge him on his wedding day.

This battle would be witnessed by everyone in the world. He had to kill Qin Wentian without any help at all or he wouldn't have the qualifications to the title of Heaven's Son.

Beside Qin Dangtian, Goddess Nichang's beautiful eyes also stared into the distance. Many people turned their gazes onto her as though they had seen something from her gaze. After all, Qin Wentian chose today to challenge Qin Dangtian. Although Qin Wentian and Qin Dangtian's hatred lasted since the last generation, there were still many people who felt that Qin Wentian was challenging Qin Dangtian because of her.

What exactly had happened between Qin Wentian and Nichang before?

Right now, there were all sorts of rumors floating around the immortal realms, nobody knew if they could verify those rumors today or not. However, they weren't able to read anything from Goddess Nichang's gaze. She was always like this and wouldn't show her emotions, resembling a beauty made of ice. Even during her wedding, her personality was still the same. It was also said that no one in the world has ever seen Goddess Nichang smile before. Most probably, Qin Dangtian didn't as well. All of them couldn't help but wonder how much more beautiful Goddess Nichang would be if she smiled.

Qin Zheng and his wife also stared outside. Qin Zheng stood with his arms behind his back. His expression was like ice. Since Qin Wentian came, there was no need for him to leave. He had no idea what gave Qin Wentian the courage to actually come here to the Qin Clan's headquarters.

"BOOM!" Another tremor manifested. Finally, Qin Wentian's steps stopped. He stood outside the Qin Clan and glanced at the majestic Qin Palace before him. Countless people around him all stepped aside, opening up a pathway for him as they retreated to the back, giving him space.

From Qin Wentian, a faint pressure gushed forth. Similarly, on the ceremonial stage, Qin Dangtian also radiated a sense of pressure. The two of them stared at each other through the air. The battle of destiny couldn't be avoided after all.

There were many experts outside the Qin Clan staring at Qin Wentian with cold looks in their eyes. But at this moment, Qin Zheng spoke, "Let him enter."

Naturally those people also wouldn't be able to block Qin Wentian even if they wanted to.

The experts stepped back, creating a path for Qin Wentian to walk straight towards the Qin Clan's ceremonial stage. Everyone knew that Qin Wentian issued a challenge letter to Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian and he specified that today would be the day. Qin Dangtian had to fight even if he didn't want to. At the very least, the Qin Clan wouldn't act before Qin Dangtian was defeated. After all, the Qin Clan wouldn't be able to lose this much face.

Qin Dangtian has already accepted the challenge later. Since this is the case, this battle belonged to Qin Wentian and Qin Dangtian.

However, Qin Wentian didn't enter the Qin Clan. He continued to stand outside. He then spoke, "Qin Zheng, back then my father defeated you here. The Qin Clan was despicable and got many experts to gang up on him, before managing to kill him. I believe that the Qin Clan should still remember this matter, right?"

Qin Zheng's expression turned cold. He didn't reply to Qin Wentian's words. As the Qin Clan Leader and under the vision of all these experts who gathered here today, he wouldn't lower his status to argue with Qin Wentian.

"He was a traitor of the Qin Clan. Qin Yuanfeng deserved his death." A heavenly deity from the Qin Clan spoke. "Qin Wentian, you are a traitor's son but the blood that flows in you belongs to our clan. Today, we shall strip everything from you."

"Oh, just like what you all did back then?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed. "Qin Clan, I won't enter. That place is a place of shame and it would only dirty my feet. One day, when I finally step into the Qin Clan, that day would be the day where the Qin Clan vanishes."

"Brazen."

"You don't know the immensity of the heavens and earth. Talk about it again after you survive today." Many experts from the Qin Clan revealed expressions of rage on their faces. Qin Wentian was too arrogant, simply talking nonsense. He already came here and was still thinking that he could leave? This was nothing but a fool's dream.

The powerful Qin Clan that has existed in the Heaven Region for countless years, never had their position been shaken before. They had always been lofty and high up, residing in Qin City. How could someone like Qin Wentian who was a traitor's son do anything to them?

"Once, Qin Zheng was defeated by my father and the Qin Clan ganged up on him. Today, I sent a challenge letter to Qin Dangtian. After he is defeated, would the Qin Clan act like how they did in the past and gang up on me?" Qin Wentian calmly asked.

"Will I be defeated?" Qin Dangtian spoke. He exuded boundless magnificence as his black hair fluttered in the wind. His eyes which were like stars, stared straight at Qin Wentian. He would never lose.

"Since you are so confident, how about this? Our battle won't be concluded until one of us dies or is crippled." Qin Wentian coldly laughed.

"I will grant you your wish." Qin Dangtian replied, confident in himself to the extreme.

"Although I know your words are useless, at the instant you are defeated, the people of the Qin Clan would surely do something desperate like ganging up on me, I still decided to say things out clearly now and allowed the people of the world to see the ugliness of the Qin Clan." Qin Wentian continued, "Today, since so many experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are gathered here, you guys can all be the witnesses."

In front of the ceremonial stage, the experts from the peak powers looked at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's words contained an unfathomably high amount of confidence, like he would be able to defeat Qin Dangtian for sure.

"Interesting." The Qiankun Sect Leader laughed. "Since this is the case, my Qiankun Sect will be a witness. I believe that Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian, would be able to defeat Qin Wentian for sure. If Qin Dangtian is defeated, I believe the other experts of the Qin Clan won't act. As one of the peak hegemonic powers in the Heaven Region, the Qin Clan would naturally have their own pride."

The eyes of everyone flashed when they heard the Qiankun Sect Leader's words. Although the vast majority of people felt that Qin Dangtian would win, but what if Qin Dangtian somehow lost?

The Qin Clan didn't say it for themselves that they wouldn't interfere if Qin Dangtian lost. The Qiankun Sect Leader was just a guest today, although his earlier words sounded supportive to Qin Dangtian, that was only in the circumstances if Qin Dangtian won. If not…

Many people silently laughed in their hearts as they stared at Qin Wentian. Seems like the Qiankun Sect Leader wanted to capture Qin Wentian for himself. Not only him, given that Qin Wentian was the controller of the Heaven Vault, who wouldn't want to capture Qin Wentian?

And it was precisely because of this that Qin Wentian chose today to challenge Qin Dangtian. To the people of the world, this was undoubtedly a crazy act, no different from courting death.

"The Qiankun Sect Leader is correct. If Qin Dangtian is defeated today, given the Qin Clan's status, they naturally would not do anything. The Qin Clan wouldn't be able to afford to lose so much face." An expert from the Che Clan clearly supported the Qiankun Sect Leader's words. Although the possibility of Qin Dangtian being defeated was very low, but what if it really happened?

At that time, it was impossible for these peak powers to allow the Qin Clan to use any excuse and capture Qin Wentian. If Qin Wentian was captured by the Qin Clan, the other peak powers needn't even dream about obtaining the Heaven Vault ever again.

Qin Zheng coldly snorted but he didn't reply. The coldness from Qin Dangtian engulfed the area around him. Even before fighting, people were already speaking about what if he was defeated? It felt like the people here today are all waiting for him to lose.

However, was it even possible for him, Qin Dangtian, to lose?

"Nichang, I will return soon. Wait for me." Qin Dangtian looked at the beautiful maiden beside him as his eyes flashed with tenderness. After this battle, he would return and complete the marriage ceremony. From then on, the number one beauty of the Heaven Region would become his wife.

Heaven's Son and the number one beauty of the Heaven Region should originally already be together. This was something arranged by destiny.

After speaking, Qin Dangtian stepped out and walked towards the entrance of the Qin Clan.

Outside the Qin Clan, the experts there all stepped back. Qin Dangtian finally came before Qin Wentian. The two figures stood in opposition to each other.

"Once, I didn't have you in my eyes. In my world, you never even existed even though you are Qin Yuanfeng's son." Qin Dangtian's voice was filled with arrogance as he coldly spoke. "However, I didn't expect you to be able to reach such a stage today and can stand before me. I'm impressed by your courage but your destiny is already fixed, it would never change."

The heavenly deities of the Qin Clan acted, creating a huge defensive screen of light that surrounded the Qin Clan. If not, the aftershocks of the battle might enter the clan and devastate the weaker clan members in the Qin Palace.

Qin Wentian calmly glanced ahead before turning his gaze to Qin Dangtian. His body soared into the air, flying into the sky.

Qin Dangtian did the same as well. Around him, resplendent halos from ancient words revolved, and in an instant, the glow of the numerous ancient words intensified, causing Qin Dangtian to appear like a reincarnated godking. Each of the ancient words contained an unfathomable amount of power, brimming with heavenly might.

Back then during their fight, Qin Dangtian precisely used such a method of attack. Qin Wentian experienced it before.

Qin Wentian's face was calm. With a wave of his hand, a light screen formed from the glow of ancient words also enveloped Qin Wentian. Numerous ancient words revolved around him, flowing with different laws, bearing a high degree of similarity with Qin Dangtian.

This scene caused Qin Dangtian to furrow his brows. After that, he coldly laughed, "Copying my method to cultivate? However, how can you ever comprehend the true essence of that?"

The eyes of many experts gleamed when they saw the scene in the sky. Both Qin Wentian and Qin Dangtian had the blood of the Qin Clan flowing in their veins. After the battle in the Heaven Vault those years ago, Qin Wentian actually took a leaf from Qin Dangtian's book and cultivated the power of ancient words which contained dao within them? However, since Qin Wentian learned this from Qin Dangtian, how could he ever surpass him?

"Copying you?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed. His dao art of ancient words was something he gained insights into after the mysterious white-robed young man, in the true legendary place in the world of reincarnation, shared the dao with him. A world in a flower petal...Qin Dangtian said that Qin Wentian was copying him? Could it be that the white-robed young man was also copying Qin Dangtian?

Was Qin Dangtian even qualified?

If Qin Dangtian knew about this, most probably he himself wouldn't have the courage to say such words.

"Today, everyone will see the truth. The title of Heaven's Son is nothing but a joke." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, he waved his hands as the ancient words revolving around him blasted forth!

Chapter 1917: Heaven's Son?

"Their battle has started."

Countless gazes stared up at the sky. Qin Wentian took the initiative to attack.

"Overestimating yourself." Qin Dangtian's black hair fluttered in the wind. He lifted his hand as an ancient word blasted out. The two of them seemed to be using the same kind of attacking methods.

Right now, it only depended on who is stronger.

Two streams of ancient words clashed together. Qin Wentian's ancient words transformed into a screen of swordlight containing his spacetime sword dao. It was like a sword river of the nine heavens, capable of devouring and lacerating everything. Heavenly might brimmed, the entire space transformed into a world of swords. Countless people who were spectating inclined their heads but above them was no longer the white clouds and the blue sky. It was an extremely vast spacetime sword river that had submerged the skies.

For heavenly deities, they can produce enough power to destroy heaven and earth with the lift of a hand. Today, these people actually managed to witness a rarely seen deity-level battle.

For battles between heavenly deities, they were extremely rare even in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Only during chaotic times would such battles erupt. In normal days, heavenly deities would all be very cautious and usually wouldn't clash with each other. Even if they did, they wouldn't do so before the eyes of the people of the world. A chance to spectate such a battle could truly be said that it was extremely rare, maybe only once in a thousand years.

Qin Dangtian's ancient words also erupted forth with heavenly might. They coalesced together and transformed into a boundlessly vast 'lock' character that spanned through the skies, wanting to lock down heaven. It clashed with the sword river of the nine heavens. Two different streams of heavenly dao might collided into each other.

Only to see that the sword river of the nine heavens started to turn ethereal. It was like the sword of the heavens wanting to lacerate everything. The 'lock' ancient word wanted to lock this space down but it was completely submerged by the sword river. The power of the spacetime sword might then blasted towards Qin Dangtian.

Evidently, in this first clash of ancient words, Qin Wentian was slightly superior.

This scene caused the eyes of many people to widen in shock. Qin Wentian seemed to be stronger than what they had expected. His technique of ancient words, was it really inspired by Qin Dangtian and copied from him?

The ancient words behind Qin Dangtian started to revolve. After that, numerous halos shone resplendently as the ancient words flew towards the sky. In an instant, the sword river's momentum was halted, it had no way to advance. The sword river was completely 'locked,' and after that, it gradually dissipated.

Although Qin Dangtian seemed weaker during the first exchange, his expression didn't change. He was Heaven's Son, how could he allow an exchange of moves to affect his state of heart? At most, Qin Wentian only cause him to feel shock. Seems like Qin Wentian hasn't wasted those years in the Heaven Vault but even so, the ending would still remain the same.

Behind Qin Wentian, numerous ancient words shot out, wanting to engulf the space around Qin Dangtian. When the power of these ancient words erupted forth, the space around Qin Dangtian seemed to be sealed. This terrifying sealing power continued flowing towards Qin Dangtian, wanting to seal his heavenly dao away.

"During these years, you have indeed improved a lot and learned many techniques." Qin Dangtian calmly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, the halos around him intensified and blasted out with their might, penetrating everything. Between him and Qin Wentian, there was no longer any type of energy that obstructed him. As for the terrifying might that permeated his surroundings, Qin Dangtian completely ignored that.

"However, even so, it can at most give you the qualifications to struggle one more time. In the battle back then, you had to flee for your life. But today, there is no Gods Extinction Path for you to flee into." Qin Dangtian spoke. A moment later, his Absolute Beginning Astral Soul materialized. For a time, the light around him was incomparably resplendent as the heavenly dao in his astral soul continued to generate the strongest power.

After so many years, Qin Dangtian's Absolute Beginning Sword Dao was naturally stronger than before. It contained unfathomable levels of might that could destroy the heavens and earth.

When the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul was unleashed to the max, the absolute beginning light from it enveloped everything. Even the ancient words revolving around Qin Wentian were also branded into the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul. After that, the astral soul seemed to be able to absorb the power from the ancient words and underwent an evolution. From within the astral soul, Qin Wentian could sense traces of his own spacetime sword dao.

"Mhm?" Qin Wentian frowned. Qin Dangtian's Absolute Beginning Dao Might was much stronger than the past. He combined the ability of his divine barrier art into the Absolute Beginning Dao, allowing him to absorb all types of power in heaven and earth for his own usage, he could even evolve them into something stronger. This was truly a terrifying dao. As Qin Dangtian grows stronger, he would be more and more terrifying until he became invincible in the world.

"What a strong dao. Absolute Beginning, the origin of heaven and earth. Qin Dangtian wants to use this to trace the source back to ancient times, to the first ever dao that had appeared. His ambitions are exceedingly vast." Many people mused silently. The various powerful characters from the peak powers felt wariness in their hearts. Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian was truly an impressive character. They had to be careful of him. His future would surely be extremely terrifying.

"The spacetime sword dao you cultivate isn't bad at all. But if I used it to defeat you, how would you feel?" Qin Dangtian spoke. Behind him, his astral soul transformed into the dao. A spacetime storm manifested and was terrifying to the extreme.

Qin Wentian stared ahead, his spacetime sword dao had evolved after inputs from Qin Dangtian's absolute beginning dao. This was truly very powerful. Although they were fated to be mortal enemies, Qin Wentian had to admit that Qin Dangtian was truly impressive.

If Qin Dangtian wasn't strong, how could he gain the title of Heaven's Son?

Qin Zheng and his wife, as well as the other experts of the Qin Clan all had confident looks on their faces. Qin Dangtian would be the victor of this battle for sure, there would be no suspense. Qin Wentian actually dared to underestimate Heaven's Son after he won against Qin Cang and Qin Li in the battle at the boundless sea region? Qin Wentian would pay a painful price for this.

"Go." Qin Dangtian pointed his finger towards Qin Wentian. The might from the spacetime sword dao burst forth from his finger and instantly caused the skies to darken, resembling a scene from the apocalypse. Spacetime engulfed the heavens, wanting to bury Qin Wentian here, completely engulfing Qin Wentian inside the spacetime storm. This power ignored time and space because it was originally the spacetime sword dao.

"Using Qin Wentian's dao to deal with Qin Wentian. Heaven's Son is truly unrivalled in the world." The people of the world sighed in admiration as they saw the spacetime sword dao burying Qin Wentian. How would Qin Wentian break this?

"Using my dao against me?" Qin Wentian stared at the attack but his expression was as calm as ever. He gently stretched out his hand and in an instant, his palm manifested a blackhole that grew larger and larger. This blackhole devoured everything, the sword might frenziedly surged forth but everything was absorbed by the blackhole in Qin Wentian's palm and then sealed inside there. It was like Qin Wentian's palm contained boundless space.

In the space before Qin Wentian's palm, terrifying dao might crackled. An intense absorption might radiated forth, absorbing everything within the space of his palm.

When the spacetime dao Qin Dangtian used vanished, Qin Wentian calmly stood there and retracted his palm. The spectators below were all dumbfounded, like they didn't dare to believe their eyes.

Qin Dangtian used the Absolute Beginning Dao to absorb Qin Wentian's spacetime sword dao and further evolved it. However, Qin Wentian merely stretched out his hand casually, allowing him to gain absolute control over everything, directly absorbing the terrifying energy into the blackhole in his palm.

What sort of terrifying method was this?

The hearts of many people pounded. This blackhole appeared simplistic but within it, the laws of space, sealing and devouring, as well as many other attributes could be sensed.

Also, the might it displayed was mainly that of devouring. This indicated that Qin Wentian was also proficient in devouring laws. But in the rumors, there has never been any mention of this before. Everyone only knew that he was proficient in time, space, sword and seals. Why would he be proficient in the devouring laws? Something seemed off somehow.

"You want to defeat me with such a pathetic technique?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke as he stared at Qin Dangtian. "You want to use my dao against me. However, if I control ten thousand daos, how many can you absorb and evolve?"

"What a boast." Qin Dangtian coldly replied. "In this world, who would dare to say that they control ten thousand daos? I possess the Absolute Beginning Dao and can absorb and evolve everything. My astral soul then is the root of ten thousand daos."

"Is that so?" Qin Wentian coldly smiled. "You feel that your Absolute Beginning Dao is unique and unrivalled in the world?"

"Can you guess then what my ninth astral soul is?" Qin Wentian spoke.

"I have no interest." Qin Dangtian coldly replied.

"Watch carefully." Qin Wentian stated. Behind him, an astral soul appeared. Instantly, Qin Dangtian's gaze froze. Not only for him, the experts in the Qin Clan and the other spectators all froze when they looked at that astral soul.

This astral soul was actually the same as the astral soul behind Qin Dangtian, be it in terms of aura or luster. The two astral souls were both condensed from the Absolute Beginning Constellation in the ninth heavenly layer.

Qin Dangtian's expression stiffened. He stared at Qin Wentian and laughed coldly, "Not only did you copy my ancient words, you even copied my astral soul. Don't tell me you are someone who cannot comprehend things for yourself?"

Everyone also had strange looks on their faces. Qin Wentian copied Qin Dangtian to this extent. In that case, how would he surpass him?

"Copying you?" Qin Wenttian laughed. After that, numerous astral souls appeared behind him. Out of the nine astral souls that he revealed, eight of them was from the eight heavenly layer and one from the nine heavenly layer. Their radiance instantly illuminated the area resplendently.

When everyone saw the nine astral souls, their hearts couldn't help but tremble. Such an astral soul combination was truly unrivalled in the world. Although many supreme characters had astral souls from the ninth heavenly layer for their final astral souls, it was impossible for them to have all their first eight astral souls from the eighth heavenly layer. This was like something impossible to achieve yet reality was right before their eyes.

"Open your eyes and watch clearly." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, his nine astral souls vanished.

However, a moment later, another astral soul appeared behind him. The eyes of countless people froze there, like they had just seen something incredible.

"Have you forgotten about my laws of devouring so fast?" Qin wentian calmly spoke. This astral soul was in the form of a blackhole, it contained the dao of devouring and was from the ninth heavenly layer.

Only now did everyone realize that Qin Wentian just displayed the laws of devouring. It was just that everyone was stunned when he revealed his astral souls earlier and had forgotten about it.

"The tenth astral soul…? How can this be possible?!" The hearts of everyone trembled. It was impossible for a stellar martial cultivator to have ten astral souls, right?

"How can this be possible?" Qin Dangtian silently mused. He stared at Qin Wentian's astral soul, could this be a trick?

"Are you shocked? Let me intensify your shock." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. His devouring astral soul vanished but an instant later, another astral soul appeared, causing the hearts of everyone to fiercely tremble once more.

It was a completely different astral soul from the earlier ten he showed. This was his eleventh astral soul.

"Qin Dangtian. If you are Heaven's Son, the chosen of the heavens, what am I then?" Qin Wentian calmly stated, his voice resounding through the air, entering the ears of the crowd. Heaven's Son? Who exactly was the chosen of the heavens between them?!

Chapter 1918: Clash of the Supreme

Today, the experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms gathered. The people from the many peak powers as well as experts of the Qin Clan, all saw this scene.

Qin Wentian displayed astral souls that were out of their common logic. For stellar martial cultivators, from the start to the heavenly deity realm, they would only have a limit of nine astral souls. This was an iron-clad rule. But today, someone actually displayed eleven astral souls.

He stood there and asked Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian. If you are the chosen of the heavens, what am I?

If you really are Heaven's Son, why would I, Qin Wentian, have eleven astral souls?

Qin Dangtian had nothing to say. The people of the world were speechless as they stared at this scene.

For experts of the Qin Clan, all of them felt extremely complicated in their hearts. A descendant of their Qin Clan actually managed to possess eleven astral souls. However, he was already standing in opposition to the Qin Clan since long ago. The grudge between them would never be settled unless one party died.

Right now, the people of the Qin Clan were even doubting if Qin Dangtian could gain victory.

If Qin Dangtian lost, what sort of situation would that be?

"No wonder you can control the Heaven Vault, seems like you must have truly understood all its secrets. Back then, the treasure your father found in the Heaven Vault must have been passed to you, right?" Qin Dangtian coldly spoke. This was also his father's conjecture.

"Back then, the Qin Clan spared no expenses to pursue my father, not willing to spare him. Is it all because of the treasure he obtained in the Heaven Vault?" Qin Wentian replied. "Sadly, although my ancestors were from the Qin Clan, we were unable to hide from the greed of the Qin Clan. You are correct. That treasure already belongs to me. Hence, I can control the Heaven Vault."

Right now to Qin Wentian, all his secrets on him were already not considered secrets. He monopolized the Heaven Vault and all of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wanted to deal with him. What was divulging one more secret? What was the worst that could happen?

When Qin Zheng and the other experts from the Qin Clan heard Qin Wentian's confirmation, their eyes gleamed with sharpness. Seems like Qin Wentian had to be captured today no matter what. He must not be allowed to leave.

"Despicable clan, because one of the descendants of the Qin Clan had a miraculous encounter and obtained a treasure, this despicable clan actually spared no expense to get it. Today in this battle, I will allow everyone in the Qin Clan to see clearly. I want to make you feel regret for everything you have done in the past. The Qin Clan will ultimately head towards the path of destruction."

Qin Wentian slowly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, another astral soul appeared behind him, causing the expressions of everyone to freeze again.

This was the twelfth astral soul.

How many astral souls did Qin Wentian have exactly?

"Countless?" A thought flashed through the minds of everyone. But even they themselves felt that it was ridiculous. How could this be possible?

In truth, Qin Wentian's astral souls weren't countless in number. He only had seventeen astral souls. After his two true-selves merged back as one, he had a total of sixteen astral souls then. After that, he formed an innate connection with the countless number of constellations in the nine heavenly layers and condensed their essences, binding them together, which allowed the tiny astral-being to transform into his seventeenth astral soul.

This was why Qin Wentian only had seventeen astral souls.

But, there was one special characteristic about the astral soul the tiny astral-being transformed into. It was able to connect with the countless constellations in the nine heavenly layers and was like a world of its own, with its own starry space and constellations within. It could transform into any constellation Qin Wentian had a connection with, and manifest an astral soul.

In other words, Qin Wentian's seventeenth astral soul was able to transform into any type of astral souls he wanted at any moment.

This was Qin Wentian's seventeenth astral soul, the tiny astral-being. It can be considered as one astral soul, but also billions of astral souls, containing the ability of countless transformations. Just this alone was something that was much more brilliant compared to Qin Dangtian's Absolute Beginning Astral Soul.

At this moment, another astral soul appeared behind his back, instantly enveloping the entire world and the heavens. A terrifying blackhole that were immeasurably deep appeared. There seemed to be another dimension within.

Astral soul transforming into the dao... Evidently, Qin Wentian has fused the power of his dao with his astral soul, this was something only heavenly deities could do. Also, this astral soul was from the ninth heavenly layer, it was condensed from an extremely powerful constellation.

That time when Qin Wentian was perceiving this constellation, he stepped upon it directly and actually gained insights into the laws of different dimensions. He instantly attempted to form a connection with this and comprehend the dao.

There were simply too many extraordinary constellations in the nine heavenly layers. For example for the time-attributed astral soul in the form of the river of time he had condensed, as well as Qin Dangtian's Absolute Beginning Astral Soul. The higher the heavenly layer, the more powerful the constellations in it would naturally be.

When Qin Wentian was gaining insights, he infused his own dao into it, creating an extremely powerful heavenly dao. It was the Dimensional Spacetime Dao.

Upon seeing this astral soul and sensing the dao might from it, Qin Zheng had a deep frown on his face. The feeling Qin Wentian gave off now was completely different from back then when Qin Wentian first broke through to the heavenly deity realm. The Qin Wentian now felt completely transformed, he was in control of his destiny and was a supreme character that seemed like the lord of all heavenly daos.

His confidence with regards to Qin Dangtian's victory also started to waver slightly.

Right now, all that was left was to see if Qin Dangtian's Absolute Beginning Dao might could subdue Qin Wentian or not.

During these years of cultivation, Qin Dangtian also didn't waste time. His strongest attacking method was using his Absolute Beginning Dao. It was much stronger compared to back then when he fought Qin Wentian inside the Heaven Vault. Qin Zheng once sparred against his son Qin Dangtian. Qin Zheng knew that even some more years, his son would surely surpass him.

The eyes of everyone shone with excitement, this was then a true face-off.

Before this, everyone felt that the situation would be without suspense, Qin Dangtian would surely dominate Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was simply too impulsive. But now, they understood that Qin Wentian truly had the ability to fight against Qin Dangtian. The two most outstanding individuals of the younger generation in this era were now having a showdown in the Qin Clan.

Qin Dangtian didn't say anything more. Right now, only victory could prove everything. Although Qin Wentian had a miraculous encounter and had more than nine astral souls, it proved nothing. The victor in this battle would still be him. Everything Qin Yuanfeng experienced back then would be experienced by Qin Wentian again.

This cycle of history wouldn't be changed.

Numerous ancient words flew towards the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul and started to transform. A moment later, an immensely gigantic ancient word appeared. It penetrated through space and flew towards the sky. A moment later, everyone could see this boundlessly vast ancient word representing the character 'lock.' It's power slammed into the dimensional world created by Qin Wentian, wanting to lock it in place, not allowing the dimensional blackhole to revolve anymore, causing the fearsome spatial storm to stop.

"The Absolute Beginning Dao contains evolutions." Everyone silently mused. It was able to strengthen any kind of dao. Most probably, ordinary heavenly deities wouldn't even last a single strike before Qin Dangtian.

Some heavenly deities here could only sigh at their inferiority. They could sense that if either of the two combatants were to fight them, their situations would be extremely dire. Between heavenly deities, the disparity in strength could be boundlessly great. No one knew how the these two had cultivated.

The space Qin Wentian was in kept twisting. The ancient word 'lock' also began to warp as its dao might diminished before fading to nothing.

"Does the Absolute Beginning Dao only have this bit of strength?" Qin Wentian mocked. Qin Dangtian's expression was very calm. He folded gestures and even more ancient words manifested before him. After that, they flew into his Absolute Beginning Astral Soul and underwent countless evolutions, causing their power to grow increasingly stronger. A fearsome might radiated forth, Qin Dangtian appeared to be like a supreme god of battle.

He pointed his finger forward and in an instant, countless ancient words blasted out like divine seals, slamming into the dimensional blackhole, causing it to crumble. The Absolute Beginning Dao can cause all daos to return to their origin.

The divine seals blasted forth and exploded frenziedly causing the sky to shake. Everything reverted back to their original states, even the dimensional energy had to follow this law as well. It transformed back into nothingness.

In addition, these divine seals also brimmed with their own resplendent light, they were connected to the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul and had endless energy.

Qin Wentian ignored the divine seals. He stared right at Qin Dangtian and pointed his finger. In an instant, the space around Qin Wentian started to contort. His body appeared in front of Qin Dangtian and he unleashed a sword attack. This was a dimensional spacetime sword strike, capable of slicing through everything. The connection between the divine seals and Qin Dangtian was easily severed.

A terrifying blackhole appeared in Qin Wentian's outstretched palm. This dimensional blackhole was able to devour everything. Qin Dangtian could feel a fearsome absorption wanting to draw him in.

The Absolute Beginning Astral Soul seemed to absorb some of the law energy that existed in Qin Wentian's palm. Behind Qin Dangtian, the astral light screen formed from his astral soul actually manifested many palms with blackholes in them, wanting to devour everything in the world.

"You are copying me now?" Qin Wentian mockingly laughed, using Qin Dangtian's earlier words against him. Qin Dangtian earlier had said that Qin Wentian was copying him but the truth has proven that Qin Wentian had so many techniques and methods. Why would he ever need to copy Qin Dangtian?

"You don't have my astral souls or my law attributes, how can you copy me?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed. After that, an endless flood of dimensional energy rushed into the screen of astral light behind Qin Dangtian, surging into the blackholes. He wanted to see how Qin Dangtian can endure this violent rush of energy.

Although the Absolute Beginning Dao contains countless evolutions, this was something that only existed in theory. Maybe, this would be true if Qin Dangtian's cultivation level could reach an extreme peak. But at the very least as of now, Qin Dangtian wasn't able to do it. If not, Qin Zheng definitely wouldn't be Qin Dangtian's opponent.

The Absolute Beginning Dao could truly allow one to walk all the way to the end. However, it wasn't without its flaws.

As the boundless energy flooded into the blackholes, the astral soul behind Qin Dangtian started to tremble, like it wasn't so stable. Clearly, he didn't have the ability to truly absorb and evolve everything!

But at this moment, Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with an extremely cold light. "This is enough to deal with you?"

As the sound of his voice faded, even more energy from him flooded into the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul as though Qin Wentian wanted to shatter it!

Chapter 1919: Defeat of Heaven's Son

Qin Dangtian's astral soul trembled, like it was enduring against an unlimited pressure. His Absolute Beginning Astral Soul had the power to evolve all laws, he could even absorb the attacks of others. However, when Qin Wentian's attack was so strong that it exceeded a certain limit, even if Qin Dangtian had the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul, it was still tough for him to bear the burden.

Earlier, Qin Dangtian used the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul to manifest the dimensional blackhole. He was the same as Qin Wentian and used that to absorb energy. However, his was after all not the original source and he didn't have a connection with the particular dimensional constellation. Hence, he couldn't digest it fully and could only use his Absolute Beginning Astral Soul to manifest some of the characteristics.

The Absolute Beginning Astral Soul blotted out the sky, mini explosions seemed to occur within it. The astral soul seemed to be on the verge of crumbling apart. Qin Dangtian's black hair fluttered in the wind as he attempted to assimilate that energy fully. His black eyes stared at Qin Wentian, cold to the extreme.

He was Heaven's Son, how would he lose? How could he lose?

Today, was the day of his wedding. This battle was observed by everyone in the world. He couldn't afford to lose and he wouldn't lose.

"So what even if you had a miraculous encounter? The Absolute Beginning Dao is the strongest dao art under the heavens, the ultimate dao." Qin Dangtian arrogantly spoke. He was filled with immense confidence with regards to the Absolute Beginning Dao he comprehended.

As the sound of his voice faded, within the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul, the power from Qin Wentian's attack actually rebounded back to Qin Wentian. In addition, this rebound power also contained Qin Dangtian's own dao within. Everyone only saw streaks of apocalyptic beams shooting through the skies. Everywhere they passed by, destruction ran rampant. No sort of powers could block this.

In the Qin Clan, countless people inclined their heads and stared at the sky. The scene up there was simply too terrifying. The sun was blotted out and the pressure in the air was unbelievably heavy. Although Qin Wentian and Qin Dangtian fought at a very high vantage point, those below could feel the waves of heavenly might radiating off them very clearly.

Qin Wentian naturally could sense the power in Qin Dangtian's retaliation. However, his expression was as calm as ever. He who had once fought with Qin Dangtian before, understood that the Qin Dangtian now was naturally stronger than before. Also, he sensed the potential of the Absolute Beginning Astral Soul and wasn't surprised by this.

However, despite Qin Dangtian giving his all, ignoring self-injury to unleash this strike, Qin Dangtian most probably wouldn't be able to get his wish of victory.

Because, the surroundings have already transformed into a world that belonged to his dao.

With a wave of his hand, an immensely gigantic dimensional blackhole appeared before him. The rebound attack from Qin Dangtian instantly blasted into the blackhole, entering a dimension he created.

In addition, this surroundings were originally something he created at the start using his dimensional laws.

Inside here, he could control everything.

"Reverse." Qin Wentian finally uttered a single word. As the sound of his voice faded, Qin Dangtian's heart trembled. Around him, numerous dimensional storms appeared, and after that, the apocalyptic beams of light from his attacks actually fused into these dimensional storms and reversed their trajectories, shooting right back at him.

The force of Qin Wentian's earlier attacks which he assimilated and evolved into the apocalyptic beams of light to attack Qin Wentian with, was actually countered so easily. Qin Wentian used his dao of dimensions to twist the space here, forming a reverse point of connection with him at the end.

In just an instant, Qin Dangtian was engulfed by countless attacks. He had already endured an immensely powerful attack which caused his astral soul to be on the verge of crumbling earlier. Now, another wave of powerful attacks bore down on him. Could Qin Dangtian still endure this?

"Dang`er!" In the Qin Clan, Qin Dangtian's mother called out. Her beautiful eyes flashed with worry as she involuntarily moved forward.

Not only for her, at this moment, Qin Zheng also involuntarily moved forward, wanting to soar into the sky. This battle has already surpassed his expectations, Qin Wentian's strength also surpassed his imagination.

Qin Dangtian caused his divine barrier to appear. Ancient words revolved around it, blocking all the attacks. His body was seemingly going to be submerged by the power of the attacks. The entire area was trembling, including the heavens.

A hint of killing intent flickered in Qin Wentian's eyes. Between him and the Qin Clan, there was no need to show mercy. If there was a chance to, Qin Dangtian would never spared him. Similarly, if he had the chance, he also wouldn't spare Qin Dangtian. This man was the son of Qin Zheng, and also the person who crippled his uncle, Luoshen Yu.

In addition, if Qin Dangtian died, this wedding would end before it concludes. The wedding would have no more meaning. This was one of the reasons why he chose to challenge Qin Dangtian today. As long as Goddess Nichang has yet to become Qin Dangtian's wife, the person he killed wouldn't be her husband, there was no need for him to become enemies with her. He didn't wish for a day when he faced off against Qin Dangtian, he had to face off against Goddess Nichang as well.

"DIE!" A dimensional sword manifested before Qin Wentian, it shot through the air, ignoring distance and slashed towards Qin Dangtian.

At this moment, an incomparably bright light erupted from Qin Dangtian's body. Treasure light covered his body, and the source of this light was from a treasured armor. This was a supreme treasure from the Qin Clan, the myriad laws armor. Within it, the daos of the Qin Clan's ancestors were contained. At this moment, it blocked the killing blow from Qin Wentian. With a thunderous bang, Qin Dangtian was sent flying but the myriad laws armor still floated before him, negating a large portion of the force behind the attack.

"Myriad laws armor. Qin Zheng actually passed this treasure to Qin Dangtian." The eyes of everyone flashed. Many experts from the peak powers all knew about this supreme treasure of the Qin Clan.

Qin Wentian also saw this before. Back then in the Gods Extinction Path, when his grandfather Qin Tiangang appeared and dealt with Qin Zheng's group, Qin Zheng used this supreme treasure to aid in his escape. The defensive prowess of this treasure was unimaginably high. Who could have thought that Qin Zheng would pass this armor to Qin Dangtian.

The heavenly dao might from Qin Wentian erupted forth again. He wanted to continue attacking but at this moment, the light of divine punishment flashed through the skies. After that, boundless divine punishment force locked onto the dimensional world he was in. Qin Wentian naturally knew who had acted. He glanced below and saw Qin Zheng flying over. Qin Zheng's wife also followed behind him, including the other heavenly deities of the Qin Clan. All of them flew into the air and surrounded Qin Wentian.

Just like what the people of the world had anticipated, if Qin Dangtian was truly defeated, it was impossible for the Qin Clan to remain neutral. Qin Dangtian was the future king of the Qin Clan, the Heaven's Son. His talent was supreme, how could the Qin Clan allow Qin Dangtian to die?

Although interfering was a very embarrassing matter, especially so under the eyes of everyone, but was face more important compared to Qin Dangtian's life?

There was basically no need for them to ponder over it. Qin Wentian also understood that it was impossible for him to use this chance to mount a one-hit kill on Qin Dangtian. Even without these Qin Clan's experts, he wouldn't be able to do that with the myriad laws armor protecting Qin Dangtian.

In just a very short instant, Qin Wentian was completely surrounded. All the heavenly deities began to unleash their auras, causing the sky to shake.

Qin Wentian smiled, his smile was extremely glacial and mocking. He stared at Qin Dangtian only to see the long black hair of Qin Dangtian covering his face. Qin Dangtian had his head lowered, no longer as imposing as before. As the Heaven's Son, he was actually defeated.

His Absolute Beginning Dao lost to Qin Wentian's dao.

He became a heavenly deity long before Qin Wentian. In the sacred academy, he disdained Qin Wentian and told him that he didn't know what heavenly daos are. But today, he was actually defeated by Qin Wentian before the eyes of everyone, on the day of his wedding. The Qin Dangtian now felt as though there were knives stabbing into his heart. He has never felt such an utter sense of defeat. In this life, how glorious and imposing was he? He was born unrivalled, chosen among the chosen, the Heaven's Son who crippled the Skyorder Heavenly Deity the moment he entered the heavenly deity realm.

However, everything was shattered at this moment. All his pride and glory collapsed in this battle.

He, Qin Dangtian, was defeated.

The spectators were also staring at Qin Dangtian who had his head lowered, as well as that young man who defeated him, who was standing proud and tall. Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, the supreme genius of the Qin Clan. When everyone in the world thought that he would be the victor, he was actually defeated by Qin Wentian. He, Qin Zheng's son, actually lost to someone who recently became a heavenly deity around two hundred years ago.

Qin Wentian's name already resounded through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms but many people felt that he didn't match up to his reputation. After all, the reason for his infamy was due to Goddess Nichang and the Heaven Vault. But now, everyone understood that even without Nichang or the Heaven Vault, an existence like Qin Wentian was destined to be as bright as the sun in the sky. Nothing could mask his radiance. His name was destined to resound throughout the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't know what the people of the world were thinking. He was now staring at the experts surrounding him.

"What a familiar scene. I believe the people of the Qin Clan aren't unfamiliar with this scene, right?" Qin Wentian's voice was low and heavy, cold to the extreme. Because, his father had once encountered this exact scene. After he defeated Qin Zheng, the elders of the Qin Clan surrounded him. At the very end, his father died in the Qin Clan.

Now, it seemed that a cycle has been completed. After he defeated Qin Dangtian, the same scene awaited him. Would his ending be the same as his father?

"Qin Wentian, back then your father obtained an ultimate treasure but he wanted to monopolize it for himself, and was unwilling to hand that to the clan. In fact, he didn't even care to burn the relationships between the clan and him as he acted for self-benefit. Today, your father has passed everything to you, including his hatred. Since this is the case, our clan can only choose to act together to clean up this unsavory bit of dirt in our clan." Qin Zheng coldly spoke. Qin Dangtian was already defeated, what else could he say? No matter what reasons he gave, the people of the world would surely gossip about this. However, the Qin Clan had to act no matter what.

"HAHAH!" Qin Wentian started laughing uproariously. "As the clan leader of the Qin Clan, you actually had the face to say such shameless words. In addition, this is before everyone from the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that's gathered here today.

The treasure his father obtained had to be handed over to the clan? In that case, who should his father hand the treasure to? To Qin Zheng and his son?

How ridiculous was this?

"Qin Zheng, doing so would insult the good name and reputation of the Qin Clan." At this moment, a faint voice rang out. The eyes of everyone flashed, staring at the person who spoke. It was none other than the Qiankun Sect Leader.

As expected, the Qiankun Sect Leader couldn't bear it and was the first to speak out. Evidently, he wouldn't allow Qin Wentian to fall into the hands of the Qin Clan so easily.

However, this place was the Qin Clan's headquarters. Could it be that the Qiankun Sect Leader wanted to go to war with the Qin Clan?

Chapter 1920: The Qin Clan, Humiliated

Seeing the Qiankun Sect Leader intending to interfere, Qin Zheng coldly looked at him. "This is an inner matter of my Qin Clan. The Qiankun Sect wants to interfere in this?"

"Haha, earlier Qin Wentian challenged Qin Dangtian. He sent a challenge letter and your son has accepted it. Now that he is defeated, the experts from the Qin Clan actually surrounded Qin Wentian before the eyes of everyone in the crowd. Qin Zheng, are you not afraid of incurring the world's ridicule?" The Qiankun Sect Leader laughed. "As for your clan's inner matters, back then Qin Yuanfeng is said to have betrayed your clan and was killed by the Qin Clan. Today, Qin Wentian has also said that he feels his origin from the Qin Clan is a shameful matter, he has no connection with the Qin Clan. So, what inner clan matter are you talking about?"

"In that case, you mean you are interfering in my clan's business for sure today, right?" Qin Zheng calmly asked, his tone filled with maliciousness. They had to capture Qin Wentian at all cost, he had the supreme treasure from Qin Yuanfeng and the people of the Qin Clan had also seen the miraculous effects generated by that supreme treasure. Not long ago, Qin Wentian unleashed a total of twelve astral souls and he grew so fast, using only two hundred years to rival Heaven's Son. How could the Qin Clan let him go?

"Qin Dangtian is already defeated. If the Qin Clan still cares about their reputation, they shouldn't act at all. Just let the wedding between Qin Dangtian and Nichang continue. As for Qin Wentian, he is the controller of the Heaven Vault, how can we allow the Qin Clan to bring him away?" The Qiankun Sect Leader smiled. Below, many experts walked out respectively, belonging to different powers. After they saw Qin Wentian displaying his strength, they were not only keen on obtaining the Heaven Vault, they wanted to know all of Qin Wentian's secrets as well.

For the matter of twelve astral souls, how had Qin Wentian accomplished that?

As for the fact that today was supposed to be the joyous date of Qin Dangtian's wedding, at this moment, no one paid any attention to this. The flawlessly beautiful bride, the number one beauty of the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang, was ignored as she stood on the ceremonial stage. Her beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian who was completely surrounded as waves of emotions rocked her heart.

Under such a dangerous situation, why did he choose to appear? Why did he pick today to challenge Qin Dangtian? Also, it was evident he tried to kill Qin Dangtian earlier. Was it to prevent this marriage?

Qin Wentian's white robes fluttered in the wind. He calmly stood in the air, from the moment he arrived, he already knew he would face such a situation. This was something his father faced before and was incomparably familiar to him. He naturally wouldn't doubt the shamelessness of the Qin Clan. Choosing between Qin Dangtian's life and face, there was no doubt what choice the Qin Clan would make.

"Qin Dangtian. From today onwards, what face do you have to establish yourself in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? What face do you have to proclaim yourself as Heaven's Son? Are you even worthy?" Qin Wentian stared at Qin Dangtian who lowered his head. Qin Dangtian's body trembled. The more lofty a genius thought of himself, after defeat, the heavier the impact of his fall would be. Qin Wentian's words caused his heart to waver.

"Dang`er, it is just a defeat. Don't let your original heart be affected. In the future, just put in more effort in cultivation and you will stand at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The people of the world would only stare up at your glory. You will become a legend and even for your past defeats, they would only serve to let you grow stronger." Qin Zheng spoke. He was once in the same position as Qin Dangtian, after he got defeated by Qin Yuanfeng. But now, he was standing at the peak. As the Qin Clan Leader, the people of the world could only stare up at him. Who would remember his past?

Qin Wentian wanted to make Qin Dangtian's dao heart waver. How could Qin Zheng allow this? At this moment, even though Qin Dangtian was a heavenly deity, he still decided to say some words of encouragement to his son.

Qin Dangtian slowly lifted his head. The gaze he used to look at Qin Wentian with once again became determined. His black eyes and black hair, every inch of his body radiated a steely resolve. Although his heart wavered a little earlier, but after that, he was still the Heaven's Son of before. How could he, Qin Dangtian, give up on himself so easily? He, Qin Dangtian, was the future of the Qin Clan.

Qin Wentian stared at the look in Qin Dangtian's eyes and knew that Qin Dangtian's mental state had recovered somewhat. As expected of someone named the Heaven's Son. Qin Dangtian did have his outstanding characteristics. However, there was still a slight disdain on his face.

"Although I'm defeated today, I didn't lose in terms of the dao. The Absolute Beginning Dao is the ultimate dao of the heavens and earth. If I cultivate this all the way till the end, all other daos will surely be beneath mine." Qin Dangtian slowly spoke, his wavering dao heart no longer wavered. He still had absolute confidence in his Absolute Beginning Dao.

"You borrowed the power of a secret treasure you obtained that allowed you to break through the limits of nine astral souls, comprehending unique powers. Although you have defeated me, it doesn't represent that I have lost. At the very end, I shall be the one who surpasses you!" Qin Dangtian continued. As the sound of his voice faded, the resolve in his eyes grew stronger.

"Oh? I will wait for that day then. But the prerequisite is that can you tell your father and people of the Qin Clan to scram first?" Qin Wentian mockingly laughed. Qin Dangtian's eyes flashed. He stared at Qin Zheng but didn't say anything. The contempt in Qin Wentian's eyes grew stronger. He coldly continued, "Lying to yourself and others. A defeat means a defeat, why speak so much nonsense? After you lost, your father and clan members immediately surrounded me. You still have the face to speak about surpassing me? Can it be after your clan members take me down and after I died, you would finally surpass me? This is the Heaven's Son?"

"Time will prove everything." Qin Dangtian spoke. His silhouette flashed as he left this area, moving towards the ceremonial stage. His eyes shone with resolution yet he felt dispirited in his heart. He stared at the beautiful features of his fiancee and his tensed heart began to ease up somewhat. He stretched out his hand, wanting to hold her hand. This woman would soon become his wife. Holding her hands naturally wouldn't be too over the top.

However, Goddess Nichang didn't extend her hand out. In fact, she took a small step back.

Qin Dangtian frowned, "Nichang?"

Goddess Nichang inclined her head, her beautiful eyes stared at the Qin Wentian in the air as she asked, "Did you challenge Qin Dangtian today for my sake?"

Qin Wentian started after hearing her words but he soon smiled at her as he nodded, "That's right."

He could have chosen whenever he wanted to challenge Qin Dangtian but he purposely chose today. Clearly, he didn't wish to see Goddess Nichang being married to Qin Dangtian. But if this was useless, he could only sigh. At the very least, he tried his best and would have no regrets.

The gazes of countless people froze as they stared with shock at Qin Wentian and Goddess Nichang. The rumors about them existed since a long time ago. And now, Goddess Nichang actually personally asked if Qin Wentian came here for her and Qin Wentian honestly replied to her. This…

Those rumors seemed to receive verifications. In such a scene, under the observation of people of the world, how face-smacking was this? How should the Qin Clan handle this. Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian, where should he put his face?

At this moment, even the people of Qin Clan seemed to have forgotten about Qin Wentian. They stared at Goddess Nichang as unsightly expressions appeared on their faces. This was especially so for Qin Zheng and his wife. They were both frowning.

"Nichang, you are the future mother of the Qin Clan, how can you speak to this vile spawn? Please note your identity." Qin Zheng's wife spoke, reminding Nichang. She was worried that Nichang might say something she shouldn't say.

"I understand." Goddess Nichang calmly replied. She bowed to the experts of the Qin Clan and spoke. "I've let the Qin Clan down."

The expressions of everyone froze. The frowns on the faces of experts from the Qin Clan deepened. Qin Dangtian clenched his fist as the feeling of unease in his heart intensified.

"Back then when I was cultivating in the Heaven Vault, I got abducted by Qin Wentian and experienced some things. Hence, he came here for me today. I know I have let the Qin Clan down. I'm sorry. Let's forget all about this wedding." Goddess Nichang calmly spoke. Kacha~ Qin Dangtian's fists were clenched as his veins throbbed. His expression contorted, he just suffered a defeat causing his dao heart to waver but after he recovered, he met with another even greater setback.

Before the faces of everyone, on the date of his wedding, Goddess Nichang actually said that when Qin Wentian abducted her, she experienced some things which was why Qin Wentian came here to look for her now and challenged Qin Dangtian. What are those some things?

Was there anything else that could cause a man to suffer any greater setback?

Not only for Qin Dangtian, the countless people of the Qin Clan also felt great humiliation, their expressions all turned extremely unsightly. Today, their Qin Clan invited the various peak powers here for the grand wedding, but no one would have expected the situation would turn into something so contrived.

Those who came from the various peak powers to offer congratulations were struck dumb. This...Goddess Nichang was already Qin Wentian's woman? This…?

"Awesome." Lin Xiao praised, his eyes filled with awe as he looked at Qin Wentian, there was also a hint of reverence in there. Things could also be done like this?

He glanced at the mystical maiden from the Nine Heavens Mystic Palace. The mystical maiden seemed to have sensed something and ruthlessly glared at Lin Xiao. This rascal actually dared to have such thoughts?

Lin Xiao smiled. He had always thought of himself as a gutsy individual but now, he knew that he was far inferior compared to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was the number one representative of brave men in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Is this for the sake of revenge against the Qin Clan?" Everyone silently mused. At that time, Goddess Nichang was already Qin Dangtian's fiancee. Qin Wentian actually forced himself on her?!

Hatred, jealousy, respect. All sorts of emotions rose in their hearts as the experts here stared at Qin Wentian. However, the Qin Wentian at this moment also felt somewhat depressed. This was being blamed for a crime he didn't commit.

However, he was also shocked in his heart. He didn't expect Goddess Nichang to be able to say such a thing. She destroyed her reputation herself and her purpose for doing so was to cancel the wedding. She was actually so determined.

After saying all these, the Qin Clan wouldn't allow Qin Dangtian to marry her already, right?

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled, he also didn't know what Goddess Nichang was thinking.

"Nichang, tell me this isn't real." Qin Dangtian stared fixedly at the beautiful maiden before him. The number one beauty of the Heaven Region, a woman that was about to become his wife, actually told such a huge joke?

"If you hate me, you can kill me." Goddess Nichang calmly spoke. Many cold looks from the Qin Clan's experts turned to her. Some people truly wanted to kill her. This was a humiliation the Qin Clan would never be able to wipe away. Today, the Qin Clan suffered humiliation twice.

"Scram." From within the Qin Clan, an icy voice rang out. If they killed Goddess Nichang, it would only cause the Qin Clan to lose more face. On the surface, the Qin Clan and Deity Qu were friends, Goddess Nichang was nothing more but a victim of Qin Wentian. If they killed Goddess Nichang? What does it count for?

Qin Wentian!

When they thought of this, numerous terrifying auras once again bore down on Qin Wentian. The debt of hatred intensified more and more!

Chapter 1921: Abnormal

A grave humiliation.

Heaven's Son was defeated. This, to the Qin Clan, was extremely humiliating.

And as for Goddess Nichang, as the future mother of the Qin Clan, she had a marriage agreement with Qin Dangtian but today on the day of their wedding, she said that something happened to her back then when Qin Wentian abducted her? Wasn't this even more humiliating? Especially so to Qin Dangtian.

The experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms all came here to attend his wedding. He proclaimed that he wanted to slay Qin Wentian first before going through with the wedding.

But now, he was defeated and his fiancee even said such words. No matter how good Qin Dangtian's temperament was, there was no way he could endure it at this moment. His handsome features contorted, he stood there unmovingly.

Goddess Nichang was as cold as ever. The sound of the word 'scram' rang out loud in the air. Although this was a humiliation for the Qin Clan, but Goddess Nichang herself actually said such a thing, destroying her reputation. She most probably was feeling a great deal of shame as well.

She quietly walked down the ceremonial stage and walked towards the exit of the Qin Clan. Countless gazes landed on her, filled with different emotions, including shock and lust. However, Goddess Nichang didn't seem to have seen any of those. She calmly continued walking ahead. The view of her back was so beautiful, and also so lonely.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze below and stared at her lonely back, feeling a sourness in his heart. He thought of the beauty he had once seen before. In the world of reincarnation, under the rainbow, that dazzling smile… She originally should have always been so resplendent but she could only resign herself to her circumstances. Was this caused by him? If he didn't come here today, her wedding with Qin Dangtian would truly be a grand occasion, becoming an event that inspires envy in everyone of the world. Was his actions right or wrong then?

He understood that Goddess Nichang had to resort to this, even at the cost of damaging her reputation because she had no other ideas to break this wedding engagement. After all, both she and Qu Shen have agreed to it. How can they break it just like that? Hence, she chose to destroy her own reputation.

She was lonely. No one knew of her thoughts in her heart. Qu Shen once said that this might be because she grew up without her parents by her side. This caused her personality to be more aloof. She didn't like to speak of her troubles to anyone, and would bury all her problems in her heart.

The her now, other than feeling lonely, there was also a stubborn determination. The amount of courage it would take for the number one beauty in the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang, to break the marriage engagement was truly shocking.

Goddess Nichang walked out from the Qin Clan's exit and flew into the distance. However, she didn't leave. She found a location where no one was standing and inclined her head to stare up into the sky. It was like she wanted to take a look at the white-robed young man standing in the air. What ending would he face? He wanted to stop this wedding, hoping that she wouldn't be married to Qin Dangtian. She has already done what he wanted. But what about him? How can he escape from this situation?

Qin Wentian at this moment, could truly sense the flames of anger from the experts of the Qin Clan. This was especially so for Qin Zheng and his wife. Their eyes blazed with anger and hatred, wanting nothing more than to tear Qin Wentian into a million pieces. In fact, they didn't want to capture him alive any longer, they wanted him dead.

Qin Dangtian was their only son, also known as Heaven's Son. He was their pride. But today, all the pride they felt was shattered by Qin Wentain. They understood that from today onwards, Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian would become the butt of jokes for many people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Once, the chosen of the heavens, how dazzling was he? Would Qin Dangtian be able to face everything?

"BOOM!" From the air, streaks of divine punishment light congregated together and the sky was replaced by a divine punishment sky. A golden divine formation enveloped everything, brimming with destructive might. Even the boundlessly vast Qin City was enveloped by that might.

The people in Qin City were countless. They inclined their heads and stared at the golden divine formation in the sky, all of them could feel a stifling pressure.

Seems like Qin Zheng was completely enraged. He planned to ignore the experts from the peak powers and directly act against Qin Wentian.

Beams of divine punishment light locked onto Qin Wentian directly. The area around him was completely covered, how could he escape?

This was the World Destroying Divine Formation, a true divine punishment issued by the heavens themselves. Who could evade this?

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at the divine formation in the air. His expression was cold. There were naturally differences in strength of heavenly daos for each heavenly deity. Qin Zheng's comprehension towards his heavenly dao has already reached an extremely deep level. If not, how could he become the Qin Clan Leader? One of the peak characters in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Cripple him first." Beside Qin Zheng, his wife coldly spoke. Her resentment for Qin Wentian was extremely great. Her son was humiliated in such a manner. How could she, as a mother, not hate Qin Wentian?

"The Qin Clan has lost all face." At this moment, a voice rang out. The Qiankun Sect Leader had unknowingly appeared in the area next to Qin Wentian. Qiankun light flashed, covering the sky and this entire space, including Qin Wentian.

"If you obstruct me, don't blame me for not being polite." How could Qin Zheng give up? His killing intent towards Qin Wentian wouldn't waver.

The experts of many peak powers were still observing, feeling somewhat surprised that the Qiankun Sect Leader would take the initiative to step out. It was fine even if Qin Wentian was crippled, all they needed was that he remained alive. Their purpose was to stop Qin Wentian from being captured by the Qin Clan. Even if Qin Wentian was crippled, it didn't really matter to him. All was fine as long as the Qin Clan couldn't monopolize the Heaven Vault.

"It has been many years since we fought against each other. At that time, we were both still very young. I truly want to test myself against you again." The Qiankun Sect Leader laughed. Evidently, he and Qin Zheng were from the same generation. Now, both were standing at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. One became a clan leader and one became a sect leader.

"Since this is the case, I will grant you your wish." Boundless divine punishment might descended from the sky. Golden-colored lightning ignored the distance through space and rained down on the area Qin Wentian and the Qiankun Sect Leader was in, wanting to destroy the space there completely.

Behind the Qiankun Sect Leader, Qiankun light flared resplendently, forming a shield before him and Qin Wentian. An immensely shocking amount of power erupted forth as he coldly shouted, "Qiankun Reversal!"

As the sound of his voice faded, when the boundless divine punishment lightning rained down, they were actually forced to reverse their trajectories and shot back up into the sky. This caused the divine formation to rumble violently, giving the feeling that the sky was seemingly on the verge of exploding.

The Qiankun Sect was different from the Qin Clan. The Qin Clan was capable of cultivating all laws, although Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian were father and son, their cultivation of the respective daos, are different.

But for people of the Qiankun Sect, they pursued the same dao. It was the Qiankun Grand Dao. They felt that the Qiankun Dao was the ultimate dao in the world, allowing one to conquer the universe. This was why their sect was named the Qiankun Sect.

Naturally, although the dao they were all trying to comprehend was the Qiankun Dao, but because everyone's cultivations were different, their astral souls were different as well. Their process of gaining insights was naturally different too, resulting in their strength levels being different.

The Qiankun Sect Leader evidently has cultivated the Qiankun Dao to an extremely terrifying extent. He could use Qiankun Reversal as long as he willed it, not allowing Qin Zheng's divine punishment lightning to rain down on him, causing it to reverse upstream instead.

Qin Zheng stared at the Qiankun Sect Leader as his expression turned to ice. He suddenly had a suspicion. Why did the Qiankun Sect Leader want to protect Qin Wentian? Could his purpose really only be to prevent the Qin Clan from capturing Qin Wentian?

Also, Qin Wentian came here today to challenge his son Qin Dangtian. Could Qin Wentian really not have prepared any paths of retreat? He came to fight although knowing that he might be in an inescapable situation?

Was it really all for the sake of a beauty?

Even if he really had some relationship with Nichang, there was no way their relationship reached the extent where he could give his life up, right? If not, Goddess Nichang wouldn't break the marriage only now, she would have already done so before the wedding. Did Qin Wentian really send himself to death just to stop the wedding?

At this moment, a terrifying might gushed forth from the Qin Clan, from the person who said the world 'scram.' This aura enveloped this entire space, even causing the people from the peak powers to feel pressure. Their gazes turned towards the depths of the Qin Clan. The source of this pressure should be from Qin Ding, right?

"Everyone came here to attend the wedding. But now, since the situation became like this, the wedding is naturally cancelled. The descendants of the Qin Clan will only marry a clean woman." Qin Ding coldly spoke, his voice not filled with any politeness at all, directly insulting Goddess Nichang. Many people turned their gazes to Goddess Nichang who was standing far away. However, there was still no emotions on her face despite after hearing these words.

"As for Qin Wentian, everyone already knows what he did to my Qin Clan. Give this old man some face, let the Qin Clan handle Qin Wentian. In the future when the Heaven Vault reopens, the Qin Clan will not monopolize it and allow all the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to enter for cultivation. How about it?" Qin Ding continued. He wanted everyone here to give him some face.

Hand Qin Wentian over to the Qin Clan but he promised that upon obtaining Heaven Vault, he would allow everyone to enter there for cultivation.

Everyone didn't wish to agree. After all, on Qin Wentian, there wasn't just the secret about the Heaven Vault, there was also the secret behind how he obtained twelve astral souls.

But many people understood that if they disagreed, a war would instantly break out and there would be many casualties for all parties. It was as tough as ascending to the heavens for any of the peak powers to obtain Qin Wentian.

The Qin Clan also understood this. So, they didn't wish to monopolize the Heaven Vault. However, they had to obtain Qin Wentian.

"Since Senior Qin has spoken, I naturally have no objection." An expert from one of the peak powers spoke, this was a hegemonic power from the Chaos Region. He understood that this place was the Qin Clan. With Qin Ding present, it wouldn't be so easy for them to obstruct Qin Zheng. Since this is the case, they might as well take this chance to back off gracefully, giving some face to Qin Ding.

"If Qin Wentian really is captured by the Qin Clan, how would we know if the Qin Clan managed to find the secret of the Heaven Vault from Qin Wentian? They might keep this a secret. It is still more secure if all of us controls the Heaven Vault together." The Qiankun Sect Leader calmly spoke, the first person to object to Qin Ding's suggestion.

"What promise did Qin Wentian give you exactly? Did he promise to allow the Qiankun Sect to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation?" Qin Zheng suddenly asked as he stared at the Qiankun Sect Leader. At this moment, countless gazes filled with suspicion turned to the Qiankun Sect Leader.

It was hard to blame Qin Zheng for questioning the Qiankun Sect Leader. His actions were truly somewhat abnormal, and he kept shielding Qin Wentian. Something must be wrong.

Could it be that Qin Wentian and the Qiankun Sect Leader have reached an agreement secretly?

Chapter 1922: Domineering Qin Ding

Qin Wentian and the Qiankun Sect Leader naturally wouldn't reply to this. The Qiankun Sect Leader spoke. "No matter what, Qin Wentian cannot be allowed to land in the Qin Clan's hands. If not, all his secrets would belong to the Qin Clan. It would then be impossible for any of us, the peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, to obtain them. It would be far easier for us to get them from Qin Wentian."

The hearts of everyone wavered once more when they heard the Qiankun Sect Leader's words. There was logic to his words. Although Qin Zheng has made a promise, saying that when the Heaven Vault reopens, all the experts from the peak powers could enter to cultivate, could this be trusted?

Before huge benefits, all words are empty. Once the Qin Clan breaks their promise, the difficulty of the peak powers pressuring the Qin Clan would be much higher compared to pressuring Qin Wentian. The strength of the Qin Clan evidently was much stronger than the other peak powers here. Hence, the Qiankun Sect Leader was justifiably worried.

"From your words, shouldn't we hand Qin Wentian over to your Qiankun Sect then?" A cold voice rang out once again within the Qin Clan. A hint of anger could be heard within the voice.

"Just like how I don't trust the Qin Clan, I believe the Qin Clan wouldn't trust my Qiankun Sect so easily either." The Qiankun Sect Leader calmly spoke. "Qin Wentian, why don't you agree to open the Heaven Vault and allow everyone to cultivate in there? Maybe, you can find a chance to live."

"Qiankun Sect Leader, do you believe that the hatred between me and the Qin Clan can be resolved?" Qin Wentian calmly smiled. "I have a suggestion. Today, since experts from many of the peak powers are present, why don't you all help me raze the Qin Clan to the ground and resolve the hatred in my heart? Once the Qin Clan is destroyed, I will open the Heaven Vault and allow everyone to enter for cultivation. How about it?"

Qin Wentian's words caused the expressions of the people from Qin Clan to freeze. Their gazes grew even colder when they looked at him. He actually wanted to incite experts from the peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to act against the Qin Clan together?

The gazes of the experts flickered as they glanced in the direction of the Qin Clan. Although they felt slightly moved by the proposal, but they still feel trepidation in their hearts. They naturally had no problems handling ordinary heavenly deities from the Qin Clan. With an alliance of the other peak powers here, destroying the Qin Clan wasn't an impossibility. However, the Qin Clan has a few extremely powerful existences which they could do nothing to. There would be endless trouble if they chose this path. It was still easier to deal with Qin Wentian.

Also, who would dare to take the lead? If one of the peak powers did so, that would be tantamount to shedding all pretense of cordiality with the Qin Clan.

"Your thinking is really wondrous." A voice calmly drifted over. A beautiful figure walked over. She was clad in a long dress and was breathtakingly beautiful. It was none other than the number one celestial maiden of the nine heavens, the current Nine Heavens Mystic Palace Leader, the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden.

Many people in the Qin Clan glanced at that figure as numerous thoughts filled their hearts. Naturally, they only dared to think about her beauty, because it was destined that no man would be able to obtain her.

"Since we can't come to a consensus, how about handing Qin Wentian to me?" The Mystical Maiden spoke. It seems like even she couldn't resist the temptation of the Heaven Vault and wanted to act to obtain it.

"Your thinking is nothing but a fantasy." Qin Zheng's wife calmly spoke. Both were beauties, she felt an innate hostility towards this number one celestial in the nine heavens, the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden.

"Since everyone cannot come to a consensus, the answer is simple. Why don't we cripple Qin Wentian first and force him to say the secret of controlling the Heaven Vault out in public? Are you all satisfied?" Qin Ding spoke again, his voice thundering through the skies. Many people nodded silently, this was a good idea. After all, Qin Wentian being crippled or not was not important to them.

Qin Wentian coldly smiled, "If I'm crippled, does everyone think that I can still live? I might as well die directly. Since everyone isn't willing to accept my first proposal, why don't I give another suggestion? I don't need you all to destroy the Qin Clan, I only need you all to escort me safely to the Heaven Vault. Once we reach there, I will open the vault and allow experts from all powers to enter for cultivation. The Qin Clan is the only exception, they will be forbidden from entering. How does this suggestion sound?"

The eyes of everyone flashed but some experts stared at Qin Wentian, "You want to play a trick?"

"My person is here. You all can follow me there. How can I play any tricks?" Qin Wentian replied.

Many people were tempted. This suggestion was truly not bad. They didn't need to deal with the Qin Clan, they only needed to protect Qin Wentian from death and bring him to the Heaven Vault.

"Senior Qin Ding should have also heard it. Seems like we can't allow Qin Wentian to be crippled by the Qin Clan." The Qiankun Sect Leader spoke. The figure of the Mystical Maiden flashed like she was prepared to act at any moment. She then spoke, "I accept this suggestion."

Entering the Heaven Vault for cultivation was their main goal. As for Qin Wentian, they didn't feel too much hatred towards him.

"Is this the reason why Qin Wentian dared to come to the Qin Clan?" Many people mused silently. He actually wanted to use the other peak powers to block the Qin Clan for him. This was indeed a good idea but did Qin Wentian truly plan to open the Heaven Vault?

"What if I say our Qin Clan wants Qin Wentian for sure?" Qin Ding's voice grew colder and colder. Today, if they allowed Qin Wentian to leave freely, this by itself would be a great humiliation. Qin Wentian purposely picked Qin Dangtian's wedding day to cause a ruckus. This was an act of provocation. If he left safely after this, what did the Qin Clan count for?

Also, Qin Wentian said that all powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could enter the Heaven Vault save for the Qin Clan. In this case, the Qin Clan would become the biggest loser. So, how could they agree to let Qin Wentian leave just like this?

"Senior, you are making things difficult for us." The Qiankun Sect Leader spoke.

As the sound of his voice faded, that stifling pressure from Qin Ding became stronger. In the air, terrifying streaks of light flashed by, growing in number, until the entire sky was enveloped.

In the Qin Clan, a shocking might gushed forth. An explosive bang rang out causing the hearts of people to tremble, they could feel a trembling from their souls. This heavenly might was too powerful. There seemed to be a desolate primordial beast within the Qin Clan.

The entire atmosphere was incredibly tensed.

Finally, a figure appeared in the airspace above the Qin Clan. His expression was calm but he exuded shocking levels of heavenly might. It felt like any casual step he took would cause everyone to feel incomparable pressure. A strange-looking halberd could be seen in his arms. Streams of light and darkness revolved around him and the halberd like divine dragons.

The tip of the halberd exuded a level of power capable enough to devastate heaven and earth.

"The Judgement Halberd." Countless people felt their hearts shaking. Earlier, their hearts wavered because of Qin Wentian's suggestion and wanted to interfere with the Qin Clan to escort Qin Wentian safely away. But now, all of them instantly gave up on that notion.

Qin Ding of the Qin Clan was clearly angered. The halberd in his hand caused everyone to recall a particular rumor about the Qin Clan.

It was rumored that an ancestor of the Qin Clan that has a very high cultivation base, tried to pursue the ultimate dao but he failed in the end. Hence, he decided to merge his remaining life force and insights of the dao into a divine weapon. His life was the decisive material for this weapon. This divine weapon was passed on down to the Qin Clan's descendants and it was known as the Halberd of Judgement.

Qin Ding himself was already extremely powerful to a shocking extreme. Now that the Judgement Halberd appeared in his hands, one could very well imagine how great his anger was. The Qin Clan today suffered humiliation after humiliation and now, Qin Wentian actually still wanted to use the peak powers here to deal with the Qin Clan.

Since his son Qin Zheng wasn't able to control the crowd well, he will do it himself.

"Hand over Qin Wentian to the Qin Clan. Once the secret of the Heaven Vault is revealed, I will allow you all to enter for cultivation. Who dares to doubt my decision?" Qin Ding coldly spoke. This time, his tone was domineering to the extreme. Since speaking was useless, he decided to use the most direct method - a show of martial force.

Today, although experts from all over the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms gathered here, but in truth, there was still a difference in strength with regards to the peak powers of different regions. For example, the three hegemonic powers of the Desolate Region. There has been many changes to the situation in the Desolate Region, the strength of the peak powers there had quite a large disparity to the peak powers in the Heaven Region.

Now, the strongest expert in the Qin Clan, Qin Ding, walked out angrily with the Judgement Halberd. Who would dare to reject his words?

"Senior, are you forcing us to agree?" The Qiankun Sect Leader spoke. Although he was the Qiankun Sect Leader with an extremely high status in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, he was still of the junior generation when compared to Qin Ding. After all, he was the same generation as Qin Zheng.

"Don't need to conceal yourself. Since you are already here, just come on out. What promise has Qin Wentian given you?" Qin Ding coldly spoke, his gaze turned towards the distance. This caused the eyes of many heavenly deities to flash. There was actually someone hiding in the shadows? This person seemed to be someone Qin Ding regarded highly. To think that they actually failed to sense the presence of this figure.

"Qin Ding, you are still as domineering as ever." A voice rang out. After that, an old man flew over from faraway. Every step he took caused the space here to tremble.

Many heavenly deities stared at this old man in bewilderment, they had never seen him before. The beautiful eyes of the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden flashed, she didn't expect this old man would come here today. This was none other than the previous generation Qiankun Sect Leader, the master of the current Qiankun Sect Leader.

"It has been so many years. You have not died yet?" Qin Ding coldly asked.

"Haha, since you are still alive, how can I die?" The old sect leader laughed loudly. He stared at the punishment halberd in Qin Ding's hand. "To deal with a junior, you actually chose to use this divine weapon?"

"Someone wished to humiliate my Qin Clan, I'm naturally unhappy." Qin Ding spoke. After that, he turned his gaze downwards, "Earlier, I've already said what I want to say. Qin Zheng, capture the vile spawn. If there's anyone who still tries to obstruct us, don't blame me for not being polite."

"Yes father." Qin Zheng nodded. The divine punishment light shone again, incomparably resplendent. Chains formed from the divine punishment might directly shot towards Qin Wentian. There was no longer a need to waste words. Since the Judgement Halberd has already appeared in his father's hand, the ending was already set.

A black rod appeared in Qin Wentian's hands, his expression was extremely unsightly. Qin Ding's domineering attitude had surpassed his expectations. A single sentence to stun the crowd, even heavenly deities didn't dare to make any reckless moves. Right now, the ones who could block the Qin Clan for him, seemed to be only the Qiankun Sect.

RUMBLE~ Qin Wentian's body expanded. The black rod in his hand grew larger as well. He stood in the air and resembled a true heavenly god. Since the battle couldn't be avoided, let's go all out then.

Chapter 1923: Deity-level Battle

The old sect leader stepped out, moving towards Qin Zheng. "You are already at such an advanced age yet your temper is still so great."

"Seems like you still intend to interfere. Since this is the case, I want to see how strong your Measureless Law Body is now." Qin Ding coldly spoke. He was like a king of gods, wielding the Judgement Halberd in his hand. He pierced forth with the halberd and in an instant, the clouds and winds moved. The color of the sky changed as boundless streams of light and darkness were launched in an attack towards the old sect leader. A moment later, the darkness and light transformed into the power of Yin and Yang.

The Measureless Law Body of the old sect leader appeared. The power of Qiankun of Heaven and Earth was used by him. Numerous Qiankun formation diagrams appeared, shooting straight for Qin Ding.

The halberd in Qin Ding's hands pierced into the Qiankun formation diagrams. Instantly, the power of light and darkness shattered them. The aura of Yin Yang absorbed them, causing the energy in the Qiankun diagrams to be absorbed into the Judgement Halberd. The light and darkness radiating from the tip of the Judgement Halberd intensified by a few degrees.

The old sect leader stared at Qin Ding. This divine weapon was still so powerful. But of course, even without the Judgement Halberd, Qin Ding's strength was also considered extremely strong. Although he had personally arrived today, but whether or not he could block Qin Ding, he couldn't say for sure.

Countless Qiankun diagrams filled the sky, flying towards Qin Ding. Qin Ding's expression was as calm as ever. The halberd in his hand silently pierced out and every time it did, it would cause all attacks launched at him to crumble as the energy within the diagrams was absorbed. This caused the Judgement Halberd's might to grow stronger and stronger. The light and darkness was so powerful now that they seemed even capable of tearing a hole through the sky.

In addition, Qin Ding's attacks contained no fanciful tricks. It was simple and direct, but contained a form of tyranny within. It was truly reverting to simplicity, back to one's true essence.

The two colors of light and darkness ravaged the sky. They were like lightning bolts arcing through and everywhere they passed by, destruction followed. Even for heavenly deities, it was tough for them to endure power on this level. Their lives would be at risk if just one lightning bolt came in contact with them.

The Qiankun formation diagrams around the old sect leader started to rotate frenziedly, causing the law of reversal to be imposed in this area. A heavenly dao spiral was formed and for a period of time, this entire sky was engulfed by the heavenly might. The sky darkened, as shocking might permeated the atmosphere. Countless particles reversed their flow, the law of qiankun overturned everything. This scene was simply too terrifying. The spectators all felt like the apocalypse had arrived.

In the other battlefield, a divine formation appeared behind Qin Zheng. The divine punishment light enveloped the skies of that area. However, the Qiankun Sect Leader actually blocked before Qin Wentian. Clearly, he was going to interfere in this.

"Go and handle him. Leave the vile spawn to me." Qin Zheng's wife spoke. Qin Zheng nodded. His wife, the mother of the Qin Clan, wasn't just a pretty vase. Back then, her talent was one of the most outstanding ones and Qin Yuanfeng had even once loved her when he was younger. Now, she was very powerful as well and has many divine weapons and treasures with her.

But at this moment, the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden also took a step forward.

"You wish to interfere too?" Qin Zheng's wife glared at the Mystical Maiden.

The Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden didn't say anything, she simply stood there calmly. Her attitude was clear.

The eyes of the heavenly deities from many peak powers flashed. Despite Qin Ding's domineering attitude, the Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden still wanted to protect Qin Wentian. They felt that there might be some secret agreements behind this. Maybe Qin Zheng was right. Qin Wentian might have come to some agreements with the two of them or why would they keep protecting Qin Wentian?

Seems like Qin Wentian didn't come here today to simply wreck the wedding. He came here prepared, he didn't come here to die.

At this moment, countless chains formed by the divine punishment light shot towards Qin Wentian only to see Qin Wentian lifting that enlarged black rod, slashing it towards the chains. The chains actually crumbled upon contact, the black rod continued its upwards momentum and smashed directly into the divine punishment formation. In an instant, that formation trembled violently. Qin Zheng's body trembled as well. He felt that his soul was attacked.

At this moment, the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan stepped out. In an instant, all of them unleashed their auras, causing the sky to change color as terrifying dao arts were unleashed. Divine might flooded the area.

"You want to cripple me?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. He took a step forward and crossed space, directly appearing before a heavenly deity from the Qin Clan. The God Slaughter Rod transcended time and space, it was so quick that its speed was simply unbelievable as it slammed down towards that heavenly deity.

The Qin Wentian now was someone who could defeat Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian. Even if the Qin Clan was one of the top-tiered hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the number of people in the Qin Clan who could deal with him could truly be counted on one's fingers.

That heavenly deity lifted his arms and attacked. His dao was concealed within his palm and he attacked with enough power to shatter the sky. However, upon contact with the rod, his entire body seemed to be struck by lightning. Even his soul was shaking.

"RUMBLE!" Another rod strike smashed down. Qin Wentian's speed was quick to the extreme, surpassing time and space. But at this moment, a beam of treasure light radiated. A resplendent armor appeared in the air, blocking the God Slaughter Rod. When the rod slammed into the armor, a thunderous bang echoed. The treasured armor flew back as Qin Dangtian's figure appeared there.

The Qin Dangtian at this moment has already struggled free from his dispirited state. Although it was impossible to say that his state of heart was unaffected, but at the very least, he had to capture Qin Wentian first. He was a heavenly deity with supreme talent, his dao heart wouldn't collapse so easily from one defeat to the point where he couldn't tell what was important.

"A loser dog still daring to fight me?" Qin Wentian stared at Qin Dangtian, his eyes gleaming with arrogance. Such a gaze caused Qin Dangtian to feel extremely uncomfortable in his heart. However, Qin Wentian precisely did so, he wanted the dao heart of Heaven's Son of the Qin Clan to crumble apart. Once, how arrogant was Qin Dangtian? He crippled Luoshen Yu right after he broke through to the deity realm. Qin Wentian wanted Qin Dangtian to remember this humiliation.

Behind Qin Wentian, a dimensional storm appeared. The dimensional space dao descended, forming numerous black holes that could devour everything.

Also, countless ancient words revolved around Qin Wentian. These ancient words danced in the air and entered the dimensional storm before vanishing. However, the other heavenly deities from the Qin Clan naturally didn't dare to be careless. After all, Qin Wentian was Qin Yuanfeng's son. Qin Wentian's strength has already reached an extremely terrifying level, exceeding that of Qin Yuanfeng when Qin Yuanfeng killed his way into the Qin Clan.

Also, he wasn't alone. The Qiankun Sect Leader and the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden was backing him up. Clearly, his fate wouldn't be the same as his father.

"KILL!" As Qin Wentian spoke, those ancient words directly broke out from the void, appearing in the locations near those heavenly deities. They transformed into fearsome beams of spacetime sword dao energy, annihilating everything. Each ancient word contained dao energy, also, they didn't simply target a single person, they targeted all the heavenly deities from the Qin Clan.

Although there were some ancient existences among the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan present here, in fact, some of them were even older than Qin Ding. However, their strengths were clearly inferior to Qin Ding and Qin Zheng. If not, the position of the Qin Clan Leader wouldn't be given to Qin Zheng. Only if a person within the clan had the strength to surpass others in the older generation, would he be allowed to control the clan.

Qin Dangtian released his Absolute Beginning Astral Soul. The Absolute Beginning Dao started to assimilate and devour the energy from the spacetime sword dao. Although he had lost to Qin Wentian, there was no need to doubt that he was extremely powerful too.

"In that case, come at me together." Qin Wentian stared at Qin Dangtian and the other heavenly deities. The dimensional storm shot towards a heavenly deity, intending on obliterating everything. That heavenly deity manifested divine seals to block the storm but at this moment, a black rod suddenly flew out from the dimensional storm, containing incomparably power, as it smashed down on the heavenly deity. At that moment, the deity's soul spasmed. He couldn't control his body.

"Careful!" A heavenly deity beside shouted. The dimensional storm then enlarged and wanted to devour the earlier heavenly deity, but the deity beside him hurriedly grabbed him and sped away, avoiding this killing strike. The God Slaughter Rod once again vanished into the dimensional storm. However, the heavenly deities now were filled with fear. All of them had wariness in their hearts with regards to that black rod.

"Deity-level battle." In the Qin Clan, countless people glanced at the sky, looking at the scenes of devastation. The destruction light stacked upon each other, causing the sun to dim. The experts who were currently fighting were all heavenly deities. It has been a very long time in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms since such a large-scale deity-level battle occurred.

Below, countless experts soared into the battlefield in the air. A loud shout thundered through the sky as a gigantic kui ox appeared. This kui ox was wielding a divine ox spear that had the power to pierce through the skies. The kui ox directly lunged towards Qin Wentian, and when a dimensional storm shot over, the divine ox spear pierced out, shattering it completely.

The sight of this caused Qin Wentian to frown.

"The Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan has acted." The hearts of everyone trembled. The grudge between the Divine Ox Clan and Qin Wentian was extremely deep. It truly wasn't easy for them to endure it to this point before they acted. The situation just got more dangerous for Qin Wentian.

Upon seeing this, another expert soared into the air. This man was very young. His countenance was bloodlessly pale as countless grey streams of air flowed around him. The grey streams transformed into a terrifying head as he prepared to attack as well.

"Ziwei Divine Court, Yue Changkong."

Everyone trembled again. Although the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace wanted to protect Qin Wentian, even more people wanted Qin Wentian to die. The ox deities of the Divine Ox Clan were in the air, and Yue Changkong just got added into the mix. Qin Dangtian and the other heavenly deities from the Qin Clan were present as well. No matter how heaven-defying Qin Wentian was, his fate was clearly more ominous than propitious.

Qin Wentian's body flashed as he fled into a dimensional storm before appearing at a location extremely far away in an instant. He stared at the heavenly deities swarming him. This situation was extremely disadvantageous for him.

Numerous figures rose into the air. It was likely because the Divine Ox Clan and Yue Changkong have acted, they triggered a chain reaction. The experts from the various peak powers could no longer sit by and do nothing.

"Bzz~" In the greyish dark sky, a beam of incomparably resplendent light suddenly flashed. After that, a sword beam seemed to cleave apart the sky and within the sword beam, a terrifying gigantic beast could be seen flying through the air. This was a Kunpeng, it was none other than the Kun Sovereign.

Multiple heavenly deities could be seen standing on the back of the Kun Sovereign. Luoshen Chuan, the Dragon Sovereign, the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign were all present. Other than them, Jian Junlai the Sword Monarch came as well. The earlier sword beam that cleaved apart the sky was launched by none other than Jian Junlai. On the wedding date of the Qin Clan, when most of the experts left the boundless sea region, Qin Wentian made a trip back there earlier and even went to several places before he showed up. All this was in preparation for an all-out rumble, a large-scaled deity-level war!

Chapter 1924: Headmaster Ye

The Kun Sovereign was known for his speed, he was the quickest of all heavenly deities under the sky. At the boundless sea region when the experts from the various peak powers set up a tight net, no one was able to stop him.

He instantly penetrated through space and arrived before Qin Wentian. Both parties already had an agreement. Qin Wentian's body flashed as he appeared on the Kun Sovereign's back. What they wanted wasn't a true battle. It was enough if they could retreat safely. After all, what he had to face was all the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Everyone, why must you force me so much? Could it be that you all don't understand those who act against me or try to get me to stay here today, will never ever have a chance to enter the Heaven Vault?" Qin Wentian stood on the Kun Sovereign's back as he spoke. His voice thundered through the air, causing the hearts of many experts to tremble.

For the deity-level battle today, the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace stood on Qin Wentian's side. Clearly, they would obtain the qualifications to enter the Heaven Vault.

Other than these two peak powers, there was still Qin Wentian's own forces, including the Luoshen Clan, Demon God Mountain and Sword Monarch Jian Junlai. Their combined strength has already became a threat that others couldn't ignore. Although this alliance was far from enough to contend against all the peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, they did have enough strength to protect themselves to a certain extent.

Qin Wentian used the Heaven Vault as his base. If he left today, it would be increasingly difficult to deal with him in the future.

"He must not be allowed to leave." The Prison God Clan Leader spoke. He soared into the air as a divine prison manifested, enveloping this entire space. Just like what Qin Wentian said, those who acted against him needn't think about entering the Heaven Vault but many people here have already offended him before. It didn't seem likely that those powers who offended him before would be allowed to enter.

Now, the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace would be able to enter the Heaven Vault, there might not be any changes in the short term but what about a thousand and ten thousand years later? The experts produced by these two peak powers would definitely be stronger compared to the rest.

The divine prison extended endlessly through the void, wanting to lock down the entire Qin City. However, the Kun Sovereign still soared into the sky before flying towards a direction. The divine prison was also a type of spatial dao energy. The Kun Sovereign's dao could allow him to bypass the power of all other daos.

But at this moment, the God Prison Clan Leader's expression was filled with cold disdain. He took out a square-shaped treasure and sent it flying up into the air. This treasure actually formed a resonance with the god prison region in the air. After that, boundless radiance erupted from it, causing the entire divine prison to tremble as the merging process began. In an instant, countless lines manifested, flowing around the surroundings of Qin City. The entire city was sealed off.

The Kun Sovereign roared. His dao sensed the power of this god prison. He actually had no way to exit. They were sealed here and this time, the Prison God Clan didn't simply construct a divine prison, they also used the supreme treasure of their clan. Although the Kun Sovereign's speed was unrivalled, he wasn't able to fly through the created prison that has fused with the supreme treasure.

The heavenly deities swarmed over, their auras rising up into the sky. The divine might they exuded was extremely terrifying. The faces of the Kun Sovereign and the others were all extremely unsightly.

"The person they want is me. If something happens, I shall bear it alone. Everyone, there's no need to fight to the death for me." Qin Wentian spoke softly. The reason why he came to the Qin Clan was for a private matter but everyone else was willing to come with him. This made him feel gratitude in his heart. But if, even after they had the help of the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace but still weren't able to escape, he didn't wish to implicate others.

These people wanted the Heaven Vault and he was the Heaven Vault's controller. Hence, if something really did happen, he would still be able to bear all of this alone.

"That time has still not arrived for that. Let's fight first." The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign's voice rang out. He flew off the Kun Sovereign's back as did Qin Wentian. He still had the black rod in his hand and as he attacked with it, all the heavenly deities rushing over could only choose to avoid.

Jian Junlai stepped out, a sword river manifested before him. His body seemed to be fused as one with the sword river, opening up an entire world. At this moment, a sword beam that radiated extreme sharpness appeared. Everywhere it passed by, the countenances of everyone changed. They wanted to avoid but the sword beam contained the properties of the laws of time. Their speed instantly slowed, while the sword river split into a million streams that shot out in all directions, like a meteor sword shower, shining resplendently.

"Ants trying to shake a tree. You guys are not strong enough to break free today." The Che Clan Leader also arrived. He stood ahead and had a divine scepter in his hand. He slammed out with it as an incomparably bright divine formation that seemed indestructible appeared. The Che Clan was the number one artificer clan in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They can create formations with a wave of their hands.

"Qin Wentian, there's no need to continue struggling. It wouldn't benefit you to drag this out." The Thunder Clan Leader also spoke. He transformed into a god of thunder and had a divine thunder hammer in his hand. He directly attacked Qin Wentian. In an instant, the destructive might of thunder and lightning blasted down from the sky. Qin Wentian created a dimensional blackhole but under the devastating power of the lightning and thunder, the dimensional blackhole shattered completely. Around Qin Wentian, a unique dao might locked the region, causing Qin Wentian's body to be numb from the electricity. He felt like his strength was being sapped away. This dao might domain clearly contained an extraordinary dao art attack.

"You will find it hard to escape even if you are given wings. Why don't you give up." The god of thunder raised the divine thunder hammer in his hands and continued to slam down with him. In an instant, this entire space transformed into a region of absolute thunder that constantly numbed Qin Wentian's body.

Yue Changkong watched from the side, waiting for an opportunity to act. Now, Qin Wentian was very strong, he had no choice but to admit this. Even though he had become a heavenly deity, he still wasn't Qin Wentian's opponent. However, all these wouldn't waver his heart. As long as he devoured Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian's strength would belong to him. The future Yue Changkong would only grow stronger and stronger.

Yue Changkong's body turned illusory, the greyish black streams of qi continued revolving around him. After that, they flowed through the air towards Qin Wentian.

The Che Clan Leader also moved over. With his divine scepter, his divine formation incorporated the power of the thunder domain. A terrifying vortex appeared, shooting straight for Qin Wentian wanting to bind his movements.

"Kacha~" A deafening blast rang out as the sky trembled. The heavenly deities who were battling felt their hearts shake. They inclined their heads and stared at the sky. Who dared to attack the supreme god prison?

At this moment outside the god prison, a gigantic heavenly hand could be seen. It smashed down with crushing momentum, causing the entire god prison to shudder violently. Cracks actually began to appear on the prison, causing the God Prison Clan Leader to frown.

Qin Dangtian inclined his head and stared at the sky. His expression froze. This gigantic heavenly hand seemed very familiar.

"Kacha~" The supreme god prison broke apart. That treasure flew back towards the Prison God Clan Leader but at this moment, the trapped space was no longer trapped. In the air, a figure floated down. This figure was an old man that seemed to be very unfamiliar. Not many people knew of him. But there were still some among the older generations who knew him.

Everyone who knew him only knew that his surname was Ye. And currently, he was the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy's Headmaster.

"The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy has never involved themselves with external matters before. Why are you interfering in this matter?" Qin Ding inclined his head, he coldly spoke when he saw the approaching figure. He had met with Headmaster Ye once before.

"Qin Wentian is a student of my sacred academy and has even entered the legendary place. He has a destiny with the sacred academy." Headmaster Ye calmly spoke. "Also, everyone here are peak characters of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. All of you are going all out just to handle a junior? Don't you all feel ashamed?"

"He monopolized the Heaven Vault, refusing entry to experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. All of us naturally wouldn't agree to that," an expert replied.

"Since he is the controller of the Heaven Vault, the matters in there naturally would have to follow his decision. The scene today is somewhat similar to the time when all of you arrived at the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to force us to open the world of reincarnation, feeling that that place should belong to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and not solely to my sacred academy." Headmaster Ye calmly spoke. The hearts of the people below trembled, this scene now was truly somewhat similar. Under the compulsion of benefits, the experts from the peak powers have joined forces to pressure their target once more.

"Seems like Headmaster Ye came here for vengeance." Qin Zheng coldly spoke.

"Qin Wentian, you leave first." Headmaster Ye spoke. Qin Wentian nodded lightly. "Many thanks senior."

After speaking, the Kun Sovereign descended. He climbed onto the Kun Sovereign's back and the Kun Sovereign directly flew into the clouds.

"Where do you think you are going?" Qin Ding icily spoke. The Judgement Halberd in his hands pierced out through the air. In an instant, the sky was transformed into a Yin-Yang Sky, the power of light and darkness isolating everything. The Kun Sovereign wanted to rush out, but he actually flew inside a Yin-Yang formation diagram instead. He wasn't able to find the exit.

"Foolish fantasy." Qin Ding spoke with disdain. The halberd pierced out once more as a shocking wave shot towards the Kun Sovereign. The Kun Sovereign shifted directions, wanting to evade yet the light beam from the Judgement Halberd could ignore all distances and created a heavy wound on the body of the Kun Sovereign, causing him to scream in pain.

"Qin Ding, you are going too far." Headmaster Ye spoke. He stepped out, moving towards Qin Ding, only to see the god of thunder appearing before him. The divine thunder hammer smashed down. Today, no one was allowed to help Qin Wentian escape.

Boundless thunder slammed towards the headmaster. His expression was incomparably calm, he simply stretched out his hand and grabbed out in the air. In an instant, the boundless thunder was actually fixed there. In fact, the entire space was fixed. An invisible corona light then enveloped the god of thunder. At this moment, the god of thunder felt an intense threat to his life. It felt like an invisible giant hand had him in its grasp. As long as the headmaster wanted to, he would be completely crushed.

The god of thunder that the Thunder Clan leader transformed into, decided to go all out. A surge of taboo energy erupted forth from him as his astral souls appeared. He summoned all the lightning and thunder from the nine heavens which he could muster, as he prepared to resist the invisible giant hand.

"What technique is this?" The god of thunder asked, as his heart trembled violently.

"Each individual has a fate tied to them. You all won't be able to determine Qin Wentian's fate." Headmaster Ye calmly spoke. After that, the giant hand formed from fate energy continued to apply pressure. The god of thunder howled in madness and in agony. He felt as though his fate was in the hands of the headmaster now. This feeling was unbearable, it was like no matter how much he fought against this, he wouldn't be able to win because no one can win against fate!

Many people stared at this battle. The reclusive headmaster of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was actually so powerful. Was this the reason why the sacred academy could exist for countless years?

Chapter 1925: Came From the Past

Every individual has their own fate. Was the headmaster of the sacred academy able to control the fates of others?

Such a dao art, wasn't this simply too terrifying? It was absolutely an ultimate dao that could allow one to walk on the path leading to the supreme.

Among the heavenly deities here, there were experts who went into the world of reincarnation back then. They suddenly recalled that when they were in the world of reincarnation, their starting point was similar to the one in the external world. Could it be that everything was predetermined? When they stepped into the world of reincarnation, their fates were already probed.

Qin Ding's expression was unsightly. It was fine even if the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace wanted to interfere. However, after that, the Demon God Mountain and Luoshen Chuan appeared and right now, even the headmaster of the sacred academy came here too. With regards to Headmaster Ye's strength, the vast majority of experts here weren't clear about it. After all, the sacred academy doesn't interfere with external matters. Everyone only knew how immensely powerful the headmaster was after he acted earlier.

The Che Clan Leader lifted his divine scepter. His formation expanded at a crazy rate. He took a step forward causing a sense of crisis to appear in Qin Wentian's heart. In the next moment, a fluctuation could be felt in the space before him and the Che Clan Leader directly walked out from it, swinging the scepter at Qin Wentian.

At the same time, more and more formations manifested, each of them producing a figure resembling the Che Clan Leader, with divine scepters in their hands. All of them attacked together. Under the influence of the gigantic divine formation permeating this entire area, no one could tell which figures were true or false.

The Kun Sovereign roared. His gigantic body shook as he directly soared through space, rushing towards a direction. However, a Che Clan Leader's clone manifested there. The scepter in the figure's hand transformed into a chaotic ancient mirror. If the Kun Sovereign flew into it, he would be completely swallowed up.

"Careful." The Dragon Sovereign reminded. The Che Clan was the number one artificer clan in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the divine weapons they wielded have a multitude of functions and are capable of transformations.

In another direction, more heavenly deities swarmed over, surrounding Qin Wentian. As for the battlefield over there at Headmaster Ye's location, they wouldn't bother with there. The person they wanted was Qin Wentian, who would want to go and fight against the powerful headmaster of the sacred academy?

Qin Wentian's gaze was cold. Seems like these people were prepared to pay any price to make him stay behind.

He stepped out, dismounting from the Kun Sovereign's back and prepared for battle.

At this moment, within the center of his brows, a beam of light actually shot out. The origin of this light was from within his final astral soul, within the starry space inside there. After this beam of light shot out, it actually took on a human form. As he appeared, he grabbed outwards ferociously and in an instant, the Che Clan Leader's clones felt as though the space around them was crumbling apart. With an explosive bang, all the Che Clan Leader's figures in that direction were completely obliterated.

The other figures froze when they saw this person. Why would there be another expert of this caliber appearing here suddenly?

Qin Wentian was also stunned when he saw this figure. He didn't dare to believe his eyes, how could this be possible?

That figure was incomparably imposing. With a single glance, terrifying might erupted from him, enveloping this vast space. He stared at the deity-level battles as he opened his mouth. In the next moment, he suddenly let out a thunderous roar. Crumbling sounds instantly rang out as the space cracked and the sky crumbled. Countless daos were shattered. Those who were in combat instantly stopped as countless gazes turned towards this figure.

With a single roar, the god of thunder coughed out blood. His face was as pale as paper. He, who was a peak-level character, was now trembling. This wasn't because of that roar, but was because of the gigantic heavenly hand that had his fate within it. With a single grab, the headmaster of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy could actually control his fate. He only managed to struggle free now.

The thunderous roar echoed through the sky. Many people felt their eardrums trembling. The bodies of some of the ordinary deities was trembling as well. The spacetime around them wasn't stable. Great waves of emotions arose in their hearts. Where did this terrifying figure come from?

Some of the experts from the older generations in the Qin Clan involuntarily shuddered and many people turn paled as their expressions contorted.

How could this be possible? How did he appear here?

The thunderous roar gradually stopped but the echoes continued. This roar caused all the experts here to be stunned, the deity-level battles also stopped.

That figure turned and stared at the Qin Clan. The majestic Qin Palace was as impressive as ever. However, the gaze when he used to look at the members of the Qin Clan, was no longer the same as the past. Right now, his eyes flickered with the flames of anger.

The old sect leader from the Qiankun Sect started when he saw this imposing figure. After that, a faint smile appeared on his face. He has actually appeared. This time, the Qin Clan's matter should be resolved, right?

Qin Ding stared at that figure as his gaze froze there. How could he appear here?

"Grandfather!" Qin Wentian called out, there was a slight tremble in his voice. Back then within the Heaven Vault when he was trying to connect with all the constellations, the Gods Extinction Path had already vanished. That was something formed from Godking Xi's will, his grandfather naturally vanished along with it. But now, why was he able to appear here?

His grandfather told him once before that he had already died. In that case, what was happening now?

"Child, my heart wouldn't be willing to accept things if I could not return to the Qin Clan." Qin Tiangang spoke. His gaze swept over to the experts in the surroundings as he coldly continued, "Today, who wished to touch my grandson?"

Only now did the experts here know of this man's identity.

He was actually a character that was rumored to be dead. One of the twin supreme geniuses from the Qin Clan in the past, an extremely ancient existence, someone of equal fame with Qin Ding. He was none other than the war god of Qin Clan, Qin Tiangang.

Now, he has returned. He said that his heart wouldn't be willing to accept things if he didn't return to the Qin Clan.

This unwillingness naturally didn't refer to his longing for the Qin Clan. It was for the Qin Clan's betrayal.

The Qin Clan actually treated his descendants like that.

After speaking, Qin Tiangang stepped out. This single step seemed to be stepped upon the hearts of everyone from the Qin Clan.

Those of the junior generations finally knew the identity of this man. This man was once the war god of the Qin Clan.

The people of the Qin Clan treated Qin Wentian as the son of a traitor and felt no guilt at all. But in the face of Qin Tiangang, things were different. Many of the junior generations, including the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan, grew up under the shade of his legend. Qin Tiangang has also taken the Qin Clan as his pride but now, the Qin Clan actually hunted down his son and was now trying to take his grandson's life? Hence, when Qin Tiangang appeared, many people lowered their heads in shame, not daring to meet his eyes.

"Qin Jun, you are already a heavenly deity now. Back then your family members was surrounded by enemies, who saved you all?" Qin Tiangang turned his gaze onto a heavenly deity of the Qin Clan. His words caused that heavenly deity to freeze. The heavenly deity lowered his head, not daring to look Qin Tiangang in the eye.

"Qin Wang, back then your talent was not bad and you liked to learn. You would often come to me to consult with me about the dao. How have I treated you throughout the years?" Qin Tiangang turned to another heavenly deity as he spoke.

"Uncle Mu. Back then, how much did I sacrifice for the Qin Clan? You should have the answer in your heart and you know the facts much clearer than any of these juniors." Qin Tiangang turned to an extremely old heavenly deity from the Qin Clan. The status of this old man was even higher than Qin Tiangang and Qin Ding.

Many people in the Qin Clan lowered their heads. As for the current juniors, they clearly felt the strangeness of the atmosphere. Qin Wentian's grandfather was actually so imposing?

"But how did the Qin Clan treat my descendants?" Qin Tiangang's voice suddenly turn to ice, suppressed anger could be heard from it.

"Qin Yuanfeng is a traitor. He should die. What mistake did the clan make?" A cold voice rang out, it was a heavenly deity that has always supported Qin Ding.

"I obtained a supreme treasure and passed it to my son. And because of this, the Qin Clan hunted down my son Yuanfeng and seized everything away from him. Now, the Qin Clan is going to act against my grandson Qin Wentian. You tell me that the Qin Clan didn't make a mistake?" Qin Tiangang coldly laughed. All of a sudden, he made a grab outwards.

"Careful." Qin Ding reminded but it was too late. With a single grab, the space and time here was completely under Qin Tiangang's control. That heavenly deity who spoke earlier was trapped inside a gigantic palm. No matter what techniques he unleashed, he wasn't able to struggle free.

"There shouldn't be a mistake, right?" Qin Tiangang spoke in a light voice. As the sound of his voice faded, he soared into the air and punched out with a fist, slamming into the chest of the heavenly deity. His body followed his punching motion and blasted the heavenly deity downwards. After that, an explosive boom rang out as the ancient buildings in that area inside the Qin Clan were destroyed completely. That heavenly deity was buried within the ruins.

Rumbling sounds echoed. The broken pieces of the buildings disintegrated, not a speck of dust could stain Qin Tiangang. He stood in the middle of the ruins and stared at the pale faces of the members from the Qin Clan. "Since there is no mistake, the Qin Clan killed my son and act against my grandson, I won't let down our ancestors even if I kill the Qin Clan's members today."

Even heavenly deities couldn't stand against a single strike from him.

The experts here all felt their hearts trembling. Everything that happened today was already completely out of control. No one could anticipate this.

The war god of the Qin Clan, Qin Tiangang, actually returned.

"Tiangang." At this moment, Qin Ding walked over. He spoke, "The matters back then happened because I gave the order. But the Qin Clan is still your home, why must you act in this way?"

"My home?" Qin Tiangang stared at Qin Ding as he coldly laughed. "If it is my home, the Qin Clan wouldn't have killed my son or acted against my grandson, wanting to take his life."

"Everything, is for the greater good. All the decisions made were to strengthen the Qin Clan." Qin Ding spoke. He stared at Qin Tiangang, "Tiangang, back then. Every life item you left shattered, you should have died, right? How did you come back?"

"You want to know if I'm dead or still alive?" Qin Tiangang coldly laughed. "Qin Ding, you are as hypocritical as ever. I won't lie to you. I've already died inside Gods Extinction Path. I believe you knew that I met Wentian in there and after the me in that spacetime learned everything that has happened, my heart is filled with unwillingness. I wanted to come back to the Qin Clan and ask all of you, why are you all so utterly heartless?"

"I still don't understand. Since you are dead, how can you return?" Qin Ding asked again.

"When one's dao reaches the pinnacle, they can go back to the past or head to the future. I came from the past to the future as my heart was filled with reluctance." Qin Tiangang didn't hide the truth about his death. As the sound of his voice faded, Qin Ding's gaze froze. The experts here also felt their hearts trembling. His heart was filled with reluctance, he came from the past to the future.

He has not died yet in the past. The resentment he felt made him travel all the way to the future.

He came back to the Qin Clan. He wanted to ask the Qin Clan's members why they were so heartless!

His dao must have touched the edge of that realm. That realm where many heavenly deities dreamt about. However, Qin Tiangang has already died!

Chapter 1926: To Sink

Although many people, including Qin Ding, were enemies with Qin Tiangang. At this moment, they couldn't help but feel pity. An expert whose dao reached the pinnacle of his current level, touching the edge of that next realm, has actually died.

How powerful would one be if one's dao reached the pinnacle? Although Godking Xi had died, his body was transformed into the Heaven Vault, his thoughts transformed into the Gods Extinction Path. His soul, transformed into the tiny astral-being. How heaven-defying was that? That was something even heavenly deities wouldn't dare to imagine.

Right now, Qin Tiangang's methods were simply shocking.

He had already died but he passed through time to come to the future, his heart filled with reluctance.

"My brother, if you want to hate, you can hate me. Everything I did was for the clan. I have no guilt in my heart." Qin Ding stared at Qin TIangang as he spoke.

"HAHAHA, what a good 'no guilt in my heart.'" Qin Tiangang laughed uproariously. After that, he turned towards the Qin Clan and spoke, "For the Qin Clan's territories, how much effort have I rendered? At the end, all my sacrifices ended up benefiting you, Qin Ding, and your son Qin Zheng. I ignored the risk to my life and barged into the Heaven Vault, managing to obtain the secret treasure. I passed it to Yuanfeng yet you all actually conspired to take it for him? You all want to take everything, I, Qin Tiangang, have ever possessed. Is this what you mean by no guilt?"

The people of the Qin Clan were speechless, they didn't have any words to defend their actions. Back then, Qin Ding managed to gain authority. If Qin Tiangang didn't die, everything would be fine, he would be able to suppress Qin Ding's ambitions. Sadly, Qin Tiangang died and the supreme secret treasure was in Qin Yuanfeng's hands. Qin Ding wanted that treasure, feeling that it was his right. The people of the Qin Clan didn't feel that it was a mistake for their clan leader to possess that treasure. Thus, they obeyed his commands. Other than a small group of people that was loyal to Qin Tiangang, everyone else turned. None from Qin Tiangang's faction stood out to support Qin Yuanfeng. His subordinates, save for the closest ones, all betrayed him.

This was the general situation then. But now, Qin Tiangang has returned. What else could the Qin Clan say to him?

"Back then, I once put in so much effort for the sake of the clan. In that case today, I shall personally destroy the clan. This is what the Qin Clan owes me." Qin Tiangang coldly spoke. A fearsome tempest manifested, ravaging its surroundings inside the Qin Clan. Trails of space and time laws flooded the area, terrifying to the extreme. Explosions rang out constantly as the majestic buildings and other constructions here crumbled one by one. Many experts within screamed in misery as they were crushed to death.

Qin Tiangang closed his eyes. This was his clan, but his heart was filled with hatred.

His clan didn't simply hunt those who remained loyal to him, they even killed his son and stole everything away from his son and was now acting against his grandson.

"Those years ago, all the heavenly deities in the Qin Clan that participated in the killing of my son. To think that there would be such a ruthless clan under the heavens." Qin Tiangang stepped out, causing earthquakes to shake the area of the Qin Palace.

"You can't do this." A heavenly deity stepped out, wanting to block Qin Tiangang. This was none other than Qin Jun, someone whose family was saved by Qin Tiangang.

"Back then, I saved your family but you repaid my kindness with maliciousness, killing my son and hunting down my grandson. Since this is the case, Qin Jun, return your life to me." Qin Tiangang spoke. He punched out as the space in the area broke apart. Terrifying spatial cracks appeared around Qin Jun, wanting to tear everything apart.

"No…" Qin Jun's expression drastically changed, becoming one of terror. Why was Qin Tiangang so powerful?

BOOM! The punch landed. Qin Jun's body exploded into pieces. Yet another deity has died. In the area outside the Qin Clan, the countless people here no longer fought. Qin Tiangang's return made the deity-level battles cease. Silence was everywhere. Qin Tiangang came through time, bringing with him unwillingness, coming back here for revenge.

Numerous screams rang out unceasingly from the Qin Clan.

Qin Ding's expression was cold. He didn't bother with Qin Tiangang and directly rushed towards the location Qin Wentian was in.

With a single step, Qin Ding passed through space. The Judgement Halberd in his hand pierced out as a beam of destructive light shot forth, penetrating through all daos, shooting right at Qin Wentian.

A giant palm imprint shot out, resembling a heavenly hand, blocking the beam of light from the halberd. Headmaster Ye appeared beside Qin Wentian.

"Qin Ding!" Qin Tiangang roared. He smashed out with his hand towards the Qin Clan and after that, he turned around, shooting towards Qin Ding.

Qin Ding did this precisely because he wanted to draw Qin Tiangang into a battle with him. Although Qin Tiangang's dao had come in contact with the pinnacle, he was still a dead man after all. How much combat strength would he have? Qin Ding wasn't afraid.

His body soared into the sky and the Judgement Halberd in his hand directly stabbed out. Yin and Yang appeared in the sky, brimming with destructive might.

Qin Tiangang howled in rage. He opened his mouth and swallowed, resembling a heaven devouring beast and actually swallowed up the Yin-Yang Sky. His mouth seemed to contain a boundless space, capable of swallowing everything.

"Grandfather, we will go and save Senior Han." Qin Wentian spoke. Back then, Qin Wentian had the intentions to trade his hostage for Luoshen Han and the ten world overlords but that transaction failed.

Luoshen Han and the ten overlords were still captives of the Qin Clan.

"Senior Kun." Qin Wentian spoke. The Kun Sovereign's body flashed, speeding directly into the Qin Clan. Many experts were in the surrounding, including those heavenly deities who acted against Qin Wentian earlier. However, no one moved to block Qin Wentian. Right now with Qin Dangtian here, they all had trepidation in their hearts.

The war god Qin Tiangang was simply too powerful. Ordinary deities were like ants before him. Before his fight with Qin Ding ended, no one dared to do anything recklessly.

In addition, the two sect leaders of the Qiankun Sect, the Nine Heavens Mystical Palace as well as Headmaster Ye from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy were present as well. They would never allow these people to kill Qin Wentian.

In such a situation, these people could only observe. No one was willing to step into this. If Qin Tiangang suddenly turned to them in his anger, only a path of death would remain for them.

The Kun Sovereign flew through the sky, entering the depths of the Qin Clan. Divine senses of the heavenly deities stretched out endlessly and instantly located Luoshen Han and the ten overlords from the Luoshen Clan. They were trapped inside a spatial divine treasure. They also saw everything that happened outside and were feeling very emotional. Now, they have a chance to be freed from imprisonment.

The light of divine punishment bore down. Qin Zheng wanted to obstruct this but Luoshen Chuan summoned a million demonic beasts to block him. Luoshen Chuan flew over, directly engaging Qin Zheng in combat.

Qin Zheng's wife also wanted to act. The Dragon Sovereign flew into the sky to block her.

Qin Dangtian came over, the Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign stepped out, rushing straight for him.

Jian Junlai also helped to block the heavenly deities of the Qin Clan. No one was able to stop the Kun Sovereign. They could only watch as the Kun Sovereign continued flying through the air.

"Kill Luoshen Han." Qin Zheng commanded, his voice was as cold as ice.

There was a heavenly deity guarding the area. After he heard the order, the spatial prison suddenly released a boundless radiance as dao might erupted forth.

But at this moment, a sword beam penetrated through everything, brimming with the power of time and space. Buzzing sounds rang out, the sword beam was unfathomably fast, and it blasted into the spatial prison. An explosive boom rang out as the prison shattered. Qin Wentian stepped out and flew towards that heavenly deity. A dimensional storm manifested, the heavenly deity had no choice but to retreat.

In this short instant, the Kun Sovereign already arrived at where Luoshen Han and the ten overlords were. They had looks of joy on their faces. After that, they climbed onto the Kun Sovereign's back.

"Let's leave." The Kun Sovereign spoke.

"Let me kill this man first." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. There are quite a lot of heavenly deities in the Qin Clan but several have already been killed. Now, since he has the chance to kill one more, he naturally wouldn't stay his hand.

With a single glance, that heavenly deity sank into an illusion within Qin Wentian's eyes, he was brought into a spacetime created by Qin Wentian.

Right now, the number of deities in the Qin Clan that could block Qin Wentian were truly not many at all.

The people from afar saw the combat here as well as the situation in the Qin Clan. Their hearts trembled silently. Today was supposed to be a day of joy, a grand wedding. Qin Dangtian was to wed the number one beauty in the Heaven Region, Goddess Nichang. Most probably, no one would have ever imagined that the powerful Qin Clan would actually be faced with a calamity today.

For this calamity, even if it was the powerful Qin Clan, they were still at risk of total annihilation.

At this moment in the depths of the Qin Clan, a terrifying aura gushed out, causing chills in the hearts of everyone.

"What is the Qin Clan hiding?" Many people stared in that direction. After that, they heard a heavy sound as the aura grew more and more terrifying.

"Wentian, let's leave!" The Kun Sovereign spoke. Qin Wentian has already killed that heavenly deity. After that, his body flashed as he appeared again on the Kun Sovereign's back. The Kun Sovereign directly shot through the air. Qin Zheng and the others didn't dare to block them. Given the situation now, they no longer possessed the advantage.

"What aura is that?" Qin Chuan stared in the direction. Over there, a stone tablet actually cracked. There were words on the stone tablet indicating that this was the gravestone of a Qin Clan's ancestor. When the cracks appeared on that stone tablet, its color suddenly turned red. The stone tablet was dripping blood.

The blood aura grew stronger and stronger as terrifying beams of blood light shot towards the sky.

Qin Ding, who was in combat against Qin Tiangang, felt a resonance in his heart. The halberd in his hand arced through the sky and pointed downwards. At this moment, countless beams of blood light shot up from the Qin Clan and merged into the Judgement Halberd. These terrifying beams of blood caused the aura of the halberd to become even more oppressive.

At this moment, everyone thought of a rumor. The Judgement Halberd was formed by the dao of an immensely powerful ancestor of the Qin Clan. Could it be that the owner of the blood was...When they thought of this, the hearts of many people trembled.

"Tiangang, your actions have even angered the ancestor." Qin Ding spoke.

"The heavens and earth are heartless. If the ancestor feels that your actions are right. In that case, he isn't worthy to be my ancestor." Qin Tiangang coldly spoke. He slammed out a punch towards the ground, causing more places inside the Qin Clan to be devastated. It was like he wanted to shatter the stone tablet. So what even if it was the gravestone of an ancestor? To Qin Tiangang, his son and grandson were the people most important to him. His son was hunted down and now the Qin Clan even wanted to touch his grandson? Who cares if you are my ancestor or not?

The blood beams disappeared, the ancestor's blood flowed into the Judgement Halberd. This caused the entire sky to be painted red with blood light. The might from the halberd was many times stronger than before.

"Your life is something the ancestor has given. You are already dead yet you still want to return and take revenge on the clan? Now, the ancestor wants you to disappear for good." Qin Ding spoke. As the sound of his voice faded away, the Judgement Halberd slammed out. At this moment, the light of judgement enveloped everything. A powerful judgement beam shot out. There was no way to escape.

Qin Tiangang could sense the halberd's power. He didn't escape but actually flew towards the the judgement beam as he calmly spoke, "I'm already dead. What do I have to fear? However, you will be buried here with me."

After speaking, his hands formed divine gestures. The entire space trembled. The sky seemed to be stripped away as the natural order of the heavens and earth turned chaotic.

Cracks appeared in the sky. The cracks were incomparably black, causing fear in the hearts of those who saw it. Qin Ding turned ashen when he saw the spacetime cracks in the surroundings. He stared at Qin Tiangang, he was no longer able to maintain his calmness. He howled in rage, "WHAT ARE YOU DOING?!"

"I want you to sink inside chaotic space, lost in time forever." Qin Tiangang's voice rang out. The cracks spread further and further, combining together to form a hole that dragged both Qin Tiangang and Qin Ding inside. After that, the hole vanished completely into the darkness.

At this moment, no sound could be heard. The silence was so loud that it was deafening!

Chapter 1927: The Curtain Drops

Qin Tiangang and Qin Ding vanished together, entering the chaotic space. Qin Tiangang who was able to come here through time evidently meant that his insights into the dao of time have already a certain level.

Qin Ding, the strongest expert in the Qin Clan with the Judgement Halberd in his hand was actually pulled into chaotic space by Qin Tiangang. One must know that Qin Tiangang was someone who was already dead. He doesn't exist now in this time, he came from the past. His return caused the Qin Clan to encounter a true calamity which threatened complete annihilation.

If in the past, the Qin Clan might be one of the strongest hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, now, their ranking has no doubt fallen. At the very least, the Qiankun Sect was now more powerful than the Qin Clan.

This might be a turning point. The majestic Qin Clan was going to fall from their path of glory and begin to decline.

"BOOM!" The space suddenly trembled as a bloody crack appear in the sky. A terrifying energy burst forth, the Judgement Halberd actually penetrated its way out from the chaotic space, flying straight into the depths of the Qin Clan. After that, a thunderous boom rang out. The Judgement Halberd pierced itself into the ground, at the location where the bleeding stone tablet was.

"The Judgement Halberd could actually return." The eyes of everyone narrowed as they stared at the sky. For a long moment, there was nothing else. Qin Ding couldn't return.

The judgement halberd might only be able to return due to link of blood from the stone tablet. This halberd was constructed by an ancestor from the Qin Clan. His remnant will was inside it.

"Father." Qin Zheng clenched his fists, staring at the sky. The Judgement Halberd has returned but his father didn't. He took out his messaging crystal wanting to contact his father but there was no reply. His father had vanished completely, dragged into chaotic space by Qin Tiangang, where he would be lost in time.

Above the ruins of the Qin Clan, countless experts watched as Qin Ding disappeared. There was an indescribable emotion in their hearts.

Ancient records of the Qin Clan stated that once, the existence of Qin Ding and Qin Tiangang allowed the Qin Clan to welcome a period of absolute glory. The two powerful experts caused the Qin Clan to grow stronger and stronger.

But later on, the Qin Clan acted against Qin Tiangang's son. Now, Qin Tiangang came back with unwillingness in his heart, destroying everything he had done for the Qin Clan. Was he wrong?

How had the Qin Clan treated his son and grandson?

"Grandfather…" Qin Wentian stood on the Kun Sovereign's back, staring at the sky. His father traveled through time, slaughtered heavenly deities, devastated the Qin Clan, and buried Qin Ding. How imposing was that?

However right now, his grandfather also vanished again.

If he could choose, he would rather choose a reality where his grandfather Qin Tiangang could live on in this world. He didn't wish that his grandfather would perish together with Qin Ding.

At this moment, Qin Zheng walked towards the Judgement Halberd. He stretched his hand and grabbed the halberd. Fresh blood flowed towards his palm, causing his entire body to glow with a blood-colored light as his hair fluttered in the air. It was like he was inheriting the Judgement Halberd.

A stifling might gushed forth from the Judgement Halberd, like it wanted to judge the people of the world. Qin Zheng's eyes turned red. His black hair was dyed with blood as well. He wielded the halberd and stared at the sky. His eyes were terrifying to look at, a beam of blood-colored light then shot up into the sky.

"ARGH~" A long howl echoed out with his rage. The blood-colored light engulfed the sky, the entire Qin City, everything seemed to be trapped within.

The Qiankun Sect Leader frowned. He sensed the power of this might. He walked towards Qin Wentian and spoke, "Qin Wentian, the matters here are concluded. We should leave now."

Qin Wentian stared at the Qiankun Sect Leader. Although the two of them came to an agreement and were temporary allies, but it was clearly impossible for him to ask the Qiankun Sect Leader to help him kill Qin Zheng. Even though Qin Ding vanished, the Qiankun Sect would never do this. Creating a strong enemy that would be dead-set against them didn't lie in their interest.

The Qiankun Sect wouldn't agree. The Nine Heavens Mystical Palace wouldn't do so as well. As for the headmaster of the sacred academy, Qin Wentian had no rights to request the headmaster to do anything. After all, this was also the first time he met with Headmaster Ye. His heart was already filled with endless gratitude that the headmaster was willing to come all the way here to help him. Could it be he could be shameless enough to ask the headmaster to help him destroy the Qin Clan?

He glanced at the surroundings, numerous gazes from the other experts were also looking at him. Many people still felt ambitions stirring their hearts, wanting to capture him, the controller of the Heaven Vault.

Qin Wentian then cast his glance at Qin Zheng, who seemed to be on the verge of going crazy, as his expression turned cold.

"Grandfather, you are right. The Qin Clan isn't worthy enough to be our clan. The things you didn't finish, your grandson will finish it for you." Qin Wentian stared at the sky. He then spoke, "Senior Kun, let's go back."

"Right." The Kun Sovereign nodded. Luoshen Chuan and the other experts returned to the Kun Sovereign's back as the Kun Sovereign took off.

"Let's go." The old sect leader of the Qiankun Sect commanded. The Nine Mystical Maiden Palace retreated as well. In an instant, the experts on Qin Wentian's side respectively departed. This time, there was no longer anyone who blocked them. Evidently, everyone understood that it was impossible for them to capture Qin Wentian today. Although Qin Tiangang and Qin Ding both perished, the headmaster from the sacred academy and the Qiankun Sect's previous generation leader were still here. Who would be able to win against them?

The Kun Sovereign's speed was extremely fast, instantly soaring into the clouds before vanishing from sight. The people from the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace also left, leaving behind the experts from the other powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to stare up into the sky in a daze.

They glanced at the ruins of the Qin Clan as well as Qin Zheng who was still refining the Judgement Halberd with his blood. Everything seemed like a dream. Even now, no one dared to believe that everything that happened was real.

There were also people staring at Qin Dangtian. Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian stood in the air above the ruins dispiritedly. His once elegant looking hair was now disheveled. It was like he suffered a mental setback. He looked defeated.

Today, to Heaven's Son, was truly a disaster.

Once, he fought against the Skyorder Heavenly Deity the moment he broke through and crippled him. How glorious was that?

Today, he was smashed into hell as he lost to Qin Wentian who was younger than him. Qin Wentian could be considered his clan brother. He also lost his fiancee, because 'something' happened between Qin Wentian and Nichang. He, who was the groom, naturally felt boundless humiliation from this.

Just like what Qin Wentian said, the title Heaven's Son was just a joke. From today onwards, no one would be awed by this title anymore. Everyone would only remember how pathetic Heaven's Son was. Qin Dangtian's fiancee was actually seized from him.

There were countless people living in Qin City. Many people knew what happened in the Qin Clan. When they saw the deity-level battle in the sky and the majestic buildings of the Qin Clan being destroyed, the symbol of faith in Qin City had collapsed. That immensely powerful clan has now became nothing but ruins.

Who would have thought that the date of the grand wedding for the Qin Clan actually turned out to be a day of destruction.

Those who heard of the Qin Clan's past rumors felt many emotions in their hearts. Once, Qin Yuanfeng has also defeated Qin Zheng. However, Qin Yuanfeng was hunted down by the Qin Clan and everything he possessed was seized away.

Now, Qin Yuanfeng's son Qin Wentian, came back and defeated Qin Zheng's son Qin Dangtian. However, Qin Wentian didn't suffer the same fate as his father. Not only did he not die, he also caused the Qin Clan to completely lose all face.

Naturally, the most impactful thing today was the return of Qin Tiangang, the once war god of the Qin Clan. His will traveled through time, he came back with unwillingness to the clan he once gave everything to fight for. He decided to tear down everything he once helped build, and buried Qin Ding into chaotic space where he would be lost forever in time.

Naturally, the Qin Clan suffered the most emotional impact from everything that happened.

The man that destroyed their Qin Clan was once their war god. Qin Tiangang was the pride of the Qin Clan. However, he actually came through time to take revenge. Who caused all of this? The culprit was none other than the Qin Clan themselves! They killed their war god's son, and even wanted to hunt down his grandson Qin Wentian.

Many of them felt regret. Why did the Qin Clan make such a choice in the past? If the Qin Clan didn't act against Qin Yuanfeng back then, how would today have happened?

Qin Zheng and his wife, in addition to Qin Yuanfeng. How much more powerful would the Qin Clan have been?

And in this generation, there was Qin Dangtian and Qin Wentian. How boundlessly radiant would their future be?

Just by thinking about that, many people felt their hearts trembling involuntarily. Although everything didn't seem realistic, but it was something the Qin Clan could have chosen once. Sadly, they picked the other path.

By rights, the Qin Clan had a chance to stand at the absolute pinnacle of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms in the future. But now, their strength in the Heaven Region was already eclipsed by the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace.

The wind gusted, breezing through everyone. However, everyone was still deep in their own world, lost in their thoughts. Their emotions were indescribable.

Everything that happened in the Qin Clan was also dispersed by the wind. First, Qin City, then the Heaven Region. And next, it would probably spread to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

An earthquake-level of commotion shook the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Countless people were discussing about the things that happened in the Qin Clan.

Qin Wentian's name resounded out once again through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He surpassed Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian. There were even people saying that Qin Wentian was then the true Heaven's Son. If not, why would he have twelve astral souls?

Similarly, War God Qin Tiangang's name also shook the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Many people felt regret at not being there to witness that deity-level battle. Sadly, they wouldn't have a chance to see Qin Tiangang's combat prowess anymore.

Also, the mysterious headmaster of the sacred academy was often mentioned by people too. With a casual grab, he could control the fates of his opponent. The Thunder Clan Leader was dominated in a single move. How terrifying was that? Hence, many people headed to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, situated in the Mystic Region, to cultivate and pay their respects.

Other than this, the name of Goddess Nichang was occasionally mentioned too. Many people sighed in their hearts when she was mentioned. This number one beauty in the Heaven Region...no one knew what her fate was.

Someone said that although Qin Wentian was unrivalled in the world. But he actually did such a cruel thing to Goddess Nichang for the sake of revenge. What he should do was to replace Qin Dangtian and marry Nichang, giving her a home to stay. If not, this black mark would most probably follow Goddess Nichang throughout her life.

Such voices were the most prevalent in Boundless City of the Heaven Region.

At the boundless sea region, the waves were still churning as usual. At the point where the sky connects to the sea, there were still many people there. However, the heavenly deities from the various peak powers were no longer around. How would they dare to appear here casually? Right now, the strength of the experts in the Heaven Vault has already reached a point strong enough that a peak power didn't dare to cross if they are alone.

Because, after that battle in the Qin Clan, news circulated out that the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace had sent their experts into the Heaven Vault. They clearly joined Qin Wentian's alliance.

The three peak powers in Heaven Region, two of the powers were allowed to enter the Heaven Vault. The Qin Clan was the exception. Qin Wentian has completely isolated the Qin Clan now!

Chapter 1928: Conversation in the Heaven Vault

The commotion this time around, undoubtedly had the greatest influence on the Qin Clan. After that, it would be the peak powers from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Although, from the surface of things, they didn't lose much from the deity-level battle, many powers had actually offended Qin Wentian. They were very clear on what this meant. As long as Qin Wentian continued to grow, and in the future right after he surpassed them, who could guarantee he wouldn't come back to seek them for revenge?

There was now a change to the general situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. In addition, there would be a greater change in the future.

There was news saying that Qin Wentian had a total of twelve astral souls. In fact, he might have even concealed more of his astral souls, not revealing them. He displayed outstanding talent, defeating Qin Dangtian. In the future, he might be the same as his grandfather who returned, Qin Tiangang, and reached the peak of the deity realm. If that day arrived, those powers who had offended him, even if they weren't exterminated, could they still be like now? Enjoying complete authority over an entire area?

Qin Wentian could depend on his talent and his advantage in the Heaven Vault. When that day arrived, all other powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would at most be able to become his vassal forces, his subordinates. This included the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace.

Nobody knew what the intention was of the person who circulated this rumor. It was like he wanted to drive a wedge between Qin Wentian, the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace. After all, there were currently many experts from these two hegemonic powers cultivating inside the Heaven Vault. Now, they were in an alliance. But if internal warfare occurs, wouldn't that be interesting?

At this moment, the Heaven Vault has also become a hegemonic power in its own right. The entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms felt uneasy about it.

Within the Heaven Vault, among the starry space, a group of people sat together enjoying a banquet.

Among these people were Qin Wentian, the Qiankun Sect Leader, the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden, Luoshen Chuan and the other heavenly deities.

"My Qiankun Sect sent news that there are a lot of rumors circulating outside that are very disadvantageous towards you. Clearly, many felt unwillingness in their hearts to let you go during that battle in the Qin Clan. Also, the talent you displayed caused them to feel uneasy." The Qiankun Sect Leader stared at Qin Wentian as he spoke. He sat together with Qin Wentian and there were also many emotions in his heart. If it was in the past, he definitely wouldn't imagine that a junior like Qin Wentian would be able to sit together with him on equal grounds.

But regardless of him or the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden, both of them didn't feel that Qin Wentian could sit as equals with them because he controls the Heaven Vault. Rather, it was because of the strength and talent Qin Wentian had displayed.

"From the time I became the controller of the Heaven Vault, wasn't all of this already determined? Either they kill me, or if they can't do so, they would naturally feel uneasy." Qin Wentian smiled. "However, that battle back in the Qin Clan was truly extremely dangerous. I naturally wouldn't dare to forget the kindness the sect leader and the mystical maiden has shown to me."

"Why did you choose us to be your allies?" The Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden stared at Qin Wentian as she asked.

Qin Wentian glanced at the mystical maiden, staring at this exceptional beauty. His eyes had undisguised admiration, she was too beautiful. Being able to look at her at such a close distance was a kind of enjoyment that delights one's heart. Her beauty was on the transcendent-level. She was the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden. The number one beauty in the nine heavens.

"Beautiful things are easier to cause others to have good will." Qin Wentian joked.

"You are really good with your words. The people in the outside world say that our powers are at the peak of the Heaven Region alongside with the Qin Clan. As for you, you are mortal enemies with them. Us joining you made it so that the Qin Clan is isolated." The mystical maiden smiled.

"Since mystical maiden already knows the answer, why are you still asking me?" Qin Wentian smiled.

"You chose the two of us because you expected the situation to develop like this. At that time, why didn't you invite more powers to join you? Are you worried that if there are too many peak powers in the mix, that might be a backlash to you? We might devour you instead and gain control of the Heaven Vault?" The Qiankun Sect Leader laughed as he asked, staring at Qin Wentian.

"The Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace is already so powerful. I would truly be afraid if more powers are added into the mix." Qin Wentian smiled, honestly replying.

"Haha, Qin Wentian, you are someone very direct. Now, there are also rumors in the outside world saying that if you could ascend to the pinnacle of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms in a thousand years, where would my Qiankun Sect and the Nine Heavens Mystical Palace go? Would we be devoured by you?" The Qiankun Sect Leader stared at Qin Wentian when he asked. Clearly, such voices affected him. This was after all a problem he had to consider carefully.

"Sect leader and mystical maiden are also currently cultivating in the Heaven Vault. Are you so not confident in yourselves?" Qin Wentian replied. He then added, "Why do you feel that it wouldn't be the two of you in the future ascending to the pinnacle instead?"

"Your growth makes people feel fear." The Qiankun Sect Leader directly stated. "According to Lin Xiao, a few hundred years ago, you entered the sacred academy with him together, heading into the world of reincarnation. Now, a few hundred years later, you could already defeat Qin Dangtian. Soon in the future, Qin Dangtian would be easily crushed by you. In addition, given the secret treasure you possess, you can break the limits imposed on stellar cultivators in terms of the number of astral souls. The headmaster of the sacred academy also acted for your sake. Hence, our faces are not so thick to think that we would be the ones ascending to the peak. If there's someone among us who is going to ascend to the very pinnacle, that person would undoubtedly be you."

The mystical maiden had the same thoughts as the Qiankun Sect Leader, she also stared at Qin Wentian. Both of them were peak characters of the hegemonic powers but in terms of potential, they clearly knew that they were inferior to Qin Wentian.

"If I ascend to the pinnacle, what does sect leader and mystical maiden hope for me to do?" Qin Wentian counter-asked. Clearly, these two hegemonic characters felt some worry.

The Qiankun Sect and the Nine Heavens Mystical Palace are both hegemonic powers, they naturally didn't wish to become someone's vassal.

The Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden didn't say anything. Qin Wentian asked again, "Right now in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, are there existences that surpass heavenly deities?"

"In the history of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there are indeed some existences who surpassed everything who had appeared. But for the current immortal realms, according to the common knowledge we all have, there are only rumors about one person who stands supreme, surpassing all heavenly deities. He is in the Universe Region, the Pureland of Bliss." The Qiankun Sect Leader replied. "The Universe Region has been incomparably stable for countless years. The other great regions in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are split to a few hegemonic powers, sharing governance. Only the Universe Region is different. The Pureland of Bliss is the ultimate ruler there. Everyone there believes in the buddhist dao."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. The Qiankun Sect Leader said that there are rumors about one person who stands supreme. This person must be an existence equal to a godking. But clearly, this person has not shown himself for countless years. Even the Qiankun Sect Leader couldn't be sure.

"What about the godkings of the past? The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have existed for countless years and have several heavenly deities. For godkings who are a level higher than heavenly deities, where are all of them now?" Qin Wentian asked. Godkings were at the epitome of absolute power. They wouldn't die of natural causes, they could say to be almost invincible characters.

"Although the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have existed for countless years, it's unknown how long it would take to produce a godking. And once, a shocking war had occurred before in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Maybe, many of the godkings have died in that war. Also, maybe, some of them sought to pursue the legendary supreme dao, aiming for the Transcendence Realm yet they all failed and died in the end." The Qiankun Sect Leader replied.

Qin Wentian nodded his head lightly. He knew of that battle. Once, the world-ending battle that occurred in Azure Mystic, that should be also considered as a shocking war, right? As for those who died while on the path of pursuing the ultimate supreme dao, wasn't Godking Xi a very good example?

Wanting to surpass the limitations imposed by the nine heavens. It was definitely a thing of absolute difficulty.

Qin Wentian also felt that there might be some godkings who already managed to reach the legendary Transcendent Realm after the countless years. However, these people who managed to do so most probably wouldn't care about anything else in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. At their level, what else do they have to fight for?

Qin Wentian thought of that mysterious white-robed young man he met before in the world of reincarnation. Was that man precisely at the so-called Transcendence Realm?

He turned his gaze back to the Qiankun Sect Leader and Mystical Maiden. Qin Wentian suddenly felt like laughing, "If there's one day where I really could reach that level, do the two of you feel that the battles for territories in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would hold any meaning to me?"

The eyes of the two of them flashed. Indeed, that was true. At that level, all of these would be meaningless to Qin Wentian.

"The other peak powers sent out those rumors because they have already offended me, or they did so because of their fear of the future. However, if such a character truly existed in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, do I even still need to conquer the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? Just by sitting anywhere, everyone in the immortal realms would rush over due to their reverence for me. At that time, even for you two seniors, would you still wish to control me? Rather, wouldn't it be the two of you seeking my guidance instead?" Qin Wentian calmly replied. The Qiankun Sect Leader and Mystical Maiden stared at him for a long time, they were both speechless.

If such a day truly arrived and Qin Wentian stood at the absolute pinnacle, reaching the Transcendence Realm, even just by sitting there the people of the world would undoubtedly rush over to bow in worship.

Chapter 1929: Suggestion

Qu Residence, Boundless City.

Right now, the atmosphere in the Qu Residence was exceptionally quiet. There was no sound at all.

Occasionally, when in the past, there would be people passing by and would gaze in the direction of the Qu Residence. In there, not only was there a heavenly deity, the number one beauty of the Heaven Region was there too. However, right now, the gate of the Qu Residence was tightly shut. The people there couldn't help but feel a little strange about it.

After experiencing the matter of the Qin Clan, Goddess Nichang's reputation went all the way to the ground. The holy and pure Goddess Nichang was no longer the same person as she was before.

At this moment, there were powerful spatial fluctuations in the air. After that, a figure appeared. He was extraordinarily handsome and clad in white. The passersby outside the Qu Residence felt their hearts trembling involuntarily when they saw him. They instantly managed to guess the identity of the person who just came.

Right now, no one's name was more resounding that this man in the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

This person was none other than Qin Wentian.

His divine sense swept out and when he saw the situation inside the Qu Residence, he involuntarily furrowed his brows. He stepped out and flew into the Qu Residence but that place was completely empty now.

No one was there.

Qu Shen and Goddess Nichang were no longer in the Qu Residence?

"What happened?" Qin Wentian silently mused, feeling somewhat worried. He took out his messaging crystal and sent his divine sense into it as he sent a voice transmission to Qu Shen. "Grandpa Qu, why didn't I see you and Nichang in the Qu Residence?"

Qu Shen didn't reply immediately. There was a short pause before a reply came back from Qu Shen.

"Wentian, Nichang and I have left Boundless City and we will be heading to a very faraway place. You don't need to miss us." Qu Shen replied. Qin Wentian's expression froze. But since no accidents happened to Qu Shen and Nichang, the worry in his heart lessened by a little. However, their departure caused him to feel guilt and a faint sense of disappointment.

"Grandpa Qu, why did you two leave so suddenly? You didn't even inform me at all. Where are you heading to now?" Qin Wentian asked again.

"I'm already very old. Nichang says she wants to find a quiet place to take care of me. Also, there's no need for you to come and find me. When fate decrees, we will naturally meet again." Qu Shen laughed. The sense of guilt in Qin Wentian's heart grew stronger and stronger. "Grandpa Qu, is it because of me?"

In the Qin Clan, he has already achieved his goal. Ultimately, Goddess Nichang didn't marry Qin Dangtian, and he avoided the awkward situation where he had to face against Qin Dangtian and Nichang together. However, everything he has done actually implicated Goddess Nichang. What did his actions count for? How did she think in her heart? That day, she had to utter lies to besmirch her own purity and reputation.

His glory knew no bounds. Right now, his fame resounded throughout Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms but Nichang's name was buried within scandalous rumors.

"Grandpa Qu. The conversation Nichang had with the Qin Clan, I can clear her name for her." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Wentian, there's really no need to. This is her own choice. Cultivate well, in the future, I hope that no matter which corners of the immortal realms we go to, we will be able to hear your legend." Qu Shen smiled. After that. No matter what Qin Wentian said, he no longer replied. After a long time, Qin Wentian finally kept his messaging crystal. He stared at the silent Qu Residence as he sighed, feeling somewhat down in his heart.

After a long time, he flew into the air and left. Many people felt conflicting emotions in their hearts as they stared at his figure flying away. That was Qin Wentian, a current legend of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He is a genius that is said to have the most outstanding talent. Despite the fact that the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wanted to deal with him, he was still alive and overturned the crisis. Right now, the peak powers didn't even dare to stay in the area around the Heaven Vault.

After Qin Wentian returned to the Heaven Vault, he still felt somewhat down because of this. He initially hoped to persuade Qu Shen and Nichang to come to the Heaven Vault for cultivation. However, they had actually already left the Qu Residence. The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are so vast, even though he is a heavenly deity, it would be like looking for a specific drop of water in the ocean if he wanted to look for them.

Today at the Boundless Sea Region, outside the Heaven Vault, many figures appeared. They drew Qin Wentian's attention and after some time, they actually requested to meet with Qin Wentian. This caused Qin Wentian to feel puzzled. According to these people, they said they were from the major powers of Boundless City.

Qin Wentian thought about it and agreed, allowing them to enter the Heaven Vault. However, he naturally didn't agree to let them come in to cultivate. He only allowed them in for a meeting with him.

Inside the Heaven Vault, the experts came before Qin Wentian. The vast majority of them were world overlords and when they saw Qin Wentian, all of them bowed, "We pay our respects to Heavenly Deity Qin."

Although Qin Wentian was famous now, he didn't have a title yet. Hence, everyone referred to him as Heavenly Deity Qin.

Qin Wentian calmly nodded. He stared at everyone and asked, "What's the matter?"

"Deity Qin, we are from the major powers of Boundless City." A world overlord stepped out and spoke. "Boundless city has always been a free place, no one has governed it before. Now, the Heaven Vault is above the Boundless Sea Region of Boundless City, all of us hope to be able to invite Deity Qin to take control of Boundless City and take in all the major powers in Boundless City as vassal forces under the Heaven Vault. In that case, it would be much more convenient for Deity Qin to do things in the future. You won't be limited by staying in the Heaven Vault."

As the sound of his voice faded, the eyes of many experts turned to Qin Wentian, filled with anticipation.

After news about that incident in the Qin Clan spread, the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were discussing about Qin Wentian. It was no exception for the major powers in Boundless City to do so as well. In their perspectives, Boundless City was on a path to glory. The prerequisite was that they had to convince Qin Wentian.

Qin City was able to become so prosperous and resplendent, becoming a top-tier main city in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms precisely because the Qin Clan was located there.

In that case, today, Qin Wentian who was the representative for the new power the Heaven Vault, was already powerful enough that he was equal to the top experts of the Qin Clan. Qin Wentian would only become even stronger in the future. Since this is the case, why didn't their Boundless City make use of this chance and offer themselves up to become Qin Wentian's vassals? In fact, if they did so, the territories under Boundless City might expand as well.

"You should know that although I'm the controller of the Heaven Vault, many of the powers cultivating within don't belong to me. For example: the Luoshen Clan, the Qiankun Sect, the Nine Heavens Mystical Palace and the others. They by themselves already are hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." Qin Wentian smiled.

"But even so, given Heavenly Deity Qin's strength, as well as the foundation that is the Heaven Vault, in addition to your many friends, as long as Deity Qin say the word, the Heaven Vault would instantly become the fourth hegemonic power in the Heaven Region." The world overlord spoke. Their purpose was they wanted to convince Qin Wentian to establish the Heaven Vault as a hegemonic power, with Boundless City under him. In that case, there would only be more opportunities for the major powers of Boundless City in the future.

In fact, they might even have a chance to become Qin Wentian's direct subordinates. This was something many major powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms didn't have a chance to do, but they would have. The chance, naturally referred to the chance to cultivate in the Heaven Vault.

"I will take your words into consideration." Qin Wentian calmly smiled. He understood their intentions. After that he waved his hand, "Everyone, you can take your leave now."

"Yes, we will take our leave then." Those experts calmly bowed again and retreated before turning and departing the area. Although only a few sentences were exchanged, these people didn't mind. They had shown Qin Wentian their attitude and Qin Wentian knew what they wanted. Could it be they wanted a heavenly deity to chat idly with them for long periods of time? That was clearly impossible.

After everyone left, Qin Wentian had a look of contemplation on his face. He couldn't help but admit that this suggestion was not bad at all. After all, it was impossible for him to limit himself to the Heaven Vault forever!

Chapter 1930: Chasing Memories

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, after the deity-level battles in the Qin Clan, things actually regained their previous calmness. The various peak powers fell silent, no longer finding trouble with Qin Wentian for the Heaven Vault.

That battle has caused the Qin Clan's foundation to be seriously injured. Things became extremely quiet. Right now, the Qin Clan was already in the midst of reconstruction, rebuilding Qin City. However, the Qin Clan's prestige could no longer be the same as the past.

In the Heaven Vault, within the starry space, many space castles appeared.

Right now, the number of people cultivating in the Heaven Vault was increasing in number. Qin Wentian's people, the Luoshen Clan's people, Demon God Mountain's experts, the Qiankun Sect, Nine Heavens Mystical Palace, etc. All these powers belonged to their respective factions. They naturally also had their own foothold inside the Heaven Vault.

Hence, as time passed, numerous space castles appeared in the Heaven Vault. The exterior was extremely beautiful, they were like heavenly divine halls that dotted the boundless starry space. These castles became the residences of the various powers cultivating in the Heaven Vault.

Qin Wentian naturally had a castle to himself too. The castle he resided in was at the center of the starry space. It was extremely large and many smaller castles could be seen in its surroundings. These castles belonged to the experts of various factions he brought here. For example, the Battle Saint Tribe, Southern Phoenix Clan, Evergreen Immortal Empire, Darknorth Immortal Empire, Myriad Devil Islands, etc… Each power had their own castle.

The castle Qin Wentian resided in was very similar to the Heaven Empyrean Palace. Its interior was extremely beautiful and he specifically arranged it to be the same like in Heaven Empyrean Palace. Even if they had to take this place as their home for now, by doing so, his wives would feel more used to it.

At this moment, in the castle Qin Wentian was in, on the cultivation platform that was located in the nine heavenly layers, the power of the constellations cascaded down on everyone on the cultivation platform.

Currently, Qing`er, Beiming Youhuang, Jun Mengchen, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and a few others were present. They sat there cross-legged, quietly contemplating insights of their own constellations.

"The dao of a heavenly deity is very simple. Your own astral souls contains the dao. You all have set foot upon your respective constellations before and should understand that constellations don't only contain a single type of energy. Each different constellation contains a different heavenly dao. This indicates that the astral energy we absorb after we condensed an astral soul, is actually the simplest form of energy. What you all need to do now, is to transform your astral soul into your dao."

Qin Wentian sat before everyone as he slowly spoke, giving a dao lecture. Right now, his cultivation base was extremely profound. Occasionally, he would be giving dao lectures to the people cultivating in the starry space of the nine heavenly layers, allowing others to gain an understanding into the dao while they are comprehending the constellations.

"The heavenly dao exceeds all your prior knowledge. Hence, your understanding not only has to include your previous comprehensions, you have to disregard the limit you imposed on the dao. Don't be controlled by the laws you are already proficient in, limiting yourself in scope. In the past, what we know is that the heavenly dao is the purest essence of any law, establishing into the dao. This is a mistake. The heavenly dao is a kind of comprehension that includes your laws but it is an existence higher than them."

Qin Wentian's voice was calm, seemingly containing a magical power. It penetrated through the air, entering the ears of everyone, branding the information into their minds. Everyone had different insights when they heard the dao lecture. In their minds, the teachings by the other heavenly deities also sounded similar in some aspects, yet there were some differences. They needed to experience those differences themselves and try to make sense of it.

After a long time, everyone gradually sank into a state of comprehension. Yet Mo Qingcheng actually stealthily opened her eyes and winked at Qin Wentian. After hundreds of years, under Qin Wentian's assistance, she finally managed to step into the world overlord realm. However, her strength was still extremely far compared to the other world overlords. It was clearly much more difficult for her to comprehend what a heavenly dao is right now.

Quietly standing up, Mo Qingcheng walked to Qin Wentian's side. The two of them exchanged a glance before leaving here together.

"Qingcheng, how do you feel?" After returning to Qin Wentian's resting chambers in his courtyard, Qin Wentian smiled at her.

"Cultivation is really very difficult." Mo Qingcheng hugged Qin Wentian's arm. She inclined her head slightly, staring at Qin Wentian's face. Her eyes were filled with tenderness, "I wonder how long do I need before I can reach your level."

"You don't need to feel any pressure. With me here, everything will be fine." Qin Wentian gently spoke.

Mo Qingcheng smiled, "It's because the pressure on you is too great, you want to bear everything on your own and we have no way to share the burden with you. As your wife, did I fail to make the mark?"

"Yup, you failed badly. Do you think you should compensate me well then?" Qin Wentian teased, casting a naughty glance at Mo Qingcheng, causing her to freeze. She then glared at Qin Wentian but currents of warmth flowed in her heart.

She inclined her head and stared at the stars here. "The starry space is so beautiful. Do you think that our past exists among the countless constellations in the boundless starry space?"

"Maybe." Qin Wentian spoke.

"It has been so many years. Wentian, we have known each other since such a long time ago but I feel as though it was only yesterday that I met you." Mo Qingcheng's gaze was incomparably gentle. Under the astral light from the constellations, she looked extremely beautiful.

Her eyes also contained the hint of a warm smile as she thought back to the memories they had.

Qin Wentian sat down and pulled her into his embrace. "Thinking of the past again? Are you not happy now?"

"I'm happy. Anyway, all our memories are beautiful." Mo Qingcheng replied. "However compared to now, I still like the past more. Although there were many troubles before we could get together, now that I think back to it, those memories are really beautiful. The you back then was really a very silly fellow."

"Silly?" Qin Wentian was speechless. The past to them can be described as mulberry fields turning into vast seas. It was really too long ago.

"Are you not silly? Do you still remember the Pill Emperor Hall? How you dragged that gigantic demon sword all the way over there?" Mo Qingcheng smiled. The past was very sweet, sometimes, she felt that she should thank those with malicious intentions towards her. If they didn't exist, how could her memories of the past be so beautiful when Qin Wentian saved her.

"You can still smile?" Qin Wentian rolled his eyes. This little lass must have forgotten how much despair he felt back then.

"Hehe." Mo Qingcheng's smile grew increasingly radiant. She wrapped her hands around Qin Wentian's neck and simply stared at him in a daze. She then softly spoke, "Dumbo…"

Staring at the beauty in front of him, Qin Wentian lowered his head and leaned it for a kiss. This caused Mo Qingcheng's smile to grow even more radiant as her gaze turned even more gentle.

But at this moment, Qin Wentian suddenly lifted his head and laughed, "Qing`er, why are you spying on us?"

A figure slowly walked over. This was none other than Qing`er. Her beautiful eyes blinked, and she looked extremely adorable.

"Elder sis Qing`er, do you feel he was silly back then?" Mo Qingcheng smiled as she asked.

"Mhm." Qing`er didn't hesitate and nodded her head seriously.

"This is known as 'Great intelligence may appear to be stupidity.' If not, how could I marry the two of you?" Qin Wentian's figure flashed and pulled Qing`er into his embrace. He didn't have any other thoughts. Now, he only wanted to hug the woman he loved.

Qing`er quietly leaned against him. She was a woman of few words but she could always cause Qin Wentian to feel warmth.

"Silly girls, do you all miss the past?" Qin Wentian sighed. "Let us go back to our particle world and look at the path we once took then."

Mo Qingcheng inclined her head after she heard Qin Wentian's words, she had a puzzled look on her face..

Qin Wentian smiled. He didn't explain. He held their hands and directly vanished from this location along with them.

Given his current cultivation base, how could there be any places in this world he couldn't go to? Qingcheng and Qing`er missed the past, let's return to there then.

...

There were countless particle worlds around the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, but there was only one particle world where Qin Wentian grew up in.

Today, in the particle world, in the Chu Country of the Grand Xia Dynasty, snow was falling from the sky. The scenery was extremely beautiful. Many people were playing outside, young couples were teasing each other, everyone here seemed carefree, with no worries at all.

At this moment, in a certain location inside Chu, three figures appeared in the air, descending down along with the falling snow.

These three were naturally Qin Wentian and his wives.

"This is so beautiful." Mo Qingcheng spun a circle in the air. She stretched her hand out, allowing the snowflakes to fall into her hand. The beautiful smile in her eyes was so pure and flawless. The snow was truly beautiful.

"How beautiful." At this moment, the people of Chu who were on the ground couldn't help but praise when they saw the three in the air. These two women were beautiful to the extreme that they didn't seem to be from the mortal world.

"Are they immortals?" Someone asked in a low voice.

"I think so."

The fairy maidens in their eyes slowly landed on the ground. Mo Qingcheng closed her eyes as a mesmerized look appeared on her face. It was like she thought of a snowy scene hundreds of years ago where the seed of their love sprouted here.

"Wentian, let's build a snowman!" Mo Qingcheng pulled Qin Wentian's hand and spoke mischievously, like she had returned to her past teenage self.

"Right." Qin Wentian nodded. He and Mo Qingcheng actually started to build a snowman. If this incident was known by the people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, what expressions would they have? Qin Wentian, someone who defeated Qin Dangtian, was actually playing with snow, building a snowman in a particle world.

Very soon, a snowman was created. This snowman resembled Qin Wentian slightly. Mo Qingcheng stared at the snowman and giggled, "Elder sis Qing`er, do you think this looks like him?"

Qing`er seriously cast a glance before smiling and nodding her head, "It does look similar."

"Mhm." Mo Qingcheng nodded her head. After that, she pulled Qin Wentian along as she walked towards Qing`er and told them to hold hands. She then smiled, "Let's walk around Chu and look at everywhere we have been before. Okay?"

"Anything you want." Qin Wentian smiled. As long as they were happy, everything was good to him.

"Let's go." Mo Qingcheng pulled them along as they jogged leisurely at a slow speed.

The people in the surroundings didn't disturb them, they merely watched silently. To think that fairy maidens from the other worlds would come to their particle world for romance.

The snow continued falling. On their journey, the falling snow made it so that their hair and robes were now completely matted with snow, turning white.

As the snow fell, there would be the occasional laughter ringing out loud in the air. Spending time like this was truly very beautiful indeed!

Chapter 1931: Divine Sect

Snowflakes danced in the air. Qin Wentian and his wives made their way to an ancient peak covered in snow and they stood there, admiring the scenery.

Their gazes turned to the distance. Qing`er's cold face actually showed a faint smile. That year, she stood precisely here and watched Qin Wentian cultivate. In the blink of an eye, so many years have already passed. That stubborn youth was now already a heavenly deity.

They only left after a long time. Slowly walking through the snow, they went to the old royal palace in Chu, and went to the demonic beast forest as well. All these places were places they had been to before.

They didn't startle anyone and simply toured Chu at their leisure. After that, they left Chu and went to the location where Fairy Qingmei and Qing`er once stayed in. And after heading there, they went to the Pill Emperor Hall.

The territory that belonged to the Pill Emperor Hall, was long overtaken by another power. When the experts here saw the three figures in the air, many people were shocked. The auras of these three were simply too outstanding, they couldn't help but feel reverence in their hearts when they stared up at them.

"Revisiting old haunts, the oceans have all turned into mulberry fields. The places are the same but the people here have all changed." Qin Wentian softly spoke. His state of heart was long capable of withstanding any waves. Time could change everything. He himself already couldn't remember how many years exactly it has been since he came back to the particle world.

Once, he hated this world very much. But now, his heart was like still water, tranquil to the extreme.

Mo Qingcheng was extremely calm too. She would also occasionally think about some people in the past.

After staying for a short while, Qin Wentian and the two maidens left. At this moment above the Pill Emperor Hall, an old man trembled violently, he wanted to say something but didn't know what to say. He recognized who the three of them were, he once met them before. Back then, he was still a youth but now, he was already an old man yet the three of them were as young as ever. In addition, they were much more outstanding compared to before.

Qin Wentian has long became a legend in the particle world. People a few hundred years later naturally was able to recognise him. However, a particle world cannot be compared to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. A few hundred years was a very long time to the people here.

Ye Country, Battle Sword Sect, Medicine Sovereign Valley, Royal Sacred Region...Qin Wentian brought his wives as they went to one place after another, pursuing the past. Before he left, he would remove the seal he placed on this world. Those immortals whom he sealed would be freed as well. If they wanted to leave here.

Before Qin Wentian departed this world, there was a formless energy fluctuation that shook the world as the seals were removed. At this moment, countless people inclined their heads and stared at the sky. Those sealed immortals trembled. Had he returned? Why did he do so quietly?

At this moment, an incomparably resplendent burst of light flashed through the air. A giant statue actually fell from the sky, and eventually landed in Chu.

When the people saw this gigantic statue, countless people trembled. Many old men with powerful cultivators all knew who this statue represented.

It was him, he has returned.

The particle world shuddered. Countless people began to move towards the place where the statue landed, in the direction of Chu.

Right now, countless experts gathered in Chu Country, even immortals came. All of them were gathered around that statue that was over ten thousand feet tall, so tall that it touched the sky. This statue seemed to be alive. Many people staring at it felt that they gained some insights and instantly went back to cultivate. There were also people sitting cross-legged around it, ignoring the location and started their cultivation.

Even for immortals, they could feel their souls shaking. When they stared at this statue, they could sense dao might radiating from it. They knew that it was impossible for them to leave this particle world in a short period of time.

After all, this wasn't merely a statue. This statue contained Qin Wentian's divine sense. It became a supreme treasure in the particle world, a guardian deity of sorts. As long as Qin Wentian doesn't die, this statue was enough to protect the particle world from destruction forever.

Hence, the legendary stories of Qin Wentian which had long ceased circulating, started to spread again. Someone claimed that he had already become a major character in the upper world immortal realms and might have already reached the peak of the immortal emperor realm.

Others guessed that he had already established a super power in the upper world but because he missed the particle world, he came back and left a statue that could act as a guard for this place.

Those who had interactions with Qin Wentian before also came here. When they saw the statue, they were completely speechless. Qin Wentian was already so high up, so high that the people of this world could only stare at him helplessly.

This statue became the symbol of faith for everyone in the world. From today onwards, there would be people making pilgrimages here to worship the statue. He became a god that everyone in this world respected.

But all of this already had nothing to do with Qin Wentian. This time, he brought Qing`er and Qingcheng back because they wanted to pursue old memories, walking on the paths they walked before. In the future, it was not very possible that they would come back here often. Maybe one day when he really stood at the absolute pinnacle of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, he might make a trip back to see this particle world where they grew up in.

...…..

The situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was also very calm. So calm that it was terrifying. After that storm in the Qin Clan, many people felt that an even greater storm would emerge. Evidently, they didn't expect the situation would actually be so calm. Maybe, a miraculous but fragile balance has been reached. No party had enough confidence that they could win against the other. Hence, everyone was silently consolidating their strength, waiting for the next storm to brew.

Time unconsciously flowed by. The once extremely powerful Qin Clan of the Heaven Region, now became very low-profile. No one knew what they were busy with or what Qin Zheng and Qin Dangtian was up to.

However, everyone knew that in the boundless sea region, at the area below the Heaven Vault, a divine palace located on the boundless sea had been constructed.

This palace was built on the sea, it was extremely vast and incomparably majestic. The highest point of this divine palace could touch the Heaven Vault. It was like one entity with the Heaven Vault.

No matter who stared at this divine palace, they would feel that the workmanship of it was the work of Gods.

If one entered the divine palace, they would feel as though they just set foot in a majestic city on a continent, they wouldn't feel they were in the middle of the sea.

Also, things weren't concluded yet. After the divine palace appeared, it continued to expand towards the edge of the sea region, it felt like this majestic city wanted to extend endlessly, stretching along the boundless sea.

Everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was guessing why this divine palace was constructed. But no matter what the reason was, something was definitely about to happen in the Heaven Region.

If not, why would people in the Heaven Vault construct such a majestic palace outside?

And just when everyone thought the construction of this divine palace was about to end, another divine palace was constructed. And following that, a third divine palace was built as well.

All the divine palaces were on the water and seemed to be cities floating on the sea. At the end, there were a total of nine majestic cities, they were so vast that they no longer seemed like divine palaces. In fact, they actually resembled a divine empire.

Nine divine palaces forming a divine empire. The people of the world started to speculate what Qin Wentian wanted to do exactly.

Out of the nine divine palaces, the central one was located directly beneath the Heaven Vault and its tip touched the sky, directly connected to the Heaven Vault's entrance. All nine divine palaces had teleportation formations connecting them to the central palace and they weren't located at the center of their respective palaces, but at the edge instead.

The Heaven Vault was no longer closed off, it opened up just like that. However, the entrance area of the Heaven Vault was already surrounded by the nine divine palaces. The entire boundless sea region was the divine empire's territory. And given the current situation now, who would dare to step into it easily?

When the divine empire finished its construction, at the shoreline of the boundless sea region, countless people stood there. With just a single glance, they would see the glory of this divine empire. In fact, it seemed like a mirage, too majestic and dazzling to be true.

Today, this mysterious divine empire announced something.

"From today onwards, a divine sect named the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect has been established. The Qiankun Sect, Nine Heavenly Mystical Palace, Demon God Mountain, Luoshen Clan will be a part of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect and they will occupy the divine palaces around this region. All of their members can enter the Heaven Vault freely." This voice thundered through the air, spreading towards the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Qin Wentian formally announced that the fourth hegemonic power of the Heaven Region has been formed. The Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. It was like he established this to contend against the Qin Clan.

Also, the other two hegemonic powers in the Heaven Region became a part of this. Currently, the situation in the Heaven Region changed completely. Out of the four hegemonic powers, three were allied together. It would be tough for the Qin Clan to make any moves at all.

Qin Wentian's voice swiftly circulated. More discussions abounded with regards to Qin Wentian's threat. Many people felt that Qin Wentian would become the calamity for all hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. In the future, he would swallow up the peak powers one by one.

Naturally, in the surroundings of the boundless sea regions, countless major powers came to offer their congratulations. All of them expressed that they are willing to become vassals for the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, allowing their territories to come under the control of Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian naturally understood their intentions. These people wanted to cultivate in the Heaven Vault.

But even so, he agreed to their requests of becoming vassals. The Boundless City became the headquarters, and the Qin heavenly Divine Sect's influence started to expand, spreading through the Heaven Region.

Many experts from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy came by to offer their congratulations as well. The Divine Sound World Overlord also came, including three other heavenly deities. Qin Wentian naturally welcomed them warmly and permitted core members of the sacred academy to enter the Heaven Vault freely.

Leaving aside the karma he had with the sacred academy, just based on the fact that Headmaster Ye acted to aid him, Qin Wentian would definitely repay this. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was family to him!

Chapter 1932: Pilgrimage

The Qin Heavenly Divine Sect was established at the Boundless Sea Region. It was like an incomparably vast divine empire.

Countless experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms came over from all directions. Some came to take in the majestic view, others came to offer their congratulations.

Today, Qin Wentian allowed everyone in the world to enter the divine sect as they offered their congratulations.

Hence, countless people rode the waves. They came to the center of the Boundless Sea Region and stared at the divine empire while their hearts involuntarily trembled.

With reverence in their hearts, the people of the world entered the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. Many people were experts from the small and major powers of the immortal realms. They felt that the situation in the Heaven Region has already changed. In the future, the Qin Clan might grow increasingly weaker while the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect would grow stronger and stronger, eventually replacing the Qin Clan.

This would be a change in an era. In addition to Qin Wentian's legendary past, many people wished to see this legendary character themselves. Hence, to many young people and juniors, they had long taken Qin Wentian as their idol and their hearts were filled with awe and worship towards him. His encouraging story inspired countless cultivators.

Qin Wentian came from a particle world but he still managed to cultivate to such a high level, defeating Heaven's Son. As for them, although their origins weren't top level, they at the very least were born in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and didn't lack cultivation resources. Why wouldn't they be able to set their sights on the path leading to the heavenly deity realm.

Within the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, the atmosphere was extremely lively. Now, the friends and family of Qin Wentian were all fetched over and they were staying inside the divine sect, in the center divine palace that was like an incomparably vast city. After all, this divine palace was something he constructed specially for his friends and family. If they wished to cultivate in the Heaven Vault, they could enter it at anytime.

Currently, they already have some foundation. They don't need to hide perpetually in the Heaven Vault, unable to see the outside world. Living like that wasn't ordinary at all. Hence, Qin Wentian accepted the suggestion brought to him by many people in the Heaven Region and established the divine sect, naming it the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect as a tribute to his father.

Also, if something really did happen, they could retreat into the Heaven Vault at any time. The Heaven Vault would be their strongest shield.

"Seeing the construction of the divine sect bit by bit, this really is a miracle." The Skyorder Heavenly Deity turned his gaze ahead. Countless people came to offer their congratulations. A relaxed smile could be seen on Luoshen Yu's face. The him now looked younger compared to the first time Qin Wentian saw him. Clearly, he wasn't as stressed out as before.

Qin Wentian was able to have such accomplishments and even defeated Qin Dangtian in the deity-level battle in the Qin Clan. As an uncle, Luoshen Yu naturally felt incomparably gratified. If he could see his younger sister again, everything would be even more perfect. Let's hope that such a day would come.

"Father, elder brother is creating history." Luoshen Lei stood beside him and smiled. She could still remember how complex her emotions were after she learned of Qin Wentian's identity during the convention of the myriad realms. She watched as Qin Wentian climbed step by step to his position today. It was truly a legendary history. She didn't know if there was anyone else who had managed to do so in the past.

"He is creating history indeed." Luoshen Yu nodded. "Not only that, the brush has not stopped yet."

"I will go and receive the guests for brother." Luoshen Lei smiled. Luoshen Yu nodded. Luoshen Lei then walked away, moving into the crowd. Today, many people came, most were major powers from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Naturally, there already weren't a lot of powers who were qualified enough to let Qin Wentian welcome them personally. Hence, the one doing the reception was usually someone else. Luoshen Lei was the young miss of the Luoshen Clan, Qin Wentian's younger sister. She naturally had enough weight in her status to receive the guests.

"Old Qin. Have you ever thought about such a day before?" In another direction, a group of people stood together as they chatted.

"In the past, I only thought about living a good life in Sky Harmony City, how would I dare to imagine things so far? From the particle world, to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Everything feels like a dream." Qin Chuan shook his head. It truly felt surreal.

"Haha, you have a good son."

"Haha, you should be happy too. Back then, I recall that your Mo Clan didn't really like my son Wentian." Qin Chuan laughed. Naturally, he was only teasing. Those matters in the past were already in the past. Occasionally bringing them up was just for them to reminisce about the past.

"True, true. Luckily, my granddaughter Qingcheng has good judgement."

"That little lass Qingcheng...things haven't been easy for her." Qin Chuan sighed.

"It's really not easy. Back then at the Ye Royal Palace, Qingcheng lost her memories but even so, she managed to remember Wentian due to her emotions." Ye Qianyun walked over and joined in the conversation. These elders of Qin Wentian sighed as they reminisced.

Not far from them, a few beautiful maidens stood together. Qin Wentian's senior sister Luo Huan, his elder sisters Qin Yao and Ye Lingshuang, all stood together as they looked at the number of experts here today.

"Hehehe." Luo Huan suddenly began to giggle in a silly manner. Qin Yao stared at her in a strange manner, "Are you okay?"

"I'm fine. Just thinking of some beautiful things." Luo Huan laughed.

"What are you thinking of? Why are you so happy?" Ye Lingshuang curiously asked.

"I'm thinking that our Wentian is now already so awesome. As his senior apprentice sister, should I get him to gift me an immortal empire and enjoy the taste of being a queen?" Luo Huan laughed. Qin Yao rolled her eyes. "Useless."

"What? You look down on being a queen? Seems like Qin Yao's appetite by far greater than mine."

"You are Wentian's senior apprentice sister. You should know how he always acts around you. Look at those people, even heavenly deities are very respectful to Wentian. Think about it, what's your current status? How can a mere immortal empire be enough? You set your sights too low." Qin Yao grinned. But it was true. Given Qin Wentian's current status, an immortal empire was truly nothing to him.

Luo Huan seriously nodded her head. "Your words are logical. How about me marrying him instead? But if I do so, the benefits he can obtain would be far greater than me. Things will be too easy for that brat."

Qin Yao had a face filled with black lines, she speechlessly stared at Luo Huan. Luo Huan giggled. Her beautiful eyes turned into the distance, like she was recalling past memories. Back then, she and people of the Emperor Star Academy went to Sky Harmony City to rescue a stubborn youth. Now that she thought back, it felt so long ago, like a few eras have passed.

The once stubborn youth is now already a peak character in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Not far away from them, there was another group of beauties. These people were from the Southern Phoenix Clan. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Nanfeng Yaoyue, was currently a hegemonic-level world overlord. Her striking aura was more imposing than the past, exuding boundless magnificence and beauty. Beside her, Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge could be seen. All of them were peak beauties. When they stood together, the guests here would often turn their heads to glance at them, feeling delight in their hearts. But naturally, no one dared to profane their beauty.

The people in this particular divine city all had a connection with Qin Wentian. How would the guests dare to try anything funny?

"There are so many experts here." Nanfeng Shengge mumbled.

"That's only natural. Qin Wentian allowed the people of the world to enter this divine sect. Given his current strength and status today, how can the number of people here not be plenty?" Nanfeng Yaoyue smiled.

"Sigh, he is already so far ahead. Back then, I still played the zither for him. I wonder if he would be willing to hear my zither music ever again in the future. If we knew this would happen, we would have abolished the rule that forbids our holy maidens and holy successors from marrying outside the clan. Maybe, Yunxi would have gotten together with him." Nanfeng Shengge laughed. She was as beautiful as a portrait, with an aura of elegance.

Nanfeng Yunxi's beautiful eyes blinked as she glared at Nanfeng Shengge, "You are talking about yourself, right?"

"Who doesn't know your intentions? But I'm afraid you don't have a chance now. Right now, there are simply too many beauties in line wanting to marry him." Nanfeng Shengge winked mischievously. Nanfeng Yunxi smiled, "Are you including yourself too?"

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch stared at the two juniors bickering and teasing each other as a faint smile appeared in her eyes. Their Southern Phoenix Clan could have today because of the friendship between Nanfeng Yunxi and Qin Wentian. This should be fate, right? Sadly, although Nanfeng Yunxi is interested in Qin Wentian, it was most probably impossible for him to marry her.

Sometimes, what's past is past. If an opportunity was missed out on, everything would be too late. Back then, no seeds of love blossomed between them. Although right now they are still good friends, the feelings of love would never have a chance to sprout again.

Bai Wuya and the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord were also filled with many emotions. They were in this central divine palace today as well.

There was no need to mention anything more about the relationship between Bai Wuya and Qin Wentian. It was him who brought Qin Wentian to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. He was like a mentor and a friend.

As for the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, he was Qin Wentian's elder. Although there was a misunderstanding due to the matters orchestrated by the Heavenly Talisman Realm back then, Qin Wentian understood that the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord was in a position where he was powerless to do anything else. He naturally wouldn't blame the emperor lord. Now, Qin Wentian only hoped that all his old friends could live well, including his family and elder-level figures.

At this moment, the gazes of countless people turned to a certain direction. Above a flight of stairs, there was a divine throne there.

Qin Wentian's figure appeared there. Beside him, two extremely beautiful maidens appeared together with him. They were none other than Qing`er and Qingcheng.

The Qiankun Sect Leader and the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden also appeared with Qin Wentian. They stood beside the divine throne. Today, Qin Wentian was the main lead, they were more than willing to play the supporting roles. In the Heaven Vault, they once had a conversation about what would happen if Qin Wentian stood at the pinnacle. Both of them decided that they are both willing to maintain a good relationship with Qin Wentian. After all, even if he really ascended to the pinnacle one day, given how Qin Wentian treats his friends, he would naturally not mistreat them.

"Uncle Qin." A sweet voice drifted out as a beautiful little girl ran out from the crowd.

"Qinxin, come back here." A beautiful lady called out. However, the little girl didn't stop and ran straight towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian squatted down and carried her up. He nodded his head towards the beautiful lady. The lady bitterly smiled and glared at her daughter.

"Uncle Qin, why doesn't mummy want me to come over?" The little girl asked innocently, her voice was tender and sweet.

"Your mummy must have been afraid that you would grow closer to your Uncle Qin as compared to her." Qin Wentian smiled gently.

"It won't happen. Daddy, mummy and Uncle Qin, I'm equally close to all of you!" The little girl smiled honestly.

"Qinxin you are so obedient." Qin Wentian ruffled her hair and carried her up the divine throne before he sat down. Below him, countless people felt incomparable envy at the little girl. Whose daughter was this? She was so close with Heavenly Deity Qin. Clearly, her future was already destined to be extraordinary.

"Look at your daughter, you better make sure she is in line. This is such an important day and she is off bothering Wentian." Jiang Ting stared at her husband Ouyang Kuangsheng who was beside her.

"Just let her do what she wants. Wentian wouldn't mind this." Ouyang Kuangsheng laughed carefreely. Jiang Ting nodded, feeling warmth in her heart.

Fatty Fan Le who was by the side gently touched the belly of a beautiful maiden beside him when he saw this scene. "Child, you have to be born soon okay. Seems like in the future you have to fight for your Uncle Wentian's pampering. That little doll Qinxin calls him 'Uncle Qin.' You will call him god-father instead."

Xuan Xin glared at fatty. Ouyang Kuangsheng and Jiang Ting who were beside them couldn't help but laugh as their faces were filled with black lines. This damnable fatty!

The 'Qin' in Qinxin's name is a different character from the 'Qin' of Qin Wentian.

Chapter 1933: Behind the Calmness

Qin Wentian sat on the divine throne and hugged Ouyang Qinxin. A snowy white figure then leapt onto his shoulder, "Wow there's so many people."

"Don't you like things to be lively? Where's purgatory?" Qin Wentian asked.

"She is with elder sister Qianyu." Little Rascal replied. Qin Wentian nodded lightly. His divine sense swept out and after that, he turned towards a direction behind him, as a smile appeared on his face. Over there, there were three beauties present. Ye Qianyu, Purgatory and Jialan Qiuyue.

Ye Qianyu even winked towards Qin Wentian when she sensed the divine sense scan. She exuded charm. Qin Wentian smiled and shook his head. This third wife of his was truly a demoness.

"Why don't you go over?" Jialan Qiuyue, who was beside Ye Qianyu, asked in a soft voice.

"Qingcheng and Qinger knew him during his youth and have been by his side for many years, enduring countless trials and tribulations with him. Sometimes, a woman has to understand when to take a step back." Ye Qianyu smiled. She was also Qin Wentian's wife. To her, as long as he still loved her, it was enough for her. She also knew the weightage of Qinger and Mo Qingcheng in Qin Wentian's heart. If she wanted to compete with them for every single thing that would actually produce the opposite of her desired result.

"You are really a very intelligent woman." Jialan Qiuyue sighed.

"So, you have to think clearly on how much do you really like him. You should understand that countless beauties surround him and in addition to his current status, how difficult it would be to become his woman? Even if one day he truly accepted you, how much do you have to endure until then? The question is, can you endure until that point of time?" Ye Qianyu's beautiful eyes stared at Jialan Qiuyue. A streak of stubbornness could be seen in Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes. She nodded, "Naturally."

However, her heart had already wavered somewhat. She naturally could see that there were a bevy of beauties around Qin Wentian. And now, just beside her and Ye Qianyu, there was another one. Purgatory has an alluring figure and exuded demonic charm. Also, there were countless pretty women near the divine throne, all of them were acquaintances of Qin Wentian since a long time ago and had even undergone many hardships with him. What does she, Jialan Qiuyue, count as?

Ye Qianyu smiled at her, she had naturally already seen through what Jialan Qiuyue was thinking. "For us women, the hardest thing for us to be freed from, is none other than the word 'love.' I wish you good luck."

In truth, she wasn't really fond of Jialan Qiuyue but she was still willing to bring her along, giving her a chance. Back then, she grew interested in Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian had displayed his talent but he wasn't a major character yet. For him, she was willing to be imprisoned for many years and it was precisely because of what she was willing to give up for him, that led to them eventually being together. All this was possible only because she was willing to give everything up.

Also, she naturally understood that at the time when she was sacrificing everything for him, there was also another woman doing the same for Qin Wentian. In addition, the status of the woman in Qin Wentian's heart was not in anyway inferior to her. That woman was none other than Beiming Youhuang.

However, Beiming Youhuang's personality was cold. Although she had feelings for Qin Wentian, she would never take the initiative to say it. Hence, they didn't get together. It was like as long as she could be beside Qin Wentian protecting him, she wouldn't have any complaints.

Everyone has a different attitude towards the word 'love.' For Ye Qianyu, her attitude towards love was like a blazing flame, lighting people up. But for Beiming Youhuang, she was the complete opposite.

Naturally, Ye Qianyu understood that there are two people in Qin Wentian's heart whom no one could ever replace. Hence, many times, she would choose to take a step back, not fighting for his affection with Qinger and Qingcheng. She treated them sincerely and wanted to be like real sisters. Since they have all chosen such a man, she knew when she should give instead of badgering on receiving. For Qingcheng and Qinger, their personalities were too nice. Their hearts could only contain Qin Wentian alone. For the troublesome matters of the harem, Ye Qianyu knew that she was the one most suited to handle it. She didn't want to give Qin Wentian any trouble, she also couldn't bear to give him trouble.

Although right now he was already seated in that divine throne where countless people were willing to worship him, despite the glory, she understood that he had many burdens on his back. He cannot take a wrong step. Everyone of his true friends were like family to him. He needed to be the one to protect everything. The pressure on him was as heavy as a mountain.

Qin Wentian naturally didn't know of Ye Qianyu's thoughts at this moment. But he knew that she would always choose to compromise and take a step back if Qing`er and Qingcheng were in the picture. He knew what she had to give up, she was really a very intelligent woman and he also knew of her love for him. Ye Qianyu understood how to love someone.

"We pay respects to Sect Leader Qin." Before the divine throne, many people appeared. All of them bowed low to Qin Wentian.

"It is I, Qin's, honor that everyone was able to come here today. Currently, I've established the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect in the boundless sea region and I'm formally announcing that I will absolutely not swallow up any minor or major powers in the Heaven Region. As long as no one wants to make an enemy out of me, I won't be an enemy to any of you." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Many of those who came were people from the various powers in the Heaven Region. Some wanted to be his vassal forces, some wanted to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation.

Naturally, some were also worried that Qin Wentian would start a war and perform hostile takeovers towards the non-hegemonic powers in the Heaven Region.

Hence, Qin Wentian's words caused many people to set their hearts at ease.

"Given Sect Leader Qin's cultivation and vision, all of us naturally believe that ordinary powers in the Heaven Region wouldn't be in the eyes of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. On the contrary, all of us from the ordinary powers actually hope to join the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect as vassal forces, becoming part of the divine sect." One of the experts didn't beat around the bush and directly spoke. He was a hegemonic-level world overlord.

"I'm an unaffiliated cultivator and I'm also willing to join the divine sect, becoming part of it and execute orders on behalf of Sect Leader Qin." Another expert spoke. After this, more and more people expressed their stances, all wanting to either becoming vassal forces or to join the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

At their current levels at the peak of the world overlord realm, what were they pursuing?

Undoubtedly, they were pursuing the deity realm.

As for becoming vassals to a greater power, this was very common and not shameful at all. Only after becoming a heavenly deity would they themselves, their clan, their power, have a new beginning.

It was rumored that Heaven Vault connects the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to the nine heavenly layers. It was one of the best cultivation secret realms for cultivators. This was an opportunity to them.

Qin Wentian calmly watched everything, he also understood the thoughts of everyone. He then spoke, "I will directly say this. Only core members of my divine sect, as well as people from my alliance can enter the Heaven Vault to cultivate. All of you want to be a part of my divine sect for the sake of entering the Heaven Vault. However, I have to say that in these circumstances where I'm not familiar with all of you, as well as the fact that none of you has ever made any contributions to the divine sect before, it's impossible for me to allow you all to enter."

Qin Wentian's words caused many people to feel disappointed. However, they understood this point in their hearts. Qin Wentian really knew nothing about them, most of these people were ordinary powers in the Heaven Region. How could it be possible for him to allow them to cultivate in the Heaven Vault?

Who knew if they had connections with other hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms or not?

"Naturally, since I have established the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, it's impossible for me to reject those who want to join. I naturally also want to recruit members. Currently, the different factions of my alliance with the other hegemonic powers. Each of them occupy a divine city in the Boundless Sea Region. If you wish to join, you all have to start by joining one of the factions first. After that, you will have the chance to become a core member based on your contributions to the sect. Only then would you be able to enter the Heaven Vault." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. He naturally hoped for the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect to expand and strengthen. However, he wasn't willing to accept members casually.

Just like what Ye Qianyu speculated, in truth, the pressure on him was extremely great. Although there was a period of calmness for many years after that deity-level battle in the Qin Clan, he knew that the eyes of all the hegemonic powers in the immortal realms was still on him. He had to advance and continue to enhance his strength to be better prepared for any dangers he might meet in the future.

And precisely because of this threat that existed, he had also chosen to keep a low profile during these years and didn't intentionally stir up matters. Both parties seemed to have reached a fragile balance of peace. However, he knew that this balance would be broken sooner or later.

Currently, the strength of the powers within the Heaven Vault was very strong. There's the Qiankun Sect, Nine Heavens Mystical Palace, Luoshen Clan, and the Demon God Mountain. However, the Qiankun Sect, Nine Heavens Mystical Palace and Demon God Mountain were just in the alliance and not truly a part of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. If a calamity that would result in absolute annihilation was to appear, they might very well choose to leave the Heaven Vault. After all, they were in an alliance because they wanted to cooperate with each other. But it was impossible for them to tank everything. It wasn't realistic. At the end, Qin Wentian would still have to depend on himself.

Hence, he established the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. Any power would need time to expand and strengthen itself. However, he was the controller of the Heaven Vault. He could shorten the amount of time needed and he believed that a new batch of heavenly deities would appear sooner or later.

Naturally, Qin Wentian has also already conversed with the Southern Phoenix Clan, Darknorth Immortal Emperor and Matriarch Ji. These powers were still considered one of the weakest ones under him. Although he did his best to nurture them, they would still need a lot of time. The best way to allow the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect to grow stronger, was to absorb other powers from the outside.

Everyone nodded after they heard Qin Wentian's words, there were looks of contemplation on their faces.

"Let's leave the topic of joining the divine sect temporarily aside for now. But if you all are unwilling, I won't force you either. Today, since all of you have given me face and came all the way here, my divine sect has prepared a banquet. Everyone can feel free to enjoy the delicacies in the divine sect." Qin Wentian waved his hand and spoke. A moment later, serving girls appeared and began to set the tables and bring out the dishes.

Qin Wentian left after he toasted everyone. Given his status, there was no need for him to accompany them. Everyone also understood this. In fact, being able to enjoy a banquet today when they came to the divine sect, was already an act of politeness by Qin Wentian. After all, many of these experts here weren't from hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Their statuses were naturally lower.

And as for those hegemonic powers, they didn't come at all. That deity-level battle in the Qin Clan in the past made it so that many hegemonic powers stood in opposition against Qin Wentian. Why would they come here to offer congratulations to Qin Wentian for establishing the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect?

Unfortunately, some of the guests in the banquet today silently spread the news to the hegemonic powers. After the hegemonic powers learned that the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect was established and was formally recruiting members, all of them felt some worry in their hearts.

Right now, who among the hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wasn't afraid of Qin Wentian growing stronger?

They were the same as Qin Wentian and could see the situation clearly. All of them knew that the balance would be broken sooner or later. Behind the calmness, a shocking storm would brew sooner or later.

Right now, both parties were enduring. No one wanted to easily start another deity-level battle like that time in the Qin Clan.

Naturally, the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms understood that they couldn't afford to wait for too long, but Qin Wentian could. Time was on Qin Wentian's side. Because, given Qin Wentian's talent and in addition to the advantage he had in the Heaven Vault, he would only grow stronger and stronger. The power he established would expand larger and larger as well!

Chapter 1934: Becoming Deities One After Another

Several tens of years was just the blink of an eye in the perspective of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

And currently, a rarely seen period of peace actually appeared. Back then, the Qin Clan that was demolished by Qin Tiangang, has now already been reconstructed. But after that deity-level battle, the Qin Clan was so low-profile that it was scary. They didn't make any movements at all.

It was rumored that after Qin Zheng used his blood to refine the judgement halberd, he received an ancestral inheritance of a more powerful dao from it.

There were also rumors saying that after Heaven's Son was defeated, Qin Dangtian left the Qin Clan, choosing to wander the boundless worlds to comprehend his dao better. Naturally, there were also people saying that Qin Dangtian went to test himself in the secret realms. In any case, there was only one news that might be real. Qin Dangtian may have left the Qin Clan. After the battle back then, he suffered too heavy a defeat. If an ordinary person was in his place, their dao hearts would crumble and all their confidence would be lost.

However, the people of the world still believed that as the Heaven's Son, Qin Dangtian wasn't someone whose will could crumble so easily.

Right now in the starry space of the nine heavenly layers in the Heaven Vault, a resplendent light suddenly flared. A figure floated in the air, bathing in divine light. His long hair fluttered in the wind as an astral soul from the ninth heavenly layer appeared behind him, glowing with an intense brilliance.

This astral soul was like a divine battle formation diagram and it was spinning around frenziedly as an incomparable battle might erupted forth from it, terrifying to the extreme.

When this astral soul appeared, that figure was suddenly shrouded by blood-colored light. A powerful bloodline force erupted forth as his body seemed to be undergoing reconstruction. In the midst of the transformation, an invisible battle saint armor seemed to envelop his body, making him appear like a war god from ancient times.

Qin Wentian had a smile on his face when he saw this, feeling somewhat astonished in his heart.

He didn't expect the first person by his side to enter the deity realm would actually be Qi Yu. Back then, Qi Yu's talent was considered somewhat ordinary or Ancient Emperor Yi wouldn't have left him behind in Azure Mystic for him to take care of the God Hand Mountain Manor. But ever since he obtained the battle saint bone, he seemed to have transformed completely. His entire person seemed different from the past. He was now like a member of the Battle Saint Tribe from the past, during the time when the glory of the Battle Saint Tribe was as their peak.

And now, Qi Yu has became a heavenly deity and seemed to be in the midst of a transformation.

Qin Wentian didn't bother Qi Yu. After some time, the atmosphere within the Heaven Vault calmed down. Qi Yu's body still glowed with a resplendent light. He stretched out his hands and looked at himself, as though he didn't dare to believe what happened to him. Now, he was already a deity. Everything felt like a dream.

"Uncle Yu." Qin Wentian's voice drifted over. He walked towards Qi Yu and smiled, "Congratulations to Uncle Yu for breaking through to the heavenly deity realm."

Qi Yu stared at Qin Wentian. His gaze was much more spirited than before and his aura became even more outstanding. He laughed, "Wentian, this success is attributed to you. If you didn't help us to take back the battle saint bone, I would still be an ordinary person now. I would never be able to reach this level."

His words were from the bottom of his heart. He understood that his talent previously, was only ordinary.

"Is the battle saint bone of the Battle Saint Tribe so terrifying?" Although Qin Wentian knew that the battle saint bone was extraordinary, Qi Yu's transformation caused him to feel astonished.

"Our Battle Saint Tribe could dominate in ancient times because we depended solely on the battle saint bone. After that, because the Divine Ox Clan plundered it, we gradually declined. This isn't something as simple as a dao bone. It contains the inheritances of the Battle Saint Tribe's progenitor, the will of the entire tribe. Also, the astral soul I condensed this time around is the final astral soul of the tribe's progenitor. It is something that is perfectly compatible with my bloodline." Qi Yu spoke.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as he nodded lightly. This dao bone was truly wondrous.

A single dao bone had inherited the destiny of the entire tribe. Also, this dao bone was only fully compatible with the bloodlines of the Battle Saint Tribe. When this dao bone was in the hands of the Divine Ox Clan, the effect it displayed was limited.

"Let's go Uncle Yu. Since you broke through today, we definitely have to have a few drinks together to celebrate." Qin Wentian laughed. Qi Yu nodded his head. It was indeed time to have a good drink. The Battle Saint Tribe now had hope of regaining their former glory, and stand at the top of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Their silhouettes flashed as they flew towards the Heaven Vault's exit. At the same time, they also summoned the people from the Battle Saint Tribe from the Battle Saint Divine Palace which was one of the nine palaces in the boundless sea region. This palace was named after them because it was constructed by them. Upon knowing of Qi Yu breaking through to become a heavenly deity, the experts from the tribe were all extremely moved. They felt a roaring in their hearts. Finally, they were walking closer and closer to that once, impossibly far dream. If the tribe members in the three worlds in Azure Mystic knew of this, they would surely be extremely moved too.

However, their saint lord Qin Wentian told them to temporarily not disturb the others. This was just an insurance in case the worst-case scenario happens. If something really did happen and everyone in the upper world was wiped out, there would still be a branch in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. It wouldn't be too late to fetch them over after the Battle Saint Tribe truly returned to its former glory.

Little Rascal, Jun Mengchen, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the rest felt a little envy and jealousy when they learned that Qi Yu had broken through. Hence, they put in even more effort in their cultivation. Although the battle saint bone was partly responsible for the great transformation that happened to Qi Yu, they didn't want to lose out too much. All of them wanted to become heavenly deities. Only by becoming deities would they truly have enough power to fight together with Qin Wentian, aiding him in his endeavors.

Given the current situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the world overlords could already be considered insignificant.

After several months, another burst of divine light flashed in the starry skies of the Heaven Vault. Another person broke through, becoming a deity.

An uproarious laughter echoed through the starry space, filled with satisfaction. This voice belonged to Jun Mengchen. After Qi Yu broke through, Jun Mengcheng who was stimulated by that, worked doubly hard and he finally managed to become a heavenly deity a few months later.

In the Heaven Vault, the Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden were both extremely shocked. The rise of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect was probably something no one could stop. They finally could understand the trepidation the other peak powers had in their hearts for Qin Wentian. He who was the Heaven Vault's controller, could nurture heavenly deities much easier than the other powers.

As long as one's talent was high enough, their chances of success was very high if they cultivate in the starry space of the nine heavenly layers.

Right now, ignoring the alliance and Luoshen Clan, Qin Wentian's faction alone already has three heavenly deities - Qin Wentian, Qin Yu and Jun Mengchen. If his grandfather Luoshen Chuan joins it, they would have four deities and was powerful enough to hold their own. Also, the Demon God Mountain, Jian Junlai, the deities of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy all haven't been counted in yet. Even without the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace, Qin Wentian's strength had already reached a level so high that no one could ignore.

Also, all of this hasn't concluded yet. There would only be more experts appearing in the future.

Naturally, the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace also hoped that there would be deities arising from their own sects. But even if they could cultivate in the Heaven Vault, things weren't so easy. After so many years, only the two friends of Qin Wentian had managed to succeed.

A year later, yet another heavenly deity was born. This time, it was a demon god, a Heaven Devouring Demon God.

Little Rascal had just succeeded in becoming a deity. The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign was extremely excited. From now on, another deity-level heavenly devouring beast just appeared in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Qin Wentian stared at the snowy puppy that was Little Rascal swaggering over as a strange look flashed in his eyes. That lazy little fellow actually managed to become a heavenly deity?

How the hell did this happen?

Only to see Little Rascal placed his paws at the side of his head. He resembled a human and this action was extremely comical.

"Wentian, how's this demon god's talent?" Little Rascal smirked but his voice sounded as childish as before. Qin Wentian coldly snorted and directly aimed a slap at Little Rascal's head.

"Oi, why did you hit me?" Little Rascal glared at Qin Wentian.

"Your expression was simply asking for a beating." Qin Wentian smiled. Little Rascal bared its teeth, adopting a ferocious expression as divine might radiated from it.

"Oh, after becoming a demon god, it seems like you want to have a fight with me." Qin Wentian's smile grew wider. When Little Rascal saw that smile, he instantly changed his expression and became dispirited and listless. How depressing. He was already a heavenly deity yet he was still bullied. This baobao didn't feel happy at all.

However, Qin Wentian was extremely happy. Right now, there were three other heavenly deities beside him. His enduring finally bore some results. In the future, the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect would only grow stronger and stronger.

"Father, mother. I will let the name of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect spread to every corner in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Not only that, I will make sure the other thirty-two immortal realms knows about this. If you two are still alive, you all would surely know that I'm looking for both of you." Qin Wentian stared up at the stars as he mused in his heart. He didn't dare to ascertain whether his parents were still alive. If they were, why haven't they appeared yet? Unless, they weren't in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms or his parents would surely have heard of him given his current fame!

"Ai~ I've finally become a deity. Wentian, can we go out for a walk now? It has been too boring all these years." Little Rascal grumbled.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed before he smiled. "Sure. It's truly about time we head out. There are some debts out there waiting for us to collect!"

Chapter 1935: Reappearance of the Battle Saint Tribe

Ever since the changes that happened to the Desolate Region back then, there was only a single hegemonic power there now - the Divine Ox Clan.

The Divine Ox Clan's ambitions appeared to have been realized. They were now the only hegemonic power there, hence, their rule is supreme and unchallenged.

However, they didn't feel any sense of accomplishment.

The reason was because they didn't defeat the other hegemonic powers of the Desolate Region. The Luoshen Clan was fragmented. One faction followed Qin Wentian and entered the Heaven Vault for cultivation while the other faction led by Luoshen Mu, chose relocation and they seemed to have vanished completely.

For the third hegemonic power the Demon God Mountain, the five demon sovereigns and the many experts under them were cultivating in the Heaven Vault as well. The other demons were all dispersed throughout the eight great regions then. But it was said that during these few years, many demons started to gather at the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect as they sought out the five demon sovereigns. As long as they used to be someone from the Demon God Mountain, the demon sovereigns would accept them back. Qin Wentian also allowed them to occupy one of the nine divine cities in the Boundless Sea Region and they also had the qualifications to cultivate in the Heaven Vault.

The Divine Ox Clan naturally understood what this meant. The Luoshen Clan and Demon God Mountain were both growing increasingly stronger. This was especially so for the Demon God Mountain. They weren't fragmented and the five demon sovereigns were all present. And as for the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Chuan was Qin Wentian's grandfather. This fact alone was already sufficient.

On the contrary, the Divine Ox Clan's strength had diminished after Qin Wentian's group came here back then to slaughter their ox deities.

So, although they were 'ruling unchallenged' in the Desolate Region now. Was there anything worthy about it to be happy about?

In truth, the Divine Ox Clan was living in danger. They were living in constant worry that there would be a day where Qin Wentian led the Luoshen Clan back to the Desolate Region, slaughtering their way towards the Divine Ox Clan.

Sometimes, they were thinking they should do the same as they did in the past? Relocating their clan. Yet, they felt reluctance. They understood that Qin Wentian now didn't dare to make any reckless moves too. After all, the other peak powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms still had their attention on him. This was why there was peace during these few years. However, after the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect was established, some of the hegemonic powers felt wariness in their hearts. Several of them had already formed alliances. Evidently, they were on their guard against Qin Wentian.

But at the very least, temporarily, Qin Wentian's alliance still didn't have the power to threaten all the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The hegemonic powers weren't able to do anything to him either. It was too difficult to kill Qin Wentian now. After all, the Qiankun Sect, Nine Heavens Mystical Palace and the headmaster of the sacred academy were all protecting him.

In the Divine Ox Castle within the Desolate Region, greater demons could be seen everywhere. Humans were of a lower social status here and lived miserable existences. They were ordered like servants. Demons had extremely preferential treatment and the cries of complaint from humans filled the roads. All of them wanted to leave but currently, the boundlessly vast Desolate Region was now all under the Divine Ox Clan's control. Where could ordinary people go to? They weren't heavenly deities who could easily travel vast amounts of distance. Even world overlords wouldn't be able to do so. There was no need to talk about those below the world overlord level.

"Beauty, come over here." In an inn, an ox sat at the widow and was looking down on a group of people walking in the streets. His eyes were fixed on a beautiful maiden in the group as his demonic eyes gleamed with a bright light.

The beautiful maiden froze. She then spoke, "Senior demon, I'm someone from the Li Clan."

"The Li Clan that works for the Divine Ox Castle?" The demon ox's eyes flashed. The young maiden nodded, feeling that this statue should be able to help her through this crisis. However, the smile on the demon ox's face grew even wider. "No wonder you are so beautiful. I'm precisely from the Divine Ox Castle. Since your clan is working for the castle, you should serve me properly and I guarantee that your clan would surely benefit from it. In the future, you will accompany me and I will naturally dote on you well."

The maiden's face turned pale. The guard beside her also had an unsightly expression.

"Mhm?" The demon ox frowned, feeling very unhappy about this maiden's reaction.

"Senior ox, junior already has a marriage engagement." The maiden bowed low.

"Is that so?" The ox laughed maliciously. "Aren't things interesting then?"

After that, he stood up and his body expanded, transforming into a giant minotaur. His demonic qi flooded the area, causing people in the inn be startled as they retreated quickly. No one dared to antagonize a demon from the Divine Ox Castle.

Right now, no other powers in the Desolate Region could suppress the Divine Ox Castle. They were the kings of the Desolate Region. Ordinary people naturally wouldn't know of the entire situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They only knew that right now, the Divine Ox Castle was the strongest.

"If I need to personally act, things would be very miserable for you." The minotaur laughed coldly. He stretched out his hand and grabbed towards the maiden. His thick and dark hand looked extremely terrifying. The maiden trembled helplessly as she closed her eyes as her tears flowed down her face.

However, a moment later, that hand didn't manage to grab her at all. After that, sounds of exclamation rang out. When the maiden opened her eyes, that minotaur could be seen struggling madly as a fearsome giant hand grabbed hold of it instead. The minotaur was lifted into the air, it was like as long as the giant hand used the slightest force, the minotaur would be crushed into a pulp.

"I'M FROM THE DIVINE OX CASTLE!" The minotaur howled.

"Nice. I have a challenge letter in my hand, it would go well with your head when I deliver it to the Divine Ox Castle." A cold voice rang out. After that, a cracking sound echoed as the head of the minotaur was twisted off. The minotaur then no longer moved.

With a plop, the minotaur fell down to the ground. After that, a challenge letter floated down and landed beside his head. No one dared to go and open the letter. They inclined their heads and stared at the person who spoke. They could only tell that this person's aura was extremely outstanding. The mysterious person's silhouette then flashed as he departed the area.

Some time after he left, experts from the Divine Ox Clan arrived. When they opened the letter, their bodies trembled violently, knowing that something major was about to occur. This wasn't simply the death of a demonic beast from the Divine Ox Castle. This would become a matter that implicated the entire Divine Ox Clan.

There were only three words on the challenge latter, Battle Saint Tribe.

News then circulated out from the Desolate Region. The Battle Saint Tribe has resurfaced in the Desolate Region and they issued a challenge letter to the Divine Ox Clan. For a period of time, the entire Desolate Region was shaking.

The Battle Saint Tribe who once dominated the Desolate Region has finally reappeared after disappearing for so many years.

Many people have already forgotten that there was once such a power in the Desolate Region. But as the Battle Saint Tribe resurfaced, many stories of the past about them began to spread. Back then, they were forced to desperate straits by the Divine Ox Clan. The Divine Ox Clan used despicable methods and almost succeeded in eradicating everyone in the Battle Saint Tribe. In fact, the dao bone in Devilox's body came precisely from the Battle Saint Tribe but it was taken away back then by someone.

There were people who suspected that Devilox's death in the past had something to do with the Battle Saint Tribe.

Even the Divine Ox Clan had this suspicion too.

The atmosphere in the Divine Ox Castle grew tense and extremely heavy. The words Battle Saint Tribe became an invisible pressure that hung above the skies of the Divine Ox Castle. Even the Ox Chieftain didn't dare to underestimate these three words. After all, the Battle Saint Tribe was once an incomparably glorious existence.

And now, they were hiding in the dark. No one knew how strong they were.

The people in the other regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms also received the news. Their hearts were trembling, they didn't expect the Battle Saint Tribe who has been missing for so many years to actually resurface. Seems like the period of peace was about to end.

More and more experts from the Desolate Region gathered at the area around the Divine Ox Castle as they waited quietly. They knew that since the challenge letter was already delivered, the Battle Saint Tribe would surely show up.

The Divine Ox Clan was also waiting. They were about to face their mortal enemies. What was unknown was precisely the most terrifying. The Ox Chieftain stayed inside the castle, not daring to leave it even for half a step. He was waiting for the Battle Saint Tribe to appear.

Today, in the airspace above the Divine Ox Castle, demonic clouds flooded the sky, exuding extreme might. Within the castle, numerous demonic beasts inclined their heads and stared at the sky. The eyes of the Ox Chieftain flashed with demonic light. His divine sense shot out, extending towards the sky.

"Bzz~" The violent winds gusted as demonic qi filled the air. A kunpeng broke through the clouds, his silhouette blotting out the sun as he hovered above the castle.

"Kun Sovereign, what are you doing here at my Divine Ox Castle?" The Ox Chieftain had an ugly look on his face. Not only was the Kun Sovereign here, the other demon sovereigns were here as well.

"I heard that the Battle Saint Tribe is returning to the Desolate Region? We naturally wish to come here to take a look." The Kun Sovereign calmly spoke. The expression of the Ox Chieftain turned extremely ugly. "In that case, Luoshen Chuan, what are you doing here?"

"The Luoshen Clan is also a part of the Desolate Region. Why can't I come?" Luoshen Chuan replied.

In the Divine Ox Castle, the experts of the Divine Ox Clanfelt an invisible pressure boring down on them. Was it really only the Battle Saint Tribe who wanted to deal with them?

Why did they feel that this was Qin Wentian's revenge?

In the air, a figure appeared. Battle light radiated from his entire body, incomparably resplendent. He resembled a god of war. When the battle might radiated from him, the Ox Chieftain instantly understood that this person was truly someone from the Battle Saint Tribe. They, have truly returned.

"I, Qi Yu, challenge the Divine Ox Clan to a battle." Qi Yu descended to the airspace above the Divine Ox Castle.

"You have the battle saint bone in you. Are you the one who killed Devilox?" The Ox Chieftain coldly spoke.

"The dao bone merely returned to its original owners. Back then, you vile beasts used despicable methods to seize the saint bone of my tribe. Now that the saint bone has returned to us, I came here precisely for revenge. The Luoshen Clan Leader and Demon God Mountain's demon sovereigns will be the judges. Is there anyone in the Divine Ox Clan who dares to accept my challenge?" Qi Yu calmly spoke, challenging the ox deities of the Divine Ox Clan. He has not fought a single battle after he broke through to the heavenly deity realm.

The battle against the Divine Ox Clan would be the first trial he faced after he became a heavenly deity.

"Does the Battle Saint Tribe only have a single heavenly deity? What qualifications do you have to challenge my Divine Ox Clan?" The Ox Chieftain coldly spoke.

"The Battle Saint Tribe has already sent the challenge letter. Don't tell me your Divine Ox Clan is planning to gang up on him?" Luoshen Chuan stated. "If this is the case, we won't sit on the fence then."

The Ox Chieftain's expression turned ashen. Evidently, the Luoshen Clan and Demon God Mountain didn't come here just to see the drama. They were here to suppress the Divine Ox Clan together. This caused him to feel immense pressure. After so many years, Qin Wentian finally decided to act. However, Qin Wentian's actions weren't what the Ox Chieftain had expected. Qin Wentian actually used the Battle Saint Tribe as an excuse to challenge the Divine Ox Clan. In truth, there was no difference between this and that.

"Since this is the case, I want to see exactly how powerful a heavenly deity from the Battle Saint Tribe is. Can you measure up to the heavenly deities of your tribe in the past?" The Ox Chieftain prepared to act personally.

"Not you. Get another ox deity to step up. Your opponent is another person." Luoshen Chuan calmly spoke.

Anger flashed in the Ox Chieftain's eyes as he roared, "If you want to gang up on my clan, just do it directly. Why are you wasting time?"

"Today, the battle will be one between the Battle Saint Tribe and Divine Ox Clan. The one fighting you has a very deep connection to the Battle Saint Tribe. Naturally, if you don't want to accept this, all of us wouldn't mind acting as well." Luoshen Chuan coldly spoke. Today, even if the Divine Ox Clan didn't want to accept the terms of this battle, they had to accept it!

Chapter 1936: Battle Saint Art

The Ox Chieftain had anger in his eyes. Luoshen Chuan and the demon sovereigns clearly came here with ill intentions.

The leading experts of the three hegemonic powers in the Desolate Region were gathered here today.

"Only the people from the Battle Saint Tribe will fight?" The Ox Chieftain coldly asked. He knew that this battle was unavoidable. However, Luoshen Chuan stated that only those with a connection with the Battle Saint Tribe and Divine Ox Clan would be fighting. This meant that Luoshen Chuan himself wouldn't act. If not, his words wouldn't make sense.

There was no reason for a heavenly deity to use words to trick him.

"You can put it like that." Luoshen Chuan nodded. The Ox Chieftain turned his gaze over, staring at the ox deities behind him. The ox deities seemed to be conversing. After that, a muscular figure walked out, he was clearly one of the heavenly deities from the Divine Ox Clan.

He had an ox head and a human body, muscular to the extreme. White puffs of smoke emitted from his nostrils as his terrifying eyes gleamed with a demonic light.

His saucer-like eyes stared at Qi Yu as he coldly spoke, "The Battle Saint Tribe is a tribe that was long exterminated. To think that there are some vile spawns who survived. In that case, let's make sure that it is completely exterminated today."

A terrifying aura gushed forth as rumbling sounds rang out. Demonic qi gushed forth, forming into dark clouds as the ox deity's body expanded, becoming a gigantic minotaur that blotted out the sun. His horns seemed to be capable of touching the sky just by him standing there.

"BOOM!" He soared into the air. This place was the Divine Ox Castle, he didn't wish for the aftershocks of the battle to devastate the castle.

Qi Yu soared into the air with him. The two of them appeared in an area extremely high up. Their incomparably gigantic bodies in the vision of those below, were of the same as ordinary humans. Also, right now in the boundlessly vast Desolate Region, countless people were staring up at the sky, looking at the two combatants.

Luoshen Chuan, the Kun Sovereign and the others all stayed below to watch. It was the same for the experts from the Divine Ox Castle as well.

After re-acquiring the battle saint bone, how strong would an expert who has stepped into the heavenly deity realm from the Battle Saint Tribe be? The truth would be revealed soon.

In the air, the two figures faced each other in opposition. Behind the ox deity, a gigantic kui ox phantom manifested. The ox deity was already large enough, but this phantom was even larger, completely blotting out the sky, causing the area below to descend into darkness.

Behind Qi Yu, his astral soul appeared. This astral soul was in the form of a divine diagram that contained its own heaven and earth. Golden light radiated from it as a fearsome battle intent could be felt.

"ROAR!" All of a sudden, the ox deity let out a bellow. His voice was like thunder, causing the heavens and earth to tremble, capable of destroying the souls of people with the volume of his roar alone. Qi Yu trembled, he could feel the sound waves transforming into an energy that could destroy everything. At this moment, a giant word 'Battle' appeared, it brimmed with a resplendent light as it shot forth, clashing against the sound waves from the roar. In the next moment, a terrifying invisible energy erupted forth from the impact, capable of destroying everything.

In the next moment, a stifling pressure descended. The demonic qi of heaven and earth churned wildly as that ox deity threw his head back and howled. His howl reverberated through the world and countless kui ox phantoms actually appeared, all of them mirroring his movements and howling at the sky.

A terrifying feeling appeared in Qi Yu's heart. It felt like his body was about to disintegrate and his soul about to be destroyed. The countless kui oxen roars seemed to create an army of ox galloping around inside him, trampling on his life.

The astral soul behind Qi Yu shone with a boundless light and after that, numerous pairs of hands appeared, rapidly undergoing a transformation. This power of transformation was like an absolute divine formation, endless and ceaseless. After that, these palms blasted out, containing a towering battle intent, capable of destroying everything as he aimed them at the ox phantoms.

The sky trembled violently like it was on the verge of collapse. At this moment, another giant hand appeared in Qi Yu's astral soul. This hand could blot out the skies as well and it was formed from an undying intent of battle. It blasted out and penetrated through everything, aiming for that ox deity.

When the ox deity felt the terrifying might of this palm attack, he immediately took out a divine drum and punched it. A moment later, the light from lightning and thunder, imbued with the energy of the sun and moon shot out, slamming into that giant palm. A formless aftershock manifested, transforming into waves that completely devastated their surroundings.

The people below all felt that the sky was trembling. It was only after a long time before the trembling calmed down. Qi Yu's expression was incomparably calm, he stared at the ox deity before him, "Is your strength is only at this level?"

His voice was like thunder and those people below could hear him. After they heard that, their hearts were incomparably shocked. This heavenly deity from the Battle Saint Tribe was simply arrogant to the extreme. He said to an ox deity from the Divine Ox Clan, 'Is your strength only at this level?'

In that case, does it mean that this heavenly deity from the Battle Saint Tribe could become even stronger?

The ox deity's expression turned unsightly after he heard that. He already gave it his all in this battle but if he did so and his opponent didn't, this meant that a calamity is truly coming to the Divine Ox Clan today.

"Let me show you the ultimate art of the Battle Saint Tribe. The Battle Saint Art." Qi Yu stated. As the sound of his voice faded, his astral soul enveloped the entire area. He folded hand seals and a moment later, boundless battle intent began to manifest from all directions.

The ox deity stared at the surroundings. He could see many words that represented the character 'battle' appearing. A strong sense of unease appeared in his heart as his heart trembled in fear.

Qi Yu's aura explosively surged up, it was like the boundless battle intent here fused as one with him, becoming part of his strength. The Qi Yu now was like a true god of war.

The Battle Saint Tribe had the word 'battle' in their name.

The entire world was trembling. Qi Yu's palm strike seemed to contain everything in the world, it brimmed with boundless battle intent and countless resplendent battle words manifested, integrating themselves into the palm. The power of this palm could exterminate everything. When the ox deity felt this pressure, his expression instantly paled. A sense of helplessness appeared in his heart. He could sense that this palm strike was over ten times more powerful compared to Qi Yu's earlier attack. This palm was simply unblockable. It was an invincible palm strike.

"Careful!" Below, the Ox Chieftain roared loudly, he could clearly see that the situation was bad. But everything was too late. When the palm landed, all resistance was futile. This palm could even shatter the heavenly dao and break the samsara cycle. This was the ultimate battle saint intent of the Battle Saint Art. It was able to shatter all structures and remove all obstacles.

At the moment of impact, the ox deity's gigantic body began to turn illusory. A deafening boom rang out, the ox deity perished as his soul was shattered.

This scene caused countless people below to tremble in fear. Too powerful. The resurface of the Battle Saint Tribe in the Desolate Region was a world-shaking event. To think that they are actually so powerful to this extent. That ox deity didn't even have the chance to flee. He was killed in a single palm strike.

The Ox Chieftain turned ashen. Currently for the Divine Ox Clan, they only had four heavenly deities and now, they just lost one more. With him added into the count, they only had a total of three deities now.

Also, the strength of Qi Yu from the Battle Saint Tribe caused him even to feel trepidation. Was the Divine Ox Clan, who had become a hegemonic power since countless years ago, about to welcome a calamity today?

"BOOM!" The Ox Chieftain stepped out. He wanted to personally fight. He knew that the other two ox deities weren't a match for Qi Yu. If they fought, they would surely die. Hence, he wanted to fight Qi Yu personally.

"Chieftain, what are you doing?" Luoshen Chuan spoke when he noticed the Ox Chieftain stepping out. "Didn't I already say that your opponent is someone else?"

"No matter who it is from the Battle Saint Tribe. I will accept the challenge. Get him to scram out." The Ox Chieftain coldly spoke.

"Since chieftain is so impatient, we will listen to you then." A voice drifted over from the void. After that, a young man in white stepped out. He was extraordinarily handsome and had a transcendent aura. He seemed to be the main character of the world by just simply standing there.

"Qin Wentian." The expression of the Ox Chieftain turned cold. "I've long guessed that you are the one behind all of this. Were you are the one who killed Devilox back then? You seized the dao bone away. But what connection do you have with the Battle Saint Tribe?"

"He is the saint lord of the Battle Saint Tribe. All of us will obey his orders." Qi Yu coldly spoke, causing the eyes of the Ox Chieftain to narrow.

Qin Wentian was actually the saint lord of the Battle Saint Tribe. He killed Devilox and returned the dao bone to them. After that, he nurtured such a terrifying heavenly deity from the Battle Saint Tribe and came here to the Divine Ox Castle for revenge.

But the Ox Chieftain was also an extraordinary character. He hurriedly calm his heart, he then spoke to Qin Wentian, "In that case, you want to fight me alone?"

Qin Wentian's talent was outstanding and is also very powerful, he could even defeat Heaven's Son. But the Ox Chieftain himself was the number one expert of the Divine Ox Clan. He wouldn't shy away.

Qin Wentian and the others didn't seem to have any intentions of ganging up on him. They wanted to use the Battle Saint Tribe's name to challenge the Divine Ox Clan.

All of this, was to fight him one on one!

Chapter 1937: Fighting the Ox Chieftain

Since Qin Wentian wanted to challenge him. As the Ox Chieftain, there was no reason for him to fear.

The Ox Chieftain took large steps as he strode over, causing the space to tremble. Every single step seemed to be pressing down on the hearts of everyone, causing the hearts of many to shudder.

Qin Wentian was someone whom many felt to be the one with the most outstanding talent that has appeared since countless years. He originally was a member of the Qin Clan, Qin Yuanfeng's son, Qin Tiangang's grandson. He once defeated two heavenly deities from the Qin Clan with ease at the Boundless Sea Region. He also defeated Heaven's Son Qin Dangtian head-on. He also solved the secret of the Heaven Vault and became its controller. He then established the Qin Heavenly Deity Sect and was its sect leader. Right now, he had one more identity. He was the saint lord of the Battle Saint Tribe who used to dominate the Desolate Region countless years ago. He wanted to help the Battle Saint Tribe regain their past glory.

For this battle, he challenged the Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan.

How could people of the world not be filled with anticipation with regards to this battle? The Ox Chieftain was considered one of the peak experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Between him and Qin Wentian, who was the stronger one?

The Ox Chieftain stared at Qin Wentian. His saucer-like eyes flickered with coldness. He didn't say anything, he let out a bellow and shot into the air, choosing the sky as the battlefield.

Only Qin Wentian's fresh blood could cleanse the humiliation the Divine ox Clan has suffered.

And as the Ox Chieftain, he naturally understood that this battle didn't concern glory. It concerned the fate of the Divine Ox Clan.

If he lost, the divine Ox Clan would instantly become history.

He naturally wouldn't be so foolish as to think that Qin Wentian, Luoshen Chuan and the various demon sovereigns were here only to challenge the Divine Ox Clan. Given their past grudges, the other party evidently wanted to completely annihilate the Divine Ox Clan, making his clan vanish forever.

Qin Wentian's white robes fluttered in the wind. His body soared into the air. Although he didn't need to care about the aftershocks hitting the Divine Ox Castle, there were still many innocent people spectating the battle from afar. The aftershocks from a deity-level battle were simply too terrifying. If they were to fight at ground level, even the ground would collapse. It was unknown how much area would be razed to flat ground.

In the air among the clouds, the Ox Chieftain's body grew larger. Qin Wentian was the same, transforming into a giant. They were like true gods, high up and imposing in the sky. A wave of heavy pressure bore downwards, the surroundings were filled with deathly silence. If someone were to be at the region where the pressure from them was released, they would most probably die directly.

The Ox Chieftain took out a black spear. This spear was named the Ox Deity Spear, green and black qi interweaved at the spear tip as the spear manifested numerous blackholes. It was terrifying to the extreme.

"BOOM!" He took a small step out and abruptly, an immensely powerful might was generated. In the sky, numerous gigantic ox deity shadows appeared, blotting out the sun and stars. This incomparably powerful pressure bore down on Qin Wentian, causing Qin Wentian to be unable to move. It felt like the weight of the entire sky was on his shoulders. His feet couldn't move at all, his body felt incredibly heavy.

Those ox deity manifestations began to breath out, causing black qi to spew forth, flowing towards Qin Wentian. These destructive qi flows had the power to corrode everything.

When Qin Wentian felt the destructive might within, his body began to generate a dazzling radiance. The power of his bloodline transformed into light as it radiated outwards, breaking through the black miasma. He stood within the black mist, completely not moving at all. His face was as calm as ever.

The current him was different from the past, he was no longer the young man he had been and was now a heavenly deity. He had the air of a grandmaster, by simply standing there, it was as though he was at a height where he could peer down at the deities under the sky.

The Ox Chieftain brandished the spear and pierced towards Qin Wentian. At this instant, numerous ox deity phantoms were generated, locking down this space. It felt like this spear wanted to penetrate everything, giving Qin Wentian no way to evade. And at this moment, Qin Wentian was still bound by the immense pressure, with the weight of the entire sky on his shoulders.

The dao of dimensions unleashed its might. For a period of time, numerous dimensional blackholes appeared in Qin Wentian's surroundings, containing boundless space within them. When the destructive black spear pierced over, these dimensional blackholes transformed into terrifying vortexes that could absorb everything, directly swallowing the destructive might of the spear within.

The expression of the Ox Chieftain didn't change, he has long anticipated this. He had personally seen Qin Wentian's strength before. Back then when Qin Wentian fought against Qin Dangtian, he was present as well. If he could kill Qin Wentian with just this, it would be impossible for Qin Wentian to have survived up until now.

At this moment, the black spear pierced out once more, sweeping across the sky. Numerous ox deity phantoms were generated. At this moment, Qin Wentian felt that these ox deity phantoms locked him down purposely and they started to explode frenziedly. The explosions were powerful enough to bury this entire space. Even the dimensional blackholes were destroyed from the explosions.

Qin Wentian stared at this scene calmly. His eyes turned into dimensional vortexes and with a single glance, he actually locked all the destructive explosive power within his eye technique. Numerous spatial sealing seals were generated, completely sealing away the explosions targeted at him. Naturally, there were even more explosions blasting his way. Qin Wentian took a step back and swept out with his demon sword. The sword transformed into a time tempest that negated all the explosions.

The explosions were gradually eliminated. The Ox Chieftain coldly stared at Qin Wentian. This young heavenly deity before his eyes was much stronger now compared to the time when he fought with Qin Dangtian. Regardless of the time laws or dimensional laws, Qin Wentian was now more proficient in them. It felt that he had also imbued sealing energy into his dao. Qin Wentian was growing tougher and tougher to deal with.

But the more it was so, the stronger the Ox Chieftain's killing intent was. His battle intent towered up. Today, if he didn't kill Qin Wentian, his clan would be annihilated. One party has to die today. There wasn't another path.

"RUMBLE~" A thunderous boom rang out as the Ox Chieftain transformed into an immensely gigantic kui ox. A baleful aura permeated the area, he actually chose to revert to his true form. The ox deity spear transformed into his horns, which radiated a black destructive might. His eyes stared at Qin Wentian piercingly, causing others to feel fear. It was like being looked at by the Ox Chieftain was an extremely terrifying thing.

The pressure from the sky mounted as more gigantic kui oxen appeared.

He was the chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan, a god of kui oxen. As a greater demon, he naturally has his own innate ability. At this moment, the gazes of everyone froze. When they stared upwards, they only saw endless kui oxen filling the sky. How could one resist this?

These kui oxen started to gallop, causing the scene to instantly turn chaotic. The sky seemed to be about to break, Qin Wentian's surroundings were buried by the galloping oxen, there was no path for him to retreat at all. This entire space was filled with the shadows of the kui oxen. He wasn't dealing with a single one, but millions of ox deities at the same time.

When Qin Wentian saw this, the power of his bloodline erupted forth as he transformed into a demon god. Countless demon gods appeared as one of his astral souls was released. This caused the eyes of the Ox Chieftain to narrow. In the past, Qin Wentian didn't display this astral soul before. This astral soul was also from the ninth heavenly layer. This indicated that Qin Wentian didn't simply only have twelve astral souls. It seemed like he had endless number of astral souls.

This astral soul was like a grand summoning formation. When it combines its ability with Qin Wentian's bloodline talent, a countless number of demonic beast constellations in the nine heavenly layers suddenly formed a resonance with him. Boundless astral light rained down as numerous demonic beasts were summoned, all of them at the deity level as their roars rumbled the sky.

All of these were saint beasts and greater demons. The sight of so many of them caused fear in the hearts of the spectators.

"Kill." Qin Wentian spoke. In an instant, the summoned demon gods rushed towards the galloping kui oxen, causing an immense amount of destructive might to manifest from the impact. Thunderous booms echoed through the sky, everyone could feel how tyrannical and ruthless this clash was.

"How crazy. Qin Wentian has the Luoshen Clan's bloodline and the bloodline ability of divinity rearing. And now, he also has a summon-type astral soul, capable of summoning the demon gods from their respective constellations in the nine heavenly layers to clash against the Ox Chieftain." Many people felt their hearts trembling. Even the experts from the Divine Ox Castle felt their hearts pounding when they saw this. Initially, they were filled with boundless confidence towards their Ox Chieftain. But when they saw the battle in the air, their confidence started to waver.

This junior whose name shook the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was simply too strong. After his identity was exposed, everytime he acted would give rise to a huge commotion, causing the hearts of countless people to tremble. This time, it was no exception as well.

In that case, would the Ox Chieftain become one of Qin Wentian's stepping stones today?

Chapter 1938: Becoming History

The violence in the air, the rampant demonic qi. Qin Wentian was like a demon god, exuding boundless magnificence as he lorded over the world.

The Ox Chieftain created a stampede of kui oxen while Qin Wentian actually summoned demon gods to fight for him. It seemed that between him and the Ox Chieftain, two absolutely supreme demon gods were fighting for the hegemon position.

In the boundless space, the destructive energy continued to permeate the atmosphere. The galloping oxen had no way to reach their target. There were simply too many greater demons protecting Qin Wentian.

The Ox Chieftain's eyes shone with a terrifying light as he stared at Qin Wentian. He didn't expect that the current Qin Wentian was already so powerful to this extent.

A terrifying baleful light gleamed in his eyes as the Ox Chieftain moved. His gigantic kui ox body rushed towards Qin Wentian. The stampede of kui oxen opened up a path for him, tearing apart the summoned demon gods. Gradually, the number of kui oxen was reduced but the Ox Chieftain didn't stop.

His saucer-like eyes locked onto Qin Wentian as his horns, that the ox deity spear transformed into, gleamed with an intense darkness. His speed abruptly enhanced as a gigantic ox deity shadow appeared, locking down the sky. Everywhere he passed by, the summoned demon gods were blasted into pieces by his horns. It was like none of the summoned demon gods could block his charge.

Qin Wentian was the only thing in his eyes.

Qin Wentian continued standing there unmovingly. He turned his gaze towards the giant charging ox. The Ox Chieftain became even more savage, like he has lost all patience. He wanted to end things now by killing Qin Wentian, to prevent a future source of trouble.

However, the Ox Chieftain wasn't a fool. Although he has lost his patience, he only did so after careful calculation. He believed that his body contained enough strength, this was why he dared to act so impetuously, charging across the sky.

BOOM!

The sky trembled violently, Qin Wentian's heart trembled along with it.

RUMBLE~ As the Ox Chieftain moved nearer, the pounding of Qin Wentian's heart increased in intensity like it was about to explode. Not only was his heart pounding, all parts of his body were trembling. A stifling pressure bore down on him, rendering him immobile.

The giant body of the Ox Chieftain moved nearer and nearer, the demonic glint in his eyes was extremely terrifying to look at.

His body seemed to transform into a beam of destructive light that shot towards Qin Wentian, wanting to pierce Qin Wentian through. When he got near, Qin Wentian felt an unprecedented immense pressure. This was one of the strongest opponents he had faced.

Qin Wentian found it extremely tough to move. He wanted to lift his feet but his legs simply spasmed under the terrifying pressure. His hands were incomparably heavy as well. As the Ox Chieftain closed in, the power of his dao art was also enhanced to the extreme. Even for Qin Wentian, it was very hard to struggle free.

At this moment, a golden layer of light covered Qin Wentian. This light illuminated the surroundings and was like an eternal dao that shone upon everything.

At this instant, the entire sky transformed into a golden-colored spatial world. The countless flowing lines were of sealing energy, that sparkling golden frame was from supreme spatial energy. Also, the power within this golden world was that of time.

The Ox Chieftain's movements grew slower and slower like he has fallen into a golden swamp. The stampede of oxen that galloped over all froze and were unable to move. They howled in rage but were unable to struggle free.

This was an absolute space containing an incomparable dao might. Qin Wentian fused the various types of laws into one to create this supreme dao art.

"Absolute Confinement." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. The golden light intensified. Everything seemed to stop. Time was completely still, and not only for his opponent, even Qin Wentian's body also entered a state of stillness.

In that area, time no longer flowed. The space itself entered a state of stillness. Even for the powerful Ox Chieftain, he couldn't move at all at this moment. He was like a gigantic kui ox statue that was extremely vivid and lifelike.

How powerful the energy from a dao art must be to render the Ox Chieftain immobile? Forcing him into a state of stillness.

Below, the gazes of countless experts froze. Even Luoshen Chuan and the various demon sovereigns had shocked looks on their faces when they stared in the sky. They didn't know how much Qin Wentian has improved by during all these years and also had no idea how powerful Qin Wentian's dao arts were. But it seemed that Qin Wentian was able to have different combinations of astral souls that could enable his dao arts to grow increasingly stronger and perfect.

The him at this moment caused everything in the space to be stilled. This was an absolute power. Even the immensely strong Ox Chieftain was confined by it, resembling a golden statue. This was too terrifying. If they were the ones against Qin Wentian, would they be able to resist such a dao?

Everything in the space was frozen solid but the energy of the dao art still permeated the area. Fear appeared in the Ox Chieftain's eyes. His dao art was being suppressed completely, and he was unable to break the current situation. This passive state of waiting was like waiting for Qin Wentian to give him judgement. Such a feeling was simply too agonizing.

Waves of dao might flowed within the confined space, it confined life, confined time and confined space. The Ox Chieftain only felt his will of resistance growing increasingly weaker. His body moved a bit as he let out a roar of rage. But after that, his body entered the state of stillness once more.

He glared ruthlessly at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian at this moment also didn't seem to be feeling too good. He was using all his strength to control the power of this dao art and was also like a statue. The two of them seemed to have become eternal statues, simply standing in the sky, unable to move for all eternity.

Time slowly flowed by, the space was completely still. The Ox Chieftain moved a little again but as more time flowed, his movements have all completely stopped. In fact, his gaze was now listless and vacant. No one knew what he was thinking about and no one understood how terrifying this experience was for him.

The people of the Divine Ox Castle felt their hearts pounding as they felt incomparably anxious. Yet no one tried to help the Ox Chieftain, even the ox deities didn't dare. Because, Luoshen Chuan and the demon sovereigns were still present. Under such circumstances, if they dared to act to save the Ox Chieftain, they would only have a path of death.

Today, would their Divine Ox Clan really be completely annihilated?

Many kui oxen felt fear and unease in their hearts.

It felt like a very long time has passed by. Finally, the golden light faded away gradually and the absolute confined space also began to lax. Qin Wentian drew in a deep breath as fatigue was clear on his face. Earlier, he had to unleash his dao art constantly to suppress the Ox Chieftain, making it so that the Ox Chieftain had no power to resist as he endlessly stripped his life force away bit by bit.

At this moment, the Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan seemed to be completely transformed into a giant statue. He fell from the air, creating sonic booms from the speed. A few moments later, a thunderous bang rang out as the territories of the Divine Ox Castle were devastated from the impact of the fall. The giant statue of the Ox Chieftain was like an eternal statue, simply standing on the ground. Yet, all of them knew that not long ago, this statue was an immensely powerful heavenly deity, the Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan.

How is all of this possible?

Countless experts from the Divine Ox Clan didn't dare to believe in such an ending.

Their chieftain was defeated and his life was taken away.

Qin Wentian's body floated downwards. He took out a black rod and smashed it towards the statue. After that, a deafening boom rang out. The statue trembled and completely lost all hints of life after that.

Qin Wentian actually launched one more strike. Because he knew what happened earlier, he knew that the impact of the fall from the statue didn't manage to kill the Ox Chieftain. It was too difficult to kill such a powerful existence like that. He had to act decisively to prevent all future sources of trouble.

"The Divine Ox Clan brings havoc and trouble to the Desolate Region. In the past, they used despicable methods to destroy the Battle Saint Tribe. Today, I, as the saint lord of the Battle Saint Tribe, brought the elders of the Battle Saint Tribe here to destroy the Divine Ox Clan." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. His voice echoing out loud. Within the Divine Ox Castle, countless roars of rage and fear rang out instantly.

Qin Wentian's words were like announcing their death sentences.

Qin Wentian wanted the Divine Ox Clan to vanish completely from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

An intense battle occurred inside the Divine Ox Castle, causing countless casualties. From now onwards, the Divine Ox Clan would no longer exist in the Desolate Region. Qin Wentian and his group also left.

Later on when more people came to the Divine Ox Castle, all they saw was a stretch of ruins.

Qin Wentian's group had already left, but right now, many figures appeared in the stretch of ruins. All of them quietly stood in the airspace above the ruins as countless emotions filled their hearts. The powerful Divine Ox Clan who was one of the hegemonic powers in the Desolate Region for countless years, actually became nothing but dust, fading into the history of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They had witnessed the death of a hegemonic power.

News of what happened in the Desolate Region swiftly spread to the other great regions. Countless people felt their hearts trembling when they learned of it.

The annihilation of a hegemonic power should be sufficient to cause the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to tremble.

This time, it wasn't just the annihilation of the Divine Ox Clan. Behind this story, there was another piece of news that caused chills in the hearts of many people. Qin Wentian killed the Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan. How strong was he now exactly?

Many hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms felt unease. This time, Qin Wentian used the name of the Battle Saint Tribe to take revenge. Maybe, this was to avoid triggering the sensitive nerves of the various peak powers. However, seeing that a hegemonic power had been destroyed, how could the other hegemonic powers calmly accept this?

The atmosphere of the immortal realms was tainted by fear and panic. Naturally, there were also many crazy thoughts that arose because of what happened!

Chapter 1939: Response of the Hegemonic Powers

After the Divine Ox Clan was annihilated, no other powers were in charge of the Desolate Region.

The Luoshen Clan was fragmented, one faction was in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, while the other faction has relocated. The Demon God Mountain was also in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, which resulted in the interesting situation today. This vast region actually had no hegemonic powers controlling it. This resulted in many experts contending against each other as a period of chaos began in the Desolate Region.

For the lower worlds controlled by the Desolate Region, a super strong mysterious power suddenly appeared in a city, fixing their base there. No one knew where this power originated from. This power kept a very low profile, but there were once some probes being conducted on it before and the only information ever collected was that the strength of this mysterious power was unfathomable.

This power was none other than one of the hegemons in the Desolate Region of the past. The Luoshen Clan.

Naturally, this was the faction that relocated away, the faction where Luoshen Mu was in charge.

Now, the atmosphere in the Luoshen Clan was a little subtle. Many people of this faction suddenly brought up the topic of returning to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They weren't willing to stay behind in this place full of weaklings. Naturally, they would have such thoughts because of the recent news they obtained. Although the Luoshen Clan has relocated, it was impossible that they didn't leave behind any informants in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. During these years, all the major events that happened in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were known by them.

Not long ago, the Divine Ox Clan was just annihilated. The person who did this was none other than the son of the past princess of the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Qianxue – Qin Wentian.

The power that once humiliated their Luoshen Clan was now razed to flat ground, becoming a part of the history of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Not only so, the once imposing and lofty Qin Clan who went to the Luoshen Mountain to humiliate them before, was now also facing a great calamity. Many years ago, Qin Wentian went to the Heaven Region to stop the wedding between Qin Dangtian and Goddess Nichang. After that, he defeated Heaven's Son and his grandfather Qin Tiangang traveled through time, dragging Qin Ding into chaotic space. Multiple heavenly deities of the Qin Clan had died then. This was a great catastrophe to them.

Different to the Qin Clan and Divine Ox Clan, Qin Wentian and the Luoshen Faction led by Luoshen Chuan, have now reclaimed their glory. They established the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect and could cultivate in the Heaven Vault. It was rumored that right now, numerous heavenly deities have already been nurtured. The Battle Saint Tribe also resurfaced and Qin Wentian was their saint lord. Right now, the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were filled with wariness with regards to Qin Wentian and the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect he established.

In the great hall of the Luoshen Clan, there were currently many experts gathered, in the midst of a discussion.

“I feel that we should return. The Heaven Vault is a cultivation secret realm and can help nurture many heavenly deities. It’s rumored that Qin Wentian already has multiple heavenly deities under his wing.” An old man spoke. With such an opportunity before them, they truly didn’t want to miss it.

“Don’t forget how had we treated Qin Wentian back then. It’s one thing that he doesn’t hate us. But if you hope that Qin Wentian would allow us to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation, that’s nothing but a foolish dream.” Another person argued.

“Back then, everyone in our Luoshen Clan came to a joint agreement of not accepting Qin Wentian. When Qin Wentian came, only Luoshen Chuan stood by his side. But now, aren’t the other members of the Luoshen Clan cultivating in the Heaven Vault as well? In any case, we share the same blood and we are all family. His grandfather and uncle are still around. If we apologize, there shouldn’t be any problems. What does it count for if we keep on turtling here?”

Clearly, there were people who wanted to return to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Even if they had to lay down their pride, it was fine to them. Everything was good as long as they could enter the Heaven Vault to cultivate.

Many people started arguing but the voices of returning were louder.

“Enough.” Luoshen Mu sat on the throne and berated. His expression was like ice.

The people of the Luoshen Clan could go back. Maybe, Qin Wentian might accept them. But what about him, Luoshen Mu?

He was the person who seized the position of the clan leader away from Luoshen Chuan. He was also the person who fragmented the Luoshen Clan. He had been plotting against Luoshen Chuan since a long time ago and back then when the Qin Clan arrived, he strongly disagreed with Luoshen Chuan who wanted to protect Qin Wentian. The Heaven Vault might accept the others, but it was impossible for Qin Wentian to allow him, Luoshen Mu, to enter. Also, once they returned, the Luoshen Clan would be under the control of Luoshen Chuan again. He, Luoshen Mu, would only have a single path left, he had to leave the Luoshen Clan and become a stranger. After so many years of fighting, wouldn’t he be a joke?

“In the future, I don’t wish to listen to such discussions ever again. Our Luoshen Clan doesn’t need to depend on others to survive.” Luoshen Mu coldly spoke. Many people turned their gazes to him, especially so for those who wished to return. Their gazes held no signs of respect, they no longer felt any reverence for Luoshen Mu.

“Clan leader, there are some words I shouldn’t say but right now, our faction of the Luoshen Clan is now in such a state, I will feel extremely stifled if I still don’t say them.” An old man spoke. “Once, we supported you to become the clan leader because we wanted the Luoshen Clan to grow stronger and stronger under your leadership. This was what you, the clan leader, promised us then. But in reality, after clan leader took over the Luoshen Clan, all our Luoshen Clan has known, was humiliation. In fact, we were even forced to relocate to a particle world. We are one of the hegemonic powers in the Desolate Region yet we have declined and fallen so much. As for Luoshen Chuan and the others, they were the ones who got revenge for the humiliation our Luoshen Clan suffered. In addition, they are growing increasingly stronger. There would come a day where it would no longer matter if our faction of the Luoshen Clan ceased to exist. People of the world would forget about us. Only the faction in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would be the true Luoshen Clan then.”

These words caused the hearts of many people to resonate. Through these many years, they have seen a lot of things but didn’t express their true emotions. It was impossible for them not to feel resentment. Right now, their emotions finally erupted forth.

Luoshen Mu turned pale. He glanced at everyone, many people were looking at him. Their gazes no longer had any respect like in the past, there was only resentment. It was like the decline of the Luoshen Clan was his responsibility alone.

Is this really what is happening? If it wasn’t for the appearance of Qin Wentian, would the faction led by Luoshen Chuan be able to rise up?

He didn’t lose to Luoshen Chuan, he lost to a junior instead, Luoshen Qianxue’s son. It was said that not long ago, Qin Wentian just killed the Ox Chieftain of the Divine Ox Clan. From this, one could very well imagine how powerful Qin Wentian was currently.

“If you all want to return, just return then. I won’t block any of you.” Luoshen Mu calmly spoke. After that, he stood up and left, leaving behind everyone who exchanged mutual glances. If they returned now, would Qin Wentian and Luoshen Chuan really accept them? Their hearts were filled with trepidation.

The change to the Luoshen Clan was clearly triggered by the destruction of the Divine Ox Clan. Also, the influence of that battle in the Divine Ox Castle wasn’t merely this.

Many hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could feel a sense of crisis. At this moment, there were actually many powers heading to the western location of the Universe Region, to the Pureland of Bliss.

They naturally didn’t go there to seek the buddha about the dao. They wanted the buddhist sect there to help out.

In the Pureland of Bliss, in an ancient hall in the buddha sect, a reverend came by to welcome the heavenly deities of some of the hegemonic powers. All the heavenly deities acted very politely here to the buddha cultivators of the buddha sect.

At this moment, many of the heavenly deities were seated on simple-looking praying mats.

“Our buddhist sect pursues the great dao and has always had no intentions to be embroiled within the chaotic battles in the immortal realms. I can understand all of your intentions in coming here today, but we are helpless to do anything.” A reverend clad in a cassock pressed his palms together as he spoke to the heavenly deities gathered here.

“The Pureland of Bliss has always been separated from matters of the mortal world. We naturally understand this. All reverends in the Pureland of Bliss are people with high merits and dislike participating in disputes. However, right now, the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms cannot know peace. Qin Wentian has caused multiple deity-level battles and he even annihilated the Divine Ox Castle completely. How many lives are there in a deity-level clan? All of them were exterminated just like that. He is like a butcher whose hands are stained with blood.” A heavenly deity calmly spoke. He pressed his palms together and bowed, “The buddha is merciful, how can you allow such a vile person to continue wreaking havoc in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? Also, the buddha sect in the Pureland of Bliss pursues the great dao. Inside the Heaven Vault, there are countless buddha-type constellations in the nine heavenly layers that could be of great benefit to the reverends in comprehending the dao of the buddha. Right now, Qin Wentian is monopolizing it alone and he is constantly causing trouble. His plan is probably to destroy all the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms so he can rule unchallenged.”

“Benefactor Qin doesn’t seem to be a person of great evil. As long as all of you don’t push him too hard, there won’t be a war in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.” The reverend calmly spoke, he naturally had a balance in his heart and could judge things clearly.

“The present is different from the past. Currently, Qin Wentian’s strength is getting stronger and stronger. His ambition is starting to show. He is relying on the Heaven Vault to do whatever he wants. The Divine Ox Clan is a very good example, there’s sure to be more cases like that. The reverends of the Pureland of Bliss might not embroil themselves with matters of the world but I’m sure you all know about everything that has happened in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.” Another heavenly deity spoke.

The heavenly deity of the buddhist sect was as calm as ever. There were no fluctuations to his expression. No one could tell what he was thinking in his heart.

“The Heaven Vault is a place of troubles. If it exists, the disputes in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would never cease.” The reverend calmly spoke.

The eyes of the heavenly deities flashed while they cursed in their hearts. After that, one of the heavenly deities spoke, “The Heaven Vault can be given to the buddhist sect to control. It wouldn’t be open to all, the buddhist sect can choose to allow some people from the hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to cultivate within. If this is the case, wouldn’t there no longer be any disputes?”

As the sound of his voice faded, the eyes of the reverend grew brighter. “If this is the case, wouldn’t the powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms turn against us?”

“How would we dare? The prestige of the buddhist sect is like the sun in the sky. It is a symbol of faith for the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and has established itself for countless years. If the buddhist sect was the one in control, the other powers would surely be able to rest at ease.” Someone else spoke. Although he didn’t mean what he said, he still managed to sound exceedingly calm.

The reverend which was a heavenly deity from the buddhist sect furrowed his brows slightly, like he was unwilling to agree. “If the buddhist sect acts, wouldn’t we be too overbearing in our actions?”

“How would that be possible? Qin Wentian originally is already monopolizing the Heaven Vault. The buddhist sect would only act because they wished to administer justice. It’s what the hearts of everyone else wished for.”

The various heavenly deities began to say all the good things. After all, the buddhist sect in the Universe Region was one of the supreme-tier existence in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

At the very least, they mustn’t allow another supreme-tier hegemonic power to appear. Qin Wentian, Qiankun Sect, Nine Heavens Mystical Palace, if they also became a supreme-tier existence, it would be the calamity of the other powers. They would rather the buddhist sect take control of the Heaven Vault and didn’t want to allow Qin Wentian to continue growing. It would be too dangerous to all of them.

As for the Pureland of Bliss, it by itself was already a supreme-tier hegemonic power. Even if they controlled the Heaven Vault, things would be the same. In any case, it would be better for the other powers compared to Qin Wentian being the controller of the Heaven Vault.

In addition, it was impossible for Qin Wentian to allow any of them to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation. They would have hope if the controller is the buddhist sect instead.

Chapter 1940: ‘Mercy’ of the Buddhist Sect

Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, Qin Wentian also knew that his act of destroying the Divine Ox Clan would cause the other hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to feel fear in their hearts. After the Divine Ox Clan was destroyed, he has been monitoring the situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms with vigilance.

Although the strength the Heaven Vault possesses is now considered sufficiently strong, Qin Wentian didn’t feel that it was so strong to the extent where it could be invincible under the sky. If the other hegemonic powers could discard all their selfish thoughts and ally together against him, the strength the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect had now was still not enough. After all, the entire might of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is simply too powerful.

However, the other parties also had trepidation and wouldn’t dare to make any reckless moves. In addition, between the various hegemonic powers, it’s not going to be so easy to form an alliance as they would always have selfish motives. For example, in the battle at the Qin Clan back then, many hegemonic powers simply chose to sit on the fence to watch neutrally. Only when something concerned their benefits would they act. When the multiple heavenly deities of the Qin Clan died back then, they were more than willing to stand aside and watch. No one had interfered.

Qin Wentian, who was waiting for news, didn’t receive any information that the other hegemonic powers banded together. In fact, the information he received was that many deities of the various hegemonic powers actually headed to the same location at the same time. They went to the Universe Region.

Within the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, the Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden met with Qin Wentian. The three of them sat in a pavilion.

“You should have received some news already?” The Qiankun Sect Leader spoke to Qin Wentian.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded his head lightly.

“In truth, after we formed our alliance and entered the Heaven Vault for cultivation. There has always been a certain power that stood at the side, not interfering. I believe you must have already noticed this. Right now, many heavenly deities all went to the Buddhist Sect in the Universe Region to pay them a visit.” The eyes of the Qiankun Sect Leader flashed with worry. During these years, cultivation in the Heaven Vault allowed many experts in the Qiankun Sect to have great improvements. There were even people who started to attempt breaking through to the heavenly deity realm. With such a good cultivation environment, the Qiankun Sect naturally hoped that they would always be able to enter it. Hence, they protected Qin Wentian back then. It wasn’t because of friendship, it was because of mutual benefits.

The Heaven Vault was able to allow the Qiankun Sect to grow stronger. When more time passed, the Qiankun Sect would be able to become one of the pinnacle-level hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

The Qiankun Sect Leader also hoped that the Qiankun Sect would be able to grow to the same extent as the Pureland of Bliss, able to exist forever. The Pureland of Bliss was so strong to a point where no other person or power could shake them.

“Would the Buddhist Sect interfere?” Qin Wentian asked.

“The Heaven Vault is a place where no hegemonic powers can afford to ignore. Although the Pureland of Bliss that’s the western world is already strong enough, who would be able to reject the prospect of growing stronger?” The Qiankun Sect Leader sighed. He then continued, “The Pureland of Bliss is an extremely terrifying power. They might not have interfered back then but no one knows what they are actually thinking about in their hearts.”

“They are able to exist for countless years and is more ancient compared to any other hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. What they depended wasn’t ‘mercy,’ and standing aloof from the world, not competing in seizing power. They depended on incomparable strength, so strong that nothing could shake them.” The mystical maiden calmly spoke. This point, even if she didn’t state it, Qin Wentian also understood it clearly.

Under the nine heavenly layers, in the world of stellar martial cultivators, strength was the root of everything.

The Pureland of Bliss that was the western world had existed even before the eight great regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were divided. They had lasted up until now and no one in history has ever managed to shake their position before. The other hegemonic powers in the other seven great regions have changed with time, but the Pureland of Bliss was one that dominated the western Universe Region completely. Even all the particle worlds around there, and the immortal realms they controlled, all were united in their faith of the buddhist path.

Back then, the Qiankun Sect Leader has conversed with Qin Wentian before. If there were still godkings in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it was highly possible that they existed in the western world.

“In that case, what would happen if the western world interferes?” Qin Wentian glanced at the two of them.

“It would be hard for us to maintain control of the Heaven Vault.” The Qiankun Sect Leader directly spoke. He was the leader of a hegemonic power in the Heaven Region and now, he was also allies with Qin Wentian. Yet, he still said such a thing. This wasn’t deliberately undervaluing their strengths. Rather, it was because he deeply knew how terrifying the western world could be. That mysterious power had foundations far stronger and deeper compared to any other powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

If the western world wasn’t strong, why would the heavenly deities of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms head there to pay the Pureland of Bliss a visit? Clearly, they wanted to borrow the aid of the Buddhist Sect to deal with the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

“Do you have any suggestions?” Qin Wentian spoke after being silent for some time.

The Qiankun Sect Leader exchanged a mutual glance with the mystical maiden. Their eyes were filled with worry. The Qiankun Sect Leader then spoke, “If people from the western world head over to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, you can choose to compromise to some extent, allowing cultivators from the western world to enter the Heaven Vault freely.”

Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed when he heard the Qiankun Sect Leader’s words. Given the attitudes of his two allies, it was clear they felt a great amount of fear towards the western world. In order to prevent a conflict between them and the western world, they preferred him to compromise instead. If the people of the western world came, they wanted Qin Wentian to allow people from the western world to cultivate in the Heaven Vault.

But this went contrary to the style in which Qin Wentian does things. He said before he would only allow those whom he wanted to allow, into the Heaven Vault for cultivation. There was no need to say anything about the Luoshen Clan. The Demon God Mountain also had friendship with him while the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace were his allies, they stood by his side when he went alone to the Qin Clan back then.

But for the Buddhist Sect…That would have to depend on whether the experts of the western world interfered or not. If they interfered, what attitudes would they have when facing him?

“Saint Lord.” At this moment, a voice drifted over. It was Qi Yu.

“Uncle Yu, what’s the matter?” Qin Wentian asked.

“Outside the divine sect, a heavenly deity from the western world is here to pay a visit.” Qi Yu spoke. Qin Wentian’s eyes flashed. He didn’t expect that the other party would appear in the midst of their discussion about this matter. How swift.

The three of them exchanged mutual glances. After that, Qin Wentian’s divine sense extended outwards, instantly enveloping this boundless region. His divine sense quickly reached the sea region outside the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. A figure could be seen floating there, quietly standing. His entire body radiated an incomparable tranquility, like he was the embodiment of peace and harmony, not someone of the mortal world.

“Seven Abstinences.” Qin Wentian’s eyes gleamed. The reverend here to pay a visit was actually Seven Abstinences who entered the world of reincarnation alongside with him. This man’s talent was extraordinarily high. After all of them exited the world of reincarnation, he was the first person to break through to the heavenly deity realm.

And now, the Buddhist Sect actually sent him here to pay a visit.

“Reverend Seven Abstinences came all the way here. Please come in for a seat.” Qin Wentian’s divine sense transmitted his voice. Seven Abstinences pressed his palms together and nodded in Qin Wentian’s direction. After that, he flew towards that direction.

The Qiankun Sect Leader and Mystical Maiden didn’t leave. Qin Wentian told them to stay for a listen, and see what the attitude of the western world was.

After some time, Reverend Seven Abstinences arrived here. He was clad in buddhist robes, he clasped his hands, “Seven Abstinences pays my respects to the two seniors, Qiankun Sect Leader and Mystical Maiden.”

The Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden were peak characters of their hegemonic powers, they were of the elder generation. There was nothing wrong about them receiving respect from a junior.

The two of them nodded to Seven Abstinences to return the courtesy. Seven Abstinences then turned to Qin Wentian, “Benefactor Qin, after we parted that day, I didn’t expect Benefactor Qin to be able to have such accomplishments today. How truly rare.”

“Reverend praises me too much. Back then in the world of reincarnation, all of us have already seen Reverend’s glory. After that, Reverend is also the first person to enter the deity realm, indicating your talent. It has been so many years since we last met, I believe Reverend’s cultivation should also have reached great heights.” Qin Wentian smiled as he replied. “Reverend, please take a seat.”

“Many thanks.” Seven Abstinences nodded, he wasn’t overly polite and directly sat before Qin Wentian. He gazed at Qin Wentian, “I’m sure Benefactor Qin can guess at the reason for my visit here today.”

“I know something about it, but not everything. Would Reverend please guide me?” Qin Wentian smiled.

“Back then, Benefactor Qin solved the secret of the Heaven Vault and gained control of this sacred cultivation ground. Many experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms covet it as well, resulting in multiple deity-level battles and countless casualties. The Divine Ox Clan was actually annihilated completely. Earlier, several experts from the various hegemonic powers came to the western world to pay a visit to my master. They feel that if this matter isn’t resolved, there would only be greater storms in the immortal realms in the future and it’s unknown how many people would lose their lives as a result of the storms. My master also agreed with them, he knew that I have some fate with Benefactor Qin and hence, asked me to make a trip here.” Reverend Seven Abstinences slowly spoke.

Qin Wentian listened quietly. After that, he asked, “In that case, is the western world going to step out from their position of neutrality and interfere in matters regarding the Heaven Vault? I wonder how the Buddhist Sect is planning to resolve this?”

This was the main point.

What was the true purpose of the western world?

The Qiankun Sect Leader and Mystical Maiden turned their gazes to Seven Abstinences. Clearly, they also wanted to know very much.

“My master’s intention is to see if it’s possible to allow the Buddhist Sect to assume control of the Heaven Vault to prevent more disputes in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms from occurring because of this, resulting in unwanted chaos. After that, we will see if it’s possible to arrange experts from the various hegemonic powers to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation.” Seven Abstinence’s voice was calm, like he was bemoaning the state of the universe and pitying the fate of mankind, like his heart was filled with compassion and mercy.

“In order to prevent disputes that would result in unwanted chaos?” Qin Wentian laughed after he heard Seven Abstinences’s words. He then replied, “The ‘mercy’ of the Senior in the Buddhist Sect makes me ‘impressed’ to the max.”

“It’s just that the Heaven Vault was obtained by me. I have Godking Xi’s inheritance and this place is something that belongs to I, Qin. If I hand this over to the Buddhist Sect, doesn’t Reverend feel that it is somewhat inappropriate?” Qin Wentian laughed. If the Buddhist Sect wanted to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation, there was still room for negotiation. After all, there hasn’t been any conflicts between him and the Buddhist Sect up until now. He wouldn’t mind negotiating if it was about that.

However, what the Buddhist Sect wanted was for him to hand over full control of the Heaven Vault. The Buddhist Sect would be the one making the arrangements for those who wanted to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation.

If that was the case, the fears of the other hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would be instantly resolved.

The Buddhist Sect was truly ‘merciful’ indeed!

“The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have already been calm for many years. If more disputes about this occur, I’m afraid that countless lives might be lost. Also, does Benefactor Qin really feel that you can contend against the joint forces of all the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? By agreeing to our suggestion, it would be best for everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.” Reverend Seven Abstinences calmly spoke, his tone was filled with tranquility like he was speaking of an extremely simple matter, for the greater good, for the sake of everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Qin Wentian glanced at Seven Abstinences as a faint smile flickered in his eyes. Today, it could be said that he had gained a certain understanding of the Buddhist Sect in the western world. They had made a deep impression on him!

Chapter 1941: Pressure from the West

"Reverend's purpose for coming here today is to make me handover the Heaven Vault to the western world?" Anger flared in Qin Wentian's heart. No matter who it was, when faced with such an unreasonable request, they would surely feel unhappy.

A single sentence from the Buddhist Sect wanted to send him off, replacing him as the Heaven Vault's controller. The people entering it for cultivation would be arranged by the Buddhist Sect as well.

However, given Qin Wentian's current cultivation base as well as the calm tone of Reverend Seven Abstinences when he spoke, Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't allow his emotions to show easily.

Seven Abstinences had his palms pressed together as Qin Wentian spoke. He didn't say anything, which meant that he silently agreed. Although his words were tactful, as he acted like he spoke for the good of the entire immortal realms, for the sake of not wanting lives to be lost needlessly, in truth what he wanted to express was simply to tell Qin Wentian to hand the Heaven Vault to them.

Also, from the start to the end, Reverend Seven Abstinences didn't mention a single threat. It was just a calm conversation. The western world was just there. Everyone in the world knew how strong they are. By sending Seven Abstinences here, this was already their attitude. There was no need for them to make any threats.

How can the might of words be stronger than the might of their presence?

"Reverend, please return." Qin Wentian smiled. Reverend Seven Abstinences lifted his head and stared at Qin Wentian. After that, he stood up and pressed his palms together, "Benefactor Qin, seniors, I will bid farewell then."

After speaking, he turned and departed.

Everything seemed so calm, like there was no conflict. The behaviors of both parties were terrifying because the meaning behind their words would definitely give rise to an intense storm.

Undoubtedly, Qin Wentian had rejected the Buddhist Sect's suggestion.

The strength of the western world might be overwhelming, but they wanted him to handover the Heaven Vault with just a sentence from them? What does this count as?

The Qiankun Sect Leader and Mystical Maiden stared at the figure of the departing Seven Abstinences as bitter smiles could be seen on their faces. The western world truly had intentions of taking the Heaven Vault. This absolutely wasn't simply because of the visit from the various hegemonic powers. The Buddhist Sect must have long had this thought. If not, given their personality, who could force them to do things they don't want to do? How could they be swayed to help the other hegemonic powers just from the exchange of a few sentences?

"Things will be troublesome." The Qiankun Sect Leader sighed in a low voice, feeling unease. Although the attitude of Reverend Seven Abstinences was extremely polite from the start until the end, and even addressed them as seniors, the request of the western world was ultimately rejected by Qin Wentian. Would things conclude simply just like that?

A trace of worry flashed across the beautiful eyes of the mystical maiden. Seems like the western world was intending to interfere in this.

If they really did, what about her and the Qiankun Sect Leader? Where should they stand?

"Sect leader, fairy, let us continue." Qin Wentian smiled. He lifted his wine cup and seemed extremely carefree. But in truth, how could Qin Wentian not understand what situation they would soon face. But what could they do? Could it be that they would just simply leave with their tails between their legs because of a single sentence from the Buddhist Sect?

Also, would things really be fine the moment they left the Heaven Vault?

Without this natural barrier that is the Heaven Vault, would the other experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms really let go of their past grudges so easily?

If he really had such thoughts, it would simply be too naive.

The news of Reverend Seven Abstinences's visit from the Buddhist Sect soon circulated around the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms by someone with unknown intentions. The people of the immortal realms could sense a storm was brewing, it seems like the period of peace would be ending soon.

The powerful western world also wanted to interfere in matters of the Heaven Vault. They wanted to make Qin Wentian give the Heaven Vault to them, allowing the Buddhist Sect to control it. However, their suggestion was rejected by Qin Wentian.

After the various hegemonic powers obtained this news, they were all extremely happy. When they paid a visit to the western world back then, they already dug a hole for Qin Wentian. They used the name of 'mercy' to get the western world to help out. The Buddhist Sect naturally wouldn't reject it. And as long as they are involved, no matter whether Qin Wentian agreed to it or not, Qin Wentian's ending wouldn't be good.

And now, Qin Wentian has chosen to reject it.

The powerful western world was also going to interfere with the matters of the Heaven Vault.

Once, there was a power who rejected the request of the western world before. As to what happened next, only those peak characters knew of some of the secrets within. The information was something many history recorders didn’t dare to write down in ancient records.

History was written by mankind. And many things in history had been concealed away. However, some of the peak powers also originated from the ancient era and hence, they knew of some things.

Countless years ago, that power which rejected the Buddhist Sect was even stronger than the strength Qin Wentian’s power currently wielded. It wasn’t just a little stronger, it was much stronger in comparison. However, many people knew about that power’s ending but no one dared to bring this matter up and link it to the Buddhist Sect. This was an ultimate taboo in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

In the past, the people of the world didn’t dare to mention it and the history recorders didn’t dare to record it. Hence, in the present day, only a few people knew of it.

After that, there was news saying that Reverend Seven Abstinences then headed to the Mystic Region. He actually went to pay a visit to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Someone said that it was to pay a visit to Headmaster Ye.

Reverend Seven Abstinences of the western world had no connections with the sacred academy at all. He had only came here once to enter the world of reincarnation for cultivation and dao comprehension. But the reason for his visit was because of this, wasn’t it late by too many years? As for seeking the dao, there was no need for Reverend Seven Abstinences to go all the way there. Many people guessed that the strength of Reverend Seven Abstinences has already exceeded the three deities of the sacred academy now.

In that case, there was only a possibility for the purpose of his visit. It was because of the matter regarding the Heaven Vault.

Back then in the deity-level battle of the Qin Clan, the mysterious headmaster of the sacred academy once helped Qin Wentian out. Maybe, this was a kind of respect the Buddhist Sect was showing the sacred academy, they wanted to settle things here first.

As for whether Seven Abstinences did meet with the headmaster or not, nobody knew the truth about that. They also didn’t know what happened in the sacred academy.

After Reverend Seven Abstinences went to the sacred academy, two other deity-level buddha cultivators were sent out from the Buddhist Sect to the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace respectively.

These two hegemonic powers were undoubtedly, the strongest allies in Qin Wentian's group. If the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace was excluded, Qin Wentian would be isolated and without help. Only the Luoshen Clan and Demon God Mountain would be on his side then. At that time, the ending would be apparent to all if Qin Wentian still chose to clash with all the other hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Evidently, the Buddhist Sect of the western world has already silently began their actions.

Now, the Heaven Vault that existed above the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect in the Boundless Sea Region, seemed to become the location of the center of the storm.

Currently, there were powers governing the Desolate Region. The three hegemonic powers were no longer here. The situation in the Desolate Region became extremely chaotic as many major powers fought each other to claim hegemony over it.

At this moment, at a stretch of desolation where many mountain ranges were connected, the silhouettes of human experts and demonic beasts could be seen. Countless people were fighting here, the combatants dotted every inch of this landscape of the mountain range, belonging to different factions of power. The atmosphere was incredibly tense as the sounds of combat rang out unceasingly.

And all of a sudden, black clouds covered the sky. There was only darkness.

Down below, there were countless figures who were in a panic. Experts of the different factions glanced at each other. Could this phenomenon be caused by experts invited by the other parties?

However, they soon discovered that all of them were panicking. No one knew what was happening.

At this moment, an immensely gigantic face suddenly appeared in the black clouds. It was like a face of the tempest and looked like an evil devil, terrifying to the extreme.

"So many nutrients." A low voice rang out, causing the hearts of countless people to tremble. All of them felt a strong sense of unease.

Nutrients?

The devilish evil face that appeared in the sky referred to them as 'nutrients'?

“Go!”

“Let’s flee!” The previous hostile atmosphere instantly dispersed. Everyone lost the will to battle and started to flee instead. This evil face that appeared in the air was terrifying to the extreme.

A malevolent smile appeared on the evil face. Fleeing?

Boundless deathly grey qi gushed forth, this qi ignored all defenses and directly entered the brains of everyone. After that, they exited from their bodies. Grey-colored silhouettes actually came out from the bodies after the deathly grey qi entered. These illusory grey-colored silhouettes had looks of terror on their faces. They were actually the souls of those people below.

The bodies below slumped over one after another. No matter were they powerful humans or demonic beasts, all of them fell onto the ground with no exception. In a short instant, all lives in the entire mountain range vanished completely. This place was like a forbidden land for life. It was also like purgatory in the mortal world.

That evil face had a look of satisfaction and enjoyment. After that, a figure that was a young man, walked out from the face. This young man was extraordinarily good-looking but his countenance was too pale, without any hint of blood. He looked like a devil and exuded a sinister and terrifying air.

“The nutrients here in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are much more nutritious compared to the nutrients in the lower worlds. Right now, the Desolate Region is an ownerless place. I have to thank you, Qin Wentian.” A cold smile appeared on the young man’s face. It’s said that right now, Qin Wentian was busy dealing with the pressure from the Buddhist Sect, he is probably too busy and has no time to attend to other things.

“Why are you so satisfied for?” At this moment, a voice rang out. The young man turned his head over and stared at the giant evil face in the air. He coldly spoke, “Shut up. This is my matter. When has it ever become your turn to interfere?”

“Your matters are my matters.” The giant face calmly spoke.

“Ridiculous, do you think I will believe your nonsensical words?” The young man mockingly replied.

“No matter if you believe it or not, I’m your past life. Do you know why are you inclined to evil in this life? Because, everything is already fated long ago. You are the body a part of my soul reincarnated into. This is your destiny. Ever since you were born, it’s already fated that you would walk down this exact path and would arrive here no matter the choices you made.”

“SCRAM!” The young man roared. He didn’t believe this. He was he, Yue Changkong.

“Hehe, you will understand everything once your memories are awakened.” The giant face spoke again before vanishing completely, like it has never existed before!

Chapter 1942: Phenomenon

The news about the matters that happened in the Desolate Region were extremely terrifying but it didn't cause too much commotion. Because, right now, there weren't any hegemonic powers governing the Desolate Region and an even more important matter that was unprecedented that would affect the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was happening.

The western world wanted to interfere in matters of the Heaven Vault. It was said that they have successfully convinced the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace to pull out from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

The Buddhist Sect personally sent people to the two hegemonic powers. Given their strength, even the powerful Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace had to give them some face.

Because of these rumors, the atmosphere in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect became somewhat subdued.

Qin Wentian didn't question the Qiankun Sect Leader or Mystical Maiden. If they really made their choices, Qin Wentian wouldn't hate them for it. After all, they might be allies but their relationship wasn't as solid as one would imagine.

Today, the Qiankun Sect Leader and Mystical Maiden arrived at Qin Wentian's side. Qin Wentian naturally welcomed them warmly.

"Sect Leader, Nine Heavens Fairy." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Qin Wentian, we don't wish to beat around the bush, I'll tell you directly that the western world wants us to pull out from this alliance that is the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect." The Qiankun Sect Leader went straight to the point.

"Did Sect Leader agree to it?" Qin Wentian asked.

"My master has already agreed. The western world said that after the Buddhist Sect gains control, they would still allow the core members of my Qiankun Sect to cultivate in the Heaven Vault." The Qiankun Sect Leader spoke, staring at Qin Wentian.

However, he only saw that Qin Wentian was incomparably calm. In fact, there was even a faint smile on his face. Qin Wentian replied, "It is indeed easy to make such a choice. I don't wish to try and persuade you since this is a decision made by the old sect leader. Did fairy make the same choice too?"

The Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden was extremely beautiful, just a glance at her was sufficient to cause ordinary men to lose themselves in her beauty. Her beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian as she nodded her head lightly. When facing such an immensely powerful entity that is the western world, she didn't have any better choice. If she continued to ally with Qin Wentian, the western world and the other hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would surely target her.

In the past, no one dared to do anything to their two powers. But now, the western world wanted to interfere. The scales were instantly unbalanced. The Qin Heavenly Divine Sect was in an extremely unfavorable position.

"However, I can guarantee that the Nine Heavens Mystical Palace won't act against the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect." The Mystical Maiden spoke.

"My Qiankun Sect won't as well." The Qiankun Sect Leader nodded.

"Many thanks to you two seniors." Qin Wentian spoke with gratitude. Although he had lost two allies, at the very least, they weren't enemies.

"You don't hate us?" The beautiful eyes of the Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden stared at Qin Wentian as she asked.

"Seniors, both of you are rulers of a faction, you naturally have to make the correct choice for your faction. Back then, it was precisely because of so that you chose to join me in alliance. And now, it's also normal for you to pull out. There's no hatred to speak of. As long as we are not enemies, we can part as graciously as we joined together before." Qin Wentian spoke in a free and at ease manner.

"Straight-forward indeed. It's a pity, I don't know if we would still have the chance to drink with you in the future." The Qiankun Sect Leader laughed.

"If Sect Leader is keen on drinking, you can come and look for me anytime." Qin Wentian smiled. The Qiankun Sect Leader nodded his head. After that, both of them stood up and bid their farewell.

Qin Wentian had a contemplative look on his face when he saw their leaving backs. A white-robed maiden then walked in as unhappiness flashed in her eyes.

"Big Brother Qin, do you really not mind?" Purgatory's eyes gleamed with a cold light as she spoke.

"I'm naturally willing to treat them as allies. But before the face of benefits, it's also normal that they don't wish to treat me as friends. After all, this would implicate their entire sect. Their actions are understandable." Qin Wentian casually spoke.

“But can they really confirm that the western world would be able to seize the Heaven Vault if they acted?” Jun Mengchen also walked in. Clearly, what happened earlier was already heard by them. Qin Wentian’s close friends all stayed in the same area as him, they would frequently come over to find him.

“The strength of the western world plus the strength of the other hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is something that the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect cannot compare to.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“In the future, if the western world fails to take control of the Heaven Vault, I wonder what the Qiankun Sect Leader and Mystical Maiden would think. Senior brother, at that time you mustn’t be soft-hearted. Don’t allow them to enter the Heaven Vault for cultivation ever again.”

“Also, those hypocritical monks that wear the masks of mercy don’t seem to be any different from the Jiang Clan of our Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Seems like only the monks from the Askheart Temple can be considered eminent reverends.” Jun Mengchen’s voice was filled with unhappiness.

“Do you think that unreliable fellow Bujie is an eminent reverend?” A strange look appeared on Qin Wentian’s face as he started to laugh. Upon thinking about Bujie, Jun Mengchen’s face was filled with black lines. Indeed, Bujie doesn’t even seem like a monk at all.

“Hahaha.” Qin Wentian laughed. The so-called buddhist path was just a path of cultivation where the people on it cultivates a certain energy type. People of the world have different talents and the paths they walk naturally would differ from each other. The Buddhist Sect was simply such a path, in truth, there was no difference between it and the other paths of cultivation.

The Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace moved their experts out from the Qin heavenly Divine Sect. A storm was about to land, the discussion in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms about this matter was extremely intense. Everyone felt that right now, the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect only existed in name but they are in truth, already dead. Although no battles erupted yet, but the simple fact that the western world was acting, there was no suspense that the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect would collapse.

Seems like that majestic divine sect above the Boundless Sea Region was created for nothing. Most probably, Qin Wentian and his allies would have to evacuate into the Heaven Vault to hide for their lives.

Not only for the outside world, even within the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, many people felt fear and panic.

Ever since the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect was established, many powers in the Heaven Region wanted to become their vassals, and there were many experts who joined. But now that the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect was encountering danger, the true sentiments of many people were instantly revealed.

Qin Wentian gathered Qi Yu, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Bai Qin and the other people with important statuses. He told them to make use of this chance to do an overhaul, restructuring their factions and the vassals attached to them, kicking away those unfaithful ones. Everyone naturally understood what to do, they immediately acted and informed the vassals attached to them saying that the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect would soon be in a crisis. If people wanted to leave now, the divine sect would understand and wouldn’t stop them.

Many people immediately left the Divine Sect. The Qin Heavenly Divine Sect had just been established not long ago but because of the forceful interference by the western world, they were now in a situation where there’s internal trouble and outside aggression.

After that, the western world sent word to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect telling them to relocate, leaving the Boundless Sea Region. Qin Wentian has to give up control of the Heaven Vault, including the method of controlling it. The experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wouldn’t make things difficult for the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, the divine sect would still be allowed to exist in other locations. The Buddhist Sect was merciful, they wouldn’t harm the innocent.

When this news circulated out, the gazes of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms turned to the Heaven Vault again. The western world was telling Qin Wentian to move. They said they were merciful and wouldn’t harm the innocent. But the requirement was that Qin Wentian had to hand the Heaven Vault over. This was the root of everything.

In the Divine Sect, after Qin Wentian’s friends learned of this, all of them were incomparably enraged. They cursed the western world for being bald donkeys due to their shamelessness.

The buddhist sect was merciful? Handing over the Heaven Vault and relocating? How ridiculous. The moment there’s no Heaven Vault, would the other hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms spare Qin Wentian and his group? The Buddhist Sect could be merciful because they basically didn’t even need to act, others would take the chance to settle everything with Qin Wentian. They could simply sit in their Pureland of Bliss and issue orders.

The Qin Heavenly Divine Sect didn’t reply. But not replying was already considered a reply. Undoubtedly, Qin Wentian has rejected.

The majority of people in the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect all entered the Heaven Vault, preparing to face anything that might happen. It seemed that the situation would soon revert back to the situation in the past. But right now, Qin Wentian’s opponent would be unprecedentedly powerful, stronger than any he has ever faced before.

At the seashore, the sea breeze was intense, causing the waves to churn wildly. In the air, a group of figures suddenly appeared. Their auras were terrifying, and they were all the leading characters of a hegemonic power.

“They are here.” Someone spoke. These people were from the Thunder Clan. Their purpose here was naturally for the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

And at this moment, another group of experts arrived. The man in the lead had a cold look on his face and was wielding a halberd.

“Qin Zheng from the Qin Clan. He is colder than before. Heaven’s Son Qin Dangtian isn’t here though. Could it be that he is still cultivating in some secret realms?” Someone mumbled. Staring up at the sky. The Qin Clan had remained low profile for many years. But the moment they appeared, they still targeted Qin Wentian.

More and more experts gathered here at the Boundless Sea Region like in tacit agreement. All of them then waited, and when everyone they were waiting for was here, they stepped out together, flying towards the Divine Sect above the Boundless Sea Region.

“No one from the western world came. It seems that they only need to give the order, they don’t even need to show themselves. This is their confidence. But if the Heaven Vault was truly captured, the Buddhist Sect would be the one controlling it. This is the agreement the hegemonic powers came to.

At the area where the sea and sky meet, Qin Wentian stood there, calmly staring at the experts who came.

Those experts stopped not far away from him. Both parties didn’t speak, the silence was so loud that it was terrifying.

Qin Zheng and his wife glared at Qin Wentian, the hatred in their eyes was like a burning fire. Qin Wentian caused the Qin Clan to decline, he wrecked their son’s wedding and destroyed almost half of the foundation of the Qin Clan.

The raging wind whistled as the waves frenziedly churned, slapping on the shore.

The violent airflows clashed in the air, it was like a destructive might was brewing in the midst of this tense atmosphere.

At this moment, black clouds suddenly appeared in the sky. These black clouds caused the people below to feel a wave of pressure, the color of the clouds were that of deathly stillness and they were growing increasingly blacker.

“Mhm?” Everyone inclined their heads as a strange look appeared on their faces. The various experts of the hegemonic powers also frowned. What was going on. What were these black clouds?

More and more black clouds gathered, it felt like hell has arrived in the sky above everyone. Even for heavenly deities, they felt an intense pressure. Even breathing was difficult under the pressure exuded by the black clouds.

“Who is it that came?” A heavenly deity spoke, his voice ringing out thunderously. The violent sound waves wanted to shatter the black clouds in the air but the black clouds weren’t affected at all.

Qin Wentian also had a strange look on his face as he stared up at the sky. What was going on?

It seemed that both parties had no idea about the origin of these black clouds.

The black clouds continued multiplying, covering the entire sky, blotting out the sun. At this moment, the clouds churned as a scene suddenly manifested. The scene showed a world, an entire world of nothingness, a world dominated by deathly stillness!

Chapter 1943: Coming of the Darkness

"What is this?"

The various heavenly deities of the hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms all had looks of shock and worry on their faces. The entire sky was covered in greyish dark qi, and the covered up sky seemed to have transformed into the scene of a world.

After they were puzzled, the scene started to change. It showed the start of the world. Living creatures appeared there, the world was beautiful but all of a sudden, a heavenly deity descended from the sky and completely annihilated all living things in that world. The heaven and earth sobbed, it was unknown how many had died. Every single life was massacred. The scene caused everyone here to feel extremely suppressed.

"This is…?" Someone seemed to have thought of something as his heart trembled.

Just as the sound of his voice rang out, a black-colored figure walked out from the scene showing the world. After that, a second, a third…many black figures walked out from the scene of deathly stillness. Their eyes were vacant, like that of a corpse. They weren't living things, they were like an army of death spirits.

"It is him!" A voice filled with immense shock rang out. Even heavenly deities couldn't help but to take a step back. From this, one could tell how strong the shock in their hearts was.

"He has returned. But why did he appear in the boundless sea region, below the Heaven Vault?" They couldn't understand.

At the boundless shore, countless people exchanged glances. Some people seemed to have guessed at something. Their expressions drastically changed as they spoke in fear, "How can this be possible?"

"Who?" Some of the younger experts didn't understand what was going on. They didn't know who has appeared.

"The Grim Reaper." An ancient voice rang out with a solemn tone, stating two words. These two words represented a taboo existence in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Almost no one has brought the name up ever before. This name only existed in the ancient records.

"I once heard my ancestor saying that the Grim Reaper leads an army of death spirits. The army of death killed their way into the various hegemonic powers, it was unknown how many experts had died due to that." That old man trembled as he recalled the ancient legends he heard before.

“Who is the Grim Reaper?” Some among the crowd has never heard of this name before.

“He is someone from Ancient Azure Mystic. Countless years ago, Ancient Azure Mystic was invaded by us and ended in destruction. The Grim Reaper is one of the peak characters there, by himself, he killed his way into the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms for revenge and it’s rumored that now in the current age, the forbidden order on Azure Mystic Immortal Realms has something to do with the Grim Reaper.” The old man’s words caused the hearts of countless people at the boundless shore to tremble. To many of the experts here, this was the first time they heard this name.

They inclined their heads and stared at the scene in the sky. Was the expert who just arrived really that legendary existence that killed his way into the hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? Would he appear again?

Those hegemonic powers naturally knew more things compared to ordinary people. They already knew the identity of this person who came. Right now, their hearts were in turmoil.

Grim Reaper. Why did he appear here? Why did he choose this timing, when they were about to deal with Qin Wentian, to appear?

Could it be because of….the western world?

“Are you the Grim Reaper?” Qin Zheng stared at the sky and asked.

There was no reply. The sky was covered in darkness. At this moment, all the experts here no longer had the mood to deal with Qin Wentian.

In the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, Qin Wentian stood at the location where the sea and the sky connected as one as he stared up into the air. When he heard Qin Zheng’s words, his heart also involuntarily shuddered.

The Grim Reaper, is it him?

Back then when he returned to Azure Mystic, his divine sense swept the entire immortal realm but he couldn’t find that crazy old man.

“Are you the one who used Azure Mystic to threaten Qin Wentian back then?” At this moment, a voice rang out from the world of darkness. This caused Qin Zheng’s heart to tremble. Back then when everyone surrounded the Heaven Vault, the Ox Chieftain had suggested for him to use the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms and Qingcheng Realm to threaten Qin Wentian. Who could have thought that the Grim Reaper actually knew about this.

At that time, Qin Zheng basically didn't imagine that the Grim Reaper who has disappeared for countless years, was actually still present and paying attention to the situation of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Maybe, the Grim Reaper has been in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms all this while.

Back then, the ban on Ancient Azure Mystic was lifted. It might have been him who sent out the news.

"Back then, it was because of the Heaven Vault and I was forced to do so. But I wouldn't really carry it out." Qin Zheng replied. Right now, the Qin Clan couldn't be compared to the past. His father Qin Ding was banished into chaotic space. Hence, now that he was speaking, he was no longer as confident as before. In front of the Grim Reaper, he didn't dare to be the slightest bit arrogant or brazen.

"Since you wouldn't really carry it out, just scram then. Qin Wentian is the successor of Ancient Azure Mystic." The voice rang out once more. Qin Zheng's heart trembled madly. The experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were stunned too. Qin Wentian was known as the Heaven Empyrean in Azure Mystic, this was something many people knew about. But he was also the successor of Ancient Azure Mystic?

How many identities did he have? The son of Qin Yuanfeng of the Qin Clan, Luoshen Chuan's grandson, the inheritor of the Heaven Vault, the person who entered the true legendary place in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy…and now, he was also the successor of Ancient Azure Mystic. Even a legendary character like the Grim Reaper was willing to make an appearance for him.

The western world convinced the Qiankun Sect Leader and Nine Heavens Mystical Maiden to pull out. The sacred academy also didn't appear. The ending today initially already seemed to be fixed. But at this moment, an extremely terrifying character had actually appeared – the Grim Reaper.

Although no one knew how strong Headmaster Ye of the sacred academy was exactly, and how strong the Grim Reaper was exactly, but after all, Headmaster Ye has never threatened the lives of the heavenly deities from the various hegemonic powers before. He was like a neutral party who simply chose to aid Qin Wentian that time. However, the Grim Reaper was different. He was infamous ever since countless years ago. From the perspective of everyone, the amount of threat he represented far surpassed the headmaster of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

"It is really him." Qin Wentian inclined his head, feeling extremely taken aback. He didn't expect his conjecture to be true. That crazy old freak was actually none other than the Grim Reaper that struck fear in the hearts of the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Other than that crazy old freak, Qin Wentian truly couldn't think of anyone else.

"It's him." In Qin Wentian's mind, the voice of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity rang out. His voice was filled with countless emotions. He was just a remnant will right now, he didn't expect that he would still have the chance to encounter the Grim Reaper.

Qin Wentian must have received his inheritance. At the very least, the ancient heavenly deities of Ancient Azure Mystic wouldn't feel that their efforts were wasted. In any case, Qin Wentian didn't let them down either. His speed of progress was simply stunning and he was still growing stronger.

"This is the idea of the western world." At this moment, a young heavenly deity spoke. But as the sound of his voice faded, everyone turned their gazes at him, they all had strange looks on their faces.

"Shut up." A heavenly deity beside him transmitted his voice over. But as the sound of the young deity faded away, that terrifying stifling pressure instantly bore down on him. That young heavenly deity felt like a pair of eyes looking at him, emitting an icy chill.

"Scram." A single word echoed, incomparably cold. All the heavenly deities exchanged mutual glances but no one dared to say anything in rebuttal. They hesitated for a moment and some of the heavenly deities stated, "Farewell."

After speaking, they actually turned and departed right away.

After that, more and more deities from several hegemonic powers left. The appearance of the Grim Reaper has screwed up their plans. Wanting to continue to act against Qin Wentian? It was most probably impossible. No one wanted to take that risk.

Even despite the passage of countless years, the infamous name of the Grim Reaper was still enough to strike terror in the hearts of everyone.

At the boundless shore, countless people watched as the experts from the various hegemonic powers left just like that. They came in such an imposing manner yet left like defeated dogs. All of the spectators felt immensely shocked. Was the Grim Reaper really so powerful? What sort of existence was he?

Also, wanting Qin Wentian to hand the Heaven Vault over was the western world's idea. Could it be that the Grim Reaper was strong enough to contend against those terrifying existences in the Pureland of Bliss?

When the various experts left, the dark clouds that brought with them immense pressure faded away as well. The sky regained its normal calmness. The sea waves churned normally and the atmosphere was no longer tense. It was like no one has ever came by at all.

Staring at the blue sky, everyone felt like they were in a dream.

Beiming Youhuang appeared beside Qin Wentian. Her beautiful eyes stared upwards as she asked in a low voice, "Is it him?"

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. Only the two of them knew who the Grim Reaper really was.

“Why doesn’t he meet with us?” Beiming Youhuang asked.

“You should know the personality of that crazy old freak. When was he ever normal before?” Qin Wentian cursed in a low voice but there was a smile on his face. Beiming Youhuang glanced at him, she was speechless.

However, Qin Wentian’s words made sense. From what she knew, the Grim Reaper was truly someone crazy.

In the Pureland of Bliss of the western world, at the location where the Buddhist Sect is located, harmonious clouds covered the sky and the atmosphere was extremely peaceful. This was the holy ground of the Buddhist Sect, this is a place of enlightenment for the masses and there would be countless people traveling here everyday for a pilgrimage.

However, the atmosphere today was completely spoiled. No sense of worship existed in the hearts of the people here, there was only terror. Because, the skies above the holy ground were now covered in complete darkness as countless death spirits manifested.

Many buddha cultivators flew towards the holy ground. Their expressions were ugly to the extreme. They inclined their heads and stared at the darkness. Who was it that dared to be so audacious?

Numerous golden bodies of ancient buddhas shone, these were all at the deity-level. The golden light from them wanted to pierce through the darkness. However, the darkness was too deep, although there was boundless golden light, the buddhist cultivators had no way to dispel the darkness.

The world of darkness in the air continuously produced countless vengeful spirits that were wailing in agony, causing the holy ground of the Buddhist Sect to become a world of purgatory.

“BOOM!” The sound of a bell rang out as a giant buddha appeared. After that, a voice echoed out, “It has already been so many years but the vengeance in benefactor’s heart is as intense as ever.”

“The holy ground of the buddhist dao. The Pureland of Bliss that is worshipped by everyone. When you all preached about the dao, and speak words of kindness and mercy to the masses, have all of you ever felt ashamed before?” A voice rang out from the darkness, echoing through this entire space.

Many buddha cultivators pressed their palms together as they chanted buddhic verses, wanting to expel the darkness.

“Benefactor, you appeared in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms once again. Are you here because you want to create even more sin by killing?” The ancient buddhic voice rang out, filled with peace, mercy and love. It was like just by listening to this voice, all hatred in the world would be wiped away. This voice was filled with pity for the fate of mankind and bemoaned the state of the current world.

“Back then when Ancient Azure Mystic was destroyed, how many vengeful spirits were created by you?” The voice in the darkness replied. “Also, if there’s a hell in the mortal world? Why are all of you not in there yet?”

Chapter 1944: Arrival of the Crazy Old Freak

If the words of the Grim Reaper were known to people of the world, an immense commotion would surely be caused. From his words, one could evidently infer that the western world was among the parties who participated in the world-destroying battle of Ancient Azure Mystic.

In addition, the vengeance of the Grim Reaper ran deep. He asked these buddhist cultivators why are they not in hell yet.

From this, one could tell that the Buddhist Sect was not a casual participant.

"The buddha is merciful. When it is time to enter hell, we will naturally enter it. Everything is cause and effect, dependent on karma. As for the countless vengeful spirits in Ancient Azure Mystic which occurred in the war back then, if it wasn't for the fact that benefactor and the Imperishable Heaven lord were being stubborn, how could that war have escalated to that level?" The voice in the buddhist sect rang out again. However, a crazed laughter echoed out from the darkness. "What a good explanation, pushing everything to karma. I will wait for the western world to receive their karma."

"Benefactor, what is your purpose in coming to the western world today?"

"I just came by to let you all know something. For what you did to Azure Mystic in the past, are you planning to do the same to the successor of Azure Mystic? If something happens to Qin Wentian, I will make sure that blood would flow like rivers in your western world, making this into a true hell." A cold voice that sounded like it was from purgatory drifted over, causing the hearts of the countless buddhist cultivators to tremble. Those deity-level buddhist cultivators all understood that the words of the Grim Reaper wasn't just alarmist talk. He is someone that walked the talk.

Qin Wentian was the successor of Ancient Azure Mystic. As expected, everything was because of karma.

The Grim Reaper wanted to protect Qin Wentian, allowing him to continue growing.

The darkness gradually faded away, the auspicious golden light pierced through it, reaching the sky, allowing the dark clouds to clear. Not long after, the pure and holy light once again enveloped the holy ground in the Buddhist Sct, the atmosphere seemed tranquil and peaceful once more, like a paradise in the mortal world. The golden light illuminated the sky. This place was a location of faith, the Pureland of Bliss, untainted by dust from the mortal world.

The darkness was like it has never appeared before. It vanished without a trace completely.

But this time, the appearance of the Grim Reaper was a warning to everyone in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He has returned and he is currently in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

There wasn’t a single power that dared to ignore his existence, even the western world didn’t dare to do so. In the past, everything that has happened made the western world clearer compared to any other power of the strength of the Grim Reaper. After Ancient Azure Mystic was destroyed, a calamity descended on the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. It was unknown how many hegemonic powers had fallen then. Everywhere the army of death passed by, everything was turned to ashes.

“BOOM!” A sound of a bell rang out within the Pureland of Bliss, in the holy ground of the Buddhist Sect. The buddhist cultivators then gathered as they discussed matters.

Right now, the various hegemonic powers were all observing. After they were frightened into retreat by the Grim Reaper, everyone was waiting to see what actions the western world would take. They soon received the news that not only did the Grim Reaper appear at the Heaven Vault, he also appeared in the western world simultaneously. No one knew if his true self was at the Heaven Vault or the western world. Maybe, both figures that appeared were just his clones.

The name of the Grim Reaper began to spread through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Only a very few knew that there was actually such an immensely powerful existence that could strike fear in the hearts of experts from the hegemonic powers. Also, he used darkness to envelop the western world. From the perspectives of the normal people of the world, this was simply an unfathomable thing yet the Grim Reaper actually succeeded in doing so.

Also, regardless of the hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms or the western world, they were all extremely wary of the Grim Reaper.

After that, more news regarding the Grim Reaper’s origin was also circulated. It is rumored that he was none other than the supreme existence who gave the ban order on Azure Mystic. He didn’t allow experts who were above a certain level to enter there. He was an absolute character from Ancient Azure Mystic countless years ago. He once led his army of death and brought destruction to the various deity-level hegemonic powers. Many heavenly deities had fallen to his hand.

And after countless years have passed, he appeared once again in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. However, his appearance this time was for the sake of protecting his successor. Or to better put it, the successor of Ancient Azure Mystic – Qin Wentian.

The Heaven Vault once again was safe. It still existed despite the fact that almost all the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms ganged up on it. Just when the people of the world felt that the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect would be razed to flat ground, they didn’t even suffer any damage at all. And in fact, right now, no one else dared to surround the Heaven Vault any longer.

Back then, Headmaster Ye of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy acted to save Qin Wentian. And now, the Grim Reaper issued a clear warning to everyone not to mess with Qin Wentian. Who would dare to ignore his warning?

Within the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, Qin Wentian naturally also learned of the news that the Grim Reaper appeared in the western world. He sighed with emotion, he didn't expect that crazy old freak to be so powerful to this extent. The western world could cause the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavens Mystical Palace to pull out from his alliance with a single sentence but even they seemed to be wary of the Grim Reaper.

At this moment, in the sea region outside the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, a figure could be seen sitting on a small boat, drifting towards the direction of the divine sect. The figure on the boat appeared extremely sloppy. He had disheveled hair that blocked his face. He was clad in a simple grey robe that looked extremely tattered and he exuded no aura at all, resembling an insignificant beggar.

The small boat floated to outside the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. He actually flew off the boat and soared into the air, moving towards the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect.

At this moment, a guard came by, “The Qin Heavenly Divine Sect doesn't allow outsiders to enter. Please return.”

The sloppy old man pushed the hair out of his eyes, revealing an extremely aged countenance. His eyes were cloudy and he spoke in a lazy manner, “Get your sect leader out to see me.”

“What audacious and imposing words.” The guard stiffened as he stared at the sloppy old man. This fellow most probably must be a madman, right?

What sort of place was the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect? What sort of character was their sect leader?

Qin Wentian was someone everyone else in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wanted to deal with. This old man that seemed like a beggar wanted him to get his sect leader out to meet him?

“Old man, you better leave now. It's best not to make such jokes in the future.” The guard waved his hand. If it wasn't for the fact that this person was a very old man, he would already have made his move and attacked. How dare someone be so disrespectful to their sect leader.

“Fine. I will leave then. Don't beg me to return.” The old man actually carefreely turned around and flew back to the small boat. This caused the guard to be extremely bewildered. Beg him to return? This person was most probably truly someone crazy.

But at this moment, a spatial ripple manifested. In an instant, an extraordinarily handsome young man directly stepped out of the spatial rift. He exuded a transcendent demeanor and when the guard saw this man, his body trembled as he bowed, “Sect leader!”

The person who came was none other than Qin Wentian.

Only to see Qin Wentian greeting the old man on the small boat. “Senior!”

The small boat stopped. The old man turned his head and smiled as he looked at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian’s figure flashed and appeared beside the old man. He spoke in a somewhat shaky voice, “Senior, since you are already here, is there any logic in leaving before you enter? Come, quickly enter the divine sect!”

The old man had a strange look in his eyes as he regarded Qin Wentian, “Why did you became so polite? I’m afraid to accept it.”

In the past, Qin Wentian has never been courteous when interacting with him. In fact, Qin Wentian was downright rude in some occasions.

“Senior what are you talking about? Back then, this junior was ignorant, but isn’t there a saying that one must amend his mistakes if he knew he was in the wrong? Senior, please enter!” Qin Wentian’s smile trembled slightly. The guard’s eyes were wide-open when he saw this, feeling that something was wrong with his vision. Was this still their sect leader?

Qin Wentian was actually flattering someone else…

How could this little guard know who the old man was? However, Qin Wentian was very clear in his heart. This old man was one of the pinnacle-level existences in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, someone who stood at the absolute peak. He even dared to enter the western world to threaten the experts there. In addition, leaving aside his true strength level, just by the old man passing the Undying Scripture to him, it can be considered that this old man was his savior. Also, this old man was the one who chased all the hegemonic powers away just several days ago. There was naturally no problems in Qin Wentian lowering himself when interacting with him. Was there a problem?

“Earlier, there was someone who didn’t want me to enter.” The crazy old freak narrowed his eyes and stared at that guard.

“Eh…” That guard froze. He glanced at Qin Wentian only to see Qin Wentian glaring at him, “Quickly apologize. There’s nothing shameful about apologizing to a senior. Several days ago, it was this senior who arrived outside the Heaven Vault, helping our Qin Heavenly Divine Sect avoid a calamity.”

The guard's body trembled, he thought back to the terrifying scene several days ago. The skies above were covered in darkness, the Grim Reaper had shown up, pressuring the experts from the other hegemonic powers, getting everyone to scram with just a single word.

Was this sloppy old man that terrifying existence?

When he thought of this, his heart trembled violently. Damn it, he actually tried to chase the Grim Reaper away earlier? Who was the crazy one?

"Senior, you are a person of great moral stature, you naturally won't remember the offenses committed by me, someone of low moral stature. Why is there a need to blame junior? Senior, please accept my apology and enter the divine sect." The guard hurriedly responded after he recovered. He bowed low and spoke in the most polite manner he could muster. This was definitely the strongest expert he has ever seen.

"Is the little doll Beiming Youhuang in the divine sect?" The crazy old freak asked.

"Yes. I will get her to come and see senior right now." Qin Wentian spoke. He and Beiming Youhuang were both considered half a successor to this crazy old man. Although he kept cursing in the past when he was 'tortured,' he was actually extremely grateful to this old man after he exited the forbidden grounds. There was naturally no need to say anything more now.

"Mhm, I came here to see that little doll. If you are the only one present here, I wouldn't even have the interest to appear." The crazy old freak calmly spoke. He brushed his hair back and stood with his hands behind his back. He then inclined his head as he walked in, finally exuding a little grandeur. But even so, when compared to the imposing majesticness of the two words 'Grim Reaper,' the appearance of this old freak was simply miles away.

But then again, Qin Wentian knew that this crazy old man's personality was as such.

As for the words he spoke, it was fine just to close one ear and listen. If this old man wasn't interested, why would he personally act, heading to the western world?

Naturally, Qin Wentian wouldn't expose him. He smiled, "Senior is right. Oh, by the way senior, this junior has already mastered the Undying Scripture. Does senior still have any more techniques roughly on the same level as the Undying Scripture? Why don't you pass them on to me so this junior can have some ability to protect myself?"

The old man's face was filled with black lines. He glared at Qin Wentian. Why did he pick such a shameless successor?

Staring at the look of contempt in the crazy old freak's eyes, Qin Wentian laughed. He also didn't mind. He continued, "It's fine if you passed them onto Youhuang too."

“Scram.” The crazy old freak spoke. Did this rascal think that he was an idiot? What was the difference between passing to him or Beiming Youhuang?

“It’s okay if senior doesn’t have any more heaven-defying techniques. Oh, senior you handed a mysterious black rod to this junior in the past. The black rod can be considered pretty good to use, but Youhuang doesn’t have any treasures like this. Senior, why don’t you give her some…” Qin Wentian continued to be thick-skinned and requested for treasures. Since this existence that has been alive for countless years finally appeared, if he didn’t take the chance to properly swindle more things out from this old man, wouldn’t that be too much of a deficit?

Chapter 1945: Ambition of the Western World

The crazy old man glared at Qin Wentian. This bastard truly knows how to extort people by taking advantage of their weaknesses.

"I got my own plans, you don't need to care about it." The crazy old man coldly spoke.

"That's only natural. What sort of character is senior? Most probably, the present you would give to Youhuang, wouldn't be any weaker than the god slaying rod." Qin Wentian smiled in a somewhat shameless manner. However, if Beiming Youhuang could really obtain a treasure that's better than the God Slaying Rod, what does it matter even if he was a little shameless? His skin was just so thick.

Within the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, when Beiming Youhuang saw the crazy old man, her beautiful eyes flickered with a strange look. He was as sloppy as before, and looked like a freaky old man. There was truly no way for her to match the image of this old man with that of the Grim Reaper which struck fear in the hearts of countless people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. She simply felt strange.

"Youhuang, senior has promised to give you a treasure. Why don't you hurry up and thank senior?" Upon seeing that Beiming Youhuang was stunned, he hurriedly reminded.

Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes blinked, she cast an astonished glance at Qin Wentian only to see Qin Wentian winking at her. She immediately understood. Although she felt somewhat speechless, she still softly greeted, "It has been so many years. Senior's glory is as magnificent as the past."

"Glory? What glory do I have? Seems like you have turned bad after mixing with this fellow for so long." The crazy old man spoke as he looked at Beiming Youhuang. This caused an awkward look to appear on her face as a bitter smile flickered in her eyes while she glared at Qin Wentian.

"How's your cultivation of the Death Scripture?" The old man asked.

"Not too bad." Beiming Youhuang replied. She also didn't know which level has she cultivated the Death Scripture to.

"Mhm, the Death Scripture is a peerless deity-level art. Although it isn't as good as his Undying Scripture when it comes to protecting your life, but it is stronger compared to the Undying Scripture in all other aspects. This is why I passed him the Undying Scripture because I knew his talent couldn't make it, and he needed some measures to protect his life." The old man impolitely spoke, not giving Qin Wentian any face at all.

Qin Wentian smiled bitterly, he was somewhat speechless. The crazy old freak passed the Undying Scripture to him because his talent was too low and was prone to dying?

As for whether his talent could make it or not, most probably, everyone else in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would have a different opinion than the crazy old freak.

"During these years, did this brat bully you?" The crazy old freak asked. Beiming Youhuang's eyes flashed, she then turned to Qin Wentian. This sentence was a little…it hinted at there was something between her and Qin Wentian. For a time, she didn't know how to reply.

"Bully?" Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines. This question…

"How could I possibly bully Youhuang? Senior, you are thinking too much." Qin Wentian smiled.

"No?" Beiming Youhuang glanced at Qin Wentian.

"Eh…" Qin Wentian blinked.

"Hehe, you can tell me. I will punish him for you." The crazy old freak stared at Qin Wentian, causing Qin Wentian to shiver. When he was trapped inside the forbidden grounds in the Darknorth Mountains, this old freak precisely looked at him with such a gaze.

Although Qin Wentian was already a heavenly deity right now, but when facing a crazy old man who even dared to threaten the western world, he was still way too weak.

"It's fine, I don't think he bullied me." Beiming Youhuang smiled. In an instant, the ice seemed to have melted. She looked extremely beautiful when she smiled.

Staring at these two juniors, the crazy old man nodded his head. He took out a pearl that shone with a resplendent light. There seemed to be incredible amounts of energy contained within it. Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang could both sense that within the bead, the energy contained within was none other than soul energy.

The crazy old freak was precisely proficient in soul energy. Even the God Slaying Rod targeted the soul. Most probably, this treasure pearl was the same as well.

"Take it with you and find some time to refine it. Don't let it down by your lack of effort." The crazy old freak passed the pearl over to Beiming Youhuang. His gaze was somewhat heavy. When Qin Wentian saw his expression, he silently marveled. Seems like this treasure was truly extraordinary or this crazy old freak wouldn't be so serious. Given his strength, most probably he wouldn't even care about ordinary divine weapons.

"Mhm." Beiming Youhuang seriously nodded. She carefully kept the pearl. From the expression of the crazy old freak, she also could sense that this pearl was extraordinary. She wanted to live up to it. Most probably, this pearl was exceedingly valuable to the crazy old freak.

“Bring me into the Heaven Vault for a walk. The two of you shall accompany me. But I don’t want anyone else sniffing around.” The crazy old freak spoke. He could already sense that many people were currently moving here.

“Right.” Qin Wentian nodded. The crazy old freak stayed in seclusion in the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Empire for countless years and must have long gotten used to loneliness. Only an extremely few people have met him before. His personality would naturally be a little strange. To the crazy old freak, he was only acquainted with Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. He wasn’t interested in any others.

Qin Wentian used his divine sense to send a voice transmission to everyone in the surroundings. They understood and dispersed. Although they were very curious about this legendary character, but since the Grim Reaper didn’t want to meet them, they couldn’t do anything about it too. They only felt that it was a pity.

Since the crazy old freak wanted to enter the Heaven Vault, Qin Wentian naturally wouldn’t have any objections. He and Youhuang accompanied the old freak, they ascended the ancient heaven vault pathway and arrived at the boundless starry space of the nine heavenly layers.

The three of them slowly flew through space with the old freak in the lead. His hands were held behind his back as he inclined his head, staring up at the boundless constellations. His heart was filled with emotions as he mumbled, “How magnificent.”

Even for the powerful him, he has never gone to the nine heavenly layers in person before. Although he had such thoughts, he didn’t really execute them. At this moment, he was thinking that given his current cultivation base, if he didn’t enter the Heaven Vault, how long would it take for him to fly all the way up to the nine heavenly layers by virtue of his own strength?

During these years, he has been protecting Ancient Azure Mystic and only left the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms rarely. There was basically no chance for him to explore the starry space.

“I heard that you obtained Godking Xi’s inheritance?”

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded. “This Heaven Vault is something Godking Xi’s body and will transformed into.”

“He was an awesome character. Back then, I had an agreement with him and we wanted to explore the starry space. But later on, because of what happened to Azure Mystic, I couldn’t make it. I didn’t expect that now, our wishes back then were fulfilled halfway. Only I came here, but he is already gone.” The old freak’s voice was filled with melancholy. His gaze seemed capable of piercing through space, wanting to see the people in the past.

At this moment, he suddenly turned and glanced at Youhuang. His aged eyes suddenly became boundlessly deep as his gaze was filled with doting love. He spoke in a soft voice, “If you have any difficulties on the path of cultivation, you can consult her in your mind. She would be able to answer your questions.”

Beiming Youhuang was somewhat bewildered but she still nodded her head. The person this old freak was referring to was none other than her master. Her master was an extremely powerful heavenly deity from Ancient Azure Mystic and her ancient will has entered Beiming Youhuang's mind.

"Senior, I've read about the world-destroying battle from ancient records but there are still many things that are unclear. Back then, what happened exactly?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Let's not mention the past. But there's an enemy you have to destroy no matter what. Everything that happened back then was because of them." The old freak spoke.

"Who?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed.

"The western world." The old freak glanced at the entrance of the Heaven Vault as he spoke. Qin Wentian's body trembled. So, the main culprit of the world-destroying battle in Ancient Azure Mystic back then was actually the western world? The old freak could ignore the others who participated in the battle, except for the western world, they must be destroyed for sure. From this, one could tell how much influence the western world had in the world-destroying battle back then. Maybe, their involvement was the key to everything.

And all of these weren't recorded in the ancient records of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

"Why did they do so?" Qin Wentian asked. Although there were many observation points in the ancient records, the old freak was someone who had personally experienced that after all. His words were then the truth.

Qin Wentian had never believed that the western world was a place of hope and mercy. If not, why would they try to force him to handover the Heaven Vault? They got the Qiankun Sect and Nine Heavenly Mystical Palace to pull out from his alliance and got the experts from the various hegemonic powers to gather outside the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect. They only needed to control everything from behind. What a brilliant method, they didn't even need to personally act.

But even if they are not merciful, Qin Wentian found it hard to imagine that they would allow an entire layer of immortal realms to be destroyed. The number of lives lost were countless but they did so anyway. The buddhist-path power the western world, was behind all of that.

"The buddhist path speaks about karma, the law of cause and effect. They also speak about faith. Everything was for the sake of transcending. Back then in that era, there was a person in the western world who was extremely close to the Transcendence Realm." The old freak slowly spoke. He then continued, "Ever since the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were split into the eight great regions, the eight godkings all sought transcendence. Their methods of pursuing the Transcendence Realm differed, and in that particular era, for unknown reasons, only that godking in the western world remained in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Hence, his ambitions naturally grew. He wanted to become the ultimate king of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and make the thirty-three immortal realms spread his faith, wanting to garner their faith all on himself as everyone in the universe had to believe in and worship him."

“Hence, he incited many wars to reach his goals. Azure Mystic ended up being destroyed, and the various great regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms suffered heavy casualties with many hegemonic powers being exterminated. But he most probably didn’t imagine that he would also be heavily injured. Hence, that calamity was a lose-lose situation. The entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and our Azure Mystic, were losers.

The expression of the old freak turned cold as he continued, “And now in the present, he is about to exit his seclusion. Seems like his injury from the past must have mostly recovered by now. His goal should still be the same as the past. Hence, the Heaven Vault you have is extremely important to him. It should be a key part of his plans.”

Qin Wentian’s expression froze, he didn’t think that there were so many hidden reasons behind this.

The existence the old freak was speaking off, was actually one of the godkings that has existed since the split of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?

The Universe Region was the only region that was completely unified and they had four other lower worlds (immortal realms) in their control. However, the old freak was saying that this wasn’t their ultimate goal. The ultimate goal of the western world was to conquer all the thirty-three immortal realms, brainwashing everyone in the universe to believe in the buddha dao!

But once, there was actually someone who could injure the godking in the western world heavily, delaying his plan for countless years. From this, one could very well imagine how powerful the Imperishable Heaven Lord was back then.

Even the saints of the buddhist path couldn’t see through fate or into the future.

And now, the storm was here once again. From the words of the crazy old freak, it seems like the current peace wouldn’t last long at all.

Chapter 1946: Heaven Lord's Treasure

That existence in the western world actually had such ambitions. Controlling the Heaven Vault would allow him to realize his ambitions easier.

In that case, in truth, no matter if the experts from the hegemonic powers went to pay a visit to the western world or not, the western world would have acted sooner or later. Maybe, they simply used the visit by the other experts as an excuse to act. In fact, they also only stood behind the scenes.

"That existence in the Universe Region, how strong was he back then?" Qin Wentian asked. Although he fought with many heavenly deities before and knew that in this realm, the disparity between cultivators could be extremely great, but he had no idea how powerful someone who could earn the title of a godking was. Had that existence reached the ultimate point of his heavenly daos?

From what he knew, two out of the eight godkings didn't transcend. If not, the Godking of Time wouldn't be traveling to the future to search for the way to transcend and Godking Xi wouldn't have failed, transforming his body into the Heaven Vault to aid the latter generations. Clearly, both of them failed to take that final step. Or to better put it, whether that final step existed or not, is still unknown.

The only person Qin Wentian could think of was that mysterious young man in white who shattered a constellation with a single finger. From the start until now, he had no idea what the white-robed young man's cultivation base was.

The crazy old freak glanced at the Heaven Vault, seemingly lost in his past memories. After that, he softly spoke, "He is extremely strong. There are many supreme great daos in the Buddhist Sect that contain unfathomable abilities far exceeding your imaginations. For example, karma, reincarnation and samsara, the past, the future. Their daos are all extremely fearsome."

Qin Wentian's expression froze. The western world was actually so terrifying?

"I once met an immensely powerful existence before but I have no idea how strong is he exactly. However, shouldn't people at that level already transcend worldliness? Why would they still bother with fighting over power and benefits?" Qin Wentian was extremely puzzled. From what he saw, that mysterious white-robed young man basically didn't care about any power struggle at all. Even the headmaster of the sacred academy also chose to ignore matters in the external world, focusing on guiding people for their cultivation paths.

"I've already told you earlier that the Buddhist Sect cultivates karma, and the collection of faith is very important to them. Faith is a mysterious substance which they use to cultivate and from what I know, that existence wanted to dominate the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms because the more people that has faith in him and worship him, the higher the chance he has to use the energy gained to reach the Transcendence Realm." The old freak spoke lightly, causing Qin Wentian's expression to freeze. So this was the case, the reason behind this was for his own cultivation. But if this really was the reason, the ambition of that existence wouldn't merely stop here.

No wonder the ancient records in the sacred academy stated that the Buddhist Sect had very tight control over governance. The people in there all believed in the buddhist path and in fact, the four lower world immortal realms controlled by them had been baptized by buddhist faith too. The buddhist dao there was supreme and lofty, unsurpassed by anything else.

There were no other region in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that could be compared to the Buddhist Sect with regards to control and governance.

The western world wanted everyone in all the immortal realms to believe in the Buddhist Path so that godking existence would be able to transcend.

After speaking with the old freak, Qin Wentian felt pressure as heavy as a mountain boring down on him. What he has to face wasn't simply the experts from all the other hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The western world was in that mix as well. In addition, the western world had a godking existence, the western world was the strongest place in the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and nobody knew how many heavenly deities they had.

The mysterious and unknown western world was something he had to face. Leaving aside their coveting of the Heaven Vault, just with the destruction of Ancient Azure Mystic alone made it so that they are already unforgivable. An entire world was destroyed, the impact was unimaginable. The Buddhist Path spoke of karma, but why weren't the buddhist cultivators in the western world afraid that karma would come back to bite them from behind?

“Senior, what level is your cultivation now?” Qin Wentian asked. The old freak glanced at Qin Wentian but he didn't reply.

“This Heaven Vault connects this place to the nine heavenly layers. In the future, senior can cultivate here and I believe there would be a day where you transcend everything.” Qin Wentian smiled.

“You want me to stay here to protect you?” The old freak calmly spoke. Qin Wentian had an embarrassed look on his face upon having his thoughts laid bare. He laughed, “Our enemies are simply too strong. If senior isn't around and if that godking from the Universe Region recovers and makes a come back, how would I be his opponent? It's fine if something happened to me but senior has to think about Youhuang.”

Beiming Youhuang rolled her eyes at Qin Wentian. This fellow was using her as an excuse. However, she felt somewhat funny now that she has seen this side of Qin Wentian. Most probably, only this old freak could handle him. Back then when he entered the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain, Qin Wentian must have suffered a lot before he gained the inheritance.

“What? You want me to protect your woman for you?” The old freak glared at Qin Wentian.

“Eh…” Qin Wentian started, he snuck a glance at Beiming Youhuang only to see that she also had a frozen expression on her face. She exchanged a mutual glance at Qin Wentian before a trace of panic flashed in her eyes as she shifted her gaze elsewhere. Her dainty white hands clutched the corners of her sleeves involuntarily. She who had always been as cool as ice, actually panicked due to the words from the old freak.

Qin Wentian also felt somewhat awkward. Luckily, the old freak spoke at this moment. “I only came here to take a look at the Heaven Vault. She is no longer around…what is the point of me staying here. I’ll be leaving now. Take good care of Youhuang.”

After he spoke, the crazy old freak transformed into after-images and disappeared from this location.

“Senior!” Qin Wentain called out but the figure of the old freak had already vanished in his vision. His speed was fast to an incredible extent. With such speed alone, he was qualified to be above the other experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

The resplendent starlight cascaded on the two of them. Here, only Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang remained. The atmosphere was extremely awkward due to the words spoken by the crazy old freak before he left.

Qin Wentian gazed at Beiming Youhuang only to see her turning her body slightly to the side, not looking at him. No one knew what she was thinking.

“Mhm… Youhuang, will you cultivate here in the Heaven Vault or go outside to the divine sect?” Qin Wentian asked.

“What about you?” Beiming Youhuang asked.

“I’ll go out first to take a look.” Qin Wentian spoke. Right now, he didn’t know what the situation in the external world was like. At his current level, a cultivation session wasn’t something that could end in a day or two. If he wanted to improve, he would need a very long time.

“I’ll follow you.” Beiming Youhuang spoke lightly. These words didn’t contain any hidden meaning but when she thought about the words spoken by the old freak earlier, Beiming Youhuang couldn’t help but feel a little weird. Seeing that Qin Wentian was looking at her, traces of panic flashed in her eyes again as she averted her gaze and stepped forward, leading the way out.

“Allow me.” Qin Wentian moved forward, his spatial energy enveloped the two of them as they teleported straight to the exit of the Heaven Vault.

When they returned to the central divine city of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, he spoke to Beiming Youhuang, “Youhuang, senior has given you an extraordinary treasure. Go and try to refine it and see what it does exactly.”

“Mhm.” Beiming Youhuang nodded lightly. After that, she left and headed to her own residence. She went to her cultivation chambers and sat down, as her beautiful eyes stared ahead in a daze, like she was thinking of something. After a long time, she finally took out the treasured pearl and tried to use her methods to refine it. However, no matter what type of technique or methods she used, she discovered that she couldn’t refine the pearl.

“This pearl can only be refined by your soul.” A voice rang out in her mind. Beiming Youhuang’s beautiful eyes flashed, “Teacher, are you acquainted with that senior?”

Silence was in her mind, the ancient will of the heavenly deity didn’t reply to this. The ancient will then stated, “This pearl is a treasure used by her in the past. You have to make good use of it.”

“Her?” Beiming Youhuang’s gaze flickered with contemplation before her heart shuddered. She understood who her teacher was referring to.

The Imperishable Heaven Lord!

This pearl was actually a treasure of the Imperishable Heaven Lord. No wonder the old freak looked so solemn when he handed this to her.

“The senior has gratitude to me, it’s not going to be easy for me to repay him.” Beiming Youhuang sighed. Her teacher didn’t reply. After that, Beiming Youhuang began to use her soul to refine this pearl and indeed, the pearl contained a boundless amount of terrifying soul power which gradually seeped into her own soul.

As the fusion continued, she could faintly sense a surge of extremely powerful soul strength existence. This soul strength existence automatically enveloped the area, and was causing her soul sense to extend outwards endlessly.

Unknowingly, her soul sense appeared at some of the residences in the distance. In Ye Qianyu’s residence, she saw Jialan Qiuyue, it felt like she could sense Jialan Qiuyue’s soul. At this moment, Jialan Qiuyue who was deep in thought suddenly frowned, she faintly sensed that someone was spying on her but when she swept out with her immortal sense, she couldn’t find anything. This feeling was very strange, it was like someone was prying into her soul.

Beiming Youhuang’s heart pounded. The pearl gradually fused with her soul as her soul energy rose up to a terrifying extent. Her soul sense retreated from Jialan Qiuyue’s soul. Earlier, her actions were unintended, it wasn’t too good to keep spying on her soul. The immensely strong soul power then brought her into Qin Wentian’s residence. When she saw Qin Wentian, a strange thought filled her heart. After that, she tried to send her soul sense into Qin Wentian’s soul.

“Huh?” At this moment, Qin Wentian’s eyes narrowed. After that, a powerful soul force from himself transformed into a sealing energy that blocked the prying attempts of everyone that tried to peer into his soul. After that, his own soul power gushed out, tracing the source only to discover that this foreign soul power seemed to exist everywhere, it was hard to specifically track it down. But despite so, with his persistence and current cultivation base, he still managed to find the source and saw Beiming Youhuang who was currently cultivating.

Upon being caught red-handed, Beiming Youhuang blushed. Qin Wentian started, before laughing and retracting his soul power. He knew that Beiming Youhuang was in the midst of refining the pearl. Seems like this treasure was extraordinary, it could actually silently pry into his soul. This was too terrifying, but at the very least, he had managed to extort a good treasure from that old freak for Beiming Youhuang.

After that, Qin Wentian's figure flashed as he went to look for his grandfather, Luoshen Chuan.

"Wentian, earlier was it Senior Grim Reaper that visited us?" Luoshen Chuan asked.

"Mhm, however his personality is eccentric and has left already. However, I learned of some things after conversing with him." Qin Wentian then told everything he learned about the Universe Region to Luoshen Chuan. Luoshen Chuan's heart trembled when he heard that. He also felt immense pressure.

"Grandfather, we have to purposely release some news and let the people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms learn of the ambitions of the western world. By doing so, the other hegemonic powers would surely feel wariness to continue cooperating with the western world." Qin Wentian spoke. Luoshen Chuan nodded, "Indeed. I will send some people out to accomplish this matter."

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. Although he was the creator of the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, he in truth, didn't really manage things around here. By telling this matter to his grandfather, his grandfather naturally would arrange everything properly!

Chapter 1947: Pressure

After Luoshen Chuan learned of this from Qin Wentian, he instantly got his subordinates to spread the news throughout the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Swiftly after, many people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were in discussion. The western world was actually the main culprit behind the destruction of Ancient Azure Mystic in the past. In addition, their goal was to dominate the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, making everyone in this universe follow the buddhist path. From then on, they could collect the faith energy of the multitude of lives and achieve transcendence.

With regards to the veracity of this news, many people were still suspicious. After all, the western world was a holy ground for those of the buddhist path. The destruction of an entire immortal realm was simply too cruel. It was easier for everyone to accept if the result of that was a clash between the heavenly deities of Azure Mystic and the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. However, if the western world is said to be behind it, that felt like a conspiracy.

However, there were also some who believed it. For example, right now everyone knew that not long ago, the Grim Reaper caused darkness to descend in the holy grounds of the western world. As to what happened exactly, no one knew for sure. But maybe, there might be some things that everyone had no idea of. Hence, the recent theory about the western world wanting to dominate everything might be true.

The attitudes of people of the world weren’t important. What was important was what the hegemonic powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms felt.

In truth, the hegemonic powers did believe in this news. Also, they understood that this news was spread from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, and might be from Qin Wentian personally. In addition, the relationship between Qin Wentian and the Grim Reaper was extremely deep. The Grim Reaper chased away the hegemonic powers for him and even went to threaten the western world. If there was a single person who knew everything about what happened in the past, the Grim Reaper was undoubtedly that person. He was someone who had experienced that personally.

Not only that, the various hegemonic powers did have some understanding about the western world. Hence, when they heard this news, they could join the dots together and believe that this news was true.

The other hegemonic powers also felt a huge sense of pressure. This pressure came from the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect and the western world. Ever since the ban order on Azure Mystic was lifted, there were rumors saying that there would be a great change to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Right now, this change was getting nearer. All of them felt pressed for time and no one could predict what would happen in the future and how this change would affect them. What they could do now was to seize this time and grow stronger.

However, what made them pessimistic was that regardless of any conditions, they weren’t comparable to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect and western world.

The Qin Heavenly Divine Sect depended on the Heaven Vault, they had immense potential. As for the western world, it was simply a colossal.

In a palace of the Qin Clan, Qin Zheng closed his eyes in meditation. At this moment, footsteps rang out. Qin Zheng opened his eyes only to see his wife walking over. After that, she leaned against him and hugged him.

“What’s the matter?” Qin Zheng asked, his voice was filled with tenderness.

“Were we mistaken?” She softly spoke, her words causing Qin Zheng to tremble as he stared at the beauty in his arms. His deep eyes flashed with astonishment. He was extremely clear what sort of person his wife was. If this was the past, she would never have uttered such words. But now, she was actually asking were they mistaken.

“Is the pressure too great?” Qin Zheng stroked her face and asked gently.

“Back then, if we didn’t act against Qin Yuanfeng, maybe the Qin Clan now would be a supreme-tier hegemonic power, causing the others to fear us. In fact, we might have reached an unprecedented height. But now, because of our past actions, our Qin Clan declined so much.” Her voice was low, like she was doubting everything they had done in the past.

“Things have already come to this. Why bother thinking about the past? We weren’t mistaken.” Qin Zheng spoke. How could there be the distinction between right and wrong in the world? One would always consider things from their own perspectives. In that case, what they did back then was right. Because…humans are all selfish by nature.

“But, even up till now, there’s no news of Dang`er. I’m afraid that the Qin Clan might be destroyed in our hands.”

Her son was their pride. Heaven’s Son basked in boundless glory, desiring to reach the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. But ever since Qin Yuanfeng’s son appeared, everything changed. The wheel of history rolled forward, their Qin Clan and Heaven’s Son Qin Dangtian faded into obscurity, no longer the main characters. All their past glory now belonged to that extraordinary young man.

“Dang`er will return, he will definitely come back. You should know where he went, he would surely become stronger than us.” Qin Zheng’s gaze flashed with determination. Qin Dangtian had experienced his darkest days, such torture was enough to cause the dao heart of a heavenly deity to collapse. But even so, he still believed that his son would make a come back and rise up again in the future. All setbacks, all humiliation, all torment would only serve to make Qin Dangtian stronger.

“Mhm.” She nodded as a hint of determination also flashed in her eyes. She also believed this. If Qin Wentian was destined to be her son’s enemy, her son would surely be able to conquer destiny.

Once, Qin Wentian treated Qin Dangtian as his destined enemy but Qin Dangtian disdained it. But now, Qin Zheng and his wife viewed Qin Wentian as the destined enemy of Qin Dangtian. However, would Qin Dangtian really be able to triumph?

The territory of the Che Clan was like a golden-colored world. They were an ancient clan and in a world within the Che Clan's territory, countless experts gathered. This entire world was filled with countless divine formations, where countless people were working on weapon smithing, artifact creation and divine inscription engraving. Everyone was pursuing the acme of perfection in their craft.

This entire world was like a furnace, incomparable energy would gush forth from the sky and ground, acting as natural heat sources, contained by divine formations. Right now, in a certain location of this world, an incomparably brilliant light flashed, it was like an absolutely supreme ultimate divine weapon was being created.

Several figures stood in the air here. They were the Che Clan Leader and numerous heavenly deities. All of them stared ahead as their gazes were sharp.

This world of their Che Clan was a secret of their clan. The people here, other than the heavenly deities, were only allowed to enter and they cannot exit. They would work here for all eternity and their main purpose was to forge a certain divine weapon. But even so, those people who entered did so willingly, they were experts from the various generations of the Che Clan and their passion for artificing burned in their blood, placing all their faith in it. All of them hoped to be able to create an unrivalled supreme ultimate divine weapon in their lifetime, even if the price to pay for the creation was their deaths, they didn't mind it.

The Che Clan was claimed to be the number one artificer aristocrat clan in the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. In truth, this world was forged by their ancestors, all for the purpose of forging a single divine weapon. If the people of the world knew about this, they would surely be filled with fear. What sort of divine weapon required the work of countless generations? How terrifying must the divine weapon be?

"Increase the work speed." The Che Clan Leader spoke. The eyes of the deities around him gleamed with sharpness, all of them understood why their leader gave this command.

The Che Clan has already completely offended Qin Wentian. The western world was also extremely ambitious, they couldn't depend on anyone, it was too dangerous.

The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would soon welcome a great chance. This future storm that would occur might even result in completely annihilation even for hegemonic powers. Everyone from the hegemonic powers could sense this. During the past few hundred years, too many things happened in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Even ordinary cultivators could sense that change was coming, let alone them.

Naturally, the experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were all doing their best to prepare for this storm. They would give it their all to survive, or maybe, grow even stronger.

Not only for the Qin Clan, the Che Clan was preparing too. Those hegemonic powers with deep foundations were all in preparation. Back then, in that deity-level battle in the Qin Clan, although the various hegemonic powers sent experts there, it was impossible for them to show all their trump cards. All of them naturally held some secrets back.

Mystic Region, Ziwei Divine Court.

Within the divine court, seven heavenly deities were gathered here today. These were the peak experts of the Ziwei Divine Court. The sect leader was a middle-aged man with the title Ziwei Star Sovereign. He had a purple crown on his head and exuded imposingness.

At this moment, the Ziwei Star Sovereign was staring at a young man with a pale face that sat opposite him. “Yue Changkong, where have you been during all these days?”

“Star Sovereign, don’t you already know the answer? Why bother asking?” Yue Changkong inclined his head and stared at the Ziwei Star Sovereign while calmly replying.

“Impudent. Yue Changkong, should this be your attitude when speaking to the Star Sovereign?” A heavenly deity berated. Back then, Yue Changkong devoured his master and replaced him. In order to avoid the loss of a heavenly deity, the Ziwei Star Sovereign decided to accept Yue Changkong. After all, a heavenly deity was of immense important to any hegemonic powers. It was impossible for them to give up on one just like that.

But the current Yue Changkong already caused the Ziwei Star Sovereign to feel some threat. It was more and more difficult to control Yue Changkong. From what he knew, ever since the Divine Ox Clan was exterminated in the Desolate Region, Yue Changkong had vanished. And after that, countless lives in the Desolate Region mysteriously vanished.

The Ziwei Star Sovereign glanced at Yue Changkong, his gaze was cold as he spoke, “Why is the restriction energy I placed on you growing weaker? Are you trying to remove it?”

“Trying?” Yue Changkong mockingly laughed. After that, his body disappeared as black fog manifested. After that, a terrifying destructive might was generated from the black fog, as though it was capable of destroying everything. The restriction shattered almost instantly. Upon sensing the might of that attack, the eyes of the Ziwei Star Sovereign narrowed. After that, the black fog vanished as Yue Changkong’s body materialized again. Yue Changkong was laughing as he stared at the Star Sovereign.

Back then, although he has accepted Yue Changkong, but for the sake of controlling him, the Ziwei Star Sovereign left a powerful restriction on Yue Changkong's body. But now, that restriction was shattered effortlessly by Yue Changkong.

“How did you do it?” The Ziwei Star Sovereign coldly asked.

Yue Changkong didn't reply but a mocking smile could be seen on his pale face. After that, a giant face manifested behind him.

“Your party tricks can only be considered a minor dao. You wished to restrict me with that?” That giant face sneered. However, its voice was different from Yue Changkong. The heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court all froze when they saw this scene, before turning their gazes back to Yue Changkong.

“What technique is this?” The Ziwei Star Sovereign asked icily.

“This isn't a technique. He is a real existence.” Yue Changkong slowly spoke.

“Is he transformed from a part of your spirit?”

“No.” Yue Changkong shook his head. “As my cultivation progressed, he was suddenly born. He said that he is me from a previous life.”

The hearts of the heavenly deities all trembled. They could feel that Yue Changkong was now different from the past. He actually had a past life?

“Who?” The Ziwei Star Sovereign asked.

“You guys are just a bunch of ant-like heavenly deities. From now onwards, I will be in control of the Ziwei Divine Court.” That giant face sinisterly spoke.

“I'm the one in control.” Yue Changkong spoke in a glacial tone.

“What's the difference between you and me?” The giant face replied.

“You are you. I am I, Yue Changkong.” Yue Changkong's tone was filled with a hint of stubbornness.

“What was his name in the past?” The expression of the Ziwei Star Sovereign drastically changed. He stared ahead, that giant face was also looking at him. From it, the Ziwei Star Sovereign could feel a strong sense of pressure.

Chapter 1948: Annihilation of a Hegemonic Power

“Who am I?” That gigantic face smiled evilly. After that, its mouth began to expand, larger and larger. In the air, this immensely gigantic face caused people to feel terror. Black fog manifested around it before the face suddenly decomposed into countless heads that appeared in all directions, all laughing madly at the same time.

“Why don’t you guess who I am?” The countless heads roared at the same time. The heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court all felt their hearts pounding. At this moment, they felt like they were in an illusion, they were inside a world of human-devouring heads.

The Ziwei Star Sovereign frowned. A past life? He was running through a list of ancient characters in his mind. After that, a legendary character appeared in his mind as his heart pounded violently. Initially, he could still remain calm but right now, the calmness in his eyes turned to fear.

“Have you guessed it?” The heads laughed. “In that case, will you choose to submit or become my nutrients?”

Only to see Ziwei Star Sovereign standing up. Under the shocked gazes of the other heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court, he actually bowed to the countless heads. “Ziwei Star Sovereign pays my respects to the Divine Lord. I’m willing to follow your orders.”

“Divine Lord?” Those heavenly deities had a look of contemplation on their faces after they heard this name. After that, their hearts trembled as a look of disbelief appeared on their faces. Yue Changkong’s past life was him?

Their hearts pounded as they stood up and bowed, “We pay our respects to the Divine Lord.”

“The Divine Lord no longer exists. My body in the current world is him. You all should pay your respects to him.” The heads laughed evilly, as they stared at Yue Changkong. Only to see Yue Changkong calmly sitting there. He didn’t know who he was in the past. Earlier when this fellow popped up, it actually gave him a fright but he gradually got used to it. In fact, he also learned many things. He didn’t disdain his previous life’s identity but he was still Yue Changkong. In this lifetime, he had to be the one to control everything.

The heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court stared at Yue Changkong with complicated expressions. However, they were all heavenly deity characters and their states of heart made it so that they could quickly accept this reality. From past stories, they knew how terrifyingly evil this existence before their eyes was. That giant face might really be able to devour them all.

As for resisting the giant face, this thought flickered through the Ziwei Star Sovereign’s mind for a second before he extinguished it. He might be powerful but he knew he had no hope against this evil god. Since the giant face has awakened, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were in for a calamity.

"Your title is the Ziwei Star Sovereign. In that case, you all can refer to me as the Moon God." Yue Changkong calmly spoke. The heavenly deities then nodded and bowed, "We pay our respects to the Moon God."

"Mhm." Yue Changkong nodded. "Make your preparations. It's time to collect the debts in the Mystic Region."

The heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court felt their hearts trembling. Was Yue Changkong planning to act against the Great Devil Divine Palace and Heavenly Deity Mountain?

At this moment, the Ziwei Star Sovereign felt many complicated emotions in his heart. This baleful god, Divine Lord's reincarnation body actually appeared in the Ziwei Divine Court of their Mystic Region? No one knew whether this was a blessing or a catastrophe.

The Ziwei Divine Court would become much stronger than before, there was no doubt about this. However, the reputation of the Divine Lord was simply too terrifying. No one knew what he would cause the Ziwei Divine Court to become.

"Moon God, this time who should we first act against?" The Ziwei Star Sovereign asked.

"The Heavenly Deity Mountain is weaker, we shall move against them first." Yue Changkong calmly spoke. During these years in the Mystic Region, the three hegemonic powers had always been in conflict and many clashes had erupted before.

Now that Yue Changkong was controlling the Ziwei Divine Court, he was finally prepared to act against the Heavenly Deity Mountain.

"Send them a letter telling them that our Ziwei Divine Court will be paying a visit to the Heavenly Deity Mountain. By doing so, they would surely be nervous and wary and would summon all their deities back with no exception." Yue Changkong's eyes gleamed with coldness. In this era, many experts rose up. Once, the Heaven's Son was someone he had to look up to. And now, his enemy Qin Wentian was the controller of the Heaven Vault and had the Grim Reaper's protection.

What about him then?

Although a specter from his past life manifested, he himself still has to grow stronger. He went to the Desolate Region and devoured countless experts. Now, it was time for him to devour some deity-level characters or the nutrients wouldn't be enough.

The heavenly deities from the Ziwei Divine Court felt their hearts trembling. Sending a letter first to cause the Heavenly Deity Mountain to feel wary so they would gather all their experts. What a ruthless method, this indeed matched up to his style of doing things from the legends.

No one knew what terrifying effect would occur to the Mystic Region because of this conversation. The change in Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms started from the Desolate Region, to the Heaven Region, and was now extending to the other regions.

After several days, a letter was sent to the Heavenly Deity Mountain. The Ziwei Star Sovereign would lead the heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court to pay a visit there. After receiving the letter, the Heavenly Deity Mountain acted like a great enemy was coming. They mobilized their guards and gathered all the heavenly deities back, preparing to face this storm.

At this moment, the Heavenly Deity Mountain had no idea what the letter meant to them.

After the Great Devil Divine Palace received this news, they also paid attention to the movements of the Heavenly Deity Mountain. Was the Ziwei Divine Court declaring war?

However, this matter didn’t create too great a commotion in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms as the attention of a majority was still focused on the western world and the Heaven Vault. Although a dispute between hegemonic powers in the Mystic Region could be considered a major thing, but it was not so significant when placed in perspective. Now, people would at most only take note of it as they watched on.

At this moment, no one would be able to predict what would happen next.

Qin Wentian wasn’t idle. He naturally understood that the hegemonic powers still had trump cards they had yet to display. In addition to the pressure from the western world, he had to grow stronger as quickly as possible. In addition, he cannot be the only one who grew stronger.

At this moment within the Heaven Vault, many of the palaces and residences built on the constellations shone with a dazzling glow, each of them was like a separate dimension. Qin Wentian was within his residence and he was radiating dao might. Motes of light gathered around him, gradually merging into an independent minor world.

Ancient words manifested from him, imprinting themselves into the minor world. The ancient words contained the dao and changed the heavenly laws of this world.

“I don’t need to maintain it with my energy. Right now, this minor world is already stable and can automatically operate itself.” Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. After that, he stepped out and moved towards another location.

Gradually, many of such minor worlds appeared in many of the residences built on the constellations. When Luoshen Chuan, the Kun Sovereign and the other heavenly deities entered and sensed the fluctuations inside, all of them felt shock in their hearts.

Now, Qin Wentian has already reached the stage where he needn't maintain the minor worlds he created with his own energy, they could operate automatically on their own and last forever. The heavenly laws of the minor worlds were changed by him, the flow of time differed from the external world.

"Wentian, what is the time ratio inside?" Luoshen Chuan walked towards Qin Wentian as he asked.

"Roughly only about a hundred times, this is my current limit." Qin Wentian spoke. Luoshen Chuan nodded. A hundred times was already very impressive. In the future when they cultivate inside here for a hundred years, only a year of time would have passed on the outside. This, to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect, was something extremely important.

"Awesome." The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign walked over. "The change in time ratio is of limited use to old fellows like us. But this is extremely valuable to the current Qin Heavenly Divine Sect."

Qin Wentian nodded his head lightly. The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign and the other heavenly deities were existences that have lived for countless years. If they wanted to grow stronger, it wasn't so simple just by spending more time. Their talent and comprehension abilities limited them. In truth, although Qin Wentian's ability was rare, there were also such secret realms created by some peak-level hegemonic powers that have the same effect. His inspiration for doing this must be from the Time Realm he went to during the convention of the myriad realms. And now, these minor worlds belonged solely to the Qin Heavenly Divine Sect but the Time Realm was shared among the hegemonic powers in the Mystic Region.

For example, for some of Qin Wentian's close friends like the exceptionally young Jun Mengchen, Little Rascal, Beiming Youhuang, they were different from the old fellows. Their comprehension abilities were very strong and what they lacked now was time. Hence, these minor worlds with different time ratios were extremely valuable right now.

"I'm planning to create more of such cultivation secret realms. If you all have any requirements, feel free to tell them to me." Qin Wentian smiled. The people around him nodded. Although right now all of them could feel immense pressure, they also saw the light of hope.

Everyone smiled casually. But at this moment, Luoshen Chuan suddenly frowned, furrowing his brows.

"Grandfather, is something wrong?" Qin Wentian discovered the strange expression of Luoshen Chuan as he asked.

Luoshen Chuan lifted his head and stared at Qin Wentian. Just now, he received a voice transmission and learned of a shocking news.

"The Heavenly Deity Mountain has been completely annihilated." Luoshen Chuan spoke. Qin Wentian's heart trembled. Even with his current status, when he heard a hegemonic power was completely annihilated, he still felt shocked in his heart.

“The Ziwei Divine Court?” Qin Wentian asked. Some time ago, there were rumors saying that the Ziwei Divine Court wanted to pay a visit to the Heavenly Deity Mountain.

“Mhm.” Luoshen Chuan nodded. At that time when news of the visit circulated, no one expected that the Heavenly Deity Mountain would actually be completely annihilated.

“What does the Ziwei Divine Court want to do exactly?” The Heaven Devouring Demon Sovereign frowned, feeling somewhat puzzled. Right now, all the hegemonic powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were wary of the Heaven Vault and western world. The Ziwei Divine Court actually chose to destroy the Heavenly Deity Mountain at such a time? Things were very strange.

“I have no idea. The news stated that the divine mountain of the Heavenly Deity Mountain was razed to flat ground, and the ground is littered with countless corpses, becoming a place of absolute death. Not a single person survived.” Luoshen Chuan slowly spoke. Qin Wentian’s expression flashed. For some reason, the image of a person flashed through his mind. That person was none other than Yue Changkong!

Yue Changkong was precisely one of the heavenly deities of the Ziwei Divine Court. No one else could be clearer than Qin Wentian with regards to how sinister and scheming Yue Changkong could be.

The ‘Yue’ in Yue Changkong literally can be translated into ‘moon.’

Chapter 1949: Terrifying Potential

The destruction of the Heavenly Deity Mountain caused a huge commotion in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. No one expected that the letter sent by the Ziwei Divine Court would actually bring about such a terrifying ending.
